

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - LIST OF PRELIMINARY ROUNDS

The first thing you need to do is to go to the basketball court and play ball with Zhou Junxing, because it's a bit cold, so An Xingyue didn't follow them out, so she and Su Zhiqing were chatting in their seats.

Wang Ya came into the classroom before, but also peeked into the classroom a few times, see a group of rabbits really did not like before, once the classroom as a KTV box, think the future days are very promising.

The first three will have ten extra points in the entrance exam, when they received this news, the school hierarchy was stunned, ten extra points means that when the time comes, there is a possibility that their own The school's senior management was stunned to receive this news.

But no matter what, it will not help, because the list has already been submitted, and can not be modified.

Wang Ya thought of this and felt a bit of pity, because their class language second only to An Xingyue Mo Zhicheng did not participate in this competition, if they had participated, this time five people will certainly have Mo Zhicheng a seat.

And in the end, although Mo Zhicheng can not get the first, but certainly can enter the top three, this is Wang Ya's honey confidence in Mo Zhicheng.

"Ahem, everyone stop for a moment, I'll borrow your time between classes to announce the five participants selected by our school for this language competition." Wang Ya put the paper he was holding on the podium and then clapped his hands to attract the attention of the people in the classroom.

"Although our Class 7 didn't register as many students as other classes, our classmate An Xingyue got the ticket to Kyoto for the semi-finals with the first place in this exam, so let's applaud and praise An Xingyue."

"Popping" in the classroom of class seven resounded a loud applause, startled the people walking outside, but many people were attracted by this and just stood in the corridor to listen to the sound of class seven.

"Wow, worthy of the first place, even this school out of the question can take the first."

"I go, why when I do the questions, I can't even read the questions, but the goddess can take the first place."

"Hee hee, this is the difference between you and the goddess."

"The water and the earth will serve the lady, this time the topic is really super difficult, worthy of being able to tame the school bully."

Wang Ya looked at everyone so give face, very happy now, then pressed down with his hand, said: "Everyone stop for a moment, to express your admiration for Starry Moon students, can be published later, now everyone listen to me first in addition to Starry Moon students and those students also selected."

Wang Ya flipped the document in his hand and said without haste, "In addition to Starry Moon, there are Ji Yiyan from our sophomore class (1), Huo Feng from our sophomore class (20), Feng Yaxin and Li Xianxian from our freshman class (2). Because our classmate Mo Zhicheng didn't register for the preliminary round, while classmate Night Xiu Chen was not selected, I regret about that."

Wang Ya stared at Mo Zhicheng, who was sitting at the back of the classroom, and said with a bit of gnashing of teeth, and then when he was talking about Night Xiu Chen, he had a bit more of a sense of drama in, after all, he knew that Night Xiu Chen wanted to participate in the competition with An Xingyue, but now his wish has been dashed.

But it's not surprising, anyway, night Xiu Chen's language score compared to his science scores is a bit unimpressive, not to mention that many of the topics this time are extracurricular, Wang Ya does not think that night Xiu Chen is the kind of person who likes to read these literary works in private.

"Well, I will take up so much time, if you are interested in participating students, then you can go to the bulletin board, where some information about the participating students will be pasted." Wang Ya left these words before he left.

"So, why did Old Wang take up our time to talk to us?!" A student asked out such a question after Wang Ya left.

"I guess he wanted to tell us in advance."

"No, I see that the list has already been posted on the bulletin board, so it's not really telling in advance."

"I guess because An Xingyue students were selected, so deliberately come to say it."

"And I guess it's still showing off."

"It is also possible, after all, the old king before because we have been looked down on by other class teachers, now the class came a great god, and the school bully is also ready to re-enter the honor roll, so the old king should be very want to show off."

"How big a person na, still like a child, love to show off."
