

I Have a Shop of Infinite Resources

Chapter 20

The First Big Boss Appears

Although Cuidi Lake Gardens was located in the suburbs, a 5A-grade natural scenic area was next to it. There were also many shopping malls and shops in the surrounding area, forming a small business district. However, with investment procurement still in progress, only a dozen or so shops were open.

The family walked quickly to the gate of Cuidi Lake Garden and saw an Audi A6 hit a street lamp outside the giant metal gate. The front of the car was dented, and several zombies were crawling on it, scratching with their sharp claws. They looked like they were about to succeed.

There were still groups of zombies coming from behind!

The man in the car was livid and raised his gun to shoot again.

“You Cheng!” Tang Mingzhou took a good look at who it was. He immediately raised his crossbow and shot at the zombie on the roof of the car.

“Whoosh!!!”

A rapid wind-breaking sound was heard. The zombie that was being aimed at sensed something and suddenly lowered its head!

The arrow streaked across its scalp, almost killing it in one shot.

He then jumped out of the car angrily and walked straight towards them!

The man in the car noticed them and his eyes lit up. He quickly waved at them, signaling them to run!

Tang Susu's expression was subtle. She had been trying her best to avoid the main characters, but she still ran into them.

"Open the door." She opened her lips slightly and didn't leave him in the lurch.

This person was her big brother's friend and didn't belong to the female lead's camp, for the time being at least. If she offended him, it would be disadvantageous for her.

There were about seven or eight zombies outside, and they were all middle-aged. Abnormally fierce, it was a little difficult for each person to deal with one.

Yet, Mr. Tang still walked into the empty security room and found the button to open the door.

Seeing the door slowly open, Yola was stunned for a moment, but she was touched. There were so many zombies, and they were terrified.

Tang Mingqi was the first to rush out, and he did not hold back anymore, sparing no effort to chop the zombies' heads off!

That was because a wave of zombies was coming from all directions.

He had to hurry!

Mr. Tang had gained some experience from his training and found that the back of the zombie's head was relatively fragile. He was extremely excited after successfully killing a zombie with one chop of his axe. He cooperated with mother Tang, one of them holding the zombie in place while the other attacked from the side.

Every time they ran out of energy or were ambushed by zombies, a sharp arrow would be shot from the air. Every time, it would accurately pierce through a zombie's eyes and skull!

Tang Mingchu was standing at the side and would occasionally help out. In this inevitable battle, he became more and more courageous as the battle progressed. He did not give Tang Susu a chance to make a move.

Tang Susu was indeed tired from all the killing. She only pulled him back when he was red-eyed, in case he didn't care about anything.

In others' eyes, she was being protected by her whole family with great difficulty. Not only did she not hide obediently, but she also followed the bloody path that the few of them had killed and ran towards him!

You Cheng furrowed her brows. This woman was starting to act like she always did.

Seeing that the zombies around them were attracted away by them, You Cheng was ready to get off the car and join the team that was killing the zombies to avoid her.

Tang Susu suddenly disappeared from his sight!

You Cheng's heart skipped a beat. He knew how much the Tang family cared about Susu all these years. If anything happened to her ...

He pulled open the car door, only to see the other party suddenly stand up when he got out. A smile flashed in her eyes, making her look lively and playful.

Prank? She was still in the mood to play pranks on him? You Cheng was instantly furious. "What the hell!"

Tang Susu's eyes flickered, but she couldn't be bothered with him. She followed the system's instructions and came to another zombie's corpse. She pulled off the gold chain on his neck, which was used by the rich heir.

[Ohohoho! I'm rich. I'm rich!] 008 shouted excitedly. "There are 50 cents in the zombie's pocket next to it. Go get it, go get it!"

Tang Susu snapped. "That's enough. Do you have to be so greedy?"

[There's a bank across the street from the taxi. Go! There's a lot of money in there!]
