“Can I video it?”

I don't know if it's because of watching the video all afternoon, the reason for the excessive energy consumption, now her mind is empty, there is no thought at all.

After a little silence, the other side agreed.

After hanging up the phone, Jiang Tianyu lightly entered the man's phone number in the WeChat search box and sent a friend request.

Soon, Qi Ziang passed the application, and quickly popped up a video invitation.

Press the agree button, the screen is first dark, then the camera is a good shake, after seeing the other side of the flash of handsome face, into the eyes of the cold and wet concrete floor.

Sure enough, Feng Xuezheng aquatic products store looks very empty, two sides are built with cement oxygenated pool, the middle is placed in a row of glass made of large water tanks.

Xu is not opened for a long time, the water in the glass tank has been cloudy and discolored, the inner wall has also been full of dark green moss.

The store is very dark, with the wet ground, let people feel depressed tight.

“You're at the doorman?” Qiziang asked after seeing her side of the background, his voice suspicious.

“Well just ate a little bit when I finished eating, so I thought I'd come down and take a walk.” Jiang Tianyu did not respond positively, after which she digressed from the topic: “Didn't you say that the scene had been deliberately cleaned up? Where is it?”

“Just in front.” On the other hand, Qi Ziang also did not look deep, but quickly walk forward a section, the camera turned, there is a small area of open space: “from the surrounding ground marks, here should be Feng Xuezheng used to place the aquatic products packing boxes, and the middle of the ground slightly white position, there are obvious traces of fresh rubbing.”

“The technical section found on the ground powerful cleaning agents, disinfectants and other ingredients, completely unable to extract any useful DNA evidence.”

Hypothetically, Feng Xuezen and others is to imprison Betsy here, but there is no evidence, everything can only be hypothetical.

“In this way, it seems highly likely that Beyzi’s hand was cut off here, otherwise they wouldn’t have been so careful.” Jiang Tianyu frowned.

Qiziang did not deny: “The ground is so wet, it should have been meticulously flushed with water afterwards, they have an independent drainage system for this kind of aquatic product stores, and the sewage will be discharged directly into the sewers under the city center.”

In short, the evidence that was flushed away don’t want to be found.

“The garbage cans are clean, too.”

This means that the hope of trying to rummage through the domestic garbage to find some useful clues is also dashed.

Jiang Tianyu completely silent, Qi Ziang also does not care, just holding up a cell phone in the store around, the phone handset from time to time will also come out the sound of his voice in the exchange of words with colleagues.

Panze, Panze, Panze.

She took a deep breath, eyes slightly closed, trying hard to pick up some useful details from the original owner’s memory.

The two years that they were in love, in Jiang Nanlu’s mind, there seemed to be no sensational images.

The two met through a mutual friend and fell in love logically, occasionally arguing but only the normal conflicts between lovers, until Jiang Nanlu took him to a party between girlfriends.

The first time I saw the original owner’s emotions, my thoughts went a little sideways, Jiang Tianyu promptly pulled back as if a wild horse like reason, all attention was focused on Jiang Nanlu and Pan Ze daily life together, the bland bits and pieces.

Panze smokes, but just Qi Ziang also said, the scene is incomparably clean, even the garbage know to dispose of, apparently the group will not be careless enough to leave such conspicuous evidence of cigarette b.utts.

Since from the behavior pattern can not have any decent progress, it will have to find another way.

The first time Jiang Nanlu ran into Panze was at the wedding ceremony yesterday morning.

Suddenly, Jiang Tianyu stood up, and after a greeting with a curious Uncle Sun, he quickly rushed to the elevator.

When returning to the Major Crime Unit's office, Xu Lida and Officer Xiao Meng were both sitting there chatting with their own cups of water, but they were startled by the sound of a hard push on the door.

"Ms. Jiang"

Quickly walked to the computer of the party then, her tone of voice sharply interrupted the words of Officer Meng: "Wedding video, I want to see the section of Panze just came over to the Bay family villa to pick up the bride!"

Should be her face full of serious look startled to, small Meng police officer stumbled 'um' two sounds, but really busy up and began to fiddle with the mouse, smoothly found the video and pressed the play button.

"Here comes the groom's car!" In the video, I don't know who called out off-camera, then the bridesmaids all screamed and blocked the door with fervor.

Then the groom called the door, scattered red packets and other links in the same orderly manner, the door in the door outside the two camera positions at the same time so that people can see clearly the whole process of receiving the bride.

Although this time can also see the figure of Pan Ze, but because of the number of people around him too much, Jiang Tianyu was not able to see the real thing.

Finally, the crowd crowded the groom into the room of Bebe, came to the bed.

The groom and bridesmaids were forced to play several small games under the coaxing of the bridesmaids, only to see Pan Ze dashingly take off his suit jacket and pull up the sleeves of his white shirt, revealing his arms that still had some fitness marks.

"This is it!" She stared at the computer screen for a split second and opened her mouth in time.

Little Officer Meng reflexively paused the video screen here.

Jiang Tianyu stretched out her hand and used her slim, good-looking index finger to point at a certain spot on the display: "Officer Meng, Officer Xu, can you see clearly the shape of the wound on Panze's arm?"

Hearing the question, two people came up one after another, and indeed saw the wound on the outside of the man's small arm.

"It looks very fresh, and from the color of the scab, not more than twenty-four hours." Xu Lida rubbed his chin and analyzed.

"I remember that afterwards there were people who specifically went up to him and asked him how the wound was made, and he gently said that it was accidentally made when finishing the storage room of the new house." Jiang Tianyu slightly recalled, slowly said: "At that time because I think this wound looks a bit strange, so I took two more glances."

Officer Meng tilted his head from side to side, almost turning the monitor over to see: "Gourd-shaped? Inverted V wave type? The trauma doesn't look particularly regular."

Xu Lida nodded approvingly, "It still looks a bit like an 8, but the edges aren't clear, so it's a bit hard to tell."

The frown between his eyebrows gradually deepened, Jiang Tianyu after a short period of thought, the phone in his hand to his mouth: "Officer Qi, Feng Xuezhen aquatic products store, there are close to the 8-shaped things? Preliminary judgment of this thing is relatively sharp cross-section, about five or six centimeters in diameter, and the edge thickness of about a millimeter?"

"Let me see." Qiziang's low response came from the phone.

This sudden voice directly let Xu Lida and Xiao Meng pair face confused up, the two people like seeing a ghost of the general twisted head to look at the phone.

Who would have thought that people, the leaders of the Major Crimes Unit do not call their own team members to study the clues, but sneakily call the people involved in the case?

The video screen on the phone shook again, and after an unknown amount of time, Qi Zion only came out again: "Is this it?"

The camera shifted and two thin-walled steel pipes that had been welded together appeared.

"It looks very similar." Jiang Tianyu said, looking at the two people next to him as if asking for advice.

Xu Lida also gently nodded in agreement, while Xiao Meng rambled and opened his mouth, "It's quite similar, but what is this for?"

"The use is ominous, but judging from the rust on the outside, it has been abandoned for some years, perhaps before Feng Xuezheng rented this store." After Qiziang explained, he ordered the technician to come over and rub it with a cotton swab.

"Qi team, there is indeed a reaction of human blood."

"When we return to the bureau, make a comparison with Panze's DNA." Qi Ziang held up his phone and took a picture of the surroundings: "These two steel pipes are in the vicinity of the suspected location of the detention of Betsy, as to how exactly he hit this, there is still further investigation to be done."

Maybe it was carelessness, maybe Betsy resisted at the time, or maybe it was gang infighting.

"Thank you for your help, Ms. Jiang."

Qiziang's low voice of thanks drilled down the network into Jiang Tianyu's while ears, and the next second the video call was cut off, and the screen jumped back to the WeChat interface.

"Wow, thank you ah Ms. Jiang." Officer Meng followed closely and also said thank you: "Brother Xu, a moment later when the Qi team they came back with ironclad evidence, I see how Pan Ze still has to sophistry!"

Xu Lida naturally took a long breath and looked at her with a hidden gratitude in his eyes.

Jiang Tianyu was stunned in place for a while, and after greeting the two of them in some haste, she disappeared again like a gust of wind.

Jiangcheng City Public Security Bureau in the first floor hall.

Uncle Sun was slowly pacing back and forth in front of the glass door, glancing sideways at Jiang Tianyu coming down from the elevator out of the corner of his eye, and didn't seem surprised by her return.

"Did you find the evidence?"

Jiang Tianyu scratched the back of her neck and gave a low 'hmm'.

"Young girl is very good for her age." Uncle Sun's tone is quite appreciative: "I see many traits in your body are quite suitable for a police officer, have you ever considered changing careers?"

Vaguely heard the other party's words of snark, she awkwardly pulled up a smile, then quickly collected the expression, hesitantly asked: "When you were young, what did you do ah?"

Mostly noticed Jiang Tianyu looked at his own limp gaze, Uncle Sun patted the not very flexible right leg: "before retirement is also in this building upstairs stay, then they want to rehire me back to sit in the office, I did not do, and then come to see the door."

"As for this leg, to say that are some of the old sesame broken thing, do this business body left some medals, is not quite normal."

The next time, Uncle Sun said a lot of interesting things about his work when he was young, there are several details, Jiang Tianyu feel some familiar, but a time really can not remember.

"You" Jiang Tianyu was about to ask something, but was diverted by a siren.

Along with the 'bang, bang, bang' sound of closing the car door, soon that familiar tall and attention-grabbing figure appeared in her line of sight.

Qiziang pushed open the glass door and walked straight up to the two of them, politely greeting, "Uncle Sun, still not resting at this late hour?"

Uncle Sun had a meaningful look on his face as his eyes went back and forth between the two of them, "Older, less sleep."

"Not to mention that this person once the age of ah" love to see some lively."

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

"The first thing you need to do is to get a job.

Uncle Sun smiled, his face changed: "Brat, who does not know what positions they have assigned me? Either sitting at the window all day to face the unreasonable masses, or have to face the computer to do a bunch of I look at the big report."

"No, no! Or now here to stay comfortable." The old man shook his head in disgust and refused, walking slowly in the direction of the janitor's room with his hands behind his back, his mouth still chanting.

“After so many years, still the same virtues as when you first started working.”

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

“Ms. Jiang, thank you very much for the important clues you provided, later when the technical section of the DNA comparison results, we will again arraign Panze and others, if you want to go home, how about I drive you now?”

You really think she’s a police dog?

Jiang Tianyu’s forehead jumped slightly, and she opened her mouth with a smile on her face: “Let’s wait, my house is probably still in a mess. Besides, ever since someone broke into my house, I’ve been on edge.”

“Before the truth is known, I can’t sleep well even if I go back.”

The two male knife-wielding criminals were taken down by one person alone, and now they’re crying out in fear?

Although it is clear that she is acting, but Qi Ziang not only did not expose, face also a look of interest: “so, there is a lounge upstairs, there is also a reception room downstairs, Ms. Jiang can feel free.”

“..... Thank you.”

As other police officers returned one after another, Qiziang once again nodded slightly at her before striding away.

Standing in place and thinking about it, Jiang Tianyu finally took the elevator and returned to the office of the Major Crime Unit.

The only person in charge of checking the video was Officer Meng, who turned his head and glanced twice after hearing the sound, and greeted him warmly.

The team had Qi’s prior instructions, for her return, Xiao Meng did not notice anything unusual.

Lightly sit on the original chair, the two once again to the previous quiet and focused on the video.

At one time, the entire office can only occasionally hear the click of the mouse and the faint sound of Meng stretching his arms and legs from time to time.

Staring at the computer screen for a long time, the eyes will naturally feel dry and unbearable, about two hours later, the wedding video finally came to an end.

With a scream from Bebe, the camera began to shake violently, as if it had fallen on the grass.

Then after about a minute or two, it turned into complete darkness.

A long breath of relief, Xiao Meng shook his neck and let out a toothsome 'gab' sound: "Sister Jiang, you see any noteworthy details?"

Since the video provided important clues for Qi Ziang outside the scene, Xiao Meng's attitude towards her seems to have silently undergone a slight transformation.

For example, this name, it is not known from when, from 'Ms. Jiang' into 'Sister Jiang'.

hesitantly shook his head, Jiang Tianyu said there is nothing particularly strange.

Officer Meng is not disappointed, from the surveillance video or other images in the key clues this work has always been so, can successfully get a clue behind is several times or even dozens of times of unremitting efforts.

He got up and walked around the office covering his back, the screen, the video from the beginning and played again the light reflected on Jiang Tianyu's face, lining her expression of obscurity.

The first thing you need to do is to get to the window, and Xiao Meng stretched out his hand to pull the window open a crack, the outside bitter and sweet air suddenly rushed into the house.

From the trouser pocket fished out a cigarette in the mouth, he thought about it and finally lit up, after a sharp puff, trying to stick his head out of the window, so as to reduce the possibility of second-hand smoke into the office.

If it were not for the constant remembrance that the people involved in the case and related physical evidence can not be left alone here, he would not be so stifled.

Xiao Meng lamented like smashing his mouth, I do not know because of the cold wind or because of the nicotine refreshment, at this time his slightly chaotic head finally clear up a lot.

Turning his head, he saw the woman still sitting in front of the computer with a straight back.

It is clear that the other party is long enough to be a Netflix face, the daily walk is also a celebrity style, who would have thought that under such a look, hidden is a strong observation and focus?

Even Xiaomeng, a detective who has left the newcomer period, admires Jiang Tianyu's ability to boil the eagle into a pair of eyes of the essence.

Look at that in the roof white woven lamp illumination, not the slightest distracted side face, he only felt the original sore shoulder and neck more and more uncomfortable a few points.

The cigarette held between the fingers placed outside the window slowly burned as time passed, until Xiao Meng felt a little heat coming from his skin, only then did he realize that a cigarette was almost at the end.

The head hurriedly put out two more puffs, after extinguishing the cigarette and closing the window.

This is not as warm as the office of the Major Crime Unit, but the slightly cool air is mixed with a hint of tobacco flavor, but let Jiang Tianyu's spirit.

In this way, the two people did not have too much communication, the house can only hear the messy and noisy human voice coming from the speakers.

It was only when a little light came through the sky outside that there was some movement in the corridor outside the door other than silence, and within a few seconds, Qi Ziang pushed the door in with Lu Li and Xu Lida.

"Back." Officer Meng slowly turned his face sideways and greeted with a breathless voice.

Looking at his reddish eyes, Lu Li looked like he was startled: "Damn, rest for a while if you're tired, you look like a dry corpse that has been s.u.cked by a female ghost."

Officer Meng reluctantly pulled the corners of his mouth, with the corner of the eye glanced at the woman next to him, instantly changed the subject: "How? Pan Ze and Feng Xuezheng account for it?"

Lu Li and Xu Lida looked at each other, both skimmed their mouths and shook their heads.

Qi Ziang then opened his mouth to explain: "Even after slamming the DNA test report found in the aquatic products store on Pan Ze's face, he was still resisting, biting the bullet that he was only invited to Feng Xuezheng's store and knew nothing else."

"When he learned that the police could identify his injuries to determine the time frame of the injuries, he completely shut his mouth, it seems to be the intention of the silence is gold to the end."

“As for Feng Xuezheng’s side, is also not able to say anything serious, east one sentence west one sentence themselves are not logical.”

“No?!” Officer Meng stood up sharply, he is usually mainly responsible for the work of video evidence, rarely directly face these people involved in the case, so it is particularly easy to get emotional.

He asked anxiously, “The evidence is there, where does he get the face to deny it?”

“Tsk, young people ah!” Lu Li lost his smile: “Okay, not to tease you, if there is no progress, we three grinding also to grind to death in the interrogation room, how will come up?”

“Two big old men are quite persistent, but Ke Yuan, the female comrade, does not have this kind of depth.”

When Jiang Tianyu heard the word ‘Ke Yuan’, he subconsciously pricked up his ears, and even his already straight back became more and more upright.

Obviously noticed the change of the figure in the corner, Qiziang gaze hidden smile: “We just said in the aquatic products store found Pan □ □ NA this matter, and said already know the day of the disappearance of Betsy, Pan Ze had a conflict with people in the store the fact that she panicked and put down everything.”

“According to Ke Yuan’s confession, it was Pan Ze who first approached Feng Xuezheng and proposed the kidnapping of Be Qi for him.”

“And it was really Pan Ze?” Officer Meng frowned in disbelief: “He is the son-in-law of the Bei family, right now Bei Qi is the head of Yang Wei Group, the disappearance will inevitably cause a big upheaval up and down the company, and even affect the stock, what does he figure?”

“What he does not know, but Feng Xuezheng kidnapped him is indeed to ask for compensation for the seizure of farming waters, the market value of about twelve million.” Lu Li took over, the tone of emotion: “They are ready to ask for 50 million, Feng Xuezheng promised Ke Yuan, after the completion of the matter to share her one-third.”

“In short, it was provided by Pan Ze to monitor the dead end near the Yang Wei Group building, Ke Yuan took the opportunity to slip in and wait by the car of Be Qi in the underground garage.” Qi Ziang said this, a slight pause, his expression became somewhat fantastic.

It turns out that Ke Yuan originally wanted to sacrifice her se.x, but she couldn’t get it after being friends with Bebe for so many years, so she naturally knew she wasn’t the type Bebe Qi liked.

So she excused Bebe wanted to send her forward to a florist to order flowers, with pretentious form, successfully let Bebe Qi thought the woman wanted to take the opportunity to approach himself.

Although not eaten Ko Yuan's looks, but involves his sister's wedding the next day, so the man did not refuse. After driving a route with minimal surveillance under her guidance, he eventually arrived at Feng Xuezheng's aquatic products store.

What happened next, we can all guess, Feng Xuezheng is responsible for the back knocking bogey, directly pressed the person on the ground on the tie.

That night Pan Ze went to the store to check the situation, in and Feng Xuezheng talk, perhaps the binding rope is not well tied, Be Qi even briefly broke free.

The injury on Panze's arm was accidentally caused when he and Feng Xuezheng worked together to tie him up again.

Jiang Tianyu listened, when the people in the office fell into a short silence, faintly out of voice: "so big, three people and did not cover up their identity before Be Qi, this is intended to be blackmailed after the matter is completed to tear the ticket?"

"For this speculation, not only Feng Xuezheng and Pan Ze made a firm denial, even Ke Yuan did not admit." Qi Ziang responded in this way, but the actual how they actually planned, the discerning eye can see.

"This I can understand why Pan Ze stepped forward, if Bei Qi died, the Bei family is left with only one child, Bei Bei, and she is not a suitable personality to manage the company." Jiang Tianyu's tone sneered, "I didn't think people's hearts could expand to this extent."

"If that's the case, why did they still want to kidnap me?" She asked again.

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 133 - Tips

"Ke Yuan said that it was also Pan Ze's idea to kidnap you." Qiziang said this, and then did not continue.

Jiang Tianyu's eyebrows twitched slightly, her expression puzzled mixed with a bit of incredulity: "They want to blame it all on my head after the blackmail is successful?"

The man nodded in a small way: "Because Panze knew that the two siblings, Bebe and Be Qi, were targeting you, so choosing you naturally made it all seem more reasonable.

Being emotionally hurt and deluded, killing someone in a fit of anger and then committing suicide, the motive is considered sufficient.”

A few seconds of silence, Jiang Tianyu slightly frowned has not relaxed, she still some confusion: “But they first sent Betsy’s hand to the wedding site, ah, only after kidnapping me, is not this very contradictory?”

“That’s the problem.” Qi Ziang squinted at the computer screen not far away is constantly changing the screen, murmured: “Although Pan Ze, Feng Xuezen and Ke Yuan three for the kidnapping of the matter between the three confessions differ greatly, but in the matter of not cutting off the palm of the hand of Be Qi is surprisingly consistent.”

“They pressed not to admit that the hands hurt or even killed each other.”

Pursed his lips, Jiang Tianyu lowered his eyes, as if he was thinking about something.

At this point, Officer Meng interjected: “Do not say, I think this matter they may not have lied.”

“On the modus operandi and process, in fact, these three people have been cautious enough, certainly will not easily make this enough to arouse the suspicion of the police, the timeline is completely wrong move.”

“And to take a step back, Panzer would not want to do this at his own wedding, right?”

“Not necessarily, but the matter does warrant speculation.” Qiziang raised his eyebrows, took out his phone to confirm the time, then slightly straightened up: “just from the interrogation room to now, has been forty minutes, now it is estimated that Panze is a little relaxed time

“Let’s go, let’s make him suffer again.”

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are getting into.

Before his words fell, the two men could not wait to rush out.

The two figures next to him, Qiziang suddenly thought of something, slowly retracted the long legs: “Ms. Jiang, why don’t you also go down with me first.”

“Those two criminals trespassed your home case, the circumstances have been basically clear, this side also happens to have some details want to confirm with you, then I will send someone to send you home.”

Hearing these words, Jiang Tianyu obediently stood up, pulled over the bag on the side of the back, and Xiao Meng police officer said goodbye softly.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

When he left the office, he also thoughtfully brought the door on.

Before the door closed completely, he also vaguely saw Xiao Meng bent his upper body down on the desktop, followed by a muffled 'bam' a sound.

The corners of his mouth twitched uncontrollably twice, and Qiziang raised his eyes to look at the slender figure that had walked to the elevator at the end of the corridor at this moment.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

Standing in front of the glass on the wall of the observation room, Jiang Tianyu also saw Pan Ze sitting on the interrogation chair.

Right now, the sun outside should have risen, and the sunlight reflected a regular outline on the ground through the only small window on the wall.

But only six or seven hours have passed, the current Panzer is no longer the same as last night's limousine, the look of spirited.

A should be very stylish short hair into a fried hedgehog, his look gray defeated, quite some discouraged feeling.

If the kidnapping of Betsy was his own doing, then he was bound to be with the police to the end. The two of them reached out to the police and dragged him to hell.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

"Let's begin."

With the magnetic male voice emerging from the miniature communicator in his ears, Lu Li looked as usual and tapped his finger on the table: "Pan Ze, Ke Yuan and Feng Xuezhen have explained all the details of your collaboration, and you still plan to go on without saying anything?"

"In fact, we do not care, but now we have not been able to find Be Qi, if you still do not say anything, after in the division of responsibility" he deliberately lengthened his voice, satisfied to see the opposite of that person's cheeks moved.

“After all, both of them said that they did not cut off Betsy’s hand, that is naturally another person did it.”

Pan Ze swallowed a mouthful of saliva, after an unknown period of time, before he opened his mouth with a dumb voice: “All of it was Feng Xuezheng and Ke Yuan’s idea, the two of them and the Yang Wei Group have an enemy, I am the son-in-law of the Bei family, how can I turn my elbow to the outside?”

“They just want to reduce their own guilt, so they dragged me into this.”

“Is that so?” Lu Li’s gaze was full of scrutiny, and after looking the man across the table up and down, he asked again, “Then how do you want to explain the wound on your arm, which was tested by the technical section and the forensic scientist, and all aspects of the wound on your arm are consistent with the iron pipe found in the aquatic products store that was stained with your DNA, and the time you were injured coincided with the time when Bae Qi disappeared? “

“Officer, your words should only prove that I had been to Feng Xuezheng’s store, and there was no one else in the store at the time.” Panze said, leaning back in his chair, a spread: “As for the injury, it is also because I had a conflict with him, that’s all.”

“Why did you have a confrontation? Because of Betsy?” Lu Li looked quite curious.

But Pan Ze squeezed a snort out of his nose: “Officer, you don’t want to set me up.”

“I went to Feng Xuezheng’s aquatic products store that day and didn’t see this person Bae Qi, it was Feng Xuezheng who asked me to borrow hundreds of thousands of dollars, I refused and he got annoyed and wanted to beat me up.”

“I naturally had to resist, and he tore back and forth in the process, the arm which accidentally hit the steel pipe.”

“Are you sure you didn’t see Betsy?” Lu Li confirmed once again.

“Sure.” Pan Ze’s answer was loud and clear: “But your police keep saying that Betsy was locked up in the aquatic products store, where is the evidence? Is there any evidence of his presence there?”

“So it’s so easy to plant evidence to frame me, just by the mouth of the two siblings, Feng Xuezheng and Ke Yuan, you can make me tainted with suspicion?”

Up to this point, Lu Li looked at each other implicitly with Xu Lida beside him.

But they have long had the psychological preparation that the other party will not easily loose their mouth, so all this in front of them is still expected.

Thinking of this, Xu Lida kept his hands around his chest posture and opened his mouth slowly: "You said"

The other side of the observation room, listening to the rambling male voice coming out of the speaker system, Qiziang's eyes moved slightly, withdrew his eyes to look at the woman standing quietly at the side.

"How about it? With what you know about Panze, is he lying?"

Blinking, Jiang Tianyu opened her mouth as if she was sighing something: "Lying is definitely lying, he is now just certain that the police do not have any evidence about Betsy ever appearing in the aquatic products store."

The other side is so confident that he did not participate in the activities of cleaning up the scene afterwards, he himself does not believe it, right?

Qiziang raised his eyebrows in agreement and went on to say, "Whether admitted or not, none of the three of them could say where Betsy went. For the hand of Betsy who appeared at the wedding, it is even a question."

"This situation, the probability that Betsy has died."

This should also be the reason why Feng Xuezheng and Ke Yuan are incoherent as soon as they mention each other, Baezi's body is now exactly where, they do not know.

Although they had planned this to tear the ticket, but the plan is a plan, the fact that really happened is another thing. Perhaps in the eyes of those two people, people died and not their hands, do not want to take the pot also in the reasonable.

"Assuming that Betsy died, so the disposal of the body was done by Panze?" Jiang Tianyu subconsciously looked again at the man in the interrogation room who was hanging his head down.

He already knew that he only wanted to kill Bei Qi, not so sincere as to do what happened at the wedding to disgust the Bei family, right? The company's main goal is to provide a solution to the problem.

If he really didn't kill Bei Qi, then he could have pulled out in time when he found out that people were dead and let the police investigate the head of Feng Xuezheng and the two of them. When the time comes to throw the police just the set of rhetoric, in turn, seems more convincing some.

She can think of, Qi Ziang of course also thought: "do not rule out the possibility of a fourth suspect in the case of the disappearance of Betsy."

It's just a pity that the aquatic products store was cleaned up too much, and if it wasn't for the wedding video that caught Panzer's loophole, I'm afraid even this clue would have been wrong.

"Of course, this sudden appearance of the fourth person, and Pan Ze, Feng Xuezheng and Ke Yuan is not a gang, it is not yet certain." He lowered his voice and said.

In fact, deep down, Qi Ziang is more inclined to this fourth person is outside of everyone's expectations, just from cutting off Bei Qi's hand to make Bei Bei drink this action that destroyed the pre-arranged bureau of Pan Ze and others can be seen.

Jiang Tianyu followed and echoed: "If it's really like we speculated, it was Panze who disposed of the corpse"

"He's such a dog, he doesn't just wipe people's a.sses for them."

This is a bit vulgar, but the words are not vulgar, but also managed to tease Qi Ziang's eyes deep in the rapid flash of a faintly detectable smile.

"So Panze knows who that fourth person is?" He paced back and forth in place with a slight sense of trickiness, "Someone who can make him willingly take care of the other side."

"The first order of business now is to pry Panzer's mouth open and ask him where exactly he took Betsy."

Rather than forcing the other side to account for that fourth person, as long as Betsy is found, the police will have a chance to speak with evidence.

Soundlessly with the tip of his tongue against his right cheek, Jiang Tianyu raised his hand and gently tapped the glass in front of him with his fingertips.

If it comes to grabbing Panzer's sore spot and pounding on it, there's really no one more vocal than Jiang Nanlu, the ex-girlfriend.

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 134 - Tips

In the interrogation room, Lu Li and Xu Lida did not give up, the car wheel said a bunch, only a few questions, repeatedly asked back and forth.

Suddenly, Lu Li, who was continuing to ask questions, paused inconspicuously, then continued to ask as usual: "The night of the wedding, where were you?"

“Are you okay officer?” Pan Ze seemed to find him very ridiculous: “After the wedding incident, I came to your Public Security Bureau, and then accompanied the police back to the villa of the Bei family, and also accepted the police questioning, and now you ask me where I am?”

“Where do you think I am?”

“Don’t play time difference with me, that day when it was still dark, we initially understood the situation and then let you go, it was your family because of the disappearance of Bai Qi, has been staying in the Public Security Bureau downstairs refused to leave.” Lu Li’s mind is clear, half of the other side of the interference.

“You waited downstairs, the police did not send someone to watch, during which you went to where we can say accurate?”

In other words, the chronological order was first Jiang Tianyu was attacked at Jiang Nanlu’s home, followed by the City Bureau side identified the dismembered remains in the cup belonged to Bei Qi and informed the family.

The time before Qi Ziang and others went to Jiang Nanlu’s home to bring people back, enough for Panze to run to the aquatic products store to simply transfer the body of Be Qi, and direct Feng Xuezheng to thoroughly clean up the scene.

The man across the table heard this, the fingers hanging on the knee gently moved twice, but his face is still calm: “or that sentence, the police speak is also to speak of evidence.”

“Of course we talk about evidence, the public security building is full of surveillance cameras inside and outside, back to check the monitoring will be able to determine whether you went out, and how long went out.” Lu Li provocatively raised his chin, looking at Pan Ze’s increasingly sunken face, a pair of eyes curved in a larger arc.

“Yes, when you went to the aquatic products store, most likely chose a road without monitoring, we ultimately could not figure out your whereabouts.”

“But the problem is not big, then ask carefully that day and you stay in one place of Bebe and Wu Limin, perhaps there is your own unnoticed breakthrough, but by chance they saw in the eyes of the possible.”

The nodes of the throat rolled up and down, in a few seconds after his words fell, Panze opened his mouth hoarsely: “You are at liberty.”

Lu Li sneered and turned his face as if asking for advice: “Brother Xu, there are still Feng Xuezheng and Ke Yuan to deal with, so let’s put him in a cage to sober up first!”

Xu Lida agreed, and soon the two of them took control of Panze together and left the interrogation room.

After getting off the elevator and walking for a while in the long and empty corridor, Lu Li very simply pushed open a door and unceremoniously threw the man into the temporary detention room.

After making sure that the man obediently went into the 'cage' and unlocked the iron door, he said hello to the two colleagues guarding the place and turned to leave.

After hearing the sound of the door closing, Panze then distracted to survey the surroundings, naturally noticed the next door in the 'cage', at this time is hugging their legs, sitting shrunken in the corner of the woman.

Jiang Nanlu?

A trace of suspicion flashed across his eyes, but he still went to the iron fence between the two single rooms and called out softly, "Nanlu?"

After the woman raised her head in some confusion, he inquired with some confusion, "Why are you here?"

Now that the police already had the confessions of Feng Xuezheng and Ke Yuan, the other party should have been out of suspicion.

"Pan Ze?" Jiang Tianyu showed suitable surprise, then pursed her lips as if a little embarrassed: "The police said that it was Ke Yuan who found someone to kidnap me."

"Of course I was furious, so I wanted to ask for clarification in person, just in time for two police officers to escort her out of the house, and I rushed up and slapped her twice."

"Now the police are saying that I assaulted someone and obstructed the execution of official duties, and then they put me in here."

"....." Pan Ze secretly breathed a sigh of relief without traces, it seems that the police did not easily reveal any inside information to the woman before the matter was fully investigated.

"And you? How did you get locked in too?" Jiang Tianyu glared curiously and raised her voice.

Just at that moment, one of the police officers guarding the outside of the detention room opened his mouth and shouted, "You two! Don't talk to each other!"

Pan Ze's eyes rolled up and sat down against the middle rail, Jiang Tianyu looked a little hesitant, but eventually moved to the man's side when the two policemen weren't looking.

"It's not just that Betsy thing, in the eyes of their police, it's a person who is a suspect."

"Oh." Jiang Tianyu nodded with a dazed look, slightly drooping eyelids well hidden a flash of fine light under the eyes.

By definition, Pan Ze was a very cautious person, and his caution was enough to match his ambition.

But at the same time, this type of person is very conceited, and even subconsciously feel that as long as they determine the fact that will not change.

For example, he felt that after more than two years of previous romantic relationships, he already knew enough about Jiang Nanlu.

Or, he simply never put women on an equal footing, so he can't afford to be wary of anything at all.

"Betsy, Betsy, Betsy again!" Jiang Tianyu imitated the original owner's expression and movement, nestled in the corner and muttered a small complaint: "I don't know if this year is a bad year, so unlucky."

"You're the one who's too unsuspecting of people." Pan Ze frowned, his tone was like a reproach: "When Bie Qi approached you with ulterior motives, you should have sensed his intentions, why did you make such a mess now."

For a moment, the scene before him brought him back to the time when they were boyfriend and girlfriend.

Jiang Nanlu, who was soft and weak, would occasionally make mistakes, and at that time he used to educate the other party in this way.

To be honest, from the bottom of his heart, he did genuinely like women, as for his current wife, Bebe, his feelings are a bit complicated, not to mention it.

"Pan Ze, although you are Bebe's husband, you have to remain fair and impartial in certain matters, right?" Jiang Tianyu gave him a sidelong glance, "In this matter, I am the outright victim!"

Seeing that she was getting agitated, her face was red and she was about to lose control, Pan Ze opened his mouth soothingly, "Fine, fine."

“Speaking of which before the wedding, the two of us have not seen each other for more than half a year, how are you doing?”

Because the woman’s brain does not seem to be very bright to him, so he lightly manipulated the same way he used to deal with Jiang Nanlu, changing the subject and playing a relatively mild emotional card.

“Good and bad.” Jiang Tianyu seems to be successfully diverted, the small chin against the flexed knee, the gaze somewhat put empty: “The adult world is too sad, always will recall the past.”

Hearing these words, Panze also showed a rare wistful expression.

For him, at this moment not to let the woman dwell on why he is here is the safest, not is sentimental looking back on the past? What can be the problem.

But what the man doesn’t know is that this is exactly what Jiang Tianyu wants.

A person’s deepest secrets, often hidden deep in the past, subconsciously the other side does not think the topic is dangerous, in order to inadvertently reveal more problems.

“Nan Lu, I think I always owe you an apology.” Panze twisted his head, his eyes deep and loving.

“Things have passed for so long, the words of apology need not be said again.” Jiang Tianyu did not want to face the back of his head to him: “You do not misunderstand, I just think, when young happiness are more pure.”

Jiang Nanlu and Panze together, the two actually did not experience any hard times, there is really nothing to take out to taste again and again.

In the place where Pan Ze can not see, her face features almost to wrinkle together, quietly smoothed the arms stand up after the goose bumps, as if there is a long sigh.

“I remember that time you love to eat a bullfrog near the university town, almost every week to pester me to go.” The corners of the man’s mouth smiled, there is always nothing going on now, and really chatted with her.

“Well you also go to eat that hot pot in front of the station every month!” Jiang Tianyu responded reluctantly: “Also took me to many places and met many friends.”

As she spoke, her voice lowered again, and she looked like she was not very excited.

“Nan Lu, in fact, I want to say, although we are now but you can still look for me if you have any difficulties.” Pan Ze said softly, the tone of voice is soft, the deep feelings in his eyes can putty people.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

“At that time I envy you, born and raised in Jiangcheng locals, even the university is in the city, surrounded by a bunch of good friends, good classmates.”

“By the way, there are a few of them with you especially iron, you have not forgotten them when you become rich, right?” She said, smilingly glanced at the person next to her.

“What developed.” Pan Ze lost his smile and shook his head to retort, then seemed to be caught in the memories: “That year is also young, nothing to engage in a party all night, these two years it is difficult to get together to go.”

“There are married to accompany the wife and children, there are going to the field to develop their careers, there are days not quite as smooth as you want to show up.”

We are not the same teenagers who just graduated and entered the society, full of enthusiasm, life has gradually smoothed out everyone’s edges, so that they are gradually moving away from the road of life.

“Party.” Jiang Tianyu took a deep breath, according to Jiang Nanlu that sporadic memory along with the stubble said: “I remember that the two of us often quarrel because you do not sleep at night.”

“Men, the party is not to go to what KTV, bath center, foot spa

“The more you say the more outrageous ah! How long has it been, and still turning over old scores?” Pan Ze some helplessly raised his hand, pinched his brow: “When have I been to that kind of place, we are a few party is either an Internet cafe all night playing games, or go to the field to play ball, and then back to whose home to sleep.”

“Remember we had a falling out over this once, I also took you outside to play ball all night, the result turned out you were bitten all over the mosquito bag, aggrieved cried all day.”

“After I invited you again how, you refused to go.”

Pan Ze is very emotional, mentioning these old stories, his cold hard heart are a little soft up.

Still that, the sizzling heartbeat and emotions of the year are true.

Wild pitch, playing ball, mosquito bag.

These key words successfully let Jiang Tianyu unlock a memory forgotten by the original owner in the nooks and crannies, the impression that the court is a yellow land, surrounded by buildings are in disrepair, just where the two basketball stands.

Every time a few people run up, a yellow soil will fly in front of their eyes, and their vision instantly becomes blurred.

That court also does not have any lighting equipment, it is said that the only light bulb hanging on the pole or the few people who worked together to connect the wire, and Jiang Nanlu was arranged to sit on a plastic stool directly below the light bulb, which was bitten all over the bag.

As for the location of the court

It is because the time is too long ago, Jiang Nanlu's relevant impression is very vague, can not remember what route to arrive there at the beginning.

Jiang Tianyu slowly closed her eyes, only two breaths of effort, she was in the original owner's memory.

This kind of immersive memory search, which consumes energy and energy, she has not used for a long time.

Sitting on the plastic bench of the court, through the dust flying in the air, Jiang Tianyu lifted her eyelids to look around.

Because it is night, everywhere you look is a silent darkness, vaguely visible not far from the weeds swaying in the night wind, the ears in addition to the exuberant howls of a few old men, but also to hear the crickets annoying chirping.

It should not be near a residential area, or else such a wild course that can play all night long is a considerable nuisance to the public.

The outskirts?

Jiang Tianyu can even see the signboards on the buildings that keep flashing in the distance.

I have to admit, if this rare wild field is still around, it is indeed a good place to destroy a corpse.

She concentrated a little and squinted her eyes slightly as she tried to see the words on the signboard of the nearby building clearly.

However, in the next second, a certain familiar sound suddenly rang in her ears, like like the siren sound made by a fire truck.

The sound was sudden and not the kind that comes from far and near, so there is a fire station nearby?

Just then, Panze opened his mouth and called out twice: "Nanlu? Nan Lu? What are you thinking about?"

Reopening her eyes, Jiang Tianyu turned her face slightly sideways and looked squarely at the other party: "Nothing, I just suddenly couldn't remember the location of the court you had taken me to."

"..... is not important, that place has long been bulldozed." Pan Ze's expression was slightly stiff at the moment, but it was quickly covered up by him, and after returning two vague sentences, he immediately changed the topic: "Speaking of which, is your work still going well?"

However, Jiang Tianyu did not answer this question, and after staring at him steadily for a while, she finally withdrew her gaze as if she was sure of something.

She got up and walked straight to the iron door on her side, waving her hand at the two policemen outside the door.

Suddenly, a feeling of trepidation and anxiety surged into Panze's heart.

"Nan Lu?"

Jiang Tianyu didn't bother to pay attention to him, at the same time she was released from the 'cage' by one of the police comrades, the door outside the detention room was also pushed open, and Qi Ziang walked in with Lu Li in tow.

Without too much nonsense, she spoke very fast and said, "It is an abandoned building yard transformed into a wild field."

"There is a building about twenty stories high in the southeast, with neon lights on the outside of the staircase and several advertising signs hanging on it, one of which has the word 'Hua' on it."

"There should also be a fire station nearby."

Qiziang nodded and gave a wink towards Lu Li.

Lu Li agreed and squeezed to the table where the two colleagues were sitting, borrowed the computer on top to call up the map of Jiangcheng City, first marked a positioning of the city's fire stations, and then screened the buildings within the city of about twenty floors.

Two or three minutes later.

"Found it!" Lu Li exclaimed, red under his eyes because of the excitement.

On the contrary, Panze in the 'cage' still had that unbelievable expression, as if he hadn't been able to recover from this sudden change of heart.

"According to the details provided by Ms. Jiang, I think the possibility of this abandoned rice processing plant located in the built-up area of the fire station seven or eight hundred meters is relatively large." Lu Li stretched out his hand to break the computer screen slightly to the side, so that the next two people easier to see clearly.

"And there from Feng Xuezheng aquatic products store drive are not ten minutes, so calculate, the night of the wedding Panze take the opportunity to slip out and then slip back, there is plenty of time."

Qi Ziang narrowed his eyes, said like a memory: "I remember this piece of land seems to be privately owned, about six or seven years ago, the factory died a few people one after another. Although the case was finally solved, the murderer was also successfully arrested by the police, but the rumors circulating in the community are some metaphysical rumors."

Nothing but bad feng shui ah, people dying in vain will be a lot of grievances, this place who sits in the business who will not end well and other rumors.

But most of the business believe in the metaphysical and metaphysical set, so that such a good location was abandoned.

To put it bluntly, the owner of the land should not be any lack of money master, or sell at a reduced price can always be sold out.

Lu Li nodded in understanding, then expression of doubt: "I used to drive by that place, there is a wild field?"

"The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public. Qiziang raised his eyebrows.

When several people intend to leave the detention room, the cage inside the Panze suddenly as if sealed up rushed up, shaking the iron fence twice: "Jiang Nanlu! You screwed me?"

Jiang Tianyu, who had already reached the door, stopped in her tracks, took two deep breaths in place and turned around with a perfect smile on her face: "Pan Ze, you are biased in what you say."

"I didn't ask you any questions, you didn't give me any response, I guessed it by my ability, how can I call it 'screwing'?"

Panze's face twitched twice, then he gritted his teeth and opened his mouth: "Jiang Nanlu, you must hate me, right? You're getting back at me?"

"Hate?" Jiang Tianyu actually wanted to pry open the other party's brain shell to see what kind of structure is inside, how some men in contemporary society are so blindly confident, but it's just a pair of scum men and cheap women.

The original owner was definitely sad at that time, but hate was never talked about.

"Panze, don't put gold on your own face." She raised her chin slightly, her delicate little face shone with the glow of justice under the light: "Cooperating with the police and assisting them to solve the case is the duty of every citizen, I just did what a normal person should do."

Panze:

I fvcking thank you ah.

On the other hand, Qi Ziang in the end did not control the hooked lips, really or familiar recipe, familiar taste.

"I am now really unbelievably glad that you gave up on me and ran to be Bebe's l!cking dog." Jiang Tianyu suddenly smiled again like a flower, from the expression can be seen really happy: "If we two are still together, you make this kind of pig dog worse than things to do, I really close my eyes at night to die of nausea."

A bla bla bla bla output, Panze several times want to speak are disliked back by her non-stop mouth.

After the unrestrained venting, Jiang Tianyu didn't even give the other party a chance to retort, turning around and pulling open the door to walk out, all the actions in one go.

Only the man who had fallen into madness was left howling in the cage as he crumbled.

After leaving the detention room, she leaned against a wall not far away and raised her eyes to look at the two older men who came out right behind her: "Officer Qi, are you going to that abandoned rice processing plant later?"

Qi Ziang nodded, and after looking at her slightly tired state and the blue and black under her eyes, she opened her mouth lightly: "If there is any more progress, I will contact you at any time, and if you want to go home, you can go see Officer Xu."

"Otherwise there is also a lounge on the floor where the questioning room is located, and there are sofas inside the lounge."

A few steps away, Lu Li heard the conversation between the two, seems to be some puzzled frown, how recently involved in the case of people living in the Public Security Bureau formed a normalization? There is a count one all like to take this side as home it?

Is it because they dry criminal police looks mighty, so that these soft beauty girl special sense of security?

The idea is that he also subconsciously straightened his back because of the tired and bent back, full of pride written on his face.

However, the rest of the two completely did not notice the corner of that as if the male peacock opened the general Lu Li, Jiang Tianyu just nodded. This place he is familiar with, there is no need for others to worry about themselves.

The big hand hanging at the side of the body moved unconsciously, just in that moment, Qi Ziang actually suddenly rose up an impulse to tap the top of each other's hair.

The body standing in front of you is not that person's.

"Okay then." He remained calm and nodded his head, then greeted Lu Li behind him, and the two tall backs quickly disappeared at the end of the corridor.

Jiang Tianyu looked sideways downstairs until she could no longer see the police cars that had driven away, then she withdrew her eyes.

She stared at the windowsill for a while, then clenched her bag under her armpit and also left the place with quick steps.

Inside the office of the Major Crime Unit.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what's going on.

In his sleep, he vaguely felt a little hot, sucking up the saliva hanging on the side of his mouth about to flow onto the table, he changed his position again and skewed his head to the other side.

The two slightly comical eyebrows are slightly knitted, and Officer Meng always feels that something is not quite right.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

He must have slept in a daze, Sister Jiang was clearly called away by the Qi team, how could she come back?

But the sound of breathing in the ears is so real, as well as the sound of fabric rubbing and the sound of boisterous people coming out of the speakers.

All of this converged into a symphony of disturbance, directly drove away his few remaining sleepyheads.

Resigning himself to maintaining a slumped posture and opening his eyes again, Xiao Meng reluctantly pulled up an awkward smile: "Sister Jiang Jiang."

Jiang Tianyu fondly moved her gaze from the computer screen to the other side of the face: "Sorry, I knocked on the door when I came back, but you slept a little heavy"

"I saw the video you also left it on, so it is it disturbing you?"

Officer Xiao Meng hurriedly ejected, after slightly organizing his grooming, shook his head violently, and then carefully asked, "Sister Jiang, you have not been resting?"

Gosh darn it, what kind of a breed is the other side, the grandmother of the ancestor of the boiling eagle school?!

Unnoticed 'hmm', Jiang Tianyu opened his mouth: "Qi team they found a location, Pan Ze most likely hid Be Qi over there, now many police officers have gone over."

"Really? That's great." Officer Xiao Meng's eyes lit up, after ignoring the strange feeling that he was a police officer but was informed of the progress of the investigation by the people involved in the case, he raised his hand and rubbed his eyes, trying to concentrate hard on his work.

A few minutes later, just when he was still drowsy, he was instantly startled by a violent 'thump thump thump' sound to the spirit.

Jiang Tianyu took out her cell phone from her bag with an embarrassed face and pressed the connect button for the video call, and Qi Zion's face appeared on the phone screen.

The camera was shaking and shifting, and you could only see the other party's firm chin.

"Officer Qi." Jiang Tianyu opened her mouth unnaturally against the suspicious gaze of the people around her: "Did you find Betsy?"

"Well, the body was packed in an iron barrel inside the abandoned factory, the dumping site environment is a bit harsh, the body surface of many evidence is estimated to be contaminated." Qiziang tone serious.

Although the missing person was found, but the situation is not optimistic.

Because the plant is in disrepair, the walls and roofs have collapsed, containing the body of Betsy iron barrel full of daily rain accumulated by the dirty rain, the human epidermis has been soaked swollen, not to mention what fingerprints, DNA and other evidence.

"Forensics initially determined the cause of death is the brain suffered a violent impact caused by intracranial hemorrhage, the deceased skull damage is very serious, the entire right side was a radioactive bone fracture state."

"Multiple strike points were found on the right side of his skull, and it can be surmised that the killer was out of control at the time."

"Wow! What a big revenge!" Officer Xiao Meng also came to the camera and exclaimed, "Then Qi team, what is the murder weapon can be judged?"

"Power saw." Qi Zion responded, "Betsy wrist at the neat cut, after the technical section will be his wounds and electric saw blade for comparison, I reckon the results match."

"And the blow wound on the deceased's brain is also similar to the bump on the body of the electric saw."

"Right now the technical section is trying to extract some useful evidence from it, but the surface of the murder weapon has traces of having been wiped, and it is still unknown whether we can get a part of the fingerprints that are sufficient for comparison."

Officer Meng was silent, it is true that even if the victim was found, the investigation of the case is still unclear.

Suddenly, the screen on the phone screen turned, a plastic sheet laid on the ground in front of the camera flashed.

“Wait

Qiziang moved the camera back: “Part of it was taken off the body of the deceased, part of it was sifted out from the iron barrel where the body was hidden.”

All these things still have to wait back to the bureau, the technicians to do the classification process, and then the same to determine whether it is related to this murder case.

“Is that a manicure nail piece?” Jiang Tianyu frowned.

Zhang Ye, the head of the technical section, who was squatting there fiddling with the evidence, nodded: “It’s a nail piece, and if it’s not the only female involved in the kidnapping, Ke Yuan, then it’s highly likely to be the murderer’s.”

“It’s not Ke Yuan’s.” Jiang Tianyu thought back carefully: “Our bridesmaids’ nail art was all about getting it done together.”

As she spoke, she lifted her hand and showed the crowd the eye color very fresh soft pink small broken nail, and the scene of that dark red nail to form a sharp contrast.

“Nor is the bride babe.” Qiziang also participated in the work of sequentially ranking the suspects: “Her nail I remember is pure white, the style is very complicated, the top paste full of diamonds.”

Officer Meng couldn’t help but mutter, could it be that the suspect was a guest who came to the wedding?

But what kind of guest can make the son-in-law of the Bei family willingly afterwards ah?

At this point, Jiang Tianyu moved, she reached out and took the mouse, directly dragged the progress bar of the wedding video being played on the computer to the forefront.

“.....” Officer Meng subconsciously held his breath until he saw the woman sharply press the pause button, the video stopped on a screen, he hesitantly tilted his head: “Seems, there is no one here to do nail art ah ?”

On the screen, Bei Zhiyuan and Wu Limin were sitting on the sofa of the Bei family villa, smiling at the couple in front of them.

Pan Ze was about to toast tea with a cup of tea when Wu Limin extended her hand slightly forward, a pair of well-maintained noble hands white and tender, ten nails healthy and translucent powder, not to mention nail chips, nail polish is not even painted.

Jiang Tianyu was not affected by his words, a sullen face zoomed in on those hands, incidentally framed a red circle on the nail of Wu Limin's left index finger.

"She has wear marks on the surface of this nail, although after polishing and repair has been very light, and there is an almost invisible red mark on the nail, I reckon it's an injury suffered when the manicure was hooked off."

Officer Meng was so shocked that it took a good half day to find his voice: "Wu Limin?"

"Betsy's mother?!"

"Outrageous, right? The tiger's poison doesn't even eat its children!" Officer Meng then had a flash of light: "Could it be that Betsy is not Wu Limin's own child?"

This is what they say in TV dramas, and there are many stories of bloodshed in the gentry, and who can tell the grudges of the older generation?

The other side of the phone, Qi Ziang immediately denied his suspicions: "before the technical department for the family to do DNA comparison, Bie Qi and Wu Limin is indeed related, this point is undeniable."

"Xiao Meng, you pull out the surveillance video of our compound on the day of the wedding, to see the whereabouts of Wu Limin and Pan Ze."

Officer Meng responded, his feet stirred, sitting on the swivel chair slid to the other computer behind him.

The two fingers jumped quickly on the keyboard, the screen appeared a lot of surveillance video, about the time to open one of them, he pointed to a certain place on the screen: "Look, at this time, a few people from the Bay family just walked out of the building."

"This is Bei Zhiyuan, he went straight to a car and left."

"As for Wu Limin, Beibei and Panze are hovering around another car, it's a pity that the distance of the surveillance probe is a bit too far to hear what they are saying." Xiao Meng gave a rather regretful 'tsk'.

Jiang Tianyu also got up and went over, some doubts asked: "Why would the Bei family stay in the Public Security Bureau at that moment? Counting the time not yet determined that the hand at the wedding belongs to Be Qi?"

Qiziang's voice came out again from the receiver: "I remember that after the police questioning and investigation, the whole family was not able to contact Be Qi, it was Wu Limin who proposed to wait in the Public Security Bureau, and then in case Be Qi showed up, the family also had a lookout."

"And Bei Zhiyuan should be first returned home to find Bei Qi."

"Now it seems like Wu Limin is sure that Bei Qi can not be found before insisting on staying at the Public Security Bureau to wait for news." Jiang Tianyu raised an eyebrow: "Be Qi's hand appeared at the wedding, that is to say, his death time is before the wedding even if Ke Yuan and Pan Ze because of the next day's wedding, can not guard the aquatic products store, but Feng Xuezheng and how can let her easily get ah?"

The three people wasted a lot of effort to kidnap people back, just like this alone left people there, obviously not reasonable.

"If there was a mole among the three, wouldn't things be much easier?" Qiziang pondered for two seconds before saying.

Jiang Tianyu's eyebrows jumped: "You mean that Panze's motive for committing the crime with Feng Xuezheng was not for the sake of the Yang Wei Group's inheritance, as we had guessed beforehand?"

"There may also be for the benefit, only first someone put the benefit in front of him, he decided to move the hand?" The man said something meaningful.

Indeed, with Panze's personality of not seeing a rabbit, how could he wipe someone's a.ss for no reason, willingly?

From the time Be Qi was cut hands to Feng Xuezheng and other people found him dead, and then Pan Ze to deal with the body, the interval of at least twenty hours, so where exactly did Feng Xuezheng go during this period?

At this point, Officer Meng pointed to the computer screen still continues to play the surveillance video and opened: "Look, at about seven o'clock that night, our police determined that the fingers and human tissue in the thermos cup belongs to Bei Qi."

"The three members of the Bei family entered the building again, I remember Wu Limin and Bei Bei that cry, almost did not lift the roof."

"This is the Qi team led the police out to Jiang's home, followed by the Bei family also came out and once again returned to their luxury car." Officer Meng turned the video on multiplier, so everyone on the screen, the action was fast.

“Look here again, about ten minutes or so after the Qi team and their departure, Pan Ze slipped into the corner of the courtyard, did not know who made a phone call, and then got into the car that came directly from the wedding site before and left.”

Jiang Tianyu frowned: “This is the call received from Feng Xuezheng who found out that Bei Qi died?”

The first thing you need to do is to do a full set, even if Pan Ze has probably already known the truth that the other party has left the world, but also can not let Feng Xuezheng and Ke Yuan notice any abnormalities.

If Feng Xuezheng and Ke Yuan found something wrong, then the three ‘community of destiny’ relationship will no longer exist.

After all, aside from the joint kidnapping of Betsy, once we know which the real killer is, the cousins are not willing to take the blame.

But the reality is, in Panze that superb acting skills and detailed planning, Feng Xuezheng did not able to see clearly the hidden conspiracy in this matter.

Because they are not sure who moved to kill Betsy, Panzer and then take the time to fool the two people two sentences, in order to avoid being traced and suspected by the police, simply close both eyes to the crime scene cleaned up, and then the body a treatment for a clean.

This even after the police really found the three heads, Feng Xuezheng and Ke Yuan can not provide any useful clues and information.

In other words, as long as Panze side held up, the police will likely have been unable to find the body of Bei Qi.

If there is no body, even with the confessions of Feng Xuezheng and Ke Yuan, it is difficult to determine whether the person has really died, the same can not be charged with murder.

Even, the police just rely on the only DNA evidence in their hands, Pan Ze had appeared in Feng Xuezheng aquatic products store, even the kidnapping charge will be very difficult to determine.

Pan Ze seems to have long anticipated the worst outcome, I believe that the person behind the scenes must have offered benefits that he could not refuse.

But, it is estimated that he could not expect that this matter ended up being bad for his ex-girlfriend that he did not even put in his eyes.

In the silence for a while, across the phone Qiziang suddenly out of voice: “some specific details, I let Xu re-examine Feng Xuezen, and so the technical section of the body dumping site of these evidence are processed before the next step.”

“Hard work for you guys.”

Not yet waiting for Jiang Tianyu to reply, Xiao Meng got up and let a big face into the mirror: “Not hard work! Qi team, you must pay attention to safety ah!”

The next second, the video call should be cut off.

The next second, the video call should be cut off. Officer Meng s.ucked his nose after the fact, always felt as if he was disliked.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

Next, the two continued to watch the wedding video while beginning a long wait.

Perhaps because the latest two clues were found in the video, Xiao Meng is now full of energy, in a hurry to chew two bites of bread, and then devote themselves to work inside.

On the contrary, Jiang Tianyu from time to time went away, during the period also heard the faint noise coming up from downstairs, should be Qi Ziang returned with the team.

Not curious to choose to go to the window to look, and after a while, she stood up and walked to the water fountain, using disposable water cups to brew themselves a packet of instant coffee.

The sweet, mushy taste quickly spread through the air, Jiang Tianyu leaned against the wall with the water cup in her hand, and through the dense water vapor in front of her, the white roof she saw before returning to her body briefly seemed to emerge again.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

I counted on my fingers, I haven’t closed my eyes for more than forty-eight hours, so I think I’ve reached the limit of this body.

Even though her willpower could hold out, Jiang Nanlu’s body protested.

The case has entered its final stage of completion, so should we go to the original owner’s residence first to rest?

In her pondering, the door of the office opened unexpectedly.

Officer Meng twisted his head to take a look, immediately jumped three feet high: “Lu, you finally came up! How is it? Did Feng Xuezhen’s side explain?”

Lu Li first walked to his desk, picked up the half bottle of mineral water placed on top of a drink, and then a sigh of relief: “According to Feng Xuezhen, he has been disappearing after the successful kidnapping of Bei Qi, because the only remaining family of the seaside farm suddenly had an accident, raising a large swath of sea cucumbers died. “

“He had to rush back to deal with, plus Panzer promised him that Betsy’s side do not have to worry about, he was relieved to leave. It was only when he returned to the store the next night that he was shocked to find that things were going to be bad.”

“Feng Xuezhen also called Ke Yuan, but the time is a little late, Ke Yuan has already ganged up on Jiang Nanlu with the two gangsters, simply can not answer the phone.”

When Pan Ze arrived, the two hurriedly discussed, Feng Xuezhen is responsible for cleaning up the scene, Pan Ze is responsible for handling the body.

Feng Xuezhen also said that even his tools to clean up the scene were brought along by Panze, and also instructed him to pay attention to matters.

So it seems hard not to suspect that the other side just came prepared.

“Wow” Officer Xiao Meng lamented, “I am now really curious about what is going on in this Bei family, why would a mother kill her own son?”

“Through the previous contact, Wu Limin look also does not look like a mental problem ah”

Lu Li waved his hand: “Wait, Qi team has taken Xu to try Panze, in the face of conclusive evidence, I do not believe he will be tough this time!”

“Even if the Yang Wei Group is given to him, he still has to have a life to enjoy, right?”

Intentional murder is a felony, and will be sentenced to death.

Saying that, Lu Li turned his face sideways to the woman who didn’t say a word next to him, “Ms. Jiang, you”?

“Hmm?” Jiang Tianyu put a mouthful of undrunk coffee on the coffee table to the side and raised a friendly smile, “I’m a little tired, if there’s nothing else, I’d like to go home first.”

"This is okay, right, but your phone better stay open." Lu Li hesitated for a moment, guessing that the interrogation on Qi Ziang's side would not be over for a while, so he nodded and agreed: "Or I'll send you."

"Don't bother, I called a car online." Jiang Tianyu picked up her bag, shook the phone in her hand, and after saying a simple goodbye to the two of them, she left at a fast pace.

Hiss

Lu Li thought about it in the same place, but finally stepped away to the window and watched with his own eyes as Jiang Tianyu, who had just come down the stairs, got into a cab.

Officer Xiao Meng saw the situation also came over, the tone of voice is like a casual conversation: "Wait until Panze side put down, the technical section and then determine the nail and Wu Limin have a relationship, is it possible to implement the arrest?"

"By definition is" said, but Lu Li suddenly a meal, uncertainty narrowed his eyes: "That is Bebe?"

Following his line of sight, Xiao Meng only saw a person rushing down from a luxury car and stumbling into the office building.

Heart suddenly rose a bad feeling, Lu Li immediately said: "Go down and see!"

The duo rushed downstairs with the fastest speed, and the woman's desolate voice was echoing in the hall on the first floor.

Bebe dragged a dumbfounded Uncle Sun, crying on the breath, intermittently said: "No bad, all gone gone!"

Uncle Sun is worthy of the experienced veteran police, comforting while also teaching each other how to adjust breathing: "You slowly say, who is missing?"

"My mother, my father and Xiao Yan sister!"

"All gone!"

When she got out of the cab, Jiang Tianyu walked towards the building where the original owner lived with her head hanging.

She entered the unit, got on the elevator, and finally stopped at the corresponding floor, walked to the security door, and reached her hand towards the fingerprint lock.

Just when her thumb was about to fit the smooth surface of the fingerprint reader, she suddenly squinted her eyes and maintained this position for four or five seconds, wondering what she was thinking about.

Ring Ring Ring

The ear-piercing ringing of the phone echoed in the empty corridor, Jiang Tianyu took out her cell phone from her bag, glanced at the caller ID, put the receiver to her ear while sharply pressing the door open button.

Click.

The sound of the electronic lock turning sounded in the ear, and the anti-theft door popped open a very small gap at once.

“Hello?”

“Ms. Jiang, I heard Lu Li say that you have left the bureau? But did you return home safely?” The first thing that came from the other side was Qi Ziang’s questioning voice that had little emotional fluctuation.

“Well” she answered vaguely.

Home is indeed back, but safe or unsafe is not easy to say.

“About twenty minutes ago, Bebe came to the city Public Security Bureau, claiming that Wu Limin, Bei Zhiyuan and Gao Xiaoyan all missing.”

“Now the police also indeed can not contact the three, although we have begun to retrieve the surveillance video near the villa of the Bay family to see if we can figure out their movements, but I think we still need to advise you to be careful, non-essential do not go out at will”

Jiang Tianyu listened to the rambling male voice in his ear, the other hand gently pulled open the security door in front of him, to raise his eyes to see the scene inside the house, instantly breath a stagnant.

I saw that the house is facing the location of the entrance, Wu Limin is sitting lazily on a chair, holding a long strip of things, shaking at her.

The woman’s expression is wanton and vaguely crazy.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

What's more, she wasn't sure how much explosives were prepared by the woman in front of her who could even kill her own son.

The place where the original owner lives is a high-grade apartment building, the population density is large, this floor alone has a dozen households, upstairs and downstairs add up to dozens of people always have.

In case the explosion is extremely powerful, the ripple effect will be very wide, the consequences will be unimaginable.

"Well I think it's better to hang up first." Jiang Tianyu did not hesitate to cut off the phone, in Wu Limin's gesture forcefully slammed the phone on the ground, and then step into the house, obediently behind the security door tightly closed.

The purpose is to lay at the feet of the woman's two figures, at this time Be Zhiyuan and Gao Xiaoyan's upper body were tied with explosives.

Be Zhiyuan has gathered a pool of blood under the thighs, breathing weakly, while Gao Xiaoyan's consciousness is obviously awake, but do not dare to have a little rash action.

In the heart silently calculate a number of two people on the weight of roughly how much range of turmoil can be caused, Jiang Tianyu put the hand of the backpack a skim, slightly raised his hands to indicate that he does not have any threat, so as to avoid the opposite of what stimulation and thus frenzy.

"Auntie Wu did you take the spare key I put in Bebe's place before you came in?" She uncomfortably pulled the corner of her lips, "Without the host family's consent, this seems a bit impolite."

Wu Limin's red lips hooked, not denying her question, but not admitting it either, "I've been waiting here for you for a long time, why did you only come back?"

"Late is a little late, it's good that people are all here, it only looks lively when they are on the road together."

Between lightning and fire, Jiang Tianyu thought of a certain possibility, but the face is still showing a puzzled look: "Auntie Wu, I still do not quite understand what you mean now."

"I just came back from the Public Security Bureau and heard the police say that they have found traces of Betsy. So you must not think about it, the police will definitely return you a justice."

"Found?" Wu Limin raised her eyebrows, her face did not see the slightest bit of panic: "Then congratulations to them, I don't know where that little b.rat Pan Ze has thrown people."

Pursing her lips, Jiang Tianyu was asking a question, but her tone was quite certain: "Did you kill Be Qi?"

"He is also the child that you brought into the world after a long journey through the ghostly gate in October! You can also do this?!"

"He he" Wu Limin like to hear what a funny joke in general, shoulders shrugged out of laughter, followed by a sound after a sound, until the corners of the eyes are oozing a little tears.

"Some children are human, the children of animals can only be animals!"

Jiang Tianyu's eyes were back and forth between the two lying on the ground, and finally settled on Gao Xiaoyan's pearly face, although the other party's mouth has been taped shut, but can still vaguely see some clues from their brows and eyes.

The case has progressed to the present situation, it seems that the end of all the Beibei family is not very good, except for Beibei.

The death of Bai Qi is confirmed, Pan Ze because of his involvement in the kidnapping, killing Bai Qi and the disposal of the body afterwards, once the evidence is confirmed is afraid to spend the rest of his life in prison.

Feng Xuezen and Ke Yuan, the pair of cousins aside, Bei Zhiyuan looks to have been more into the gas and less out, even the nanny Gao Xiaoyan is also a confused future.

Wu Limin needless to say, whether or not today can successfully detonate this room of powerful things, should be very difficult to survive.

On the surface, Wu Limin seems to be just a simple crazy noblewoman, but in reality, when you think about it, it's not the same thing.

From the time Betsy was kidnapped, every step that the crowd took was carefully designed by the woman.

She intended from the beginning to take her own life and drag everyone into hell together!

“Did Bie Qi hurt Bebe? Bei Zhiyuan too?” Jiang Tianyu opened her mouth after two seconds of silence, after seeing the woman’s face that suddenly changed, even if the other party didn’t give any answer, she knew she guessed right.

“For so many years, you have also struggled, right? Gao Xiaoyan is the proof of your compromise? A woman who looks a little bit like Bebe.”

The muscles on both sides of the face twitched wildly, and it was only after a long time that Wu Limin slowly made a sound.

I don’t know if it’s because the truth that I’ve been trying to hide for so many years was suddenly torn off by someone else and exposed to the sunlight; or because people are dying, the desire to talk at this stage is always particularly strong, she was surprisingly verbose.

“When I was pregnant with Bebe, the whole pregnancy period was particularly hard, to say the least, this old beast is still to blame!”

As she spoke, Wu Limin again used her foot to viciously stomp on the injury on Bei Zhiyuan’s thigh, seeing the blood gushing out like a small fountain, even though the man had fainted, he still twitched twice.

Sniffing the rich smell of blood between her nose, the woman looked enjoyable: “Anyway, Bebe is a premature child, weak and sickly since childhood.”

Perhaps a child born vulnerable would have involved the mother more energy, plus Bebe is still a daughter, those years Wu Limin almost all the love poured into her body.

It was not until one day when Bebe was a teenager that she discovered that Bei Zhiyuan had taken advantage of the alcohol to reach out to her little girl.

The whole world seemed to collapse in just a moment. She cried and made a fuss, but eventually chose to keep quiet for the sake of her face, family and estate.

Immediately afterwards something even more devastating happened to her, Betsy surprisingly also

This time, Wu Limin did not choose to compromise, but went to great lengths to find Gao Xiaoyan, trying to use this to divert the attention of the two fathers and sons.

But I didn’t expect to find traces of Be Qi pestering Bebe once again not long ago.

The perennial emotional repression had made Wu Limin’s mental condition precarious, and this scene was like the last straw that broke the camel’s back, completely breaking the string in her head.

The woman's words were broken and slurred, her tone full of guilt for the daughter who was too young to know what had happened.

But Jiang Tianyu still from a few key words in the general understanding of the whole situation, said not surprised is false.

While astonished, her heart nourished a different view.

Is Bebe really unaware of everything her father and brother have done?

Her personality was beyond normal arrogant and domineering, and her daily treatment of Bei Qi and Bei Zhiyuan was very intimate.

Is Bebe really so clueless as to not know what is actually happening to her?

Of course, these speculations Jiang Tianyu will not choose to say out.

At this moment, Wu Limin is deeply immersed in the emotions of a 'loving mother's heart', if she is rashly questioned, she is bound to lose control.

"What about Pan Ze?" She asked tentatively.

Assuming that everything a woman does is to make her daughter happy, why would she count on her son-in-law?

Wu Limin's eyes rolled, seeming to have been completely stripped from the state of recollection just now, sniffed and snorted: "He doesn't really like Bebe, he's doing it for the Bebe family's money!"

"A person who can commit a crime for the eight percent dry shares of Yang Wei Group that I hold in my hands, how can I believe that after Bebe inherits the company, he can endure the temptation of profit ah?"

"What's more, he is the one who claims to love Bebe, so isn't it right to pay some price for Bebe's happiness?"

"And you!" Wu Limin suddenly stood up, holding the remote control button and started pacing in place: "Unclear with Pan Ze, and hooked up with Bebe Qi, you made Bebe sad know?"

"Anyone who makes my daughter unhappy deserves to die!"

These words were spoken upside down, Jiang Tianyu naturally knew that the other party's heart condition was already quite unstable at this time.

Caught off guard, Gao Xiaoyan on the ground somehow cried out, the whole person was like a writhing maggot, struggling to struggle away from the side of Bei Zhiyuan.

Wu Limin heard the commotion, went over to the high level of observation, then grinned silently: "So the old beast broke off ah?"

She said, she raised her eyes to the already scared out of her mind Gao Xiaoyan, raised the hand clutching the remote control.

"Don't be afraid, I'll send you down to reunite with him!"

Everything in front of him was like someone pressed the slow-motion button, Gao Xiaoyan's eyes were rounded with fear, watching Wu Limin's fingers lift and fall.

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 138 - Tips

"Ummmmmmmm!!! Woo-woo-woo-woo!!!" Gao Xiaoyan because of the tape sealed mouth, can only be full of eyes helplessly issued a harsh howling sound.

However, in the next second, only to hear a light clatter, Wu Limin holding the right hand of the remote control pain, subconsciously loosened the grip, let the remote control fell on the floor tiles.

The first thing you need to do is to get the left foot up, and before the other party can regain their senses, they will directly go forward and pounce on the ground.

The other party struggled, she did not move.

In comparison to the previous two illegal intruders, Wu Limin, a noblewoman who has always been pampered, is much weaker both in terms of physical fitness and strength, naturally how to use the strength is not a threat to her.

"Oh" Wu Limin suddenly stopped resisting and pressed one side of her face against the cold floor tiles, laughing strangely.

"Did all of you take me for a fool?"

"Thanks to your contempt."

Jiang Tianyu smiled, her eyebrows jumped, immediately after two slight 'tick' electronic sounds rang in her ears.

The first thing you need to do is to look at the self-exploding dan strapped to Bei Zhiyuan and Gao Xiaoyan's body and suddenly start reading the seconds, the bright red numbers seem to sting her eyes like a million needles.

Gravity induction? Or another accomplice?

Because time is too tight, Jiang Tianyu has no time to analyze the mystery, after all, the suspect underneath only gave her ten seconds of time.

Even this ten seconds, probably because the designer of this device in order to the user accidentally accidentally touch or because of other accidents and left time to regret, just

.....

She quickly swept a glance by his kicked far away, slipped under the table control, there are a number of buttons.

The brain began to race, whether to go over and pick up the controller to study a little faster, or

A bite, she raised her hand sharply to the person underneath to knock out, and then kneeled and slid on the smooth ground to the two lying there in front of the body.

The two of them are in the middle of the night, and the two of them are in the middle of the night, and the two of them are in the middle of the night.

The hand outstretched with all the strength of the body, Jiang Tianyu chose the most simple and brutal way, the not too thick and not too thin twine directly to pull off.

The first thing you need to do is to get rid of the explosives that are on the body of the unconscious Bei Zhiyuan.

Then, not daring to delay a moment she ran to the living room window, open the window, to determine the front and back of the downstairs without any pedestrians passed, to the sky and threw the two bombs into mid-air.

Because the original owner Jiang Nanlu lives on a very high floor, the nearest building in front of the apartment is still a distance away, the time on the bomb countdown also entered the last second, let it blow up in mid-air, probably the safest way to choose in this situation.

Sure enough, the next second, there was a loud bang in the air!

Boom!

Hmm?

Jiang Tianyu unconsciously stared, feeling the sense of vibration coming from the window frame, some surprised raised an eyebrow.

It shouldn't be, how come the power is so small?

On the surface looks so large amount of explosives, no matter what the aftermath of the explosion should also shatter the adjacent several glass windows, but now it seems to be just a fireworks in the air?

Or rather, it can be called a more powerful fireworks.

Tied to the body of a person, it is completely possible to blow people up this point is not in doubt, but even just in the house exploded, as long as other people dodge properly, about will only be a little injured.

As for the other

Jiang Tianyu watched the appearance of the bomb is quite like a matter of fact in the air flipped a few heels, straight down the road under the apartment building.

Pop.

What the hell? And a dud?

Turned his head to measure the already fainted Wu Limin two eyes, this noblewoman in the end from which channel to purchase this thing ah, it will not be cheated, right?

This sudden scene, directly to just get off the car of a group of police officers scared a jump three feet high, are well-trained to scatter themselves to hide.

Only the explosive bag left on the ground after rolling twice, quietly stay in place, and people in the distance look at each other.

"Has the bomb squad arrived? Go over and take a look!" Qiziang stood behind the open door of the car and commanded with the intercom.

Within a few minutes, I saw a colleague from the bomb squad giving a thumbs up: "Team Qi, it's confirmed safe, there's something wrong with the manufacturing process of this thing, some of the wiring inside is not linked, it seems that the person who built this thing is also a half-wit."

"Good thing it's a half-assed person." Lu Li said with a palpitating heart.

Qiziang did not say anything about this, but ordered: "The technical section is responsible for collecting the pieces of the device scattered everywhere, assault team, now go upstairs!"

"Yes!"

The crowd answered, and a team of heavily armed police officers quickly rushed in to the door of the unit.

When they came out of the stairwell, Qiziang had an unexpected sense of absurdity when he saw the four-way open security door and the person standing by it with his head poking out and looking out.

"Is the paramedic here? Bei Zhiyuan has been unconscious for a long time!" Jiang Tianyu finally let out a sigh of relief.

Qi Ziang led people into the house without saying a word, and only after making sure that there was no danger, he used the communicator to inform the paramedics to come up.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

Soon, Bei Zhiyuan was rescued and carried out.

Jiang Tianyu looked at the house again filled with police, bent over to pick up the bag thrown on the ground before, a glance up to still cowering in the corner, shivering Gao Xiaoyan.

After thinking about it, she wandered over to the woman, leaning against the wall and sliding to sit next to each other, after noticing Gao Xiaoyan's unintentional trembling, she opened her mouth like a casual conversation: "The police are here, don't worry, it's safe."

"..... thank thank you." Although the mouth said so, but the little nanny the whole person is still in control of the shiver.

"But how did Wu Limin control the two of you ah?" Jiang Tianyu asked curiously.

"She has a bomb in her hand ah, said to die with the two of us. Mr. and I did not want to die, so we had to do as we were told." Gao Xiaoyan said then red-eyed, just because of the face, hard to hold back.

Nodding in understanding, Jiang Tianyu thought it was quite reasonable.

Wu Limin has a big killing weapon in her hands, and she wants to die together if she moves, a normal person will be afraid.

A twinkle in her eye, she inadvertently glanced at the woman's collar that had grown larger because of the previous struggle, so that her breasts were exposed for the most part.

Shunyi took off his jacket, Jiang Tianyu raised his hand to the person next to him and draped it over his shoulders, then in order to alleviate Gao Xiaoyan's after-effects, there were no words to praise: "The tattoo on the collarbone is quite beautiful, sun flower?"

Gao Xiaoyan subconsciously nodded, then gathered the jacket tightly, flexed his legs to bury his pointed chin, only revealing a pair of large, pitiful eyes.

Just then, Lu Li came over with a colleague, bent slightly and said in a soft voice: "Miss Gao, in your current condition, is it convenient to cooperate with the police to make a statement?"

"Or do you want to hold off for a while, both are fine."

"No..... right now." Gao Xiaoyan opened her mouth, and her tone also carried a noticeable trembling tone.

Jiang Tianyu, on the other hand, had the good sense to hide to the side when she was waiting for someone to arrive, and happened to come together behind Qi Zhen.

After hesitation, she still spoke out: "Officer Qi, when Wu Limin hijacked Gao Xiaoyan and Bei Zhiyuan, she vaguely revealed that the Bei family father and son might be involved in a case of violation of minors."

"What do you mean, Bebe?" Qi Ziyang seemed to be a little surprised, his tone rising slightly.

"So Wu Limin is standing up for her daughter?" His brow gradually tightened, he should be recalling various details of his recent contact with Bei Bei's family: "There seems to be some difference between Bei Bei and the victims I met before."

"Although never seen the mode of getting along between her and Beyzi, but just looking at Beyzi would go out of his way to hurt Jiang Nan you in order to make her happy, you can tell that the relationship between the siblings is quite close."

"She would also rush to Bai Zhiyuan big little voice, would have the guts to challenge Bai Zhiyuan's authority, and even fall in love and marry Pan Ze normally."

Not that the victims of such incidents are unable to return to normal life, just to be able to face the abusive party so openly is very, very rare in the recent history of modern crime.

Jiang Tianyu's expression agreed: "There is also according to Wu Limin, the Bei family father and son have been violent to Bei Bei for nearly a decade."

"So many years in the past she was able to endure, how is it that this time in the discovery of Bie Qi pestering Bebe, it was an instant mental breakdown?"

Yes, a person's breakdown may be due to the accumulation of stimulus after stimulus suffered in the past.

But Wu Limin has long known what the Bei family father and son have done, she did not know that the two will one day also do to Bebe? The thing that has been psychologically prepared, and how will produce such a big reaction, even to kill the son of such actions are done?

"The will not" Jiang Tianyu said to this, in due time closed his mouth.

The police do not have any conclusive evidence at the moment, even if there are suspicions, but only suspicions.

Qiziang naturally understood what she had in mind, Wu Limin's blackening can be described as suspicious, it has to be said that the other party's state is more like the result of being a long-term PUA.

Suddenly, a weak female voice came from behind the two of them, "I inadvertently bumped into it before."

What?

For a moment, the eyes of the people in the room fell on Gao Xiaoyan's body.

The woman seemed uncomfortable standing under the gaze of so many people, and uncomfortably wrung her body: "About two or three months ago once I wanted to go out for a drink of water in the middle of the night, and ended up vaguely hearing the sound of crying coming from the second floor when I was passing the stairway."

"That day, Betsy and Mr. were not at home."

"I heard Bebe accusing Madame, saying that she was to blame for everything."

"Bebe also said that she hated everyone and hated to eat their flesh and drink their blood."

Eat flesh and drink blood?

Qiziang and Jiang Tianyu looked at each other, so what was in the thermos at the wedding couldn't have been a mother's last gift to her daughter, right?

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 139 - Tips

0 8 minutes read

Jiangcheng City Public Security Bureau.

Jiang Tianyu quietly sitting in a very good environment in the inquiry room, staring at the roses placed on the coffee table in front of him lost in thought.

The bottle in which the flowers are placed is an ordinary plastic drinking bottle, the roses are red, only one, the petals of which can be vaguely seen above the drops of crystal water.

The police returned from Jiang Nanlu's home to the bureau, in addition to the suspect Wu Limin, but also brought her back together with the nanny Gao Xiaoyan.

The two police officers gave her a statement in the questioning room just a short time ago, and had only just left.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

Assuming that Wu Limin was really 'guided' by Bebe to become what she is today, then the forensic work will be incredibly difficult.

It is known that Wu Limin is now full of heart and eyes are feeling very sorry for their daughter, then want her to make a statement against Bebe's possibility is basically zero.

This kind of mental oppression and control, basically will be integrated into daily life, it can be said that the controlled party basically do not notice anything unusual.

The means are mostly verbal humiliation, it is difficult to find too much substantive evidence.

The next second, a head cautiously peeked in, and after seeing the person sitting on the sofa, grinned: "It's really you, Sister Jiang."

Jiang Tianyu blinked, withdrew her eyes from the blood-red flower petals, and greeted in a friendly manner, "Officer Xiao Meng."

“At that moment I heard Qi team and the others say that you might be in danger, and also pinched a cold sweat for you!” Officer Meng pulled open the door and walked in, his tone still light: “The good thing is that there is no danger, I just heard them chatting, seems to have figured out Wu Limin’s channels to buy explosives.”

“Is that so?” She sounded surprised.

It’s probably because he’s finally one step ahead of the women, Officer Meng’s expression is a bit of hidden triumph: “Really? It’s not the first time he’s committed a crime.”

“The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

“Wu Limin said, because she and her mother’s side of the relatives and this dumping of explosives live in a village, so in the beginning when the idea of a crime, then entrusted someone to buy the stuff back.”

“No wonder.” Jiang Tianyu is not surprised, can make ‘dumb cannon’, also must not be what too have theoretical knowledge of this criminal.

Xiao Meng shook his head some: “Although people have been caught back, but the follow-up investigation is not that easy

“By the way, Sister Jiang, before there has been no time to thank you properly.”

“Viewing the video from the wedding with you, the whole process is still very pleasant.” As he spoke, his expression was somewhat peculiar, in short, not like being all happy.

I wonder if it was because of the recollection of that nearly day and night, the impressive painful torture.

“You’re welcome, Officer Little Meng.” Jiang Tianyu scratched his head and stood up from the sofa, “It seems that everyone is quite busy, and I don’t intend to stay here to continue to disturb.”

“There shouldn’t be any surprises this time when we go home.” After she finished, she hooked the corners of her lips in self-deprecation.

Thanks to the core in this body is still her, if it were the original owner Jiang Nanlu, the moment the word ‘go home’ is mentioned right now, I’m afraid they would all be stressed.

Xu is thinking of her two miserable encounters, small Meng officer's eyes immediately filled with sympathy, saying anything to go and Qi team to make a report, by his own personally to send people back.

The good talk to persuade people to live, Jiang Tianyu carried the purse and ran away in a flash.

When she returned to Jiang Nanlu's place, she tidied up the house inside and out, and then she started the sage mode, just eating and drinking every day, salted fish paralysis waiting for that familiar, soul-ripping feeling to come again.

It's just a pity that one day, two days, three days

"Hmm?" Jiang Tianyu is puzzled, according to past experience, after the police caught the real killer, she should be out of this body ah.

The actual police have already confirmed the case, and it was indeed her who killed Betsy, but why hasn't there been any movement?

The police are still trying to bring the person behind the crime to justice?

But Bebe's side, the police have been tracking the investigation, so many days have not been able to find anything.

She worked in the public security system for a short time, naturally know that the world is full of unsolvable cases, or because of the lack of evidence and can not catch the suspect.

If there is a one in a million chance that the police can't gather all the evidence to charge Bebe, she will have to live in this shell for the rest of her life?

Not to mention her willingness, the original owner Jiang Nanlu's soul, after knowing this news, was afraid that she would not cry for regret.

It is true that with the help of others, she was successfully cleared of suspicion and managed to save her life from wave after wave of calculations, but what is the difference between a soul that cannot return to its place and a dead one!

Jiang Tianyu, who had just been to the nearby market and was carrying a bag of vegetables in her hands, dropped her head when she thought of this possibility.

Help

She nearly scratched her ears in anxiety on the street, and just when she was a bit disoriented, the cell phone she carried with her suddenly rang.

Glancing at the caller ID, she did not hesitate to press the answer button: "Officer Qi."

"Ms. Jiang." Qi Ziang on the other side of the phone opened his mouth immediately after, his tone mixed with a faintly detectable probing: "After several days of investigation, the police finally found some evidence that can be used in court to identify Bebe as suspected of abetting the murder."

"Really?" Speaking of this, Jiang Tianyu suddenly regained some spirit: "Is Wu Limin could not stand the interrogation and decided to confess her? Or is it"

Listening to her eloquently, Qi Ziang seemed to be sure that the one who was talking to him was indeed still the same soul he was familiar with, and spoke with a little more ease: "Speaking of which, to find the evidence, this matter carries more or less a bit of coincidence."

"Do you still remember the interior of the Bay family villa, the living room has a surveillance camera connected to the network?"

Jiang Tianyu stopped, carefully recalled some, and then nodded affirmatively: "Remember, that was installed by Bebe, said it is usually used to see the family's cats?"

"The people of the technical section noticed it when they conducted yet another search of the villa for evidence."

Her eyebrows knitted slightly, unsure of the opening: "That kind of household visual, talkable camera, seems to carry no storage function, right? Even if it's a little more advanced with cloud storage, it seems to have very limited space?"

"It was Officer Zhang Ye of the technical section who unintentionally found another signal in it when he was checking the connection of the camera."

Oooh?

"Someone is spying on their house?" Jiang Tianyu asked cautiously.

"Not strictly speaking, I guess." Qiziang explained with deliberation, "Nowadays, with advanced technology, it naturally gives rise to a lot of illegal acts related to it."

"You mean peeping and selling?"

Qiziang low 'hmm' a: "Zhang Ye followed that signal ip successfully tracked a suspect, the other party specializes in this illegal sneak video of other people's homes, and passed to the network for sale, so as to profit."

"Bay home near that piece of home with this talkable webcam, almost all hit, and what laptop comes with the camera, etc., the other side can be invaded."

“In the home of this suspect who violated the privacy of citizens, we found a number of videos of the Bay family, including a few of the Bay and Bay Zhiyuan in the living room

He nailed it, the words were subtle, but the meaning expressed was quite clear: “From the interaction between the two, it seems that Bebe is not being forced, most of the time she is even taking the initiative.”

After a brief silence of two seconds, Jiang Tianyu pinched her brow: “But the act of Bei Qi and Bei Zhiyuan having sex with minors is still a violation of the law and must be pursued.”

“Bei Qi has been confirmed dead, and Bei Zhiyuan’s side is not optimistic.” Qiziang simply responded.

The implication was that it was questionable whether Bei Zhiyuan would be able to wait for the law to sanction him.

“Also, of those videos obtained by illegal network intrusion, two of them are freshly dated, and the general content is that Bei Bei is verbally pressuring Wu Limin. In the conversations between the two of them, mother and daughter, Bebe kept repeatedly emphasizing that she would become what she is today all because of Wu Limin, and each conversation ended with Wu Limin crying in pain.”

Some speechless pursed his lips, Jiang Tianyu incomprehensible tone slightly raised: “What is the motive?”

“At present, it is not certain, want to know the motive of Bebe to do so, after that there is a continuous follow-up investigation.” Qiziang said, a silent sigh: “Besides, this kind of evidence is not particularly conclusive abetting the crime, in the conviction is very some difficulty, Wu Limin and refused to appear in court to identify their daughter.”

In short, the police still have to focus on interrogating Bebe next.

A group of people in the Bei family, Wu Limin refused to talk, Bei Qi died, Bei Zhiyuan can now live is a question, Pan Ze just for the benefit of some kind of agreement with Wu Limin, the little nanny knows very limited

So it seems that perhaps the only way to know the exact motive for the crime is from the mouth of the person concerned.

“Could” Just as Jiang Tianyu was once again ready to say something, almost at the same time, the farmers’ market not far behind her suddenly burst into flames!

Boom!

A burst of explosions, the aftermath and tongues of fire rushing out from the gate directly threw the people nearby.

Jiang Tianyu only felt like someone kicked hard from behind a few feet, and when he reacted again, he was already lying on the concrete a few meters away.

Back pain, should be caused by the explosion of various splash debris deep into the flesh.

The ears are 'buzzing' sound, because too close to the explosion point, she was completely unable to hear any other movement, even the phone still in the hands of the party do not know where to fall.

"No way"

Her fingers moved slightly, struggling against the feeling of her soul being forcibly stripped away.

"Why did it have to be now"

The next second, she completely lost consciousness with a roll of her eyes.

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 140 - Tips

0 11 minutes read

Jing Huai City First People's Hospital.

This is a four-room ward, but I don't know if it's because the department is special or for some other reason, only the window bed is lying quietly on a person.

It was already late at night, the moonlight through the bright glass window, shining on the face of that person, the other good-looking, but between the eyebrows but more than a trace of the British.

Perhaps the reason is too long bedridden, the woman's face is pale and bloodless, the mouth and nose buckled with oxygen masks, fingers and wrists are also used to detect vital signs of the wire.

At the same time, the bedside position of the instrument, is also emitting 'drip drip', rhythmic electronic sound.

Within a few seconds, two nurses passed through the corridor outside the door, then pushed the door open and came in.

One of the nurses skillfully confirmed the identity of the patient on the bed on the card inserted at the end of the bed, and then picked up a bag of clear liquid from the trolley and hung it on the hook for infusion at the side of the bed while muttering, "This one has been lying here for a year, right?"

Another nurse, who was carefully noting the patient's condition, raised her head slightly: "No, she was admitted to the hospital on my third day of internship, and now I've been transferred."

"I don't know when she'll wake up, but I heard she's a cop!"

"It's a pity." The old nurse shook her head with some regret, and after making sure everything was okay, turned around and pushed the cart just as she was about to go out.

When the two of them reached the door, the life monitor at the head of the bed suddenly went into a frantic alarm, accompanied by an ear-splitting and frantic 'drip-drip-drip' sound, the gentle curve on the screen changed, and the heart rate of the person on the bed instantly shot up to an extremely high value.

"Oh, no!" The old nurse hurriedly ran to the bed, and pressed the emergency call bell with great force and urgency.

At 2:00 a.m., the floor where the emergency room was supposed to be very quiet echoed with the sound of footsteps after footsteps.

"What's the situation?" A middle-aged man panting stopped in front of another person, a bronze face looks serious, the traces between the eyebrows more and more clear: "I did not tell you to run more to the hospital, and doctors often contact? The past year is fine, how to say that the rescue?"

The person who spoke was none other than the head of the special police detachment of the Jing Huai City Public Security Bureau, Shi Jun.

"I I" the opposite person was his head of a round of questions made look panicked, apparently also by the hospital before the sudden call to a shock, until now Still haven't been able to get back to their senses.

Soon, a few more people arrived outside the emergency room, two of them even wearing police pants and leather shoes, should be on duty this night.

"Team Shi, what's the situation?" The crowd asked in a variety of voices.

Shi Jun covered his face and sat on the bench in the corridor, looking ashen, but the next second he suddenly raised his hand and slapped himself in the mouth!

The big guys rushed forward to persuade, he turned around with his arms crossed, facing the white wall for a while before he opened his mouth heavily: "Little Jiang this child has no father and no mother, since childhood, life is hard, when I was the love of talent to transfer people to the special police detachment, the result is good."

"Shi team, you can not blame yourself ah! Who in our line of work has not had a psychological preparation?"

"Yes, and it was also an accident"

"If Xiao Jiang woke up afterwards and saw your lazy look, she would not be able to laugh at you? You know, she is the most wild team, at that time you see her to hate the teeth straight itch."

Shi Jun did not respond, because his back was turned to the crowd, so the others were not able to see his expression at this time.

After a long and silent wait, the door of the emergency room finally opened from the inside.

But only two breaths of work, just out of the doctor looked at the moment they surrounded a few big men, subconsciously swallowed a mouthful of saliva.

"Well?"

"Doctor, please you must save her!"

"Doctor"

The corners of the doctor's mouth twitched, he was familiar with Shi Jun and the young man named Su Sian who arrived first, so he opened his mouth at these two, only his expression looked fantastic.

"Patient Jiang Tianyu she should be waking up."

Speaking of which, the doctor seemed to himself feel that the situation at hand was a bit incredibly absurd, and raised his hand to scratch the back of his head.

After all, a patient who was judged to be a vegetable as early as a year ago, under the premise that he was recently determined not to have received any stimulation, surprisingly vaguely has the precursor of regaining self-awareness.

“Later on, if the patient’s condition is stable, she will be transferred back to the general ward, I hope everyone will follow the doctor’s orders then, she is not suitable to be disturbed excessively.”

After saying that, the doctor nodded slightly at everyone and walked away sideways.

Inside the resuscitation room, the medical staff who were carefully observing Jiang Tianyu’s state, could not help but look at each other when they heard the cheers that fiercely scurried in when the door opened briefly again.

Three days had passed in a flash.

Since Jiang Tianyu woke up that night in the hospital’s resuscitation room, her spirit is getting better every day, her face is different from the pale when she was in a coma in bed, and she is vaguely starting to show a bit of healthy blood color.

But still can not get out of bed at will, although the previous mission injuries were carefully healed in the past year, but so long immobile, even if the hospital will regularly send people over to give her a massage, the body’s muscles are still inevitably atrophied.

I’m afraid it will take a long time for her to undergo rehabilitation.

But Jiang Tianyu did not care about this, she was quite happy to slightly raise her hand, let the sunlight outside through the fingers, pouring on her face.

The feeling of being really alive is really making people crazy happy.

After squinting for a while, she seemed to remember something, reached out and pressed the switch that controls the lift of the bed, sat up slightly and fumbled for a cell phone in the bedside drawer.

After tapping the screen twice and looking at the almost full battery level in the upper right corner, Jiang Tianyu raised her eyebrows.

Thinking back to the colleagues who came and went in the ward in the past two days, she exhaled a foul breath with a helpless face.

Perhaps afraid of disturbing her rest, no one who came to visit stayed in the ward for five minutes, but it was such a short time, the scene in this ward can still be described as ‘incessant’.

Today still seems relatively quiet at the moment, I wonder if the team has any more tasks to perform out.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

Press the dial button and bring the phone to her ear, her other hand nervously clutched the sheet on her body.

The other hand clutched the sheet. beep beep beep

I don't know how long it took, but a very familiar female voice finally came from the other side: "Hello? Hello."

Unconsciously deep breath, Jiang Tianyu tone calmly out of the voice: "Hello, please is Jiang Nanlu lady?"

The female voice seemed to be very hesitant: "I am, are you"?

"Hello Ms. Jiang, I am your exclusive financial advisor, do you have any recent investment needs?"

"....." The other end of the airwaves was really silent for a while, after which someone next to her seemed to be asking who she was, and the woman whispered back 'seems to be a scammer'.

Immediately after the tone of voice sharply politely refused: "Sorry, I still have things to do here, goodbye."

Listening to the busy tone coming from her ear, Jiang Tianyu's face was nevertheless reassuring.

The moment she fainted in Jiang Nanlu's body, she sensed that she should be injured, but the soul was stripped from the shell too quickly, she was not able to determine whether the injury was serious or not.

Surprisingly, when she regained consciousness and opened her eyes, she returned to her original body, and was surprised and dismayed to find that almost a month had passed since the last time she was blown out of Jiang Nanlu's body.

The good thing about the phone call just now is that Jiang Nanlu's voice was full of energy, and the background sound seemed to be the sound of boisterous people and radio, so I think it should be fine.

This was a relief, and Jiang Tianyu's whole body and mind were a little more happy.

So in the following rehabilitation training, she actively cooperated, and all her body functions recovered at an amazing speed.

After another month or so, Jiang Tianyu was successfully discharged from the hospital and returned home, and also attended several psychological counseling and psychological tests as required by the unit.

I thought I would be able to return to the team, but I didn't expect that what I ended up waiting for was the decision of the bureau to transfer her out of the special police detachment.

Sitting on the leather sofa in the branch chief's office, Jiang Tianyu rubbed her hands with an unchanged expression and lifted her eyelids to look at the man behind the desk who was about to light a cigarette: "Team Shi, you have to give me a reason, right?"

Su Si Nian, who has been working as a backdrop, also couldn't help but open his mouth: "Yes, Sister Jiang is also considered an old man of our detachment, so what is the difference between transferring away and unloading a donkey?"

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

Slowly withdrawing his eyes, Jiang Tianyu gritted his back teeth, "Is it because of my body, or did I fail the psychological test?"

"Yeah, yeah." Su Sian followed and agreed: "If the physical reasons, Sister Jiang can recuperate at home for another six months, if the psychological reasons then find a psychologist to cure?"

Shi Jun took a hard puff of smoke, and the world in front of him instantly became blurred.

Through the layers of smoke, he looked at the figure on the sofa, slightly annoyed pinch the brow.

Jiang Tianyu is his single-handedly brought out the disciple, and is the detachment of the rare all-round good, say transfer such words, he than anyone else.

"Physical, psychological are not important, small Jiang ah, the moment of this decision, is the most beneficial to you." Shi Jun said while pressing the cigarette that had only taken a puff into the ashtray with force.

"The leaders inside the bureau naturally have their own considerations, and besides, it's not that you won't be allowed to come back later."

The implication is that the first past dry, then find a way to transfer back is.

Two minutes of silence, Jiang Tianyu did not continue to dwell, calmly accepted the job transfer.

She understands the leaders' concerns, the special nature of the work of the special police detachment, there are always tasks in the body, is a need to exclude all the unstable factors of the place.

They have just been discharged from the hospital for a short time, and their bodies have not recovered to their peak state for the time being, in case an accident occurs in the course of carrying out a task is likely to be a human life by accident, the consequences of which no one can afford.

From the special police detachment office building came out, Jiang Tianyu cold was hanging in mid-air the big sun to shake the eyes.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

But soon Jiang Tianyu organized her emotions, after the training grounds of the special police detachment, and walked along the street for about ten minutes, a right turn into the compound of the Jing Huai City Public Security Bureau.

The way is unimpeded to the upper floors, she stopped outside a certain office and slightly tilted her head to look at the door sign on the wall.

The criminal investigation detachment.

The eyes flicker, speaking of which, there seems to be an acquaintance of hers in here.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are getting into.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

She was greeted by two suspicious eyes, a friendly smile on her face: "Hello, I'm looking for Team He."

"Our He team is out in the field, but I guess they should be back soon." The male police officer, who was sitting on all fours in his chair, stood up as an afterthought, his tone suspicious: "What do you want from her?"

"I'm here to report."

"Oh!" The male police officer immediately is a look of sudden realization, enthusiastic to come forward: "You are the director promised to our team assigned to the internal affairs ah?"

"How old are you this year?"

"Just joined the police?"

"I'll show you the work station, in the next office." The male police officer said a series of self-conscious, beckoned her to follow, during the mouth is still opening and closing: "Do not worry, our team's internal work is not tired, just to do some paperwork, usually report statements or something."

At the end, he also added: "Of course, it is not easy."

Jiang Tianyu, on the other hand, nodded obediently and docilely, not responding to the other party's question.

The previous mission of the special police detachment was confidential, and even fellow members of the same city bureau knew very little about the inside story. It is estimated that the leaders of the bureau did not emphasize her experience too much this time, so it is normal that the male police officers do not know her.

But when the two of them left the door of the criminal investigation branch office and were about to go to the side, they happened to bump into a group of people who had just returned from outside.

Jing Huai City is the southern seaside tourist city, there are about 300 days of the year the temperature will be more than 30 degrees, so the few people who have just returned from the field are hot from the inside out.

There are two even vaguely have a tendency to smoke on the top of the brain.

"He team, you're back!" The male police officers very positive greeting.

Looking towards the woman behind the crowd, Jiang Tianyu also followed the greeting: "He team."

He Shu, who was fiddling with his phone, raised his head uncertainly after hearing the movement, and the next second his expression was stunned: "Jiang Tianyu?"

And Jiang Tianyu was obviously also surprised when she saw clearly the person who came forward through the crowd, she stared at the other party's bulging belly for a long time: "You're pregnant and still out in the field?"

"So bullish, does your husband know?"
