

I Have a Shop of Infinite Resources

Chapter 28

Turning Trash Into Treasure, Sweeping Through The Shops

The two of them froze.

Yes, they still had their previous knowledge and almost forgot that the apocalypse was the node to overthrow all rules!

“But ...”

Just as they were about to crawl out of the money that they were drowning in, the girl suddenly grabbed a handful of cash and threw it at them. Her laughter was crisp and joyful.

“The things that are useless to you are very useful to me. I can turn waste into treasure and buy many things in the shop!”

With a few whooshes and a wave of her hand, the pink in the vault disappeared, leaving only the cold white wall.

This time, it was 008’s turn to cry out in excitement!

The two young men were caught off guard and fell to the ground, but they were not upset at all. They watched the girl continue to plunder the other valuable items in the bank like a diligent little hamster.

Foreign exchange, gold bricks, and expensive goods were only the beginning. Because Cuidi Lake Garden was built next to a scenic area, it was considered a luxury property. Many rich people settled there to maintain their health. The occupancy rate was up to 30%, and some expensive items would be deposited in the bank for safekeeping.

In a space that was even wider than the vault, rows of rectangular safes glowed with a cold silver light.

Tang Susu moved nimbly. Under the instructions of the system, she opened a safe with the universal lock-picking tool. Her hands moved as fast as lightning, and she quickly stored the jewelry and gold bars into the system!

“F*ck!” Tang Mingqi and Tang Mingchu were dumbfounded. They didn’t expect their sister to have the potential to do this.

Half an hour later, more than a hundred safes with valuable items had been emptied by her.

She didn’t even let go of the cash in the ATM and the counter. She took everything away but was still a little unsatisfied, as if she was addicted.

“There are many shops along the street that are open. Shall we go and have a look?” Tang Mingqi said dotingly.

Tang Susu’s eyes lit up. She had thought that it was time to go back so that the people at home wouldn’t worry.

However, under the consoling gazes of her two brothers, she decided to let herself go completely. hurry up!

With the three of them working together, one of them broke into the shop, one of them went to the cashier to get the money, and the other one collected the available materials in the shop. They were so fast that they left nothing behind, like a swarm of locusts!

Because the apocalypse broke out in the middle of the night, most of the shops here were closed. A few, however, had been smashed, such as a convenience store chain nearby. The food and water on the shelves were all gone, leaving only some towels, toothpaste, cigarettes, and so on.

Regardless of the consequences, he accepted it as a form of respect!

Tang Mingqi and Tang Mingchu didn’t just watch. They each carried a big bag. They didn’t have to be smooth. They acted like bandits, which made Tang Susu speechless.

Fortunately, handsome men looked good no matter what they did, and their rough behavior did not affect their attractive looks.

“Phew, I’m so tired.” Tang Mingchu fell back into the chair and was about to catch his breath.

“Run! I think I heard zombies!” While collecting supplies, Tang Mingqi looked into the wind from time to time and quickly discovered the situation.

Tang Susu was just about to put away the last string of pearl necklaces. Compared to the heavy mountaineering bags that her two brothers were carrying, it was much easier for her to go empty-handed.

The three of them jogged through the door and saw a large group of zombies behind them. It was the same group of zombies from yesterday!

However, Susu’s sharp eyes noticed that there were many wounds of various sizes on their bodies. They were all in the same shape, as if they had been cut by countless knives.

An ability user?

Including the strange scene that she had seen earlier, this was the only answer she could think of.

She hadn’t finished Apocalyptic Love, so she wasn’t sure what other characters and settings there would be. It was just that the plot was too Mary Sue, and all the males couldn’t help but fall in love with the female lead, which made it difficult for her to look at it directly.

However, according to the official announcement, there would be hidden characters appearing in the later stages, which made everyone look forward to it.

Tang Susu had once seen a cold and tall back on the official gaming account.

It was a man named Shen Zhiting.
