Chapter 13

Departure, Hidden Danger

On the evening of the 4th of June.

Jianhua District, Block 7, Room 806.

Tang Susu opened the curtains and saw many people running back home. They were carrying many things in their hands and looked panicked and uneasy.

A similar scene was playing out over the entire country.

She pursed her pink lips. Although this was a game world, it was no longer a game when she entered it. She still didn't want to see people in misery... even though it was unavoidable.

Ding ding!

“Congratulations to the host for completing Plan B and the Novice warning mission. You have been rewarded with 80 points. Please continue to work hard!”

008, who didn't get a response for a long time, was worried. “Host, are you unhappy? ”

“Yea.” The building was about to collapse. She absolutely could not let her family get beaten by the apocalypse and end up getting stepped on by everyone!

[But Host, by creating such a big scene, aren't you afraid that someone with ulterior motives might discover you?]

“What are you afraid of?” Susu's voice was slightly raised, and her clear eyes were full of confidence.

She was certain that no one would be able to catch her within a day.

And tomorrow, no one would pay attention to this matter!

At the same time, in the capital city, was a mansion in a small forest.

The tall and slender figure leaned lazily on the seat, his well-defined hand rubbing his forehead as if he had a headache.

In the next second, his thin red lips slowly curved into a thought-provoking arc.

A low, magnetic, and sexy voice was heard.

“I’ve found you...”

At eight o’clock in the evening, dark clouds covered the entire city, and it started to drizzle.

Mr. And Mrs. Tang packed up the last bit of their luggage and came over. “It’s almost time. We should go!”

The group quickened their pace and went downstairs. They heard faint roars coming from the building in front of them.

This time, no one dared to poke their heads out to watch the show. They all hid behind the curtains and peeked carefully.

Then, someone with sharp eyes noticed the Tang family members.

“Hey, Mr. Qian, it looks like the Tangs are moving out. I heard that they sold their house a few days ago. Did you hear them?”

A middle-aged man who was sharpening a knife was stunned and quickly said, “Hurry up and ask them where they’re going. There might be a way out if we follow them!”

Liu Feng hesitated for a moment, then opened the door and went out.

Tang Maoping used to be in a rescue team, and almost everyone in the community knew him. A few years ago, there was an earthquake here, and he came out to help evacuate the people. Otherwise, everyone would be like headless flies, not knowing where they were heading.

Thus, Tang Maoping was someone they remembered well, and they often asked him for help.

However, by the time she ran downstairs, the Tang family's car was only left at the back.

“Hey, don't go! Where are you guys going? Stop!”

Liu Feng was still in her slippers and was desperately chasing after him. However, when she turned a corner, she was frightened by a black shadow and staggered. “W-who's there?”

That day, when the doctors carried the family from Room 906, Liu Feng and her husband happened to see them. They happened to have relatives working in the hospital for infectious diseases, so they told them some things. After that, they were so scared that they didn't dare to go out again.

“Aunt Liu?” A melodious female voice was heard, and a graceful figure walked out. Are you alright? ”

As he asked this, the young girl took a defensive posture and did not approach.

“So it's you. You're walking so quietly. Are you trying to scare me to death?” Liu Feng was so angry that she wanted to curse.

Ying Chengya's eyes flickered, and she was about to leave.

“Hey, Chengya. Why didn't they bring you along?”

Ying Chengya's expression changed. “Who's gone? ”

“The Tang family! Aren't your family the most familiar with the Tang family? I see that they usually take care of you and don't forget to take you with them no matter what they do. They couldn't have not told you that they were moving out, right?" Liu Feng stared at her.

"Did they leave?" Ying Chengya said absent-mindedly. Then, she forced a smile. I'm not sure. Maybe I wasn't at home."

"They still have a phone to contact you. Silly child, they're not going to care about you anymore! When your parents were still around, they treated them well, didn't they?" Liu Feng growled in anger. "They didn't even tell the neighbors before you left. They're so heartless!"

"Wait!" Ying Chengya said hesitantly. "I don't know if they're there. I think I heard them mention it by accident before..."
