Chapter 36

I'll Kill Every Single One Of You

As soon as Tang Susu opened the door, the two security guards and the property manager were still in the lead.

There were twenty people behind them, and after a while, the momentum was great.

In addition to the owners they had seen yesterday, there were a few new faces, probably their family members.

The other girl called Feng Li was accompanied by five other young men and women, all of whom were rich second generation.

Seeing that they only opened the door after a long time, she grumbled, "Why are you only here now? We've been waiting for half a day!"

Tang Susu casually glanced at them. "That's strange. Did we make you wait?"

"You!"

"Alright, alright, don't bother with her."

Feng Li hurriedly pressed her friend down and impatiently looked behind the Tang family.

Security and property management were also looking for You Cheng.

Unfortunately, he was forced to stay at home by Tang Susu. She didn't want him to come out in case he ruined her plans.

Tang Susu discreetly blocked their peeking. "What's the matter?"

When the security guard saw that You Cheng wasn't around, he immediately put away the respectful expression on his face, and there was even a hint of dominance.

"Where's your father? I don't want to talk to this silly girl."

In fact, he had seen her slyness and knew that she was not easy to deal with!

Before the group of people came, they had carefully formulated a strategy and were determined not to listen to her bewitchment and be provoked by her.

On the other hand, he had to start with Mr. Tang and You Cheng, who seemed to be the easiest to communicate with.

Who knew that the two of them weren't here!

The soft-hearted Mr. Tang was naturally coaxed by Tang Susu to stay at home.

She seemed to have anticipated their plans. No matter how they jumped, she remained calm.

"Alright then, I won't keep you company."

"Stop! Who let you go?"

The bespectacled woman had been unhappy with her for a long time. At this moment, when she opened her mouth, her voice was as if it had been dipped in poison, and it was mean and sharp!

"You brat, do you have any manners? Can't you see that this person is unconscious because of you? And the old, young, women, and children are coming here so early in the morning. If you don't invite them in to sit, have your nine years of compulsory education been fed to the dogs? Don't you know how to respect the old and love the young?"

"That's some shit coming out of your mouth!" Tang Mingchen angrily drew out a large knife and swung it at her.

The woman was so frightened that she screamed and fell to the ground on her butt. Her face was scrunched up in pain!

"Clean your mouth! I'm not as easy to talk to as my sister. And all of you, get the fuck out of my sight, or I'll kill every single one of you!"

The group of people retreated in horror. "Don't do anything stupid, murder is illegal!"

"Who knows if you will die in my hands or in the hands of zombies?" Tang Mingchen sneered.

Everyone's expressions changed instantly. They didn't dare to mess with them anymore, and they wanted to fly back immediately.

At this moment, Tang Susu seemed to have taken a step back. "So, if you've got something to say, can't you just talk it out properly? Maybe there's still room for discussion."

Seeing that she had taken the initiative to speak, the group of people immediately felt that her face was friendly. They all looked at the security guard, signaling him to stop wasting time.

The security guard frowned and felt that something was amiss. "It's like this. Since you're not willing to guard the door, it might be a good idea to gather all the people together to manage it."

"Oh, where should we gather them?" Tang Susu tilted her head curiously.

Tang Mingzhou and Tang Mingqi held back their laughter. How could watching this bunch of clowns be more interesting than watching their precious little sister's acting?

"To make it easier for us to move, it's best if we all stay in the same villa. You guys probably don't want to go anywhere else. It just so happens that this location is not bad, so we'll just stay here."

"Yeah. Anyway, this villa doesn't belong to your family. You just rented it. Four floors are enough for us to live in. We can live in one room for each family. We can still get through it if we squeeze in!"
