“Comrade police!”

Seeing that the man looked too serious, Wu Han now some completely panicked, even though the brain has become a pot of porridge completely can not think of what went wrong, but she still kept asking: “Xuan Xuan will really be in danger? Is it that Cui Yongfu, that murderer, wants more money? Is it because he wants to take my five million dollars for himself?”

“I knew I couldn’t trust this man, he is really a shameless rascal, this money is also his coveted?”

“Such a big appetite, not afraid to die!”

In her muttered complaints, Qi Ziang slightly lifted his eyelids, the coldness under his eyes directly made the woman shut her mouth.

“Now it is possible that your son is really missing, and only the last hour is left before the real kidnappers give that five hours.” He said, subconsciously raising his head to look at the clock hanging on the opposite wall.

“Ms. Wu, you and Lin Jianzhou had better think about it, who else could have known about the two of you’s plan?”

After saying that, he left Wu Han, who was still unable to react, turned around and left the interrogation room.

In the corridor, Qi Ziang collided with Lu Li and Jiang Tianyu who had just come out of the observation room.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers. The only way out is to use the ransom money as bait to lure the snake out of the hole?”

The kidnapper is too deep and knows that Wu Han and his wife have already reported to the police, so he won’t take the bait easily.

“The social relations around Cui Yongfu all detailed investigation, Wu Han and Lin Jianzhou is also.” The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

“Officer Qi, if there’s nothing going on here, I’d like to go home.” Jiang Tianyu made her request before he spoke.

“I know that at the moment the suspicion on me has not been completely removed, the police can continue to lay police forces around my home, this I have no problem with.”

Although she has been under the police’s nose since the time when Cui Yongfu did not disappear, but this does not mean that Zhang Baozhu does not have the opportunity to commit crimes.

But right now the police can continue to investigate the direction of the traces of evidence found around the pond and from the social relations around Cui Yongfu to start, since she was able to find the location used by Cui Yongfu to temporarily place the child at home, it is natural to find something else.

It’s better than staying in the police station and staring at news programs.

The company’s main goal is to provide a solution to the problem.

He agreed not for some unspeakable reason, but also after careful consideration.

Now because of Cui Yongfu, in the vicinity of his residence early on a certain amount of police force to deal with unexpected situations, plus a Zhang Baozhu, this is a matter of the way, not a waste of police force.

There is also the fact that different angles can see different scenery, for this point, he has been deeply touched for most of the year.

So the matter was settled.

Within a few minutes, Jiang Tianyu came out of the large glass doors on the first floor of the office building, and was caught off guard by a sluggish north wind that made her subconsciously shrink her neck.

After speeding up, she raised her hand to stop a cab when she reached the roadside and returned directly to the neighborhood near Zhang Baozhu’s residence.

Although the cold wind was bitterly cold, but fortunately the sun was quite powerful today, the temperature was not particularly low where there was no wind.

After getting out of the car, Jiang Tianyu walked slowly along the roadside in the direction of the alleyways, but unexpectedly met an acquaintance in the open space in front of the alley.

There are several children playing on the potholes in front of them, it is estimated that they are living in the nearby bungalow area, several children's age or older or younger, ranging from four or five years old to more than ten years old.

One of the figures is particularly noteworthy, really because the other party's height is too outstanding, when she followed a few children running in circles, Jiang Tianyu also finally saw the face.

It was Ma Yanqiu's 'psychotic' daughter.

The girl's daily behavior is not even as mature as that of the two older children in their teens, and the movements are not very dexterous, running and running even fell, followed by a grin and cried.

The group of children saw the situation, does not seem to feel sympathy, after laughing and then continue to run forward, only a few seconds all disappeared in the alley out of sight.

"Owwwwwwwwwwwwww!" The girl cried miserably, snot and tears paste a face.

Now it is not yet noon, most people should not be at home, several alleyways are quiet, basically can not see any silhouette.

"Whoa whoa whoa whoa, bleeding!!!" The girl reluctantly propped up her head from the ground, and howled even more sadly at the sight of her cut palm.

Jiang Tianyu exhaled a breath of turbulent air, took two steps forward and bent down to help the person up.

"Beautiful aunt!" The girl wiped her face with a dirty hand, directly making a clean face and mud.

"Little Jie, right? Where's your mother?" Her tone was gentle, and she also helped the other party pat the dirt on her clothes and pant legs by the way.

"Mommy's not home." Little Jie replied with a sob, and then reached out her hand and tugged on her sleeve: "Auntie, I want to eat candy."

Hearing this, Jiang Tianyu seemed to suddenly remember something, took off the large cloth pocket from the shoulder and searched for it, and then really pulled out a lollipop.

Because Zhang Baozhu has been carrying Xuan Xuan all day, so the cloth pocket has a lot of children's favorite stock.

"Aunt take you home, okay? Mom will probably be angry again if she comes back and finds Jie sneaking out to play." She used the original owner's skills of coaxing children to the fullest.

Perhaps it was because Zhang Baozhu was already good-looking, or the girl who had been given candy was extra trusting of her, so Xiaojie nodded her head and agreed without much thought.

The two walked backwards and forwards, with their shadows cast on the concrete walls in the alley, looking a bit oddly shaped.

The door of Ma Yanqiu's house is really four wide open, the familiar lock is still hanging on it, it seems that the girl still used the morning method to 'break out of prison' again successfully.

"Go on, go home." Standing outside the courtyard door, Jiang Tianyu waved at her, very politely did not step into other people's homes half a step.

Because the girl could not be considered a free person with a mature mind, she naturally did not take such a risk, but only observed the situation in the small courtyard without a trace.

It is still clean and tidy, although there are some miscellaneous things in the corner, but also all in orderly fashion.

This side of the bungalow is basically not very different in size, Ma Yanqiu with his daughter alone should also live a very hard life.

"Auntie, won't you come in and play with me?" Little Jie was holding a lollipop in her mouth, her big eyes flickering as she stared at her, her expression looking a bit disappointed again.

Jiang Tianyu shook her head: "Auntie has something to do, so Xiaojie be good and wait for mommy at home, okay?"

"Okay then." The girl slumped her shoulders in disappointment, and then raised her little face again: "Auntie thank you for the candy, but mommy said you can't ask people for things for no reason, wait, I'll give you a present too!"

The words fell, she jumped back into the house, and came out again with something clutched in her hand.

With a pleasing smile on her face, Xiao Jie stretched out her right hand towards Jiang Tianyu, with a stone lying quietly in her palm: "This is a gemstone I found outside, it's worth a lot of money!"

It's just a stone with a peculiar shape.

The first thing you can do is to take a look at the stone.

However, after looking at what the other party was holding in his arms, the rest of the words were swallowed back into her stomach.

It was a small bear doll, which happened to be brown.

She narrowed her eyes slightly, carefully recalling the evidence photos she saw from Qi Ziang's side, and was surprised to find that even the small details like the doll's bow tie being purple were right.

And this little bear rag doll is quite plain in appearance, and the market toy store sold in those exquisite with machine stuffed toys are not at all the same.

"This little bear is so cute, can you let Auntie take a look?" Jiang Tianyu's superficial expression did not change half a minute, and opened her mouth very casually, seemingly only on a whim.

Xiao Jie looked a little hesitant, but still obediently handed over the bear: "But the bear I also like very much, can not give you ....."

Received the doll, she not quite obvious pinch, the inside soft, should not hide anything.

While the girl turned around and ran to the corner to admire the small grass, Jiang Tianyu quickly took out his phone and took two pictures, then he returned the bear, and did not forget to continue to praise: "Such a good cloth doll, who gave it to you ah?"

"Mom, mom bought it for me." Little Jie did not take it seriously, took the bear still squatting there picking at the two small grass.

After raising her eyebrows, Jiang Tianyu said goodbye to the girl with a smile, and only after making sure the door was closed did she turn back to Zhang Baozhu's home.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

Not long after leaving the phone, Ma Yanqiu's trademark voice came from next door, as if she was reprimanding Xiaojie.

"Did you sneak out again?! ..... did not? How come those pants are all scratched up? I did not tell you ....." the woman rambled on and began to ramble, accompanied by some pots and pans clanging against each other during the sound.

“Hey! I didn’t tell you not to get ..... any more!” The next second, the yard next to the sound of a hurried footsteps, followed by Ma Yanqiu and slowed down the tone: “Little Jie good, as long as you obey, mother loves you most.”

Just then, the originally quiet alley outside the courtyard suddenly became lively.

Immediately afterwards, someone knocked on the iron door next door with a ‘knock knock knock’: “Is this Ms. Ma Yanqiu’s house? We are from the Jiangcheng City Public Security Bureau!”

“Public Security Bureau?” Ma Yanqiu muttered in confusion and went forward to open the courtyard door, “What do you want?”

There are no secrets in the narrow and cramped alley, and when Jiang Tianyu opened the door and looked out, she happened to see a few other neighbors around as well.

It was noon, and many people had gone home for lunch.

The neighbors who had spoken to each other that day raised their chins as a greeting, and she again put her eyes on the policeman who looked familiar.

She saw that the other party was showing Ma Yanqiu a search certificate: “Ms. Ma, please cooperate.”

“Cooperation is natural, but .....” the woman’s brow knitted slightly: “But I still don’t quite understand what this is all about.”

The male police officer did not answer her question at first, until the technician entered the house to take out the bear puppet, he justifiably spoke: “The police now suspect that you are involved in two cases of missing children, the next we will conduct a full search of your home, if you have objections can go ... ..”

A series of words made Ma Yanqiu listened in a daze.

At this time, Xiao Jie, who had been squatting in the courtyard, suddenly raised her head and saw the doll held in the technician’s hand.

Without warning, she got up and jumped on the other side, and shouted unforgivingly: "The bear is mine! You can't steal my things, mom said this is not good, are not good children!"

Because she was unprepared, and the girl was already the size of a grown woman, the technician was knocked back several steps, and her back leaned firmly against the wall.

"Give it back to me! Give it back to me!" After all, it is a child's heart, Jie only knows that others have taken their toys, so it seems very irritable, a time the technician was not able to break free of her entanglement.

Finally Ma Yanqiu reacted, rushed forward to persuade and coax their own daughter to the side, very sorry to nod and explain to the crowd: "I'm sorry, my daughter is sick in the head, she can not understand these things."

"It's okay." The technician took a long breath, waved his hand to say not to care, and then went to the toolbox, it seems to be ready to take evidence on the spot.

Not far away, Xiao Jie is still crying and screaming, sharp screams let people just listen to feel the corner of the forehead throbbing.

At this time, Jiang Tianyu came outside the gate towards the courtyard to look, and then in the chaos of the voice called: "Ma sister, why don't you take Xiao Jie first come over to my house for a while, keep letting her watch the police fiddling with her toys, she will only cry more fiercely."

"Children, can not see the turn of the eye will forget."

Ma Yanqiu face hesitantly glanced at the police officer not far away, see the other side did not object, so get up and drag Xiao Jie followed Jiang Tianyu to Zhang Baozhu's home.

From the bungalow took out two plastic stools placed in the courtyard, Jiang Tianyu and from the large cloth pocket found two packets of cartoon-shaped small cookies, really Xiao Jie's mood is much better, but still from time to time will twitch two.

"Really trouble you, big sister." Ma Yanqiu looked grateful, just looked a little distracted look, attention seems to be next door all the time.

Along the open door of Zhang Baozhu's house, you can still see two plainclothes policemen milling around outside, such a scene undoubtedly gave her, a commoner, a lot of pressure.

"Sister Ma, what happened in the end ah? Make such a big show, it's strange and scary." Jiang Tianyu inquired seemingly unintentionally.

A dumbfounded shake of the head, Ma Yanqiu's expression also penetrated a trace of confusion: "I do not know ah ..... I opened the door and handed me a piece of paper, to be honest what is written on that paper means I still do not understand miles!"

"I don't know if it's because my boy is working outside and has committed something!"

The woman looked worried and even began to wipe her tears: "Let him go out to work, originally thought to save more money to take the child to see a doctor, he is good, the money did not get back not to say, but to attract the police back!"

"Well ....." Jiang Tianyu helplessly opened his mouth to comfort: "Maybe it's not as serious as you think?"

In the two of them have a chat, not a chat kung fu, the alley suddenly came two successive 'Qi team', causing her to look up curiously, just in time to see the familiar tall figure passed quickly from the door.

Pretending to be tired, Jiang Tianyu took advantage of the fact that Ma Yanqiu was still crying about the injustice of fate, and unobtrusively drifted to the bottom of the wall, leaning against the shared concrete courtyard wall, and pricked up her ears to listen carefully to the not-so-clear sound of talking coming from the side.

"Well?" It was obviously Qi Ziang who asked this question.

She was now so familiar with both the man's voice and the tone of voice when he spoke that she didn't even need to discern much.

"Qi team, initially, the doll's material and workmanship are consistent with those found in the homes of the two missing children, but the specific results need to return to the bureau to do the test before we know." This should be the technician who was just hit by Jie.

"Well, you this first take things back to the bureau ....."

The next words, I do not know whether Qi Ziang intentionally suppressed the voice or the surrounding environment is too noisy, Jiang Tianyu only listened to a disconnected.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're getting into.

It is certainly not very honorable to be discovered by the person concerned for eavesdropping on a corner.

"Ms. Ma is it? I am from the Criminal Investigation Branch of Jiangcheng City Public Security Bureau, my surname is Qi." As soon as Qi Ziang entered the courtyard, his eyes skimmed over Xiao Jie, who was sitting on a stool with her head down and concentrating on eating a cookie, and finally landed on Ma Yanqiu's body.

The woman responded in a flustered voice: "Officer Qi, hello, hello."

"It's like this, I want to know, your daughter's doll bear, through what way did you purchase it?" Qiziang's face was scrutinized.

"That ah ..... is I casually bought on the roadside ah!" Ma Yanqiu said, raised his hand very casually pointed in a direction: "is an old lady hand-sewn, she often in my workplace near the street stall, I look cheap and sturdy, bought a home to Jie play."

Ground stall? The old lady?

Qiziang heart suddenly rose a bad feeling, ordered behind the colleagues carefully note down the address provided by Ma Yanqiu, he opened again: "because the Muppet bear involved in the police are currently investigating the case, so need to be temporarily brought back to the bureau, but when the case is completed, we will maintain the original well to send you back. "

"Ah?" Ma Yanqiu opened her mouth wide with some surprise: "A rag doll, but also a crime?"

Immediately, she nodded: "You guys go ahead and use it, I'll buy another one when I come across it, it's not worth much money anyway."

Qiziang said thanks, and then asked a few more sparse questions.

Of course, only outsiders feel ordinary, Jiang Tianyu keenly aware that, just by these few questions, Qi Ziang has Ma Yanqiu's recent travel trajectory almost feel.

It is estimated to want to determine the woman in the two cases of missing children at the moment, there is no conclusive alibi.

After about ten more minutes, the technician came to the door: "Qi team, the end of forensics."

The words fell, he also shook his head twice not very obvious.

Seeing this, not only Qi Ziang, even Jiang Tianyu also understood the meaning of this action represents.

In the home of Ma Yanqiu was not able to find any abnormalities, at least can be judged with the naked eye suspicious place is not.

Qi Ziang nodded at her implicitly, and then led a group of people to collect the team to leave.

After that, Jiang Tianyu sent Ma Yanqiu mother and daughter back to their home, leaning on the door frame of the courtyard, quietly watching the woman clean up the home objects that were not messed up.

After a while, she turned her head to go home, but again in the left and right neighbors who came to concern, saw the neighbor who had talked to.

The other person looks only thirty-seven or eight years old, medium height, medium size, head with a messy black hair, chin beard has grown long.

Raising her hand in greeting, Jiang Tianyu passed by the crowd without stopping much until she returned to her own small courtyard, where she could still hear the neighbors asking questions.

Entering the bungalow, she cautiously locked the door from the inside, after lying on the bed and looking at the somewhat dark ceiling above and launched a daze.

Now it should be long past the five hours that the 'kidnapper' who took Cui Yongfu and Xuan Xuan asked for on the phone, if Wu Han had received another call, just now Qi Ziang would not have come over personally.

Recalling the man's breezy appearance, so the people hiding in the shadows did not contact Xuan Xuan's parents again.

This move undoubtedly leaves more room and space for the police, but one can't help but want to ask why?

Or did ..... Jiang Tianyu think of this and slowly closed his eyes.

At a time when the situation is still unclear, she does not want to anticipate the outcome to be too bad.

I don't know how long it took, but the person on the bed was gradually breathing evenly, apparently having fallen asleep.

The body has long been extremely exhausted and was able to stay awake the entire time, relying on Jiang Tianyu's willpower.

Jingle Bells Ringing Bells.

The annoying phone ringing in this small room seems unusually harsh.

Jiang Tianyu touched the phone to her ear and reluctantly opened her eyes to find that the sky outside was about to get dark.

The tree branches outside the courtyard wall were swaying endlessly by the north wind, and the shadows fell on the windows, like the beasts that eat people in horror stories.

“Hello? Officer Qi?” She opened her mouth, but found her voice hoarse and hard to hear.

Rising from the bed, she padded over to the dining room table, poured a glass of already cooled ice water from the kettle, and took a big gulp.

“The old lady who sold the Muppets on the street was found, and the technical section has also confirmed that the DNA on the three Muppets, including those brought back from Ma Yanqiu’s home, all belong to the old lady.” Qiziang’s voice was rare in its tiredness and absurdity.

“Huh?” Jiang Tianyu also made a subconscious sound.

Immediately afterwards, her brows frowned slightly.

If this is the case, then the only clue that could connect the two missing children cases also became confusing.

“The stall owner who sold the bear dolls has no memory of the customers who patronized her?” Knowing that hope is very small, Jiang Tianyu still asked the mouth.

“Took a few photos of the main suspects for the old lady to identify, which also included Ma Yanqiu’s, there is no gain for the time being.” Qi Ziang finished, the two fell into silence together.

A dozen seconds later, Jiang Tianyu did not continue to delay on this, turned to ask: “Then ..... Cui Yongfu and Xuan Xuan side there is no new progress?”

“There were no more blackmail calls from the kidnappers.” Qiziang naturally understood what she wanted to ask.

It was indeed very strange, obviously the other party's attitude had been very arrogant before, how could they suddenly disappear?

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

This seems to be the only explanation, it must be some police action that made the kidnappers aware of the crisis and thus alerted.

"It's not a bad sign." Her words of comfort seemed a bit dry.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

Once the criminals feel in danger what kind of action they will make, no one can say.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

"Let's see, he should be living in your alley, number 7?"

No. 7?

That's not next door to Ma Yanqiu's house, she had seen that man with messy hair a few hours ago.

"In the process of checking Cui Yongfu's social connections, we found out that this Bao Bin's last job was as a programmer for a technology company." Qiziang said slowly and methodically.

Programmer.

It is very likely to have the technology and equipment to use foreign IPs to make extortion calls over the network, which can indeed be considered as a key concern.

"But he and Cui Yongfu are not considered familiar." Jiang Tianyu frowned.

The friends around Cui Yongfu are very fixed, after all, there are not many idle dregs of society like him.

I thought that the gang of fox friends would be more suspicious, but now it seems that this is not the case.

"If it really is Bobin, then there must be some connection between him and Cui Yongfu, but we haven't found it yet." After saying this, Qiziang ended the call after saying a brief good bye to her.

For the police, the most urgent thing is to find the connection between the two, only then can we quickly obtain a legal search certificate.

After leaving the phone, Jiang Tianyu stood at the dining table for a while.

Before, Zhang Baozhu had never had any contact with Bobin, even in the past two days, she and the other side each time only a hasty side, at most not salty to say a couple of words.

She returned to her bedside and took out a small and delicate communicator from her cloth pocket.

This is the morning when the police equipped her, because at that time in a hurry to go to the outskirts of the pond to look for Cui Yongfu, Lu Li seems to have forgotten to take things back.

But then again, every time a police officer goes on a mission with this kind of thing is required to make a report, and the police department of the bureau will also be retrieved afterwards, so what are the chances that both sides will forget?

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

I don't know what exactly this person means, surveillance? Or is it protection?

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

Maybe there are more plain clothes hidden in the shadows than before, after all, it's not just about finding Cui Yongfu and Xuan Xuan, the Ma Yanqiu next to them may also be involved in two other missing children cases.

If this Bobin really and Cui Yongfu, Xuan Xuan's disappearance has a relationship, then after five hours the kidnappers did not call again probably makes sense.

Because of the chaos of Ma Yanqiu's house to him to the alarm, in the personal feeling of the police is close to the oppression and torment, choose to temporarily hunker down is also reasonable.

But it is obvious that this will not work, Cui Yongfu a big man does not matter, Xuan Xuan so small, it is difficult to say what will not happen to the accident.

Suppose Bobin has been in the home in order not to attract the attention of the police and do not move the place, being locked in the unknown place of the child will be hungry, thirsty, more will be scared out of their wits, just thinking about it makes people feel distressed.

Finally, as if she had made up her mind, Jiang Tianyu slowly stuffed the communicator back into her ear.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

Suddenly, she looked astonished, seemed to hear the vague sound of crying.

Opened the door, the sound suddenly became clear, should be from Ma Yanqiu's home came out of the right.

Thinking about Xiao Jie's silly appearance, Bao Bin also said before that she would occasionally be ill, coupled with the girl's earlier behavior of rushing the police for a doll .....

Jiang Tianyu pursed her lips and finally took a step, and within a few seconds she stood outside Ma Yanqiu's house.

She felt a little surprised that the iron door was half open, looking in along the gap, you can see Ma Yanqiu is sweating profusely trying to calm the emotionally out of control Xiao Jie, the whole person looks tired and pitiful.

"..... sorry ....." Jiang Tianyu stretched out her hand and knocked on the door.

At this time, Ma Yanqiu just barely pushed the crying in the courtyard of Xiao Jie hard back into the house, and locked from the outside, heard the movement turned his head suspiciously, and then a sorry face: "sister, is it noisy to you? I'm really sorry, I promise to shut her up right away!"

"Nothing, nothing, I just came to see if you need help." She said she entered the courtyard very naturally, with a few obvious sympathies in her expression, "After all, Xiaojie is so old, it must be hard for you to take care of her by yourself."

The girl in the house still continued to emit abnormal screams, accompanied by the crackling, the sound of things falling to the ground.

Ma Yanqiu had all but gotten used to it, only to raise her hand to wipe the sweat from her forehead and let her daughter scream around the house.

"Thank you sister, either say or women are kind-hearted, after being neighbors for so long, your grandparents never said come over to help me."

The woman did not seem to know about Cui Yongfu, and after glancing into the house, she continued, "She will be quiet after a while."

Jiang Tianyu nodded and was about to ask something when her attention was drawn to a dark figure at the front door.

Ma Yanqiu obviously noticed it too, and stretched her neck to greet the person who came.

The next second, the person's figure came out of the shadows, through the faint light from the windows of the house, Jiang Tianyu saw the face.

It was Bobin from next door.

"It seems that everyone is noisy by Xiaojie." The woman let out a long, helpless sigh, wandered over to the flower bed built with cement by the wall, and sat on her butt.

"Delayed your work, right? Older brother?"

Baobin shook his head: "It just so happens that there is no work today, I came over and no other meaning, your family did not come to the police during the day? Is Xiao Jie stimulated by seeing too many strangers at once?"

"All kinds of reasons, right, originally recently this period has been quite stable." Ma Yanqiu mouth bitter, looking sad clouds.

Standing in the corner of the courtyard, Jiang Tianyu's eyes went back and forth between the two of them, slightly dropping her eyes, and her heart came to a decision.

"Don't blame the child, the daytime battle even I saw feel weak in the legs."

"And wow, those police claiming what children missing cases, I thought of our neighborhood there are a lot of children, every day running around playing outside, you have to tell those parents, can no longer be so careless."

"Even if you're not afraid of traffickers, then slip away to the street in case you get hit by a car? Afterwards, you must regret it."

Ma Yanqiu took out a handkerchief from her trouser pocket, wiping her face while agreeing: "No, we really need to pay attention in the future."

The screams in the room have gradually disappeared, so the girl should be tossed out of energy.

Bobbin did not make any comments on what she just said, only when he heard the word 'missing' his eyes flashed slightly, and then seemingly unintentionally asked: "By the way, how come I haven't seen your man in the past two days?"

Hooked.

Jiang Tianyu's heart tightened, and the blood in her body flowed faster because of excitement.

If the other party was really the kidnapper who blackmailed Wu Han and his wife for five million, then he must have known that Cui Yongfu had disappeared, so this statement was a test.

He was certain that the police would inform Cui Yongfu's wife that her husband was missing from the matter.

So she responded with a somewhat evasive gaze, "Well ..... I'm not quite sure, he has a lot of friends, I guess it's either fishing or going for a drink."

Then, she quickly changed the subject as if she was vain: "By the way, what is the name of this neighbor ah? I don't even know it yet!"

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

Soon, the inconspicuous light on the communicator flashed twice, indicating that the positioning function had been properly turned on.

"He ah, his name is Bobin la! People can be powerful, work ....., " Ma Yanqiu smoothly introduced, but half of the words, as if thinking of something and smiled and closed his mouth.

After that, the woman stood up from the small flower bed and walked in the direction of the house.

"I'm going to see if Xiaojie is asleep, if it's convenient for you two, come in and help me carry her to the bed."

Responding painfully, Jiang Tianyu followed Baobin's side and stepped away.

During this period, Bobin's expression did not look abnormal, and even took the time to answer the question she had just asked: "I don't have a serious job, but because I know some computers, I can occasionally get a little private work at home."

"So powerful!" Jiang Tianyu lamented, but gave the illusion of being distracted.

The first foot she just stepped into Ma Yanqiu's home, the second foot saw Xiao Jie nestled on the sofa asleep, and the woman was standing in front of her, breaking her mouth and stuffing a piece of medicine inside.

"Let's go over and help!" Bobin suggested.

Jiang Tianyu nodded in agreement, and the two of them went up and one of them tugged on one of Jie's arms.

Just as she was about to force the girl up from the sofa, a sultry questioning voice came to her ears unawares: "Zhang Baozhu, what do you really want to know when you pretend to be nice and come over here today?"

Click.

She released her grip on Jie's hand, straightened up and then looked back to see Ma Yanqiu's face in front of the door.

The other side actually rubbed there at some point and quietly left the door unlocked.

How to say?

For this result in front of her, Jiang Tianyu felt strange and not strange.

"So it was indeed you two who took Cui Yongfu and Xuan Xuan in partnership." She opened her mouth with certainty, but because of the dim light in the room, the remaining two people were not able to notice that something was wrong with her.

Hearing her words, Ma Yanqiu did not respond positively, just arms crossed looking at the man, began to mutter: "I said she must have a problem, obviously the man has long disappeared, but the police came to the door during the day, she still pretended to look like nothing happened!

In this way, it all makes sense.

For example, why the next household Bao Bin will know Cui Yongfu's plan, it is estimated that Lin Jianzhou and Wu Han came to the door one after another, to attract the attention of Ma Yanqiu.

This bungalow area of the permanent population is not much, out and in are so few faces, the cold appearance of two strangers, must be very eye-catching.

Plus the soundproofing of the house is not particularly good, Cui Yongfu, Lin Jianzhou and Wu Han these three people together is not eight eyes, Ma Yanqiu overheard what is normal.

But Ma Yanqiu is a home alone with a sick daughter's mother, want to make what action naturally inconvenient, so it is necessary to find a helper.

Baobin usually have no regular income, snail living in this side of the economic situation must not be good.

As the saying goes, money moves people, that is five million, into a person more than two million, it is worth the risk to try.

"You have just deliberately stimulated Xiaojie to develop, just to lure me over?" The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

In this regard, how different is Ma Yanqiu from Lin Jianzhou and Wu Han's stream?

The woman opened her mouth when she heard the words, but unfortunately, before she could say half a word, Bobin behind her urged: "So much nonsense?"

Immediately after, Jiang Tianyu only felt the sweat on the back of her neck stand up, that is her intuition for the approaching danger.

Quickly turned her face sideways, with the corner of her eye really glanced at the man was raising a stick high, gritted his teeth and swung down hard towards her head!

In time to control the subconscious want to spin back to kick the leg, Jiang Tianyu only calculated the angle of the head slightly shifted a little, the next second the stick fell heavily on her shoulder and neck connection.

Bang!

She fell to the ground in response to the sound, the roux and the floor contact made a solid muffled sound.

Everything happened so fast that even Bobin didn't see which part of Zhang Baozhu he had actually knocked.

But no matter where it hit, the person eventually passed out, he exhaled a long breath of foul air, and threw the stick aside.

Ma Yanqiu looked at the ground has been unconscious Jiang Tianyu, spit hard: "This b!tch must be suspected of something, fortunately I am this person alert, or we both have to eat!"

"If she really found out something and then told the police, it would be bad."

Bobbin silent, first dragged people out of the gap between the sofa and coffee table, and then straightened up breathing heavily: "Can not put her here, if the police find her missing again, will certainly come back to this alley to find evidence."

"Then we'll pull her away and deal with her at the place." Ma Yanqiu very calm: "can not dirty my house, then want to eliminate the relevant traces, it is much more difficult than now."

After saying that, she turned around and went under the bed and pulled out a piece of hemp rope, ready to tie the person up.

"You can't go out, the police just came to your house during the day, right now it's not guaranteed that they are squatting in which nook and cranny outside the alley, if they see you go out and then follow, it will cause big trouble." Bobbin's tone is serious.

"And put Jie at home by herself, again to run out and cause trouble."

"I've given her sedative medicine, can't wake up for a while." Ma Yanqiu waved at the man, and the two of them teamed up to tie Jiang Tianyu up tightly.

"The two of us changed our appearance a little and went out from the east under the broken wall, the police could not find it."

The narrow alleys in this neighborhood are intertwined and the terrain is complex, even if the police guard the exits, but some details are only known to those who live here all year round.

For example, the concrete wall facing the wasteland behind is already precarious, with a large hole in the wall, but no one notices it because it is crawling with dead yellow creepers.

In addition to the alley where the installation of surveillance probes, the whole of this area and no other electronic facilities, not to worry about whereabouts exposed.

At that, Bobin did not say anything else, considered acquiescence.

Jiang Tianyu was soon wrapped into a blanket, and then bumped along with the hole in the wall to throw outside.

After that, the two of them carried her for a while and finally loaded her into the trunk of a car with the blanket.

The car drove fast, Bobin and Ma Yanqiu did not chat too much with each other, so the silent duo did not notice that the blanket in the trunk moved.

The heavy blow was indeed painful, but because the position was properly controlled, so Jiang Tianyu's consciousness was always awake.

After all, there was a record of being crawled by various bugs in the rainforest while on a mission and not moving for more than 20 hours, so it was easy to pretend to be unconscious.

In the darkness, the light of the receiver in her ear has been blinking inconspicuously.

Just now there is not no opportunity to quickly take down those two people, but the follow-up want to ask from their mouths Xuan Xuan and Cui Yongfu's whereabouts, may not be how much time will be wasted.

Still, Cui Yongfu can hold on, the child can not.

Ma Yanqiu and Bao Bin are not very fond of playing the 'pick up' routine? Then let them also have a good taste of what it is like to be 'picked up' by others.

From what the woman said, we can judge that the two must have a relatively hidden location, perhaps Xuan Xuan is also being held there.

About half an hour or so later, the car's speed slowed down, the road is obviously more dilapidated than before.

After a while, the car slowly stopped.

A few seconds later, someone opened the trunk from the outside, Bobin voice vague: "dragged to the backyard to bury it!"

Ma Yanqiu which has no reason to disagree, the two once again struggled to lift the person out of the trunk.

Suddenly, the woman slipped her hand because of some dislocation, and one end of the blanket fell to the ground, not only the blanket fell apart, but also the person inside was bent twice on the yellow ground.

"....."

"....."

"....."

On the surface looking speechless are two people, but in fact three.

Bobin can't help but curse: "Really convinced you, hold on a little longer not to get to the place?"

"Can you blame me for this? The key is that Zhang Baozhu is too heavy!" Ma Yanqiu responded reluctantly.

The woman said, while bending down and picking up the blanket stuffed back into the trunk: "Anyway, it's here, later directly dragged people over even."

The man rolled his eyes and went forward to prepare to drag people.

I didn't expect to see a bright light coming from somewhere to where they were, directly making it impossible to open one's eyes.

The next thing you know, the police are ringing loudly, Ma Yanqiu stood there dumbfounded before reacting to what was going on, but Bao Bin has quickly retrieved a fruit knife from the trunk, and then squatted down to pull up the ground Jiang Tianyu blocked in front of his body.

"Jiangcheng City Public Security Bureau!"

Seeing several police officers with guns are gradually approaching, Ma Yanqiu subconsciously raised his hands high, turning his head to try to find men for help: "What's going on ah ..... police how to find this?"

Could it be that the police really laid a net in that alley, just waiting for them to reveal their weaknesses?

For this point, the two of them can not figure out.

The key is that the current situation does not allow the two to carefully analyze what, Bobin can only use the knife against the aorta of Jiang Tianyu's neck, viciously opened: "Do not come over! One more step forward and I'll kill her!"

A few of the raiding SWAT officers on the other side instantly stopped in their tracks.

The back of Lu Li turned his head to look at Qi Ziang on the side: "Qi team, the sniper side has already found a good spot, can shoot at any time."

The two suspects were defenseless, so the scene in front of them was not very dangerous.

The first time I heard this, Qi Ziang nodded, lips moving slightly about to give orders.

I didn't expect that Jiang Tianyu, who should have been tightly bound by the rope, suddenly moved, and Bobin had no time to resist and felt a pain in his wrist, and subconsciously let go of the fruit knife.

The moment the fruit knife hit the ground, the crowd watched as Bao Bin's entire body instantly flew out, coincidentally slapped directly on Ma Yanqiu's body a few steps away, and the two rolled into a ball, each letting out a painful moaning yin sound.

"..... Shit ....." Lu Li froze for a full minute before slowly spitting out this one word to express his feelings.

He had several assault special police under the command of Qi Ziang Bao Bin and Ma Yanqiu under control, the rest of the people also rushed into the back of the plant to look for Cui Yongfu and Xuan Xuan.

Although the scene is busy, but everything is in order.

Jiang Tianyu sat in the ambulance, thanked the doctor who rubbed the bruises on her shoulder and neck with medicinal wine, and raised her eyes to look at the people who came this way at some point.

"Xuan Xuan and Cui Yongfu have both been found, the child is currently unconscious, and the doctor suspects that a large amount of sedatives were ingested into the body." Qiziang opened his mouth, the traces between his eyebrows finally unfolded a little: "As for Cui Yongfu is more seriously injured, but there is no fear of life, the two have been sent to the hospital by another ambulance at present."

"And not to say that it is injured shoulder, how your forehead ....." swollen so a large bag.

The corner of the eye twitched, Jiang Tianyu reluctantly explained a: "fall."

The killer, so a thought just that one or a light hand.

Although there are only two short words, but according to her rich expression, it is enough for Qiziang to make up a lot of images.

In the two fell into a silence between the mouth, but Lu Li suddenly ran over, breathless pointed to the plant side: "Qi ....." Qi team ....." is not good, the back ... .."

The back?

Jiang Tianyu suspiciously followed the direction of the other party's finger and looked over.

Before Lu Li could catch his breath, Qi Ziang walked towards the back of the plant.

Jiang Tianyu pursed her lips and her eyes were full of curiosity: "Officer Lu, what happened at the back? There are other people at the scene?"

The first thing you need to do is to look at her and ask for help, Lu Li inexplicably remembered many people.

The woman is really such a fickle? There is something Officer Lu, nothing that solves the case.

Straighten up the waist exhaled a breath of turbid air, he finally returned a: "Other people ..... barely considered it."

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

The eyes rolled, Jiang Tianyu and the paramedics said hello and then jumped out of the ambulance.

When passing by the factory, through the windows that were leaking all around, she saw a team of technicians working on forensics at the scene.

Inside a thick iron pillar, hanging two chains thicker than an adult thumb, should be used to imprison Cui Yongfu and Xuan Xuan place.

Next to two empty bottles of mineral water, the floor is also a crumpled, the surface is dirty traces of thin blankets, even from so far away, she can still smell the smell of acid and urine floating in the air.

Because the plant is considered the scene of the crime, so Jiang Tianyu chose to slip around the edge from the outside to the backyard.

At this time the back of the courtyard has been cordoned off around a tight circle, the middle of the position set up a shiny headlights, several people are holding shovels and other items down the loess ground to dig.

This time Qi Ziang is standing aside with his arms crossed, the head of the technical section, Zhang Ye is holding a visual instrument in his hand to the location where the people are working, pointing to report something.

“..... just now I found that the color and surface of the two biological traces and other places are different, so simply scanned with the instrument, confirmed that there are two bodies buried below, from the bone structure, is human.”

Zhang Ye said here pause, face more or less with a bit of intolerance: “And, preliminary judgment, both bodies are underage.”

Qi Ziang smiled, and his face was gloomy a few points.

Jiang Tianyu, who was standing outside the police line, also breathed a sigh of relief, naturally associated with the two cases of missing children that the police had been tracing before.

So the meaning represented by the word ‘coincidence’ is difficult to establish in criminalistics.

The bear doll found in Ma Yanqiu’s home ..... sure enough everything is traceable.

It didn’t take long for the technical section to carefully retreat to the side, and the hastily arrived forensic pathologist with an assistant jumped into the bottom of one of the pits.

“From the decomposition of the body and being the soil moisture comprehensive judgment, the deceased died about forty days, through the degree of tooth wear and pelvic development, the age of the deceased is about five years old.” Forensic tone is serious, although the surface is a business-like attitude, but from which you can still hear a sigh of relief.

Qiziang walked to the edge of the pit, lowered his eyes and looked down: “The color and characteristics of the blouse and pants are consistent with the first missing child.”

“The cause of death ..... of the deceased had wounds formed by blows to the back of the head and forehead, and it is initially suspected that he died of intracranial hemorrhage. There are also a number of bruises on various parts of the body, the right small arm is suspected to be fractured, and the wounds all have a living reaction to the pre-birth injuries.”

The more the forensic pathologist said the heavier, the others present fell into a deep silence.

On the other side of the deep pit, unsurprisingly, is another missing child, the time of death for about twenty days, and his family reported missing time to match.

The two dead had the same cause of death and the same marks on their bodies, and for a while everyone felt a little out of breath.

Night shrouded this barren land, but the police searchlights will be this abandoned factory area illuminated as bright as day.

The whole night was busy, when the sky was slightly transparent a little fish-belly white, Jiang Tianyu and other people got on the police car back to the Municipal Public Security Bureau.

Today's car seems to be exceptionally quiet, everyone's face is full of fatigue, each pair of closed eyes, probably also filled with pain and regret it!

When the car arrived at the City Bureau courtyard, Jiang Tianyu saw Qi Ziang on the steps in front of the office building, slightly tilted her head, she opened her mouth with deliberation: "Xuan Xuan he ....."

"The police have sent someone to send Wu Han and Lin Jianzhou to the hospital, the hospital side just came to the news, Xuan Xuan body only some abrasions, ingested a certain amount of sedative drugs, the other nothing serious." Qiziang responded.

"It is estimated that Bao Bin and Ma Yanqiu were afraid that the child was noisy, which is why they fed him medicine."

Jiang Tianyu suddenly remembered the appearance of Ma Yanqiu feeding Xiaojie medicine last night, so nodded with understanding.

Calming drugs women have plenty at home, used in Xuan Xuan's body is nothing to be surprised.

And it has not been determined that Cui Yongfu disappeared that morning, she happened to bump into Ma Yanqiu hurriedly out, think that at that moment the other party is not likely to go to the plant that imprisoned Cui Yongfu and Xuan Xuan, but at that time she was not able to detect any abnormalities.

"Then after Xuanxuan ....."

Knowing what she was worried about, Qiziang comforted: "Follow-up Wu Han and Lin Jianzhou will be held legally responsible for the relevant laws, Xuan Xuan and grandma, the police after contacting the old lady, the other side said they are very willing to assume the responsibility of the child's guardian."

Plus, this situation the court is likely to be discretionary for both Wu Han and his wife, depending on their degree of remorse.

Although helpless, but the two are Xuan Xuan's biological parents after all.

Of course, until the court formally decides, all of this can only be considered reasonable speculation.

"Someone will take you to the questioning room later, but are you sure there are no major injuries?" Qiziang narrowed his eyes, and because he was high up, he saw the appalling bruises and bruises on the back of the woman's neck as soon as he lowered his eyes.

"It's just an ordinary soft tissue contusion." Jiang Tianyu concealingly gathered the collar of her coat to isolate the man's gaze.

"I'll have someone else go over and give you a statement about last night, and later the families of the two child victims will come over." The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market. Who do you think killed those two children? Ma Yanqiu or Bao Bin?"

"And very strange, Xuan Xuan only suffered some superficial injuries, this and the other two victims seem to be completely different."

"The two before, more like in life suffered and extremely serious abuse, before also did not hear you mention whether the family had received blackmail calls."

"There have been no calls related to ransom demands received." Qiziang shook his head: "These are questions we will follow up in the next interrogation, maybe the temptation of five million is too much?"

In short, the apparently completely different modus operandi of a kidnapping case and two cases of missing children does have a lot of suspicions, now that the two suspects have been arrested, the follow-up investigation depends on the police.

Jiang Tianyu did not say anything more and followed another police officer to the questioning room obediently.

The progress of her side is going very smoothly, and the progress of making statements makes the veteran detective with many years of work experience tsk-tsk surprised.

The various times and details she described very clearly, the face is half missing the normal people in the encounter of such a vicious event after the panic and fear.

But think of her in the face of the two suspects when the heroic stance, the male police will be relieved.

The man who can throw a hundred sixty to seventy pounds like a sandbag several meters away, there should be nothing in this world that can scare the other side of it

About an hour or so later, Jiang Tianyu confirmed that there was nothing wrong and signed the statement and pressed her handprint.

After putting her on the elevator, the two policemen turned around and returned to the office upstairs.

The lobby on the first floor of the Public Security Bureau was empty as always, it was still early, not even the official point of work, so there were not many people walking around.

Suddenly, a jeep stopped directly below the front door steps, and from above came down several people.

These people had slightly red eyes and looked like they had just been crying.

One of them, a lady probably in her early thirties, got out of the car with a weak foot, and if it wasn't for the quick eyes of the people around her to hold her up, she would have slipped and sat on the ground.

"I don't want to go in, I don't want to go in ....."

The lady began to pick at the hands of the family bawling: "I do not believe my son is dead, I do not believe, I do not believe!"

Once she did, the others who were barely holding back also followed and wiped up their tears, before the man who got out of the car from the main driver's side simply got back into the car, lying on the steering wheel with his mouth open wide in silence.

"Hey, these should be the families of the victims who came to identify the body, right?"

Jiang Tianyu was originally standing in front of the glass door dumbfounded, heard the movement quite surprised to turn his head to look at the visitor, and then very politely opened his mouth to say hello: "Uncle Sun good."

The old man nodded with a smile, then carefully looked at her twice: "You know me?"

"I ....." Jiang Tianyu hesitated for a moment and was about to make an excuse.

Who knew that the old man seemed to be pressed into service, and the next second dropped his eyes on the family at the bottom of the stairs.

Soon, the cries from this side attracted the attention of others in the building, and several police officers rushed out and naturally gave a good consolation to the people.

It was not easy to bring the family upstairs, not two minutes later another victim's family also came, so the police will repeat the previous process in full.

Jiang Tianyu was invited by Uncle Sun and sat with him in the janitorial room, watching the crowd come and go through the window.

“This God damned suspect, what is this ability to strike at a child?” Uncle Sun seemed to be a bit moved, put the enameled teacup in his hand heavily on the table.

Nodded, Jiang Tianyu expressed strong agreement with this.

Just when the two people were chatting, a short car siren suddenly came from the compound outside the building.

Uncle Sun glanced at the display next to see a police car did not care too much, continued: “I do not know how the progress of the Qi team and their side, but must return the two children a justice ah .....

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what’s going on.

“Xiaojie?” Jiang Tianyu muttered.

But it makes sense, Ma Yanqiu is certainly not a moment to return, the girl does not have the ability to take care of their own, the police will naturally have to arrange it properly.

It just so happens that at this time Xiaojie seems to have noticed the general side of the face, and then very excited steps towards the direction of the doorman ran: “Aunt! Auntie!”

The two men and women who were walking beside her were also busy and quick to follow, and they were slightly relieved to see Jiang Tianyu’s face: “I forgot you were neighbors.”

Smoothly fished out a strawberry-flavored milk candy from the cloth pocket, ripped open the bag and stuffed it into Xiao Jie’s mouth, she casually asked, “Officer Qi got the person to the bureau, is trying to make you babysit?”

The female police officer Xiao Wang, also counted as her old acquaintance, two steps forward some helpless response: “There is no way ah, Ma Yanqiu in the local no immediate family, only a husband working in the provinces, a moment simply can not come back!”

“This .....” Jiang Tianyu eyes, raised a smile of pure goodness: “Jie situation is special, a contact with strangers emotionally prone to problems, why not I stay with her for a while! “

“By the time her father rushed back from the field, I will leave again.”

“This .....” Officer Wang turned around and male colleagues looked at each other, face some hesitation: “seems not quite in line with the rules .....” “

Suddenly, next to the Sun uncle who has been hanging eyes and drinking tea opened his mouth: “What regulations, not I said, now the rules in this building when you serious crime unit to comply with?”

“Girl, do work to be flexible, let her help you take care of the child, you are on the side of the guard on the line?”

Speaking of which, Uncle Sun also shook his head while sighing: “I see you now these young people, if we were in the past .....”

The next words, the other side did not say, just lowered his head again and drank two mouthfuls of hot tea, waved his hand at a few people like a guest in the drive.

Officer Wang smiled kindly at Jiang Tianyu, who had spontaneously followed the elevator: “Sorry, Ms. Zhang, I still have to ask our leaders about this matter later.”

“I understand, when the time comes, if the leader says no, I will leave immediately.”

A few minutes later, the three got off the elevator at the floor where the interrogation room was located and traveled all the way to the lounge at the end of the corridor.

After all, this is a police station, the lounge, outside the corridor is full of monitoring probes, just howl a voice outside the interrogation room is working people will be able to come out first, no need to worry.

The reason for this is the fact that last night there was an illness, and now the little Jie looks very quiet, and most curious children, she dragged the body belonging to the adults, in the lounge back and forth in a circle.

Either touching the refrigerator or picking at the sink, looking at everything new.

"Does Ms. Zhang know why she is in this state?" Officer Xiao Wang stood at the entrance of the lounge and after observing the girl for a while, he asked out loud.

Jiang Tianyu shook her head: "I haven't been a neighbor to their family for very long, plus I'm not home often because of my job, so I haven't talked to her mother about this either."

Officer Xiao Wang seemed to have some sympathy: "It's strange and pitiful."

"Well ....." she returned vaguely.

It didn't take long for the novelty of the surroundings to wear off, and Xiaojie became a little restless: "It's not fun here, I want to go find my mom!"

When speaking, the girl is lowering her head, not even looking at the road to rush out.

Standing in front of the door, Officer Wang blocked her way and said in a soft tone of voice, "Jie is a good boy, mom is still busy working, we can not disturb her, right?"

"No! I want to find mommy!"

"Jie, how about this, sister go buy you something delicious? What do you want to eat?" Little Officer Wang was still an unmarried young girl, so I guess she had already made her best effort at this point.

The girl deflated her mouth, as if still not very happy.

Jiang Tianyu saw the situation and got up, gently embraced the other party's shoulders, also followed the comfort: "Let sister go to buy you some of the usual snacks that your mother does not allow you to eat, okay? What games do you like to play? Or else aunt draw with you? Or do you want to listen to a story?"

This is a series of operations down, just barely temporarily suppressed the little Jie's noise.

Then, the girl ate a snack while she sat at the table with watercolor brushes and painted with her, and it was at least quiet for a while.

But this harmonious scene did not last long, about 40 or 50 minutes later, Jie once again suddenly became annoyed.

She first reached out and knocked down the watercolor brushes next to her, and then angrily balled up the drawing paper or tore it up.

After making a mess around, the girl once again got up and tried to rush out of the lounge.

Officer Wang had no choice but to use the same trick as before, trying to coax people back again.

Unfortunately, this time did not work, Jie unexpectedly issued a sharp, ear-splitting scream, shocking Officer Wang subconsciously raised his hands to cover his ears.

She was like a frenzied beast, panting and panting, hissing and howling intermittently, using all her strength to crash into the person blocking the door.

Although the girl's mind is like a child, but the size of the body but than the small Wang police officers also fierce on a few points.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

The next second, she was stopped by Jiang Tianyu who ran over in time with great skill.

She used a few less painful moves to subdue the person on the ground under the premise of making sure that the girl would not be hurt, but that was all, and the harsh screams still echoed throughout the floor.

"Mom!!! Mom ..... mom ..... mom!"

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are getting into.

This kind of toss down, but also directly to the interrogation room work people are attracted out.

The company's main goal is to provide the best possible service to its customers. She can't do it without me! I just want to see her, just one look at her!!!"

"Don't hurt her, you don't want to hurt her!"

The two mothers and daughters, one inside and the other outside, were very much in tune with each other, you singing and me.

Qiziang thought briefly for two seconds, then turned around and went back into the interrogation room, closing the door hard.

Two minutes later, he resumed walking out and put the phone to his ear, "Yes, send the paramedics to hurry over and remember to bring the kind of medicine I just mentioned."

“How did it happen?” When they got close, he ordered Lu Li and another colleague to work together to pick up the still struggling Xiao Jie from Jiang Tianyu’s men, his eyes skimmed over Officer Xiao Wang and finally landed on her body, frowning and asking.

“Sorry ah Qi team, it’s me .....

“But only admitted that she killed the people, as to why and how to kill, where to move, have not been accounted for.”

He said and frowned slightly: “Remember the Muppet bear found in the home of the two missing children and Jie held in his arms is the same?”

Jiang Tianyu nodded.

“The families of the two child victims said they had no recollection of why that doll appeared in the home. Let’s put this suspicion aside for now, why don’t we think about why Ma Yanqiu ‘gave’ the Muppet Bear to the victim’s family?” Qiziang asked, his eyes flashing slightly.

“She’s repenting?” Jiang Tianyu was a little surprised, then shook her head as if in self-denial, “How could someone who could kill the victim with such brutal means be repentant?”

“The murderer is not her.”

But it was a person who could make her willingly cover for him and take the blame for him.

The scene that happened before flew through her mind, she subconsciously held her breath, and only after ten seconds or so did she open her mouth, “Is it Jie?”

Without denying it, Qi Ziang raised his eyebrows and said faintly, “Judging from the aggressiveness she just showed towards Xiao Wang, this speculation is not outrageous, isn’t it?”

The scene from the party appeared in front of her eyes, along with the girl’s twisted face.

Jiang Tianyu swallowed a mouthful of saliva: “Indeed.”

The two of them stood in front of the building for a while, until Lu Li’s reminder came from behind them, Qi Ziang then opened his mouth again: “When I said that, you associated it with Xiao Jie, so there must be something about her that aroused your suspicion, right?”

“The emotional and aggressive nature she has shown many times is certainly one of the main reasons.” Jiang Tianyu blinked.

Counting a few minutes ago, the girl had already tried to attack the police twice in succession.

Whether it was the technician that day or Officer Wang, they are still adults, the other side of the treatment of adults can still make this kind of action, a.buse of children is nothing unusual.

“There is also the fact that the painting she just drew, the colors are gloomy, the lines are chaotic, not like a normal psychological person can have the inner world.”

“Plus, I saw dead rats in her yard after she ‘fell ill’.” Jiang Tianyu said this, sighed silently, and also managed to connect all those fragmented clues together.

Last night, first Ma Yanqiu was counting Xiaojie, followed by a warning not to do so, and then Xiaojie suddenly went crazy.

Originally a dead mouse, she did not take it to heart, after all, those alleyways are usually dark and damp, a little animal infestation is very normal.

Although the rat was shot by people’s eyes are out, but she was all focused on Bobin’s body, there is no extra energy to identify these small details.

“It seems to want to break through Ma Yanqiu’s psychological defenses, will be exceptionally difficult.” The company’s main goal is to provide a solution to the problem.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

The man walked to the lounge where Jie had stayed, picked up the complete and incomplete papers scattered on the ground, and walked without a word towards the interrogation room where Ma Yanqiu was.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The young woman was a little fl.ustered between her movements, seemingly trying to hide the loss on her face and looking very embarrassed: “Ms. Zhang.”

“What are you thinking about? Little Jie has been sent to the hospital, it should be nothing serious.” The words fell, Jiang Tianyu walked over to the other side and followed her line of sight downward twice.

“I saw it.” The police officer’s expression is hesitant, perhaps a little stimulated by the matter just now, with a trace of undetectable despondency under her eyes: “Before in the police school when studying, always fantasize that in the future officially joined the police, I want to work harder and do more practical work for the people.”

“But now I always wonder whether I am suitable for this line of work.”

“The reaction is always half a beat slower than others, even some of the ordinary unexpected situations can not cope with, I am afraid ..... afraid that someday in the future, will drag all colleagues in the team’s footsteps.”

“How long have you been in the police?” Jiang Tianyu coldly came to such a sentence.

Officer Xiao Wang thought carefully: “A year just a few days later.”

“It’s only been a year, no one starts a job without a hitch.” She walked to the side, pulled out a chair and sat down, waved her hand with a big grin: “I think when I ..... my family relatives just do this line, that than you can be a lot of shame!”

“You were blown up in the field when you were in the sh!t?”

“When you face the family, let people chase scolding for three days and three nights?”

“Have you ever been humiliated by someone pulling a banner in front of the unit? Do not say, that time that person brought the suona class blowing quite good .....

Hearing this, Officer Xiao Wang was successfully diverted part of his attention: “Ms. Zhang, your family relative is also a police officer?”

“Yeah, except she’s not local.” Jiang Tianyu smiled sarcastically and rubbed her hands sheepishly: “And the type of police is not quite the same as yours, but they are all within the same system, and the difference is not too much.”

“As long as you feel that this job can still find meaning, then stick with it, it will always get better and better.”

Wang also reluctantly recovered some spirit, came to her side and sat down: “You tell me about your relatives now the situation has become better? And why out in the field will be blown up all over the ..... well ..... poop ah?”

Looking at her that expectant little eyes, Jiang Tianyu a slap on the th!gh, the next time can be described as spittle flying, that called a gushing.

The little girl was listening to the giggles, and her eyes kept popping out with little stars.

“Sister Zhang, your relatives are really funny! But she is also really powerful, all this can still stick down not to quit.” The results of the in-depth communication are still quite obvious, and Officer Wang’s address to her has been upgraded from ‘Ms. Zhang’ to ‘Sister Zhang’.

Although Jiang Tianyu is smiling, but the look but hidden emotions can not be seen: "Because there is faith, right, why did you choose to study police school, why did you join the police, occasionally remember to help you firm up their future path."

Officer Wang nodded thoughtfully, then said expectantly, "I think your relative is a very good police officer, if you have the opportunity ....."

However, before she could finish her side of the words, there was a sound of footsteps outside the lounge door, and the next second Qi Ziang's figure appeared in the line of sight of the two.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look out the window and be surprised to find that the sky is already dark, it seems that this pleasant exchange between yourself and Officer Wang has lasted for two or three hours.

Qiziang, on the other hand, after responding to Officer Xiao Wang's greeting, walked straight to the woman's heels.

After observing his expression, Jiang Tianyu carefully out: "Officer Qi, Ma Yanqiu put down?"

"Not at first, but the technical section side found a set of teeth marks on both bodies, confirming that the a.buser had gnawed on them. The DNA extracted from the wounds is consistent with Jie's, and the technical section has also sent someone to the hospital to extract Jie's teeth for comparison, the results are not yet available, but there should be no more reversals."

Qiziang raised his hand and squeezed his brow: "There is still some biological evidence and trace evidence found on the body did not come to do the test, but I estimate that each of them will point to the real murderer."

"Plus Lu Li inadvertently revealed that patients who cannot control their ability to act will most likely be punished less severely, Ma Yanqiu decided to give a truthful account only after much deliberation."

"So those two missing children were indeed a.bused and k!lled by Xiao Jie." Jiang Tianyu slightly lowered her eyelids, it was hard to control herself from imagining the despair they suffered before closing their eyes.

Nodding gently, Qi Ziang continued, "Ma Yanqiu explained the location where Xiao Jie a.bused and k!lled the two children, all not far from where the parents found the children missing, and has now sent people over for forensics."

"According to Ma Yanqiu, the two missing children both tried to snatch Xiao Jie's teddy bear, which stimulated her to get sick."

“So after the incident, out of compensation, she bought two more identical ones and put them into the homes of the two child victims.”

At these words, Jiang Tianyu frowned lightly.

Qiziang saw what was in her mind with a glance, and before she could say anything, she spoke again: “Because those two families contacted the local free rescue organization after their children went missing, Ma Yanqiu had people she knew in the rescue organization, so she followed the rescuers and mixed into the victims’ homes.”

“And because she was not an official member of the team, her name would of course not be on the rescue team’s list, so when the police were investigating the rescue team, they failed to find anything unusual.”

“Where did both victims go missing?” Jiang Tianyu seemed to be not interested in how Ma Yanqiu carried out the aftermath, and suddenly asked this question.

When Qi Ziang simply answered, she closed her mouth and sat there not knowing what she was thinking.

At this time, has been watching the two people you sentence, I sentence of Officer Wang opened his mouth: “Qi team, then after the court will really consider a lighter sentence for Xiao Jie?”

After that, again with a very small voice muttered: “I do not think it is fair.”

The two children who were confirmed dead were truly innocent, and who would have thought they would lose their lives just because of a teddy bear?

“She is not completely unable to control her own behavior, let alone unable to identify the right and wrong of their actions.” Jiang Tianyu skimmed: “Besides, Ma Yanqiu said Xiaojie was stimulated to become ill because others snatched her teddy bear, thus the violence against the two children?”

“I think it may not be, if her account of the two locations where Xiaojie abused the victims are true, that Xiaojie is still quite able to control her emotions, know first to lure the children to a remote location, and then do it.”

“Doesn’t this mean that she actually has the ability to judge right from wrong.”

“Assuming that Jie’s current IQ is equivalent to that of a seven or eight year old child, all seven or eight years old, what doesn’t she understand?”

Raising an eyebrow rather approvingly, Qiziang raised his chin slightly, “That’s right, and the police technician also ‘grabbed’ her teddy bear earlier, she did go berserk at the time, but her behavior was completely controllable.”

At least someone stopped it and stopped, and afterwards followed Ma Yanqiu obediently to Zhang Baozhu's house next door to eat cookies.

"Also, the two crime scenes where she abused children, and where their mother and daughter now live, are some distance away. If Ma Yanqiu was not with her at that time, that proves that she is capable of walking out alone."

In summary, Jiang Tianyu does not feel that Xiaojie can escape the law.

"Oh, yes, I suddenly remembered that the door was unlocked before I went to Ma Yanqiu's house last night, I have to hurry back to see!" She slapped her head, took the large cloth pocket on the table, got up and slipped away.

Seeing that the case has been solved, only the important evidence collection steps remain, she does not want to faint in the Public Security Bureau again.

"Zhang ....." Qiziang side just opened his mouth, the woman is like a ghost chasing behind, only two seconds to run to the stairway, thud thud thud will hike down the stairs.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

"What were you two talking about before?"

"Not much, Sister Zhang saw me in a bad mood, so she amused me with her relative's embarrassing story when he first joined the police."

"Relative? What's the name?" Qiziang slightly narrowed his eyes, only to feel that he was about to catch some important information.

Officer Wang tried hard to recall, slowly shook his head: "She did not say, and her relatives are not in the local, as if in what ..... Jing Huai City."

Jing Huai City?

Like an instant thought of something important, Qiziang waved his hand at Officer Xiao Wang, then quickly walked away.

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 118 - Tips

0 8 minutes read

It's late at night.

Although the serious crime unit has solved two cases of missing children, and a kidnapping for ransom, but the follow-up still has a lot of work to do, so the office floor is still the same bright lights.

But compared to the previous rush of everyone coming and going, this time the pace of the people have become much lighter. After a busy phase, Lu Li and others even met to go outside the Sichuan restaurant to have a good rubdown.

After they went out, the lights in the office immediately went out a large part.

Only the lamp above Qi Ziang's head remained, and the light emitted enveloped a small part of the world below.

He tapped on the keyboard with one hand, and fiddled with the mouse from time to time with the other, and soon several searchable news items appeared on the computer monitor in front of him.

Shock! There was an explosion in a farm outside of JingHuai City! The scene is thick smoke! #The scene is thick smoke!

Jing Huai City, Wulong District suddenly a loud noise, scared the surrounding residents! Our reporter will take you to the scene!

The outskirts of the countryside is astonishing 'dark clouds', the truth is .....

These reports were published about a year ago, Qiziang lowered his eyes and roughly calculated the time, if that person first appeared in Jiangcheng City is into the body of the person involved in the case Zhou Ya, counting is really similar.

The first time the person appeared in Jiangcheng was into the person involved in the case, it is really about the same. Click into the several news reports, in fact, there is no substantive content, most of them are some specious words, remarkable with two photos taken at a distance, can not see anything.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

This situation represents what, of course, he knows very well, guess is the relevant departments to step in, directly stop the news.

In short, the content is confidential.

After sitting at his desk and pondering for a while, Qiziang got up and walked to the file cabinet behind him, taking out a dark blue file box from it.

The first thing you need to do is to look for a document.

The content inside the file is actually very simple, the date of issue in Jing Huai City, the suburban explosion case a few days after, when the province also opened a special video conference.

At that time, the serious crime unit seems to be busy with a case, so the meeting he was not able to personally attend, only vaguely remember Lu Li came back to say what attention to police safety and other words.

So the other side and the explosion in Jing Huai City have a relationship?

So many times contact down, Qiziang can basically determine that the soul is a peer, combined with the previous national system are open the subtle nodes of the General Assembly ..... that is to say, so many news media together with the closure of the wheat explosion case is most likely with the police a certain action secretly related.

Stuffed the documents back into the cabinet, he went to the window, the whole person hidden in the darkness, looking across the river on the highway, the lights of the cars coming and going constantly flashing.

Just then, a loud noise came from the corridor outside, and within two minutes Lu Li and the others rushed in carrying several food packing bags.

“Qi team, we thought about it and decided to come back to eat, eat and continue to work, early end early vacation!” Lu Li is very cheerful, pressed the wall of the row of switches, so that the whole office instantly became bright.

“Brought your share, come and eat!”

Qiziang smiled and said thanks, walked to the table and picked up a box of rice.

Next to Lu Li has long been a big mouthful of food, chewing while also asked vaguely: “Qi team, what are you just thinking about? Is not thinking about where to go to play after the official closure of the case?”

The opposite Xu Lida ‘snort’ laugh out loud: “What nonsense? Maybe our Qi team holidays have other arrangements, such as ..... matchmaking or something?”

The crowd burst into laughter, in this happy atmosphere, Qi Ziang lightly opened his mouth: “Listen to the political office said, this time we can have a person about four or five days of long vacation, as long as our group themselves discussed the rest in groups.”

“I really plan to go out, to Jing Huai City.”

"Jing Huai City?" Lu Li reacted in his head for a while, and then said with envy: "If I remember correctly, it's a southern coastal tourist city, right? The team really didn't expect you to have this leisurely mind!"

"Can't be your hometown is over there? No ah, I remember your account of the city ah?"

Don't blame him for feeling strange, and the man has been working for so long, the other side has always had only work in mind, not the type to travel.

In response, Qiziang did not respond clearly.

Soon, under the noise of others, Lu Li also left this matter behind.

At the same time, Zhang Baozhu's home, Jiang Tianyu, who had just filled her stomach with two white boiled eggs, was nestled in bed feeling the dizziness that had returned.

The next morning, Zhang Baozhu still carried the big cloth pocket out of the door, but this time she came to the hospital where Cui Yongfu was receiving treatment.

The woman entered the ward with no problem and looked coldly at the man who was handcuffed to the bed and had problems moving.

Cui Yongfu saw her coming, his expression had a momentary trance, although I do not know how to describe it, but he had a feeling that the one in front of him is the wife who has accompanied him for many years.

So, he shouted with a strong voice: "Bitch! Why don't you come over here and pour me a glass of water?"

Zhang Baozhu's hands hanging at her side clenched into fists, slowly walked to the hospital bed, and raised her right hand high in Cui Yongfu's smug gaze.

Slap!

A loud slap sounded in the hospital room, even though her whole body was trembling, Zhang Baozhu still said the words word by word: "I want to divorce you!"

.....

In April in the city of Jiangcheng, the weather is gradually warming up, although the temperature is still only a few degrees above zero, but the frozen river water in winter has long begun to melt.

The water surface looks sparkling under the soft daylight of early spring.

In a park near the river, Jiang Tianyu, who was wearing a small one-shoulder dress, squinted unconsciously against the cold, stiff river wind.

If the wind was a little stronger, she even felt that the false eyelashes on her eyes would fly out with her.

But even if the freezing teeth are chattering, the face is still to maintain a smile, just because she is now in a grand wedding scene.

The body she crossed this time was named Jiang Nanlu, one of the bridesmaids at the wedding.

In early spring in the north, chose to have a lawn wedding!

Even if the lawn wedding is not enough, the location is even at the river!

Even if it's by the river, even she, an outsider, knows that Jiangcheng City is a place where the wind only blows twice a year and once for half a year, at this moment she really wants to meet the 'genius' wedding planner.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

A total of eight young and beautiful men and women for the wedding after the opening warm-up, the two main followed the shining appearance.

At this time has walked off the stage Jiang Tianyu finally found a backwind place, raised his eyes to look at the bride who is standing there to accept the groom's proposal on one knee.

Even from such a distance, she could still see the other party's arms that were frozen with goose bumps, and the face that was so white that it was bloodless.

Somehow I feel miserable and happy at the same time.

A soft sobbing sound came from her ears, Jiang Tianyu turned her head to look over, the other three bridesmaids had been moved to start wiping up tears.

The corners of her mouth twitched, and she felt like she was going to cry too.

Looking at the romantic wedding ceremony going on in front of her, her thoughts began to gradually drift away.

According to the previous inertia, after she was separated from Zhang Baozhu's body, her soul should be in a completely dormant state until she entered another body again in about two months.

But this time it seemed a little different, during which she had the illusion of having briefly returned to her own body.

Jiang Tianyu even tried to open her heavy eyelids, but all she could see were patches of white, and someone was talking in her ears.

But the voice and her like a thick barrier between her, she only feel familiar, but no matter how hard you try, you can not hear.

The whole process was probably only a few seconds, but those few seconds were enough to give her hope that she could return to her body again.

“Nan Lu? Nan Lu?” Another bridesmaid reached out and gently nudged her while she was lost in thought: “The ceremony will soon be over, so go back to the lounge and bring Bebe’s bag over, there will be a toast when we return to the back of the hotel to eat the banquet later, and Bebe said that all the red envelopes she received should be bumped into that big red wedding bag.”

“Oh, good.” Jiang Tianyu answered, relying on the few remaining memories in her head, she ran all the way out of the lawn used to hold the wedding, towards about five or six hundred meters from here, the park provided in advance lounge.

The lounge is actually a small simple steel plate room standing in the corner.

The first time she pulled open the door and went in, she shivered violently.

First, from the many jackets piled up in the corner at this time turned out the original owner’s, put on the body after suddenly rose a sense of happiness suddenly came to life.

Then Jiang Tianyu found the exquisite style of full cowhide large red leather bag, carried in the hand.

By the time she returned to the wedding site, the wedding ceremony was over and the bride, Beibei, was surrounded by a crowd of friends and relatives receiving various blessings and pleasantries.

Even though the woman had frozen her face blue, she still had to keep a happy smile on her face.

Jiang Tianyu nimbly passed through the layers of people and came to the bride’s side. After helping her put on the pure white imitation fur small jacket, Bebe almost looked at her with tears in her eyes: “Nanlu, help me take out the small strawberry thermos in my bag.”

She quickly handed over the cup.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers. Prepare hot water early .....

While saying that, she unscrewed the lid of the cup, brought the cup to her mouth, and tilted her head in a big mouthful.

“Poof!”

The next second, Bebe suddenly blushed, twisted his head to just drink in the ‘water’ all spit out.

To everyone present did not expect is that the spit out the liquid is actually dark red, and the feet that withered yellow mixed with a little green grass formed a sharp visual contrast.

Caught off guard, Bebe's wedding dress was soiled.

Clean white and stinging red placed in one place, a glance over, let people gutted.

“What is this ..... ah ah ah ah ah ! ! ! ! !” Bebe wanted to get angry, but after looking clearly at the contents of the thermos cup, lost his soul like screaming out, directly throwing the cup in his hand with force!

The small strawberry cup fell on the grass, the liquid inside poured out, which was interspersed with half a finger belonging to the human!

More than ten minutes later.

Ambulances and police cars arrived at the scene almost at the same time.

The original joyful atmosphere on the lawn now became heavy, with guests gathering in twos and threes, pointing at the police-cordoned-off side.

The bride, who had been stunned, managed to regain consciousness under the first aid of the paramedics and just opened her eyes and turned her head, dry-heaving twice.

Then he threw his arms around the groom and cried in his arms, while crying and pointing in the direction of the police, beeping and complaining about something.

The four bridesmaids who were worried about the situation suddenly felt that they had been shown a face.

At this point, the blonde curly-haired bridesmaid who had spoken to the original owner spoke up again: "But who did this, anyway? Today is Bebe's wedding day, using this trick is not unethical?"

"Hmm?" Jiang Tianyu vaguely understood the disdain in the other party's words, slightly surprised and stared round.

According to Jiang Nanlu's memory, this bridesmaid should be named Ke Yuan.

"You are thinking that this is a prank?" She tilted her head thoughtfully.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market. And it's just the color and shape of the realistic, must be the whole compulsion, no reason to disgust people!"

Another bridesmaid with short black and straight hair also followed and opened her mouth: "Maybe it's one of Panze's ex-girlfriends."

Pan Ze is the groom of today's wedding, indeed tall and handsome, a peach blossom eyes no matter which person to look at, is a look of love.

At that, Ke Yuan also laughed twice: "According to you, Bebe's ex-boyfriends are also quite suspicious."

At once, the three bridesmaids burst into laughter.

Jiang Tianyu gathered up the tweed jacket she was wearing, glanced twice in the direction of the police line, and her expression did not look optimistic.

She has seen a lot of human limbs of all kinds, not to mention that when Bebe was drinking from the thermos, she was standing less than a meter to the side of the other side, so she naturally saw everything clearly.

The smell, the finger traits .....

Just thinking, only to hear the head of the Jiangcheng City Public Security Bureau technical section Zhang Ye out: "The reagent has a reaction, to be sure that it is human blood."

Then, that Jiang Tianyu familiar forensic pathologist also followed: "from the skin tissue and bone condition and other aspects of comprehensive judgment, is a human finger can not be wrong."

Although the two of them did not speak loudly, but the surrounding people still heard clearly.

The three bridesmaids who were still laughing and joking also changed their faces greatly, before their faces were just a little blue and white because of the cold, and now they look even more without a trace of blood.

“Oh my God .....

“I want to throw up .....

“Who on earth would do such a thing ah?”

The discussion sounded, Qiziang is standing next to the forensic doctor, but a pair of eyes quickly will be the wedding scene of the hundred or so people swept through: “can determine whether the owner of this finger is dead or alive?”

The forensic scientist took the magnifying glass from the assistant’s hand and looked at it carefully: “For the time being, I can’t tell, because from these liquid residues on the ground, which also contains a lot of muscle and bone, I suspect that a whole human palm was used to beat out.”

“The rest of this finger, the length is still less than two centimeters, the two sides of the finger wound smooth, should be some kind of sharp cutting tools caused.”

“For example, the wall breaker ..... so it is simply impossible to use the naked eye to determine the person’s death or survival from the living reaction at the incision.”

“Hmm.” Qiziang pondered a little, after which turned around and instructed Zhang Ye: “Sister Ye, you first keep an eye on the scene to collect all the relevant physical evidence, and then send a group of people over to the bridal lounge side to extract the fingerprints and trace evidence, as for the DNA and fingerprint collection of the guests present, a group of people will come over later to support.”

Zhang Ye answered: “Okay, team Qi, later when the DNA report of the finger and blood comes out, I will call you.”

“Thanks.” Qi Ziang said, lifted the side of the cordon and bent out.

Lu Li, on the other hand, rushed forward to smooth out the relationship of so many people present for him: “The groom’s name is Pan Ze, and the bride’s name is Bei Bei.”

“The eight bridesmaids and groomsmen over there are the newlywed couple’s respective friends, and as for the others, they are basically friends and colleagues of the two couples.”

"Just a few people in our group have been scattered seems to check their identity documents, this is the identity information summary of all present." Said, Lu Li handed him a tablet computer, open the document on the dense are the names and ID numbers.

"No one from the parents and relatives of both sides of the wedding ..... were present?" Qiziang raised an eyebrow in confusion.

"Young people well ..... it is said that the bride's wish is to have a grand lawn wedding, but also to take into account the family, so it is first to do a ceremony on this side only young people, later back to the hotel there is another ceremony, parents and relatives what are over there. " Lu Li explained.

Xu Lida on the side of the 'tch', by the way in the cold wind sucked the nose: "early April lawn wedding, this idea is really awesome."

In this regard, Qiziang did not have any special reaction, but the line of sight swept over the four bridesmaids, traces of a pause.

The four girls all look 25 or 26 years old, each as beautiful as the bride that appearance, makeup exquisite.

Only one person is particularly notable, the other three are wearing a very accentuated body short-shouldered dress, but the other is wrapped in a bloated tweed coat, from time to time also stomp to maintain the body's heat.

Retracted his gaze, Qiziang tapped the tablet in his hand: "First give a statement to those guests who have never approached the lounge, as for the newlywed couple, bridesmaids and groomsmen and make-up artists who are sure to have been in and out of the lounge and have access to that thermos, let them all return to the bureau for further investigation."

"Anyway, the distance is not far."

Lu Li and Xu Lida nodded one after another, not far indeed, the outdoor park where the wedding was held and the city's office building is across a river, even standing on the front railing to the northwest direction, can see the building hung on the national emblem.

As long as you pass the bridge across the river, you will be able to reach the City Bureau without any problems.

This decision, however, met with strong opposition from the bride, on the grounds that she and the groom had to rush back to the hotel to hold another ceremony.

“Do you know what is meant by an auspicious day and time?” Right now, the bride Bebe has regained her lively appearance, standing there with her arms crossed and gesticulating at Lu Li and Xu Lida in front of her, “My family has hired many masters to set today, it’s not impossible to make me cooperate with you guys, let’s do it tomorrow, I’ll drive there myself tomorrow.”

“Ms. Bei, the current situation is that it is highly likely that a potential murder case has been discovered, and the police would like you to .....” Lu Li tried to speak up and explain.

“What’s wrong with a murder case? I count myself as a victim, right? Come on, I’m married eh!” The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

The bridegroom Pan Ze, who saw the situation, kept trying to raise his hand to pull his wife, but unfortunately did not succeed until the end.

He could only tentatively open his mouth: “Be ..... Be ..... I have long called the hotel side, I guess Mom and Dad they are rushing to this side, or human life is important ... ..”

The first step back, out of this kind of thing, who can still be in the mood to go on ah?

The guests at the scene look are eager to immediately leave this obscure place, even if they barely follow them back to the hotel, everyone has a long face, he looked at still feel diarrhea it!

Who knows that when Bebe heard this, he turned his head and shouted: “Panze! Who told you to tell my parents? Do you know how long I have been preparing for a perfect wedding today? Only to have it ruined by a finger! It’s ruined!!!”

After saying that, she squatted down, covered her face with both hands and began to whimper and cry.

The beautiful woman in tears is always extraordinarily moving, especially a beautiful woman wearing a wedding dress, crown on top of her head, and the dark red dirty stain on the front of the wedding dress, but set off her whole person through a little bit of demonic beauty.

Ke Yuan and other people rushed forward to comfort, it seems that Panze is more and more at a loss for words.

Eventually, when Lu Li brought a group of people back to the bureau, it was more than an hour later.

Although most of the guests at the wedding site did not follow, but the nearly 20 people who came to the spacious corridor of the Municipal Public Security Bureau has been crowded to the brim.

The air conditioner in the building was still warm enough to blow the warmth around the person.

She probably put on this body a few hours ago, the wedding was about to start at that time, and only now she has a real sense of being alive.

But strangely enough .....

Jiang Tianyu first untraceably glanced at the bride a few steps away twice, then hung her head and frowned slightly, so far the original owner does not seem to have any suspicions ah.

Suddenly, Ke Yuan came up to Bebe's ear and whispered something.

The next second, Bebe's sharp voice resounded throughout the corridor: "Jiang Nanlu!"

Raising her head in dismay, she looked suspiciously at the woman who had approached her aggressively, only to see the other party put her right index finger under her eyes and questioned nonchalantly, "Jiang Nanlu, it's you, isn't it?"

"Me?"

"Don't pretend, do you think I don't know that you and Panze had an affair?!" Bebe's words were fierce, and her pretty features were a little twisted from excitement: "I didn't mention it before because I wanted to save your face, you say! Did you use such a vicious method in order to ruin the wedding of the two of us or not?"

"Thanks to I have been treating you as a bestie, and even let you be a bridesmaid in the wedding, and as a result, this is how you treat me?!"

Late but arrived.

Jiang Tianyu pursed her lips, if you look carefully, you can find that the muscles at the corners of her eyes twitched uncontrollably twice.

"Jiang Nanlu! You say something! Don't you look at me with such eyes, believe it or not I'll tear your face?!" As Bebe spoke, she stretched out her hand and was about to go forward, but Pan Ze, who was quick on the side, quickly wrapped his arm around her waist.

The rest of the people naturally have also come forward to pretend to persuade two words.

Slap!

A crisp slap sounded in the corridor, and the originally noisy crowd was completely silenced by this sudden change of events.

And as soon as Qi Ziang got off the elevator from afar, he saw this scene.

“Bebe! Are you crazy?!” Panzer covered the right side of his face, with a look of disbelief.

“I am crazy! I’ve been planning my wedding for so long, and this b!tch ruined it, and you’re still helping her?” The bride, Bebe, continued her accusations with fierce words.

“Panze, are you still in love with her?”

The man’s face is helpless, two steps forward to clutch the other party’s shoulders, expression sincere: “Bebe, we have talked about this matter properly before the wedding. We agreed to let go of the past together, didn’t we?”

“The one who didn’t let go is you!”

The first thing you need to do is to look at the bench with resentment, looking like you can rush out at any time.

At this time, a male voice came from the side, successfully breaking the tense atmosphere.

“Ms. Bei, right?” The woman’s body was warmed by the hot tea in the questioning room.

In the end, it is the face of the police, or a very oppressive male police, Bebe finally just a warning glance at Panze, leaving a cold hum and left.

After she left, the crowd all subconsciously out of breath.

Pan Ze also walked up to Jiang Tianyu, sorry to open his mouth: “Nan Lu, really sorry, you should know Bebe’s temper better than I do .....

Jiang Tianyu frowned, feeling the dull pain coming from her chest and the scattered memories that suddenly flashed in her mind.

After two seconds, she lifted her eyelids slightly, looking at Ke Yuan and the other two bridesmaids not to stare in the direction of the look of concentration, speechlessly rolled her eyes: "If you really feel embarrassed, you should stay away from me a little."

But is the sc. um meet rich girl after abandoning the original girlfriend this old story, is not worth mentioning.

If we really count up, we can only say that the original owner's character is too weak and benign, watching his girlfriend fall in love, but also can not bear to mention those past in front of each other, which has created the situation today.

Panze understood the meaning of her words, turned his head and looked at Ke Yuan and others for a few moments, then opened his mouth again: "The thing between us, is that I and Bebe said. Today just because of this kind of accident, she is not in a good mood, in the future there will not be just that kind of situation happen again."

"Only, Bebe thermos ..... should not really be you did it?"

"Nan Lu, I thought we both broke up peacefully at first, you also sincerely bless me and Bebe, right ....."

Looking at each other's mouth open and close in front of the eyes, Jiang Tianyu eyebrows almost wrinkled to the sky, this person said every word she understands, how to combine together after so outrageous it?

Suddenly, a few steps away, Ke Yuan came over to me: "Panze, what are you talking about? She has a boyfriend now, how could she do something to ruin your wedding with Bebe?"

"Right? Nan Lu?"

Jiang Tianyu smiled perfunctorily at the woman, this goods is a standard two-faced person.

The first thing you can do is to say that the sudden outburst of Bebe was not the handiwork of Ke Yuan, she did not even believe it.

The result is that this person ran to her again to sell good, people before and after two faces, but also not too tired.

"You have a boyfriend? How come I didn't know?" Pan Ze subconsciously blurted out, and then felt that this word is quite ambiguous, and hurriedly find a complement: "I mean, have not heard Bebe mentioned."

The first time he said this, Ke Yuan opened his mouth again: "Nan Lu said she wanted to wait for her relationship to stabilize before she brought her boyfriend to see us."

A bit tired of this false friendship, Jiang Tianyu very dry slightly raised his chin: "None of your business."

"....."

I don't know if it was because they were surprised by her vulgar and blunt words, or were shocked by her firm and imposing eyes, but in any case, Pan Ze and Ke Yuan's expressions were a bit sarcastic, and they didn't come over to annoy her for the next while.

The next half hour or so passed, during which people were called by other police officers to other questioning rooms to make statements.

In the end, until Jiang Tianyu had finished questioning, Bebe's side still did not seem to have the intention of ending.

She didn't stay here, but after getting permission from the police and greeting Ke Yuan and others, she chose to return to the original owner Jiang Nanlu's residence first.

After leaving the office building of the Municipal Public Security Bureau, she also saw several top-quality luxury cars parked crookedly in the courtyard, thinking it should be the Bei family received notice and immediately rushed over.

The value of each of those cars is above seven figures, an astronomical figure that ordinary people can't save in their lifetime.

Jiang Tianyu scratched his head, what he saw in front of him was very consistent with Jiang Nanlu's memory, the Bei family did eat very open in Jiangcheng City.

It's no wonder that Pan Ze ran after each other's asses as soon as he saw Bebe, marrying a girl from this family is not just a decade less of struggle.

Even if his family's own conditions are good, but in front of the absolute wealth, anyone can hardly do not be moved, right?

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

"Nanlu, are you going home? Why don't you come along?" Ke Yuan turned back to her and complained, "Xiao Man and Xin Xin are talking about going shopping, I don't want to go all the way with them."

“The two of us together how to be considered a companion, you are not afraid I am still afraid.”

Jiang Tianyu's eyes flashed, after a few seconds of silence did not refuse, but turned to the driver reported an address, considered to agree to the woman's request.

The family conditions are not bad, living alone in a small apartment with a river view of eightjiu ten square meters, and a more decent administrative job in a foreign company.

When the two of them opened the door and entered the apartment, the sky outside was already a bit dark.

Very casual to throw the bag on the beige fabric sofa, Jiang Tianyu greeted Ke Yuan casual seat.

The house is decorated warmly and without losing a little romance, in the living room in front of the small floor-to-ceiling windows on the ground is a thick layer of white blankets, transparent glass tabletop also placed a set of exquisite French coffee porcelain cups, looks extremely moody.

Next to the vase with a few sunny ornamental sunflowers, the corner will be more and more lively up.

A very typical love of life, living alone girl's home, but after wandering around, Jiang Tianyu was not able to find any traces of 'love' here.

There is no second person's furniture items, no man's clothes, and no joint photos or other things that can prove the relationship between the couple.

The original owner's phone was replaced with a new phone only ten days ago, regardless of the call records, information exchange or social app, no abnormalities can be seen.

But just because there was nothing, Jiang Tianyu felt that something was not quite right.

She vaguely felt that the human finger that appeared at the wedding was certainly not that simple, and to take a step back, she had been through so many bodies, when the suspicion so 'light' ever?

The thing is that there must be a demon, after experiencing so many big and small scenes, how miserable the original owner's situation is, she will no longer feel surprised.

This is one of the reasons why Jiang Tianyu let Ke Yuan come with her family, since the other party just said in front of Panze at the Public Security Bureau that Jiang Nanlu is currently in a relatively stable relationship, that is bound to know something.

She now has to find out two things.

First, how much does Ke Yuan know, and see if you can tell from it who the 'mysterious' boyfriend really is.

Second, Jiang Nanlu and the finger at the wedding, in the end, how inextricably linked.

After thinking about it, Jiang Tianyu handed a bottle of water to Ke Yuan on the sofa, then turned around and went into the kitchen to start preparing dinner.

The original owner's cooking skills should be quite good, according to the body's muscle memory, she actually also drummed up three dishes and one soup.

She had already changed into her housecoat, her long hair was loosely held behind her head with shark clips, and with the warm lighting in the kitchen and the bubbling sound of boiling in the casserole, it added a bit of fireworks to the small apartment.

Even Ke Yuan leaned on the sofa and looked dumbfounded. After regaining his senses, he got up and wandered over to the open kitchen bar and sat down on his butt and lamented, "Nan Lu, if I were a man, I would have married you."

"To put it in a bad way, Bebe kind of delicate lady is not suitable for home life."

This sounded sour, on the surface it sounded like a compliment to Jiang Nanlu, but when you look at it, it was a detriment to both people together.

Jiang Tianyu did not seem to hear the derogatory words in her words, just pulled the corner of his lips: "Nowadays, in this society, men are also very realistic."

Married to a girl of Beibei's stature, what else do you need to live at home? Compared to the bland firewood and oil and salt, there are still more people who like paper and gold.

"It's a good thing that someone has a discerning eye." Ke Yuan raised her eyebrows with a smirk: "By the way, didn't you say to me before that you would try to bring your boyfriend here at Bebe's wedding? What? Is he very busy?"

"Well ....." Jiang Tianyu responded vaguely.

The first thing you can do is to take a look at the situation, and then you can say, "No, what kind of son-in-law are you hiding so tightly? If I hadn't seen you two enter the hotel together last time, you might not have admitted it!"

"I say Nan Lu, you are not afraid of the well rope once bitten by a snake, are you?"

"Don't worry, the rest of these girlfriends, but there is no one like Bebe kind of head to toe emitting the aroma of money." The woman said, some bored fiddling with the crystal wine glass on the bar: "Earlier heard you say, the other party is working in Yang Wei Group? Isn't that the company of Bebe's family?"

"Then this person is also a little too ignorant, girlfriend's best friend, Yang Wei Group young princess wedding he did not hurry to take advantage of the opportunity to climb the relationship, what else do you want?" The words to this, Ke Yuan obviously some distracted, obviously to Jiang Nanlu that boyfriend's identity feel some disappointment.

Jiang Tianyu, on the other hand, slowly narrowed her eyes, after going through the fragmented information in the other party's words, asked as if she had no intention, "You said you saw me and my boyfriend at the hotel, which hotel?"

"Eh? I did not tell you at that time? It is the downtown Kaiwei ah, the Bebe family." Ke Yuan casually returned a sentence.

Between lightning and fire, Jiang Tianyu suddenly remembered something.

Knock, knock, knock!

"It's so late? Who is it? Are you meeting someone? Or is it your boyfriend?" Ke Yuan asked a series of questions, slipping on her slippers and walking towards the entrance.

There was no answer, Jiang Tianyu just untraceably gripped the knife in her hand and tilted her head to quietly look at the closed security door.
