

I Have a Shop of Infinite Resources

Chapter 33

Nancheng University

“What, you don’t want to?” Tang Susu said with a faint smile.

Mr. and Mrs. Tang sensed her deliberate targeting, and were surprised that her attitude towards You Cheng had changed dramatically.

On the surface, however, she tried to smooth things over. “We have to go back and discuss this matter. This is a serious matter, and we can’t make a decision right away. It’s getting late, so everyone should go back and rest.”

Without waiting for the others to raise any objections, the family quickly left.

Tang Susu didn’t manage to say what she wanted to.

Tang Mingzhou understood her unspoken meaning.

However, he spoke up for You Cheng. “You Cheng didn’t push the blame to us on purpose, because he’ll be leaving in a few days. Otherwise, he would definitely be the first one to step up.”

“Oh.” Tang Susu only hoped that the other party would leave as soon as possible, but could he really leave?

“He told his uncle that he was here?”

“Yes, but he only had time to tell us the name of a villa before the communication was cut off. The group of people sent by his uncle had already set off. I don’t know if the army has any special contact methods, or if his uncle will send another group of people.”

Tang Susu's eyes narrowed slightly. As expected, it was still possible for the plot to develop according to the original plot.

She just didn't know if Ying Chengya would appear near You Cheng's top-floor apartment and meet the righteous soldiers.

However, even if they did meet, without You Cheng's help, it would be impossible to reach a deeper level of cooperation with them.

6th of June, 7 pm.

Nancheng University was a key university in Nancheng province. When the apocalypse broke out, it was the time for the students to prepare for their final revision. Since it was not a holiday, almost everyone was on campus.

More than 30000 students and staff members in the school had fallen into purgatory on the night before!

After two days and two nights of turmoil, the wailing and turmoil all over the world had led to a heavy silence and despair.

Most people stayed in their dormitories, shuddering in the corner of their beds, listening to the dragging footsteps outside the anti-theft door. They were so scared that they shed all their tears before they learned to save their strength. They plundered a bunch of small snacks and lived a difficult life with tap water.

Those without food had to muster their courage to walk out of the door and knock down the zombies wandering in the corridor.

Those who were once their roommates and classmates, their smiles and voices from the past appeared in front of their eyes. It was not easy to make a move against them!

Someone cried and hit the stool again and again. "I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I want to live, sob sob!"

There were also people who couldn't bear to do it and were pounced on by the hungry zombies in the blink of an eye. They were torn into pieces in two or three moves. The degree of misery was no less than being dismembered by five horses!

When the others who had just mustered up their courage saw this scene, they immediately took the opportunity to run back in, screaming and wailing. It was a chaotic scene.

"Ah, don't come near me!"

A girl saw that the zombie was about to catch her, so she pulled her roommate and pushed her over.

"No..."

A scream was abruptly cut off by the desperate roar of the zombies.

"Xiao ... Xiao Jie, I didn't do it on purpose!" The girl cried as she ran into an open dormitory room. She gritted her teeth and closed the door.

Outside the door, the girl lying in a pool of blood looked in the direction she had left and reached out her hand longingly. "Save..."

The light in her eyes eventually died down.

The girls on this floor had just experienced a life-and-death disaster and were still in shock.

Someone heard a gunshot from the school door that almost pierced the sky!

"What's going on?!"

"Did you guys hear that?"

"It's the army! Look, quickly look! There are soldiers outside!"

"Sob sob, we're saved. The country has come to save us."

“Wait, who’s the girl in the white dress leading the way?”

The girl who had just escaped death leaned against the balcony railing and exclaimed, “Oh my God, it’s Chengya! Chengya brought the army to save us!!!”