“Who” Ke Yuan had by now gone to the door, her right hand on the door handle.

The next second the door opened, her remaining question turned into a short scream, followed by hands in the air.

While staring at the tip of the knife that came up to his nose in the light reflecting the cold light, while trembling: “Big brothers, what do you want? Have a good talk”

The back, retreating her back suddenly against the wall behind her, so subconsciously ‘oing’ a sound.

The visitors are two tall and strong men, because they are wearing black masks and baseball caps, so it is impossible to see their faces.

The man who rushed in first, holding a long knife, forced Ke Yuan into a corner and opened his mouth speculatively: “Are you Jiang Nanlu?”

When Ke Yuan heard the question, it was as if she had suddenly grabbed some straw, shaking her head and waving her hands: “I’m not! I’m not Jiang Nanlu, I’m just here to play, no matter how she offended you guys, it has nothing to do with me!”

“Where is Jiang Nanlu?” The man directly touched the blade to the woman’s delicate neck, and continued to ask questions.

Ke Yuan hurriedly raised her hand and pointed to the open kitchen.

However, three eyes have looked over, the kitchen has long been empty, only the gas on the stew of the ca.sserole lid by the water vapor top jumping.

“Damn, b!tch, play me? The man in charge cursed viciously and unceremoniously used his other hand to rip through Ke Yuan’s long hair, causing her to scream in pain.

The silver chain hanging around his neck also kept swinging around because of his movements.

“If you don’t behave, do you believe I’ll chop you up?”

“Ooooooooooooooooooooo” Now Ke Yuan only knows how to cry with her voice, her mind is already stuffed with fear, nothing else but fear.

At this point, another man who had been standing at the entrance opened his mouth hesitantly: "Brother, this woman really does not seem to be Jiang Nanlu, and the photos we have seen, do not look like"

"What do you know, women now love pictures, not like is not very normal." The silver chain man's mouth although so said, but in the end is made a little hesitant by the words of his accomplice, after a short period of thought, in the end still rushed to the direction of the kitchen nudged the mouth.

"Go over and take a look."

The little brother in the dark-colored punching jacket jacket nodded and also fished out a dagger from his trouser pocket and cautiously walked to the open kitchen near the bar.

He stretched his neck and looked inside, but he didn't seem to find anything unusual, and then went around, intending to walk directly into the kitchen.

But at that moment, there was a sudden change!

The kitchen suddenly flew out a weighty pineapple-shaped plate, and the young man in the punching suit was unable to dodge, and was smashed directly on the head.

"Ow!!!" The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The other three people in the apartment did not react to what happened, Jiang Tianyu very quickly rushed out from the kitchen, flying up with legs tightly confined the other party's hands and head, a spin in the air so that the man also followed a circle, fell heavily to the ground.

The young man in the punching bag still wanted to struggle, but saw a shadow over the head down.

Then along with a muffled 'dong' sound, he lost consciousness instantly with a roll of his eyes.

It's a long story, but in fact the whole process only took two or three breaths.

Jiang Tianyu in sure that the other party can not move, then slowly released the force clamped the man's legs, by the way, the hands carrying two centimeters thick vegetable plate to the ground to the side.

Seven or eight pounds of stuff fell on the smooth floor tiles made a big noise, directly shocked the silver chain brother and Ke Yuan are back.

"You you you" the man looked at the woman who took steps to gradually force her way in, subconsciously tugging Ke Yuan took two steps back and threatened: "I'll k!ll her if you go forward!"

Stopping her steps, Jiang Tianyu frowned, as if she thought it was strange: "Aren't you looking for me? As a result, I took the initiative to go over and you said no?"

At this moment, Ke Yuan finally recovered a bit of spirit, busy and holding their own man to show loyalty: "It is her, big brother, she is Jiang Nanlu, I really did not lie to you, please let me go!"

In a place she did not notice, the man with the silver chain gulped a mouthful of saliva, and unconsciously glanced twice at the unconscious punching bag lying on the ground.

The eyes hidden in the dark under the brim of the hat turned, he had a bright idea and simply kicked the 'strangled dog' that had just fallen at his feet across the room: "Use this to tie your own hands! Now! Immediately! Immediately!"

"Or the safety of your good friend" The threatening words had just fallen, and the sharp knife held in the man's hand was pressed forward again.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing. Hurry up! Do you really want to stand by and watch me die?!"

Jiang Tianyu face quietly stared at them both for a while, in the two people took turns urging, only slowly bent down to pick up the tie.

After lowering her head slightly and biting the end of the tie with great sk!ll to bind her hands, she raised her head and blinked at the other party: "Let go."

"Ch!" The man with the silver chain gave a silent sigh of relief, but out of caution, he still fished out two more ties.

One tied Ke Yuan's hands behind her back in a reverse cut position, while the other walked over to Jiang Tianyu's side and tied her feet tightly as well.

Only after doing all this did he wipe a handful of sweat that flowed from his forehead to his chin and cursed as he walked towards the unconscious punching boy: "Damn, one stinking b!tch can't even handle it, how many times have I told you to use wisdom! Wisdom!"

Just as he muttered kung fu, suddenly felt a cold breeze coming from behind!

And at this time fell to the ground Ke Yuan also followed the astonished round eyes, full of incredulous look at obviously both hands and feet have been tied Jiang Tianyu flexible move up.

She first fell down sharply, then controlled her body with her feet directly to the other side of the calf, so that the man who was walking upright was caught off guard and fell to the ground.

The two hands were heavily pressed against each other, and Jiang Tianyu picked up the sharp knife that had fallen to the ground, first cutting the ankle strap, then the right hand nimbly flipped the knife around, and the other strap came off.

When the man with silver chains underneath him still tried to struggle, he suddenly felt a slight chill on his neck and was shocked to realize that the knife that was originally held tightly in his hand was now being attached to his aorta in an uncomfortable manner.

“Tell me, what do you want from me?” Jiang Tianyu’s voice had no ripples.

“No no it’s all a misunderstanding, misunderstanding.” Silver chain man still want to mouth hard to defend it, did not expect the next second before his eyes, the original head wearing a hat has been removed.

Immediately after the mask also came off, a plain face appeared in Jiang Tianyu’s line of sight.

The thick eyebrows, wide nose and thick lips made up the face of a common street hoodlum, pushing the knife forward a few millimeters, her voice still cold: “Who sent you? I have offended you?!”

The man shivered and struggled to tilt his head back and shrink his neck, becoming grimacing because of the muscle soreness coming from his shoulders and neck: “How could it be

“We have no grudge in the past, what offense

The other party is still trying to distract her with the broken thoughts, but after noticing the blade slightly into the skin, busy began to beg for mercy: “Woman, spare life ah! We’re just taking money from people, and we’re just doing it for people!”

“But we don’t know who that person is! Probably for security reasons, the person who gave us the money never appeared.”

“It seems that your boyfriend has offended someone, so people want to go down on you, you want to ask your boyfriend?” The man cautiously suggested.

The traces between Jiang Tianyu's eyebrows became more and more profound, again the boyfriend who had no trace of existence in Jiang Nanlu's life, if she knew exactly who it was, the matter would be simple.

The company's main goal is to provide a solution to the problem of the problem.

The two home invaders on the ground are unable to move, she then clapped her hands and got up, clutching a sharp knife and a dagger in her hand, and slowly walked in the direction of the living room.

During Ke Yuan also loudly begged two, but soon noticed the woman's eyes that a cold, then they knew how to purse their lips and shut their mouths.

Sure enough, not long after, with the phone reported to the police Jiang Tianyu without much delay walked back to Ke Yuan's side.

After untying the woman's wrist tie, her expression did not fluctuate significantly as she watched the other party vainly hide to the side, she did not pay much attention, but turned around and crossed the two caterpillar-like two criminals writhing on the ground, straight back to the kitchen.

The two men were on the floor, squirming like caterpillars.

Far in the living room sofa shivering Ke Yuan see this scene, can not help but from the bottom of the heart rose a touch of coolness, unconsciously hugged the pillow in the arms, shaking more powerful.

About ten minutes later, people from the police station in the area arrived at the scene, after carefully asking about the incident and checking the murder weapon, the police officers chose to report to the higher authorities.

However, to their surprise, they did not expect to come to the District Public Security Bureau Criminal Investigation Brigade, but waited for the City Public Security Bureau's Serious Crime Unit.

Qi Ziang entered the door just measured the two unlucky home invaders two eyes, the mouth hung a smirk almost imperceptible, then instructed Lu Li and Xu Lida to go over and the police station colleagues to hand over, he walked to Jiang Tianyu's body.

Without too much nonsense, he took out a photo and asked bluntly, "Ms. Jiang, do you know this person?"

Jiang Tianyu narrowed her eyes, a trace of understanding quickly flashed in the depths of her eyes, then nodded: "Yes, technically speaking, it's my ex-boyfriend."

The kind that just broke up only ten or so days ago, guessing that this is also the fundamental reason why Jiang Nanlu changed her phone in the first place.

The relevant memories that popped up in her mind were not much, and still intermittent, but they were enough for her to deduce roughly what had happened.

The gods are tired of raising their hands and rubbing their brows, what the fvck is this all about, feelings are waiting for her here?

“Ex-boyfriend” Qiziang stretched his voice, his expression somewhat meaningful: “I regret to inform you that the DNA results of the fingers and human tissue found in that thermos of the bride Bebe at the wedding are the same as those of your ex-boyfriend is the same.”

“Ha?” Before Jiang Tianyu could react, Ke Yuan, who had been eavesdropping a few steps away, finally couldn’t hold back her exuberant curiosity and leapt over with a single arrow step, tilting her head to take a couple of peeks.

But after seeing the face on the photo, she exclaimed with great dismay: “Betsy?

“Jiang Nanlu, you actually screwed Bebe her brother?

What Jiang Nanlu screwed Bebe her brother, accurately it should be Betsy screwed Jiang Nanlu right.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you’re doing.

The first thing you need to do is to get your hands on your ex-girlfriend.

“Because Ms. Bey mentioned a lot of interesting things in the course of her previous statement.”

“If Ms. Jiang has time, why don’t we go back to the bureau and talk about it in detail?” The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

Jiang Tianyu shrugged her shoulders and agreed, only to glance at the three dishes and one soup on the cupboard with regret before leaving the door.

As for Ke Yuan and the two unidentified home invaders, naturally they were also taken back together.

After all, the two criminals have mentioned that someone hired them to attack Jiang Nanlu is related to Bei Qi, so it is very likely that they are also involved in the case of Bei Qi's disappearance and murder.

The time is already late at night, Jiang Tianyu from the police car, when the cold wind blowing by the river, the brain suddenly felt a lot more awake.

When she was about to walk up the steps in front of the Public Security Bureau office building, a figure suddenly came out of nowhere, but fortunately the outermost Lu Li reacted quickly, and directly reached out his hand to stop the person.

But stop the person but can not block the other party's mouth, the next second sharp voice cut through the night sky.

"Jiang Nanlu! You are shameless! What did our family owe in a previous life? This life you screw me and then screw my brother? The wedding dress had already been removed from the body, wearing only a small leather jacket and tight jeans, a pretty face suffocated red.

"Ms. Bei, please calm down now the facts are not clear, " Lu Li tried to persuade.

The actual fact is that the actual fact is not clear. The only thing that is not clear is that she was dumped by my brother and wanted to take revenge on him, revenge on our family!

For her accusations, Jiang Tianyu only cold eyes, and after her yelling, also squeezed out a light laugh from his nose.

The laughter was not mixed with any extra emotions except sarcasm, and in this silent dark night, it was particularly creepy.

"So sure?" She slowly opened her mouth, her tone peculiar: "What exactly Betsy did to me, you are more than clear, and now your reaction, can I interpret it as a weak heart?"

"You fart!" When did Bebe suffer this kind of aggravation, then broke into a cuss: "You deserve it! My brother just loves me and wants to teach you a lesson for me, this in-your-face, behind-your-back biaozi!"

"If you weren't greedy for our family's money, how could you be with my brother?"

Each and every unfounded accusation is like a sharp sword, fast and accurate towards Jiang Tianyu.

It can be imagined that if the original owner Jiang Nanlu was standing here at this moment, how much of a blow and psychological torture she would have to endure, knowing that she had done nothing wrong.

It's normal to be pursued by a handsome and wealthy looking man who happens to be single, isn't it?

Why was she forced to suffer this humiliation when she had only developed a relationship that seemed normal on the outside?

This was even more hurtful than when Betsy broke up with her ten days ago without warning and told her some truths.

Betsy said that everything was a bureau against her, just because she was Panzer's ex-girlfriend, and Bebe felt betrayed and unhappy anymore.

In the man's ten thousand hurtful words, Bebe did not know anything about this matter, he said so, Jiang Nanlu just believed it.

Afterwards, he licked his wounds alone, and also turned his head to continue to give people as bridesmaids to go.

But Jiang Tianyu is not Jiang Nanlu, a little thought to figure out the fishy, can't help but feel that this Bei family is really the upper beam is not right, the lower beam is crooked, children are selfish and childish, bad to the bone.

She can speculate clear things, around this circle of human-like police can naturally understand. The existence of this entanglement between the two sides, in the eyes of the police can be said to be a fairly convincing motive for the crime.

"What? I have revealed the truth, so the heart is weak to dare not speak up? Bebe lifted his chin in triumph.

"That's not true." Jiang Tianyu calmly shook his head, then said very seriously: "I just think you and Bebe Qi are worthy of being brother and sister, and now that his whereabouts are unknown, you'd better be careful too."

The smug expression on Bebe's face had not yet had time to put away, so it froze there, and after regaining his senses, he stomped at Qiziang and the others and complained, "She threatened me? Are you police deaf? Did you not hear what she just said? My brother must have been harmed by her, why don't you hurry up and arrest her!"

After Jiang Tianyu said that, she took the lead and walked into the office building as if nothing had happened.

As for Lu Li and others, they responded in a perfunctory manner, and then after handing the person over to Pan Ze, who was a few steps away and did not dare to go forward, they all turned around and left.

After a short drama, Jiang Tianyu, sitting in the quiet interrogation room, finally sighed her first breath of the night.

Before she could land on this breath, the door in front of her was pushed open and Qi Ziang walked in with Lu Li.

Before the two of them were seated, Lu Li spoke first: "Do you have anything to refute Ms. Beibei's accusation?"

"The finger that appeared in Bebe's thermos has nothing to do with me." Jiang Tianyu's response was both simple and clear, obviously not willing to waste too much breath on this matter.

Qi Ziang unexpectedly raised his eyebrows, opened the tablet computer in his hand, then twisted the screen and rushed across the room: "A little earlier, the police questioned the relatives of both sides waiting at the hotel, also checked the hotel and park surveillance, and determined that the victim, Bei Qi, had never been to the wedding site."

"According to the recollection of the Bae family, Baezie was busy with work-related matters for the past two days and did not return home. Bei's mother talked to him on the phone once yesterday evening and instructed him to make sure he showed up before the ceremony started at the hotel today."

"After that we went to the headquarters of the Yang Wei Group, which Baezi now manages, and the secretary said that he was last seen yesterday afternoon, so we can basically deduce the approximate time of his disappearance."

"The question is where was Ms. Jiang last night?"

Jiang Tianyu slightly lowered her eyelids, hands on the interrogation table, unconsciously breaking the long, slender and good-looking fingers: "is the normal off duty, home, rest, more than four in the morning got up and went to Bebe's home to help her prepare."

"Don't bother to ask, I live alone, no one can testify for me."

Lu Li looked a little dissatisfied with her attitude, reached out his hand and tapped the tablet screen, allowing the surveillance video on it to start playing up.

"This is the entire surveillance video of the lawn wedding scene, and according to the bride Bebe's recollection, she also drank hot water from the cup shortly before the wedding officially started."

"It shows that just in that hour or so, the hot water inside the thermos was replaced with human tissue and severed fingers. This video clearly records the figures that entered the bridal lounge during that time, including you, and you entered and left the lounge more than once, so you should have had ample time to commit the crime."

Listening to the meaningful words in her ear, Jiang Tianyu did not respond at the first time.

She just quietly watched the video on the screen, and silently noted down the few people who entered and left the lounge.

In addition to the original owner, Jiang Nanlu, are the three remaining bridesmaids, as well as the makeup artist, videographer and two other guests who came to congratulate them.

The number of people is much smaller than Jiang Tianyu expected.

At the end, she withdrew her eyes and opened her mouth indifferently: "I am the bridesmaid, and Bebe is especially targeting me because of Panze, the frequent access to the lounge that I have, every time is ordered by her, it doesn't say much, right?"

Jiang Nanlu's character is really too soft, just like an old cow that is willing to work and complain, allowing Bebe to toss and turn without a word of complaint.

"That's enough to say." Lu Li clung to this point and did not relax: "treated by this pair of siblings like this, you really have no idea in your heart?"

"People are not saints, produce some dissatisfaction, we can all understand."

The man's invisible emotional guidance, fell in Jiang Tianyu's eyes, the image more or less tinged with a little lewd.

"That's all I have to say, in any case, I didn't do it, you guys go ahead and check it out." She spread her hands, simply set up a rotten: "By the way, you did not also bring back from my home two illegal entry? Instead of sitting here and I deadlocked, it might be better to ask them to come to the pain."

Not to mention the two thugs okay, mentioned Lu Li more feel like saying something.

But before he could open his mouth, he received a signal from the people around him, and reluctantly shut up, got up and walked out of the interrogation room with the other side.

Just walk to the corridor, not waiting for the door to close automatically behind them, Lu Li thin lips: "This Jiang Nanlu is also a little too difficult to figure out."

"You say she has a bad personality, but she is obedient to that Bebe, you want to say she has a good personality, how can she be slippery when facing the police?"

Speaking of this, he paused slightly, then gave his conclusion: "I still think she has a great suspicion of the crime, the old saying, will bite are not called."

"And ah, you see she did not sound to put down two strong men, the pressure is not like to be able to tolerate the model!"

Lu Li reluctantly muttered, if not for the traces of the lounge, fingerprints and other related evidence and mixed, where the other party's turn to gibberish here.

Qiziang was silent for a while, then without saying a word, he stepped away and walked to the side.

"Qi team, you're not really going to try those two illegal entry, right?" Lu Li asked in amazement.

"Of course not, it's enough to have Brother Xu over there." Qi Ziang head did not return to respond.

The duo's modus operandi is so crude, and their hands are so crotch-pulling, it is estimated that it will not take long to be put down.

"Is Betsy's family still downstairs?"

"In ah." Lu Li a little puzzled.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

Still have to contact with the family again, he always felt that there is something else in this case.

After Qiziang got off the elevator and went to the glass door on the first floor, he really saw Bebe and Panze standing in the front yard.

At this moment, Bebe's emotions still seem to be more excited, constantly pacing in place, hands from time to time also pointing in the air.

As for the other side of Pan Ze, a completely unable to interrupt the look, occasionally open just said two words on the other side to interrupt, only a face of exhaustion and helplessness.

Not far behind the two of them, there is a luxury car parked, through the front window, faintly visible inside the two figures sitting.

"The woman, the character is very powerful." The gatekeeper's grandfather came to his side at some point, while glancing at the time on the electronic screen in the lobby of the first floor, while lamenting: "It seems that we can't sleep again tonight."

At that, Qi Ziang also raised his wrist to look at his wristwatch, the time is already close to 1:30 am.

"Team Qi, working late again?" The doorkeeper standing there with his hands behind his back smilingly stared at him, his tone familiar: "This case is very difficult?"

Qi Ziang shook his head and lost his smile, fished out a box of unopened cigarettes from his trouser pocket and handed it over: "Which case that falls into the hands of the Major Crime Unit is not tricky? This is something Uncle Sun should know better than I do."

The doorkeeper is not polite, casually took the cigarettes, and raised his chin outside: "When I was young, I was most impatient to deal with this kind of eyes on the top of the head, you can be much better than me."

"You're really modest, I'm counting on you to give me some ideas." He sounded sarcastic.

"Oh, I'd better go back and listen to the play, you go on with your work!" The old man changed the subject, waved his hand and then turned around and headed for the janitor's office.

He seemed to have a problem with his right foot, walking with a limp, but his movements were sharp, and his back was straight, in contrast to the white hair.

Qiziang looked at the other side of the back of the eyes hidden an indefinable complex emotions, finally withdrew his gaze, took a deep breath and pushed open the door and walked out.

He lit a cigarette, but he did not put it in his mouth, but stood by the steps with his hand clasped, facing the cool breeze of the night, allowing it to flicker in the darkness.

Obviously, the moment he came out, someone noticed.

After about two or three more minutes, there was a muffled 'bang' not far away, followed by the sound of chaotic footsteps.

"This officer"

Qiziang heard the movement and turned back, handsome face still hanging a trace of just the right amount of suspicion, waiting to see the visitor's face, politely nodded: "Hello."

However, before the older woman could say anything, Bebe rushed up from behind and spoke up first: "What about it? I remember your last name is Qi, right? The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of where she's hiding my brother."

The other party did not answer the question, Qi Ziang first looked at the three people a few times.

In addition to the newlywed couple, the other woman who looked older was the mistress of the Bey family, called Wu Limin.

She is the mother of Bei Bei and Bei Qi, through the afternoon's brief contact, personality looks similar to Bei Bei.

But in the end is some life experience in the body, plus the son is currently in a state of disappearance, at this time she is left only anxious and worried.

"The police very understand everyone's feelings, but my colleagues should have said to you long ago, the case is not a moment to break, you can go home to rest and relax. Once there are any clues or news, we will definitely be the first to inform." Qiziang tone flat, expression vaguely transparent point for a few people still here disapproval.

Wu Limin smiled and looked sad: "Officer Qi, you can never empathize with a mother."

"Xiao Qi's residence, the company you have been to, have not been able to find any clues?!"

"Mr. Bei's apartment was clean, and according to the hired cleaning staff, she cleaned the whole house thoroughly yesterday morning." As if out of sympathy, Qiziang informed the other party of some of the information the police had so far.

"From this, we deduce that Mr. Bey has not returned to live in the apartment for about two days, as for his specific whereabouts, we are still in the process of investigating."

"By asking Mr. Bey's secretary and other colleagues in the company that he had gone to work normally until yesterday afternoon, so we are pulling the company's internal surveillance video of that day to see if we can have a chance to figure out where he went."

"It's just that the complexity of this work is very high, and I hope you can understand that no one other than the family wants to find the victim as soon as possible than us as police officers."

When Bebe heard his words, it seemed like she wanted to open her mouth to say something, but she was preempted by Wu Limin.

The woman hurriedly nodded vigorously and took another small step forward: "I understand, and I believe! Please must save my son, he He must be in particular pain now that he even lost his hand."

"Xiao Qi has not suffered much since he was a child, whenever I think of the day the killer cut his hand down, my heart" said this, she raised her hand to cover the location of the heart, two eyes rolled over, look is actually close to fainting.

Panze and Bebe hand to hand to catch the person, even press the person and then fan the wind with the hand, at least did not let people lose consciousness.

Qi Ziang saw the situation took out the phone to Lu Li and a few others called down, Wu Limin is leaning on Panze's body weakly waved his hand: "I'm really sorry Officer Qi, scared you, the old problem is not necessary to find any ambulance, I slightly gasp two breaths on."

"What else do we need to cooperate with next, you just say."

This is what we are waiting for, Qi Zion's expressionless face, the curve of the lower jaw line suddenly softened a lot: "With Ms. Wu's words, our police really feel twice as warm."

He just out of the building door Lu Li in the moment of hearing these words, subconsciously stopped in his tracks, standing in place with a torn expression, looking at the three Bei family gaze full of sympathy.

According to his understanding of his own leadership, working together for so many years, a total of several times have not seen each other's appearance.

How to say it, a look at the fart is not held back.

The man has a good skin, as long as he can put down his body, the people involved in the case can rarely escape the fate of being snubbed.

“Just in time, because there was nothing substantial found at Mr. Bey’s residence, the police intend to visit the Bey family’s old residence.” Qiziang explained in a serious manner, “Maybe Ms. Wu will be confused, Mr. Bei obviously didn’t even go home much before he disappeared, so why do we have to go there.”

“From the victim’s point of view to infer his whereabouts is easier and faster than what trace evidence, the old mansion is, after all, the place where he used to live for many years, and it is very beneficial for the police to determine the direction of the next investigation.”

And Wu Limin, who originally seemed still a little dizzy, immediately stood up straight on her own after hearing this.

“This

“What’s this, you guys just go ahead and just go, as long as you can find my brother.” Beibei suddenly crossed a bar next to the voice out, looking very generous, but that delicate face can still be seen a little dissatisfaction: “Our family are so cooperative, you police should also quickly bring Jiang Nanlu to justice, right?”

Pan Ze saw the situation and wanted to stretch out his hand to pull her hand, signaling her not to talk nonsense.

The two of them quarreled again.

The two of them again argued. They did not pay attention to the reluctant look of Wu Limin, who was standing behind them.

If you say no to the police now, you will make people feel very deliberate, and if you get into any suspicion that it will be somewhat more than worth it.

The company’s main goal is to provide the best possible service to its customers.

Then within three minutes, a team of technicians plus a team of field police officers assembled, the police van flashing red lan lights in the dark night is particularly blinding.

Things have developed to this point, obviously not in Wu Limin’s expectations, her face in the light of the illumination, but even than just look a few pale.

“Hehe hehe hehe” the woman laughed dryly twice.” The officers move quite quickly.”

“Time is precious, there is no time to waste, after all, Mr. Bay is still unaccounted for, even if we can fight for one more minute, for him is to add a hope of survival.” Qiziang’s words are sincere, every sentence is in the interest of the victim, standing on the moral high ground, so people simply can not pick any fault to.

In the end, Wu Limin could only turn around and walk towards the direction where her own luxury car was located, her pace looked more or less heavy.

“By the way, before Ms. Wu said that yesterday evening contacted Mr. Bey, confirm with you again, what time was it?” Qiziang suddenly came up with this sentence.

“It should be just after seven o’clock in the evening, didn’t I also show you the call records to come?” Wu Limin did not hesitate, answered very crisp.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you’re doing.

“Where were you at the time you spoke with Mr. Bai?”

Wu Limin was made to let down her guard a little by the previous question, and casually answered: “Not just in

Halfway through the sentence, she realized that something was wrong and shut her mouth stiffly.

The next uncomfortable side of the face of the hair gathered behind the ear, not embarrassed to continue: “At home, ah, where else?”

“Today is Bebe’s wedding, of course I had to work at home yesterday, the family nanny and several relatives can testify for me.”

The question just now seemed to be just a question that Qiziang asked on a whim, and didn’t seem to care too much on the surface.

After getting the answer, he nodded perfunctorily, then turned his head and got into the police van, as if not at all concerned.

In this way, Wu Limin slightly relieved, also turned around and got into the limousine.

Several cars drove out of the City Bureau’s compound one after another, and after about fifty minutes, slowly stopped at the curb of a neighborhood located in the old city side of Jiangcheng.

The street side stands several old villas with ancient appearance, just looking at the architectural style and the red brick wall with a sense of age outside, you know that the families living here must be rich or noble.

Along with a few muffled sounds of closing the car door, there was a vague sound coming from one of the villas.

Soon, the family member of the Bei family, whom Qi Ziang and others had met earlier at the Public Security Bureau, Bei Zhiyuan, came out in big strides.

The man walked straight up to the man who had just gotten out of the car and had not yet stood still, and raised his hand to slap.

Slap!

“Bastard!”

“Ah!!!” Before Bebe could make a sound, Wu Limin on the other side shouted as if she was in great shock, and then also stepped forward to stop the father and daughter in the middle: “Honey, have a good talk, what are you doing?”

The first thing you need to do is to get your hands on the right cheek.

The white skin has a few shocking red marks, it seems that Bai Zhiyuan just hit was indeed a heavy hand.

“Dad? You hit me? Today my wedding has been stirred up into this, and you still hit me? The young girl’s emotions seemed a bit hysterical at this point.

The young girl looked hysterical at this moment. She didn’t expect Bei Zhiyuan to glare at her, and shouted in full voice: “How dare you mention the wedding? If you didn’t have to hold that lawn wedding, would this happen?”

“The first thing that happened was that my brother had offended someone outside, so what does it have to do with me? Bebe argued with reason, not taking a half step back.

Father and daughter stood there like two fighting chickens, their expressions and postures could be said to be the same.

Wu Limin saw the situation had to act as a peacemaker, she chose to come to the side of the man, lowered her voice to remind: “husband, the police are still watching, the child has done something wrong, it is also our own family behind closed doors, do not let others look at the joke.”

Bei Zhiyuan did not eat her soft words this set, stretched out his finger pointed at the tip of the woman’s nose: “It’s not all because you are spoiled?”

The words fell, turned around and went back to the villa behind him, not even looking at the police cars parked not far away.

Wu Limin of course hurried to catch up, and Bebe is also a hand stomping away, only left Pan Ze some embarrassment rushed to greet the crowd.

“Wow who would have thought that ah, out of the field in the middle of the night can also see such an explosive scene.” The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

“But a few hours ago I saw this boss in the bureau, when it did not look like a manic pattern ah.”

Followed by the head of the technical section Zhang Ye faint smile: “This is not someone’s doorstep? There is no need to worry about the police if there is a temper issued, or I will ask the bride if she wants to call the police?”

Anyway, the manpower is readily available, convenient as hell.

At that, Qiziang also followed and curled his lips: “How do you know that just now that scene was not deliberately made for the police?”

From the downstairs of the Municipal Public Security Bureau, he proposed that he wanted to come over to the villa of the Bay family to take a look, the mistress Wu Limin’s expression is a little subtle, between the words also seems to be reluctant look.

Lu Li shook his head: “Want to give us a downward spiral? That is purely a little redundant, hit his daughter, my cheek does not hurt.”

The first thing you need to do is to look at the exterior of the old villa, which has been around for a long time.

The dark gray brick walls are covered by the heavy night, broken like a dormant monster, even the dim light coming from the windows looks a little spooky.

One by one, the group walked into the open door, and after passing through the long entranceway, it suddenly opened up.

The living room is very spacious, a conservative estimate of sixty to seventy square meters, the decoration style is the favorite Chinese style of the rich, sturdy mahogany sofa looks wider than a single bed.

At this moment, Bei Zhiyuan was sitting in the middle of the sofa with his legs crossed, and when he heard someone enter, he didn’t even raise his head and instructed the nanny: “Xiaoyan, take the officers to Qi’s room on the third floor.”

"I'm grateful for your help in finding my son, but that doesn't mean I'm going to allow you to walk around the house as you please."

The meaning of the man's words was very clear and unambiguous, Be Qi's room at will, the rest of the villa was not allowed.

This has been expected by Qiziang, after all, the police did not bring any search certificate, can only follow the host family's wishes.

But there is no hurry, into all come in, still afraid to get a search certificate?

He said thank you in a very kind manner, and then followed the nanny named Xiao Yan up the solid wood stairs to the third floor.

What I didn't expect was that Wu Limin also came up behind everyone else.

After they entered the suite that belonged to Bei Qi, she stood outside the door with the nanny and stretched her neck to look inside.

The room is said to be a room, but the area inside is not small, study, bathroom, checkroom and so on all together.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

Qi Ziang picked up a glass photo frame on the bedside table with his gloved hand, his eyes flashing, "You might as well say that there must be something fishy in this villa."

"Lu Li, call Xu and ask him to send Jiang Nanlu from the interrogation room over."

"Huh?" Lu Li froze and frowned in confusion, "Although Jiang Nanlu is Bei Qi's ex-girlfriend, but what is the use of having her come over for forensics?"

"She's not only Be Qi's ex-girlfriend, but also Be Bei's 'best friend', who knows more about the villa and the Be family than we do." Qiziang responded meaningfully.

Lu Li's eyes lit up, this is really not a bad way.

Although the feelings between Jiang Nanlu and Bei Qi two people is not very pure, but the boyfriend and girlfriend relationship is real, may also be able to provide some new ideas in terms of forensics.

"I'm on my way." He pulled out the phone and moved naturally to avoid the sight of the two people outside the door and went into the checkroom.

On the other hand Qiziang carried the photo frame in his hand and slowly walked up to Wu Limin and Nanny Xiaoyan, asking casually, "How many people in total usually live at home? We need to count them, so that we can do a trace check later."

The woman thought for a moment and replied with her fingers, "My husband, me, Bebe, Panze only comes occasionally."

"Plus Xiao Yan, the live-in nanny, a nanny who cooks during the day and a housekeeper in charge of the villa's hygiene."

"These are the only people who come often, the rest are some secretaries, directors or managers from the company or something like that who come over to talk to my husband about work, but none of them have ever been in or out of Xiao Qi's room."

Nodding, Qiziang looked down at the photo in the frame: "Bebe and Bei Qi, brother and sister, seem to have a very good relationship."

"The two of them are less than three years apart, they grew up playing together, of course they are good." At this moment, Wu Limin's eyes also fell on the family photo.

In the photo, she and Bei Zhiyuan were sitting on a chair, and Bei Bei and Bei Qi were standing behind the two of them respectively. The four family members looked at the camera, all with deep or light smiles on their faces.

"I admit that sometimes the two kids do things that are slightly too much, but Xiaoqi is not bad in nature."

"Between him and the girl named Nan Lu but just because of the heart of Bebe, brother for sister is wrong? Xiao Qi usually filial to us and hardworking, he simply will not offend anyone."

Speaking of this, Wu Limin paused, then added: "At the very least, no one should want to cut off his hand."

What a typical doting mother would say.

"Has it ever occurred to Ms. Wu that you perhaps don't know your children as well as you think you do?" Qiziang stabbed the other party not too gently.

Then while the woman was still unresponsive, she showed an apologetic smile, "Excuse me, can I borrow the common bathroom at home?"

Wu Limin first glanced at the bathroom in the room where the technicians were going in and out, then rushed to the nanny on the side and opened his mouth, "Take this Officer Qi to the second floor."

The nanny naturally would not refuse, and the two figures quickly disappeared at the end of the third floor corridor.

The second floor of the villa had a not-so-large living room, as well as some kind of entertainment room, tea room, plus two or three bedrooms.

Qiziang was brought outside the bathroom in the middle of the entertainment room and tea room, and he came out of it a few minutes later, politely thanking the other party.

Nanny Xiaoyan hung a gentle smile and shook her head somewhat uncomfortably, after which she took the lead without saying a word and turned in the direction of the stairway.

"I see that you are not very old, how many years have you been working in the Bei family?" Qiziang seemed to be extraordinarily talkative today.

"It's been five years." Xiao Yan's voice was soft and gentle, and her looks were the kind of showy that favored southern beauty with a slender body.

The answer was not taken by Qiziang to continue to ask questions, instead, the woman was walking up the stairs, a low voice: "Mr. Xiao Bei is very kind, I hope that your police can successfully save him back."

Just as he was about to open his mouth to respond, Nanny Xiaoyan suddenly looked aghast, lowered her head in some panic, accelerated her foot speed, and stomped back to the third floor.

As expected, Qi Ziang looked up and saw Wu Limin leaning on the handrail of the stairs.

The woman's body was swept away as usual, and he returned to Be Qi's room without much delay.

Lu Li welcomed up: "Sister Ye seems to have found some DNA evidence in the bathroom tub, suspected of body ye, the specific results will have to wait to return to the Bureau to know."

"Xu with people already on the road, the group to check the video side is still not much progress, only to determine the afternoon of the day Betsy disappeared he drove away alone from the company's underground parking lot, the specific destination still has to be mapped on the surrounding road surveillance video."

In short, the workload is huge.

Qiziang 'um', then continue to walk around the room.

Not long after, there seemed to be some vague movement downstairs, and soon, Xu Lida appeared in the corridor outside the room with Jiang Tianyu.

“I didn’t expect to come up quite smoothly, although the head of the family sitting downstairs looks a bit unhappy, but it’s a good thing we didn’t meet the bride!” Xu Lida breathed a long sigh of relief, if you let Bebe see Jiang Nanlu, it will certainly be another inescapable tangle.

“Who sent you up?” Qiziang looked at the empty corridor, his eyebrows twitched slightly, Wu Limin unexpectedly disappeared from some time.

Xu Lida gestures: “It’s a young-looking

“It’s Bei Zhiyuan’s young lover, the live-in nanny named Xiaoyan.” Jiang Tianyu opened his mouth with a normal expression.

The original owner was in and out of this villa on a regular basis because of Bei Bei, and naturally had a lot of interesting things in her memory.

“Ha?” Lu Li on one side slightly open mouth, fingers in the air haphazardly scratched twice, a face of consternation: “can not be you even know, that Wu Limin can not possibly not feel it?”

“The big one and the small one live under the same roof, are all rich families so harmonious?!”

Jiang Tianyu habitually raised his hand to scratch the back of his neck: “should not be wrong, once Bebe asked me to send her downtown her favorite that dessert store cake, it so happens that the security door downstairs is not locked.”

“I thought it was the door that Bebe had left open for me on purpose, so I came in, but I didn’t expect to see just in the living room, the live-in nanny was sitting on Bey Zhiyuan’s lap.”

Just then, Qi Ziang also raised his eyebrows, “But the relationship between Xiao Yan and Bei Qi, it seems that it is not simple either.”

Against the increasingly shocked gaze of the crowd, he once again picked up that photo frame on the bedside table and pointed to Bei Qi in the photo: “The ring on the middle finger of his left hand, Xiao Yan is also wearing one on her hand.”

“.....” The rest of the people were in a state of temporary aphasia because they were too surprised.

Even Jiang Tianyu is also unconsciously lip twitch, that young and beautiful nanny Xiaoyan eat the old eat the young, appetite is really good.

This is a confusing situation, as the mistress of the Bei family, Wu Limin may not be aware of it?

A woman's sixth sense has always been very keen, not to mention the villa under the eaves of a total of a few people do not live.

Is this the fundamental reason why Betsy suddenly moved out to live in the last two years? The company's disappearance will have a connection with this love triangle?

Lu Li thought, shook his head: “No, according to this, is not Xiaoyan more like a victim? The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

Wu Limin to kill is also to kill the little nanny who screwed her husband and screwed her son, as a mother how could choose to do it to their own flesh and blood?

And also the palm of his own son beaten into juice for his own daughter to drink, just listening to feel the degree of fantasy.

“According to what Wu Limin just said, very few outsiders will enter the villa, and even fewer will be able to come up to the third floor.” Qiziang took the photo frame as evidence and instructed Zhang Ye to put the stuff into the evidence bag, after which he narrowed his eyes, “It seems that the DNA evidence of suspected body ye found in the bathroom bathtub just now is likely to be related to Xiao Yan.”

At his analysis, everyone nodded in agreement.

“Officer Qi, you called me over this time means” Jiang Tianyu on one side asked this.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

Somehow, Jiang Tianyu suddenly thought of what the man once said before: no one rules that interrogation must be conducted in the interrogation room.

But for the other party's response, she skimmed her lips behind her back, did not take it to heart.

The company's main goal is to provide the best possible service to its customers.

Just like a few minutes ago, if she did not come, the police want to find out the nanny Xiaoyan and Bei Zhiyuan, Bei Qi father and son between the emotional entanglement, it does not know when to go.

Thinking of this, Jiang Tianyu suddenly darkened her face, the other side treat her as a 'police dog'?

The kind of police dog that will automatically smell the clues as long as it goes to the location about the case related 'scent'.

Black face, she also vaguely feel where not quite right, raised her eyelids to look at the moment is and the technical section of the female police officer named Zhang Ye softly exchanged what Qi Ziang, does it say

This person again recognized that this body has changed the core.

A few hours ago the man appeared in Jiang Nanlu's home, and also showed the expected expression to the two home invaders scene.

For a moment, Jiang Tianyu's face became somewhat wonderful.

That is some amazement, some chagrin mixed with a hint of her own unaware of the hidden joy mixed together complex emotions, a brain into her heart, the whole person will rise full of.

"..... this way, a moment Lu Li first go down to call up all the people of the Bay family, let's take the opportunity to collect their DNA and fingerprints, and then observe the reaction of the Bay family."

The first time Jiang Tianyu returned to her senses, her ears were filled with Qi Ziang's voice that was deliberately suppressed.

The other people will certainly not have any objection to the next arrangement of deployment, only to see Lu Li turned and went down the solid wood stairs, with a regular 'knock knock knock' muffled sound under his feet.

It didn't take long for a few messy footsteps to come from the stairway, accompanied by Bebe's very recognizable complaint, "What a nuisance, my brother is lost, and why are we collecting our DNA?"

"Besides, when Panze and I were in the Public Security Bureau before, we've already been stabbed in the mouth once, how dare we come?!"

In the next second, two stinky faces like the same one appeared in front of the crowd.

The father-daughter pair, Bei Zhiyuan and Bei Bei, walked in the front and came to the third floor one after another, followed by a smiling Pan Ze and Wu Limin who didn't know what to think.

Far from the end of the crowd is the nanny, the other slightly hanging her head, so it is difficult to see what her reaction is at this moment.

"Jiang Nanlu?" As expected, after Bebe saw the familiar figure in the hallway, she screamed without surprise: "How did she, the bitch, appear in my house? Even if you are the police, you have to give me an explanation!"

If not for Pan Ze and Wu Limin's extremely quick reaction to pull her back, I'm afraid that people would have already rushed over at this moment.

Qi Ziang saw the situation, calmly explained: "Jiang Nanlu as the ex-girlfriend of Bei Qi, the police believe that she has certain suspicion of the crime, this time let her come together is also for the detection of the case."

The words are vague, but people can't pick anything wrong.

The police are obviously not at all familiar with the process of handling the case, once you hear that it is to find Betsy, it is not good to say anything more, can only sideways to the lips slightly moving muttered two sentences what.

At this time, Zhang Ye took the fingerprint collection card and went to the front of Bei Zhiyuan, indicating that the other hand out to cooperate with the fingerprint collection work.

Bei Zhiyuan reluctantly raised his right hand, while squeezing out a cold hum from his nose: "From my daughter's wedding accident to now, it is also considered a small past day, see the battle puffed quite large, and harassed the wedding guests, and ran to my home"

"Not still no progress? A good deal of busy work down, I think you group of police know, may not be more than I know!"

"Mr. Bey is a bit arbitrary in this statement." Qi Ziang stood in front of the door of Bei Qi's room, hands around his chest watching the colleagues of the technical section collect the DNA of the five members of the Bei family in turn, and responded smoothly with a sniff.

"For example, do your family know that Bei Qi actually has a more unusual and stable relationship with a friend of the opposite sex?"

Before Bei Zhiyuan could speak, Bei Bei snorted out, "Aren't you talking about Jiang Nanlu? Although my brother only intended to have fun with her and did not bring her to the door, but I know this matter more than anything else, it is not much news at all."

"What I mean is that there is now evidence that in addition to Ms. Jiang, Betsy also has a rouge relationship with another woman." As Qi Ziang spoke, his gaze fell directly on the nanny who was almost burying her head into her forehead: "Am I right? Miss Gao Xiaoyan?"

Brush!

Before the words fell here, several lines of sight over there looked at the little nanny who was standing cowering by the staircase handrail.

Some were surprised, some were angry, and some reacted in an inscrutable manner.

"Gao Xiaoyan? What the police said is true? You seduced my brother?!" Bebe took two steps forward, somewhat unrelentingly pulled the slender wrist of the little nanny and questioned in a stern voice.

For her this kind of behavior, Jiang Tianyu is not the least bit surprised pursed her lips.

It's hard to believe that this kind of woman will only the backward thought appeared in a wonderful girl's body, as if the whole world Bei Qi most innocent, the wrong are others.

The opportunity to observe the reaction of the family Qiziang but untraceable raised his eyebrows.

In addition to Bebe's expected grumpiness, the other people's expressions at this time seem to be intriguing.

Panze is surprised with a little flash of dawn.

Wu Limin is hands clasped in front of his body, a face of had known this.

Bei Zhiyuan's cheek muscles only twitched slightly before he instantly regained his composure.

"Ouch!" Gao Xiaoyan a showy face rose red, weakly called out, "Bebe things are not what you think, you let go first, okay?"

The first thing you need to do is to get rid of the problem.

The first thing you need to do is to use your strength to remove the grip on the nanny, and after using your own tall body to stop the possibility of another conflict, he and Qi Ziang had a brief glance at each other.

Qi Ziang lowered his hand that was ringing his chest: "Now the police have good reason to suspect that Ms. Gao Xiaoyan has a close connection to the case of Bei Qi's disappearance."

"We have already applied for a search warrant through the bureau, it is estimated that it will be approved soon, we also ask for your active cooperation."

Gao Xiaoyan is the Bay family's live-in nanny, life traces exist in all corners of the villa, it is reasonable to search her residence for evidence.

Still the same words, into all in, still afraid of not get the search certificate?

The police are so 'fair' that it is difficult for Bebe to come up with any counter-arguments in a short time.

The five people of the Bei family's current position is also very interesting, quite a kind of separate camp feeling, scattered in various parts of the corridor, not even a bit of eye contact between each other.

Suddenly, Lu Li saw Qi Ziang raised his chin at him, and instantly he walked to Wu Limin's side and politely reached out to make a 'please' gesture: "Ms. Wu, is it convenient to talk to you alone?"

"....." Wu Limin subconsciously glanced at Bei Zhiyuan, then nodded slightly: "Good."

Lu Li then took the woman and marched to Bei Qi's room.

He also entered the suite, but because no one cared, she could only find a random place with few people. After confirming the safety with the police officers of the technical section, she nestled on the changing bench in the checkroom alone.

Through the solid wood sliding door of the slightly open checkroom, she saw Wu Limin sitting nervously on the boss chair in front of the desk.

Immediately after that, came the familiar voice of Qi Ziang: "Because the case is time-critical, I won't beat around the bush with Ms. Wu."

"When did you notice the relationship between Gao Xiaoyan and your son?"

Wu Limin perhaps did not expect him to be so direct, red lips slightly open, for a long time before returning: "I do not understand what you are saying"

"Don't understand?" Qiziang paced back and forth in the room, not a trace of anxiety could be heard in his tone: "Then let me put it more accurately, when did your husband Bei Zhiyuan discover that his son Bei Qi and his lover Gao Xiaoyan were having an ambiguous relationship?"

He said this is already extremely euphemistic, but still let the woman instantly blushed greatly, and even accidentally let the chair under her b.uttocks hit the desk next to her, and there was a loud noise.

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 126 - Tips

0 8 minutes read

“Wow, your husband is having an affair in front of you and you don’t even mind?” The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

It seems that this Wu Limin is also aware of the chaotic relationship at home, but still can be like a person who is fine, in his opinion simply unimaginable.

The woman’s face is sometimes black and sometimes white, after a long time, but finally just a silent exhale a foul breath: “Our family’s situation is difficult for outsiders to understand, I hope you all do not know the whole picture, do not comment.”

“As for the relationship between Xiao Qi and Gao Xiaoyan, it was just a young man’s impulse.”

“If Zhiyuan doesn’t care, I don’t care any more.”

In response to her spontaneous response, Qiziang stopped and turned around, a pair of black eyes staring at each other without a moment’s hesitation.

Wu Limin frowned slightly, and looked a little uncomfortable under several scrutinizing gazes.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

The implication is that the love triangle is known to the parties involved and they don’t find it bothersome, so others don’t have to worry about it.

“The fact that there is a fixed Gao Xiaoyan inside the house is more worry-free than the warblers flying around outside.” The company has already organized its mood, the spine is very straight, chin slightly raised to say these words.

“I’ve already passed the age of expecting love, grabbing the bargain in front of me is better than anything else.”

This is overly realistic, Qiziang and others did not make any comments on this, after all, they are only here to do the case, not to come to criticize people for breaking the fidelity of the couple.

The woman's face is so unconcerned that outsiders can't comment on it.

The next, Qiziang asked a few more questions related to the case, Wu Limin answered one by one.

The other side of the checkroom sat Jiang Tianyu could not hear any useful information from the other side of the words, said only some luxury family dog blood, seems to have little to do with the disappearance of Betsy.

I can only say that right now, the nanny named Gao Xiaoyan is the most heavily suspected, but this does not mean that others do not have the motive to commit the crime.

How should I describe it Bay family from top to bottom, the feelings of each other are very indifferent, in short, everywhere with a hint of weirdness.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are getting into.

Hearing no movement outside, she carefully slid the sliding door, the original Wu Limin did not know when it had gone out, only a few people left standing in the study side of the police whispering about something.

"That excuse me, I'm a little anxious inside." Jiang Tianyu came up to Xu Lida's side and expressed his plea.

Xu Lida glanced at Qi Ziang, and after getting a hint from the other party's eyes, nodded readily and agreed: "Ms. Jiang should be more familiar with this place than we are, so feel free to do as you please."

The muscles at the corners of the eyes twitched uncontrollably, this group of people were really quite at ease with her.

The police have already applied for a search warrant for this villa, and the red and blue police lights outside the window are becoming more and more blinding, so the police support should have arrived long ago.

In other words, so many police forces are there, people are not worried about her to do anything out of the ordinary to.

And suspicion is suspicion, the police have not yet grasped any conclusive evidence, she appeared here is only to cooperate with the investigation, strictly speaking has a relative personal freedom.

After gathering her thoughts, Jiang Tianyu slipped out of the suite.

The other party's eyes were slightly red, should have just cried, the whole person looked more and more tender.

The two brushed past each other, and before she reached the stairway, a loud sob suddenly erupted from Betsy's room.

She slightly turned her face sideways, just in time to see the heavy material of the solid wood room door was closed, the corridor suddenly returned to the original silence.

Shaking her head silently, Jiang Tianyu followed the memory in her head and breezed down to the second floor.

Before entering the bathroom, she also vaguely heard Bebe's familiar shouting, probably expressing dissatisfaction with the police's move to search the room.

When she finished solving her personal needs, the moment she came out with her head down, she naturally noticed Panze who was leaning against the corridor wall smoking a cigarette a few steps away.

The two met at eye level, and two seconds later the other chose to extinguish the cigarette in his hand and came forward with a big stride.

"Nanlu"

The woman's crumbling and irritable curses came again from the bedroom at the end of the second floor, just as Pan Ze had just uttered this moment.

Jiang Tianyu raised an eyebrow: "It sounds like Bebe is in a very bad mood, shouldn't you, the husband, be by her side at such times?"

"She's just a little stimulated after learning that both her father and brother are in an unconscious relationship with the family's nanny." Panze slightly tired pinched his brow: "Sometimes venting out may not be a bad thing."

The eyes down pursed lips smile, Jiang Tianyu think human nature is really very interesting, the power of money is also very powerful indeed.

Even if Bebe's character is domineering to the naked eye, there are still people who will work tirelessly to explain and find a remedy for her.

Of course, she is not the original owner, Jiang Nanlu, for this scene is not touched at all, if not to investigate the case, she would not stand here perfunctorily to deal with each other.

“Nanlu, to be honest I was surprised, I did not expect that after we broke up, you would be with Betsy” the man stretched his voice, his expression somewhat painful: “I know you are not a girl who is greedy for pleasure, so it would not be To get back at me”

“You think too much.” The other party’s words have not yet fallen, Jiang Tianyu nailed down the response: “Be Qi good-looking, also quite rich, how to look better than you, right?”

This is not a deliberate attempt to stimulate Panze, there are a few genuine feelings in it.

Not to talk about character, Be Qi is the general manager of the city’s famous enterprises, during the relationship also generous and generous, in addition to impure motives, as a lover, at least is qualified.

But to talk about slag, Panze and Bei Qi is also comparable, so a comparison, it is still Bei Qi is better than a chip.

The man choked on his words, after several breaths of work, before opening his mouth again, sounding like a comfort: “In fact, you know the truth and he broke up or better, if not out of this file, perhaps you will be implicated.”

“For him out of this kind of thing, to be honest, I am not surprised. Don’t look at the surface of the Bei family, but just in Jiangcheng city has made countless enemies, outside more people want to see the Yang Wei Group’s hilarious.”

Jiang Tianyu’s eyes flickered slightly, and her expression languidly smiled slightly: “Are you so sure that he is not ruined in a rotten relationship with a man or woman?”

Pan Ze sighed helplessly on his face: “Like Be Qi this usually play very flowery gentry, but all the women who have followed him, in addition to the emotional perhaps a little hurt, in the rest of the aspects of when to eat a loss?”

Jiang Tianyu agreed with what he said, but recalling that aggrieved little nanny just now, she always felt as if something was not quite right.

At this time, Pan Ze continued, “I also heard Bebe mention it a few days ago, saying that about half a month or so ago, someone else went to Yang Wei Group with a knife, and if it wasn’t for the well-trained security guards, Bebe Qi almost got stabbed right through.”

“Hmm?” Jiang Tianyu blinked: “After such a big incident, the Bei family didn’t even call the police?”

If the police had been reported at that time, now Qi Ziang and the others would have known about it, but in the several questionings not long ago, neither the police nor the Bei family had mentioned any relevant words.

“This kind of situation for the Yang Wei Group, is considered rare, large enterprises well” Pan Ze spoke, once again lit a cigarette.

The smoke instantly enveloped his eyebrows, making it somewhat impossible to see his expression at this time.

The other side did not explicitly say the potential lines, she also comprehended.

I think Yang Wei Group can develop and grow to this point today, must be more or less offended by the interests of many people, in other words, the company’s actions, may not be legal.

Some of the means that can not be on the table can not be in front of people, once reported to the police, who can not say whether the police will not take a simple case of violent assault to find out more in-depth things, the Bay family can not afford the risk.

The company will have its own unique way of dealing with crises.

“Panze, you’ve changed.” Jiang Tianyu, after a moment of silence, coldly came to this sentence.

The man was stunned and frowned as if he did not understand her words.

“What do you mean by saying those words to me? I’m not just trying to use my mouth to reveal this information to the police?” She paused for a moment, tilting her head as if she was thinking about something.

“Then why didn’t you say it yourself? What? Afraid that the Bey family will not tolerate you if they find out?”

“It should not be, if there is such a concern, you simply do not tell me.” Jiang Tianyu chanted to himself, his voice was not too loud, not too small, exactly what he said to the person opposite: “So you want to use this news to divert the police investigation?”

“But why? Is it at the behest of Bei Zhiyuan?” Her guess was logical, if the police turned to investigate the vicious attack that Bey Qi had suffered before, then the Bey family would naturally be able to gain a moment of respite.

“Or does no one authorize it, just you yourself think that the police will be detrimental to you if you continue to search like this?”

Jiang Tianyu continued down the line, all but ignoring the increasingly ugly face of the person opposite: “Strange, how come I didn’t find you so dog before?”

Pan Ze’s lips twitched, holding back and holding back, but in the end he couldn’t hold back.

However, just a second before he tried to speak, the direction of the innermost bedroom on the second floor suddenly came the sound of Bebe’s cry for help: “The police are beating people!”

When the man heard the commotion, he didn’t dare to delay for a moment and rushed over with his legs drawn.

Jiang Tianyu followed behind him slowly and marched to the door of the room, squinting to see the scene inside.

The two police officers of the technical section, who were leaning against the wall with helpless faces, were complaining to Pan Ze.

The eyes swept over the wreckage on the ground, but Jiang Tianyu’s eyes suddenly fixed on a certain place.

Huh?

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 127 - Tips

“Miss Bei, also hope you can cooperate with the police forensics, all procedures are legal and compliant, if there are doubts you can go to the relevant departments to complain” standing on the edge of the curtain, holding up the work tools of a technician helplessly persuaded.

Bebe does not care about this: “Get out! Get out!”

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you’re doing.

It is estimated that the wreckage on the ground is caused by this, after all, the police work to be careful, not to trash the citizen’s home in this way.

“Bebe!” The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

“Mom looks like she’s been crying.”

Perhaps it is because usually, this mother and daughter relationship is quite good, after hearing these words, bei bei rare hesitation.

A few seconds later, she compromised to get off the bed, before leaving still cursing: “I warn you, if I come back and find one thing missing, I will definitely sue you to the Public Security Bureau bankruptcy!”

Until the corridor can no longer hear the shouting, the two technicians quickly acted.

“This lady is too crazy, I almost had to ask Qi team for support.” The technician who spoke was wearing a pair of black-rimmed glasses and sighed in a rather breathless manner.

“One more thing is better than less, really if mandatory to control her, afterwards is not for our own trouble? Speed up the action and try to finish the forensics before she returns.” A slightly older technician advised.

Work for many years, what kind of strange people have not seen, just that are considered small scenes.

In the two people busy kung fu, the door suddenly appeared a figure, it is Fang Fang avoided Bebe Jiang Tianyu.

“Hello?” The older technician straightened up and gave a polite greeting, obviously knowing her, so there was an unobtrusive wariness in his expression: “Ms. Jiang, we are working here and are not allowed to come and go at will.”

“Oh, good.” Jiang Tianyu stopped there in a measured manner and said with a smile, “I just overheard the noise over here when I came out from the restroom and thought I’d come over to take a look.”

As she spoke, her gaze fell on a certain spot in the pile of mess, after which she also stretched out her finger and pointed: “That cup looks very similar to the thermos cup containing human tissue at the wedding yesterday.”

After saying that, Jiang Tianyu nodded politely at the two technicians, then turned around and walked away sharply.

The technician with black-framed glasses sniffed, picked out the pink from the fragments of bottles and jars and dolls all over the ground, and stared in amazement: “It’s really identical.”

In the two people surprised kung fu, the other side of Jiang Tianyu very keep the promise to return to the third floor.

The door of the suite belonging to Pei Qi was still closed, and she could only lean against the wall of the corridor in boredom, tilting her head up to survey the plaster carvings on the roof.

The next second, the door was pulled open from the inside and Qiziang's figure appeared in front of her eyes.

The low sobs belonging to the women also clearly reached her ears, interspersed with Lu Li's mouth stupid comfort: "Ms. Gao, you do not cry first have words let's talk properly, you do not voluntarily, completely can call the police... .."

"..... the law is fair, but only if you believe us"

Click, the door was closed again by Qiziang, after which the words were followed by isolation in the room.

"It doesn't seem to be going very well." Since perceiving that the man had most likely discovered his identity, Jiang Tianyu also simply removed the layer of camouflage that has equal to none, relaxed her posture and opened her mouth with a familiar tone.

"Hmm." Qiziang took out the phone and glanced at the time: "The whole cry has been there for ten minutes, and did not succeed in saying more than three sentences."

Two of them were still the basic identity information of the other party, and the other was a short defense, claiming that it was not her volition to tangle with both father and son at the same time.

"Wait until a little later after her emotions have calmed down a bit, Lu Li and Xu and the others will determine her alibi." Qiziang raised his hand to climb a handful of short hair, although some arbitrary, but he believes that the chances of Gao Xiaoyan possessing the time to commit the crime is not big.

Turned his head to look at the end of the corridor, at this time there has been a vague light from that window through, outside the sky is unknowingly bright.

The lawn wedding was yesterday, and Betsy's disappearance was after three o'clock in the afternoon the day before.

That time period, the Bei family is busy preparing for the wedding early the next morning, according to Wu Limin, came a lot of relatives and friends.

In this case, Gao Xiaoyan, the live-in nanny, is bound to have a very heavy task, and if she is not there, many people will be able to notice.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

Hearing these words, Jiang Tianyu's expression became a bit fantastic.

I do not know if it is an illusion, the man Fang's words, the main language at first hearing a bit confusing, but the fine taste seems to

It seems as if Jiang Nanlu was separated from her in a raw way, as if in the other party's subconscious, he was facing two people at this moment.

A shell, a soul.

For a moment, Jiang Tianyu again had the illusion of being treated as a 'police dog'.

Without a trace, he skimmed his mouth: "Now almost everyone knows that Be Qi is just playing with me, how much can I know about his social relations?"

"But when I was going downstairs, I happened to run into Pan Ze, who revealed to me that a month or so ago, Be Qi was almost stabbed with a knife downstairs in Yang Wei Group." Speaking of this, she paused: "It seems that he was very eager to let the police know this news."

"Either there's something wrong with the Bey family, or there's something wrong with him himself." As expected, Qi Ziang also saw through the foul play at the first time.

But even so, he still called the phone and instructed others to check the specifics of the day.

The one who intended to hurt people with a knife should be investigated, and naturally Panze should also be investigated.

"Qi team."

Just as he put down the phone, someone behind him called a sentence, the two subconsciously looked over, it is in the Bebe room in the forensic work of the technician with black-framed glasses.

The other party was holding an evidence bag, and sealed in the bag was a small strawberry thermos.

"This is what we found in Bebe's room."

Although it's not new for rich people to buy the exact same two pieces of the same thing, but the two of them discussed it downstairs and decided to send it up first to show the leader.

Qiziang a pair of eyes slightly narrowed, from the hands of the technician took the thermos.

Before he spoke, black-framed glasses continued: "We have checked, the insulation cup inside and outside there is no human blood reaction, fingerprints have also been extracted, Wang used a portable times mirror naked eye comparison, and Bebe's own match."

The wedding site that contains the finger and human tissue insulation cup in the city's technical section of the laboratory, the immediate this also seems to be nothing unusual

Suddenly, his eyebrows jumped and unconsciously turned his head.

Jiang Tianyu, who was stunned by his look, blinked and her gaze fell on the thermos.

She just downstairs did notice this thing right, but the technical section of the people have said nothing found, the evidence can never be wrong, so it should have nothing to do with Bebe

Wait!

Jiang Tianyu opened her mouth slightly, after two seconds before she barely made a sound: "You do not suspect"

Inertia rubbed two times outside the evidence bag wrapped insulation cup, Qi Ziang for her reaction at this time feel very satisfied: "Since Bebe itself can buy two identical cups, then why not others?"

This insulation cup is an international brand out of the peripheral products, the price is indeed not expensive, but can easily purchase the same model.

Suppose the murderer did not go in when no one was in the lounge and put something in the thermos? The same thermos with Betsy's finger replaced the one with the hot water that Betsy originally had, in a simple gesture that was quite unobtrusive.

The day of the wedding, no matter where it is a chaos, even if someone saw the suspect holding a thermos in his hand, it is estimated that there will not be any ideas.

"If that's the case, then the suspects that the police had locked up before don't count." Jiang Tianyu gently frowned, inevitably launched a worry for them.

Originally, according to the video provided by the park inside and outside the bridal lounge, the police initially locked seven or eight target suspects, this time, the scope was expanded to everyone who came to the wedding.

"You are a bridesmaid, the whole time with the bride's side, have you noticed which abnormalities?" Qiziang casually asked a question.

Slowly dropping her eyelids, Jiang Tianyu recalled hard, but the original owner Jiang Nanlu had memories of the wedding day were shaky and messy, a large part of people's faces seemed to be mosaic, blurred.

Soon, she raised her hand and rubbed the corner of her swollen and painful forehead, and shook her head in passing.

"I only vaguely remember that while waiting at home for Panze to come over to pick up the bride, Bebe also drank water from a thermos."

Qiziang originally did not have much hope for this, so the face did not see any disappointment, just nodded thoughtfully.

"Speaking of" Jiang Tianyu seems to have suddenly remembered something, hastily took out his cell phone from his trouser pocket, clicked into a group chat on WeChat, and looked for it inside: "Yesterday morning when the make-up was done, the make-up artist's assistant accidentally Although it was wiped, because the lid is frosted, it still left some traces."

"Look at this photo!"

The man stared at the cell phone screen in front of him, the above is a photo of the four bridesmaids and the bride, next to the dressing table really placed a thermos, the lid of the cup to the camera side faintly visible a red mark.

"The one in the lab, the lid of the cup is clean." Qiziang thoughtfully out of the sound.

This photo undoubtedly side-by-side confirmation of just two people's speculation, indeed, someone switched the thermos midway.

The question is, how to narrow this time frame.

After a short silence, Jiang Tianyu raised her eyelids and opened her mouth at almost the same time as Qi Ziang.

"The video of the wedding day!"

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 128 - Tips

Finally, when the sun rose high outside, the police completed the forensic work on the whole of the Bay family villa.

The family of these people are hiding what secrets, and only after waiting for the results of the relevant tests to come out, to make a conclusion.

Out of caution, and also with the consent of the person concerned, Gao Xiaoyan eventually followed on the police car back to the Municipal Public Security Bureau.

After returning to the police station, Qi Ziang let people first contact the wedding day wedding company, to come yet to edit, very original film.

Because to view the video evidence, the curtains of the office of the Major Crime Unit were pulled up most of the time, and the room was slightly dimly lit.

The computer is sitting inside the guide video, take the time to suspiciously twist his head to glance at the two people sitting behind him.

The two chairs were pulled together in one place, and the distance between them was not far and not close.

Jiang Tianyu straightened her back and sat on one of the chairs, her b.uttocks only could take a side.

This time the top of the Lu Li that can not stop measuring the gaze, more feel some awkward, but the thermos clue is her proposed to participate in viewing the video is also reasonable.

The first thing you need to do is to take back your eyes, Lu Li did not care much shrugged, double clicked on the successful import of the video data, the screen soon appeared on the wedding scene at the time.

He reached out to twist the b.utton on the speaker, and soon the noisy sound filled the entire office.

The camera came and went, but the cameraman was indeed very professional, the video did not look shaky, but most of the images were focused on the bride.

From getting up and getting ready to makeup, these two processes alone took nearly two hours.

With a low cry coming from the video, Qiziang, who was sitting at the back, faintly vocalized: "Here it is, the makeup artist's assistant scuffed the lid of the thermos, about two minutes ago Bebe just drank the water inside."

It was because Bebe was thirsty and casually put the cup after drinking water that the cup appeared on the dressing table filled with makeup supplies.

At this time, the young makeup artist assistant in the video hurriedly bowed her head and began to apologize, her hands panicked and drew out the wet wipes aside and began to wipe.

The young makeup artist's assistant in the video hastily bowed her head and began to apologize. To collect a cosmetic can also rub things on my cup?!"

"I'm sorry I'll wipe it up for you!" The assistant instantly rose a red face.

"Get lost!" Beibei did not hesitate to extend his hand, a slap on the left side of the other side of the face: "Wipe clean? Do you know how much this one cup costs? You also deserve?"

The assistant is also not old, probably not much suffered from this kind of aggression, after a short period of confusion, with a crying voice yelled: "Miss Bei, even if I did something wrong, you do not have to do it, right?"

"The big deal is that I pay for it"

Beibei eyebrows up, looking at the situation seems to want to charge forward, the video to here suddenly abruptly stopped, it seems that it should be the cameraman felt that the scene is not under control, in time to cut off.

"Wow sh!t, the temper of this youngest daughter of the Bei family is really ready to explode." Taking advantage of the fact that the video had just finished playing, Lu Li muttered back and asked, "So then"

But the words he wanted to say, in the next second hard blocked at the throat, his face also followed by an absurd expression.

"Qi team, what are you doing!"

Jiang Tianyu, who was stuffing his mouth with slices of bread, paused in embarrassment, but finally stuffed half a slice of bread into his mouth in one go.

The woman who was just opening a bag of potato chips, looking at the posture is to hand it to the woman next to him.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

"I haven't eaten since last night, so I'm a little hungry" she explained dryly as she swallowed the food in her mouth.

Lu Li stretched out his hand and pointed a finger at the two: "Why do I feel like you two treat this like a movie theater?"

"Too much, right? There are chips also did not say a share of me? It's as if someone had dinner!" He said, a snatched the packet of potato chips held by Jiang Tianyu, turned around and continued to mutter two sentences: "Eat alone, pull black poop."

Speaking of which, he vaguely felt where it seems not quite right, but did not think deeply, grabbed a handful of potato chips into the mouth and began to click, click chewed up.

Qiziang see the situation is not annoyed, a long arm reached out from the side of the desk drawer pulled out a packet of potato chips, open and handed over again: "eat this, just that packet of taste was not very good."

"....."

Lu Li: I really thank you oh.

But soon, he remembered what he just wanted to say, so he continued to ask: "So later, Bebe and the makeup artist assistant fought together again?"

Jiang Tianyu gripped potato chips recalled, slowly shook his head: "Which can it, the wedding team from top to bottom know that the Bei family can not afford to offend, forced the assistant to apologize to her, and get rid of people."

"If it were not for the wedding to be held soon, the character of Bebe is afraid to drive people away before giving up."

Stroking his chin for a few seconds, Lu Li skimmed his lips, "With her move to swing and hit people's doings, I wouldn't be surprised if someone wanted to cut off her hand."

"I wonder if Betsy, who is her brother, is also so hated."

"Let's move on to the next segment." Qiziang opened his mouth at the right time, and soon the office resounded with loud human voices again.

The process progressed to the point where Pan Ze came to pick up the bride, and the villa became even more chaotic.

When the best man, bridesmaids and onlooking relatives and friends all poured into the suite where Bebe was, even if it was a large area, it felt a bit crowded.

The photographer then of course focused most of his shots on the couple, during which the groomsmen and bridesmaids also played a few games with great enthusiasm, and everyone present seemed to be having fun.

Perhaps wanting to capture some of the reactions of the crowd of onlookers, the camera at this point turned around the room.

“Stop!” Qiziang’s voice was low.

Lu Li pressed the pause button in response, and the picture was fixed on the large face of a middle-aged man who was very close to the camera.

Just behind this man’s slanting face was an exquisite and atmospheric solid wood dressing table, on which was placed the small strawberry thermos.

“It’s gone! That mark on the lid of the cup is gone!” Lu Li hurriedly pulled out the previously captured image, compared the placement of the two cups, and finally affirmed, “The cups have been switched.”

The last time that cup was filmed, there was an interval of nearly twenty minutes.

All the people in the room seemed to be focused on the kissing session, and it was indeed a relatively perfect opportunity to make a shot.

Unfortunately ‘tch’ a little, Lu Li right hand into a fist, not lightly hammered his left palm: “In the end, I still could not shoot who actually changed the cup, it seems that the suspect is quite cunning.”

“The other party is at the scene, naturally they will try to avoid exposing themselves to the camera.” Qiziang is a calm and relaxed look: “Be prepared to call over everyone who went to the Bay family villa that day, it seems I have to go to the director to ask for someone, it is guaranteed to be a protracted battle.”

There are times when the human eye is much more reliable than the lens.

Perhaps there was once someone who inadvertently bumped into something, and it was their job as police to make them recall that crucial scene.

On hearing this, Lu Li sighed in response, Jiang Tianyu, who had not made much noise next to him, was unconsciously picking at the bag of potato chips in his arms.

The three looked at each other speechless continued to look at the wedding video for a while, until the door at the point of movement, the next second Xu Lida pushed open the door and walked in: “Qi team, according to the two home invaders provided relevant information and evidence, we found that hired them behind the ‘gold master’.”

“Who? Who who who?” Before Qi Ziang could say anything, Lu Li stood up from his chair and asked one question after another.

On the other side Jiang Tianyu clutched the food bag, although it was a question, but the tone was certain: “Is it Ke Yuan?”

Xu Lida stared round in dismay: “How do you know?”

“She and I are not that good feelings, we also met because of Bebe, and the time we spent playing together was not long, strictly speaking.” Jiang Tianyu slightly lowered his head, hands have a time to fiddle with the folds on the outer packaging of potato chips.

“A person who only normally maintains only a superficial friendship suddenly proposed to go home with me, this action itself is very suspicious.”

“Not to mention that the doorbell rang at that time, and she was so positive to go over and open the door. I guess want to go home with me because I’m afraid of planning something unexpected, such as I’m too wary to open the door for those two people or something.”

Because the whole Ke Yuan did not meet with the two criminals, only to do online transactions, so the two criminals in the room after the time to see her so natural performance.

This is if the original Jiang Nanlu, I do not know if this moment has been kidnapped, to an unknown destination.

“Not right ah” Lu Li hesitantly frowned: “At that time, the two small punks who entered the room said that it was Betsy who offended to implicate you, Betsy’s sin Ke Yuan?”

“And ah, she all shot at you, could it be the same person who replaced Bebe’s thermos?”

Qiziang stood up from his chair and took a step in the direction of the door: “If I remember correctly, Ke Yuan should still be in the bureau, right? Yes or no, just ask and we will know.”

Lu Li and Xu Lida reacted quickly, without a moment’s delay, followed his a.ss also went.

No more than three seconds before and after, the entire office was left with only Jiang Tianyu.

Looking not far away that still slightly swaying reclining chair, she haphazardly opened the potato chips stuffed into the crossbody bag carried with her, quickly chased out.

.....
The interrogation room.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

The steel interrogation table in front of her was illuminated by the white lamps overhead, reflecting a cold light.

For no reason, her heart surged with a wave of fear, subconsciously shifted her eyes to the side.

Lu Li did not talk to her, directly to the two criminals according to the clues provided by the investigation of the relevant evidence dumped in front of the woman: "Miss Ke is thinking that the use of black phone cards to engage in illegal criminal activities is okay?"

"Now the criminal investigation technology is very advanced, and you are biased in order to deliver a deposit to those two people, with this cell phone number registered a new WeChat account, technical section colleagues by accessing this account login ip address and equipment information, further locked you."

"Tell me, why are you targeting Jiang Nanlu. Aren't you two good friends? Did she offend you?"

Looking at the conclusive evidence, Ke Yuan's face turned white, and hearing the harsh questioning voice in her ears, she suddenly panicked a little: "No..... you must be mistaken, it's those two people who slandered me!"

"I advise you to give up sophistry before it's too late." Qiziang then shook the phone with the cute drip rubber phone case that he was holding in his hand: "Just send it to the police technical section, and whatever you have operated on this phone will be presented to us in full view."

"Even those information that you have performed to delete, there will still be traces left."

Ke Yuan pursed her lips at her words and stared at her phone with dead eyes for a while before she lowered her shoulders in dismay: "Since you know everything, why are you asking me?"

"Motive." Qiziang lightly tapped on the desktop.

"..... I've liked Betsy for a long time, but I didn't expect Jiang Nanlu to hook up with the other side, and I thought that as soon as something happened to her, Betsy would definitely break up with her.” The woman looked disheartened, and when she said this, there was obvious jealousy under her eyes.

A pair of black eyes narrowed slightly, Qiziang seemed to be deliberating something.

Jealousy, it sounds like a very reasonable reason.

The two thugs tried to kidnap Jiang Nanlu when Bei Qi had been missing for some time, from this perspective, Ke Yuan should not have known about Bei Qi’s accident, so it is not very likely that she was the one who replaced the water cup at the wedding.

After gathering his thoughts, Qi Zion finally said, “The police will next conduct further checks on the residence and personal belongings, and the search certificate will also be delivered to you soon.”

After receiving the other party’s response, he stood up and led Lu Li out of this interrogation room.

Jiang Tianyu, who had been waiting in the corridor outside, looked at the two of them at the sound of their voices, his gaze full of questions.

“Is a woman’s jealousy that terrible?” Lu Li shook his head and said, “Jiang Nanlu, it’s thanks to you that you’re a bit skilled, otherwise you’d obviously have broken up with Bei Qi and still be counted by his peach debt, how unlucky.”

From his words, Jiang Tianyu distilled the relevant focus, followed by raising her right eyebrow high: “Ke Yuan means that she found someone to strike at me because of jealousy?”

“Yeah, isn’t that right?” Lu Li was suddenly a little unsure after seeing her expression at the moment.

“She knew Bebe even earlier than me, would not understand what kind of virtue Betsy is? Besides, there are many warblers who have passed by Bei Qi’s side, how come she doesn’t see me in a good light?” Jiang Tianyu snorted and rolled her eyes speechlessly.

It seems to make sense, Lu Li barred his mouth twice: “Could it be that she was suddenly stimulated by something?”

After all, the women around past Betsy are no longer, in the end, not the people around Bebe, and Jiang Nanlu’s ‘killing out’ let Ke Yuan see hope?

For his speculation, Jiang Tianyu did not continue to respond, but only raised his hand and gently scratched the end of his eyebrows. In the absence of tangible evidence, everything is possible.

The two of them both fell into silence before he took out his cell phone and dialed a phone number: "Have you made any progress in the case of the stabbing that happened underneath the Yang Wei Group?"

The other side of the phone crackled with words, and Qi Ziang finally ended the call with a 'hmm'.

"Well?" Lu Li had an expectant face.

"The investigation results show that the person who attacked Be Qi with a knife that day is named Feng Xuezhen, and by mapping his social relations, we found that he and Ke Yuan are cousins." Qi Ziang said this, paused for a moment, looking a bit puzzled.

"And this Feng Xuezhen and Pan Ze, or college classmates."

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 129 - Tips

0 9 minutes read

"That's interesting." Lu Li froze for two seconds and then said in a playful tone, "So why did that Feng Xuezhen want to kill Bei Qi?"

"Brother Xu said that it should be related to the aquatic farms on the coastal side of the new district being seized by the Yang Wei Group." Qi Ziang responded.

Lu Li nodded, this situation he had also heard of before, said a group of farmers are fighting with the Yang Wei Group, there was a period of time a lot of fuss.

This is a lot of twists and turns, like Yang Wei such a large company, which body does not carry a few cases of litigation disputes, the company's management simply will not take to heart.

"In that case, the disappearance of Betsy could be the handiwork of Ke Yuan and Feng Xuezhen?" Lu Li stroked his chin and speculated.

Next to him, Jiang Tianyu knitted her brows with some uncertainty: "What about Panze? I always feel that he is not quite right, otherwise for no reason, why did he tell me that Feng Xuezhen had attacked Bei Qi?"

On the surface, although he is Feng Xuezhen's college classmate, but the police can not tell the relationship between them good or bad.

The company is also the son-in-law of the Bei family, it seems that he should be closer to the Bei family side.

The other side is really just worried about Bai Qi, so they raised this matter? But it's a little too precise.

"Well." The two of them have been discussing, but they have not expressed any opinion, just after a short silence to deploy the next step: "Xu has now taken someone to find Feng Xuezheng, Lu Li, I remember when we were in the villa of the Bei family for forensics, Sister Ye seems to have made a copy of the records on those vehicles?"

"Go to focus on checking the driving records of Pan Ze's car, I remember the other party previously said that on the day of Bai Qi's disappearance he was busy with wedding-related matters the next day."

All are not see the coffin does not fall master, even if the person now slipped back, the police just use the mouth to ask, will not have much progress.

It is still necessary to find the connection between the three, to this as a breakthrough to get twice the result with half the effort.

Lu Li will understand, turned around and left quickly.

So, only Jiang Tianyu and Qi Ziang were left standing in the wide corridor staring at each other.

The two people did not speak first, the air was filled with a subtle awkwardness.

It was not long before a policeman passing by broke the silence, Qi Ziang went to the window and looked under the office building, then turned back and asked, "The canteen is open for dinner, why don't Ms. Jiang join us?"

"Huh? Good good." Jiang Tianyu responded with an afterthought.

When she got back to her senses, she took steps to follow the man, looking at the other party's broad spine hidden under the black T-shirt, she unconsciously pursed her lips.

Is it an illusion?

I always felt that the tone of the 'Ms. Jiang' that Qi Ziang just called was a bit peculiar, would the local dialect of Jiangcheng have a confusion of tones?

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

The actual body of the person who has been in the body for a while, but the previous few bodies are really local to Jiangcheng.

In this way, after leaving the office building, the two of them walked into the cafeteria not far away.

In the past, Jiang Tianyu did not come to this side of the meal, lightly picked up the plate and played a few of his favorite dishes, then found a table located in the corner and sat down.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The hand holding a chopstick of shredded potatoes just stalled in place, Jiang Tianyu very cautiously narrowed her eyes, a dry criminal police can not remember the personal information of the people involved in the case?

Even though her heart is doubtful, she still slowly returned a sentence: "In the company to do ordinary clerical work."

"What are Ms. Jiang's usual hobbies?"

"..... raising cats and arranging flowers." Jiang Tianyu felt magical raised eyebrows, or according to the personality of the original owner answered, but the mind can not help but miss the previous holidays also in the training ground practice speeding and over the obstacles days.

From time to time, you can also end a gun with colleagues to rehearse counter-terrorism, and then you can also run together in the hot sun on a five or seven or eight thousand meters, than to see who first rested.

The woman did not miss the flash of nostalgia and regret in her eyes, Qi Ziang untraceable hooked the corner of the lips: "Wait until the case of Betsy is solved, Ms. Jiang can consider going out to travel, take a break."

"Speaking of travel, some time ago I went to Jing Huai City, standing in the south of the sea blowing warm sea breeze, is indeed a unique taste."

Jing Huai City is a nationally renowned tourist city, not only coastal, the temperature is above twenty degrees all year round, the sea breeze warm whistling on the face, and the new Jiangcheng City seaside that is like a scraper cold wind is quite a big difference.

"Cough cough! Cough cough cough!" Jiang Tianyu, who had just eaten a large mouthful of choke-fried shredded potatoes, suddenly coughed with a red face, and the whole person bowed up as if a shrimp, both in form and in color.

"What's wrong?" Qiziang thoughtfully handed over a bottle of mineral water.

Reaching out to take the water, against the astonished eyes of the surrounding people, Jiang Tianyu quickly shook her head while twisting the cap: "I accidentally choked on the chili peel in the dish, sorry."

When she said this, her voice was hoarse.

With the action of drinking water to hide the shocking waves under the eyes, this person has been to Jing Huai City?

Subconsciously, she remembered that after breaking away from Zhang Baozhu's body, had vaguely felt back in his own body also struggled to open his eyes

The soul is always floating outside, she almost can't tell whether that feeling is reality or unreal imagination.

But even though the face returned to normal, Jiang Tianyu's heart was still reeling.

The man is an experienced criminal police officer, she does not believe that he and the people involved in the case there is some no deep meaningful communication.

The city of Jing Huai, this is a long long time Jiang Tianyu has not heard the name of the place, so that Fang just ringing in the ears, she actually had a slight sense of unfamiliarity.

It is difficult to other party not only found out the secret of her soul shuttle, but also knew her true identity?

For a moment, she was a little alarmed.

But next, Qiziang after a few big bites to eat all the things in the dinner plate, like a normal person to stand up to clean up the table, turned towards the food waste recycling bin, dumped the rest of the vegetable soup in it.

Blinking, Jiang Tianyu also followed with her dinner plate.

On her way back to the office building, her lips twitched to ask the other side, but she didn't know how to speak naturally without attracting suspicion, so she finally gave up.

After eating, Qiziang made several phone calls, and disappeared instantly after placing her in the office of the Major Crime Unit.

The office was quiet, only a guy who was responsible for viewing the various surveillance videos involved in the case was sitting there, looking at her face to face.

After about a minute or so, the sudden phone ringing accompanied by a violent vibration sound, the young small police officer handily took the phone buckled on the desk surface to the ear: "Qi team!"

"Yes yes I understand!"

The call did not last long, after hanging up the small police officer went to the water heater with a disposable water cup to catch most of the water, handed to her eyes: "Ms. Jiang is it? Our Qi team said you know more about the wedding day, let you and I look at those videos together again."

The corner of Jiang Tianyu's mouth twitched as she thanked him softly and agreed without refusing.

The wedding day video was five or six hours long, and she and Qi Ziang and Lu Li had only watched about a third of it, and the remaining two-thirds was estimated to take up most of the day.

The other end of Qi Ziang is in the technical section of the laboratory, hands around the chest standing behind the person in charge of Zhang Ye, a sturdy body like an impermeable wall, even the bright light will be blocked most of the.

Some disgusted twisted head glared at him, Zhang Ye dropped his eyes back to the computer screen, ten long slender fingers on the keyboard tapping quickly: "According to the car records exported from the Panzer car, he went to the villa of the Bay family in the morning of the day of the disappearance of the Bay Qi, after returning to his own apartment, near noon and patronized the Vera wedding custom, then folded to the The city center of the morning light shopping mall."

A few steps away, Lu Li took over: "Qi team, I've checked with Sister Ye, Pan Ze's car itinerary and his previous account of the day of the crime did not differ much."

"About four o'clock in the afternoon, he also generated a hundred thousand and eight thousand in one of the luxury stores in the morning light mall, it is said that Bebe let him go over to buy the bag."

Eyes flashing slightly, Qiziang pondered for two seconds before asking again, "What about Ke Yuan?"

"According to Ke Yuan herself, she went home that day after going to the beauty salon to have her face done, and stayed at home after that. I confirmed with the salon that she left at 1:00 pm, but at 7:00 pm there was a transfer spending, an ordinary supermarket."

Nodding, Qi Ziang did not continue to waste time on these two people and turned to say, "Brother Xu contacted me to say that he had captured Feng Xuezhen at her home."

Zhang Ye understood: “I’ll check Feng Xuezheng’s bank cards and online payment accounts to see if he had any movements on the day of the crime.”

But Qi Ziang raised his hand to stop her movement: “Mark out the location of Morning Glory Mall on the map.”

“And show the direction of the supermarket where Ke Yuan bought something that day.”

Two attention-grabbing red dots suddenly appeared on the map of the screen, flashing non-stop as if they were echoing each other.

At this point Lu Li gave an uncertain ‘Huh’: “Look at it this way, these two places are quite close to each other.”

Because not in a street, before mentioning the respective door number is not yet too big feeling, not as intuitive as the map.

“Xu found that Feng Xuezheng’s family, in addition to contracting a sea area in the new district as a farm, also operated a wholesale and retail aquatic products store, but now has closed down due to poor business, the location is at No. 37 South Lake Road.” Qi Ziang said, using his index finger to point to a certain place on the screen.

Zhang Ye repeatedly pressed two times on the keyboard, the third red dot then also appeared.

Feng Xuezheng’s wholesale and retail aquatic products store is located right in the middle of the Morning Glory Mall and the supermarket Ke Yuan patronized.

If the vague connection between the three is considered a coincidence, then they are very likely to appear in the same area on the day of the crime, will also be a coincidence?

The city of Jiangcheng is very big, how come they all came together.

“I don’t think so!” Lu Li seems to have suddenly thought of something, fiercely straightened up, lost his voice: “It can not be that Bie Qi is now in Feng Xuezheng aquatic products store, right?”

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 130 - Tips

0 9 minutes read

Outside the sky is getting dark, Jiang Tianyu swayed a stiff neck, between the bone joints issued a sour creaking sound.

The small police officer sitting in front of her saw this and warmly advised: "Ms. Jiang, you are tired to rest for a while, check the surveillance, look at the video is a time-consuming work, can not be rushed."

He admired this person involved in the case, looked not too old, but to sit here for several hours, he just joined the staff did not have this determination.

Thinking, he then explained a few words: "It is possible that the first time we can not see anything at all, a lot of evidence in the past is the need to repeatedly watch the video to find."

"By the way, it's going to be after dinner time, what do you want to eat? I'll order take-out!"

Jiang Tianyu quickly waved her hand, was about to say something, but was interrupted by the sound of sirens coming from outside the window.

She stood up suspiciously and went to the window, looking at the several police cars driving away in the courtyard below in an orderly manner, she tilted her head slightly.

Fingers on the marble windowsill, unconsciously tapping gently, I do not know what is being calculated in the mind.

"The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services. It seems that the technical section should have found something again." The small police officer also walked to her side, while stretching, while analyzing: "If the technical section alone can solve the case is no better, watching these videos to see my eyes are going blind."

At that, Jiang Tianyu lightly laughed: "You don't look old, how long have you been working?"

"I ah I am twenty-six years old, working for more than two years"

In the end is a young man, more talkative, two people chatted for a while, as a rest for the eyes, relaxation relaxed.

In their talk is lively kung fu, downstairs there is a police car back to come, small police 'eh' after lying on the windowsill trying to get a clear look at the car down a few people: "is Xu brother eh."

"Didn't he go to catch Feng Xuezen? So the one being controlled is the suspect who tried to hurt Be Qi with a knife a month ago?"

Jiang Tianyu also followed the lowered eyelids looked over, at this time there is a strong man was Xu Lida and another police officer clamped in the middle, because of the low hanging head, so can not really see the face.

“Hey, originally that group of farmers and Yang Wei Group refers to the dispute between them, they are considered victims. This way a thought can not take up the knife, the nature has changed.” The small police officer shook his head regretfully, and then ‘hissed’.

“Do you think that Betsy could have really been kidnapped by him? Chopping off his hand and sending it to the Bey family is a threat, right? But why don’t they tell us the claim again?”

If Feng Xue really wanted to use Bei Qi to make Yang Wei Group compromise and return justice to their farmers, then there should be a dialogue with the Bei family.

But the fact is that there is not, the kidnapper did not contact the family, but only sent the palm of Be Qi to the wedding of Be Bei Bei, so that the crime was exposed under the eyes of countless pairs of eyes, but also attracted the attention of the police.

Could it be that they want to take this opportunity to gain social attention, trigger social opinion, and then put pressure on the Yang Wei Group to completely solve the problem of the farm being forcibly occupied over in the new area?

Uncertainly pursed her lips, waiting until Jiang Tianyu peeled off from her thoughts, just in time to see another fierce-looking black jeep limousine drive into the compound.

“Pan Ze?” She stared at the license plate number of that limousine, her trailing voice rising slightly.

Sure enough, the familiar figure opened the door and stepped down from the driver’s seat, pinching his phone and striding into the office building.

Right now, Feng Xuezheng, Ke Yuan and Pan Ze, all three important figures, were gathered at the Municipal Public Security Bureau, it must have been Qi Zhen and a few of them who found the evidence that could link several people together.

“Wow!” The young police officer looked a little excited and unconsciously rubbed his hands: “I really want to go down there to attend the interrogation ah

“Forget it, the work I’m doing now is also very important, maybe they are just short of me this key link to solve the case?” Muttering inside his mouth, he turned around and returned to his computer.

I don't know if he was stimulated by the progress of his colleagues, it looks like he intends to continue to fight.

When Xu Lida pushed open the door and entered the office, he was greeted by the scene of two people staring at the computer screen with focused faces and eyes, and then he asked, "Little Meng, did you have dinner tonight?"

Officer Meng pressed the pause button on the video and slapped his head: "I forgot!"

Then turned back to the person sitting in the chair: "Ms. Jiang, I'm really sorry for letting you accompany me to be hungry."

Jiang Tianyu suddenly some tears and laughter: "Little Meng officer heavy words, I am an adult, if really hungry, will think of their own way, besides your office, bread, snacks are available, really do not need to call any take-away."

"Snacks" Officer Xiao Meng seemed to think of something, his eyes flicked to the underside of one of the desks, where a collation box was being placed, the box was full of snacks: "Those are all from the Qi team. "

It's strange to say, they serious crime group of people, in addition to the next office of the gender of the only female seedlings, basically no one wants to eat snacks.

Remember the other day Qi Ziang in organizing that snack box, but also by Lu Li and a good deal of their ridicule, and the response received by the crowd is Qi Ziang's a puzzled look.

"It just so happens that I haven't eaten either, let's go together to the small restaurant at the entrance and muddle through a bite." Xu Lida interrupted his recollection at the right time, after which he grabbed a set of keys on his desk and turned to walk out first.

Officer Meng naturally will not be polite with him, and hurriedly followed, not forgetting to wave at Jiang Tianyu, signaling her to follow.

About a few minutes later, the three of them sat in a noodle shop located a hundred meters west of the Municipal Public Security Bureau.

The temperature in early spring in Jiangcheng City is still not much better, and Jiang Tianyu, who wrapped her coat tightly outside, was puffed by the dense water vapor as soon as she entered the noodle shop.

After asking for three bowls of b.raised beef noodles with the boss, Xu Lida lifted his eyes and sized up the woman across from him, then asked, "Meng, how is your head progressing?"

"I'm getting dizzy just remembering the faces of the people who appeared in the wedding video." Officer Xiao Meng expression funereal: "Brother Xu, I see you brought Feng Xuezhen back, the situation is not optimistic?"

"You can also imagine, nowadays people ah are getting more and more shrewd." Xu Lida helplessly shook his head: "The mouth closed dead tight, grinding two hours, right, did not put a fart."

Xiao Meng glared: "By the way, in the evening, I think I also saw the groom?"

"Well, the Qi team said that he came to cooperate with the investigation, after all, Feng Xuezhen is his college classmate."

The two old men are talking to each other, but what they are talking about is something superficial, even if Jiang Tianyu, an 'outsider', has heard it, it does not matter.

"Needless to say, Pan Ze must not be cooperating either, right?" Officer Meng asked vaguely as he baldly took a large mouthful of noodles.

Xu Lida skimmed: "It's just 'I don't know', 'you guys wronged me', 'the police have no evidence' and other sayings, nothing Nothing new."

After a 'tsk', they buried their heads and quickly ate their noodles, and did not continue the discussion any further.

After the meal, the three of them walked back to the Municipal Public Security Bureau, and while waiting for the elevator Jiang Tianyu caught a glimpse of the old man sitting inside reading the newspaper through a whole glass on the wall.

The other side also seems to notice, look over the eyes mixed with a few harsh, but soon the expression on the old face transformed into kindness, and finally smiled gently at her.

Just in time, along with the 'ding' sound, the elevator door opened.

Seeing Xu Lida and Xiao Meng walked in one after another, Jiang Tianyu's eyebrows moved, covering her stomach and smiling coyly: "The two officers go up first, I'm a bit propped up from eating and want to take a break in the courtyard."

"This" Xiao Meng was a little hesitant: "It's so late, Ms. Jiang can go home to rest if she wants to."

He did not know what kind of 'deal' there was between his own Qi team and this person involved in the case, but in the current situation, the police are indeed unable to restrict people's personal freedom.

Jiang Tianyu nodded gently, and after seeing the elevator doors slowly close, turned around and walked to the doorman, hesitated for two seconds, lifted his hand and gently knocked on the door.

“Please come in.”

Uncle Sun in the house folded up the newspaper in his hand and put it aside. He didn't seem surprised by her sudden arrival, but raised his chin and gestured for her to sit.

Sitting down on the brown leather-covered chair that looked a bit old, Jiang Tianyu was silent for a while before she finally gritted her teeth and opened her mouth, “Do you know me?”

In fact, this feeling was already there when she was in Zhang Baozhu's body, but it was only that moment that was particularly strong.

The thought that there was another person besides Qi Ziang who might know the secret of her body instantly made the mood a bit complicated.

The good thing is that she has already suffered a similar shock once before, and now she is considered experienced and can barely manage to stay calm in the face of danger.

Uncle Sun opened his mouth with a smile: “Although my old man is a bit old-eyed because of his age, but the skill of reading people is still there, this face of yours, I'm sure it's the first time I've seen it.”

Just this face.

The other side replied with quite a lot of skill.

The words fell, Uncle Sun and bent down from the bottom of the cabinet pulled out a cup, pinched a few tea leaves put in and poured some hot water, along the desktop pushed to the side: “did not run into a bit of trouble talent not to come to the Public Security Bureau, encounter things very bad?”

Jiang Tianyu is a smart person, heard this word will also relaxed slumped shoulders: “life which does not have bad.”

“The case, step by step slowly, always be able to solve.” Uncle Sun sip the tea in the enamel cup, a pair of eyes slightly squinted, look relaxed.

She was just about to respond when the phone in her pants pocket suddenly rang, pressed the answer button and brought the phone to her ear, “Officer Qi?”

"I am now in the wholesale and retail aquatic products store previously operated by Feng Xuezhen, and was not able to find any trace of Be Qi, but the scene was obviously thoroughly cleaned up, and it is difficult for the technical section to extract any strong evidence." Qiziang walked on the wet ground, the words spoken in this empty place even formed an echo.

"You and Panze once spent two years together, you should know him better."

"I now need a proof that he once came to this store."

Feng Xuezhen's store was 400 square meters in size, and the police didn't know how much time they would have to waste here for a purposeless deposition.

Jiang Tianyu gritted his back teeth, somewhat gone, his other hand lifted, fingers unconsciously rubbing his temples.
