Chapter 32

Differences

You Cheng instinctively wanted to dodge. After what Tang Susu did, he was a little afraid of women.

However, at that moment, he suddenly stopped and looked up at the girl.

Tang Susu happened to look over and saw that Feng Li was holding his arm, but her eyes were staring at her. She didn't know what she was thinking.

She was a little happy. She couldn't wait for him to get together with this woman so that Ying Chengya would lose a great help.

You Cheng saw her looking away with a smile and talking to her family with a vivid expression, as if she didn't care about what they were doing.

You Cheng furrowed her brows. Did she really not care? Or was she playing hard to get?

"It's okay. He might not turn into a zombie." He withdrew his hand and walked towards the fat man surnamed He.

He Rui grabbed his trousers tightly. "Save me, I don't want to die. I won't be greedy for beauty anymore..."

Just as You Cheng was about to ask him about what happened, a burly security guard walked up to him and said sincerely, "Hello, Sir, I'm Jin Dahai. You were really skilled just now. Are you a police officer?"

He glanced at the gun on You Cheng's body.

Tang Susu had just explained the situation to her parents, mainly to prevent Mr. Tang from being deceived into doing something good.

On the other side, You Cheng led the security guard to the big brother.

“This security guard said that he’s going to send people to guard the door of Cui Di Lake Garden in turns. I think this suggestion is not bad. Do you want to discuss with him on how to execute it?”

“Is that so?” Tang Mingzhou was not like his two younger brothers who had yet to step out into society. They did not look innocent and easy to bully.

He smiled warmly and looked like he was easy to communicate with, but he simply said, “I’m sorry, but my family is not participating.”

You Cheng couldn’t help but be stunned.

“Especially with people who stole our supplies and bullied my sister!”

Jin Dahai’s expression immediately changed, and he quickly lowered his stance. “It’s our fault for not understanding the situation at that time. I’m sorry! It’s really because everyone was too scared. But your sister is right, if there’s no one guarding the door, who knows how many hidden dangers will arise!”

“This is not only good for us, but also good for your family!”

In fact, ever since the Tang family moved in, they had sent people to keep watch at their villa every night in case of an emergency.

However, You Cheng’s actions directly made them, who were originally only guarding their own family, into the people guarding the entire Cui Di Lake Garden!

Moreover, they had many men in their family. The results of the training in the past two days were remarkable, and they could put in more effort. On the other hand, they did not know if the performance of these cowards would hold them back.

If these people were honest and obedient, then it would be fine. They would definitely do their best to help, but who knew if they were up to no good?

Tang Mingzhou looked at You Cheng with a hint of resentment. “We can’t even take care of ourselves, so we shouldn’t get involved. But if there are any zombies in the villa area, we’ll help to clean them up.”

Jin Dahai did not want this result, so he looked at You Cheng awkwardly, hoping that she would help put in a good word for him.

You Cheng didn’t know what was going on, but seeing her friend’s attitude, she didn’t know what to say.

“Let’s do it this way...” Tang Susu slowly stuck out half of her face from her brother’s side, revealing only a pair of clear peach eyes. Her smile was warm and soft, which made people want to love her.

“Brother You Cheng, you just have to work a little harder. You can just follow them and take turns to guard the place. Why bother us?”

You Cheng’s heart moved, completely ignoring the sarcasm in her words.

Hearing this soft “Brother You Cheng,” it wasn’t as flirtatious and sickening as before. It was clear and refreshing, and the aftertaste was sweet. It actually made his ears heat up.

Wait, what the hell!

Whatever he was thinking, it must be an illusion.
