0 8 minutes read

“The forensic pathologist gave the deceased Wang Pan Pan a toxicology test and found that his body also contains hallucinogens.” Qiziang’s expression became somewhat meaningful as he spoke.

Jiang Tianyu’s eyes rounded in surprise: “What is this? The killer got inspiration from me and Sun Tianyang?”

The reason is that people lose consciousness is better controlled and less likely to make noise, so the other side’s killing behavior becomes much easier than imagined, so he continued to use this approach?

Qiziang does not deny, turned to look at the end of the still closed door of the resuscitation room: “If Guo Tao’s blood test results come out, she also took hallucinogens, then this speculation of yours should be eight or nine.”

“It so happens that recently and even the next few days, the anti-drug brigades of the various district bureaus will orderly carry out special operations to crack down on the circulation of prohibited drugs in the underground black market, and our Major Crimes Unit will focus on investigating to see if anyone associated with the Teachers College has ever purchased these things in the recent past.”

“Only it still takes time.”

The feeling of being chased forward by the suspects in the back of the ass is really not very good, Qi Ziang finished after a little thought, then opened his mouth again: “Lu Li has asked the body found that cleaning, the other side said that because every club in the sub-building know the news of Thursday to full extermination, so basically no one goes from the afternoon on weekdays. “

“She finished the full disinfection of the building before five o’clock, and then left the sub-building to eat in the staff canteen.”

“As a rule, she will go home from work after eating, today is also accidentally left the phone in the activity center sub-building, which just finished eating and went back to the trip.”

“It seems that the murderer is very familiar with the activities of the center in the various time arrangements, the most critical is .....” he said to this a slight pause, glanced at the person beside him before continuing: “Why would he choose the vice building today as The place where the crime was committed again, just because after five o’clock there are very few people going over?”

Assuming that the suspect knows Jiangcheng Normal College very well, he must know that there is more than one place like this that is sparsely populated, so there must be some reason for it, right?

Jiang Tianyu has been used to this person that exceeds the normal several times the ac.umen, some speechless raised his hand scratching his head: "If there is no accident, Guo Tao was killed at that moment, from me to finish eating just a few minutes."

"My original intention was to go to the club to see after dinner."

"Because I had a brief encounter with Guo Tao in the afternoon, I think she's not quite right, so I thought I'd go to the street dance club to see if I could find a reason for her behavior and even speech to be a little unusual."

In other words, if the cleaning accident did not turn back in the middle, this black pot may have to carry her again.

"You and Guo Tao's afternoon meeting, all who know?" Qiziang instantly caught the key point.

Uncertain frown, Jiang Tianyu lowered her head and started counting on her fingers: "My two housemates, Xu Ge and Li ÒÒ, but they were with me the whole time, at least in this time is not to have the time to commit the crime."

"As for the other ..... I admit that my attention at the time was all focused on Guo Tao's body, whether someone passed in the corridor, a few people passed, I did not care too much."

"You wouldn't be suspecting Xu Ge and Li ÒÒ, would you?" She asked cautiously.

Not to mention that they have no alibi to show for the three cases, the motive alone does not make sense.

The former director Yu Meng and the two are very good relations, before the death of Sun Tianyang, Ren Yu Meng has also been living in the dormitory.

The three are also a class, not to say a moment not separated that is almost.

Jiang Tianyu is basically sure that these two people and Sun Tianyang, Wang Pan Pan and Guo Tao do not have any contact.

Of course, there are no absolutes in the world, she just think from the side of the roommate, hope is not very big.

"It's just a normal exclusion, Ren students don't need to be so nervous." Qiziang glanced at her with a smirk, then looked at Mr. Xing who had just dropped the phone at this moment not far away and was leaning against the wall, worrying.

He said hello to the young girl beside him, and then took the police officer towards the man, intending to conduct routine questioning.

The good thing is that the two people have met before, omitting polite greetings, without two words to smoothly get to the point.

Listening to Mr. Xing's rambling complaints, Jiang Tianyu sat back down on the bench he had just been on.

Sun Tianyang, Wang Panpan, Guo Tao.

These three people do not seem to be closely connected on the surface, except for the street dance club and the relationship between men and women, there is no common ground when singled out.

What is the reason for the killer to choose them?

Assuming that the suspect's target is the street dance club, Wang Pan Pan is not a member, so it does not fit this point.

If the relationship is between a man and a woman, Guo Tao and Sun Tianyang, in Ren Yu Meng's past memories are also not very close, and can even be said to be quite general.

Looking back carefully, the two people usually rarely communicate, it is clear that Guo Tao also does not meet the second point.

Time passed quietly in that conversation next to and Jiang Tianyu's contemplation.

Guo Tao was injured in the heart, so it was destined that this emergency surgery was not simple.

Another homicide case of the same type, Qi Zion led the serious crime team was naturally busy.

After talking to Mr. Xing, he arranged to bring the civilian police to stand by at the hospital, and then left on his own.

Until the time on the phone screen jumped to just after 12:00 a.m., the corridor again sounded panicked footsteps, and a few seconds later, a few people stumbled around the corner and ran over.

The first man and woman looked about forty or fifty years old, they looked sad, the woman's mouth kept screaming: "Taotao, where is my daughter Taotao?"

Mr. Xing hurriedly greeted them and led the crowd to the front of the resuscitation room.

The place, which was still spacious, became unusually crowded all of a sudden.

The woman cried and jumped in front of the door of the resuscitation room, tears like an uncontrolled faucet, not money to gush out.

The man, on the other hand, just halfway through Xing teacher's words indignantly grabbed the collar of his clothes and disliked the man to the back wall with force.

"I sent my daughter into your school with confidence, and this is how you fulfill your supervisory obligations? A good child, was stabbed, and is still in resuscitation, you return my daughter! Give me back my daughter!"

The whole building seemed to be echoing with the father's wailing.

The rest of the relatives and friends who followed the two to Jiangcheng City rushed forward to pull Guo Tao's father away, during which he was still consoling.

Although at the moment no matter what language is very pale, but Guo Tao has been lying in the resuscitation room, her parents must not be in trouble again.

Guo Tao's father slid off the ground, a big man who had been standing on the ground all his life, and now he was crying like a child.

The teacher Xing saw the situation is not good, the lips moved, but finally did not say anything, turned and slipped out of this corridor, the hands pinched the phone, it seems that should continue to press the school to solve the problem to go.

Another half hour has passed, and still no news has come out.

The people outside the rescue room have comforted Guo Tao's parents, now no news is the best news.

When their emotions finally eased a bit, Guo Tao's mother found Jiang Tianyu, who had been standing silently in the corner since a while ago, and she went up to greet her hoarsely and clutched the young girl's hand: "Are you Tao Tao's good friend? Did you find out she was stabbed? Good boy, auntie thank you."

Jiang Tianyu shook her head in a small way, saying that she only accompanied a trip to the hospital, and that someone else really found Guo Taotao.

Guo's mother sniffed and lifted her eyes to look at the police a few steps away, after swallowing her saliva or patted her hand: "No matter what, thank you."

And the police who were left here did not go forward, have been standing in place, should be waiting for Qi Ziang to bring people back before questioning Guo Tao's parents.

I don't know if it's because of too much anxiety or what, Guo Tao's mother just pulled Jiang Tianyu to chat up, intermittently also said a lot of Guo Tao's childhood matters.

The woman was haggard and had to hold on to her appearance, Jiang Tianyu also felt saddened.

The woman's state is gradually getting better.

"Tao Tao she ah, in fact, since childhood is not very good, senior year her father and I even think she can not get into college! I never thought that ah, she gave us both such a big surprise."

"Since she went to college, this child has not used her family to worry much, she has a good personality, you must have seen this."

Nodding, Jiang Tianyu didn't mince her words of goodwill, "Indeed, Guo Tao, as the president of our club, takes care of everyone."

"She's always had a lot of friends." Should be thinking of something sad again, the woman's eyes once again became slightly red, lowering her eyes to look at her cell phone screen with a sad expression.

She stretched her neck to glance twice and found that the other party was looking at Guo Tao's photos in her circle of friends.

Guo's mother must love her daughter very much, almost every daily status is related to Guo Tao.

This is the conclusion Jiang Tianyu came to after following the circle of friends for a while next to her.

Seeing her interest, Guo's mother suddenly came back to life, pointing to the photos in her circle of friends, each one almost doing a little explanation.

The woman's hand didn't stop moving, she kept scrolling down, and the time shown in the circle of friends came to the year when Guo Tao finished her college entrance exams.

Suddenly, Jiang Tianyu's eyes were attracted to one of the photos.

It was the first half of August after Guo Tao's entrance exam, the girl was smiling brightly at the camera than yeah.

Looking at the background, it should be some kind of scenic spot, and there are quite a few people coming and going.

She slowly squinted her eyes, the surface well concealed the inner waves of shock.

Because in this photo, Guo Tao behind the few faces are not clear and seem to be talking and laughing in a few people, she actually saw a familiar face.

The one carrying the brown shoulder bag should be Sun Tianyang.

The one who raised his hand to shade the sun was Wang Pan Pan.

And the one who was talking sideways with the two was the former president of the street dance club.

Could it be that the link between the victims that the police have been struggling to find is this photo?

Then the question arises.

Who was the one who took this photo of Guo Tao at that time?

"Auntie, this is the time when Guo Tao just graduated from high school, right?" Jiang Tianyu very natural with a question to stop the woman wanted to continue to slide the hand.

"Isn't it? That year in August." Guo's mother's eyes were full of love, and her fingers gently brushed Guo Tao's smiling face in the photo: "At that time, she had just learned that she had been admitted to Jiangcheng Normal College not long ago, and the notice had not yet arrived in the mail."

"Wow, those are her high school classmates?" She asked again.

"No, it is and you a university oh, you have not seen?" The other side seems to be a little confused, but soon released: "Right, your university at least three or four thousand people it, do not know is not unusual."

“When Tao Tao knew she got into this university, she went online to add a group of alumni, and met a few friends in it and went out together.”

“I told her that there are seniors who have been in college for a year or two, and there are freshmen who will be enrolled with her, so her father and I didn’t hold her back and let her go out with these kids for two days.”

“Her father always thinks, more friends more road, and is to go to school abroad, more acquaintances also avoid suddenly to a strange environment feel uncomfortable.”

“That’s very nice of you.” Jiang Tianyu’s compliment seemed very sincere, and she extended her finger to point out the people behind Guo Tao: “Do you recognize them?”

Guo’s mother shook her head gently, her tone somewhat lost: “The child is older and less willing to let me get involved in her affairs, so I won’t ask if she doesn’t say.”

“However, now I am sometimes still angry with your uncle for letting her go out blindly back then, and I don’t know if she froze outside or ate badly, Tao Tao was sick for a long time after she came back and almost missed the start of school.”

Jiang Tianyu heard this, untraceable raised an eyebrow, and then look at the photo, the heart has a plan.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

Soon, several of Guo Tao’s family members surrounded the doctor.

This time, naturally no one paid attention to the phone that just fell to the ground accidentally.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

But once you look up, you hit the gaze of the police not far away, the other side seems to feel some surprise.

But through the way Qi Ziang treated her, the police obviously understood what, so did not make a sound.

Jiang Tianyu bared her teeth and smiled at him, but the person made a slight frost for two seconds.

At this time, the ear came the serious voice of the doctor, said the operation was successful, at least Guo Tao did not die.

But it does not mean that she is out of danger, every second of the next minute, Guo Tao is in the robbery. After being transferred to the intensive care unit, it is not possible to say whether you can spend the night peacefully.

Hearing this, the parents of the Guo family once again slid to the ground with weak legs.

A variety of complex emotions mixed into their hearts, so that the two completely do not know what to do, can only hug and cry, as a way to quickly relieve the chest that almost to diffuse anxiety.

There was a good deal of turmoil again.

Until Jiang Tianyu out of the hospital inpatient building, it was already more than four in the morning.

The cold breeze of early autumn is drilling into one's neck, and last night because of the rush to get out, she only had a thin sunscreen on her body that couldn't be thinner.

Suddenly, the parking lot in front of the piece, a car lights began to flash incessantly, in the hazy night looks more or less spooky.

After vaguely seeing the license plate number, Jiang Tianyu trotted to the side of the car with a shrinking neck, without much hesitation, pulled open the back seat door and sat in.

The first thing that happened was that Qi Ziang and Lu Li were sitting in front of her.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

"I'm not out in good health." She skimmed her lips, and then asked, "How is the progress on Officer Lu's side?"

Qiziang listened to the two of them, you and I sentence, can not help but look at the girl's face along the rearview mirror, there is not obvious doubt in the bottom of the eyes.

These two people, when did the communication between each other become so natural?

But after seeing each other with a hands around the posture of trying to maintain the body temperature, subconsciously reached out and unscrewed the car's air conditioning, and soon this side of the modest space became warm.

Lu Li is 'tch' a: "Ren students sincerely stimulate me, this is the third case, we who do not know the killer's cautious ah? What progress can be made? The scene is clean."

"This time, didn't he miss the mark?" The look of contempt on Jiang Tianyu's face was conspicuous.

"Hey ..... you little girl piece .....", Lu Li was about to open his mouth to retort, but was interrupted by a cold sudden dislike of the phone screen on his nose.

He tactically leaned back, Qiziang reacted quickly to pick up that phone.

The two old men lowered their eyes one after another and looked at the picture on the screen.

"Where did you get that?" After a few seconds, Qi Ziang raised his eyes to look at her.

Jiang Tianyu nudged her mouth in the direction of the hospitalization department outside the window, then shook her head somewhat smugly: "I told you a long time ago, I can see things that you cops can't even see by scratching your heads."

As the victim's family, Guo's mother will indeed face the police directly sooner or later, but not necessarily fully open to talk with them about some seemingly ordinary and insignificant trivial matters.

It is not that the police will not eventually find the actual connection between the three victims, but it is not guaranteed to take long.

Because even if the police and Guo's parents mentioned Sun Tianyang, Wang Panpan these two names, they probably just feel strange, even if they take out a photo for them to identify, probably nothing.

The photo is mainly Guo Tao, plus the time is also so long, the two families can not identify is normal.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the screen, and Qiziang noticed the person next to Sun Tianyang and Wang Panpan: "You know him?"

"The former president of the street dance club, this year has been a senior, I heard that recently went out to internship, in school basically can not see." Jiang Tianyu stretched his neck over to take a look and casually responded.

"Wait! Sun Tianyang, Wang Panpan, Guo Tao ..... assuming that the connection of the three victims is this photo, then is not the other one is now also targeted by the killer?!" Lu Li suddenly recognized the seriousness of the matter.

Qiziang pinched his brow and faintly said, "Not only her, but also this one who took a picture of Guo Tao."

After speaking, he returned the phone and gave a special instruction, "Send this photo to me."

Jiang Tianyu nodded, opened WeChat and entered the man's phone number, and immediately a contact with a blank nickname and blank avatar popped up.

Soon, Qi Ziang passed the friend application, and she also passed the photo smoothly.

In the end, it was the first time she had added the other party's WeChat after crossing three bodies.

The first time I saw the photo, I was able to see it.

The inside of this person is really as uninteresting as the surface, life is largely apart from work, completely never had a happy private life.

"Lu Li, later on you go up and make initial contact with Guo Tao's parents, I'll go back to the bureau first, Brother Zhou is guarding from above." Qiziang as if he did not notice the small movements and micro expressions of the person in the back seat, began to deploy the next work.

Lu Li knew that he was going back to investigate the photo, so very dry response, turned his head and got out of the car.

When the car door was closed, Qi Ziang once again glanced at the situation behind through the rearview mirror, and then raised the corners of his lips somewhat helplessly and started the car.

When Jiang Tianyu was sent back to the temporary rental house of Ren Yumeng's parents, it was already light.

The old couple didn't seem to have slept well all night and couldn't wait to rush out of the bedroom when they heard her open the door.

After repeatedly confirming that she was okay, Ren Yumeng's mother chanted and urged her to go rest, but she turned around and walked towards the kitchen.

He felt sorry for her, but Jiang Tianyu felt he had to speed up, so that he could return the real Ren Yumeng to them.

After experiencing so many things in the past few days, she felt that Ren's father and mother, who had been her daughter's solid support, also especially needed a loving hug from Ren Yumeng.

So after eating the usual breakfast made by her mother and making sure the old couple were asleep, Jiang Tianyu once again left the door gingerly.

She went straight to the direction where the activity center was located, and quickly walked into the school gate of Jiangcheng Normal College.

Soon, she pushed open the big iron door of the secondary building, after some surprised looking at a few familiar figures standing in the corridor at this time, are the members of the street dance club.

Those few people naturally also noticed her at the first time, so they opened their mouths to say hello.

“Why are you guys .....

” Jiang Tianyu stepped forward and wanted to ask them why they didn’t go in, but the next second she saw the two shiny iron chain locks hanging outside the practice room and dressing room doors.

“What’s the situation?”

One of the members of the community opened his mouth and responded, “It is said to be the school’s intention, and I do not know if it has anything to do with the matter of Guo Tao yesterday, I have called Mr. Xing, I think he should come over soon.”

“When the time comes, let’s ask .....

” another person took over the conversation.

“If you want me to say, we’d better go first, the school’s fears are justified. This street dance club keeps having accidents, and I’m not going to lie, I feel a chill down my spine standing in the hallway right now!”

“You’re a wimp, if you didn’t do anything wrong, why would you be afraid of a ghost knocking on the door?”

“You mean Sun Tianyang and Guo Tao did something wrong?”

“How to lift the bar .....

Listening to the bickering of several people in her ears, Jiang Tianyu did not get involved, but walked straight to the front of the practice room and looked inside through the gap between those graffiti on the glass door.

Suddenly, the phone she was cupping in her hand shook.

Lowering her head and opening the screen, it was two WeChat messages sent by Qiziang.

After reading carefully for two seconds, Jiang Tianyu's face had a subtle change of expression.

Then she put the phone away and put it back in her pants pocket, and when she turned around to face the street dance club again, her expression had returned to normal.

In the presence of the natural is not aware of any abnormal.

Jiang Tianyu looked as normal to deal with two questions, but in his mind could not help but recall the information received just now.

The police have found the former president of the street dance club Cheng Shuo off campus, but the other party in the face of interrogation, but chose not to say anything, claiming that only the four of them went out to play.

As for the one who took the photo for Guo Tao, he flatly said it was a passerby.

Not to mention and Cheng Shuo face to face Qi Ziang, even across a cell phone Jiang Tianyu in seeing these, know that the other party is lying.

There must be something fishy about it.

This side of the person found, it is possible to have successfully avoided another murder case.

The first case of the crime scene is located in Hongshan, Jiangcheng City.

All that has happened is like a circle, everything seems to have returned to the original point at the beginning.

The police should now be in the thick of the investigation, the year that day in the Hong Mountain, in the end what happened.

“Teacher Xing!”

One of them shouted so that Jiang Tianyu managed to return to the soul, she raised her eyes to look, really a few hours ago also saw the oil head appeared in front.

The man's gait is a bit hobbled, perhaps because last night did not get rest, the face looks a bit unattractive.

He wobbled to the front of the group, expression unpleasant: "I have not informed in the group? From today onwards, the secondary building is temporarily closed, you guys are good, a bunch of associations pile up like running over to ask me why."

"I said it's the university's intention, after this period of time is not open."

"Early in the morning, people are coming one after another, I owe you guys in my last life?"

Mr. Xing mouth cursing, but the action is not slow from the waist to untie a set of keys, the action is slow to open the door to the locker room: "Who was it that called me before?"

"Not to go in to get something? Give you five minutes to get it, hurry up and leave!"

"Thank you, Mr. Xing ~" the attitude of the people lazy and do not go to say thank you, in the other side can not see the angle, one after another showed a look of contempt, probably think this person purely with a chicken feather as an arrow.

They one after another into the locker room, Xing teacher is left in the corridor, the hands of the phone indeed did not break, it seems very busy.

"Didn't you say that Guo Tao was stabbed here yesterday? How come I don't see any blood on the floor?" A male member of the community opened his mouth, with a somewhat hangdog attitude.

The female member walking beside him suddenly stretched out her hand and gave him a heavy push, frowning and reprimanding: "Can you behave? You're saying it on purpose to scare people, aren't you?"

The next person also opened his mouth: "I heard that last night the police took away the evidence, and then withdrew the cordon, the school leaders overnight to find a few cleaning to clean up this."

"Tch, it's really enough to be afraid of things." The male member of the community at the beginning sneered.

After a few people went to their lockers, slowly taking things out, and somehow the topic shifted to the man who was on the phone outside at the moment.

"Recently I really see his face feel disgusting, to our school but more than a year, right? This activity center is also in charge of half a year? Since he came to force things can really be a lot." Male members of the community cursed softly.

"Is not it? Thursday deactivation of this building seems to be his proposal, we used to be able to come every day to organize club activities!"

“By the way, let me tell you, how much of a dog he is!” The female member who just spoke gave a wink to the crowd and lowered her voice to the lowest: “The reason why our club decided to go to Hong Mountain Camping to do group building is that the vice president listened to his suggestion to set the grin.”

“I remember that night was quite late, I came to pick up sneakers, he and the vice president in the practice room next to chat to come.”

“Oh, right.” The male member also nodded: “I also remember that the president did not agree at first, and then we voted by a show of hands, and the president could not help.”

“Is not it?!” The female member bit her lip in indignation: “Then Sun Tianyang’s sh!t happened, the police came to investigate, and he said we went out camping without reporting to the school!”

Several people seem to be getting more and more excited, but they also remember to try to control the volume so as not to be heard by the people wandering around the corridor on the phone.

The other side has not been very squeaky Jiang Tianyu is now standing in front of Ren Yu Meng’s locker, a thoughtful face.

Suddenly, she spoke out in confusion: “Just now Mr. Xing seemed to say that many people from other clubs also called him, it seems that our club is not the only one who wants to come and get something, but how come I don’t see anyone else?”

The rest of the people in the room thought for a short while, but the male member was the first to open his mouth: “Who knows, maybe he’s holding something bad right now, after all that happened to our street dance club, he wouldn’t be thinking of suggesting to the school to cancel our club, right?”

The moment this was mentioned, everyone was a bit panicked.

No, Jiang Tianyu’s frown has not been relaxed since he entered the locker room, and the feeling of uneasiness in his heart has become heavier and heavier.

The side of the head to look at the locker room door, this time has no longer that wandering back and forth figure, and filtered to the house after this busy voice, the corridor is actually silent scary.

In her intention to step out to check the situation, the phone in her pants pocket suddenly rang up.

She took out the phone and glanced at the caller ID, taking advantage of the heated discussion of the people around her, she pressed the answer button and brought the phone to her ear.

“Where are you now?” Qiziang’s slightly urgent voice came from the other side.

She, in turn, returned without haste, “Activity center sub-floor.”

The person on the other side of the phone, after hearing this answer, breathed obviously stagnant, but the other party’s reaction is considered fast, continued in a deep voice: “We found that two years ago there was a case of accidental death in Hongshan, the time was the day Guo Tao and several of them went on a trip.”

“The reason is that the deceased broke into the no-go area set up by the scenic spot, the results of the accident investigation that year, the deceased was judged to be an accidental fall.”

“The family of the deceased afterwards also admitted the result, took the scenic area compensation money, this thing is over.”

“By the way, the deceased surnamed Xing, called Xing Fei. Her father you should all know, called Xing Dong.”

“If Xing Fei did not die, this year should be your school music department sophomore a student.”

The hand that squeezed the phone used some strength, Jiang Tianyu tried to calm her emotions, the face looked unhurriedly moved to the window.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

At this time, the other end of the phone Qi Ziang also finally found out the seriousness of the matter, listening to the voice should have been running up: “Where is he?”

“A minute ago was in the corridor, right now at my location is no one in sight.”

“How many of you are there now?”

Jiang Tianyu counted, his voice still did not let others notice any abnormalities: “Count me six.”

“But last night the school sealed off the secondary building, other clubs wanted to come in to get something, Mr. Xing did not agree, only a few of us.”

“No wonder the family didn’t make trouble after Xing Fei’s death in a fall two years ago.” Even though the situation is already very bad at this moment, but Xing Zion’s voice is still low and firm that can calm the heart: “It seems that Xing Dong is clear who his daughter actually went out with, and he blames everything on Guo Tao and others.”

“The police did not receive the relevant alarm at that time, the scenic area side also does not have the relevant critical situation records, I presume that after the incident those people saw the situation directly ran away.”

Eyes faintly flash, Jiang Tianyu uncertain with tongue gently against the upper jaw: “He today ..... will be because you found Cheng Shuo?”

Qiziang slightly silent for two seconds, but also did not have the slightest concealment of ‘um’ a sound.

“I suspect that he wants to exchange people for people!”

To put it bluntly, is to use these six in their locker room, for Cheng Shuo.

The left hand that has been hanging at the side of the body slowly clenched into a fist, Jiang Tianyu took a deep breath, not like an ordinary person instantly collapsed, instead, the voice became more and more quiet two: “How long will it take you to get there?”

“The police station about five minutes, I ..... fifteen minutes.”

Along with the sound of the man’s speech, she vaguely heard the sound of sirens ringing on the other side of the phone.

“Okay, I’ll wait for you.” Jiang Tianyu said softly: “Until then, I will try to stabilize.”

As for stabilizing what, she did not explicitly say, perhaps it was the emotions of several students, or perhaps it was Xing Dong’s emotions.

The words fell, the two ends of the phone are very tacit understanding, did not end this call.

The phone is tucked back into his pocket, and when he turned around again, everyone else was already packed up and ready to go. She silently followed behind them and walked to the corridor that was usually rather dim.

“Fvck?!” The overactive male member of the club was sharp-eyed and hadn’t gone two steps out before he noticed that the only large iron door that could be exited from the sub-floor had been hung with a chain lock from the inside.

“What the hell? Xing Dong is crazy, right? Not just get him over here early in the morning to pick up something? As for not so much?”

“You guys are looking for me?” Just at this moment, a slightly bizarre male voice came from behind the crowd.

Several people quickly turned their bodies back, and in the next second, the female members of the community actually let out an ear-piercing scream.

Only to see Xing Dong is smiling and standing a few meters away from them, carrying a chain lock in one hand and a gun in the other!

At this moment, the black muzzle of the gun was pointing straight at the crowd, and the man’s expression was more than a bit of abnormal madness.

“Are you guys trying to find another exit? Unfortunately, the stairway to the upper floor and the safety exit at the end of this corridor are both locked by me.” As Xing Dong spoke, he raised his chin at the dressing room next to his own, “Don’t be afraid, I’m not going to eat anyone.”

The woman beside Jiang Tianyu was immediately frightened and cried out, and the others were no better than her, all of them with their legs wobbling, unable to say a complete word.

Seeing this, Jiang Tianyu took a deep breath and then opened her mouth: “Teacher Xing this is the meaning of wanting us to go back again?”

Hearing her speak, Xing Dong’s head moved slightly to look over.

As their eyes met in the air, the air in the entire corridor seemed to be completely drained at this moment.

The rest of the people just felt that a century had passed.

Finally, Xing Dong opened his mouth: “Yes, I want you to go back again.”

“I don’t want to go back, I want to get out, let us out!!!” The male member with the worst mouth before broke down instantly, shouting while turning his head and running towards the direction of the main door of the sub-building.

Bang!

The sound of gunshots in this deep corridor is very impactful, followed by the boys' heartbreaking howls of pain.

Jiang Tianyu's pupils shrink, looking at just hit the calf, now is rolling around on the ground, the face of the deeper the expression of a few points.

She took two steps forward and bent down to take a cursory look at the other party's injuries, and did not hurt the vital organs.

The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the actual situation. Stay here all want to eat gun children?

The crowd was Jiang Tianyu's words in time to recall the mind, the other two boys rushed forward to help help the person up.

Then, not daring to delay for a moment, everyone clung to the wall, one by one, and quickly returned to the locker room.

Jiang Tianyu did not care what Xing Dong, who was slowly following behind them, thought, as soon as she entered the locker room, she first took care of the wound of the male member who had been shot, so as not to lose too much blood and cause shock.

I don't know if this moment from her outburst of aura shocked the crowd, this time the remaining four people have taken her as the backbone, vaguely around her scattered stand in various places.

The next second, Xing Dong also entered the locker room, not slow to close the door, the last chain lock in the hand hung on the door.

Seeing this, the female member of the community who had been sobbing in a low voice once again let out a cry: "Am I going to die ..... woo woo woo woo ....."

"It won't die." Jiang Tianyu came up to her side and lifted her hand to gently pat the other woman's back.

"How do you know we won't die? Look at my leg, it's already going to be ruined, right? It hurts so much .....!" The injured boy did not have the good grace to yell low, but because the emotion is too excited and involved in the injury, instantly face white, forehead full of fine beads of sweat.

"Mr. Xing, if our street dance club has offended you in the past, I hope you can forgive the small man. No matter what, we are not guilty to death, right?" Some of them begged for forgiveness, regardless of the circumstances.

Xing Dong's response to this was an indifferent smile, and after turning around twice near the door, he finally sat down on the wide leather bench in the center of the room.

Seeing that he did not respond, the member who had just spoken wanted to continue to open his mouth to say something, but was stopped by a gaze from Jiang Tianyu.

The member's lips moved, but eventually retreated back to the corner.

Xing Dong seemed to find their state very funny, but also not annoyed, look at them quiet, he held up a gun to signal the crowd lined up, neatly blocked in front of the only window in the house.

Behind everyone is the dark blue curtains used to block the view of the outside world, the people around them are so nervous that Jiang Tianyu can even feel the tremors coming from the curtains.

"Do you all have your cell phone notes on you?" Xing Dong opened his mouth and asked in a light tone.

Seeing them nodding and fumbling to pull out the phone from their bodies ah, he immediately showed a smile of satisfaction, slightly raised the muzzle: "Then what are you waiting for? Quickly call the police ah!"

Hearing this, the guys couldn't help but look at each other, and the member who begged for mercy just now followed as if to show his loyalty: "Teacher Xing, what are you talking about? How could we possibly call the police? We won't call the police at all, right?"

After saying that, he also took the lead in throwing his cell phone against the ground.

The remaining three people saw this and hurriedly followed suit, bending down and throwing the phone out with force, fearing that if they were a step late, they would lose their lives.

Even now is leaning on the corner, the spirit has been a little blurred by the pain of the mouth of the male members of the community, also struggling to throw the phone in the pocket not far away.

Xing Dong dropped his eyes, to everyone's surprise, the muscles on his cheeks even began to twitch slightly.

Suddenly, he stood up from the wide bench and walked back and forth in the locker room with manic strides.

Afterwards, he yanked the girl who had been crying in a low voice and pressed the muzzle of his gun hard against the other girl's temple. Do not understand the words?! Call the police ! ! ! !"

As he spoke, a small 'click' sound rang in the crowd's ears, it was the sound of the gun's safety being opened.

The girl was frightened almost can not stand, snot and tears paste a face not to say, legs are also weak, uncontrollable a strong downward slide.

At this critical moment, a clear female voice suddenly came from the side: "I report!"

Xing Dong seems to have regained a little bit of sanity, still dragging the female member of the community in his hand, turning his head to look at her conspiratorially, without saying a word.

Jiang Tianyu held up the phone and dialed 110 under the other party's nose.

"You're crazy!" The injured male member of the community struggled to stop her movements, but was ultimately a step too slow due to mobility problems.

At this time, the phone was already connected, Jiang Tianyu thought clearly and concisely explained the current situation, and accurately reported the address.

She believes that the 110 police center will soon be able to pass the information to Qi Ziang, with the other party's ac.umen, should be able to analyze the situation and start to set up the best rescue plan.

"It's over, now we're all finished ....." the short-mouthed boy let out a long cry to the sky, squeezing out two tears from the corners of his eyes: "Ren Yumeng, really k!lled by you!"

The rest of the people heard this, the fear in their hearts a few points more.

Everyone is bl00dless, hands and feet cold, breathing poorly as if the next second will pass out.

Who knows, but Xing Dong let go of the hand tugging the female member of the collar, allowing the other party to fall to the ground.

He walked slowly and with interest to Jiang Tianyu's body and shook the muzzle of his gun in front of her chin: "You're good, I really did see you right."

"Why me?" Jiang Tianyu sort of asked the long-standing doubt for the original director Yu Meng.

If you k!ll someone, you k!ll someone, if you want to take revenge, why drag a completely innocent person into it?

Xing Dong's expression became somewhat fantastic, for a good half day before he seemed to have &3034 remember 0; sighed and said, "Count your bad luck."

"I badly need someone to use to divert the police's attention and the direction of their investigation, and you appeared at just the right time and place."

Speaking of which, he nodded Jiang Tianyu's head with the cold gun, "Speaking of which, I haven't formally thanked you yet."

"By the way, I'll give you a piece of advice well, if after today, you still have the future, remember to stay away from those whose hearts have long been blackened, otherwise how to be dragged to death by him, you don't even know."

This refers, of course, to Sun Tianyang.

It seems that he firmly believes that the death of his daughter Xing Fei, Sun Tianyang and others are the culprits.

However, Jiang Tianyu did not continue to discuss this topic with him meaning, instead, after getting the answer dropped her eyes and stopped talking.

After all, from the other side's point of view, she should not know too much inside information, if a mistake caused this person's alarm, will bring very big trouble to the police's upcoming action.

Time passed by minute by minute.

Until two or three minutes later, Jiang Tianyu did not hear the sound of sirens coming from outside, so she secretly breathed a sigh of relief.

It seems that Qiziang received the 110 alarm and made the corresponding adjustment.

From the time they found locked in the sub-floor to now, should have been more than five minutes, think the police force of the district police station has been in place, but did not make any noise, directly exempted from the possibility of alarming the killer and make it suspicious.

If Xing Dong feels that the police arrived at the wrong time, with his brain must be able to figure out exactly what is going on.

In this way, it would be the same as indirectly exposing Jiang Tianyu to the criminals.

Obviously, Qiziang did not want to see this scene.

What the police wanted and had to do was to get all the students trapped in the secondary building, all safely out.

Finally, after another unknown amount of time, the phone on Xing Dong suddenly rang.

He glanced at the caller ID and pressed the answer button somewhat proudly. I don't know if it was because the locker room was too quiet at this time, but the voice coming out of the receiver was so loud that everyone could hear it.

The voice on the other side of the phone is not any of the people Jiang Tianyu is familiar with, it should be an experienced negotiator sent by the police.

When the negotiator asked what the demands were, Xing Dong didn't continue to beat around the bush, but said bluntly, "I want Cheng Shuo."

"Just give me Cheng Shuo, and I'll let everyone go."

Jiang Tianyu's eyebrows jumped and raised her eyes to look at the man sitting directly in front of her on the wide bench, that sense of unease once again haunted her.

So crisp?

Why?

Xing Dong gave her the feeling as if he was in a hurry.

The negotiator across the table seemed to be trying to stall for time, but the man didn't give him that chance and gave a sarcastic laugh: "You have five minutes, if you don't deliver Cheng Shuo to my sight, then you can die together."

"Six for one, I've earned it."

"Injustice has its head, Mr. Xing does not want the real culprit who killed your daughter to remain at large, right?" The negotiator remained motionless, trying to use Xing Fei to awaken the hatred in the other party's heart.

As long as he still wanted Cheng Shuo, the other people in the Jiji sub-building were still safe for the time being.

"Get away with it? Oh ....." Xing Dong laughed again some meaningful: "This kind of day and night tormented by the pain of hatred, how can only I experience it myself?"

"You as police officers might as well guess, if I put out the news after killing six people, saying that it was all caused by Cheng Shuo ....."

Six children would have twelve parents, and if they all became as heartless as Xing Dong, just thinking about it would be enough to send chills down one's back.

“Now you only have four minutes and forty-five seconds left.” The man’s low and eerie voice tone was like a life charm: “Also, I advise you police not to waste energy looking for any sniper points, with extra time, why not send Cheng Shuo over earlier.”

Just then, Jiang Tianyu finally heard a rather inconspicuous ‘drop’ sound, and a possibility gradually surfaced in his head.

The other side had a bomb on them!

If the sniper had rashly pulled the trigger at this point, there was a good chance that it would have detonated the bomb, thus sending everyone up together!

- Tips

0 8 minutes read

No, we can’t continue to delay any longer!

Do we have to take advantage of the fact that Xing Dong is on the phone with the police and quickly shout out that he may have a bomb strapped to his body?

This is not safe, if you really anger the other side, instantly detonate the bomb will be irreparable.

“You still have four minutes and fifteen seconds.” At this point, Xing Dong once again counted down to death to the negotiator who kept saying something on the other side of the phone.

I don’t know if it was because he was a little too pleased with himself, the muzzle of the gun that was originally aimed straight at a few students actually moved slightly to the side by half an inch.

Now is the time!

In the locker room before the rest of the people did not react, she a flying body and rushed to sit on the phone Xing Dong in Kuan Deng lunged!

Several members only felt a black shadow flashing before their eyes, and when they looked, they saw that the two men had fallen from the kwandeng to the ground, tangling and tearing each other.

At this time, Jiang Tianyu saw the opportunity to use his legs to clamp the neck of Xing Dong, straight strangled each other breathing difficulties, an old face in a few seconds rose into a purple-red.

And her hands are not idle, focusing on the right hand of the man holding the gun, forcefully breaking the finger used to pull the trigger, with the body to block the other hand the possibility of touching the bomb switch, not dare to relax for a moment.

Xing Dong of course will not give up, he saw how can not break free from the body looks thin girl's restraint, simply clenched his teeth and waved with all his might the other hand holding the phone, fist to flesh to the other side of the back smashed.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

The muffled sound of sore teeth resounded throughout the locker room, and the scene in front of them directly scared the rest of them silly, and they didn't know how to react for a while.

I just feel that one after another uninterrupted smashed in Ren Yu Meng back iron fist, must be very painful.

Will the bones be broken? Will not be internal injuries, right? This is if the person killed how to do?

On the contrary, Jiang Tianyu is almost biting blood out of her gums, but she is as if she is oblivious to the intense pain in her back, silently counting in her heart: "..... forty-five, forty-six ..... fifty-seven ..... seventy-one, seventy-two ....."

Finally, the hand that held the gun loosened a little, she hurriedly and forcefully threw the gun into the deep crevice below the locker, completely eliminating the possibility that the other party could get the gun again.

The legs continue to force for another ten seconds, until sure that Xing Dong is indeed fainted, she was relieved, hard to swallow back the fishy sweetness to the throat.

The police are still calling out from the other end: "Teacher Xing? Don't you be impulsive!"

"Teacher Xing?!"

"Teacher Xing?!"

Apparently, the sudden sound of the fight over here startled the police as well.

One hand held up the phone, Jiang Tianyu's other hand was not idle, quickly untied the man's jacket, after seeing the line hovering inside and still counting down to the small electronic memory screen, immediately shouted at the phone: "Do not shoot!"

The other side obviously froze for a moment, and in the next second Qiziang's voice rang out, "Ren Yumeng? What's the situation?"

"I suspected that Xing Dong had a bomb on him, so I found the right opportunity to take him down, now you have two minutes and fifty seconds, this bomb is about to blow up!" Jiang Tianyu's tone is urgent, at this time has all but ignored the several people behind the 'bomb' in hearing the cries of the crumbling appearance of the mother.

"Did you bring the bomb disposal team?"

"Yes, now I'll let them force the door, it will take about two minutes." Qiziang even if his heart is anxious, his tone is not half panicked, with a power that can soothe the heart.

Jiang Tianyu's eyes flickered as she calculated the chances of success if she came to defuse the bomb with the help of a phone call to the police for off-site guidance.

But this dangerous idea was quickly rejected by herself.

If she was Jiang Tianyu at this time, she would have been willing to give it a go, and the worst outcome would have been to use her body to do her best to minimize the damage caused by the explosion to others.

But she is now Ren Yumeng, outside there are looking forward to the safe return of their daughter's father and mother Ren, she can not make this selfish choice.

Gritting her teeth, she barked, "You have one and a half minutes to come in, no matter what you use! We have the wounded, to buy as much time as possible for him to move!"

"Breaking the window and door will be done at the same time, I will send someone to meet you outside the window, and the six of you can divide into two groups and take the next step of evacuation through the window and door respectively." Qiziang also did not dilly-dally and quickly began to assemble the SWAT team and the assault team.

Soon the sound of metal cutting and rubbing against each other came from outside the window, and almost at the same time, the yell of the police trying to forcefully break the door came faintly from the corridor outside.

Jiang Tianyu's side also got up and asked two relatively fit male members of the community to carry the wounded and wait quietly by the window, so that once the police succeeded in breaking down the door, the three of them would evacuate through the window.

She, on the other hand, forcefully dragged up the female member who was still crying and stood with another person on the east side of the locker room door, just waiting for the police to come in and start rushing out.

Clap!

Bang!

Two loud noises rang out one after another, Jiang Tianyu first pushed the two students in front of herself out along the already broken door panel with force, after which she quickly turned her head to look.

Seeing that the rescuers outside the window had safely moved the injured out, she let out a sigh of relief and also dove into the corridor.

At this moment, everything around them seemed to be slowed down, swept by people wearing different styles of police uniforms, while the three of them were struggling to run hard towards the light-permeable exit ahead.

“Forty-nine, forty-eight ..... forty-five, forty-four .....”

Jiang Tianyu had never felt that this corridor was this long.

Suddenly, a familiar figure brushed against her.

The line of sight uncontrollably followed the tall figure, and the other party happened to glance back at her and hastily extended a thumbs up at her.

At this moment, Jiang Tianyu suddenly understood the true meaning of the word ‘retrograde’.

Previously, she was the one carrying the gun towards the danger without a second thought.

Now, she has become the one who fights for the door of life.

The police are going forward in order to protect the lives and property of the people, and can only choose to use their mortal bodies to resist the countless viciousness.

And the masses of the struggle to move forward, in addition to so that they can live, but also in an effort to let the police do not have any worries, even if they can reduce the risk of a point, that is also good.

The company’s main goal is to provide a solution to the problem of the problem.

“Thirty-three, thirty-two, thirty-one ..... twenty-five!”

She only felt a white light flashed in front of her eyes, uncomfortable squinting, after staying there in front of probably just over an hour, she actually had a feeling of seeing the light of day again at the moment.

The female students on her body to the welcoming rescue workers, she quickly turned back to stare at the direction of the secondary building, the heart continued to silently count down.

“Ten, nine, eight, seven .....

“Three!”

“Two!”

“One!”

After waiting quietly for another two seconds with bated breath, finally, an excited cheer erupted first from the police team, “It’s done, the Qi team and they confirmed that it’s safe and the bomb has been successfully dismantled!”

This positive emotion seemed to be contagious, and even the students and teachers of the Teachers College, who were separated by several hundred meters, followed suit, shouting, clapping and jumping up and down.

The rest of the five people who were successfully rescued are now crying like idiots at the side of the ambulance, this feeling of happiness after the robbery, they probably do not want to experience it a second time in their lives.

In a short time, Qiziang and others led the assault team and bomb disposal team that had just rushed in and walked out of the sub-building.

The team of rescuers immediately behind them carried the still unresponsive Xing Dong on a stretcher.

The other’s hands and feet were handcuffed tightly to the steel stretcher, not giving it the chance to suddenly make a demon.

Lu Li took off his hood, took a big stride to Jiang Tianyu’s side and patted her shoulder quite vigorously: “Ren students, I really didn’t see that you still have these two skills?”

“The strength and timing of the control was really just right, if there were a few more seconds of strangulation at that time, this Xing Dong might have to hiccup.”

The corners of his mouth twitched slightly twice, Jiang Tianyu responded evasively, “I thought, after all, Mr. Xing is old, on the physical strength should not be very good it ..... happens that at that moment he was distracted by the negotiator, so he took a gamble.”

“Although the dangerous event can not be replicated, but I still have to warn you, this kind of action is extremely irresponsible to yourself, next time must not .....” Qi Ziang heard a fierce frown, and then not very polite to start a small class of safety education .

Jiang Tianyu looked like he accepted with a false heart, slightly lowered his head and did not stare at the tip of his shoes.

Qiziang empty mouth said half a day, after seeing the girl opposite even began to rub up the small stones on the ground with the soles of her shoes, a helpless face waved his hand: “Lu Li, you take people to follow to the hospital.”

Remember “Make sure Xing Dong regains his sanity before bringing people back to the bureau for a surprise interrogation.”

“And these few students, all together to the hospital to carefully do a full body examination, it is best to call the team’s psychologists also, to give them a timely psychological guidance.”

“When everyone is ready, make a statement one by one at the time of the crime.”

“Yes.” Lu Li answered, then curiously asked, “Qi team, you want to go back to the bureau?”

“Well, go back and continue to grind that Cheng Shuo.” Qi Ziang raised his eyebrows.

Just like what was said before, every victim and their families have the right to know the truth, and this applies to Xing Fei and Xing Dong as well.

What exactly happened in the no-go area for tourists in Hong Shan two years ago, can’t be vague like this.

Hearing this, Jiang Tianyu instantly took an arrow step forward: “I’m fine, I don’t need to go to the hospital, now I can go to the Municipal Public Security Bureau to cooperate with you to make a statement!”

Qiziang lifted his eyelids, as if he had seen through her little thoughts.

He did not squeal, but quickly raised his hand, and then pressed the little girl’s back not too lightly, not too heavily.

“Hiss .....” Jiang Tianyu’s five senses changed shape in pain at once.

“Good? Hmm?”

“ ..... ”

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 56 - Tips

0 8 minutes read

In the end, Jiang Tianyu reluctantly got on the bus to the hospital with the rest of the group.

The good thing is that the examination results show that this body only slightly flesh wound, after a few days of recuperation will be able to heal.

The case of Xing Dong's murder did not end up with any reversal.

The next day, Qi Ziang came to the hospital with his people.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

"Aigoo, you two officers, please sit down!" The mother of Ren is very enthusiastic to pull Qi Ziang and Lu Li to the sofa by the window, next to the father of Ren also warm attitude to open the mouth to say thank you for the rescue yesterday.

The two old men could not refuse.

The actual fact is that the actual person is not a person who is not a person who is not a person who is not a person.

Soon, only Jiang Tianyu on the bed and the two people sitting on the sofa and holding the big apple in their hands were left staring at each other.

Lu Li is also dry, opened his big mouth 'click', the apple in his hand lost a small half.

After the abundant and sweet juice burst in his mouth, he smiled, hitting the left leg of the one sitting next to him with his right leg: "Qi team, the apple given by the aunt is really sweet."

Qiziang expression some helpless, simply handed the one in his own hand also to the other.

Afterwards, his eyes fell on the girl who is now nibbling on the apple in small bites on the bed, deliberately opened his mouth: "Today over, mainly want you to recall the specifics of yesterday, make a statement, nothing wrong, the case will be closed in two days."

"Okay." Jiang Tianyu nodded obediently.

Between one question and one answer, this statement is quite smoothly done.

After confirming that there is no error in the above signature and pressed the handprint, she finally could not hold down the curious question: "Xing Dong left?"

"Things have come to a head, there is no need to insist, right?" Qiziang lightly responded, "And the footprints found around the crime scene of Sun Tianyang's death, has been successfully compared with Xing Dong's."

"I actually don't quite understand ....." Jiang Tianyu frowned: "Back then, if he had doubts about Xing Fei's death, why didn't he choose to call the police?"

"If the evidence related to Xing Fei and these people met to climb the mountain were submitted to the police, at the very least, it would not be so haphazard."

"About because the conclusion given by the accident group back then was that Xing Fei fell to his death accidentally, which made Xing Dong feel that justice was not credible."

In this regard, Qi Ziang also simply speculated: "This so-called revenge, he began to plan from Xing Fei's death."

"Two years ago, he was still working as a teacher in the local university in his hometown, resigned from his job and found a way to enter the Jiangcheng City Teachers College."

"Because of past work needs, he also roughly mastered some medical knowledge, so in the hands of the time to be so crisp."

"But we did have some surprises, when tracking the serial number of the gun Xing Dong used, we accidentally discovered the existence of an illegal underground trading ring in the city."

"The explosives he used also came from this gang, and when the time is ripe in a while, we will try to end these people in one pot."

"What about Cheng Shuo?" Jiang Tianyu asked again.

"Cheng Shuo also in our repeated interrogation accounted for the truth, according to him, that year is Wang Pan Pan proposed to go to the scenic no-go area, saying that the scenery there is good, the photos also look good."

"No one expected the accident just happened, Guo Tao and Xing Fei together lost their footing and slipped off the edge of the cliff."

"At that time, Guo Tao clinging to the side of the stone wall, Xing Fei is in her big child it, dragged half a day also has little result."

“The result does not know what happened, Xing Fei then suddenly fell.”

Finally Guo Tao was pulled up by the other three, several people saw the death of people completely dumbfounded, Guo Tao cried and said he did not want to go to jail.

Wang Pan Pan is also afraid that afterwards she proposed to come to the forbidden area of the matter was turned up, it echoed Guo Tao.

Sun Tianyang had fallen in love with Wang Panpan at that moment, so naturally agreed, Cheng Shuo also chose to go with the flow.

They did not expect that Xing Fei's family did not pursue the matter afterwards, and the matter was ostensibly turned over like this.

Hearing this, Jiang Tianyu crooked his head uncertainly: “Cheng Shuo is vaguely accusing, back then it was Xing Fei's sudden fall and Guo Tao related?”

Two people fell together, companions at the same time to rescue the two is very difficult, in order to survive, Guo Tao to make what kind of action is not strange.

For example, directly kicked down the person hanging on their legs.

“The parties who have experienced this incident are now the only ones who are conscious, of course, want to say anything.”

Qi Ziang does not deny, Lu Li on the side of the pick up: “Qi team has been from the year responsible for Xing Fei fall death case of the accident team over the relevant physical evidence and site traces of photos and so on, including a Sun Tianyang at the time the camera hanging on the chest captured, Guo Tao and Xing Fei accidental fall off the cliff when the video.”

“Although the video footage shakes violently, but a comprehensive judgment of all the evidence, Cheng Shuo's words are more credible.”

As for whether or not Guo Tao kicked people down in order to protect themselves, I believe that from the sentence ‘I don't want to go to jail’ after it was rescued, you can vaguely hear some clues.

The next thing you know, Qi Ziang and Lu Li went to the ward of the other students who had been abducted.

The case is solved, but there are still many things waiting for them to deal with the follow-up, it seems to be still busy feet.

Not long after the two left, Ren's father and mother came back.

After eating dinner, Jiang Tianyu felt her joints were rusting, so she begged the old couple to accompany her out for a couple of turns.

There was no reason for Ren's father and mother to disagree.

Jiang Tianyu stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling windows, letting the sunset sunlight fall on her young and energetic body as she walked to the wide corridor connecting the inpatient and emergency departments.

If she remembered correctly, the other side was the resuscitation room in the emergency center.

Just then, a sad cry suddenly came from not far away.

"Momo! My daughter!!!"

Then there was a chaos, several medical nurses rushed towards the direction of the resuscitation room, this battle naturally attracted a lot of onlookers.

At this time, there are two medical staff passing by here, Jiang Tianyu happened to hear the conversation between them.

"Is that the one who was just pulled in from the ICU for resuscitation?"

"Yes, is sent in when the heart was inserted into the knife of that little girl, strange poor, young ....."

"Eventually did not survive, my colleagues in the intensive care unit said that last night the girl briefly regained consciousness for a while, has been whispering something, but said not too clear."

"Seems to be what, wrong."

"Hey ..... life is unpredictable ah ....."

Two young young nurses said while shaking their heads, and soon walked away.

Jiang Tianyu frowned and glanced over there again, and a familiar feeling of vertigo suddenly came to her brain.

She forced herself to endure the discomfort and returned to the ward with Ren's father and mother, excusing herself that she wanted to rest and quickly closed her eyes after getting into bed.

Along with the aching feeling of her soul being pulled, the next second she lost all semblance of consciousness.

.....
Da, da, da.

The crisp sound of high heels on the ground echoed in the underground garage.

The first thing you need to do is to get a car key from your bag, and after you gently press it, the lights of a dark red car a few steps away flashed.

The main driver's door was opened, and flat shoes were taken out from under the seat next to her to change on, and her expression was tired as she pinched her eyebrows and did not start the car for a long time.

The north just entered November already has the shape of winter, outside the street trees have long been bald, sub-zero temperatures with the unforgiving north wind, so people can not help but wrap a thick jacket.

Jiang Tianyu sat there feeling a little cool, casually opened the car's air conditioning.

Put down the sun visor in front, open the small mirror above, she finally looked at the body's looks in detail for the first time.

Beautiful and beautiful.

This is the first adjective that flashed through the mind, a pure black big wave with atmospheric bright features, makeup is also on the gaudy side, more accentuating the original owner's own temperament.

This body is named Zhou Manting, currently working as a journalist, working in a fairly well-known network media company.

The company's headquarters is located in Jiangcheng City.

Speaking of which, she has been in this body for a day, but has not seen the police.

This situation is more or less a handful of people expect to live.

After taking a long breath, Jiang Tianyu started the car after returning to her senses. At this time, the phone screen she had just thrown on the passenger seat suddenly lit up.

Frowning, she reached out and took the phone. It was a short message from an unfamiliar number.

The text message was very brief, but the content inside was somewhat unpleasant.

After skillfully pressing the delete button and blacking out the number, Jiang Tianyu drove the car out of the underground garage of the company's building.

Because Zhou Manting's daily work is to dig deep into the latest and most valuable social news, and in the first time to write into a manuscript published in their company's major platforms on the public number, so many people have been offended over the years.

Even, some netizens disagree with her views will choose to directly abusive and personal attacks on her.

Like the kind of comments at the bottom of the public number are considered pedestrian, part of the harassing emails will be sent directly to her private email.

The more excessive is similar to the kind just now, from somewhere to get Zhou Manting's private phone number, and then to call or send text messages.

When I drove out of the underground garage, the sky outside had long become dark.

After driving on the wide road for a while, at an intersection, Jiang Tianyu watched as the yellow light ahead jumped to a red light.

So she slowly slammed on the brakes and steadily stopped the car at the front of the row of lanes.

Suddenly, Jiang Tianyu was stung by the light reflected from the rearview mirror and squinted slightly.

She raised her eyes through the rear-view mirror to take a closer look, the next second only to hear a 'bang' a loud sound, crimson car was instantly hit out a few meters away.

Even if the upper body is protected by seat belts, Jiang Tianyu's forehead still knocked on the steering wheel.

She was lying there, confused for several seconds.

"Oh my God, is this man okay?"

"Call an ambulance!"

"Shouldn't we call the police first?"

“Miss? Miss? Are you okay?”

With the sound of knocking on the car glass, the buzzing in her ears gradually dissipated, Jiang Tianyu raised her head and fumbled to open the car door, and reluctantly got out of the car.

Because of this sudden car accident, the surrounding area has fallen into a state of traffic jam.

There were unknown drivers honking their horns at the back of the road, and the sound of dripping was incessant, stimulating her brain, which had easily cleared up, to become chaotic again.

Raising her hand to cover the injury on her forehead, Jiang Tianyu tried her best to keep the last trace of lucidity.

Looking at the traces of the scene, she was driving a small car was hit out of a distance of four or five meters.

She was hit by a silver gray car, the appearance of some dilapidated, the front cover is now crumbling, the main driver's airbag also popped out.

I do not know because the front was hit, or because the car is too old quality worry, the back of the vehicle at first glance than Zhou Manting car condition is even more miserable a few points.

“This lady, are you okay?” The kind-hearted driver next to the brother came up and asked with concern.

Jiang Tianyu's eyes at this time slightly restored a little light, a small shake of the head, then pointed to the silver-gray car: “That inside the people .....

“Long ago got out, this is not .....” driver brother looked around the messy circle, and then raised his chin at the oblique front: “Well, that is not sitting there? “

She followed the other side of the line of sight looked over, just saw a bunch of people around the roadside somewhere, vaguely a man sitting on the teeth of the road.

The driver did not seem to have any obvious superficial injuries, but there are no problems inside who can say.

Just a glance, Jiang Tianyu frowned, because the state of the driver at this time really seems to be some abnormal.

Even sitting there, still some hands dancing, the expression on his face is very excited, from time to time will also ‘ha ha’ laugh on two.

Anyone who bends down to ask him a question, he does not have any response, like completely immersed in his own spiritual world.

“Sister? Sister?” The driver’s brother beside her opened his mouth again and called out, “We have called the police for you, don’t worry, when the traffic police come over later, I will testify for you!”

“It’s bad luck to park there for a red light and encounter this kind of sh!t!”

The driver’s brother is very for her to fight, talking in the way to light a cigarette, while inhaling a puff, while continuing to point in the direction of the driver: “Look at his virtue, is certainly drunk.”

“What kind of society is it now, still dare to drink and drive?”

Some off the car, Jiang Tianyu suspected that the original owner Zhou Manting’s body was hit into a mild concussion, forced to resist the feeling of nausea, not long after she saw from a short distance speeding, flashing red n lights of the police car.

Kam.

Some words indeed can not be said too full, ten minutes ago she was still sitting peacefully in the car thinking about the current has not seen the police.

The words at this moment ..... traffic police are also considered police.

After that the ambulance also arrived at the scene immediately after the police car.

The traffic police responsible for investigating the accident scene first held up a camera to the two vehicles involved in the accident and took pictures, then combined with the traces of the scene to analyze the cause of the accident.

Another traffic police officer went to Jiang Tianyu, who was being examined by a doctor, and after making sure she was still conscious, asked in detail about the accident.

Jiang Tianyu naturally described it truthfully.

Next to the very enthusiastic driver brother, has been interjecting and concurring.

The traffic police in understanding the situation after making a record, turned to look at the driver still sitting on the roadside: “According to the traces of the scene, and eyewitness accounts, the facts have been clear. What’s more, this traffic post has traffic probes on all sides, the other side rear-end full responsibility should be set.”

“Only ..... I see him this look, seems not quite right.”

Raised his eyes to look at a face full of suspicion of the traffic police, Jiang Tianyu again lowered his eyes, it seems that she secretly in the heart of the judgment is also right, that the driver may not be driving.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

There was a response from the other side soon.

At this time, the colleague who circled back and forth around the two accident cars suddenly stopped near the rear of Zhou Manting's crimson car and bent down with his camera to take a few photos carefully.

But soon, he let out a 'Huh', with a gloved hand to touch the eye has been disliked to the trunk of the car deformed.

From the seam there scraped out a little unknown substance, came to the nose and smelled, there was an indefinable taste straight to the brain.

“Zhou ..... Miss Zhou is right?” The traffic police officer with the camera around his neck opened his mouth curiously after determining her last name: “Do you have anything in this trunk?”

“What's inside looks like it's been crashed to me.”

Hearing this question, she cocked her head and thought back carefully, then left the vicinity of the ambulance and walked up to the car: “No. ....”

Before the words fell, it is not known whether the trunk lock was knocked out of order or for some other reason, 'click', the lid actually popped up directly by itself.

The next second, including Jiang Tianyu and the two traffic police, several lines of sight, all together fell on that inside.

“Ahhhhh ! ! ! !” The party has been very enthusiastic big brother after reacting, directly called out dolphin sound, the feet are even backed up.

Look at that look, as if you can't wait to instantly give birth to two wind and fire wheels, stepping on it can fly out two miles to go.

Two traffic police is also instant pupils dilated, because too shocked, even the mouth is slightly open state.

And just touched the rear of the unidentified substance of the little brother now is eager to take off the gloves on the spot, in situ performance of a road throw, even if he is fined fifty dollars he admitted.

Jiang Tianyu only feel more headache, raising his hand to hold his forehead, she tried to control the muscles of the cheeks, so that they twitch not too obvious.

Sure enough, what's supposed to come will always come.

"What's that?"

"People ..... are people, right? You see there are arms and legs ....."

"Dead people? How can a dead person dry bar like this?"

"You ask me, who do I ask?"

With the sound of whispering coming from his ears, Jiang Tianyu rolled his eyes implicitly and began to carefully measure up the corpse that was packed in Zhou Manting's trunk.

It's not really a corpse, to describe it rigorously, perhaps it should be called a 'dry corpse'.

The skin of the deceased looks very gray, the face has been completely deformed because of the loss of moisture under the skin, the torso and limbs are also to give a feeling of skin and bones, is now in a weird curled up position quietly lying there.

Perhaps because of the violent impact of the accident, the corpse was squeezed by force after a certain degree of damage, just that traffic police brother from the trunk gap to touch the unknown substance, should be from this body fell.

"....." only after instructing colleagues to call the district anti-drug team of the traffic police again pressed the intercom call button hanging on the shoulder: "That ..... again And the criminal investigation side contact."

I don't know what kind of day it is.

The city's major police forces were not expected to meet at this intersection late at night in early winter.

Late at night, because this intersection from the original simple vehicle accident scene quickly transformed into a crime scene involving human life, so the surrounding area is a red and blue light flashes, can be seen from a distance.

Traffic police department in order not to affect the public travel, sent down several teams of people, responsible for directing traffic in the vicinity.

Bang!

Bang Bang!

With several muffled sounds flung on the car door, Qiziang and Lu Li and other people from a police car down.

The two lifted the cordon and entered the scene of the crime, received a colleague handed over the gloves and footwear put on properly, while walking in the direction of the two cars, Qi Zion asked: "What is the specific situation?"

A side of the colleague who followed hurriedly opened his mouth back: "According to the traffic police side, the trunk with the body of the crimson car at this intersection waiting for the green light, by the speed of the car behind the silver gray car to rear-end."

"Right, the driver of the silver gray car has been taken back to the anti-drug side of the blood test, I heard that the possibility of du driving is very high."

"As for the driver involved in the case was also sent to the hospital first to do a physical examination."

Qiziang faintly 'hmm', came to the side of the forensic pathologist who was standing in front of the trunk bending over for the preliminary autopsy: "How?"

"The body's traits are very special, it looks like it should have been stored in an airtight and dry environment before." The forensic pathologist gently poked the skin of the corpse with his hand, expressing great satisfaction with the smooth and strong touch under his hand.

"Assuming that the deceased was put into a specific space after his death was confirmed, the time of death was probably at least two months."

"As for the cause of death . . . . ." the coroner stretched his voice, gently lifted the deceased's head with his hand and carefully stroked the back of his head before continuing to open his mouth: "There was an obvious impact injury to the back of the head and the skull was crushed and depressed. Suspected of being hit in the head caused by intracranial hemorrhage and died."

"But the specific cause of death will need to return to the bureau to conduct a more detailed autopsy to determine."

“Good.” Qiziang turned around and circled around the silver gray car twice, and finally turned back to the crimson car, from the open main driver’s door bent down to probe into the car.

The nostrils smelled the fragrance of women mixed with the smell of gasoline.

“Qi team, I just exchanged with two buddies from the traffic police side.” Lu Li ran back from a short distance away, his body shape has not yet stabilized it began to report.

“According to them, the driver of this crimson car may have hurt his brain when he was rear-ended, and seems to have completely forgotten that he had a body in his trunk.”

Speaking of which, he muttered to himself, “Is it just me? Or is there a special number of suspects this year who have injured their brains and are not conscious?”

Qiziang black eyes slightly narrowed, from the car out, straightened up and then rushed to Lu Li extended a hand: “The car driver’s identity information.”

The other party was busy handing him the police tablet computer.

Zhou Manting.

Looking at the beautiful face on the identity information page, Qiziang thought about it.

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 58 - Tips

0 8 minutes read

Jiang Tianyu looked at the doctor in front of him, facing the other side that kept opening and closing his mouth, emotions are a bit complicated.

The person who keeps turning into one person after another, always seems to be the strong smell of sterile water between the nose, and the serious deep blue in the eyes.

Suddenly, she felt a little bit like vomiting, so she subconsciously raised her hand to cover her mouth.

The doctor saw this and shook his head and sighed as he continued to admonish: “Be sure to rest for a while, concussions are ..... mild, but you can’t be careless.”

“Thank you.” Jiang Tianyu lay on the bed and watched the white coat leave the room.

The doctor went out the door and also chatted with the two traffic police standing at the door, and the two young boys were sent to see her not long ago to take care of this woman with a hidden corpse in the trunk.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

Consciousness began to be chaotic, looking at the light coming in through the cracks in the curtains, the day outside should have long been bright.

Because of the tossing and turning for a long time, the night did not sleep and became a concussion, she began to eyelids sunken.

But when she was about to fall asleep completely, the phone by her pillow suddenly sang a cheerful song.

The phone suddenly sang a happy song. Barely opening her eyes a crack, Jiang Tianyu touched the phone, looked at the caller ID and picked up the phone.

The unusually urgent voice from the other side seemed very noisy, making her already uncomfortable head more and more uncomfortable, and even the temples began to swell and throb up.

"Sister Man Ting, where are you now? Why a bunch of police came over to our company early in the morning and asked to see your workplace?"

"The manager told me to contact you quickly, so come over quickly!"

"I suspect that the police are mainly engaged in renovation, and now they have started banging on the walls and have alerted the building manager."

"What the hell is going on?"

The person who called her and chattered on the other side was the general manager secretary of the original owner Zhou Manting's Fast Search World Network Media Co.

"I had a car accident last night and am now in the hospital."

"Car accident?!" The secretary Xu Numeral shouted at once, "Was it an accident or did someone premeditate to kill you?"

"Wait, the police have come to the company, surely it's not some simple accident! Before all day someone spam and text messages threaten you, I advised you have to pay attention to safety, you see, in the end something happened is not ....."

"Who is looking at you badly? The old pervert who abused his son that you reported last year? Or the lecherous man who specialized in stealing women's underwear from the first floor at the beginning of the year? Either that construction site worker who fell to his death accidentally a few months ago?"

“No, no, I still think the woman who was abused last week and forgave her husband is more suspicious, look at the mental instability.”

Listening to the other party's endless speculation, Jiang Tianyu also just realized that the original owner Zhou Manting really made a lot of enemies and achieved a lot.

“Aiya, sister Man Ting, why don't you say anything?” Because of the overly exuberant curiosity, Xu counted one after another note; urged, “You quickly say ah, in the end who is trying to kill you?”

Jiang Tianyu pursed her lips, it seems that this sister invites people to hate is true, otherwise her colleagues will not open their mouths is to kill ah death ah, even a lighter degree of the word 'revenge' has not been used.

“Xiao Xu ah.” She cleared her throat and opened her mouth, “That is, have you ever thought about the possibility that they didn't kill me but I killed someone else?”

“???”

“.....”

Xu count: in the previous few minutes, I have envisioned countless possibilities, but not the one you said. qaq

Joking aside, Jiang Tianyu still succinctly elaborated on what happened last night.

When hearing that a corpse inexplicably appeared in her trunk, the number of Xu on the other end of the phone obviously spoke with a trembling voice.

But the good thing is that although the young girl is young, but the ability to accept quite strong, quickly patted her chest promised that she will keep the company side of the police movement, and then hurriedly ended the call.

Continued to lie on the hospital bed for a while dazed, for the police went to the company's move, Jiang Tianyu whole person is calm.

This little scene had been experienced when she was still Zhou Ya.

If someone interviews her now what mood she is in, she will only say, calm, no half waves plus a little want to go to the toilet.

After a while, she let out a silent sigh, slowly got up from the bed, took off the infusion bag hanging from the top of her head, and moved to the door.

This hospital should be the nearest choice of ambulance, the internal facilities are not as perfect as the city hospital, looks a bit old, and there is no separate toilet in the ward.

She is now living in a large four-person ward, I do not know whether the police and the hospital in advance to negotiate or originally the hospital patients are less, the room is currently living in her alone.

At this time, the two traffic police outside the door also heard the movement, very surprised to turn their heads to look at the room door has been half open.

“I want to go to the bathroom.”

Hearing her request, the two boys face quickly flashed a trace of astringency, right now the Major Crime Unit has not sent someone over to take over, they naturally can not let her move freely.

After the two men looked at each other, the slightly shorter traffic police officer took two steps forward and smiled a little coyly: “Miss Zhou, let’s go over to the nurses’ station first, I’ll ask the nurse to accompany you in then.”

Jiang Tianyu agreed very quickly.

This is a slight surprise to the two, although they have not done criminal investigation, but in the traffic police team daily encounter with the oddball can not be less than the criminal investigation team.

This kind of is not clear when the matter is guarded, to a certain extent, restricted personal freedom of the parties, not to argue or spill is really some rare.

She obediently held up the infusion bag and followed behind the traffic police, and after walking near the nurses’ station, the other party quickly found a round-faced, very pleasant and comfortable-looking female nurse.

The three of them walked together toward the bathroom at the end of this corridor, during which they also rubbed shoulders with many inpatients on this floor.

All of them are wearing the same style of gowns, so at a glance it’s a bit hard to tell who is who.

When you reach the bathroom door, the young traffic police officer very sagely stopped to remember the footsteps, dragged the nurse to the side and whispered two instructions before releasing his hand.

The nurse listened while nodding her head to express her understanding, and then went in first to make sure that there was indeed no one else in the ladies’ bathroom.

The traffic police then took Jiang Tianyu inside, while the nurse guarded the entrance so as not to have other patients come over later and be startled by the big old man inside.

“Are you okay on your own?” The traffic police are a little hesitant to look at her that some hard look, but not good enough to let the nurse come forward to help.

The person in front of you is a suspected murderer, and although he looks pretty and harmless on the surface, in case this person suddenly takes the hospital staff hostage, the scene will become very difficult to control then.

“It’s okay, I can do it.” Jiang Tianyu replied very spontaneously, opened the door of a toilet cubicle straight away and hung the infusion bag on the door hook.

She was only a little dizzy, not seriously injured, and had no problem taking care of herself at all.

For the various measures taken by the police, the original owner Zhou Manting may not understand, feel aggrieved and wronged, and finally emotions completely exploded.

But for her, there is no problem at all, but rather a little bit of pity for this traffic police brother.

The heterosexual control body work is originally difficult, the need to be on duty police have more than normal care and coordination ability.

It is estimated that if it were not for the fact that police manpower is really a bit stretched, how could it be given a female police officer.

After hastily solving the physiological needs, and dawdle to the sink to wash their hands, and then Jiang Tianyu will continue to follow behind the traffic police brother, out of the door bathroom door.

The corridor is still full of inpatients who are wandering back and forth.

Because the sound of the call bell came from the nurses’ station, the round-faced nurse ran back at a fast pace after greeting Xiao.

Seeing the ward in front in sight, the traffic police officer Xiao also subconsciously sighed with relief.

“Miss Zhou, if you still have any needs later, you can have a timely communication with us.”

Jiang Tianyu nodded and opened her mouth in a sincere tone, “Thank you.”

Fulfilling the process of body control work was not scolded, and was also thanked by the suspect involved in the case, the traffic police officer looked a little uncomfortable, and waved his hand repeatedly.

In this way, his heart became more and more curious about this party.

Finally did not press, he deliberately opened: "Miss Zhou, why do not you ask the police in your trunk found in the case of the body of the investigation progress? Concerning you yourself, don't you feel anxious? "

"What's the hurry, I believe in the police and in the law." Jiang Tianyu casually returned a sentence.

I don't know if she was bluffed by this righteous appearance, the traffic police officer brother did not know what to say next, simply closed his mouth, the two continued to walk forward in silence.

At this time, the face of a patient dressed in a hospital gown, wobbly patients, look at the walking pattern, seems to have some inconvenient legs.

The traffic police officer boy subconsciously flashed his body to the left.

Jiang Tianyu's head was hanging low, and suddenly she reflexively squinted her eyes, and the next second a cold light broke into her line of sight!

The original slow-moving patient was holding a fruit knife in his hand and rushed straight at her!

Things happened so fast that the traffic police officer next to the little brother in the reaction before the other side has come to her body.

A flexible arch of the body, the fruit knife can be cut through the front of her hospital gown.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The person has not yet reacted, she used a slight force to tighten the infusion tube in her hand, followed by a back drop, directly dropped the person in the middle of the corridor.

After ensuring that the fruit knife had slipped far away during the fight, Jiang Tianyu breathed a sigh of relief and turned her head to see the disbelieving expression of the traffic police officer.

And behind him, there are two familiar figures standing there, staring at her without a moment's hesitation.

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 59 - Tips

“ .....

In the midst of the silence, you can only hear the murmurs of a few stunned patients in the distance and the grunts of the murderer with a knife intent on hurting someone underfoot.

Jiang Tianyu was finally called back to mind by the cold touch on the back of her left hand, looked down and saw that the needle above had long gone missing in the violent conflict, and the needle hole was slowly seeping blood outward because of her actions.

The medical tape that survived was hastily used to press the needle hole, and she stumbled against the wall of the corridor like she couldn't stand up: "I'm dizzy ....."

Lu Li: ????

I'm sorry, you just don't look like you're dizzy.

But his reaction is also considered fast, did not wait for the Qi Ziang beside him to open the mouth to command, and then and the traffic police officers together up, not very polite will fall enough to pull the person from the ground up.

I don't know if I'm annoyed with myself for being too slow to react or what, but the traffic police officer asked in an unpleasant tone: "What are you? The actual fact is that the actual person is not a person, but a person who is not a person.

This is a surgical ward, should not take some patients with mental problems, right?

The woman in the hospital gown, whose right hand was tied to the side of her neck in a bizarre position by an infusion tube, started cursing after she caught her breath: "I sh*t! I don't want to hurt anyone, I want to kill her! Kill this bitch!"

"You have a grudge against Zhou Manting?" Lu Li stared round in curiosity.

"My life is ruined by her! The female patient began to cry, as if she suddenly had a channel to vent her emotions, and began to ramble on and on and on.

The other side of the story about their own encounter, Jiang Tianyu also opened a part of the memories belonging to the original owner.

This is the woman who was mentioned by the company's secretary, Xu, on the phone to her not long ago, 'forgiving her husband after being domestically abused'.

When Zhou Manting reported on her encounter, it also caused a lot of repercussions on the Internet, and even some official media forwarded the press release.

Attention has, this matter naturally attracted a lot of netizens eager to discuss.

However, no one expected to end up with a woman who forgave her abuser.

The netizens immediately felt dissatisfied, have begun to express their views online, some speak more sensible, some are more crazy.

The information age, a person's identity is never a big secret, not two days after the woman's personal information was exposed on the Internet, again triggering another wave of attacks from netizens.

"It's all because of you!" The woman cried halfway, with the left hand that was not much restrained pointed in the direction of Jiang Tianyu, viciously opened: "If you had not published that messy article on the Internet, how would I ..... how would all relatives and friends laugh? "

"If it weren't for you, how would my husband have hit me again?!"

"Moreover, he now wants to divorce me!"

Hearing these words, the gazes of all the people present focused on her body.

Only then did Jiang Tianyu see that the woman's face and her collarbone and elbows, which were barely visible outside the hospital gown, had contusions of different colors, which were definitely not related to the tussle that had just occurred.

"Divorce? Well, congratulations." She responded indifferently, leaning with her arms around her chest, an already gorgeous face that looked even more imposing now.

"Also, the news article that I originally published was with your consent, and you signed and fingerprinted the contract, that is a fact."

The fee is in your hand before you come back to bite, is not a little unethical.

And when the other side chose to use public opinion to achieve their own purposes, should have expected the backlash of public opinion, are adults, responsible for their own choices is not the most basic?

"I choose to continue to follow the story, but also in line with the relevant provisions, if you think I operate in violation, you can go to court to sue me!"

"Also, your husband beat you up you do not blame him, but also came to me to try to stab me with a fruit knife ....." said this, Jiang Tianyu almost sneered out loud, she raised her eyebrows high: "But where you can use this ability on that The woman seems to have been instantly poked in the lungs.

The woman looked like she was instantly poked in the lungs, if not for the pressure of Lu Li and the traffic police, she could have jumped three feet high: "You bltch! Bitch! What right do you have to arrest me? If you want to arrest her, you should arrest her, she has no professional ethics, is a black journalist! Black-hearted!!!"

"All right." Qiziang walked up to the woman who was in a frenzy, took out his law enforcement card and waved it in front of his eyes: "Municipal Public Security Bureau, later you will be handed over to the district's Public Security Bureau according to the law, you tried to stab someone with a knife and the facts of the crime are clear, there is physical evidence, or consider letting your family help you contact a reliable lawyer."

"Unfair! Unfair!!! The police have wronged a good man, there is no justice in this world! The man began to spill and roll: "I did not even stab someone, you police have to deal with me, and I was beaten up like this, and you did not say to stand up for me?"

"Then, I can now accept your assault case on the spot, are you sure you want to call the police?"

Xu is not expected the other party will be so dry, the woman is now like a duck that was instantly choked, throat unconsciously issued a 'ho ho ho' sound.

"Contact the district bureau side, let them come over to put people in stable control first." Qiziang rushed to Lu Li to make a wink.

Lu Li acted very quickly and quickly took the woman away from here together with the traffic police.

The relative clarity of the ears was restored, and when Jiang Tianyu felt a little clearer in the head, she raised her eyes and noticed Qi Ziang, who was standing a few steps away and staring at her with a measuring gaze.

"Qi ....." only after opening her mouth did she realize that something was wrong, she could only quickly cover her mouth and nose with her hand and pretend to sneeze several times in quick succession: "Ah-choo... ..Ahchoo ....." Ahchoo!!!"

A number of operations down, her brain more dizzy.

If she didn't move vigorously, I'm afraid she wouldn't even have time to write a will.

“Miss Zhou, right?” Qiziang stepped forward, flipped out of the phone identity information, discreetly checked some, seemingly unintentional open mouth praise: “good hands.”

“Thank you, officer, I was forced to do so because of my profession.” Jiang Tianyu raised a fake smile, polite and perfunctory reply.

The good thing is that Qi Ziang only such a casual compliment, and quickly changed the subject: “Miss Zhou like this, it is better to go back to the ward first and then let the doctor come over to take a look to be safe.”

Jiang Tianyu did not object, so the two of them went back to the large hospital room one after the other.

After pressing the call bell, the doctor soon appeared in front of their eyes, meticulously examined, and instructed the nurse to put another needle on the back of her hand.

As the medical care came and went, Lu Li also took care of the related matters on the other side and turned back to this side.

“Miss Zhou, are you sure you can start now?” After the ward became quiet, Qi Ziang followed the usual practice of asking for the person’s opinion.

Jiang Tianyu, whose face was slightly pale, was lying on the hospital bed at the moment, and nodded her head in a small way at the words.

“Well, then, now please tell us why in the trunk of all the cars under your name, there is a dry corpse that has been dead for more than two months stored?”

“I don’t know.” She answered truthfully in the face of the other woman’s single shot.

The expected negative answer did not cause a change in the expressions of Qi Ziang and Lu Li, the man’s handsome face remained without any extra expression, flipped the phone to the direction of the hospital bed: “Miss Zhou means that the corpse appeared in your car out of thin air?”

“You also do not need to remind us of the police to check the video surveillance, just fast search the world network media ..... is your company is located in the commercial building property department said that the underground garage monitoring has been broken for several months, I think this point Miss Zhou is more than clear.”

Clear, my a*ss.

Looking at the screen that is obviously last night at the scene of the crime taken a recent photo of the corpse, want to say the words were shaken out by the precise prediction of the first step, Jiang Tianyu’s eyes uncontrollably fluttered twice.

Qiziang obviously did not care about her silence, and turned to show another photo: "This person, does Miss Zhou know?"

Slightly narrowing her eyes, she stared at the face for several seconds before slowly opening her mouth, "Yes, his name is Ma Gengzhong, he is one of the parties in one of my previous reports."

"What report?" Lu Li took the time to ask.

"About three months ago, a construction worker in a construction site called Jianhua Xin She in Wu Hong District fell from a height of more than ten stories due to irregularities in the construction process thus determining his death." Jiang Tianyu nudged in the direction of the cell phone screen: "This Ma Gengzhong is the big contractor who contracted the project from the developer, and the worker who died was working under him."

"I seem to have some impression of this matter .....,," Lu Li turned his head to glance at the person beside him.

The traces between Qi Zion's eyebrows appeared at first, retrieved the phone and continued, "The body found in your trunk, after DNA testing confirmed that it was Ma Gengzhong without a doubt."

"We also retrieved the communication records of the phone number he used before, and found that the other party's last call was to your phone, and the call lasted about three minutes."

"And the time this call was dialed coincided with the time of his death, about this, Miss Zhou has anything to explain?"

"Nothing to explain, for me to remember, it was just a rare threatening phone call." Jiang Tianyu is very unperturbed, the tone is also quite indifferent: "Since your police pulled out the past records of his phone, I think the abusive threat to my message, is also clear."

"So you couldn't stand his harassment, so you chose to do it in the heat of emotion?" Lu Li snapped in a tricky tone, "Or do you want to say that the deceased was the one who snapped first and you only defended yourself justifiably?"

In response, Jiang Tianyu's response was only a slight lift of his eyelids.

The ward once again fell into an abnormal silence, at this point, Qi Ziang but like no one in general suddenly popped up a donkey's tongue question: "Miss Zhou, you know me?"

The heart tightened, the hand under the quilt also subconsciously curled up a little, Jiang Tianyu only feel the chest blocked panic.

The next second, she struggled to brace herself and twisted her head toward the left:
“Vomit .....

“I’m sorry .....

The actual fact is that you can find a lot of people who are not able to get a good deal on a lot of things.

A shadow overhead, Jiang Tianyu watched as the other party helped to press the call bell of the doctor’s office, and then heard the familiar male voice: “It seems that further interrogation work, can only wait until Miss Zhou’s physical condition slightly better before continuing.”

“In the meantime, the police will relatively control your personal freedom, which I hope Miss Zhou understand.”

After all, a corpse was found, and how could not take any measures, allowing a suspect in the case to wander around the hospital.

Jiang Tianyu gave a soft ‘hmm’.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

Not long after, she faintly heard a female voice from the door in bed, it seems that it was a female police officer from the serious crime unit who came to take over the shift.

But just saw her hands, probably out of caution, when Jiang Tianyu went out at night to solve physical problems, was surprised to see four people in police uniforms sitting outside the door, three men and a woman.

The actual fact is that you can find a lot of people who are not able to get a good deal on a lot of things.

The four people outside the door seemed a bit nervous to see her come out, regardless of whether she had the heart to resist.

The next two days, she was in the ward very stable, while the sequelae of mild concussion is also gradually improving.

During that time, the company sent Xu as a representative to visit her.

Unfortunately, the police did not allow it, and finally Xu could only leave the laptop and other office necessities outside the door, and turned around resentfully to leave.

After getting the computer, Jiang Tianyu first spent a lot of time dealing with the work and harassing emails that had piled up in the last two days, and then began to meticulously open up the contents of the original owner's computer, intending to see if there was anything to discover.

The original owner, Zhou Manting, seems to be a very organized person, the computer desktop is simple and clean, and the folders in each hard drive are also clearly classified.

Even the reports she wrote in the past, the investigation process, photos and recordings, etc. all still exist.

The first thing you need to do is to open the press release about domestic violence, and Jiang Tianyu probably understood the basic situation at a glance, and then clicked on the video of Zhou Manting interviewing the woman.

It's a coincidence that the feedback she got from the police yesterday was that the woman had been hospitalized a week ago with injuries all over her body.

I didn't expect to see Zhou Manting's face when I slipped in the corridor two days ago.

The double blow of net violence, domestic violence, combined with a little loss of wisdom impulse, which has the other side rushed back to the ward to take a fruit knife intended for murder this scene.

Listen to the video of the woman's wailing cries, Jiang Tianyu frowned, think this mental condition is really a bit unstable, no wonder will make that normal people can not understand the action.

At this time, the phone by the pillow suddenly emitted a continuous vibration, she returned to her senses and took the phone to her ear.

"Sister Mantine? Big news!" The next second, Xu's voice came from the receiver, but the tone was very low, probably hiding in which nooks and crannies to make this call secretly.

"Hmm?" She clicked with the mouse in her hand and answered absentmindedly after making sure the video was paused.

"The police have been busy in our building for two days, I heard that finally found a place, early in the morning with a cordon all around it!" Xu said a little excited, but soon again the voice to the lowest.

"I just went down to see a hilarious, but has been a lot of other companies in the building people preempted, bad position what did not see."

"You say how these people are so idle? All day long just touch the fish not work?"

The little girl thinking is very jumpy, said after said also failed to say the point on.

"Secretary Xu?" Jiang Tianyu spoke out at the right time to remind.

"Oh? Right, right, right." Xu counted on the opposite side of a slap on the head: "I tell you ha, sister Man Ting ....."

She said, but suddenly paused for a long time, and the sound of not very clear speech and the sound of rubbing between fabrics came from the earpiece.

About ten seconds later, Xu number tone of voice is urgent, as if in a hurry: "Sister Manting, that news should just come out, you first go to our public number to see it yourself, and then contact later!"

Dududududu .....

Listening to the busy tone coming from the ear, Jiang Tianyu raised her eyebrows in surprise, then followed the young girl's intention to open the public number of her own company, after seeing the latest release of that eye-catching title.

Surprise! A car accident leads to a murder case! The police trapped the building only to find the truth, and the killer behind the scenes turned out to be .....

Just by reading this headline, I thought the police had solved the case.

She skimmed her lips, clicked in the relevant news link, and quickly browsed through the entire news.

Slightly shocked and round-eyed, she stared at the screen 'suspect Zhou surnamed woman, for fast search the world's current employees' several large words repeatedly confirmed several times, almost to the original owner's top boss warmly applauded.

In order to grab the first-hand hotspot, ruthless up even their own people are killed indiscriminately, really let people have to admire.

The news also slightly mentioned the grudge between the original owner Zhou Manting and the deceased Ma Gengzhong, directly pulling the conflict effect to the fullest.

Pulled to the bottom, Jiang Tianyu finally saw a short video of about seven or eight seconds, the picture is not clear, but barely able to see the inside of the crowd with the police cordon pulled.

It should be the place that the police found, as Xu just mentioned.

As for what is the place, either the crime scene, or the location where the body was once hidden.

The video was taken on the south side of the commercial building, according to the original owner's knowledge of the building.

There is a side door on the first floor, which opens with a small door that is normally sealed, and the door contains the power control box for each floor of the entire building.

In addition to the maintenance once every four months, usually that door will not be opened.

The four walls of that power control room are wrapped with special materials, the iron door is also very well sealed, but it is more in line with the formation of dry corpses need thin air, relatively low temperature and air humidity requirements.

The door to the control room was newly replaced two years ago with a combination lock, so the range of suspects was relatively much narrower.

It was narrowed down to a whole block of office workers at ..... who work in the building.

It's not a restricted area over there. Anyone with a good relationship with the property department can probably get the code.

The most popular one was the one that exposed the original owner Zhou Manting's old self, counting the reports she had published that were quite hot on the net.

The bottom of the commentary is naturally a mockery, unpleasant abusive words are as many as cattle hair.

Jiang Tianyu closed the webpage without a ripple of emotion, and pressed the video play button on her computer again, in which the woman named Hu Hasa continued to complain.

After showing the bruises all over her body, the woman's expression was desperate as she worshipped Zhou Manting with folded hands and claimed that she wanted a divorce and asked for the media's help.

Nowadays, it seems that everything is just a farce.

At that time, Hu Hasa was holding what kind of mentality contacted Zhou Manting, no one can say, just afterwards the other party not only out of the back and also put all the fault on the body of the original owner, it is too unjustified.

After making sure nothing was missing, she closed the player and related folders and stared at the computer for a while.

There didn't seem to be anything special.

The phone call that Ma Gengzhong made to Zhou Manting before he died was even a little blurry in the original owner's memory, nothing more than some threatening and abusive words, which she would not even take to heart.

Not true.

Jiang Tianyu slightly straightened her back, in Zhou Manting's not much memory, she really found a small inconspicuous detail.

The other side seems to have recorded every threatening phone call that they could determine who the target was, as well as some text messages and emails that should have been screened.

So where were these things?

She sank down, cleared her mind of all distractions, and let the muscle memory of this body manipulate the computer in front of her.

But there was still nothing to be found.

Perhaps because she had just concentrated too hard, Jiang Tianyu felt a vague pain in her temples again.

As she paced back and forth in the spacious ward, her eyes inadvertently fell on the black and gray computer bag that was placed on another hospital bed at this time.

The usual business style, nothing special, there is a cute, furry duck charm hanging on the zipper next to it.

Two steps forward, she took the soft yellow duck charm off the computer bag, put it in her hand and rubbed it twice, feeling the smooth feel.

It's not unusual for a bag to be embellished with a little, but what's rare is that Zhou Manting's bag has a cute duck hanging on it.

After all, she is a person from head to toe are only through the two words: competent.

Fingers on the surface of the duck groping back and forth, finally Jiang Tianyu's eyes lit up, a little force ripped open the duck that was tightly sewn to the right side of the small wings, a memory card only the size of a fingernail cap fell out of the sandwich.

The card was pinched, and she pulled out the card reader from the delicate satchel the original owner was carrying.

Soon, the computer read and recognized it successfully.

As expected, Jiang Tianyu found in this memory card some audio and picture evidence that Zhou Manting had kept before, thinking that it was also intended to be used in case of emergency.

She smoothly found several audio segments noted as 'Ma Gengzhong', each period of time is not long, ranging from one minute to more than four minutes.

From the storage time of these audios, Jiang Tianyu chose the latest one, double-clicked to play it, and a slurred male voice came out immediately.

The other party was at first cursing something repeatedly, during which Zhou Manting did not respond.

Then the man began to ramble with a crying voice about how difficult it was for him during this time, not only facing punishment from the government, but also stopping work, and even the family of the deceased was unforgiving.

Should be too much to drink, Jiang Tianyu had a judgment in mind.

Just when she was concentrating on continuing to listen to the next, but suddenly frowned.
