

I Have a Shop of Infinite Resources

Chapter 22

Plot Change

“Phew! We smell!”

As soon as they got home, they couldn't help but rush to their respective rooms to wash off the blood and stains on their bodies.

The villa was over a thousand square meters in size, with a total of six bedrooms and six guest rooms. Each bedroom was equipped with a luxurious private guard and a super large bathtub for bathing.

There was also a public bathroom for guests to use.

The water came from Tang Susu's infinite water storage device, which was connected to the electric water heater, the gas water heater, and the solar water heater, which could provide hot water. This ensured that they could take a comfortable and soft hot bath at all times.

Tang Mingzhou was a little envious, but he still accompanied You Cheng to his house.

They knew about the villas in Cuidi Lake Gardens because You Cheng had bought one of them here before. It was right next to the villa, and it was very convenient for the two families to live next to each other.

You Cheng had forgotten that she had property here. All of his assets had been entrusted to Mingzhou to manage. If he had not reminded her in advance that he lived in the penthouse in the city center, the place with the highest traffic, she might have fallen for it!

At the same time, in front of his apartment.

A fair and slender hand was desperately knocking on the door. “Is anyone home? I beg you to open the door, the zombies are coming!”

“Chengya!” The man’s big hand reached over and held her tightly, panting with difficulty. “Don’t cry, I won’t let anything happen to you!”

Ying Chengya looked at the black scratch marks on his neck. Her pupils contracted, and she patted his neck hard again. no, no, he can’t be gone. Open the door, quickly!

The man wanted to ask her why she had come here, but a low groan came from behind him. He quickly clenched the iron bar in his hand and coughed up a mouthful of blood. He blocked the girl behind him with a determined look. run!

As soon as he finished speaking, he waved his rod and went up to meet the attack!

“No!” Ying Chengya ran to the stairs. She thought of something and quickly turned back. “I can’t leave.”

The man was almost pounced on by the zombie. Seeing this, he was moved. “Chengya, Yingluo.”

He instantly exploded with shocking power and smashed the zombie’s head with one strike!

Then, the second and third zombies followed.

In a few breaths, under the young lady’s worried gaze, Jin Ziyu almost achieved a desperate counterattack!

Ying Chengya heaved a sigh of relief when she saw that. She took the initiative to hold the man’s hand. “Brother Ziyu, are you alright?”

The man clutched his chest and coughed out another mouthful of blood, but he smiled at her to comfort her. “It’s okay. I’m fine in the inside.”

He looked at the tightly shut door and furrowed his eyebrows.

Ying Chengya’s eyes flickered. “I’m not sure, but can you stay here with me for one day? Just one day!”

Jin Ziyu didn't ask for the reason and only said, "alright," gently.

On the other side, Tang Susu was standing under the misty shower and enjoying the bath. However, she was thinking about something else.

In the plot, You Cheng should be in his favorite apartment, meeting the female lead for the first time.

The next day, which was tomorrow, his uncle would send the army to pick him up, and the female lead would also be taken away.

But now that the plot had changed, she didn't know how it would develop.

She believed that there was a strange attraction between the male and female protagonists and that they would meet no matter where they went.

She just wanted to lead a good life with her family in the apocalypse. In order to reverse the plot that was unfavorable to her, the best way to deal with it was to avoid the main characters, especially Ying Chengya.

So, in order to reduce the trouble as much as possible, she should...

Get rid of You Cheng!
