

I Have a Shop of Infinite Resources

Chapter 24

Purchasing A Peerless Cultivation Technique

Tang Susu turned her head and smiled at Tang Mingzhou. As if she was performing face-changing magic, she said in a sweet voice, “Big Brother, don’t worry. I won’t do anything rash.”

“You little punk!” Tang Mingzhou came back to his senses and shook his head in amusement. However, his tone was brimming with pride as he cast a sidelong glance at a certain someone. “If he dares to provoke you again, you can just kill him directly.”

You Cheng’s heart was beating so fast that he couldn’t calm down.

It was clearly the same familiar and loathsome face, but why did he feel a trace of mystery and unfamiliarity?

“I’ll take this.” Tang Susu was holding a 50-centimeter-long shotgun rifle with her slender arms, which didn’t fit her figure at all.

At first glance, she looked like a child who was secretly wearing adult clothes, but in a trance, there was a strong contrast between softness and hardness, and she looked sexy.

“Susu, how did you do that just now?”

Tang Susu turned around and saw her third brother’s handsome face, which was full of admiration and curiosity.

Oh, by playing games. Most of the weapons in shooting games are designed based on real-life archetypes.

It just so happened that she had done some research and analysis on this.

Tang Mingzhou nodded, but he did not fully understand. "I thought you didn't like to play games. When did you start playing STG?"

"There are many things you don't know."

The two of them joked as they left.

You Cheng coughed lightly. I won't be staying for dinner. I'll be leaving first.

"I didn't ask you to stay for dinner anyway," Tang Mingzhou sounded a little annoyed.

In the past, her personality was indeed a bit of a headache, causing You Cheng a lot of trouble, but now he couldn't hear a single bad thing.

"If necessary, just shut your mouth. My Susu doesn't like you as much as she used to. Don't be ungrateful!"

"..."

In the end, Mrs. Tang asked him to stay and warmly invited him to sit down.

Mr. Tang gave him a strange look. Did You Cheng have a change of heart? Wasn't Ah Cheng's attitude towards Susu poor, and that he was quite critical of her, and annoyed with her?

Mrs. Tang didn't say a word in the face of the whole family's suspicions. She didn't say anything until the children fell asleep. The old man kept pressing her as if he wouldn't let her sleep if she didn't say anything.

"You're so annoying!" She gave Mr. Tang a kick before speaking unwillingly.

"Didn't you hear what Ah Cheng told the boss? He has contacted his second uncle, who will come to pick him up soon. His second uncle is a high-ranking officer!"

“Didn’t our Susu say before that we need to rely on the soldiers to build a base to protect our people? If he can bring Susu with him when he leaves, then my heart will be completely at ease.”

“What? You’re going to let him take Susu away???” Mr. Tang suddenly sat up on the bed. “Are you crazy?!” Although that You Cheng is very respectful to us, you know how much he detests Susu behind our backs!”

“Ugh, can’t you lower your voice? That’s why we should treat him better now. Let’s try to make him remember this favor before he leaves!”

“We’re going together as a family no matter where we go. I can’t bear to leave Susu. Don’t let him bully you,” Mr. Tang muttered. “But if our whole family has to trouble his second uncle, then we really should do something to get the biggest guarantee.”

As they spoke, their voices lowered.

On the other side, Tang Susu was deep in thought after listening to the entire conversation between the two.

[Host, what do you think of this tapping device? It’s going for only two million, and there’s a 15% discount for today’s event. Opportunities like this don’t come every day, so we must make a move when the time is nigh!]

“Shut up.”

“Come back when you find a secret martial arts manual. The more powerful, the better!”

Her parents must have felt it too. Although this place was good, it was definitely not a place to stay for long. She estimated that she might not be able to hold on for a month.

Before that, her experience and credit points alone would not be enough.

[Host, you currently only have the gold ring, gold necklace, and silver bangle that you took from the zombies today. They can be exchanged for about 50000 wealth points. In addition, you still owe me five million for an infinite water bottle. An ordinary cultivation technique is already worth ten million. If the host wants a peerless cultivation technique, it will start from 100 million.]

“Then give me a peerless cultivation technique that starts at 100 million.”

[?]

“Give me the silencer you just introduced.”

[??]

“I also want a Super Heart Pill.”

[???

“I’ll take you to rob a bank tomorrow!”

[Okay.]
