“The head is asking you cat!” Luo Xu wandered to his desk, the tone of impatience repeated.

“Let you check the people, people die, let you check the cat, did the cat also die?”

Jiang Tianyu slightly observed the expression of Henry Zhu and Luo Xu, it does not seem to be fake, should really still do not know what happened to the original owner in Yunzhou City.

This is normal, although the company has a certain information access channels, but the so-called information network is only in Jiangcheng local coverage is more comprehensive, Yunzhou City is worse.

Plus Niu Xiao-ting just to find the cat, think Zhu Henry also did not expect anything to happen.

Police arrests are not as sensational as a murder case, far away in Jiangcheng City, they did not notice is normal.

In this case ..... Jiang Tianyu frowned untraceably, recalling the performance of Qi Ziang and Lu Li who ignored her, a slightly absurd speculation suddenly rose in his heart.

Could it be that Qi Ziang really recognized her?

It's a lie!

But indeed, from the interrogation room of Yunzhou City Bureau, the man's every move was strange, and now it seems that this is the only explanation.

It turns out that there are really people who believe in such outrageous things?

Hiss ..... so whether Yunzhou City Police or Jiangcheng City Police did not inform the company where Niu Xiaoting was, they would not want her to do something behind the scenes, right?

Although for the sake of the original owner Niu Xiao-ting's innocence and safety, she should do what she has to do, but this kind of inexplicable was arranged a face of the situation ..... she is really damn satisfied.

Is really satisfied.

In the past it was all her a.s.s chasing after the police, this time always have to enjoy the thrill of being the 'master', Jiang Tianyu even began to daydream.

Afterwards, some regrets gathered gradually drifted away thoughts, she slightly gambled like turned back to Niu Xiaoting's work station to sit: "Cat, not found!"

The only thing that is difficult to do is that she wanted to take advantage of the short time Niu Xiaoting had been employed, the cases handled have not touched any legal prohibitions, come back and resign .....

"It is likely that this wave of commission is only three thousand, to go in addition to car expenses, food and accommodation, there is nothing left at all, but there is work to do is better than no work much better!"

"I and Luo Xu back in the day ....."

The man with a big belly and intends to start reminiscing, Jiang Tianyu quickly interrupted the other party's long-winded: "Just who are those two people?"

Did not say again when the early days of the business great achievements, Zhu Henry's expression is very regretful, but still answered her question: "Oh ..... otherwise I also intend to mention this thing with you, those two ah is the Public Security Bureau."

Luo Xu suddenly interjected again at this point: "And thanks to you, the living hell to remember."

"Tsk!" Zhu Henry disapprovingly glared at him, then stroked his big belly 'hehe' a smile: "Yes, the police this time to come for the previous three cases in your already dead investigation subjects, and I do not know why, the police actually suspect that there is a relationship between them. "

"But what I want to say to you is not this, the company's cases one after another, and now the police have been targeted, this is not a good sign."

"So the next period of time, we will only do some market research and help people find people and things business, check people this business first to be pushed back." He said also spread his hands: "So Xiao Ting ah, you do not feel aggrieved, it is not guaranteed that in two days your brother Luo and I also have to go out to find cats and dogs!"

Jiang Tianyu under the eyes of the muscle uncontrollably twitched, feelings this goods is also aware of their own company every day is stepping on the red line of the law crazy bounce.

“Okay, you just came back from Yunzhou City, should also be tired, turn around and I’ll see if your sister Yan’s end is busy, if it’s busy let her take over your task at hand and go to Yunzhou to find the cat.” Henry Zhu chanting.

“Young people ah ..... just can’t sink, three thousand dollars is not money?”

Speaking of which, he seems to have suddenly remembered something, raised his right index finger to the air point: “Niu Xiaoting, I warn you, this time do not mention to me what not to do such words, I train you for so long is not easy, people should have a grateful heart!”

Jiang Tianyu reluctantly answered, but behind the scenes, she skimmed her lips.

Indeed, when the third person in the previous investigation was confirmed dead again, the original owner, Niu Xiao-ting, had a vicious breakdown and yelled to resign.

But in the end, the young, the world is not deep, by Zhu Henry lulled two sentences and then quiet.

It’s not easy to train for so long, it’s only four months of work, but in fact it’s because people in today’s society are becoming more and more aware of the law, and there are fewer and fewer people doing this business.

The original owner Niu Xiao-ting education is not high, family conditions are also general, Zhu Henry so easy to catch such a small fool, but also must be pressed?

After all, such as Luo Xu and just mentioned the ‘Sister Yan’ stream, certainly not like her, every month even a fixed base salary is not.

If not, Henry Zhu, a businessman, would not be so generous to people.

Blinking, Jiang Tianyu did not take the other party’s words and asked instead, “Boss, the cases I have handled, the investigated people died three times, you have not suspected anything?”

“Suspicion of what? Suspect you?” Henry Zhu seems to have heard a very funny thing, meaningful stare at her for a long time before shaking his head while turning towards the sofa: “Xiao Ting ah, suspicion of the matter left to the Public Security Bureau, the time is so late, you better go back to rest!”

The side of Luo Xu is also from the nose out of a light snort, ‘disdain’ four words is simply written on the face.

Without the intention of ignoring him, Jiang Tianyu got up and pulled open the door of the company and walked away.

Niu Xiao-ting lived not far from the Henry Market Research Company, walking for about ten minutes to get there.

Unexpectedly old building area, surprisingly still in a shopping mall of some years of the upper floors.

Follow the external staircase up to the fourth floor, Jiang Tianyu turned into a unit door, unexpectedly looking at the four open doors in front of the security.

A group rented room?

Raising an eyebrow, she walked into the house and was greeted by a narrow corridor. The corridor has three, four, five, six doors on either side.

At the end, a turn to the right is a common bathroom, from which a faint smell of urine emanates outward.

And according to Niu Xiaoting's memory, the old yellowing wooden door facing the bathroom is her 'home'.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The room is not large, only about 11 or 12 square meters, a bed, a simple closet will have taken up most of the area.

The good thing is that it's winter now, and Jiang Tianyu, who has been running around for a long time, doesn't feel how sticky her body is. After letting herself lie on the bed, she noticed at a glance that the wall facing the bed was covered with dense sticky notes.

Getting up again, she got close and looked carefully, and to her surprise, she found the names of the three deceased in it.

This should be Niu Xiao-ting in the job after contact with all the cases, she was extremely careful to write down, including some details of the investigation, progress, etc..

A little thought, Jiang Tianyu still hands to stick to the wall of those sticky notes are taken down, organized and unified into the shoulder bag next to the bed.

The environment of group rented rooms is too complicated, even if the daily doors are locked tightly, it may not be safe.

The door lock is probably easy to poke open with a piece of wire.

Originally thought that the killer might have some relationship with Henry Market Research, after learning about the original owner's living environment, but found it impossible to rule out the possibility of whether the perpetrator got the relevant information from Niu Xiao-ting.

After all, the three victims are Niu Xiao-ting's case, she lives in such a place .....

In her pensive kung fu, next door suddenly came a crackling sound, followed by the very regular sound of banging between the bed and the wall, interspersed with clearly audible ragged gasps and female repressed chanting.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

Reassured herself that at least this movement was not after falling asleep, she bent down and pulled out the washing utensils from the gap under the bed, pulled off a towel and opened the door into the opposite bathroom.

Because of a hole in the small window of the bathroom, in the late night of -20 degrees in the north, the cold wind was pouring into the house.

She just washed her face, and then wrapped her body sweater tightly and rushed outside at a fast pace.

This rush, nearly hit the person who just opened the door towards this side, the other side naked upper body, the lower half of the body is only covered with a loose flat panties.

"Ho! Isn't this Xiao-ting? You're back from your business trip?" The man who spoke was very young, but 25 or 26 years old, with a good body and average looks.

If the original owner's memory is correct, this should be one of the young lovers living next door, the originator of those unspeakable sounds just now, seems to be called something Ahao & Remember 30340;.

"Well, come back." Jiang Tianyu vaguely responded, sideways trying to avoid the past.

Ahao sniffed gangly smile, seems to think he is very handsome, but she only felt in this moment by the oil paste eyes.

When she swept past the other side, Jiang Tianyu raised her eyes and vaguely saw the sight of the messy bed through the half-open door next door.

The air seems to be filled with an indefinable smell.

The woman on the bed suddenly got up and casually wore a black t-shirt and walked barefoot to the door, raising her chin with her arms around her chest: "I heard the landlord say you went to Yunzhou City on a business trip? Why didn't you bring back some local specialties?"

"No time." Jiang Tianyu walked back to her room with a clean and sharp reply.

After closing the door, she slowly squinted her eyes.

The original owner's whereabouts, how would the so-called landlord know?

With a head full of doubts and thoughts, Jiang Tianyu climbed into bed.

The heating in the group room was the same as expected, about the same as none. In order to be warm, she even covered the quilt directly to her nose.

In the daze, the rhythmic thump, thump, thump sound rang out in her ears again.

The male and female panting and uncontrolled moaning through the thin wall panel, in the silence of the night, as clear as in her ears.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The young people really seem to have endless physical strength, this wave just finished, the two people should go to the bathroom again for a simple cleaning, not very polite to make a tinkling noise.

It was not long after that, the sound of that abrasive sound will sound again, and finally or a room occupants can not stand to pull open the door yelled a few voices, which gradually quieted down.

The next morning, with the obvious green and black under the eyes, Jiang Tianyu hunched back as a lonely soul floating into the Henry Market Research Company.

Yawning from the desk drawer took out a instant coffee, she carried a cup and went to the water fountain, only to feel that yesterday a night than in the Public Security Bureau of interrogation room on two days and two nights more tired.

"Wow, what the hell? You did not work overtime yesterday to stare at people." Henry Zhu came out from the bathroom next to the hut, a sleepy-eyed look.

Jiang Tianyu gave him a sidelong glance and by the way saw the general situation in that small room.

Very messy, the floor is full of books and paper, the desk is full of cigarette ash and eaten food bags and empty water bottles, there is a sofa bed in the corner.

Smell the faint smell of tobacco between the nose, she wrinkled her nose, retracted her eyes, did not answer.

“Right, there will be an appointment with the client will be at the door, you clean up the company’s hygiene, mop the floor and wipe the desktop, I go downstairs to buy a pancake fruit.” Henry Zhu waved his arm and commanded a pass, then twisted his fat waist and walked away slowly.

After finishing his coffee, Jiang Tianyu took the broom in the corner and meaningfully swept the floor a few times.

At this time, Luo Xu carrying a canvas crossbody bag pushed open the door of the company, with a headset on his head, as if he did not see the rest of the two people in the company generally walked straight to his workstation.

And is sitting on the sofa gnawing pancakes Zhu Henry has completely adapted to all this, chewing mouth is full of grease.

Then in the man’s eyes, even if the morning ran out of the corridor eight hundred times, near noon or failed to wait for the legendary customers.

Finally, pressed Zhu Henry full of smiles dialed the other party’s phone, not yet said two sentences it, cursing and hanging up.

“Fvck, run a single! Must be the city’s West Jie Cheng market research company behind the ghost, the damn long ability, dare to warp my customers? He kept 83034 Remember 0; pacing back and forth in this cramped space of the company, his expression was a rare anxiety.

“Now the industry is rumored that our company has feng shui problems, he Jie Cheng is measured I Zhu Henry is a fool is it? I wonder who in the end these gossips are passing out?!”

Because of the overweight, he soon got tired of cursing and stopped standing there with his arms crossed to catch his breath.

Luo Xu, who had been wearing headphones and listening to the song, hummed and laughed twice, rushed to Jiang Tianyu, who was holding a rag near the windowsill and pretending to look, and nudged her mouth: "Head, if I may say so, it is since this living king of hell came, our company started to do everything wrong, anyway, she does not like to do it, so why don't you just let each other go?"

"Roll roll roll roll roll!" Henry Zhu heard this, nose is not nose, eyes are not eyes.

"What feng shui, what disobedience? To believe in science!" He waved a pair of fat hands with great effort, as if he was giving some important speech, spittle flying: "But all the people who can be checked by us, that the bright and dark may have many things, and what is there to be surprised by the death?!"

"You think he Jie Cheng handled the investigation of people have no accidents? But I don't care to use that kind of nasty means to fight the competition! I pooh!"

To this, Luo Xu's response was to roll his eyes and then continue to put on the headphones and listen to the song to go.

Henry Zhu raised his hand and wiped a handful of hair that had fallen out because of his emotions, and turned his head to look at Jiang Tianyu lovingly: "Xiao Ting, don't listen to your brother Luo's nonsense, he doesn't know sh!t!"

Jiang Tianyu smiled and pulled the corners of her lips, lowered her head and continued to wipe the marble surface of the windowsill.

In the unnoticed angle, she gently knitted her eyebrows, really some do not understand why this Zhu Henry in the retention of Niu Xiao Ting this thing to show an unusual persistence.

The company is really just because of the lack of people?

But the whole morning the consulting phone did not ring, the business volume, it is not so because of the departure of an employee, the company can not run it?

Three people have their own thoughts, the company suddenly quiet down.

However, this silence did not last long, just when Henry Zhu got up to go out to lunch, just walked to the door, only to hear a loud 'bang'!

He was stunned but moved very nimbly back two big steps, successfully avoided the security door slapped his face into a tragic fate.

This movement naturally also attracted the attention of Jiang Tianyu and Luo Xu.

The next second, a woman wearing a long down jacket, jeans and snow boots rushed in aggressively, and before she could stand still, she began to yell: "You're the ones who revealed my information to the police, right?"

Jiang Tianyu slightly tilted her head, in the original owner Niu Xiaoting's head, there is no memory of the person who came.

However, through its shouted words, as well as its age in its early thirties and local accent and other comprehensive judgment, this should be the second murder case that occurred in Jiangcheng City, the victim Qiu Feiyang's entrusted investigation person, right?

As expected, the next attitude of Henry Zhu confirmed her speculation from the side.

"Aigoo, Ms. Zhang, why are you free to come here today? Quickly, please have a seat." Henry Zhu greeted the other party as usual, as if he was not the one who was almost hit on the nose: "Xiao Ting, quickly pour a glass of water for Ms. Zhang!"

The person who came in didn't buy it.

The company's reputation as a leading provider of products and services to the marketplace has been recognized by many of the world's leading manufacturers.

"Even if my husband died, how did the police suddenly know that I had commissioned you to investigate him? Now I've gone from being a victim's family to a suspect! Only I and your company know about this, so who am I looking for if not you?"

"There must be some misunderstanding here ..... Ms. Zhang, is it the police and you said, from us to get the commissioner information?" Even in the face of the woman's spill, Henry Zhu still looked as if he was calm and steady.

He asked this, which in turn made Yang Zhang stare: "That's not true ....."

"The actual fact is, the police are so powerful how can our ordinary people understand it? The actual fact is that they must have their own way of investigation."

Said equal to not said.

The police have a search warrant, the confidentiality agreement is a bullsh!t.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers. Who is responsible for it?"

The woman's eyes fell on the body of the girl standing by the window as she spoke.

Jiang Tianyu suddenly smiled faintly, before Henry Zhu could react, sharply towards the direction of Luo Xu extended a hand, crisply said: "It's him!"

!!!

The headphones have not yet had time to take off the Luo Xu face confused look at the sudden rush towards him, the face are a little distorted woman, busy from the chair stood up.

When he saw the other party pick up the stapler on the table to smash over, he ran away.

The already small space became very chaotic at once.

Luo Xu with a pair of long legs, running back and forth around several desks, while the woman is hysterical chasing behind, mouth curses did not stop.

Seeing this scene, Henry Zhu was more or less at a loss, slightly open two hands, in place anxiously dry stomp feet.

Bang!

Dang!

Clatter!

The two of them chased each other for a while, and Yang Zhang smashed many things in the company with his hands, and the sounds were endless.

When everyone didn't know how to end the drama, Jiang Tianyu suddenly shouted at the top of her lungs, "I'm calling the police!"

It was as if the pause button had been pressed, and Yang Zhang turned his head in surprise to look at the phone screen held high in her hand, which clearly showed that 110 was on the line.

"The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of the amount of money you have.

The first thing you need to do is to get your own personal computer and then to get it out of the way.

The speed is so fast that by the time Henry Zhu ran back to the door and looked out, he didn't even see a clothesline.

"How can you call the police!?" After the man turned back, some exasperation, the company at the moment so a situation, really should not continue to attract the excess attention of the police.

"Fake, this is a screenshot, cheat her." Jiang Tianyu perfunctorily returned a sentence, is about to bend down to pick up the ground of the wreckage.

What she didn't expect was that the information she wanted to pick up was actually stepped on by a person's foot.

A look up, is Luo Xu that has risen to a purple face, just do not know is tired or angry: "Niu Xiao Ting, you are fvcking sick, right?"

"The name of the Living King of Hell can't be called for nothing, right?" Jiang Tianyu's tone sneered.

The gentleman's revenge ten years is not too late, this is not let her wait for a good opportunity?

In Luo Xu some dazed kung fu, she took the side of the broom and forcefully smacked the leg, while the other party pain raised the foot, she clutched the ground information in her hands.

After reading the content on it, her eyelids jumped and she pursed her lips.

Fei Jianming.

If Jiang Tianyu remember correctly, this should be the name of Niu Xiaoting that cheap landlord.

This is a commissioned investigation agreement, the investigation content is quite normal, is trying to find someone.

As for who to find .....

Before she finished reading the page, Henry Zhu went up to take things away, he continued to lean over to sort out the scattered documents in the room, while muttering: "bad luck, really bad luck in eight lives, I'll ask around which temple is spiritual, go over to worship to go to the bad luck!"

Just came to his senses, Luo Xu snorted: "You said before to believe in science."

"You know a hammer, the end of science is theology!" Henry Zhu's tired round face is full of beads of sweat, panting and panting hard.

Jiang Tianyu turn to his side, make a look of help, pretending not to ask: "head, my landlord Fei Jianming and our company have business dealings?"

Who knows that Henry Zhu heard this strange glance at her, and then opened his mouth: “young, how bad memory? When you first joined the company and could not find a place to live, I gave you his phone number, didn’t I?”

“Fei Jianming is also the landlord of our company, this whole building is theirs!”

“Oh .....” Jiang Tianyu blinked, Niu Xiaoting does not have the relevant memories, it seems that these things are not particularly important to her.

But if Henry Zhu and Fei Jianming are still familiar with each other, then knowing the whereabouts of the original owner seems to make sense?

Temporarily put this matter behind, the three began to work together to clean up the scene of this chaos, but suddenly the doorway came a suspicious female voice: “Damn, what is the situation? I only went out for a week’s time, home was stolen?”

Following the voice to look at the person, the other body wrapped in a length of almost to the ankle of the black down jacket, head wearing a black baseball cap, face also hanging a black mask, face was blocked tightly.

Top three eyes, the woman’s action rudely retired the hat and mask, a long hair although tied behind the head, but does not look very smooth look.

Her eyebrows are heroic, high nose, thin lips, the first glance inevitably gives the illusion of a not very good temper.

“Ouch, my great merit is back?” Henry Zhu hurriedly piled up the things in his hand on the coffee table, then bumbled to welcome him: “How about it?”

The woman unloaded the backpack, pulled out a file bag from inside and dumped it into his arms, then wandered back to the last desk: “Well, the investigation is almost done, the cat, also found.”

“Remember to put the commission to my card as soon as possible, there is no money to use.”

“Yes, yes, yes!” The corner of Henry Zhu’s mouth almost grinned to the root behind his ears, a flattering praise: “Lily Yan, you are really my blessing ah!”

In response to his attitude, Yan Lili looked a bit disgusted, and after her eyes turned around the company, she finally landed on Jiang Tianyu’s body.

But she did not say anything more, withdrew her gaze and went about her business.

Jiang Tianyu did not find it strange, after her observation over the past two days, the relationship between the original owner and the other two employees does not seem to be warm.

After all, most of their investigator's job is to run the east and west, really count up, since joining the Niu Xiaoting and Yan Lili may have seen the number of times on one hand to count.

When it was close to the end of the day, Luo Xu stood up and threw his shoulder bag over his shoulder casually, looking like he was going to leave.

But when he just pulled open the company's security door, but suddenly retracted the leg that had been taken, followed by two big steps back.

Seeing this, the crowd was a bit puzzled.

The next second, Qi Ziang and Lu Li's figure appeared at the door.

"Aiya! Two officers, please come in!" Henry Zhu greeted them with a smile, "What are your orders again today?"

Although his expression did not change much, but Jiang Tianyu can still see from that fat face a drop of stiffness and fatigue.

Either open for business to make a living is not an easy thing, look in front of you is not a living example.

"Boss Zhu is polite, there is nothing to command or not to command, is your company that has confirmed the death of the three investigated people, the police have some questions want to exchange with everyone." Qiziang nodded slightly at the man.

When he glanced at Luo Xu, who was quietly brushing against the door and ready to slip out, he opened his mouth again, "Please also ask everyone in your company to actively cooperate."

The word 'all' was bitten particularly hard by him.

Luo Xu was helpless and could only roll his eyes and return to his desk.

Lu Li began to carefully survey the surroundings from the moment he first entered the door, and then saw the st!tches and made a sound: "Wow, is Boss Zhu going to re-do the decoration?"

As he spoke, his eyes swept past the slightly dented door, the keyboard that was dropped on the desktop, and the broken vase on the coffee table in turn.

None of these things were highlighting the fierce battle that had taken place.

“Where, where.” Henry Zhu with a thin layer of sweat on his forehead, smile more and more far-fetched: “There was just some misunderstanding, two officers, you want to know what you can ask, I Zhu person will certainly know everything, everything.”

Qi Ziang is not polite, directly called up the technical section of the people who originally waited downstairs.

“Thank you for your cooperation, Boss Zhu, later you also need to collect the four of you dna and fingerprint samples, but you must not be overly concerned, the reason for this is also to completely rule out everyone’s suspicions.”

Henry Zhu looked at a few police officers who were instantly busy in the company, the fat on his cheeks jumped uncontrollably twice, but still had to barely squeeze out a smile: “I should, I should.”

The next hour or so, Qiziang is to have a chat with the man, asking questions overwhelmingly related to the three investigated people, there is about the company business is not mentioned half a word.

This undoubtedly let Zhu Henry gradually relaxed, body movements are not so tense, and even speak a few points.

Finally, before the sky outside completely darkened, the police completed the relevant forensic work.

The company has been standing in the corner without the slightest sense of existence Jiang Tianyu lifted her eyelids to look at the person who suddenly stopped in front of her, expression is not surprised.

Qiziang smiled faintly at her: “Heard from Boss Zhu that Miss Niu happens to be the investigator in charge of those three victims’ cases? I wonder if it’s convenient to come back to the bureau with us?”

Jiang Tianyu looked at the expression of Henry Zhu not far away, the other side just about to ‘what should come will always come’ and ‘seek luck’ these two words carved on that fat face.

Doing a show always has to do a full set, has always been very theatrical virtues of Jiang Tianyu suddenly a look of anxiety, lowered his head and answered.

And now is and Zhang Ye at the door whispering what exchange of Lu Li just this scene in the eyes, and then associated with the girl and Yunzhou City police t!t-for-tat, unarmed climbing several floors of glorious deeds, in the end did not control the skimmed mouth.

He originally did not quite understand why his own Qi team will bet on a suspected suspect, but now after witnessing the other side of the two faces, is somewhat to understand the meaning of the leadership.

If Niu Xiaoting is really the murderer who committed the three murders, then in frequent contact with the police, it is not guaranteed to reveal any horses.

If the girl is innocent, it is even better news for the police.

A flexible brain and desperate to prove their innocence, with some experience in private detectives, it happens to be able to fill the police in some aspects of the investigation gap.

Of course, the premise is that people are willing.

And from its performance, should be willing.

In this way, Jiang Tianyu grabbed the duffel bag, obediently followed behind a group of police officers, under the watchful eyes of Henry Zhu and three others, walked out with a pace as if to torture.

The moment she got into the police car and closed the door, she quickly straightened her back and opened her mouth to the two big men in front of her: "You two officers don't really want to ask me about the three people under investigation, do you? Technically speaking, I may not know as much as you do now."

Yesterday, Henry Zhu had already handed over all the information about the three cases, while Niu Xiao-ting could be said to have no idea about anything other than the basic information about the three people and some things found during the investigation.

"We found the family of the deceased Qiu Feiyang yesterday overnight Yang Zhang, while the police side of Yunzhou City also contacted the other two deceased Liu Kai and Pu Xiuxiu investigation entrusted."

"From this found a common point, the three principals and the three deceased are a husband and wife relationship or boyfriend and girlfriend relationship."

"The next police should focus on checking whether these three have an alibi, and there is no extra intersection between them."

"But for now, your Henry Market Research remains the focus of the relevant investigation." The words fell, Qi Ziang from the rearview mirror glanced at her, the meaning is self-evident.

After thinking about it, Jiang Tianyu unzipped the backpack she was carrying and pulled out a pile of sticky notes from it.

"These are all the records of my work since I joined the company, perhaps there are some details that I did not submit to the company, I think not important ....."

Anyway, professional things to professionals to do, the police who have a much more comprehensive grasp of information than she may be able to find any blind spots from it.

"Miss Niu if there is anything, you can always contact us, this is my phone number." Qi Ziang gestured to Lu Li to put the pile of sticky notes away, turned around and started the car: "Send you back?"

"I'll just get off at the intersection in front." In order to prevent Henry Zhu and others upstairs to see the end, Jiang Tianyu said after a little pause.

The police car quickly drove away from the original location, and two minutes later slowly stopped again at the location just past the intersection.

She got out of the car and watched it disappear into the oncoming traffic before she slowly walked back to the group home where Niu Xiaoting lived.

Back in the room, she first put down her shoulder bag, then turned around and went to the public bathroom across the street.

Standing in front of the sink full of yellow water stains, rinsing her face twice with cold tap water, she looked up at the plain face in the mirror and was a bit lost in thought.

Soon, the pair of dark eyes in the mirror moved.

What?

Jiang Tianyu raised her hand and touched the screw above the wall that was used to hang the mirror.

The touch did not seem right.

She lifted both arms without much effort to remove the bust mirror hanging on it, pinching the nail that protruded a lot and pulling it out.

With the shedding of wall skin and cement scum together with the appearance of a few thin lines.

Slowly narrowed his eyes, Jiang Tianyu looked at the large 'screw' in his hand and its tail extended out of the line.

Pinhole camera?

A little interesting.

At this time, Ahao suddenly appeared in front of the bathroom door, quite surprised to see the mirror placed on the ground at this time: "Ho, demolition of the home, ah, if the landlord saw it, do not know ....."

The next words, after seeing what she was holding in her hands, instantly came to an abrupt halt.

The first thing you can do is to let go of the 'screw' in your hand and let it hang there swaying from side to side, Jiang Tianyu quickly walked back to Niu Xiaoting's room.

She stood in the doorway and took a general look around, then went to the bedside table, which happened to be facing the wall that was originally covered with sticky notes.

She squatted down and poked her hand into the old-fashioned lampshade, and unexpectedly found the tangled thread at the top. The eyes were carefully observed, and really found something fishy on the surface of the dusty lampshade glass relief.

Because Niu Xiaoting never open bedside table lamp habit, so have not been able to find this inside the anomaly.

And perhaps even with, the other side will not notice anything.

After all, this is a more formal, and the landlord signed a contract with each other group rentals, and not those outside the formalities are not complete daily rentals, who would have expected that someone would be so bold as to dare to install such things in the rooms of long-term tenants!

The original owner, Niu Xiao-ting, had lived here for four months, didn't that mean that her every move, every word and deed had been recorded during that period?

Just thinking about it, Jiang Tianyu felt shuddering.

The next, she checked the whole room again.

During this period, Ahao has been standing in her door to look in, after seeing her find another camera from the abandoned socket above the desktop, the look is three parts shock, three parts incomprehension, plus three parts unexplained tangled, in short, very complicated.

After repeatedly determining that there are no other gadgets in this room, Jiang Tianyu crossed her arms and twisted her head to look at Ahao at the door, raising her eyebrows calmly at the other side: "Do you need my help?"

The man briefly thought for two seconds, then couldn't wait to sidle up and give up the position in front of the door.

Jiang Tianyu was not polite, out of the door to the right, and directly pushed open another door.

He was still sleeping in bed, and after being awakened by the sudden movement, the whole person looked a bit dazed and did not understand the situation at all.

While the other person was still in her mind, she smoothly found the expected gadget in the TV set-top box.

"What is this?!" The young woman instantly sat up from the bed and screamed out, staring round in horror, reaching out her hand and pointing tremulously at Jiang Tianyu and then at Ahao.

The man rushed forward to reassure: "I don't know where this came from, not only in our house, but also in Xiao Ting's house!"

So tossed, the rest of the rooms are not much movement, it seems that the tenants are not yet back.

Jiang Tianyu blinked and spat out a few words very dryly: "Call the police."

"Report ..... the police ....." Ahao girlfriend from under the pillow touched out the phone, I do not know whether because of the shock or because too angry note, her hand shaking a little bit, pressed A few times failed to unlock the password on the phone screen.

The woman's hand was suddenly pressed tightly by Ahao, and only the two of them could hear her voice: "No police!"

The girlfriend first froze, then as if she thought of something, her expression also changed.

After some silent eye contact, both of them dropped their eyes on Jiang Tianyu, who was still going around the house at this time, unaware.

Ahao slightly organized expression, turned around and rubbed his hands hesitantly opened his mouth: "That ..... Xiao Ting ah, let's say, you just found this thing is used to secretly shoot the pinhole camera?"

"What if it is bad? After all, there are people who have lived here before us, if it works well then it would not have been discovered?"

"Out of caution, I think it's better to make sure before calling the police, otherwise it's not a waste of police uncles' energy ....."

Hearing this, Jiang Tianyu frowned without traces: "I think it is safer to call the police at the first time, as for these hidden cameras in the end is able to use or not, but also to the police to judge."

"As an ordinary citizen I perceive danger, it is a normal thing to seek police protection, and I don't feel it is a random waste of police power."

"I didn't mean that either." Ahao explained in pale words, taking the opportunity to make a wink in the direction behind her.

In the next second, Jiang Tianyu only heard a loud 'bang', and when she turned her head to look again, she saw the woman who was originally on the bed had somehow gotten off the floor and was blocking the door of the room that had been tightly closed with her bare feet.

"Niu Xiao-ting, as long as you promise us not to call the police ....." Ahao girlfriend changed her previous angry to lose her voice, as if in supplication, and as if in command: "The next thing, we are good to discuss. "

Jiang Tianyu did not answer at the first time, after a few seconds of silence, her lips moved slightly: "The camera was put by you two?"

"You care so much!" The woman somehow, the emotion gradually changed from the initial panic to the current eerie calmness: "If you don't shut up, we'll have to think of ways to make you shut up!"

The words fell, her pupils shrank slightly, and a trace of excitement flickered vaguely under her eyes.

If you are aware of the head back to the right, into the eyes is the Ahao hands carrying a baseball bat slowly approaching the scene, Jiang Tianyu with tongue against the upper jaw, still not much reaction.

The man's expression at this time looks a bit bl00dthirsty, raised the bat in his hand, smiling and said: "Blame it on the fact that you found what you shouldn't have found!

Immediately after that, a high-pitched female scream suddenly cut through the night sky.

.....

The red and blue police lights were reflected on the face of Qiziang, who had just gotten out of his car, lining his resolute face with some gloom.

The police arrived, almost all the residents of the upper floors of the mall ran out, surrounded by the neighborhood while pointing, while whispering.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

Until the line of sight was blocked by a solid and broad chest, she raised her eyes after the fact, raised a light smile: "See you again, Officer Qi."

Qiziang looked at her with a serious face and made sure there was nothing unusual before he asked, "What's the situation?"

He was working overtime at the bureau, and after receiving the call from the Hoa An District Public Security Bureau, he was confused, so to speak.

The police have been able to find out the identity of the person involved in the case, the identity information has naturally been included in the column of public security focus, the district public security bureau of the criminal investigation brigade in the scene to check the identity card, must also be confused for a moment.

Lu Li stood behind Qi Ziang, probing towards the inside of the unit door, after seeing the fellow officers of the He'an District Branch walking out with a man and a woman with bruises and swollen faces, staring round in surprise.

"Niu Xiao-ting, you fought and b.rawled with someone?!"

Looking at the miserable appearance of those two people, and thinking about the girl's strength, it was hard not to make people suspicious.

At this time, a middle-aged man wearing a brown down jacket came up and shook hands with Qi Ziang and Lu Li respectively and greeted, "Qi team, just now we found a large number of pinhole cameras in this group rented house according to this Miss Niu's account, which should be involved in a vicious case of invasion of citizens' personal privacy."

"As for the reason for the conflict between this Miss Niu and the couple, both sides are now arguing, and need to be brought back to our precinct for a deeper investigation." Middle-aged male police said here, the tone hesitant: "You see ....."

Just a phone call to the Municipal Public Security Bureau directly killed over, this Niu Xiao-ting's identity is afraid of some inside information.

A fixed look at the girl full of innocence, Qiziang hitched a ride on the back of the middle-aged male police officer walked to the side, the two did not know what to mutter softly.

The final result is that Jiang Tianyu was brought back to the public security bureau in the He'an district.

She was not restricted in any way, during which the head of the Criminal Investigation Brigade of the District Public Security Bureau, that is, the middle-aged male police officer, came with someone to ask her many questions in detail.

There are about those cameras, and about Ahao and his girlfriend.

Immediately after she confirmed that the statement was correct and signed, the middle-aged male police officer left in a hurry and never appeared again.

When the sky began to show some light, Jiang Tianyu could not support lying on the interrogation table in front of her dazed sleep, I do not know how long it took, the sound of a small sound in her ears let her silent consciousness gradually back to the cage.

Tilting her head, she saw the visitors, while stretching her back while surprised out: "Officer Qi, Officer Lu, you guys have not left, or are you back again?"

"The police initially suspect that those who placed those pinhole cameras in the group rented rooms is the landlord Fei Jianming, not long ago the people of the division set out to the other party's home, the news came back is that people have been controlled." Qiziang smoothly pulled out a chair and sat down, faintly explained a sentence.

"Oh ....." Jiang Tianyu for this result, does not seem to feel too surprised, right now she is interested in another thing: "So Ahao and his girlfriend why do not want me to call the police? "

"In the past six months, remember the city occurred a number of burglaries, these burglaries have a common denominator, that is, the number of surveillance probes near the crime scene are very small."

“But according to the results of the trace inspection of the scene of the theft, the police identified a gang crime, the number of people is at least two people, one group left at the scene of dna gender for women.”

Qiziang said posture leisurely leaned back: “has collected the two people’s dna samples sent back to the City Bureau for comparison, estimated another two hours to come out of the results.”

The two people were afraid that the pinhole camera had captured some evidence that they were burglars, and that’s why they obstructed her proposal to call the police in the heat of the moment.

But the strange thing is .....

Assuming that Fei Jianming was really behind the placement of the pinhole camera, how could he not know the true identity of the two Ahao?

Since they knew, why would they be allowed to live in their own house?

Are you not afraid of getting into any trouble?

After determining that Jiang Tianyu’s side will not have any more accidents, Qi Ziang and Lu Li left the He’an District Public Security Bureau.

After all, the two of them have a lot of work to do, and can be said to come and go like the wind.

At the end of the day, the police in Hoa An District came with the news that the facts about the conflict between her and Ahao had been investigated clearly and she could leave first.

Jiang Tianyu thanked the police officer who came to inform her, and got up to pack her things while curiously asking, “But at the time of the conflict, there were no witnesses around to prove whose words were true and whose words were false, how did you judge that I belonged to self-defense?”

The police officer standing by the door of the interrogation room waiting to send her away smiled kindly: “Our captain took someone to your landlord Fei Jianming’s house overnight yesterday, and indeed found a large number of pinhole camera receivers and other things in his residence, and also found part of the past clandestine video clips from his computer.”

“In the latest videos, you were locked in the house by the couple, and they threatened your safety with words and actions.”

“Ahao and his girlfriend’s identity, from some of the information revealed in the video, it is estimated and the city bureau Qi team and their guess is similar, should be the source of the frequent burglaries in the city before.”

She nodded, picked up her backpack and walked down the corridor, following each other’s asses smoothly to the elevator.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The police officer pondered a little, softly responded, with a very compassionate gaze glanced at her twice: “And according to the police now grasp the situation, you rented a group room in the pinhole camera, it is possible that only a very small part.”

“Similar to this group rented rooms, Fei Jianming’s name there are several, we will go one by one to check.”

“Also, as a victim, you do not have to worry. According to Fei Jianming’s preliminary explanation, he did not sell these stolen videos illegally on the Internet.” The police officer perhaps felt that she was young, a person outside to make a living and encountered this kind of thing, afraid that she would have an emotional breakdown, so he said a few more words.

“He said that these pinhole cameras were installed only to satisfy his voyeuristic fetish.”

“You can rest assured that the subsequent flow of video we will definitely investigate clearly, if Fei Jianming really used to sell for profit, the police will certainly also use the law to get justice for you.”

Things have happened, more words are pale, but at least the police came up with a little resolute attitude, or can bring some relief to the many victims.

After getting off the elevator and walking out of the district public security bureau’s office building, Jiang Tianyu politely said goodbye to the police officer who sent her.

Standing on the side of the road for a while, she waved her hand and stopped a car to return to the vicinity of the group rental house.

Because it was daytime, there were quite a few stalls and vendors gathered together, and it looked very smoky.

Slowly walking through these stalls, Jiang Tianyu vaguely heard a lot of speculation about what happened last night, it can be said that there are a variety of things.

It seems that gossip is the nature of human beings, how long has it been and already rumors are flying.

With her brows lowered and her eyes averted, she went up the external staircase to that platform on the roof of the mall, and upon entering the door of the unit, she found people moving things out of the house.

Several large snakeskin bags almost filled the hallway, leaving only a narrow gap that was difficult to pass sideways.

At that moment, a man suddenly rushed out of the door, carrying a suitcase in his hand.

"Eh? Xiao-ting, didn't you go away with the police? This is back?" The person who spoke was a woman, with a head of instant noodle-style curly hair, and her age was probably in her thirties.

By the sound of her voice, she should be the tenant who had tossed Ahao and his girlfriend around for most of the night that day and couldn't bear to yell angrily in the hallway.

In the original owner's impression, always called her Sister Hong.

"Sister Hong, you are .....?" Jiang Tianyu pointed to the large packages in the hallway with a puzzled expression.

"Moving!" Sister Hong put the suitcase in her hand hard on the ground, and turned her head towards the room as she spoke, while still chanting, "After such a big incident, how dare you continue to live here? I asked someone to find a new house yesterday overnight, and signed the contract in the morning!"

"Right, I called a truck to come over, later you help my sister to move things down!"

Jiang Tianyu blinked and answered.

During the period of time, the commotion that Sister Hong made also attracted a lot of upstairs and downstairs and even other units of the residents and tenants, people are naturally talking about this, there are many people on the spot said that they also want to move.

As for the remaining part, some of them are unable to move because it is their own house, and some of the workers are pained by the remaining months of rent and cannot move.

Jiang Tianyu felt that Niu Xiaoting should belong to the latter.

She checked the girl's financial situation yesterday, her bank card only had more than six hundred cash left at her disposal, and she had worked for four months, not to mention saving any savings, and owed more than a thousand to her credit card.

So after sending off Sister Hong, Jiang Tianyu chose to go to the company.

Once you enter the door, unexpectedly only the fat figure of Henry Zhu is standing by the window sill tending to the only pots of wilted greenery, so she went up and greeted: "Good afternoon."

"Empty nesters."

Henry Zhu heard the movement and dropped the small spray can in his hand, turned around and asked in a rather concerned tone: "You sent me a message this morning, saying that you are in the Public Security Bureau? What? Yesterday, the group of police officers actually locked you up for so long? Do they have any evidence?"

"Xiao-ting, don't worry, your brother I know a lot of famous lawyers in the industry, if you need, feel free to squeal!" He almost beat his chest with a bang.

Jiang Tianyu skimmed her lips, "Thank you, I can't afford it."

Then, she turned her head and scanned around, "Where are Brother Luo and Sister Yan?"

"They, ah, got up early and took a good job in the district. The family came over and said that the father suffering from Alzheimer's was lost, and the commission for finding it was five thousand, so they let them go out to look for it." Henry Zhu rubbed his stomach and laughed with satisfaction, then went into his small office and took out a piece of paper.

"Don't say brother didn't remember you, this is a beautiful job of market research, you just need to go to these restaurants to try the signature dishes, take a few photos or video or whatever."

"Related expenses are fully reimbursed by the client, plus a commission of one thousand."

However, the man just wanted to hand her the paper, but his hand retracted halfway: "Sure the police will not come back to you? This investigation but there is a time limit, overtime is not good I have to pay the liquidated damages!"

"Got it." Jiang Tianyu reached out and grabbed the piece of paper.

On it were the names of several restaurants, followed by the corresponding dishes of each restaurant.

Some times, this kind of market research case is also not so simple, often requires the investigator to go against ethics to do something excessive that will be scolded by people's backbone.

But on this single commission, it should really just be a simple peer survey.

Originally turned around to leave, but she suddenly thought of something, and then stopped at the door: "By the way, the chief, last night our company near a major event, you do not know?"

"Hmm? Big event?" Henry Zhu looked confused: "recently by the police and the commissioner made me anxious, I really did not pay attention."

"Besides, our company is not going to take those private investigation cases in the recent period, so I plan to suspend the channel of information from the media for two months."

"After all, a month of channel fees so expensive, we have a small family, can save it!"

"Oh ..... is actually okay." Jiang Tianyu eyes flash slightly, staring at the other side of that fat face not good eye: "is that I live in a place where the police found out that there are installed specifically for secretly filming the pinhole camera, this morning I was in the Public Security Bureau because of this."

"The police said that the landlord Fei Jianming is the suspect who secretly filmed us tenants."

For an investigation company, a pinhole camera should be no stranger, right?

Henry Zhu's small eyes hidden behind the lenses looked a little bigger because of surprise, and the dismay on his fat face did not seem to be fake: "Really? Fei Jianming this person ..... I've been in contact with him quite a few times, can't see so perverted ah!"

"Damn, I'll have to check our company properly later, there should not be any pinhole cameras, right?"

Although they are usually professional fiddling with these devices, but the so-called 'darkness under the lights', is not without reason.

People often overlook the dangers hidden around them.

The man muttered, turned around and went to the other side of the small storage room to look for equipment, looks like it is really planning to do a big job.

Jiang Tianyu folded the paper in his hand and stuffed it into his bag, and after a greeting, he pulled open the security door that still had dent marks and left.

The address of the stores, she roughly planned the route in her head in advance, and then planned to walk for twenty minutes to the nearest one.

When she arrived at the store, she chose a inconspicuous seat in the corner and sat down. When the food was ready, she started taking pictures while taking notes.

After a while, the number of people coming to dinner slowly increased, and the ears were filled with the sound of noisy talking.

When she received a call from Qi Ziang, Jiang Tianyu's mouth was full of diced spicy chicken and she rushed across the phone vaguely, "Officer Qi, what can I do for you?"

"Where are you now? Is it convenient to talk?" The low male voice drilled directly into her ears along with the receiver.

Lifting her eyelids to observe her surroundings, she 'ummed', "Convenient, you say."

"The dna comparison results for the couple mentioned this morning came back and confirmed that they are indeed the suspects in the inter-district burglary that the police have been looking for." Speaking of this, Qi Ziang paused, then continued, "We found something interesting from the work sticky note you provided yesterday."

Jiang Tianyu, who was concentrating on dazzling rice, gave a movement in her hand: "Didn't you say that the common denominator between the suspected victims was a private emotional dispute?"

Because the cases related to the three dead people, the relationship between the client and them was either husband and wife or a couple.

"That's just one of them."

Another mouthful of fresh bullfrog into her mouth, she held the phone, the expression on her face gradually became somewhat meaningful.

"I have carefully read the report of the relevant findings that you returned to the company, including those photos, and the content is indeed not as rich as the sticky notes you recorded yourself."

Jiang Tianyu spit out the bones of the bullfrog while humming twice as a response.

After all, the client only wants the results of the matter, no one will be interested in how many times a day the person being investigated went to the toilet, smoked a few cigarettes, those things that do not seem to be very relevant to the client's claims, Niu Xiaoting naturally will not take out to the company.

"You twice to Yunzhou City, respectively, to investigate Liu Kai and Pu Xiuxiu, in the note, they both have been to the same place."

"A teahouse named Mu Yu Xuan."

Listening to Qi Ziang's very logical analysis, Jiang Tianyu has not stopped eating, because the mouth is still in the food, so the words are not very clear: "Teahouse ..... they are both local people in Yunzhou City, plus Yunzhou is originally a small city, appearing in the The same place is at best a coincidence, right?"

"According to the Yunzhou City police on the two dead life trajectory of the flow of investigation, the results show that Pu Xiuxiu daily activities are concentrated in another district, suddenly ran to the next district of a teahouse, the reason for this is quite intriguing."

"If this is not enough, Jiangcheng City, the deceased Qiu Feiyang, we are investigating who he contacted before he was born, and where he went, in his cell phone payment app, found suspicious consumption records."

"After tracking the recipient account of that record, found that it was in Yunzhou City, is this Mu Yu Xuan teahouse."

The original Jiangcheng City, when the deceased was found, the serious crime unit was not able to be linked to the case in Yunzhou City, so the consumption records for this far away in Yunzhou City, did not care too much.

Finally, Jiang Tianyu pulled over a napkin on the table and wiped her mouth hard: "You're going to Yunzhou on business next?"

She pursed her lips, and felt a little disappointed that the intersection point between the three was not in Jiangcheng.

And how to catch up with Henry Zhu just handed her a case, these two days is certainly not out of the city.

But soon after thinking about it, but feel nothing, investigating the case is the work and duties of the police, she is here to follow the blind worry about what it is.

Even if you can get out of the city, so what? Do you want to continue to continue the original private detective style of action, in the eyes of the police to make things happen?

“Yunzhou City Bureau Shi team’s intention, indeed, want me to go over to help gatekeeper, to see if the fastest speed to find out that teahouse in the end what fishy.” Qiziang explained in great detail.

This, Jiang Tianyu completely understand, after all, this is a serial murder case, the police must be worried that there will be new victims appear.

Only this moment’s mood is slightly bizarre.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

But only just in a case has a higher right to act, surprisingly so quickly began to be ungrateful, really human desire is endless.

“By the way, Henry market research side, there is something to continue to trouble you.” Qiziang on the other side of the phone, seems to have read her mind through the airwaves.

“The families or boyfriends of the three victims, through what channel did they find your company. I mean, Liu Kai and Pu Xiuxiu can be a native of Yunzhou, put so many private detectives in Yunzhou do not use, to Jiangcheng City side to seek far away?”

For this point, the police in the end, of course, is also clear about the causes and consequences, just what kind of twists and turns the process will encounter, can now fully imagine.

The client for their own little mind, the pressure can not cooperate, will not tell the truth, how much truth all depends on the mood of others.

The investigation company, in order to maintain their own interests, to give the things and how much truth, but also all have to rely on the police to judge their own analysis.

Sometimes from the inside to start, but is a shortcut.

Hearing this, Jiang Tianyu immediately came to some spirit, very dry should be.

The two people had a shallow chat about the case, and then ended the call, she also took the bag and left the store after the check.

In the evening, as usual, back to the group rented room, Jiang Tianyu lying in that shabby second-hand bed, just feel that the night is quiet a little too much.

Ahao couple now in the Public Security Bureau, red sister moved away, the remaining two households do not know because of fear temporarily did not come back to live or what, the same are not much movement.

Without the daily reverberations of ragged gasps and screams in her ears, she soon fell asleep.

The next day, Jiang Tianyu was full of energy and went out early in the morning to run the two stores that were open in the morning.

Near noon, she burped while kicking open the broken security door of the Henry Market Research Company.

Will carry the food packing bags on the sofa, rushed to the company happened to be in Luo Xu and Yan Lili greeted, she then noticed is standing in front of a wall with a forked wall, full of beautiful fat man.

And in front of the other side, is a hanging banner there.

Yan Lili, who lazily walked over, perhaps seeing Jiang Tianyu's speechlessness and confusion, while stretching out her hand and unpacking the bag, pulling out chopsticks and lunchboxes from inside, while opening her mouth: "The old man with Alzheimer's was retrieved yesterday, and the banner was sent over by the family."

Luo Xu also sat on the sofa with a butt, shook his head and snorted: "Maybe he slept with the banner under the covers last night."

"No, head, you do not have to? I say it's better to send a broken banner than to give more money."

"You know a hammer, this is called honor! The investigation company opened to the wall hanging banners, that is considered a success!" Henry Zhu full of spring turned around, originally small eyes, at this time is narrowed into a slit: "I'll send a circle of friends to the people of Jie Cheng investigation company to see, I called this wave bottomed out!"

"Gas this bunch of turtle grandsons!"

The lone remaining eyes look at the man who has some mental disorder there spinning in circles, Jiang Tianyu went to sit down in front of the sofa on Lily Yan's side, by hand from the backpack pulled out two bottles of Coke to share with the two.

"I ran two stores in the morning, and by the time I got to the second one I couldn't quite eat anymore, so I only gave out a small portion of both to taste."

"I thought you guys probably hadn't eaten yet, so I left the rest untouched and packed it back."

Faced with the kindness she released, the remaining two did not resist, Luo Xu although still a stinky face, but at least did not say anything more.

As for Yan Lili, after receiving the drink, she also said thank you in a nice voice, and then took small bites of food.

"So where did you guys find the people yesterday?" Jiang Tianyu really think that the private detective business people, more or less very strong skills in the body.

Normal elderly lost, the family's first thought is to call the police, then will go to the radio station, ah, contact rescue teams and so on, the last step is to mobilize all the friends and relatives around, in the circle of friends to carry out a massive forwarding help.

She had to admire the fact that she was able to find the person before all the other departments, despite the overwhelming information.

After hearing her question, Yan Lili intermittently, roughly recounted the situation yesterday.

The summary is that the old man actually did not leave home too far, only to go to a place a bit remote, coupled with the sparse monitoring along the way, the police were not able to determine his location in the first place.

The difference between Lily Yan and Luo Xu and others is that the two of them did not go out to find someone at the beginning, but spent some time on the family to ask the old man something about his youth.

This way, using the old man's temperament and daily habits as a starting point to find, naturally, they get twice the result with half the effort.

"Wow." Jiang Tianyu, after listening to this, very much went away with a look of admiration, and once again looked at the two of them with a gaze that vaguely carried a bit of admiration.

There is no one in the world who does not like rainbow farts, and after some operations, even Luo Xu, who is usually somewhat tit-for-tat with her, had a rare, embarrassed, slightly sideways face when he looked directly into her crystal eyes.

When the two people this meal is almost eaten, while Henry Zhu shut himself in that small office do not know what is busy, Jiang Tianyu cleaned up the mess on the coffee

table, while the seemingly unintentional open mouth: “But I am quite curious, usually the boss does not let us go out to hand out leaflets, only hanging a sign outside, so there is business at the door? “

“I said Niu Xiao-ting, your reflex arc is really long, more than four months into the job, right? How come you only remember to ask this?” Luo Xu wrapped his hands around his chest and leaned on the windowsill.

“It’s already the era when old people are skilled in using smartphones, what kind of flyers are you sending out?

“Brother Luo has a good point.” Jiang Tianyu smiled sweetly, directly confused the man.

Handily picking up the garbage into a plastic bag, she wobbled out the door ready to take it out and throw it away.

The brain recalls the words of Luo Xu, targeted advertising push business? I always feel that it is not as simple as it seems on the surface.

For no reason, the families of the three deceased or people close to them, why suddenly all want to investigate them?

Slowly walking down the external stairs, even with something on her mind, she still threw the garbage precisely into the curbside community garbage uniform collection point.

Unexpectedly, the next second was called by the next sanitation guard, the other party frowned a face, the tone is not very good: “Little girl, the garbage bag is broken, soup and water flowing all over the ground, can not pay attention to?”

“I’m really sorry.” Jiang Tianyu felt that she was wrong and apologized sincerely with a smile.

The sanitation worker still complained about the few drops of soup on the road: “Nowadays, young people, as long as they are not reminded, always do not take such trivial matters to heart .....

Wait!

Remind?

Jiang Tianyu only felt an instant thought flashed through his mind.

That’s right, what if someone had deliberately reminded or hinted at the side of those three commissioned investigators?

The first thing you need to do is to get back to your workplace and say sorry to the sanitation workers, and then take a step back to the office.

The other people in the company, for Jiang Tianyu from outside to throw the garbage back, did not show any reaction.

The company's office door has not been opened since just now.

The company's main goal is to provide the best possible service to its customers.

In the end, she just took out her cell phone and sent a message to Qi Ziang.

In the afternoon near the end of the day, finally got a reply letter.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

Xu did not expect her to speak, Yan Lili tone hesitant: "This is not good ..... funding ....."

"The funds customers give quite generous, and two stores, how we can eat full ~" Jiang Tianyu said lightly.

The actual fact is that the actual person is not a person who is not a person.

The other party's tall, thin back left, and Yan Lili agreed: "Good, then I'll take advantage of you, why don't we go now?"

Jiang Tianyu naturally will not disagree.

The two of them went out happily, and by the time they sat down at the second store called Yuchuanju, it was already seven o'clock in the evening.

This store decoration style is more high-end, the store environment is relatively quiet, next to the table there is a small screen, privacy is also good.

Next, Jiang Tianyu and Yan Lili in the wait for the food, but also chatted a few words.

After today's day, the two of them are much less rusty and get along much more casually.

"..... Then that time Luo Xu and I almost drove into the roadside ditch!" Yan Lili told the anecdote that happened some years ago when she was just doing this business, with relief in her words.

"So ah, no one can do a good job in a day, encounter some accidents, setbacks are very normal!"

Jiang Tianyu scratched his head and began to spit out the bitterness for the original owner: "I just think I'm too unlucky, it's not like I'm not working hard enough, or not capable of doing the job, how come all those bad accidents come to me?"

"I don't care about the work, but even renting an apartment has caused so much trouble!"

Looking at her puffed up look, Yan Lili also quite helpless: "I heard Old Zhu said that the incident of your group rented room was secretly filmed, now the police have identified the suspect is the landlord?"

"I haven't gotten the final word, but before coming out of the Public Security Bureau yesterday, the police officer in charge of this case said eight or nine is not far from it." Jiang Tianyu responded with uncertainty.

Yan Lili soothingly stretched out her hand and patted her shoulder: "Who knew that the other party was such a person!"

As she spoke, the woman's brow furrowed slightly: "I've really seen Fei Jianming a few times before, sometimes he came over to collect rent from Henry Zhu, and twice he seemed to come to the company to sign a letter of entrustment."

"But I don't know if his business was done by old Zhu himself, Luo Xu and I never took over."

Jiang Tianyu's eyes lit up, slightly dropping her eyelids to avoid the attention of those around her, "I think I've also seen Fei Jianming's commission letter, just the day you came back, Qiu Feiyang the case's principal, that is, his wife came to the company."

"Some documents let her throw the ground, the follow-up cleanup also wasted a lot of time."

"Hey, are small scenes, do this business for a long time, you will find what odd things can meet." Lily Yan wiped her hands with the towel that was still warm on the plate and took the chopsticks to look at the two dishes that had just come up ready to eat.

“But then again, the premise of being able to grow in insight is that you’ve been in the company long enough.”

“Are you also quite curious why Luo Xu and I were a bit indifferent to you at first? That’s because it felt like you couldn’t do it for long, and then you really started yelling about quitting, which reinforced that thought for both of us.”

“Well .....

The red-brown wooden patterned security door looked new, with a couplet that had faded somewhat on both sides of the door, and a small colorful incense bag hanging above the door frame.

The door is also hung with a small colorful incense bag.

The door is a very new one.

After about ten seconds, there was a not-so-clear sound of walking from inside, followed by a puzzled question: "Property? Didn't you say tomorrow morning ....."

As the door was pushed open, the woman in the house wrinkled her brow fiercely after seeing the face of the person outside the door: "Who are you?"

Jiang Tianyu made an effort to raise a smile that was not at all offensive, and with Niu Xiaoting's ordinary features, the whole person looked harmless: "Sister Zhang, right? We've met before, I'm a staff member of Henry Market Research."

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

"It's like this, in response to what happened that day, after you left our boss gave me a particularly in-depth criticism, and I also deeply realized my mistakes." Jiang Tianyu lowered her eyebrows and her tone was sincere.

"So I just wanted to take advantage of the time off work to come over and apologize to you."

"Originally, you were sad enough after all that happened, and it was really wrong of me to threaten you with calling the police."

"....." Yang Zhang looked at the girl in front of her, who had almost buried her head in her chest, and for a moment was in a very complicated mood.

The company's main reason for this is that it's not a very good company to work with.

"All right, all right, it was not a big deal, so let's do it." The woman waved her hand.

"Really?!" Jiang Tianyu surprised snapped up his head, raised the fruit in his hand, attitude attentive: "Sister Zhang, this is a little of my heart, you must accept!"

"The first thing you need to do is to take it in yourself, it's quite heavy.

The first thing that happened was that Yang Zhang felt confused, and in the blink of an eye, the girl was already standing at the entrance door.

The first thing you need to do is to ask for a drink of water.

"Wow, really? Sister Zhang you are so nice!" Jiang Tianyu's face was moved to tears.

"You can sit down first." The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the kitchen and take out a bottle of chilled mineral water. Really not something good!"

In the woman's heart, 'leak' this matter should be the boss to solve the right, and these part-time workers and what is the relationship? There is really no business.

Still standing at the entrance, Jiang Tianyu posture restrained to accept the water, whispered a thank you, and then help Henry Zhu to defend as if to say: "Sister Zhang, our boss also had no choice."

She did not say the words okay, as if a moment to say a switch in the woman's body, only to see the other side of the face turned back to sit on the sofa: "I blame my own blindness, obviously so many investigation companies on the market, are more professional than you, but chose the worst one!

"If I had not been in a hurry, and happened to hear about your company from others, give me money I would not have gone!"

"In a hurry?" Jiang Tianyu seems to be a little surprised, and under the eyes of obvious curiosity, embarrassed pursed lips: "Speaking of which, Sister Zhang, why did you want to investigate their husbands ah! Our company's investigators followed him for several days and didn't find anything."

"That's because the person following him is not capable! The youngest one sent a provocative message to my cell phone, is this still false?" Yang Zhang suddenly became very emotional, and simply scratched open his phone screen to show her the messages.

Although she didn't look at the exact content, she took the phone number down silently.

"You didn't ask him ....."

Yang Zhang glared: "Men are such shameless creatures, they won't admit it even if they ask, I'm going to get hold of the evidence and then make him meekly clean up his act!"

"Sister, you are awesome!" Jiang Tianyu exclaimed, followed by once again turning the topic back to the main topic: "Did you brush up on our company's advertisement on the internet at that moment?"

"Was it an advertisement?" The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

“No, no, no.” The woman said, lowered her head to pick up the phone, suddenly raised her head, tone of voice certainty: “Yes, it is I happen to receive your company’s spam ads, you see the record is still there, I did not delete.”

Jiang Tianyu smiled and raised her eyebrows without traces, came to the other side, lowered her eyes to look at the seemingly very common advertising text message.

Not true.

Private detective this line, we all know is stepping on the red line of the law dance, simply will not use this illegal base station to place advertising, that is not the wrong on top of the wrong?

Originally not targeted by the police, the use of base stations instead of becoming eye-catching.

So, who was the person who sent this ad to Yang Zhang’s phone?

After she had found out what she wanted to know, Jiang Tianyu quickly went downstairs as Yang Zhang looked on with some regret.

She sent the cell phone number she got from Yang Zhang and the base station number she used for mass messaging to Qi Ziang.

The other side just happens to be in Yunzhou City right now, so it won’t take long to find out if the wives or boyfriends of the two remaining victims have received such harassing text messages.

The case finally took a small step forward with difficulty, at least now there is a new direction of investigation, Jiang Tianyu step lightly.

Known three deceased main intersection point in Yunzhou City, that teahouse, and now have a cell phone number, good luck, perhaps the case is so solved.

The company’s main goal is to provide a solution to the problem of the problem.

Just buy fruit and spend nearly two hundred, mood down down, finally Jiang Tianyu still think walk back to the group room to go.

It’s far away, but it’s a good idea to take it as exercise.

Just after 9 p.m., this time for the prosperous city of Jiangcheng, it is not late at night.

The road is still brightly lit, the traffic whistling past, rolling up the occasional garbage bags on the side of the road, more and more lined with the winter depression.

Jiang Tianyu pulled up the collar of her down jacket, subconsciously speeding up her feet, and every stranger who passed by her was also in a hurry.

The cold wind of the northern winter is like a knife, cutting people's cheeks red.

Only some sanitation workers at this time still stick to their posts, from time to time to go to the road, will be flying garbage back, and then stuffed into the woven bags they carry with them.

Unconsciously, Jiang Tianyu slowed down her pace, watching the sanitation workers because they wore too thick and hobbled back to the roadside, leaning on the trunk of a tree to take a long breath.

It seems that she has never seriously observed a city, nor has she ever understood every person living in it.

Before the special police work is really too busy, so busy that she even every meal is hastily swallowed, so busy that her encounter with everyone is faint.

I don't know when, tasting the original taste of food, and three or five friends to talk and drink have become a luxury.

So it seems that constantly shuttling through each body, constantly feeling life for others, may not be a bad thing.

This kind of day for a long time, she gradually found that in addition to the protection of people's lives and property security life, in fact, also has its own unique meaning.

Retracted the line of sight, Jiang Tianyu continued to walk forward, halfway through the Henry market research company's building, saw a fat figure is leaning on the railing of the third floor outside the corridor.

There is a bright and dark red dot in the air, Henry Zhu should be smoking a cigarette, far from the silhouette of a few points of sadness.

And the small building directly in front of the street lamp, the daytime scolded her sanitation workers have begun to broom a tool received their own small tricycle, it seems to be ready to leave work.

She did not say anything to disturb, adults should have their own worries, and such a quiet dark night and alone time, I think it is also extremely precious.

Early the next morning.

The next morning, Jiang Tianyu drank hot soybean milk, carrying water pan-fried bread, wandered to the company door.

When she held the handle of the security door and pressed down, she was surprised to find that the door was locked. She blinked with hindsight and took out a set of keys from her backpack and opened the door.

After walking in, she stretched her neck and looked into Henry Zhu's small office.

The door was half open, and there was no movement inside the darkness.

It seems that the other party should not rest in the company yesterday.

After swallowing the fried bun in a few bites, Jiang Tianyu took the time to organize the feedback report of the market research case in her hands, plus photos and video materials, and prepared to submit it to Henry Zhu for review later.

With her current economic situation, she really needed that thousand dollars to ease her immediate dilemma.

After completing the task at hand, she stretched her back and unconsciously landed on the tin cabinet in the corner for storing information again.

It was a good opportunity to do so since no one was around at the moment.

The fingers on the desktop moved, Jiang Tianyu's eyes flashed, feeling some dryness in his mouth.

About ten minutes later, two voices came faintly from the open corridor outside the company, and then Henry Zhu and Luo Xu pushed open the door and came in.

Jiang Tianyu was fiddling with the pots of wilted greenery by the window with a spray can, and raised his chin at them: "Good morning."

"Chief, the case I was given the day before yesterday has been completed, the report and the things the client wanted are on the table."

Henry Zhu obediently took the file bag, opened it and quickly browsed through it, looking satisfied: "Success, I'll pass it on to the client later, the commission will be paid to you soon."

The words fell, the man wandered around the sofa twice, some curiously asked: "Xiao Ting ah, why are you here so early today?"

"And also cleaned the company spotlessly, you do not want to talk to me about what to resign, right? I won't agree to it!"

Jiang Tianyu sprayed water at the green, while stretching her voice back: "You can rest assured, I am ready to face life positively. Last night and Yan sister out to dinner, listen to her talk a lot, is a little inspiration!"

Henry Zhu breathed a sigh of relief, rubbed his stomach and smiled: "That's good, your sister Yan work, I always rest assured."

As he spoke, his fat body had walked to the tin cabinet containing the files, after seeing that the external padlock still had a short strand of hair almost imperceptible to the naked eye, the man's small eyes behind the lenses narrowed slightly, and the smile on his face deepened a few points.

Subsequently, he returned to his office with that trembling flesh.

And Jiang Tianyu, who seemed to have his back turned the whole time, had a thoughtful expression at this time.

Why does Henry Zhu think so highly of that cabinet? From not allowing employees to go to the cabinet to get something in his absence, it seems that even if there is nothing to do with the death of the three victims, there must be other fishy things hidden in the company.

Could it be some evidence of a violation of the law?

The phone in her pants pocket suddenly rang when she was lost in thought, and after glancing at the caller ID, she pressed the answer button and brought it to her ear: "Hello?"

Almost at the same time, Jiang Tianyu noticed the two lines of sight that fell on her, her expression did not change, and her tone of voice remained smooth.

"Is it convenient now?" Qi Ziang's voice drilled into her ears through the earpiece.

"I don't want to go back." She said with some unhappiness.

There was a brief silence for two seconds on the other side of the phone, then added: "Take the time to call me back, or come to your public security branch in He'an District to find me, I'm back from Yunzhou."

"Got it." Jiang Tianyu faintly answered, then hung up the phone.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

"Family members."

This side of the words have not yet fallen, the other side of Henry Zhu with a coffee cup from the office came out: "How do I remember you mentioned before, said since childhood is the grandmother raised, grandmother is also not in a long time?"

"Oh, I also have an uncle who is not close to me, and I can't get in touch with him once a year." Jiang Tianyu casually pull, tell a lie without blinking, that is a smooth: "He wants me to go back home to the village to go on a blind date."

After all, the original owner Niu Xiao-ting is really no relatives and friends, usually in addition to work phone, and others basically no contact.

Although now it is not possible to determine what the situation is within the Henry Market Research Company, but be careful not to alarm the snake in advance is always right.

"So ah ..... you are still young, it is not necessary to be too anxious about emotional matters. Moreover, it is easy to come out of the city from the old home, and then turn back to marry a big need." Henry Zhu slightly thought for a moment, quite seriously gave their own advice.

Luo Xu has a different opinion: "I think it's good to go back and marry someone, after all, live Yan ..... Niu Xiao-ting this kind of character, quite suitable for housewives."

"Dog mouth can not spit out ivory teeth!" Henry Zhu opened his mouth to rebuke.

Jiang Tianyu, on the other hand, had been standing by the window, glanced at the two, and did not squeal.

Nearly noon, the landline in the office rang, Henry Zhu answered the phone humming and ah ah, and then took Luo Xu out to meet with customers.

She also left the company and took the subway to the public security bureau in the Hoan district to make sure that they could not return for a while.

After arriving, without much effort, she met Qi Ziang and Lu Li.

"Officer Qi, looking for me for something?" Jiang Tianyu asked slightly puzzled as she followed the duo's a.ss and walked down the wide corridor of the office building.

"Oh, right." Qiziang stopped in his tracks and turned slightly sideways and returned, "After receiving your message yesterday, the police in Yunzhou City approached Liu Kai's wife and Pu Xiuxiu's boyfriend overnight, and they had both received the same short message as Qiu Feiyang's family."

"But the so-called 'mistress' with the phone number is different, after verification confirmed that it is a black number, in the communications company side can not find any identity information, it is not likely to be used with the loss."

"As for the other party used to send advertising text messages to illegal base stations, on the technology did not track the results of what, it is estimated that it is also abandoned."

Jiang Tianyu listened to the end, the face can not hide the disappointment, although already psychologically prepared, but did not expect this clue was broken so dry.

Xu saw the difference in her expression, Qi Ziang silent for two seconds, with a look to signal her to follow.

The three of them walked into a room one after another, Jiang Tianyu followed the glass on the wall and saw the person sitting in the interrogation room opposite.

Fei Jianming?

"What? Have the police already investigated the facts related to his crime?" She frowned, a little puzzled, so she was called over today mainly because of the stolen camera case?

"No."

Qiziang shook his head, "I really found something interesting when I went to Yunzhou this time."

Saying that, he gently tapped the glass with his right index finger: "It's about him."

"He?" Jiang Tianyu was a little surprised, but felt that it was expected.

Just do not quite understand, the other party a peeping Tom, how and Yunzhou City side involved.

"When we raided the teahouse named Mu Yu Xuan with the Yunzhou City Police, the technology found something strange in their computer, so we cracked it and eventually found several videos.” Qiziang withdrew his hand, and gave a general explanation of the situation.

“And those videos, look at the background is exactly the Fei Jianming name of those group rented rooms.”

It’s a coincidence that if the girl next to him hadn’t discovered the pinhole cameras in the group rentals beforehand, he wouldn’t have had the chance to watch those videos, and he wouldn’t have had any impression of what the group rentals looked like inside.

In this way, Jiangcheng City and Yunzhou City police do not know how much time will be wasted to lock the source of these videos.

There may be a day, there may be a week, or even if the progress is not smooth, a month and two months is also it.

“So Fei Jianming took the videos and then sold them online for profit anyway? He’s not a peeping Tom at all.” Jiang Tianyu said calmly, her eyes naturally fell on the man in the interrogation room across the glass.

She had a vague feeling from the beginning that the other party had installed cameras in the group room for the purpose of surreptitiously filming was definitely not just for satisfying their own personal desires.

How to say it, peeping toms she has seen in the past work process, Fei Jianming this person whether from the actions or words, are not quite in line with the characteristics of such people.

“Have you ever thought, he installed these pinhole camera, the use is not only secretly filming?” The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The first time, Jiang Tianyu’s mind quickly flashed through a myriad of possibilities.

“Qiu Feiyang City, Jiangcheng City, the largest logistics company’s small leader ..... Liu Kai in Yunzhou City, alone operating an import and export commodity store, Pu Xiuxiu is a medical equipment sales company’s receptionist.” She muttered, some overlooked details at this time have become unbearably clear.

“Confirmed by the Yunzhou City Police, Mu Yu Xuan Teahouse is a membership-based private teahouse, but now the operator has only provided a list of members who could not find anything different.”

For her perceptiveness, Qi Ziang seemed quite satisfied: “We now suspect that the teahouse business on the surface is just a front, and the so-called membership list is just a cover, there must be something else inside.”

“So Lu Li and I returned to Jiangcheng as fast as we could, and the An District Branch has also followed our instructions to check out Fei Jianming.”

“But this man’s social connections and economic situation is just too clean, until you came here, in his body have not been able to make any progress.”

“But in Fei Jianming’s home, the police found many contracts that should have been signed by those tenants and him.” Speaking of this, the man’s expression suddenly became a bit strange: “The Woan District Branch assigned a special police force to contact these tenants, and most of them were contacted.”

“And a small part of them, there is no news at all.”

Jiang Tianyu smiled, his breath stagnated, and his eyes were filled with waves of shock.

The police said there is no news, that is really no news, a person if still in this society to live a normal life, how can not leave half a trace?

Social relations, life trajectory, consumption records, can always find something.

“Human trafficking?” She thought of only one possibility.

To tell the truth, the kind of group rentals that Fei Jianming operated in extremely poor and poor conditions, the target customer group that was targeted at the beginning was finely calculated.

Most of the tenants attracted are from the bottom of the city.

The company’s main goal is to provide the best possible service to its customers.

She bets that the small number of tenants who disappeared without a sound must have few relatives and friends, and even if they disappeared, no one would look for them, let alone call the police.

Is this the real purpose of Fei Jianming to install pinhole cameras in group rented rooms?

Hidden in the shadows, day and night to observe the life of each tenant, after determining that the other party is indeed unattached, you can decisively strike.

No wonder he continued to rent the house to the Aho couple despite knowing that they had problems, the original theft was simply not enough in front of people.

“So Fei Jianming picks the right people, Qiu Feiyang is in charge of logistics and transportation, Liu Kai is the one receiving the ‘goods’, and Pu Xiuxiu?” Jiang Tianyu frowned.

“A wild guess, if it really is a human trade, would it involve medical ..... care,” Qi Zion nodded.

Indeed, this possibility cannot be ruled out, now known missing tenants, so to speak, are not limited to age and gender, it is inevitable to make people think carefully.

At this time, a soft sound came from the opposite interrogation room.

Not only did it attract the attention of Jiang Tianyu, Qi Zion and Lu Li, but it also made Fei Jianming, who was handcuffed to the interrogation chair, raise his head slowly.

The person coming is the head of the Criminal Investigation Brigade of the He'an District Public Security Bureau, last time in the middle of the night, Jiang Tianyu also met, seems to be surnamed Liu.

The person in charge surnamed Liu seems to be a hot temper, as soon as he entered, he directly threw the folder in his hand hard on the interrogation table, and nodded with his right finger in the air at the man opposite: “Fei Jianming, Qiu Feiyang you always know, right?”

Fei Jianming's expression did not change, only slightly lowered his eyelids to look at the photos flung in front of him, the bottom of his eyes is a calm deep: “Do not know.”

“Then these two people you must not remember?” Officer Liu flung out two other photos in quick succession.

It was Liu Kai and Pu Xiuxiu.

Before the man here opened his mouth to answer, Officer Liu began to circle around the interrogation table: “You do not need to rush to deny, Yunzhou City police have recently sealed a teahouse named ‘Mu Yu Xuan’, and found a large number of videos of group renters you secretly filmed in the teahouse .....”

“The evidence is right there, I advise you to think about it, now cooperate with the police, it will only do you good and no harm.”

Fei Jianming still has little expression: “I do not know them.”

“As for the teahouse, I have never heard of it.” The man's words were roguish: “Voyeurism, the officer may not understand, the reality of having this perverted fetish can not be few, perhaps I put on the Internet video was stolen and downloaded?”

Officer Liu heard this, instantly sank a face, looks very appalling.

“Okay, okay, okay.” Fei Jianming continued to shake his head: “I admit it! I admit that I took advantage of these clandestine videos on the Internet to gain profit, all right? As for you ask me who bought, then I can not say, probably all over the country! What’s so strange about finding it in Yunzhou City?”

A set of oily words passed along the speakers on the wall into the ears of the three people standing in the observation room next to him.

The marks between Qi Ziang’s eyebrows were clearly visible: “This man is a hard bone.”

Lu Li interfaced next to him, “Team Qi, what should we do? The sale of human beings is a serious crime, he must be clear that the difference between accounting and not accounting for him is not much, perhaps not truthful, the police do not have sufficient evidence, but there is no way to take him.”

“Wait for Liu team after the trial and then see.” Qiziang raised his chin.

“Good, these three people you can say you do not know.” Officer Liu suddenly relaxed the original somewhat fierce look, the tone also became playful: “Then those rental contracts found from your home, the other side of the signature are the tenants of the group rented rooms, you can no longer deny it, right?”

Fei Jianming’s cheek muscles visibly tightened when he heard the word ‘contract’.

“The police have followed the information on these contracts and conducted a thorough mapping of all the tenants .....” said Officer Liu while pulling out one contract after another from the folder, neatly arranging a desk full of them.

“Can you explain clearly why the last trajectory of these people’s activities all occurred during the existence of the rental contract with you, after which they seem to have disappeared from this world? “

“One or two certainly doesn’t mean anything, but Fei Jianming, here are the whole twenty-three people!”

“.....” There was a brief silence for two seconds, the man suddenly tilted his head and laughed out loud: “Officer, people lost this is your police responsibility, ask me what is the matter?”

“My dealings with them are limited to this paper contract, and many of them owe me a lot of money for rent, it would be best if you could find someone.”

“I can still get my money back.”

Officer Liu clenched his back teeth and stared at Fei Jianming for a while, after which he then flipped out the photos of the three deceased and almost put something on the other man's face: "You wouldn't know that the three of them are now confirmed dead?!"

"Fei Jianming, what kind of goods you are, we know it by heart! They are dead, no one can be sure if the murderer has set his eyes on you, or is it that you killed the person?"

"Officer, how come I can't understand more and more of what you're saying?" The man pretended to be confused, but the expression on his face carried a vague provocation that made people's teeth itch: "Do you suspect that someone outside is trying to kill me? I haven't offended anyone."

"Why don't you just put me out there and try and see if I'll die? I think your police would like to see me dead anyway, wouldn't you?"

Officer Liu was about to open his mouth to scold, but he suddenly heard a knocking sound coming from the glass behind him.

The corners of his mouth twitched, he finally held back, gestured to his colleagues around him to pack up their things, and himself first pulled open the door and walked out.

In the corridor, Officer Liu met with Qi Ziang and others, although slightly peculiar glance at Jiang Tianyu who followed, but did not say anything more.

"Team Qi, this person is very difficult to deal with." The man wrinkled his brow, his tone a little tired.

Qi Ziang nodded in agreement, and held out his hand to the young policeman who followed him out: "Give me those contracts."

The thick pile of rental agreements was brought over, and he and Lu Li looked at them together, copy by copy, and just as he turned to one of them, there was suddenly a not-so-subtle 'Huh' from behind him.

He turned his head, and Qi Ziang looked at the girl as if inquiring.

Jiang Tianyu reached out her hand and nodded at the signature on the contract in his hand, "I've seen this person's name before."

"At Henry Zhu's."

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 90 - Tips

0 8 minutes read

The last time Qiu Feiyang's wife Yang Zhang went to Henry Market Research to make trouble, indiscriminately Yang many of the documents.

In the aftermath of cleaning up the 'battlefield' when she picked up the first piece of paper is Fei Jianming signed a letter of commission to investigate.

The content of the letter of investigation Jiang Tianyu although did not see too clearly, but still vaguely remember is the search for people, looking for the person's name and this contract on the tenant's signature consistent: Wu Shuai.

Hearing her words, Qi Ziang and others obviously froze, and then Lu Li opened his mouth with uncertainty: "No way? The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing. What role can he play in it?"

"Opened an investigation company, should be more informed?" Officer Liu learned the identity of Henry Zhu, uncertain speculation.

Lu Li nodded approvingly: "There is, open this kind of investigation company, the hands of the wilderness more, the reason why Fei Jianming check up the background clean, will not also have a relationship with him?"

A money laundering, accounting or something, or even make some fake identity, not sure Zhu Henry can do it.

"Maybe Henry Zhu will also help to find the right person?" Jiang Tianyu suddenly interjected: "I heard the company's people mentioned, the previous few years, one after another, there are employees to join, just did not do long to quit."

"Now that I think about it, is it really resigned?"

"You can check whether there is any overlap between the identity of these missing tenants and the employees Henry Zhu once employed." She said this, she paused, her expression is a bit complicated: "I suspect that some employees do not have a place to live, he will be introduced to Fei Jianming's group rented rooms, such as I am."

"And before joining, he has also roughly figured out my family situation."

Niu Xiaoting is a fatherless girl, from a very young age, only her grandmother took care of her, before she graduated from high school, her grandmother also died.

So she did not study in college, she followed the village people in the county as a waitress.

A chance, she swiped to Henry market research company's job ads, the above generous pay, but also no educational restrictions, inevitably let her moved.

At the time of being hired by Henry Zhu, Niu Xiao-ting is still very excited, excited, but also difficult to hide the heart of the slightest strange. The rest of the interview looked better and more competent than her, so how did this luck fall on her head?

Now, it seems that there is nothing strange, only she has no immediate family, no frequent friends, even if she completely disappears from this world, probably no one will find it .....

No wonder Niu Xiao-ting yelled to resign, Henry Zhu tried to appease, the original girl in the eyes of these people, that is a sack of long legs of the yuan ah!

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

Then he put away the pile of contracts out of the voice: "Liu team, please organize and coordinate the police force, we are leaving for Henry Market Research."

Late, now then transfer people from the City Bureau, it is not necessarily a few hours later.

"Since Fei Jianming side refused to talk, then let's see if this Henry Zhu is also so 'backbone'."

"Okay, I'll go and apply for police power." Officer Liu answered sharply, turned around and left.

Jiang Tianyu looked at the busy figures of the people, while the police force has not yet assembled, but also in order not to attract suspicion, she and Qi Ziang greeted, then took the first step back to the company.

The only people in the company were Yan Lili and Luo Xu sitting on the sofa in the meeting area, playing games feverishly, and she poked her head into the small office.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers. Don't worry, old Zhu is not here, will not deduct your salary."

"What did you do at noon? A blind date?" Luo Xu stared intently at his cell phone screen, two thumbs clicking and moving rapidly on the screen, his mouth was still the same unforgiving virtue.

"Blind date?" Yan Lili rounded her eyes curiously.

Luo Xu then re-learned the words that Jiang Tianyu made up in the morning, and then shouted: "Yan Lili, you pvssy! What are you thinking? Almost got me kllled too!"

The woman spat out her tongue in embarrassment, and the two of them returned their attention to the game.

Jiang Tianyu went to her work station and put down her backpack, sitting there with her head down and tapping on the phone, calculating in her mind how long it would take for the police to arrive.

Qiziang did not make her wait too long, a few minutes later, the external staircase of the small building came a very obvious 'knock knock knock' footsteps.

At first the two on the sofa felt strange, when the next second the door was pushed open from the outside, a bunch of people in police uniforms instantly poured in, they were instantly dumbfounded.

The company's small space is filled with an eerie silence, and you can even hear the sound of kllling in the game faintly coming from the two cell phones.

Although Henry Zhu was not there, but the police related procedures are complete, it does not change anything.

Soon, the perennially locked tin cabinet was opened, which was filled with all kinds of files and information, leaving almost no gaps.

It took a lot of time just to move things out and stack them on the floor, not to mention the sorting work that followed.

Because the police have previously collected fingerprints and dna, so this time Jiang Tianyu and the other two people crowded in the corner with a few pots of greenery, three people look at me, I look at you, who did not first speak of the meaning.

Finally or Yan Lili moved her mouth: "What is the situation ..... police now still suspect that our company and the three investigated deaths have a relationship?"

"Who knows anymore." Jiang Tianyu pursed her l!ps.

Luo Xu lowered his eyes and looked at the two women muttering in front of him, then twisted his head and put his eyes outside the window where the cars were coming and going.

Jiang Tianyu has actually been noticing the reaction of the two with the corner of her eye, whether it is Yan Lili's staggering surprise, or Luo Xu's unconcerned ..... or expected, are quite intriguing.

When the police round of forensic work easily into the end, Lu Li came over and gestured to the three of them to sit on the side of the sofa in the meeting area.

Qiziang sat opposite, is frowning slowly looking through the hands of those information.

When they were seated, the man closed the materials in his hands and raised his head slightly: "Excuse me, does anyone know where your boss is now?"

This side of the words fell, the other side of Yan Lili on the first time sideways look at the side of Luo Xu: "you noon and old Zhu went out together? Meet the client, then where is he?"

"I don't know, when did he have to report to me where he was going?" Luo Xu's tone was impulsive, seemingly quite unhappy that the other party had turned the target on him.

"But ....."

Yan Lili seemed to want to continue to say something, but was interrupted by Qi Ziang: "It doesn't matter, it's not particularly important whether he's there or not, the police will find him sooner or later."

"How long have you all been working for this company?"

Jiang Tianyu was the first to answer, "Four months!"

The voice was loud and clear, and there was even a faint trace of pride on his face.

Seeing this, Qi Ziang had to use the action of raising his hand to pinch his eyebrows to hide the slightly twitching corners of his mouth.

The girl's appearance of a good citizen couldn't help but remind him of the University City Vertigo murder case. Two completely unfamiliar faces, but hard to overlap because of the same demeanor, the resemblance is simply 100 percent.

With her taking the lead, Lily Yan and Luo Xu can only tell the truth.

The former has been working at Henry Market Research for as long as six years, while Luo Xu slightly shorter, surprisingly, also nearly four years.

Hearing this, Qi Ziang a pair of eyes slightly narrowed, subconsciously rubbing his fingers with the pile of information in his hands.

It is indeed very unusual that two employees are fixed like this, while another post has been coming and going.

After thinking about it, he unobtrusively glanced at Jiang Tianyu, who was diagonally opposite, and the two of them made a brief but rapid eye contact.

Retracted his gaze, Qi Ziang rushed to the side of the busy back and forth Lu Li said: "time reason, we have to speed up, call a few more people over, let the three of them separate to do the transcript."

Lu Li understood his subtext at that time, answered and quickly took Jiang Tianyu and Yan Lili out of the company with his colleagues.

The police took Lily Yan to the car downstairs, while Jiang Tianyu stood face to face with Lu Li and others in the corridor outside, looking like she was being questioned from afar, but in fact she was listening intently to the commotion coming from the house with her ears open.

"You say you a little girl family, how curious so heavy? The police are only handling the case, the follow-up results will also respect the public's right to know to send the case briefing." Lu Li incomprehensible hands around the chest, the mouth tsk tsk.

Jiang Tianyu is very dignified to divide a trace of attention, nonchalantly dislike: "If I am not curious, can find the needle-hole cameras in the group rented rooms? If I wasn't curious, could I remember the insignificant names on the commission letter from Henry Zhu's side?"

She suddenly smiled with her teeth, "Officer Lu, you're welcome."

Lu Li tightly pursed his lips, if not for the concern of too many colleagues around, he even wanted to cover his chest with his hand.

This familiar feeling of heart blockage again, when you think about it, you don't feel it for some days.

It is really fucking hell, right, he himself in the same place chanting, or take the time to go to the hospital to do an electrocardiogram? The old so from time to time a little, it is not really stay up all night boiling out of some serious disease, right?

At this time, just a vague human voice came out from the doorway, Jiang Tianyu naturally will not continue to pay attention to even began to hold the phone Baidu up Lu Li, carefully forward and a step, finally listened to the conversation in the room.

"..... So tell me, Mr. Luo, how long have you known about Henry Zhu's crimes?" Qiziang chose a comfortable sitting posture and asked in a good-natured manner.

Luo Xu smiled, his hands unconsciously clasped together: "Officer, what are you saying, why can't I understand?"

Qi Ziang's expression did not change: "Mr. Luo, you are a smart man, if you did not perceive something, how could you change your mind and try to squeeze Niu Xiaoting out?"

"....."
