

THE STARS ARE ORIGINALLY A PAIR - BEFORE THE FINAL EXAM

What Wang Ya heard when he walked to the door of the classroom was a group of bunnies inside talking about tomorrow's final exam, praying and spitting all kinds of prayers.

"Ahem, seeing everyone so energetic, then tomorrow's final exam is certainly no problem, everyone cheer ah, after all, your exam results are estimated to be linked to the New Year bonus." Wang Ya walked into the classroom, patrolled the week, said thievingly.

After so long dealing with, since the second year of high school, everyone is like an enlightened that, understand a lot, recently was complained about a lot less, this year's bonus he should have it, and this semester their class someone has been taking the first grade it.

"Old class, can you divulge the difficulty of the topic this time ah? Let us have a mental preparation."

"The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of how hard it will be.

"That's right, now the heart has no bottom ah."

The people of class seven have been infected since the big brother changed and are constantly changing, if it was before, how would they care about this so-called exam? After all, it is some people who can turn in a blank paper.

"You all say it is the province's general examination, that the topic will not be very simple, but you can also rest assured that the topic will not be very difficult, it is estimated that the topic is about the same difficulty as the college entrance examination, anyway, I know is that some of the people who issued the papers are issued by the college entrance examination paper."

Wang Ya thought about it and said, they are teachers have their own small channels, and what he knows is that this time the topic is linked to the difficulty of the college entrance examination questions, and may even be a little more difficult.

But it won't be hard, after all, can't be too hit students' confidence ah, or a stumble how?

"Old class ah, the difficulty of the college entrance examination, you still say it will not be too difficult, liar."

"Hee hee, after all, in the teachers' opinion, all the topics are all the same, so as long as they do not exceed the outline, are not difficult."

"It's good to know, what's the point of talking about it?"

"So, this final exam is really high up, after all, teachers who have given the entrance exam papers are invited to give the questions."

"Old class, will there be another top student selected out of this general examination?"

"Okay, okay, one of you said so much, I did not have time to listen clearly, the province's general examination will certainly have a top student, the most powerful one is. And our school will reward the students who ranked in the top 100 in the province, whether it's a single subject or the total score, the kind that will be there."

"I'm not too hopeful about our class, but some students may not get into the top 100 in the province in total score but single subject or can, so for tomorrow's exam, everyone in the answer, be serious, serious, and more serious, do not lose points because of carelessness or review of the wrong questions, you should know that ah, the college entrance examination in a point can kill at least a thousand people, so Even one point, we must pay attention.

"Also, bring a few more pens, so that you don't waste time because of the pen problem. And this time the province's unified examination requirements are very strict, so some students are not in their own school examinations, but also to go back to their own school first, because then the school will have a school bus directly to send you to the examination room. "

Wang Ya rambled a lot, this time the general examination for the sophomore class, for this reason also deliberately adjusted the senior and senior class time, is to borrow their classroom as the examination room, so the final test of the sophomore class, we all attach great importance to, is to let them experience the process of the entrance examination in advance, after all, the current senior class in the sophomore year is also experienced in this way.

Wang Ya is worried that some people will forget to bring pens or other things, so very seriously in reminding them, and also told them the instructions of the teachers of various subjects, after all, there is no class today, is to let everyone study, check the gaps.

Wang Ya looked at the bunnies under the podium and felt that he had worried about them, especially some that were not in their own school exams.

"Not in their own school exam students remember to go back to school first, do not go to the test site by themselves, because our school will send a car to send everyone to, so that when the time is missing who do not know. So students who are going to take the exam outside the school will go directly to the playground tomorrow morning to gather, and then see which teacher is holding up the sign of the school you are going to, then you can follow that teacher. "

Aigoo, said to his saliva are dry, finally finished the account.

"If there is no problem, we will study well, use the last day, temporary hold a Buddha's feet, although not very useful but that is better than the naked test it. "Wang Ya said with a smile.

After seeing Wang Ya leave, An Xingyue took out the sketch paper and prepared to draw.

Night Xiu Chen originally intended to read the book, who knew that his girlfriend actually draw, said good student it? The first thing you need to do is to draw, not to study? The girl friend you are serious?

Although night Xiu Chen did not ask out, but An Xingyue felt that he comprehended from his eyes.

"I've been studying for so long, and I'm a bit bored, so I want to draw to relax, otherwise it will be counterproductive." An Xingyue pursed her lips and said in a low voice.

"You, but Yueyang'er likes to draw so much, so how about you draw me? After all, Yueya'er has not even drawn me." Night Xiu Chen propped up his head with one hand, looking sideways at An Xingyue, slightly spoiled and with a bit of aggression said.

The first thing you can do is to ask him to take a look at it, but she doesn't want to show it to him yet, it's not the right time.

"Then Ah Chen you be good and read the book, I draw you reading the book, okay?" An Xingyue said seriously.

"Yueya-er really doesn't want me to waste my time studying, even when I'm modeling, she asks me to read a book." Night Xiu Chen reached out his hand and rubbed An Xingyue's head and said helplessly.

"Which is not true, I just think that Ah Chen is handsome when he reads a book, so" An Xingyue said while nodding her head, agreeing with her words.

"That's fine, come on." Night Xiu Chen picked up the book he put down again, really serious in being a model as well as very serious in reading the book now.

"Luo Fox, do you think if you get good grades you can be that capricious, look, sister-in-law is actually drawing." Zhou Junxing tugged on Luo Junxian's clothes and asked him to pay attention to An Xingyue's state over there.

"Oh, I guess she's still drawing Brother Chen, haven't you noticed, Brother Chen puts his eyes on sister-in-law from time to time? And don't pull my clothes, or it's broken for you to mend." Luo Junxian a slap on Zhou Junxing tug his clothes hand, the sound is clear and crisp, estimated red.

"Why should I mend it? Can't I buy you a new one?" Zhou Junxing can't understand why he has to mend it when it's broken, he can re-buy each one for him.

"No, I this person nostalgic old, re-buy a piece is not this one, so rip bad you have to mend, so do not move to rip my clothes, and rip clothes this thing should be girls do more."

The old? A serious in the nonsense of Luo Junxian.

"Roll, you actually and I said you nostalgic? To shame?" Zhou Junxing heard him say girls before pulling clothes, immediately retracted his hand that wanted to pull his clothes once more.
