0 8 minutes read

“Got into the car?” Jiang Tianyu frowned.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

No wonder Mao Lili and Chen Peng mentioned Lu Tong, will be sharp words that the other side of a big money, this statement may be from the side of Meng Yu out.

The first thing you can do is to take a look at the actual website.

After saying this, both of them have a smiling expression on their faces.

The envy is not necessarily, behind the yin and yang must not be less.

Jiang Tianyu did not care about the thoughts in their minds at this time, a little silent for a while and then curious on the face asked: “What car ah, can also be associated with good fortune?”

“What car came?” Meng Yu looks a little unclear.

Mao Lili is thinking and thinking, also not sure: “Anyway, for us at the time, that car feels like a lifetime can not afford to buy.”

Then, also plausible to say a few first-line car brands, and finally shook his head: “Oops, so long, who can remember clear.”

“That’s right, and that night was also a black light, I saw the wrong may not be.” Meng Yu echoed.

In this regard, Jiang Tianyu had expected, a twinkle in the eye, with a gossipy tone of voice like a lament: “Hey, either that the same person different lives? People take a high-class car, I even ride an electric car are struggling.”

She said, she actually felt some heartache.

Yes, Guan Miaomiao can’t even afford an electric car now.

The other two people couldn’t help but laugh out loud, Meng Yu even unintentionally returned a sentence: “People Lu Tong at the beginning of the car is not a car, is a big jeep, can be magnificent!”

Jiang Tianyu seems not to believe, open mouth retort: "You did not even see the car label, but also see clearly is a jeep?"

"That day was dark, I'm not blind, I can't tell the model?" Meng Yu seems to be her bar out of a few fire, speaking tone obviously rose a lot: "That car is quite special, should be modified, the roof of a long slip forward to shine a large row of lights!"

"At that time, my ex-boyfriend and I were quite angry, because the car's lights then shake the rearview mirror of our small electric donkey can not see anything."

The bottom of the eye is bright, Jiang Tianyu satisfied squinting eyes.

Xu felt that her personality is strange, the next time, Meng Yu did not take the initiative to talk to her again, just a sentence and Mao Lili small talk.

An hour or so later, after finishing the facial treatment, she got up and left.

Then Jiang Tianyu also took a look at the time, and with the approval of the beauty salon owner, got off work and took the bus to the rental house.

In the car, pull out the phone from the bag that had been on mute since yesterday, only to find that from noon to now, and received countless missed call reminders and unread messages, all from Hu Fan.

She sighed silently, she felt doubly tired, just wondering if the original owner, Guan Miaomiao, would have collapsed if she had encountered this situation.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're getting into.

Otherwise a little longer, by Hu Fan found out the truth about the escort, what things will end up like, no one can say.

This sudden outburst, Jiang Tianyu originally &303 Remember 40; intends to let Hu Fan completely realize that what he did was wrong, so that as long as he is willing to change, Guan Miao Miao back after the two can continue to get along as friendly as before.

But now it seems that the teenager's psychological condition is even worse than she imagined.

Even if the original owner Guan Miaomiao is fond of this brother, but in the face of this superb, suffocating possessiveness, how long can this fondness last?

One day in the future, once the relationship between the two people falls apart, what will Guan Miaomiao face, Jiang Tianyu does not dare to think about it now.

She thought about it again and again and withdrew from the dialog box with Hu Fan.

That night, Starlight KTV.

Jiang Tianyu, who had changed into her work clothes, came out of the lounge and greeted the others. It was still dark outside, and so far the store was very cold, with no customers coming in.

“Why didn’t Brother Chicken and Brother Liang come over today?” A few waiters came together and chatted in a whisper.

“I don’t know. .... It feels like Chicken has been very busy lately.”

“I heard that he seems to have rented another large store over Jianping Road, is it to open a chain of KTV ah?”

“Maybe it’s a restaurant .....?”

“Hotel? Why, this is ready to wash their hands of gold?” The moment someone said this, the surrounding area instantly quieted down.

The young male waiter soon realized that what he just said was a bit wrong, pursed his lips and stopped squealing.

A few people nudged me and I nudged you, quickly steered the conversation elsewhere, and then dispersed in no time.

Only three waitresses, including Jiang Tianyu, were left standing in front of the glass door, looking at the street scene outside while talking intermittently without nutrition.

Suddenly, the waitress standing beside her exclaimed, “That’s Brother Chicken’s car, right? Brother Chicken is back!”

Before the words fell, the half-new van that Jiang Tianyu had seen under the rental house a long time ago rushed to the door.

Along with the tires and the ground stone tiles rubbing against each other made a toothsome sound, Liang with two people from above down.

But they did not push the door in, but stood on the steps smoking a cigarette, swallowing clouds while also occasionally looking up in the direction of the party came, as if waiting for someone.

Not long after, another car also speedily rushed up the road teeth, can be parked next to the van.

Then the main driver's door opened, Chicken jumped down from the car with a phone call.

The two waitresses saw the situation is not good, all rushed back to their respective jobs, several large men at this time the face is not good, later a bad easily swept on.

Light is scolded, heavy who can not say what will happen.

Jiang Tianyu did not move, slowly tilted his head to look at the chicken opened, the door has not been closed on the car.

Black Jeep, I do not know if it is because it has not been cleaned for a long time, the exterior looks a little gray.

The body has a lot of signs of cuts and scratches, estimated that it should be some years, is an international first-line brand mark, the whole car is conservatively estimated to be more than a million.

The most important thing is ..... her line of sight moved up and saw the roof of the car after modified large row of lights.

Lu Tong & Remember 30340; the body was found in the lounge wall of Starlight KTV, and one of the people in charge of the KTV is Chicken.

This car all features are very consistent with Meng Yu's previous description, and the owner of the car is Chicken.

In fact there are not a few people who have modified their vehicles in this way, but sometimes coincidences are more than a coincidence, it may not be a coincidence.

Jiang Tianyu couldn't help but recall the previous conversation with Brother Liang, the other party had inadvertently mentioned that it was Brother Chicken who had fallen in love with this place at first, which led to the current Starlight KTV.

Hiss .....

When she thought of this, she raised her eyebrows without a trace.

It's a good coincidence that Chicken hung up the phone and turned around to look like he wanted to enter the door, so the two people were separated by a glass door, and the four eyes were facing each other for a while.

She slowly raised her hand, smiled slightly at the man, as a greeting.

I don't know if she was startled by her slightly bizarre look, through the glass door, she saw Chicken open his mouth twice, as if he was cursing.

After that, multiple hands reached out and pulled open the glass door on the other side, leading Liang and the others to fish in, and after slightly instructing the receptionist twice, they dove into the back office.

After about ten minutes, Starlight ktv finally ushered in the first group of guests tonight, but also for the next whole night of busy officially kicked off.

The next few hours, Jiang Tianyu busy feet, only in the interval of a breath, walk to the second floor lobby window, down to look at the jeep has not moved two eyes.

Four whole years.

A look of regret passed through her eyes, and even if there had been any evidence inside or outside the car, it had long since dissipated in time.

When she was thinking about what to do next, the foreman's call came again from behind her, and after answering it, she went back to work.

The time quietly came to nearly zero.

Jiang Tianyu listened to the ghostly wailing in her ears and leaned against the wall with the rest of her colleagues, somewhat drowsy.

Suddenly, she stood up slightly straight and looked around for a couple of seconds.

The colleagues around her were also startled by her movement and asked, "What's wrong?"

"You didn't hear anything?"

The colleague froze for two seconds, then shook her head in bewilderment: "A group of singing out of tune is torturing my ears, what sound can there be?"

However, Jiang Tianyu's furrowed brow did not relax, his eyes looked straight at the direction of the stairway to the first floor, and sure enough, the next second, a group of people rushed up one after another.

The one in the lead held a law enforcement card in his hand.

Public security inspection!

The second floor was suddenly chaotic, and it instantly turned into a chaos in front of us.

Jiang Tianyu, along with a group of waiters, was placed in the corridor of the second floor. She raised her eyelids and quietly watched as several of the girls who were accompanying the drinks in the private rooms, including Lara, all wilted their heads and headed downstairs amidst the police's scolding.

The serious waiters were the last to go downstairs, and by then the downstairs was lit up like daylight by rows of police lights, and many of the escorts and related guests were lining up, one by one, to get into their cars.

And those customers who came here to simply sing and consume, also had to wait in place for inquiries and go home after the end.

The waiters naturally had to be taken back to the police for questioning, and in the effort to walk toward that police bus, Jiang Tianyu heard the chatter before and after, which led to the knowledge that Chicken and the others were now in the two police cars at the front of the line.

People have speculated, in the end, why this time again only into the eyes of the police, may be related to the corpse a few days ago.

People are discerning police, the police will not be able to see what is fishy in your ktv?

There are also said to blame the chicken anxious to open to make money, or wait for the wind to pass, perhaps can not be any big deal.

Selected a window seat, Jiang Tianyu turned his head to look at the still lively ktv door.

This point in time today is a little too subtle.

For the police, is it really just a simple special operation to combat pornography and illegality?

She doesn't think so.

The time came more than 4:00 am.

Jiang Tianyu stood in the corridor, looking out the window at the distant river scene, sighing out of the breath quite a bit of continuous meaning.

She had never thought before that this life would be so deep with the second police station.

The actual few into a few out has long been counted, this kind of day still do not know when is a head.

The person responsible for the inspection of the Starlight KTV is not Qi Ziang's serious crime unit, but other departments of the city bureau, so outside the half day, Jiang Tianyu also failed to see any familiar figure.

The police started questioning the employees of the ktv one after another when it was just dawn outside.

Before her turn, the male colleague beside her also spoke to comfort her: "You do not need to be nervous, go in and ask three questions on the line, anyway, only found a few escorts, people are willing, and we do not have any relationship."

Jiang Tianyu nodded and said she knew.

As expected, the questioning for the KTV waiter is very simple, but is fixed a few questions, similar to whether there is an employment relationship between the escort and the store, the store has no other criminal facts exist, etc.

The two police officers opposite to her to confirm the signature, and then indicated that they could go out.

But she did not move, the two police officers waited for a while, the action is very synchronized look up over.

Jiang Tianyu rubbed her hands in embarrassment and asked tentatively, "I wonder if it's convenient for you to see Officer Qi of the Major Crime Unit?"

"....."

"???"

The answer was one part speechless and one part dismayed, hardened her head, she once again put forward a somewhat outrageous-sounding request: "I reckon he should also be working overtime tonight, can you please two officers to help bring a message, say that someone wants to see him."

"By the way, my last name is Guan."

Of course we know your last name is Guan!

The two police officers instantly rounded their eyes and wanted to say no, but they were curious about what the woman in front of them was looking for in the QI team of the Major Crime Unit.

In the end, the one sitting on the outside got up, pulled open the door and walked out, and came back about two minutes later.

The other side first glanced at Jiang Tianyu with amazement, then stood at the door and waved at the other police officer: "This questioning room is reserved for the Qi team, let's go to the one next to it!"

Jiang Tianyu is under the two suspicious eyes, in the sofa to try to sit peacefully.

The result is that this wait is a long time, until outside the sky is almost bright, the corridor standing waiting for only a few people left so scattered after the door finally moved.

A look up, she smiled and greeted: "Officer Qi, Officer Lu, good morning."

Lu Li wrinkled his nose and answered, then reluctantly handed over the plastic bag he was carrying.

Jiang Tianyu was a little surprised to see the bag of buns, and then softly thanked.

"Sorry, there was a work delay so I'm a little late." Qi Ziang pulled out the opposite chair and sat down: "I wonder what Ms. Guan is looking for me for?"

Jiang Tianyu took a bite of half a bun and swallowed it whole before opening her mouth, but instead of responding positively to his question, Ji instead asked rhetorically, "Officer Qi is so busy, it wouldn't be related to our boss, right?"

Lu Li heard her muttering with unclear diction, and suddenly his expression tightened.

Qi Ziang, on the other hand, observed her quietly for a few seconds, then said unhurriedly, "Why does Ms. Guan ask that?"

"Starlight ktv was inspected by the police with great fanfare, and it was not expected that a little problem was really detected, and as a result, not only the escorts and guests got back, but also the boss and the entire staff."

"This side of the people to the Public Security Bureau, over there you also work overtime serious crime group, what a coincidence." Jiang Tianyu's words fell, his eyes lowered as he stuffed the other half of the bun into his mouth.

Lu Li retorted: "We have always been busy with the work of the serious crime unit, you blindly guess also have to have some basis, right?"

“Speaking of which, it’s also strange that the group of people brought back are all on this floor under investigation, but I haven’t seen Chicken’s people since I got off the elevator.” Jiang Tianyu pulled a tissue from the coffee table and wiped his mouth, then continued, “Last night’s clinical examination, should not find any substantial evidence to deal with him, right?”

Perhaps those johns and escorts will be punished accordingly, just that Chicken must have a way to remove himself clean, and none of the girls, including Lara, must have dared to come forward and identify him.

After all, being dealt with by the police is just a few days of detention, but the consequences of pissing off Chicken certainly no one wants to suffer.

“How long is Officer Qi going to keep him? Forty-eight hours?”

The expression on Qiziang’s face did not change much after hearing her words, only a pair of black eyes gradually narrowed.

He crossed his hands, and the index finger of his right hand kept tapping the back of the doer’s hand rhythmically, his heart seemed to be calculating something.

“Ms. Guan has something to say, why don’t you just say it.”

And sitting on the sofa so many times contact down, the other party is a what is the nature of mind, Qi Zion has long had a good idea.

The essence of the words “no profit is too early” was played out by this woman.

It is not known whether what she did was to get rid of her suspicions as soon as possible, or whether the real murderer wanted to enjoy the thrill of dominating the police in handling the case.

The last bun was put down by Jiang Tianyu, who took out his phone from his trouser pocket and placed it squarely on the coffee table: “This contains evidence that will allow Chicken to stay in the Public Security Bureau for a while longer in peace and quiet.”

Lu Li is a bit unbelieving, quickly grabbed the phone in his hand, opened the screen and clicked on the album icon.

It was a video that was obviously secretly filmed from the angle, although the picture was wobbly, but the sound was clear, and the scenes that were filmed were not left behind.

This video is enough to prove that the escorts brought back last night are inextricably linked to Chicken.

In the video, the fact that Chicken is violent with people is irrefutable.

It is not a problem to keep him for a while longer. Even more, this video also gives the police a new idea in the interrogation, may have a chance to pry his mouth open.

“..... If you dare to fool me again, I'll seal you in the wall, too, don't think I've never killed anyone!”

The threatening voice full of violent emotions was played out from the phone receiver, and it seemed extra clear in this quiet questioning room.

Qi Ziang instructed Lu Li to export the video later, and raised his chin at Jiang Tianyu: “What do you want to know?”

The original intention was to find an opportunity to report Chicken by name after doing a longer time at the ktv and collecting a little more evidence.

It is also never expected that it would come in handy so soon.

“I want to know how Lu Tong's death and Chicken are related.” As the conversation progressed, Jiang Tianyu simply played the straight ball.

She suspected that Chicken was still because of what Meng Yu said at the beauty salon yesterday during the day, so without knowing the existence of Meng Yu as a person, what did the police get hold of to strike hard at Chicken?

“After the technical section and the forensic scientist jointly experimented and found that the form of Lu Tong's corpse when she was found did not match the form of a corpse that should have been in that extremely thin and dry air environment sealed in a wooden panel wall compartment.”

“In short, she was not sealed in four years ago.”

“We also found a certain amount of soil in the crevices of the corpse bones, so we deduce that Lu Tong was first buried underground by the murderer for nearly a year after her death, and was only sealed into the wooden wall compartment afterwards.”

No wonder.

Jiang Tianyu instantly reacted to the meaning represented by this.

Three years ago, it was the point in time when Chicken rented that store and prepared to open a ktv.

If Lu Tong was sealed into the wall compartment only at that time, then what Chicken said to the police before that the renovation hadn't even touched that wood panel wall was an outright lie.

"Although it may not be useful, but if you are not afraid to waste time, why not take the time to check the jeep that Chicken drove." She thought about it and finally put it out there.

What if.

Although you know it's impossible, but you have to admit that the job of a criminal police officer, every time you gamble on that one in ten thousand chance.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the actual person you are talking to.

In a flash, Jiang Tianyu was the only one left in the room.

She exhaled a breath of foul air and picked up the bun she had just put aside and chewed it slowly in small bites.

This several times and Qi Ziang contact down, she felt that the other party really very good.

The person is cautious, careful, precise, and not too curious.

Instead of saying that curiosity is not strong, it would be better to say that it is smart enough to have its own judgment on everything in the shortest possible time.

When Jiang Tianyu ate and drank enough and full of circles to smooth the air, before the phone taken by Lu Li sent back.

Almost at the same time, the police officer who gave her a statement also came over to inform that it was okay to leave.

Standing on the floor of the Jiangcheng City Public Security Bureau office building, topped by the increasingly hot sun in the summer, thinking again and again, she still chose to go to work at the beauty salon first.

Seeing that Starlight KTV has begun to shake, she can't lose two jobs in just one day.

In the real world, survival is always more important than ideals.

Besides, things have come to this point, she should do have done, the rest is to believe in the law and justice.

.....

Jiang Tianyu arrived at the beauty salon only to find that today's business seemed unusually good, so good that Mao Lili didn't even have time to catch her going over for a chat.

Remember that in the end, at the request of the boss's wife, she worked overtime until 7:00 p.m., and before she left she got a delicious and nutritious green pepper fried pork over rice as a working meal.

Squeak...

The bus stopped in front of the platform, and the slightly aged automatic door emitted an ear-piercing metallic scraping sound.

Jiang Tianyu got off the bus with barely any energy and walked slowly in the direction of the rental house.

The place where the original owner Guan Miao Miao lives is not only a bit remote, the community is also in a state of three.

The exterior walls of the building have long been in disrepair and are patchy, and the induction lights in the hallway are also in and out of order depending on the mood, Jiang Tianyu felt the potholes in the stairs under her feet and finally climbed to the sixth floor.

She found the key from her backpack and inserted it into the lock hole by the faint light of her cell phone screen.

Click.

As the door lock made a crunching sound, Jiang Tianyu's hand movements suddenly stopped.

Something is wrong.

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 33 - Tips

After two seconds of hesitation, Jiang Tianyu still opened the door lock completely.

The old and broken security door made a creepy sound in the silence of the dark night.

She smoothly took a discarded wooden stick in the hallway and gingerly walked in.

Because the curtains are drawn tightly, the house can be said to be invisible, she held her breath and listened carefully, indeed, from the left side came a slight sound.

The sound of a slight noise from the left side.

Jiang Tianyu stretched out her hand and quickly and precisely pressed the light switch on the wall of the doorway, and the room was instantly lit up.

“Ah!” There was a slightly frightened, short scream immediately afterwards.

Lara was nestled on the bed, wearing a cool dress, looking at Jiang Tianyu, who was standing in front of the bed, and the wooden stick she was holding up high, with a stunned face.

“When did you come back?”

Jiang Tianyu breathed a sigh of relief and turned around and threw the wooden stick back out the door.

I thought the girl would stay at the Public Security Bureau for a while, so she did not expect to come out so early.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers. The police went to the inspection, I happen to be good drinking wine and did not do anything else, the guests also did not give me a tip.”

“Really can’t find anything, they let me go.”

“But Lucy they are more unlucky, it is said that the police rushed in when someone’s clothes are off, and from the phone to find the instant tip money, this time it is estimated how to deal with two.”

While cleaning up the wreckage in the house, Jiang Tianyu while responding perfunctorily to two sentences from time to time.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

“Or you can go out and find a temporary job like I did.” She drained the dishes she had just washed and prepared to lean over and stuff them in the compartment under the sink.

As for the suggestion, she only said it in passing, because she knew in her heart that people like LaLa, who had long been used to making quick money, would not be able to look at the ordinary jobs outside that were hard and did not pay well.

As soon as the words came out, the person in the back of the bed didn’t move.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

Picking at one of the hangings, Jiang Tianyu's eyebrows slowly wrinkled as she raised her voice and asked, "Lara, when you came back today, was the security door unlocked?"

"Huh?" Lara moved her gaze away from the phone screen, seemingly not understanding why she suddenly asked this, her tone full of uncertainty: "I think it was locked, I can't remember, who would pay special attention to this when there's nothing to do."

When she heard this, she was silent for a moment, then opened her mouth again as if she had no intention, "Have you lost your keys in the recent past?"

She blinked and denied, "No, but the day before yesterday or the day before that, I forgot my keys and came back to find them by my pillow."

"Anyway, you were at home when I came back, now basically do not use it, should be when I collect the memory pick-up bag forgot to put back."

Even though the heart is cold, Jiang Tianyu's face is still calm.

"You should be careful when you go in and out these days, since you don't go out to work, don't leave early and come back late." She said: "Usually at home by yourself, remember to lock the door from the inside."

She said this, she paused, afraid that the other party does not take it seriously and added: "These two days I went to buy food when I heard people say, this area recently bad security, often people were smashed cars."

"Got it." Lara yawned, obviously not paying much attention to it, and after muttering a sentence, she pulled over the quilt and closed her eyes.

Soon, Jiang Tianyu also turned off the lights and went to bed, and the modest rental house became terribly quiet.

The only window in the house was open, but it didn't help that it was still hot and stuffy.

The only window in the house was open, but it didn't help that it was still stiflingly hot. Hearing the slightly uncomfortable sound of Lara turning over, she looked again at the end of the bed where the clothes were hanging.

The clothes she hung yesterday were a few of the se.xy suspenders that belonged to LaLa, although because of the number of them, they did tend to slip to the ground when touched.

But ..... the two of them didn't come back for a whole day or so because something happened at Starlight ktv.

Could it be a coincidence?

To be honest, after experiencing so much, Jiang Tianyu no longer quite believe the original owner Guan Miao Miao side appear, the so-called coincidence.

If someone had really touched this rental house, which can be described as a home, the first suspect that can be eliminated is the thief.

Sitting in the darkness, she raised her hand to pinch her brow with some headache, who the other party is, the answer seems to be obvious.

Hu Fan is so careful, long-term tracking over the Miao Miao Guan years have not let it notice any abnormalities, is certainly not risked to steal the keys from her side.

The first thing you need to do is to get the key.

After having the key, it would be convenient to send things back when no one was at home.

However, all of this is just her speculation, there is no evidence that Hu Fan really took the key from Lara that day, and there is no proof that the anomaly on the hanger was caused by someone rummaging around.

The company is not worried about itself, as it has already taken precautions against Hufan, and there is not much chance that the other party can harm her.

But Lara, although Hu Fan's target is Guan Miao Miao, but in case Hu Fan does not know the situation of Starlight KTV, according to the previous law one day really touched home again ..... once the two people collided, what will be the result of who can not say.

In the bed tossed and turned for a while, she finally decided to take advantage of this opportunity to find time to move out, so as not to accidentally involve unrelated people.

The next morning, Jiang Tianyu went out to the vicinity of the beauty salon.

This happens to be the old town, and the rental prices of the houses nearby are quite low, so it is barely convenient to move here.

After wandering around all morning and writing down a few rental phone numbers, she walked in the direction of the beauty salon while opening her phone to check the time, not realizing that the WeChat group of employees belonging to Starlight KTV had already exploded.

This is called starlight eternal residence of the WeChat group is an old employee privately built &30 remember 340;, at first is to facilitate each other to string class, later it became everyone in the inside gags by the way daily insults about the boss place.

Jiang Tianyu roughly looked through the chat logs, it turns out that early this morning the police went over the ktv outside ripped on the cordon, indoor and outdoor, even the chicken that several cars are related to forensics work.

Such a big movement, naturally caused a lot of speculation.

Some say that ktv is guaranteed to be closed this time, some say that chicken is not selling white fen, and some say that the commotion will not be related to the body found before.

In this regard, she only the corners of her mouth slightly curled up and took the phone back into her backpack.

The day just after noon, Jiang Tianyu after eating the lunch provided by the beauty salon, as usual with an apron to pick up a variety of cleaning supplies ready to go to work, did not expect the th!ghs suddenly came a burst of vibration after a burst.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

As expected, the city Public Security Bureau asked her to cooperate with the investigation on the suspected illegal case of Starlight KTV, but there was no hurry, so she decided to go after work.

After hanging up the phone, she clicked on WeChat again, and as expected, the group was once again bustling with activity.

It turns out that not only her, many people have just received a call from the police.

She shrugged her shoulders, and the next second she carried a mop and pushed open the bathroom door, officially starting the day's work.

After the upstairs and downstairs were cleaned, Jiang Tianyu sat in front of the staff locker room, drinking water while taking a short break.

It so happened that two beauticians were changing clothes inside, and along the half-open door, the sound of their conversation clearly floated out.

It's just a few topics that have no specific meaning, such as whose customers renewed their annual cards, whose customers asked for a refund, and which young and beautiful face is suspected of being someone's mistress or something like that.

"By the way, Mao Lili's performance this month seems to be the best, right? It is estimated that at the end of the month when the salary is paid, the commission will be less." One of them said with envy, and then wondered, "By the way, how come I didn't see her today."

Another replied, "I heard Sister Hong say before noon, Mao Lili and she took leave, as if to go to the hospital or something ....."

Jiang Tianyu then reacted to why today around so clean, feelings are missing a person, thought about it she still lowered her head to the other side sent a message to express concern.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

But did not wait for Mao Lili's response, she was called to the second floor to clean up the beauty room hygiene, the turn of the eye has been busy until the end of the time.

The two of them had a brief chat before saying goodbye to each other.

After hearing the police ask that colleague a question, Jiang Tianyu's heart has a few bottom to the purpose of the police today, it seems that Qi Ziang and they should be in possession of what points to the evidence of Brother Chicken.

But what she didn't expect was that the first thing she saw as soon as she got off the elevator was the other side's angular &30 note 340; face.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the actual website.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The two of them walked all the way to a door.

Qiziang pushed the door open, and she walked in with her head bowed obediently, only to look up afterwards and discover to her surprise that this was an observation room.

And through the one-way see-through glass on the wall, Jiang Tianyu got a clear view of the situation in the interrogation room next door at the moment.

Lu Li and Xu Lida sitting opposite is the chicken, he looks a little mental discomfort, and because of the erosion of sleepiness, each lift the eyelids to use up all the strength like.

At this time Xu Lida's voice clearing his throat from the wall speakers, Jiang Tianyu turned his head back to look at the side of Qi Ziang, a face of incomprehension.

“Officer Qi, what do you mean by bringing me here?”

She is now just an ordinary citizen, in and out of this kind of place, but also synchronized to watch the interrogation process, not very good, right.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the situation.

Soon, the opposite interrogation room Lu Li knocked hard on the table, the eyes look to have fallen asleep chicken scared a jolt.

“Ask you to talk! Why in the world did you kill Lu Tong?”

Chicken shook his head vigorously, shook his head breathlessly to deny, and then there was a long period of silence.

The first second before he was about to fall asleep again, this time it was Xu Lida who clanked the chair under his butt and asked, “Four years ago, how did you meet Lu Tong?”

This process so cycle repeated several times, finally, the chicken brother's emotional full collapse, quite a big old man actually covered his face and began to cry bitterly.

“Oooooooooooooooooo!”

“I'm too sleepy, I'm begging you guys, let me sleep for a while!”

“You're sleepy? We have been here with you for so long, we are not sleepy?” Lu Li opened his mouth to scold: “want to sleep, then hurry up to explain the explanation, I ask you once again, you and Lu Tong in the end what is the relationship?”

“It's okay! I've said it's okay! I do not know what Lu Tong or Lu Tong!” The chicken brother some hysterical low roar, after roaring and then cover the face to continue winning.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

“But earlier, the technical section found a rubber band used by women in the crevice under the passenger seat of the modified jeep in his name, on which coincidentally hung two hairs that still had hair follicles.”

“After DNA testing, it was confirmed that the two hair strands belonged to Lu Tong.” After the words, he also took out his phone and showed her a photo of the evidence.

Plain brown hair band, without any decoration, not a very fine looking model.

“Hmm?” Jiang Tianyu was really a bit surprised at this moment.

Are you kidding? A whole four years, how could the other party not carry out the basic cleaning of the vehicle.

To say that the rubber band fell too tricky location, the problem is here, a good one so thick rubber band, how can fall into that?

“You suspect that someone is planting evidence?” Her eyelids jumped and she turned her face sideways and said in a soft voice of certainty.

“From the beginning I felt something was not quite right, if Lu Tong’s corpse was really sealed into that wall by Brother Chicken, how could he easily let her show up in front of people?” Qiziang raised his eyebrows and stated one of the reasons.

Originally, it could be explained that the time was too long, the other party was so emotional that he ignored the corpse in the wall, or he didn’t expect the quality of that wall to be so poor.

But when the most crucial physical evidence was retrieved from the jeep, everything became different.

Jiang Tianyu frowned and asked again, “So what did Chicken himself say?”

“He said the car is often lent to others, this other people did not remember there are a hundred also have eighty.” Qiziang spoke, the line of sight once again fell on the man who was sitting on the interrogation chair at this time, head down, forehead almost touching the cold interrogation table.

“But I found that when asked if he knew Lu Tong, his pupils would always produce a certain change that was not present when he heard other questions.”

Integrating what he had just said with the past information in his own head, Jiang Tianyu opened his mouth hesitantly, “You suspect that Chicken actually knows who the real murderer of Lu Tong is?”

“Mm.” Qi Ziang nodded affirmatively, “The relationship between this person and him should not be simple, perhaps it can be said that he is fearing the other side.”

“Ms. Guan, you have also been working at Starlight KTV for some time, the main purpose of calling you here today is to intend to ask you to think carefully, do you know this person.”

Here he paused briefly, then added two more sentences, “Or, do you think that on a regular basis, who gets along with Chicken, gives you the strangest feeling?”

It’s true that the police could have simply mapped out all the social connections around Chicken, but it would have been a bit too much of a waste of time.

The police could have simply mapped out all the social connections around Chicken, but it would have been too much of a waste of time.

Strange?

After hearing this, Jiang Tianyu lowered her eyes in a serious manner and stared at the tip of her shoe.

The time passed by minute by minute, the speakers on the wall still uninterruptedly transmitted the voices of the three people in the interrogation room opposite, and the past drips and drains like a movie with the ten times speed button pressed, replayed in her mind at a very fast speed.

Suddenly, she jerked her head up.

“Brother Liang.”

From the surface, this Brother Liang seemed to be just a rather valued believer under Chicken’s hand, but when she just stood at another angle, Jiang Tianyu found something that was out of place.

In contrast to the bright brother who has been thundering in Starlight KTV, is not the chicken more like a fighter who is charging into battle for the boss?

The company’s main business is the company’s business.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The actual fact is that the actual person who is the boss of the house can listen to the words of the little brother like this?

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The Qiziang standing next to her after she said the word 'Brother Liang', look as if not very surprised, it is obvious that the police have long listed Brother Liang as one of the key concerns.

"In this way, it seems that this Liang is the real mastermind behind the organization of the yin selling gang that has been getting a lot of attention from the police recently." He said while walking back and forth twice around the room, "Then it makes sense why Chicken didn't dare to give him up out of fear, and why Chicken seems to know Lu Tong."

They, the so-called 'Taoist' people, have always talked about righteousness.

And to be frank, to be able to mix with criminal means outside & Remember 30340; prosperous, there must be his excesses.

This chicken may not have any handle in the hands of the bright brother may also be possible.

Jiang Tianyu nodded slightly in agreement: "Guess Chicken did not know the fishy lounge wall at first, otherwise with his daily rather cautious character, how could this blunder occur."

"Having been bumped into the secret that he had painstakingly concealed for four years, Brother Liang definitely had to take measures, and that measure was to successfully shift the police's attention to Brother Chicken."

For this statement of hers, Qiziang expressed a certain degree of agreement, and then revealed a smiling expression, "So this Brother Liang was able to know the next move of the police and successfully placed the so-called 'evidence' inside that jeep in advance, also because of you, right? "

Speaking of this, Jiang Tianyu suddenly a face rose red, only to feel from the bottom of the heart outward pangs of bitterness, then reluctantly nodded hard twice.

She admitted that this time she was only burying her head in pursuit of the traces of what had happened back then, thus ignoring what was close at hand.

And because Ryo's disguise is really clever, she really didn't notice anything unusual before.

I think it was because that day when she saw Chicken driving that jeep, she accidentally showed an unusual expression or action, and managed to give a free source of inspiration to Ryo who was hiding in the shadows and observing the whole situation.

“Thank you very much, Ms. Guan.” Perhaps feeling a little amused by her chagrin at this moment, Qiziang’s eyes showed the slightest hint of imperceptible pleasure, and promptly guided her out of this observation room.

In the empty corridor, the man expressed his sincere gratitude to her again before turning around and walking away quickly.

Jiang Tianyu stared at the back of the other party who was making a phone call to deploy the next step, hesitated for a few seconds, and finally walked in the opposite direction of the elevator entrance, and the end of the corridor there was a lounge that was open to the public.

After entering, she chose a table against the glass door and sat down on a position where she could vaguely see the corridor.

Holding back her temples, which were beginning to swell after the storm, Jiang Tianyu held her chin in her hand, trying to stay awake and keep an eye on the movements outside.

Finally, when the hands of the clock on the wall pointed to eleven o’clock in the evening, there was a ‘ding’ beep from the elevator.

Then several people came down from the elevator, she stretched her neck to look and look, and finally found a figure extremely close to Ryo mixed in the crowd.

After those people entered the interrogation room one after another, she finally could no longer support the eyes closed.

Jiang Tianyu was awakened by a ‘knock knock knock’ sound, she grimaced and dragged her arms and legs, which were numb when she moved, and slowly raised her head.

The first thing that caught her eye was Qi Ziang’s face with a less than approving expression, and Lu Li, who was standing behind him, poking his head in, full of curiosity.

“Off .....

“Has Brother Liang admitted it?” Jiang Tianyu couldn’t wait to open his mouth to ask, with a prayerful tone: “Officer Qi, I just want to know exactly who killed Lu Tong, and for what?”

Qi Ziang choked. Remember

Looking at the woman in front of him, recalling her running and efforts during this period of time, although he could not rule out the possibility that the other party was trying to clear himself of suspicion, but this kind of effort for the sake of his friends really touched him.

To be precise, it reminded him of someone, but they both look like and unlike.

Helplessly frowned, he deliberately opened his mouth: "If the other party is really as delicate and deep-minded as previously expected, which has so quickly put down, the follow-up there are still grinding."

"Right now the technical section is working overtime to process the trace evidence brought back from several properties under the name of Wang Yuliang, or as you call him, Liang, and hopefully there will be some progress."

"So Ms. Guan, I suggest you go home and wait for news, there is no point in waiting around here all the time."

Jiang Tianyu smiled, collapsed and nodded, moved her still sore and numb legs with difficulty, and decided to leave when the discomfort had eased a little.

Qi Ziang nodded at her again, after which he took Lu Li to the coffee machine not far away, and the two of them sipped their coffee while exchanging something in a whisper.

Retracting her gaze, she glanced at the time and planned to go directly to the beauty salon later.

She took out her cell phone and dialed Lara's number, she was up all night again yesterday, no matter what, she first reported a peace of mind.

The first thing to do is to report that she is safe. .... beep .... beep .... beep .... beep .....

No answer?

Jiang Tianyu was surprised and stared at the phone for a while, pondered for two seconds, and then called the phone number again.

"Hello, the number you have called is temporarily unanswered, please come back later ....."

The marks between her eyebrows gradually became deeper, and the look on her face was unprecedentedly serious as she began to dial Lara's contact number over and over again.

However, all efforts were like a stone sinking into the sea, not stirring up any ripples.

Soon, Qiziang, who was standing in front of the coffee machine, noticed that something was wrong with her and slowly narrowed his black eyes.

Lu Li, on the other hand, raised his voice curiously and asked, “Ms. Guan, what is ..... this?”

Jiang Tianyu sniffed and opened her mouth, trying to calm herself before she vocalized, “I ..... suspect that my roommate she .....

“Disappeared.”

“What?” Based on professionalism, Lu Li is really a bit sensitive to the word ‘missing’, an arrow leap to her side, a serious look: “Are you sure?”

“She usually offended someone? Or has something happened to her? Why do you think she is missing?”

In this series of follow-up questions, Jiang Tianyu’s originally somewhat confused mind gradually regained clarity.

She did not stop her hand to continue dialing the phone, she tensed a face: “Maybe she went out and forgot to bring her cell phone, I am now going home to see, goodbye, two officers.”

This time she did not care about the discomfort in the legs, took a chair on the backpack and rushed out of the lounge, leaving some puzzled Lu Li and a puzzled Qi Ziang.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market. “

“As long as the chicken side spit, want to crush Wang Yuliang will be much easier.”

Lu Li habitually nodded, just when he wanted to ask something more, Qi Ziang has also gone out of the lounge door, it seems to be straight after the woman went.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

Even if it is not because of this, the people involved in the case around any unusual situation, for the police are also very important, there is a certain chance will have an impact on the case.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

They Qi team, should also be the same idea as his ..... right?

.....

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

Slightly tilting her head, she saw the person on the main driver.

Then with little hesitation, she pulled open the door and got into the car, after quickly reporting an address, she pursed her lips, followed by a "thank you".

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

There is even a small sister who lives very close to them and deliberately went outside the rental house and knocked on the door, giving her the feedback that there seemed to be no one at home.

Jiang Tianyu's heart, with the passage of time, almost completely fell to the bottom.

Qiziang like to see through her hidden in the quiet appearance of that thick anxiety, the car speed is also in the slow elevated, all the way to take a shortcut, more than half an hour after the car finally parked in the several dilapidated old building &30340 note; side.

After getting out of the car, she rushed up to the sixth floor with the fastest speed, and when the key was inserted into the lock hole, the right hand was even trembling in a small way.

The security door was pulled open with a familiar ear-piercing scraping sound, and there was really no trace of Lara in the small house that could be seen at the end at a glance.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The heart, once again, sank two points downward.

She stood at the doorway, roughly organized her thoughts, then took a step and walked to the side of Lara's bed and surveyed the situation around her.

The bed is still in a mess, with piles of clothes stacked at the end of the bed, and half of the pillows are covered under the clothes, and even more exaggerated is the food packaging bags that can be seen inside.

The summer cover thin quilt is now also loose and the end of the bed clothes intertwined together, under the bed can be seen east a west a slippers and a few pairs of cotton socks worn.

Looking at the situation inside the house, it seems that there was no struggle as well as a fight.

At this time Qiziang has also followed the rental house outside, standing in the doorway position quietly looking at the house is now slightly bent over, everywhere carefully check what the person.

"Are you sure your roommate is really missing?" Waiting for a moment, he finally found the opportunity to ask.

The first time Jiang Tianyu was looking for the long hanger at the end of Guan Miao Miao's bed, and did not respond at first, and only after a few dozen seconds did she let out a sigh of relief without a trace, and her whole body fell to the chair behind her as if she had lost her strength instantly.

A small shake of the head: "should not be, she often wears clothes without a set, change down the pajamas are still on the bed, probably just went somewhere or the phone accidentally muted it."

Qiziang instantly caught the key point in her words and couldn't help but frown: "What makes you think she would be taken away at home and out instead is safe?"

Speaking of this, he opened his mouth again with considerable certainty after a short pause, "Could it be that someone is following you?"

"No, is someone following you?"

"That person who followed you, has it escalated to such a serious level as a home invasion?" Qiziang's expression gradually became serious as he spoke, "You should have called the police."

Jiang Tianyu had indeed thought of calling the police when she found out that Hu Fan had most likely escalated in his behavior.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

If it weren't for the sudden failure of Lara to answer her phone, she would still think that Hu Fan's actions would only pose a threat to her own.

But in reality, don't have any illusions about a person who is already terminally ill.

When she opened her mouth to say something, the phone in her hand suddenly rang, and after pressing the answer button, the girl's slightly hoarse voice came from the other side: "Sister Miao Miao, you're looking for me?"

"I was out with my friends last night, I drank a little too much and just woke up."

"Is there something urgent?"

The other side of the faint voice of a man during her speech, Jiang Tianyu had a few guesses about the identity of the 'friend' she was talking about.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

"No, you pay attention to safety, play finish back early." Jiang Tianyu breathed a silent sigh of relief and hung up the phone after getting a response from the other side.

"I'm sorry, Officer Qi ..... is that I was not able to determine the facts before making wild speculations ....., " she apologized with drooping eyes and an astringent tone.

"The person is all right." The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

However, before he could make a sound, the phone rang again through the cabin, pulling out the phone singing in his pants pocket, he glanced at the caller ID, turned around and went out to connect.

The man's low voice echoed in the hallway, Jiang Tianyu blinked and twisted her head to look at the other party's tall back, feeling confused for the first time since waking up in someone else's body from an injury coma.

So what exactly is the right thing to do every time she briefly occupies someone else's body.

Is it right to follow the wishes of the original owner and try to maintain the status quo ante on certain things, or is it right to follow the law and justice that they believe in their hearts, even if it will turn their lives upside down.

“Well . . . . .” Qiziang, who was on the phone outside the door, kept talking very little, mostly listening to what the person on the other side was saying and occasionally giving two instructions.

Jiang Tianyu peeled away from her tedious thoughts and stared at his steely-looking side face, as if she had suddenly made up her mind about something.

After a long time, Qi Ziang ended the call and resumed walking in.

“Lu Li and the others conducted a new round of surprise interrogation on Chicken, and the other party finally admitted that they had indeed met Lu Tong four years ago.”

The expected result, Jiang Tianyu sniffed, the face is not considered surprised: “So the relationship between Lu Tong and Brother Liang is . . . . .?”

“Lu Tong originally also borrowed money from their side, and then because of the beautiful looks was Wang Yu debut, followed his side.” Speaking of which, Qiziang asked somewhat strangely, “At that time, you and Lu Tong’s relationship was quite close, did not know that she talked about a boyfriend?”

“I don’t know.” Jiang Tianyu shook her head to deny it.

The original owner, Guan Miao Miao’s character, was destined to have a strong sense of boundaries with anyone she got along with.

‘Close’ is also only compared to others, she and Lu Tong spend more time together, and there is also the factor that at that time Guan Miaomiao suspected that Lu’s father was his biological father.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are getting into.

Perhaps in Lu Tong’s mind, she and Wang Yuliang were never the kind of relationship that could see the light of day, which is why she didn’t reveal anything to outsiders.

“The technical section also found a box stuffed in the corner in the storage room of Wang Yuliang’s home, which contained a female bag and a pair of female high heels, and after relevant tests, it was basically determined that these things belonged to the deceased Lu Tong.”

“After that, Lu Li and the others brought Chicken’s statement and these physical evidence to contact Wang Yuliang once again, but he only admitted to illegally disposing of Lu Tong’s corpse, but balked at the idea that he did not kill the deceased.”

“With his & Remember 30340; statement is that one day four years ago, he went to pick up Lu Tong from work, halfway through the sudden something put people halfway, let her alone take a taxi first back. Wait until the next day when he returned to his temporary rental house to Lu Tong, only to find her long dead in bed.”

“At that time, he was outside a b.uttload of bad debts, afraid that the police would suspect him, so he disposed of the scene and found a place to bury the body.”

“A year later, he always felt that the place where the body was buried was not too secure, it so happened that at that time to open Starlight ktv, which found the opportunity to seal the body in the wood panel wall.”

“Moreover, according to Wang Yuliang, the resignation text message that Xu Chunhua received four years ago was not sent by him with Lu Tong’s cell phone, about which he had no knowledge at all.”

Jiang Tianyu sat quietly and listened, only from the hand on the knee, slowly clenched into a fist to see the shock waves in her heart.

“But Wang Yuliang has confessed to the specific location of the original buried Lu Tong, the technical section has long rushed over, just do not know after three years, before and the body has been buried in the ground sheets, murder weapon and other evidence is enough is still in.”

“If these are the facts, then Wang Yuliang must not have done anything good that year, at least not smaller than the crime of murder, otherwise how he dared to risk so much to cover up a murder case?” Jiang Tianyu barely found his voice and made a comment.

“And why did he keep those things from Lu Tong, huh?”

If it weren’t for those things,he wouldn’t have been able to frame Chicken, and the police didn’t know how much time they would continue to waste trying to nail him down.

Qiziang’s expression suddenly became a little strange: “He said he really liked Lu Tong, and wanted to keep a reminder.”

“.....”

Jiang Tianyu was speechless for a short while, then fell into silence again, she only felt like her brain was wrapped around a ball of wool without a clue, but this ball of wool because of the other party's words just now, slowly revealing a head, the head of wool that can make all the doubts back on track.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

"How long has that person been following you?"

"The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The case was investigated, and now it seems, how did not get out of this circle of Guan Miao Miao.

"Four years ago, he was only sixteen ....." Jiang Tianyu murmured, then heavily closed his eyes, I do not know if there is a part of the original owner's emotions at work, when speaking, she even felt his voice with a trill: "Suppose that night Liang really threw Lu Tong in the halfway ....."

The sixteen-year-old Hu Fan is much shorter than now, the whole person is thin and small, very easy to provoke the pity of others.

The actual fact is that you can find a lot of people who are not able to get a good deal on a lot of things.

I have to admit, the odds are far greater than imagined.

Qiziang's expression was instantly serious, and his eyes followed and became stern: "You think your roommate is in danger because you think this stalker will be jealous of the closer relationship between you? Then would he have been jealous four years ago because of the same jealousy and thus struck out at Lu Tong?"

Jealousy?

Jiang Tianyu was not sure, that year Hu Fan was in high school, a critical period in his life.

In order for him to succeed in college and not repeat his own regrets back then, Guan Miao Miao poured a considerable amount of money and energy into him.

If we talk about intimacy, no one could compare to the relationship between the two in those two years.

Fiercely, a possibility occurred to her.

“At that time, I learned that Lu Tong’s father could be my biological father, and because of this matter, for a period of time, I was not in a particularly good mood.” Jiang Tianyu only felt that the blood in her whole body began to flow backwards, and her hands and feet were cold.

This was a reaction that belonged to this body and was not under her control at all.

If Hu Fan was really following the trail of Guan Miao Miao every day, with his intelligence, he must have been able to guess something.

Qi Ziang glanced at her sympathetically, then said in a gruff voice: “He thinks that the existence of Lu Tong is what created your misfortune, and if Lu Tong dies, you will be able to get the fatherly love you never had?”

“So this stalker fancies himself as your protector.”

Gulping a mouthful of saliva, Jiang Tianyu strongly suppressed the chill that ran up from the back of his spine, gritting his back teeth and opened his mouth again, “A few days ago because I inadvertently discovered his excesses, so I had a showdown with him, and at first he tried to keep contacting and harassing me, probably since yesterday, there was no movement.”

The marks between his eyebrows slowly became profound as Qi Ziang began to analyze the psychology of this stalker: “If he always thought he was your savior, then when problems arose between the two of you, perhaps he would stand in his shoes and use his methods to try to get you back.”

Jiang Tianyu’s brain began to race: “Recently my life has been quite smooth and I have never shown anything in front of him, except for borrowing money from Chicken.”

Also beaten by Chicken.

“Gu Hong its Public Security Bureau in custody, can be ruled out first.” Qiziang quickly made a judgment.

Taking a deep breath, she closed her eyes and suddenly thought of Hu Fan when she was first brought back to this rental house.

The teenager was sitting in her current position, silently sizing up the entire room, with a vaguely disgruntled look complaining about the poor conditions here.

And after she finished saying that she was currently working at the ktv, Hu Fan suddenly brought up the matter of forty thousand dollars.

“Lu Tong’s parents!” She jerked up from the chair and lost her voice.

Perhaps in the other party’s view, Guan Miaomiao was in the current situation, all blamed on Lu’s father’s illness.

He killed Lu Tong back then, but Lu father also did not recognize Guan Miao Miao, the illegitimate daughter, not only that, but also dragged her down when she was sick .....

Without hesitation, Qi Ziang immediately went to Lu Li a phone call to contact the police station colleagues where Lu Tong’s parents live as soon as possible to go over to check the situation of the old couple.

“Is there anyone else?”

The precinct police station is expected to be able to reach the home of Lu Tong’s parents in about five minutes, this time can not wait dry, to do a more comprehensive analysis of the search is always safer.

“Others .....” has come to this point, Jiang Tianyu more and more quiet, this time she has also been able to slightly control the original host Guan Miao Miao’s body reaction, is to think than just also more active a few points.

Four years ago, Lu Tong, sent a message to Xu Chunhua to resign.

Yesterday, Mao Lili, sent a message to the beauty salon owner to ask for leave?

Thinking of this, she hurriedly opened her phone screen, tapped on WeChat to find the dialog box with Mao Lili.

The bottom of the message is still the condolence message she sent yesterday afternoon, as if the stone sunk into the sea as if no response.

“Mao Lili! Because she inadvertently said that I found out Hu Fan has been tracking me, she did not go to work yesterday, it is said to have taken a leave of absence from the boss!”

After decisively giving this person’s name, Jiang Tianyu quickly dialed the number of the beauty salon owner’s wife. Almost at the same time, Qi Ziang also once again put the phone to his ear.

A minute later, after the two people put down the phone, they looked at each other to remember.

Accompanied by a beep from the phone, Jiang Tianyu hung her head and said in an urgent tone, “Mao Lili really did not go to work today either, I asked the boss’s wife to get a screenshot of the chat log between her and Mao Lili yesterday .....”

As she spoke, she got up and walked over to the man and clicked on the picture.

There were only a few simple conversations on it, and it didn't seem to be anything unusual.

Mao Lili said that she was not feeling well and had to take time off to go to the hospital for a checkup, and the boss lady expressed her concern and asked about the specific condition before politely saying that she could rest for two more days.

Qiziang looked thoughtful, immediately after his phone also vibrated, picked up a look is also someone else passed over two pictures.

"This is the information found by the police from Xu Chunhua's phone between the two after Lu Tong was determined to be missing that year, and the message she sent to her mother saying she was going to work abroad." Saying that, he brought his phone up next to Jiang Tianyu's phone.

"In my opinion, these three conversations, whether it's Lu Tong or Mao Lili, the two of them have surprisingly similar line habits."

Jiang Tianyu listened to the male voice in her ear, bit her tongue slightly harder, and whispered, "Do not rule out that the person who sent these messages four years ago, four years later, is the same person."

Just at the moment when the two of them fell into silence, Qi Ziang's cell phone once again a phone call, after connecting and listening to the opposite side of the report, he shook his head at the person beside him, "Lu's parents are still fine, the old lady took the old man downstairs to walk, the police station police found the old couple who were watching the chess game under the shade of the tree at the entrance of the district."

"So he positioned himself this time not as a protector, but as a judge."

"I'll arrange for someone to go to Mao Lili's home now." He said, turned around and was about to go out, just when he reached the door but then suddenly turned back: "Ms. Guan, from our conversation just now, I found that you still know Hu Fan better, why don't you go back to the Public Security Bureau with me first, this will also be good for the police to investigate the case."

Xu did not want her to feel too guilty, so some words Qi Ziang did not say directly.

But how can Jiang Tianyu not understand that the man does not want Guan Miaomiao to blame everything on his own body, take her back to the Public Security Bureau is also a disguised protection of her personal safety.

Without hesitation, she answered.

The two returned to the Jiangcheng Public Security Bureau again, it was already after noon, Qi Ziang after placing her in an office, and then disappeared in the blink of an eye.

On the way back, Jiang Tianyu had told the other side everything about Hu Fan in as much detail as possible, the next thing, can only be all left to the police.

The black leather sofa sitting under her b.uttocks, the coffee table in front of her still has the boxed lunch sent over by the female police, but she seems to have no appetite.

She took the chopsticks, unconsciously picking at the food in the box, and her thoughts went back to four years ago again.

Back then, no one thought Lu Tong was missing, they all thought she had left the area and the case was delayed.

Just because it was discovered too late, this led to a stalemate in solving the case.

The limited number of surveillance records that can capture the trajectory of Lu Tong are all covered, there is no evidence, no physical evidence, its social relations mapping also failed to have any discovery, the case has been so difficult & Remember 30340; moving forward.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you want to do.

If the original owner Guan Miao Miao back to the body found that their own years of love, care for a child turned out to be a few years ago because of psychopathy and kill people, and I do not know if she can accept it.

Counting up to now, Mao Lili has been missing for more than twenty-four hours.

If Wang Yuliang's previous confessions are true, according to the time of Lu Tong's death, Mao Lili is only feared to be in bad luck.

But Lu Tong and Mao Lili to Hu Fan's, the meaning is different after all.

Right now, Jiang Tianyu is only hoping that this difference will allow him to make some changes in his behavior pattern as well .....

Forcing herself to return to her soul, she knew there was no point in continuing to think about this nonsense, so she lowered her head and picked up a chopstick of shredded potatoes and brought it to her mouth.

Bang!

At this moment, the office door was violently pushed open from outside.

Jiang Tianyu kept her mouth slightly open and looked over with a suspicious face.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you are doing.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

"The local police station arrived at Mao Lili's residence first and confirmed that no one was at her home. The technical section is also on its way there now, but according to the police station, there are no obvious signs of struggle and fighting at the scene." Qiziang said a little about the current progress of the investigation.

"According to the feedback from the Jiangcheng City Vocational and Technical College, Hu Fan has not been to school for about three days, the same dormitory said he used to have often stay out at night, so no one noticed any abnormalities."

As he said, Lu Li handily took away the box lunch on the coffee table, and took a map of Jiangcheng City from the side and spread it on the coffee table.

"The police tried to locate Hu Fan and Mao Lili's phone signal to find their current location, but unfortunately both phones have been turned off."

Lu Li now squatted across the coffee table, face full of expectation.

Qi Ziang added: "Like Hu Fan such psychological type of criminals, what they do must all follow his own psychological laws."

"Ms. Guan, you are considered one of the few people he is closest to, so perhaps you can help us determine his location." He paused and then gave several key points: "If he really took Mao Lili, the place chosen to do it must meet the private and secluded, and in the subsequent disposal of the body is not easy to be found."

"Although four years ago, Lu Tong's body was quickly discovered by Wang Yuliang, but he which time after all, his age is still young, most likely the first time to commit a crime inexperienced."

"If he is really as cautious and sensitive as you say, this time he will definitely think more thoroughly."

Jiang Tianyu listened and then stared at the map in front of her, seemingly thinking seriously about all the possibilities.

Lu Li took advantage of the quiet moment in the office and began to mutter and spit: "I say, four years ago he killed Lu Tong but was not found, simply because of luck!"

"After the crime happened to meet a weak-minded person like Wang Yuliang, and also helped to dispose of the body. Assuming that Wang Yuliang chose to call the police, he may have fallen into the net."

"Luck is sometimes crucial." Qiziang simply responded.

From domestic to foreign countries, there are as many unsolved cases that cannot be solved every year, and it cannot be said that every criminal is of super high IQ and superb anti-reconnaissance ability.

It can only be said that the detection of the case will be affected by a variety of factors, and sometimes unexpected man-made and non-man-made accidents, is also one of the important factors that allow criminals to get away with murder.

Next, there was another lengthy silence.

Finally, Jiang Tianyu, under the gaze of the two people, stretched out his finger and gently pointed at a location on the map: "This is the district orphanage where we both used to live for many years, but then the government planning, said to demolish, the orphanage moved place."

At that time, Miao Miao Guan had already entered society and began to work as a note, and then never went back.

"I really have some impression of this place, after the old orphanage was stripped and started two new buildings, but I do not know why the project was stalled after the building was built." Lu Li hurriedly picked up a pen and made a mark, then muttered, "Hu Fan would choose these two rotten buildings?"

"Send a team over to search first." Qi Ziang obviously felt that there was little hope for this place.

Jiang Tianyu also thought so, the city's rotten buildings are often frequented or inhabited by homeless people, Hu Fan even if he wanted to go here at first, it is estimated that after consideration will choose to give up.

That is ..... her index finger on the map kept sliding to the right and eventually stopped at another location.

"This is the basement I rented back when I first came out to work. At that time I had my own independent income, so I would often take Hufan back."

The other party was only thirteen or fourteen years old, the peak of physical development, but looked similar to a child in his teens.

Guan Miao Miao's heart aches for the brother she grew up with, so she began to take more care of him, and even paid for his schooling out of her own pocket.

In a strict sense, that basement is the beginning of their 'intimate' relationship, perhaps for Hu Fan, is the existence of a place of great significance.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market. How come I've never heard of it?"

"In the second basement parking lot, it should originally belong to the property's warehouse and other places separated out. The landlord is illegal to rent, no contract, some years ago a month a small room only cost more than three hundred."

This price is already extremely low in this northern first-tier city.

Now the small dilapidated room rented by Guan Miao Miao and Lara, less than forty square feet, with an old neighborhood and a bad location, also costs about three thousand dollars a month.

Taking back her hand from the map, Jiang Tianyu bit her lower lip: "So many years have passed, I'm not sure if there's been any change over there."

"In recent years, the government has been cracking down on this kind of illegal rental houses, because the firefighting, formalities and so on are not qualified and there are great safety hazards." Qiziang frowned while explaining, while pulling out his cell phone and started assigning another team to Rong Ya Mansion.

"So it's likely that that side has reverted to its original use as a warehouse."

The second basement level, although immediately adjacent to the parking lot, but most people must have parked their cars and headed straight for the elevator entrance, basically not to pay special attention to the surrounding environment.

And inside the traffic, accidentally make some noise, will not easily attract the suspicion of bystanders.

Finally for the property, the second floor of the underground warehouse is not particularly convenient to come and go, most of them will be stored inside some of the things that are not used all year round, ten days and a half months no one should go back to a very normal.

Heard here, Lu Li immediately sat up, put away the map also remembered to put the box lunch to the end back on the coffee table, and then could not wait to rush out of the office.

Only leave a 'Qi team, I'm waiting for you in the car downstairs', there is no trace of the instant.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you want to do.

I didn't expect Jiang Tianyu to waved her hand towards him: "Officer Qi, don't worry, I'm sitting here and not going anywhere, I promise not to run around."

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're getting into.

This is the most headache for the police, because not only to deal with the site of the task may occur at any time, but also always pay attention to their emotions, movements and so on.

A mess up, afterwards also have to carry out a long time to pacify the work, the trouble is unbearable.

Seeing her so dry, Qiziang to say all the words blocked in the chest, can only slightly nod a gesture, also out of the door of this office.

When she was left alone again, Jiang Tianyu reluctantly ate the box of rice clean in order not to waste it.

Then she paced back and forth in the office, bored, and every now and then she raised her head to glance at the clock on the wall, mentally calculating how much time had passed.

The longer it took, the more her mind was set.

At this time, no news is the best news.

If the police hadn't found Hu Fan on the second floor of the Rong Ya Building, Qi Ziang and Lu Li would have contacted her long ago, and if the police had determined that Mao Lili was dead, the arrest of Hu Fan wouldn't have dragged on for so long.

As the possibility of 'Mao Lili still alive' increases, Jiang Tianyu's mind has been taut that string finally slightly relaxed some.

This relaxation, even days failed to get a good rest of the body can not hold up. She sat back on the sofa and slightly closed her eyes, although her consciousness was still awake, but at least she could recover her spirit.

However, just when she felt her mind start to mix, suddenly the door of the office was once again pushed open from the outside with force.

Jiang Tianyu felt some familiar, carefully recalled a moment, she remembered that the other party seems to be her in Zhou Ya body just two days after waking up, accompanied Lu Li to the hospital to question her and encountered the hostage taking case of the female police.

The female police officer did not say a word, came up and pulled her up from the sofa, and then went outside.

Until she got into the police car, Jiang Tianyu's brain was still a bit confused, and the other side only briefly explained that 'Qi team asked me to take you there', and then focused on driving.

The police car drove unimpeded into the second basement level of Rong Ya Building, because the police had evacuated and arranged control in advance, so there was not a single people at the scene.

The police lights kept flashing in the dim space, not far from a group of people gathered, from the clothing, there are special police, commandos and Qiziang under the serious crime unit.

Jiang Tianyu, who got out of the car, was taken straight to the pile of people by the policewoman.

Qi Ziang at the moment is working with various departments to deploy something, see her come over still did not stop the words in the mouth, pointing to the floor plan in front of him said: "just used the technology of thermal imaging, can determine the existing two people in the warehouse, both still alive."

"But that is, there is too much clutter in the warehouse and no windows to see the situation inside, the sniper action is very difficult."

"Plus the suspect is too cunning, has been hiding behind the hostage, using firearms to try to kill him, there may be a risk of accidental injury to the hostage."

Next to a big brother wearing a special police uniform raised his hand and rubbed his chin: "It would be best if we could find a way to get the suspect out of the warehouse."

The words fell under the record, almost everyone's eyes looked at Jiang Tianyu who had just walked over.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

"He's just a bit of a psychopath, not a psychopath, much less a fool."

“Besides, is there any danger in what you guys want to arrange for me to do?”

“I’ll tell you in advance, I myself am very life conscious.”

After listening to what she said, the expression on Qi Ziang’s face suddenly became somewhat fantastic, and the corners of his mouth even twitched twice because he couldn’t control the forced smile he was holding back.

Lu Li and the rest of the crowd: “.....”

Is quite shy of life, they feel it.

It is probably rare to see this kind of before the police say anything, first blocked the road are involved in the case, the special police brother held back and still can not hold back, snorting out a laugh.

Stretching out his gloved hand, gently patted Jiang Tianyu’s shoulder, he said with some emotion: “If only everyone who came to the scene of the case could have such a clear perception of you.”

This will not only be less trouble in the operation, but also be able to prevent part of the tragedy.

After Qiziang organized his emotions, he turned slightly sideways so that Jiang Tianyu could see the building plan provided by the property of Rong Ya Building: “This is the warehouse on the second floor of the underground parking lot, where you used to live.”

“According to the property side, the original illegal compartment built in the warehouse has long been demolished, and now there are some messy miscellaneous things stacked inside.”

“There are tables and chairs, there are abandoned iron barrels, and some paper flyers or banners and so on.”

“And now, through the thermal imaging system can be judged, Hu Fan hiding in the northeast corner of the warehouse, sandwiched in the middle of the pile of tables and chairs and iron barrels, Mao Lili is right in front of him, covering him up tightly.”

Jiang Tianyu lowered her eyes and looked at the location pointed by the man’s fingertips, the situation is indeed a bit tricky.

The second floor of the basement, Hu Fan's back against the outside of the wall is solid ground, there is no possibility of sniping from behind.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

The other side of the wall is a suspect, which is in a completely helpless situation, only to choose to kill.

"Our plan is, is there any way to make him move, even if it's just to rub forward, maybe we can find a new sniper angle."

Jiang Tianyu smiled and fell silent, her heart began to seriously calculate, if she took a loud speaker and promised to be with Hu Fan in public, how likely the other side could believe.

Although she did not want to admit it, she felt that the chances of success were too low.

Like she just said, Hu Fan was only a psychopath, not a mentally abnormal fool.

On the contrary, he was more shrewd than most people and could not have lost his judgment because of two simple words from Guan Miaomiao.

To put it bluntly, what Hu Fan wanted all along was to try to control Guan Miaomiao, not to let Guan Miaomiao influence him.

Jiang Tianyu was almost certain that if she and the police hadn't noticed something unusual about him, after solving Mao Lili, his next target would have been Guan Miao Miao.

The next target is definitely Guan Miao Miao.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

After all, one accidentally botched the situation, and then take a person into the situation, is everyone is not willing to see.

Suddenly, Jiang Tianyu like a momentary recollection of what, two steps forward to the floor plan, opened his mouth and asked: "property in the demolition of those rooms partition, there has been a record repair of the exterior of the warehouse?"

Qiziang twisted his head and waved at a middle-aged man standing at a distance, who was formally dressed and had a Rong Ya Property work tag on his chest, the position was manager.

After hearing the question clearly, the male manager opened his mouth uncertainly: "There should be no repair, because originally surrounded by a thick iron circle out of such a place, in the initial floor plan of the building may not even have the warehouse mark."

"I'll be honest with you officers, this place is the property before the person in charge of trying to enrich themselves."

"First, he found a reason to make a warehouse out of this vacant land, and then rented it out illegally, and the money went into his own pocket. If not, he could not be fired from the company, right?"

The implication is that, for such a troublesome place, the property will certainly not continue to invest any financial resources to repair and maintain.

After hearing this response, Jiang Tianyu's eyes suddenly lit up, with a slight untraceable excitement in his tone: "A few years ago I lived in a room that was located in the middle of the location, I remember that the house most to the west lived in a not very good-tempered young man, once because the rent was not paid on time by the landlord changed the locks."

"He found a way to get the outside of the tin wall from below, every day from below into the house to continue to live, usually that iron plate standing there can not see anything at all."

"Later, for convenience, he simply got a door hinge for that piece of cut iron, which is considered to open a door for himself."

The crowd heard this, the eyes are subconsciously rounded some, special police brother did not delay a moment to order people to check, the feedback really is that there is a place to pass people, but now from the outside was locked with chains on.

"The location of the hostages and suspects, about how far away from this place?" Qiziang frowned and asked.

The professional range finder quickly responded, "Probably less than five meters, and this side happens to be stacked with all the used iron barrels, compared to the tables, chairs and benches, our people are more likely to find a gap to pass."

"Good, we mainly focus on the safe rescue of hostages ..... if ..... self-judgment ..... can shoot! "

"Go in two, snipers concealed behind the barrel ..... find a good sp0t ....."

Looking at the police in front of a circle, Jiang Tianyu very consciously back two steps, but there are still intermittent voice into her ears.

Dropping her eyelids, she silently demonstrated in her mind how she would respond to the situation this time if she was allowed to go on a mission.

At the end, a silent sigh escaped from her lips, and her fingers moved slightly, as if she was somewhat nostalgic for the determined and unrelenting days of the past.

Soon, the sharp siren sounded suddenly in the space of the second basement, and even the police also sent out negotiators to try to distract Hu Fan's attention and cover up the sound made by the special police infiltrating the warehouse.

This short few minutes was probably as long as hours for Jiang Tianyu.

She had never before stood in the perspective of the parties involved in the case to experience their anxiety and anxiety, and now that she felt it, her heart had a few more complex feelings.

With a loud 'boom', the door of the warehouse was kicked open from the inside, followed by the special police officer's bellow: "Medical personnel! Paramedics!"

What happened after that, Jiang Tianyu only felt like everything was pressed the slow-motion button.

Mao Lili, who seemed to have a weak breath, was carried to the ambulance on a stretcher by the rescuers, while Hu Fan was escorted out of the warehouse in the clamps of two special police officers.

The teenager's forehead should have been injured in the fight to resist arrest, his face full of blood, with a distorted expression, looking hideous like a vicious ghost crawling from hell to earth.

He struggled, roared, and finally, when he saw Jiang Tianyu, suddenly his feet stopped moving and stalled, and just stood there staring at her with a weirdly mild expression.

"Sister Miao Miao."

After she saw the other party's muzzle, she suddenly came back to her soul, and her ears, which had been listening to the surrounding sounds as if they were separated by a membrane, also blinked back to normal.

"Sister Miao Miao, you're all I have, don't you don't want me, okay?" The young man's voice was as clear as ever, but his blood-soaked face could no longer find the youthfulness and innocence that was once in Guan Miao Miao's eyes.

For his prayers, Jiang Tianyu's response was a cold expression twisted his head, seemingly not even bothering to take a second look.

"Ahhhhh ! ! ! !" Hu Fan saw the situation suddenly manic, if not for the two special police officers behind him have been suppressing, afraid to rush over: "Sister Miao Miao, you can not do this to me!!! I did it all for you!"

"In this world, only I am true to you!"

"One day, you will understand me ....."

The hoarse shouts faded away, and the moment Hu Fan was pushed into the police car and the door closed, the world seemed to fall silent all of a sudden.

Qiziang walked up to her side at some point, his brow slightly furrowed and his tone concerned, "Ms. Guan, are you okay? You're shaking badly now."

"No." Jiang Tianyu shook her head and forced a smile as she endured her physical discomfort, "I'm probably a little scared, I'll be fine after resting for a while."

"Thank you, Officer Qi."

Qiziang waved his hand in response, because there were still a lot of things to follow up, so he called the female police officer from before to take care of her.

On the way back in the police car, half-opened eyes looked out the window at the fast-passing street scene, Jiang Tianyu suddenly felt her soul being pulled.

She is all too familiar with this feeling, slowly closed her eyes and was greeted by another darkness.

.....

Hoo .....

Her arms and legs moved violently, Jiang Tianyu woke up again, only to feel the silence around her.

Was it darkness? She lay there and surveyed her surroundings, but her eyes were as black as ink, and she could hardly see anything.

Since her soul broke away from Miao Miao Guan, she felt like she was drifting between heaven and earth again for a while.

There was no difference from the first time she broke away from Zhou Ya, and she did hear Guan Miaomiao's sincere thanks.

The same saw Guan Miao Miao's sadness and despair after hearing Hu Fan's own admission of the crime, and finally strong since the emotions gradually recovered, life also became positive again.

From Zhou Ya's body to detach and then enter Guan Miao Miao's body, last time she used two months, just do not know this time to wake up, and how long the interval between.

"Hmm?"

In the darkness, she only felt remembered that her right hand seemed to be holding something, tentatively climbed up, she crawled towards the place where the light was vaguely transmitted in front of her.

It turned out to be a tent, fumbling to unzip the entrance, she was caught off guard by the burning campfire outside flashing pain.

Immediately after, there were several high-pitched ear-splitting screams.

Jiang Tianyu was stunned to see several young boys and girls sitting around the fire not far away as if they had seen something horrific and got up hastily, gathered in a ball, and suddenly a bad feeling rose in her heart.

Mechanically lowered her head, she finally looked at the object held in her hand, it was a dagger of about 20 cm long.

At this moment, the dagger's blade still has striking red blood stains, and her clothes, too, are stained with dark red blood to varying degrees.

Slowly turn back, through the outside shining into the tent, dancing firelight, she could barely see the scene inside.

A man who had fallen lifeless in a pool of blood.

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 39 - Tips

0 8 minutes read

Jiang Tianyu sat next to the campfire and let the hot fire warm this cold body, as for the other people are hiding far away, standing there with a fearful face pointing at this side.

The surrounding environment, should be the wilderness, and the crackling sound of the campfire, lining the night of the dense forest more and more silent a few.

The first thing you need to do is to look at the people who are far away and deduce from their age that the original owner's age should not be too old.

Finally, in the distance came the sound of sirens, in this depressing late night, is undoubtedly a shot in the arm to the crowd.

Bang!

Bang Bang!

With several muffled sounds of closing the car door, Qiziang led people from the police car, immediately surrounded by a group of young people with a youthful appearance.

“Oh my God, police uncle, you finally came!”

“Scared the hell out of me, dead man! Ooooooooooooooooooooo .....”

“Yeah, yeah, Ren Yumeng killed someone ! ! ! ! ”

Lu Li immediately called a halt to this can't hear a reason for the gossip, and then let one of the more stable-looking boys open up to explain, which is barely clear the context.

The original in front of this is a group of Jiangcheng City Teachers College students, they are about 20 people are the school street dance club.

The reason for appearing here today is also because the club in consultation with everyone's opinion after a group hiking activities, they walked on foot from the school to the foot of this scenery is quite beautiful, originally intended to camp for a night after returning to school in the morning.

Who would have thought, the accident just appeared.

Ren Yu Meng killed Sun Tianyang.

This is Qiziang today heard the most words, he urged Lu Li and others to pacify the group of students who have not yet officially entered society, they are wearing gloves and footwear, slowly walk towards the front of the fire bright place.

This time the technical section and forensics have arrived near the tent, is doing the relevant preparations, his line of sight will naturally fall on the campfire next to the slender figure sitting on his knees.

Then, the forensics head into the tent, and began to examine the body.

“The deceased, male ..... has his ID card on him, let me see .....”

“Sun Tianyang, 21 years old. Shedding a lot of blood . . . . . cause of death is initially judged to be because of a knife stabbed in the heart and died, the process is fast, it will not take long. If the deceased is nothing defensive, most likely will not make any sound.”

Technical Section colleagues nodded in understanding: “No wonder just those children have indicated that before the suspect walked out of the tent, they did not find anything unusual.”

“That’s not necessarily true.” Qiziang squatted in the tent mouth position, surveyed the still spacious space inside, lightly opened: “After preliminary questioning, understand that these students at the time of the crime is holding some kind of bonfire party, I see that there are still guitars over there, if lively, some sounds are naturally ignored.”

The forensic scientist raised an eyebrow in approval and carefully measured the wounds on the body of the deceased with a tool: “The wound is only this one on the chest, and the murder weapon is about 3 cm in diameter.”

“As for the results of the poison test in the body and the rest, we will have to wait to give you the results when I return to the bureau for the second autopsy.” The forensic scientist finished, signaling that the assistant on one side could bag the body for transport back.

Stand up, Qiziang steps away to the campfire, pulled over the side of the matzah and sat down.

However, because of his long hands and feet, his strong body looks more or less shortness of movement and comical at this time.

He carefully observed the girl across from him, and saw that the other side looks beautiful, slightly curly short hair with willow eyebrows and almond eyes and a standard goose egg face, the whole person looks soft and a touch of competence.

However, at the moment, that beautiful and with a little student unique childish face, is permeated with a trace of confusion.

But only confused, for the suspect who just killed a person, the girl is too calm some.

Then, Qiziang’s gaze gradually moved down and finally settled on the position at the other party’s feet.

There is a dagger with blood stains, and even a paper towel underneath, isolating the murder weapon and dirt contact from the possibility of contamination.

"This knife, in addition to me no one has moved, I also try to ensure the integrity of the crime scene, things you can take away first." Jiang Tianyu said softly, his voice a little mute, finished also pursed slightly dry lips.

Soon, under the gesture of Qi Ziang's eyes, people from the technical section came forward to finish taking photos and sealing the evidence, and put the dagger into the evidence bag.

"What's your name?" He opened his mouth and asked, his voice not too loud, but with some seriousness.

Jiang Tianyu blinked and answered very cooperatively, "Ren Yumeng, 20 years old this year, now studying in the Physics Department of Jiangcheng Normal College, sophomore year."

"Do you know the deceased Sun Tianyang?" Qiziang asked again.

Nodding, she still answered dryly, "Yes, he and I were both members of the school's street dance club, and he was in his junior year in the math department."

"What conflict existed between you and him, and why did you want to kill him?"

"Kill him?" Jiang Tianyu like some surprise, first looked down at his own pair of blood-stained hands, then raised his head with some uncertainty: "I do not know ....."

Qiziang frowned, after a little thought stood up, beckoned colleagues from the technical section to the girl's hands and the whole body for trace sampling and examination, and then ordered: "A moment to bring the person back to the bureau, first draw blood to send a drug test, I think her state is not quite right."

He narrowed his eyes and looked at the students gathered by the police car not far away, his eyes swept over a terrified face, he raised his chin: "And those, make sure everyone's blood is sent for testing."

"Okay, Team Qi." The technician from the technical section responded painfully.

It was not until around six in the morning, when the early morning daylight poured through the leaves on the camp, that the police finished their forensic work and took the twenty or so students to prepare to return to the Public Security Bureau.

Jiang Tianyu, wearing only short sleeves and handcuffs on his hands, was guided by the police towards the police car.

The wind in the mountains was a bit harsh and cold, so that her bare arms were covered with goose bumps.

She recalled the information she had just received from the technicians, and it was already the end of August.

Remember

For northern cities, the end of August and the beginning of September has officially entered the early autumn, the morning and evening temperatures are not high, wearing such thin is sure to feel the slightest coolness.

Another two months.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're getting into.

At least is also experienced a lot of incredible things, such bad treatment, counted or the first time.

Soon, two police officers also got into the police car, one left and one right to sandwich her in the middle.

The two eyes of pity and regret were mixed with scrutiny, and she felt that her head was getting dizzy again.

The police have been working with the police for a long time, and now the heart has officially fallen to the ground, so the police car did not take long to move, Jiang Tianyu closed her eyes and fell asleep.

When she woke up again, the police car had stopped at the compound of Jiangcheng City Public Security Bureau.

She turned her head to the police officer who woke her up and said thanks, and followed the person's a.s.s into the interrogation room with low brows and obedience.

I don't know if it's because the former director Yu Meng's looks are too good, or because she is more cooperative with the police, next whether it's the police who came to draw blood or are responsible for guarding her, the attitude is not bad, whispering like they are afraid to scare her.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

After careful recollection, the other party should be called Xu Lida, the impression of a little grumpy.

"Ren Yumeng, right?" Qiziang simply went through the interrogation routine, after which he handed the stage to the person beside him.

Xu Lida's looks should be the most intimidating in the entire Major Crimes Unit, coupled with his rough voice and not-so-great temper, just being stared at by him without making a sound was enough to make a portion of those who were timid feel frightened.

Slightly moved the hands fixed by handcuffs on the interrogation chair, Jiang Tianyu understood in his heart that perhaps this is a combination of the police deliberately arranged.

After all, the original director of the Yu Meng is just a child who has not yet left school, although killed, but from the scene does not look like a premeditated crime.

If it is a premeditated crime, and would not do it in full view of the public?

Such impulsive character of the students, perhaps a frightened all put down.

Sure enough, the next second Xu Lida eyebrows up, 'snapped' a forceful folder in the hands flung on the desktop, sneered: "Look at your young age, the hands are stable and accurate, the deceased Sun Tianyang was killed by your knife."

"Now there are a total of seventeen witnesses outside, all of whom said they saw you kill the deceased, what else do you want to say?"

Jiang Tianyu was blown by the folder fan wind slightly drooping eyelids, and then tone calmly opened his mouth: "all said to have seen me kill someone?"

"That's really strange, we have that tent to avoid light so good that I can't even see my own hands after zipping up, they have good eyes one by two, and they can see me kill someone with my hands."

"In that case, how do I come out of the tent after a dozen talents as if they had seen a ghost, one ran faster than the other."

"Uncle police, remember I want to report to you, they are perjury, to be legally responsible!"

The two people called 'police uncles': "....."

Xu Lida some uncertainty black half face, in fact just outside the students have also called him police uncle, but how he felt that these four words from the mouth of this one, the accent fell so wrong?

It was as if he was really mocking him for being too old.

The actual fact is that you can find a lot of people who are not able to get a good deal on this.

Qiziang tapped the desktop twice with his fingertips gently and unconsciously, and smoothly drew out a report sheet and put it on, interrupting the stare-off between the two that was somewhat like a contest.

“This is your blood test report, the results are that your blood contains a certain dose of methamphetamine, which is the main component of the common hallucinogens on the market.” Speaking of this, his body leaned forward slightly, and the sense of oppression was pulled to full strength.

“Ren Yumeng, you’re high on drugs?”

Jiang Tianyu’s breathing stalled, staring at the report sheet out of focus.

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect - Chapter 40 - Tips

“I’m not on drugs.” She returned with a firm tone, and added after a pause, “At least I didn’t take this stuff on my own initiative.”

“You don’t have to be too nervous either.” Xu Lida sat there, and Qi Ziang sang the same song: “You students are still young, get together must be happy, the atmosphere is enthusiastic when the mind is dizzy, it is normal to make a little mistake.”

I did not expect Jiang Tianyu to continue to shake his head, his expression serious and serious: “I really did not eat these messy things.”

Seeing that the questioning was fruitless, Qi Ziang did not intend to dwell on this for too long, and turned to ask: “Then why don’t you tell us about the matter between you and Sun Tianyang?”

He did not have the words ‘murder’ in his question, in order to keep the young girl in front of him as emotionally calm as possible. If this case is really a crime of passion, the other party’s body also contains prohibited drugs, although the amount of residue should not be much now, but it is better to try to avoid trouble.

“I and he .....” Jiang Tianyu frowned, as if carefully recalling what, after a long time before then opened: “I and he is a club, what can be the matter?”

For her intermittent speech, Qiziang and Xu Lida think it is a common after-effects reaction after taking those drugs, so the two people are extremely patient waiting, not too much urging.

“According to the police, you went camping these nineteen people, every two people prepared a tent.” Qiziang tone without ripples to repeat the information previously obtained from those other students: “But most of them are boys and boys, girls and girls.”

“If there was nothing going on between you two, then why were you in the same tent?”

Yeah, why?

Jiang Tianyu’s two eyebrows, at this moment almost twisted together, she found that the original director Yu Meng’s memory, there is a long period of vacancy.

I just don’t know whether it was caused by her arrival, or whether it was an after-effect from the original director having ingested something containing hallucinogens.

“I can’t remember.” In the end, she could only tell the truth.

Xu Lida sniffed and squeezed out a light hum from his nose: “Are you going to say next, why did you have a conflict with the deceased, and why did you kill him, you don’t know anything about all of this?”

Unexpectedly, Jiang Tianyu really nonchalantly nodded: “Indeed, there is no impression.”

“But I think that the police uncle can follow the hallucinogenic ingredients in my body to check, after all, I am also quite curious about how this stuff entered my body.”

“Also, how about you guys scientifically calculate how big of a dose I actually ingested at the time.”

“Will that dose make me get high and instantly transform into a beast, or will I roll my eyes and lose consciousness.”

Xu Lida was choked by her top, side face to stare at the captain of the family round eyes.

Was he once again under a delusion? Why do I feel that this student in front of me knows the police process particularly well, as if he is sure that they will not have too much evidence during the initial interrogation, let alone what to do with her.

Qiziang is naturally much more calm than the people around him, and the corners of his lips moved without a trace: “Thanks for the reminder, Ren.”

“By the technical section of the examination record test, the knife you hold in your hand, only your fingerprints on it, the knife is also consistent with the wounds on the body of the deceased, and the blood on it is the blood belonging to Sun Tianyang.” His hands around his chest, chin slightly raised: “To this, do you have anything else to say?”

After hearing these words, Jiang Tianyu lowered her eyes again, and after about a few seconds, her right hand, which was handcuffed to the interrogation chair, suddenly clenched into a fist.

“Since I woke up, I’ve been holding that knife like this, my posture hasn’t changed.”

What she answered seemed to be a bit of a mismatch with what the other party was asking.

Qiziang’s response to this was to get up and clean up the report sheets scattered on the table, and in passing, he also instructed, “If you feel uncomfortable, remember to call someone.”

After saying that, he turned around and walked out of the interrogation room.

Xu Lida naturally to follow, when sure the interrogation room door closed tightly, he accelerated his steps rushed to the man’s side, some puzzled asked: “The technical section did not say that the murder weapon is indeed only her fingerprints? This is ironclad evidence, with so many eyewitness testimonies, I think the child is unable to escape.”

He said, he also gave a long sigh: “Even if she wants to use the hallucinogenic pretext not to say anything, it is useless, physical evidence is always more powerful than the human self-refutation.”

“Also, what did she mean by that last statement?” He lifted his right hand in a pattern and made a false grip, his normally fierce face at this point full of incomprehension.

“I think she was trying to remind us.” Qiziang responded briefly with a few words, then raised his hand and pressed the elevator’s up button.

“A reminder?” Xu Lida stood in place somewhat dazed, waiting until the elevator came, before he busily followed the other party’s button and got on the elevator as well.

Looking at the lit up floor button, he guessed that his captain was going to the technical section.

The sound of unhurried footsteps.

The sound of unhurried footsteps echoed in the empty corridor, and the next second, the brown solid wood door with the words ‘Criminal Technology Section’ on it was pushed open.

“Team Qi, Brother Xu.” The woman wearing glasses who was sitting next to the computer fiddling with something took the time to say hello, and then buried her head back to work on the matter at hand.

“Well, Sister Zhang, I want to see the murder weapon test report about this murder case last night again.” Qiziang very smoothly threw the folder on the side table, sat on his buttocks on the reclining chair and pinched his brow.

Zhang Ye, who was called ‘Sister Zhang’, stood up after a few final taps on the keyboard, walked around the large table located in the center of the lab and went to the other side.

When she turned back with the report sheet in her hand, she asked casually and unconsciously, “You two are fast, you just took away Ren Yumeng’s blood report sheet, and you’re done with the trial?”

“Well, did you leave it?”

“Leave a fart.” Xu Lida shook his head in a circle, feeling the crunching sound from his cervical vertebrae, while complaining, “It would be great if every suspect could voluntarily admit their crimes, so our workload could be reduced by half.”

Zhang Ye lost his smile and shook his head, handed several report sheets in his hand to the man in the chair, “The fingerprints on the hilt of the knife are clear, and the comparison work was completed successfully without any hindrance at all.”

Qiziang silent look for a while after, with a look to indicate Xu Lida from the evidence table to bring the dagger over.

Then he followed the pattern of Jiang Tianyu just now, fist eyes facing up fist heart facing down, and held the hilt of the knife in his hand with the tip of the knife vertically down.

“and Ren Yumeng himself is right, these fingerprints on the hilt of the knife does match the posture she held before and after the crime, and just now Sister Zhang also mentioned that the fingerprints are clear and not displaced, proving that she did not change her grip midway.”

Qiziang this endless words, so the rest of the two are a bit puzzled, they looked at each other, all from each other’s eyes to see the doubt.

“Qi team, you are .....,” Xu Lida asked in a long voice.

Qiziang returned to his senses: “Brother Xu, you call the forensic doctor, let him come over.”

After saying that, he continued to carefully examine the dagger in his hand, more like mumbling, "Now can determine is Ren Yumeng throughout the murder weapon is held in this way, then assuming that the crime occurred when she and the deceased stood face to face, so stabbing past the action is not a little twisted?"

"Of course, it does not exclude her standing behind Sun Tianyang, hands around each other so stabbed down, or the deceased lying on his back on the ground, she or kneeled by its side, or in its right above the hand."

Xu Lida just finished the phone call, listened for a while after some understanding of his meaning: "Qi team, you are trying to do a crime at the time of the murder of the killer a simulation analysis of the process?"

"By the way, determine the position of Ren Yumeng and Sun Tianyang at that time, to see which is the angle of action most consistent with the situation of the chest wound of the deceased?"

Knives from different directions, different heights, different angles into the human flesh, will form a different wound traits, if you can restore out the real situation at the time of the crime, for their next interrogation work will also be a big help.

The next few people hit it off, with Zhang Ye as the lead, in front of a computer to do a bunch, carrying out the experiment over and over again.

Until the sun outside from the rightful sky to completely down the mountain, the light also turned from the original bright to dim, the technical section of the laboratory still have 'drip drip' electronic sound in the regular ringing.

Xu Lida and the forensic scientist has been sitting on the chair next to sleep over, Qi Ziang is standing on the evidence table then, I do not know what is observing.

Suddenly, the chair under Zhang Ye's buttocks creaked, creaking sound, followed by a helpless sigh, slightly annoyed after knocking hard on the keyboard, she opened her mouth: "Qi team, this is the last Ren Yumeng may have done the action, if the angle does not match the wound on the chest of the deceased ... .."

Responding to her, is Qi Ziang not lightly a 'hmm'.

Not long after, Zhang Ye took off another 'shit', decisively got up from the chair: "Qi team, if Ren Yumeng that way of holding the murder weapon, no matter what posture can not cause Sun Tianyang chest wound traits!"

Xu Lida and forensic eye was also awakened by the movement she made, were quite surprised to look over.

Rubbing some sleepy eyes, Xu Lida felt strange: "How is it possible? The seventeen witnesses present at the time of the crime said they hadn't seen anyone else enter or leave the tent, so if Ren Yumeng didn't kill her, who could it be?"

Qiziang slightly narrowed a pair of black eyes, stretched out his hand on one of the evidence bag pointed out, that contains the clothes worn by Ren Yumeng at the time of the crime.

"Continue to determine whether the distribution of blood on top of the clothes is consistent with the pattern of blood spurting after killing Sun Tianyang and then putting the knife back out."

"Blind guess should also not be in line." He said this, slightly contemplated for more than ten seconds, then rushed Zhang Ye: "Trouble Sister Zhang and then push back the content of hallucinogenic agents in Ren Yu Meng's body at the time of the crime."

"Someone is lying ....."

His last words sounded extremely low, but it was like a thunderclap in the ears of the crowd.
