

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 91 - Tips

0 8 minutes read

Luo Xu quietly and the opposite male police officer looked at each other, for a long time before opening his mouth again, his voice slightly hoarse: "So what evidence do you the police have now?"

This question is asked, should be weighing the pros and cons.

The first thing you need to do is to make sure that you have a good idea of what you are getting into.

The other side did not respond at first, first lowered his eyelids to think carefully, before slowly saying: "Sure enough, I knew there would be a day like this sooner or later."

According to Luo Xu's next explanation, it turns out that he found out a long time ago that this company and Henry Zhu are very unusual.

But because of what exactly, he could not say, all rely on the sixth sense.

Until watching the new colleagues one after another 'leave', the heart of the vague intuition gradually clear up.

"Those so-called colleagues in the past, after leaving I never thought to contact until the last one, he only did two months in the company." Luo Xu sighed softly: "At that time, my brain was hot, I thought to make a phone call privately, to confirm what the situation is."

"As expected I couldn't find anyone, and his phone number was cancelled within two days."

"You also know the nature of my work." The man said this, self-deprecatingly pulled up the corners of his lips and smiled: "I used the resources at hand to quietly investigate, the result is that this person has evaporated."

"So after Xiao Ting started, I felt something was wrong. Officer, you have seen Niu Xiao-ting several times, this girl honestly looks so unintelligent, simply not able to do private detective material."

Outside the door has been squatting at the corner of Jiang Tianyu uncomfortable touching the ears, every time eavesdropping can hear the evaluation of others on this body, but also drunk.

Next to the Lu Li on the contrary is not controlled 'pfft' laugh out loud, pointing at her is a meal output: "so your business ability in the eyes of colleagues so pull ah"

"No wonder when Henry Zhu received the case of Qiu Feiyang and others, let you go, feeling that you simply can not investigate what."

This point, he said is indeed very reasonable, Jiang Tianyu actually surprisingly did not refute.

If Henry Zhu also knew Qiu Feiyang, Liu Kai and Pu Xiuxiu, the three deceased, the moment he received the commission, he should have vaguely sensed that something was wrong.

But he could not not take the case, because he wanted to know whether it was a coincidence or someone was plotting something behind the scenes.

In order not to expose himself to the eyes of others, he could only avoid Yan Lili and Luo Xu, the two human old fogeys, and chose the business ability to pull the crotch of Niu Xiao-ting.

Sure enough, those three died one after another in the end.

In retrospect, the reason why Niu Xiaoting can go to the dumping site around, which is not without Henry Zhu's 'help' it!

The scourge of the east?

Jiang Tianyu frowned, could it be that drawing the police to the company was Henry Zhu's plan? He wanted to take advantage of the police investigation of the cause of death of those three people, hiding behind the police's first suspect Niu Xiaoting, to achieve the ultimate goal of finding out the truth?

So the death of those three people, it really has nothing to do with him and Fei Jianming?

The only accident of this plan seems to have been worn by Jiang Tianyu Niu Xiao-ting, not only quickly cleared the police side of the suspicion, but also mistakenly found the cameras in the group room, thus involving Fei Jianming to the stage.

Pull out the carrot and bring out the mud, from there, everything is a little off , completely beyond the control of Henry Zhu.

So is he now feeling that things are headed in a bad direction and running away in advance?

Jiang Tianyu in this instant, countless thoughts flashed through his mind, and his expression was somewhat stunned.

Inside the house, for this comment, Qi Ziang did not make any comments, still the same official poker face: "Since you have found the abnormalities of Henry Zhu, and why did not choose to call the police?"

"Call the police?" Luo Xu looked like he heard some kind of joke: "Officer, do you know how many things Yan Lili and I have done over the years that violate the law? Although we may not have volunteered at the beginning, but by the time we reacted, we were already firmly tied to this boat."

People are selfish, once involved in their own interests, then we have to do everything think twice before acting.

This matter is also understandable, after all, Henry Zhu surface operating such a small company, if the company does not have employees that is suspicious!

Besides, the company's daily routine is also to receive other business, no investigators as support, how can that work.

First, the use of money without traces to keep Yan Lili and Luo Xu, until the two suddenly find something wrong one day, that also have to think for themselves.

One side is to report him, they are also facing jail, the other side is to shut up, take the money to play dumb to live comfortably.

Obviously, they chose the latter.

"So Yan Lili is also aware of the relationship between Henry Zhu and Fei Jianming?" Qiziang asked again.

Shaking his head uncertainly, Luo Xu gave an answer, "She must also be aware of it, as to what extent she knows, this I can't say."

Qiziang silent thinking for two seconds, then rushed to the door of Lu Li beckoned: "First take the people back to the bureau, with us to do further investigation."

Lu Li answered.

"Contact the technical side? Is there any result in locating Henry Zhu's cell phone signal?" He stood up from the sofa, after making sure that Zhang Ye and others for the forensic work in the company nothing missed, he came to this sentence in passing.

"No, the technical side found that his signal last appeared near the Kunlong commercial building, which means that his phone was turned off just after he separated from Luo Xu at noon." Lu Li also found it strange.

"Qi team, do you think he would have planned to run long ago, now may be hiding in which nooks and crannies!"

The company's main goal is to provide the best possible service to its customers.

Speaking of this, he paused, then glanced at the slender figure that had been wandering back and forth in the corridor outside.

"What if Qiu Feiyang and the other three deaths really have nothing to do with Henry Zhu, Fei Jianming and the two of them? Don't forget that there is a murderer outside."

Lu Li looked slightly austere: "You are suspecting that Henry Zhu may have been?"

"He and Fei Jianming have ghosts in their hearts, there are a certain number of first step to know who is targeting their group of people, human traffickers ah can be ruthless characters." Qiziang's words have words.

Who can guarantee that Henry Zhu will not take the initiative to seek revenge?

But regardless of the possibility, there is no denying that somewhere in this city they can't see, there is no chance that a vicious case is happening.

With such a sense of urgency, the entire Jiangcheng city's public security system is running at full speed beyond imagination.

Because Fei Jianming's group house and Henry Zhu's company were both located in He'an District, Qi Ziang set up a temporary operational command point at the He'an District Public Security Bureau.

A large conference room, because of the scattered tables full of various information, files and people coming and going, is not at all empty.

"Qi team, we verified from those rental contracts of Fei Jianming to determine the missing twenty-three people, four of whom were once employees of Henry Zhu Company." Officer Liu gave the data he had so far.

Across the wide conference table stood Lu Li, who interjected, "There are nine people who used to work for Henry Market Research and now can't be found, excluding the four people who rented a room in Fei Jianming, that leaves five people."

Twenty-three plus five, a total of twenty-eight people.

This number alone does not seem to be huge, but once you think about this is behind a line of living human life, it is quite shocking.

With the progress of modern criminal investigation methods, coupled with the widespread coverage of security surveillance probes around the world, in recent years human traffickers want to commit crimes has become increasingly difficult.

Right now, they are more likely to use a variety of means and words on the network to lure, but this is still very risky, a careless will soon be targeted by the police.

Like Fei Jianming and their quiet, in just four or five years to get so many people, it is not easy.

To really involve the organ trade as they had previously speculated, people will be more valuable, twenty-eight people just counting the income is extremely alarming.

Moreover, it is likely that there are channels that the police have not been able to discover, after all, on the evidence available now alone, this case of human trafficking still has a considerable number of suspicious points.

For example, those people in Yunzhou City for transit, and then flow to where.

But now the most urgent task is to find out who the murderer of Qiu Feiyang and others really is, as for the rest, it's not too late to find out after Henry Zhu returns to the case.

"Before I asked you to transfer, Niu Xiao-ting those times to Yunzhou City bus information and passenger information, still nothing found?" Qiziang put down what he was holding and asked.

Lu Li shook his head: "The passenger list is there, identity information I have also done all the collation, so far there is no abnormality found."

"I have also sent that passenger list to the Yunzhou City Public Security Bureau, Shi team they are taking the information and the hands of the body dumping site near the surveillance video for comparison, but I still think there is not much hope."

"The murderer may not follow Niu Xiao-ting, right, people may not go to the city of Yunzhou first?"

Qiziang did not deny this, went to the side and picked up the pile of personal identification information that had just been transferred shortly.

These dozens of people are not many of those missing people, the only remaining social and family ties, even relatives who can be verified are included.

The three victims were strangled to death, and the killer stripped them naked and dumped the bodies in the garbage, the details of the crime and the modus operandi of the personal emotions and pointers contained in the crime are quite obvious.

So could it be revenge?

He slowly flipped through a sheet of citizenship information while making a decision in his mind.

Turning his head, he looked at Lu Li: "Where is Niu Xiao-ting?"

The other party froze, and after reacting, raised the book and pointed in the direction of downstairs: "Didn't you order to bring back all the people from Henry Market Research? They should be downstairs in the interrogation room right now."

Qiziang eyes flashing, holding the pile in his hand, without saying a word, walked out of this conference room.

After getting off the elevator, Qi Ziang finally pushed open the door of the third interrogation room after passing by the interrogation rooms where Luo Xu and Yan Lili were located.

Jiang Tianyu was sipping warm coffee from a disposable paper cup while she was bored with the online news on her cell phone, and raised her eyes in slight consternation when she heard the movement.

"Officer Qi." She quickly put away her phone and sat upright, her eyes rounded with anticipation.

The first thing you need to do is to look at the cup of coffee that is about to reach the bottom: "Niu Xiaoting, you have not been to the Jiangcheng City Public Security Bureau several times, right? I feel you are familiar as if you are back home?"

Embarrassed to squeeze out a smile, Jiang Tianyu tried to make himself look less vain: "Get me back together with those two colleagues, people have police chatter, I did not see a ghost."

The company's main goal is to provide a solution to the problem of the problem.

Seeing that she is talking about, Qiziang does not poke, directly handed over dozens of personal information: "Here is the list of social and family relations of those who have been confirmed missing, you see if there are any you are familiar with?"

"We've made a detailed search of the train schedules and passenger information of your previous trips to Yunzhou City, and found no overlap with this list." He went on to explain, "The police inferred from the murderer's modus operandi and the location of the three dead bodies that the motive was most likely revenge killing."

Jiang Tianyu blinked, glanced twice at the information in his hands, opened his mouth: "But since the families and boyfriends of the three deceased have received text messages from the killer, which proves that he knows more about the three deceased, the killer can go directly to Yunzhou City, why do the police think he will follow me ah?"

"It is not to follow you, we line up the car and passengers just in case." Qiziang pulled out the chair opposite the interrogation table, sat down and said: "You also said that the killer knows a lot about the three dead, which means that the other side must have done a long-term investigation and preparation before making a move."

"Suppose he knows about Fei Jianming and Henry Zhu as well? It is possible that this person will have appeared around the two, and more than once."

Nodded gently, Jiang Tianyu understood his meaning, if so, both in the Henry Market Research Company to work and live in a group home Niu Xiao-ting, indeed, may have seen the killer.

Quickly browse through the list of dozens of people, there are no familiar names.

If these people and Henry Market Research had business dealings, the police would have been able to check out, from here to start must not have found anything.

Changed her mind, she began to carefully read the information of that person one by one, lips because of concentration and slightly pursed.

In this moment, she seems to block all the external sound outside the thinking, so that completely unaware of the slightly unrestrained gaze that fell on her from just now.

The actual fact is that the actual person is not only the actual person, but also the actual person who is the actual person.

Sure enough, even the small habit of seriously reading something will use the right index finger to slide back and forth under the words is the same, it must be her, right?

I don't know how much time has passed, Jiang Tianyu only felt some soreness in her shoulders and neck after she returned to her senses, and lifted her head and tilted it back.

She was ready to relax her muscles that had become stiff due to a long time of one movement, but never thought she would run into the eyes of the opposite pair.

“Got something?” Qiziang raised his eyebrows, and his tone was sparse.

“Well not yet.” Jiang Tianyu shook her head, obediently raised her hand and pressed the back of her neck, and began to wonder if she had just looked at the information for too long blurry eyes, the man stared at her, how a little strange?

In order to confirm, she raised her eyelids again, at this time, the other party's eyes have fallen on the information she had thrown a desk.

It was true that she had overthought.

With a shrug, she threw out the last piece of paper in her hand, followed by a long sigh: “Sorry, I really don't remember anything.”

“Maybe I've been in the company for too short a time, why don't we ask Yan Lili and Luo Xu?”

“Yan Lili is still refusing to admit her knowledge of the facts related to Henry Zhu's crime violation, so the possibility of having her help with identification is not high.” Qiziang frowned slightly: “As for Luo Xu,, this person is too smooth, not to force him to a certain extent, he is only thinking about not offending anyone.”

“And the first murder occurred about two months ago, I think the killer appeared in Zhu Henry and Fei Jianming's side should not be too long.”

Now time is short, where the police have the energy to slowly grind with those two people?

Another thing he didn't say is that Lily Yan and Luo Xu don't have any credibility with him, and for the two's confessions, the Major Crimes Unit side is still holding a skeptical attitude.

After thinking about it, Jiang Tianyu felt that the other party's words made sense, so he sank his eyes back down to the interrogation table.

“According to the autopsy reports of the three deceased and the trace inspection report of the dumping site, we have come up with a general profile for the murderer.” Qiziang spoke slowly.

“Given the large amount of alcohol in all three victims and the state of their physical appearance when they were found, the killer should have had a cleanliness problem and some degree of OCD.”

“The forensic pathologist determined that all three died of asphyxiation, and they all also had pinch marks between their necks.”

“There is something strange about the pinch marks. The forensic scientist’s opinion is that the murderer’s right hand was most likely injured, which is why the pinch marks on both sides of the deceased’s neck have subtle differences.”

He just dropped the words on his side, Jiang Tianyu will look thoughtful, always feel these details déjà vu.

Cleanliness and OCD?

Injured right hand?

Appeared in the vicinity of Henry Zhu and Fei Jianming

These clues stacked up in her mind line by line, an unexpected but did not make her feel very surprised figure popped up.

“The sanitation worker.” She opened her mouth.

“Sanitation workers.” Qiziang repeated it in a declarative tone, as if he was sure of something.

She nodded affirmatively, “A person wearing municipal sanitation work clothes can be seen everywhere on the street, no one will pay special attention to him, and no matter where he appears, others won’t find it strange!”

“When did this sanitation worker come downstairs to our company, I can’t say, but that day I had a brief contact with him when I was throwing out the garbage.”

“To say the ridiculous, the reason why I was able to find Qiu Feiyang family members Zhang Yang had received the so-called ‘mistress’ text message before, or he reminded me of the

“What I am sure of is that the sanitation worker must have a cleanliness fetish and OCD. That day it was me who accidentally dripped vegetable soup on the brick surface of the sidewalk near the garbage can, so the other party opened his mouth for reprimand and stayed squatting there concentrating on the stains on the brick surface after I went upstairs.”

“While cleaning the stain, the sanitation worker also took off his thick gloves, and I noticed that he had scars on the back of his hands.”

“And” said Jiang Tianyu crooked his head uncertainly: “Although he was still wearing a mask and hat because of the cold weather, but from the skin exposed to the outside, he should also have injuries on his face. “

A person who had been seriously injured.

Qiziang while unconsciously tapping the desktop, while out: “Henry Market Research and Fei Jianming himself living in the set of houses, the location is very close, from the regional planning, in the jurisdiction of the same community.”

“Municipal sanitation rotation seems to be very common, so the other party is likely to have also worked underneath Fei Jianming residence.”

As he spoke, he took out his cell phone from his pants pocket and dialed a phone number: “Lu Li, contact the municipal company and get the information of the sanitation worker who has been set in the vicinity of Henry Market Research in recent times!”

“Also, get the list of missing persons”

After ending the call, Qi Ziang saw that the girl opposite was still lying on the desktop rummaging through the pile of scattered papers, so he opened his mouth with deliberation, “Perhaps the direction of our investigation has been skewed from the beginning by the facts of the crime that Fei Jianming and Zhu Henry and others are engaged in?”

At that, Jiang Tianyu’s hand movement: “What do you mean?”

“Who said that revenge can only be the relatives or friends of those who have disappeared?” Qiziang said meaningfully.

Because she was too surprised, her pupils shrank slightly in this instant: “Officer Qi is saying that the murderer is one of the missing twenty-eight people?”

Qiziang upper body leaned back on the back of the chair, hands around the chest with her eyes, although did not give any affirmative answer, but body language has said everything.

Soon there was a knock on the door, and the next second Lu Li dashed in: “Team Qi, what do you want the missing person’s identity information for again?”

The next moment he noticed the mess on the table and couldn’t help but collapse his face: “Still no progress?”

Before waiting for Qi Ziang to respond, Jiang Tianyu stood up first, walked to his side and unceremoniously grabbed the information of those missing people, after which grabbed all the time to look through it.

“Not Niu Xiao-ting! You” because of too much shock, Lu Li slightly opened his mouth, for a time actually do not know what to say.

Xu has not encountered such arrogant people involved in the case, he pointed his finger at the girl, and then pointed at Qi Ziang, who was sitting next to the show, and finally pointed at the girl again.

The heart of a thousand words converged into a confession: “Qi team, look at her ah!!!”

And all he got was Qi Ziang’s placating gaze of looking at a fool.

Not two seconds later, Jiang Tianyu suddenly exclaimed, pulling out a piece of paper in the middle: “It’s him! That sanitation worker is him!”

Although she did not see the full face of that sanitation worker, but some features do not change much with the passage of time: “The structure of the eyebrows and eyes of the sanitation worker is extremely similar to this person, and there is also a mole in the eyebrows!”

“..... Wei Yushu” Lu Li read out the name on the piece of paper.

“If I remember correctly, he seems to be one of the former employees of Henry Market Research, right?”

“It is indeed him.” The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services.

The first thing you need to do is to take the list from Jiang Tianyu’s hand and rush out, seeing that you already have the suspect’s clues in your hands, he can’t wait a moment longer.

The company’s main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

Jiang Tianyu only slightly frowned, tone of voice incomprehensible: “I do not understand why he did not call the police.”

If you choose to call the police at the first moment after escaping, I'm afraid that Fei Jianming and others have already been brought to justice, and I don't know how many victims will be spared in these two years.

"You just said, this Wei Yushu's body and face have a lot of scars?" Qiziang raised his voice: "After experiencing something that is hard to imagine, it is not surprising that there is no timely intervention and detoxification of the trauma in the heart."

Perhaps in this Wei Yushu's heart, only he himself can redeem himself.

"No wonder Henry Zhu was able to act one step ahead of the police, guessing that not many people have been able to escape from this organization of theirs for so many years, it's easy to relate."

Nodding, Jiang Tianyu sat back in her chair and resumed her silence.

At the same time, Qi Ziang stood up. He nodded slightly at her: "Miss Niu, thank you for your help again, you are now a free man, you can go home first and wait for the news."

"Of course, if you want, you can also stay here. There is food and drink in the lounge, I'm sure you can find it all."

With these words, he took a step and quickly left.

The other party turned around and disappeared at the door, Jiang Tianyu always felt that what he just said was a bit strange.

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of what you're doing.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

A few minutes later, Jiang Tianyu stood at the lounge window and looked out, the sky was already dark.

The light reflected from the windows of the office building to the ground, I think today is another sleepless night.

She sighed silently and took a small bite of the bread she had just taken out of the refrigerator, the cold sensation entered her stomach and her features subconsciously crinkled together.

The original idea was to eat some hot noodles, but I didn't expect the cupboard where the noodles were originally placed to be empty at the moment.

In Jiang Tianyu thinking about the work, behind suddenly came a sound of footsteps, stunned back to look, the visitor or an old acquaintance.

It was the young policewoman she had dealt with in both Zhou Ya and Guan Miao Miao's body, and the other party was carrying a large opaque plastic bag in her hand, bulging with something.

"Miss Niu, right?" The young policewoman smiled at her, then put the bag in her hand on the table nearest to the door, "This is what the Qi team ordered the supermarket to send over."

She went forward slightly puzzled, opened the large pocket, and inside was a pile of spicy flavored noodles, ham sausage, and marinated eggs.

The woman who was in front of the police had no idea what to call her, so she politely asked, "Hello, what is your name?"

"My surname is Wang."

"Officer Wang, thank you so much." She said thanks with unparalleled sincerity.

The young policewoman hastily waved her hand, then with a joy that almost diffused from her face, she turned and walked away with brisk footsteps.

After filling her stomach with a steaming bowl of noodles, Jiang Tianyu arranged the rest in the cupboard that contained them before.

Next, she cleaned the entire lounge again, to make sure that every place is still clean, and only then turned up the temperature of the air conditioning, pillowed his shoulder bag lying in the corner of the small sofa that did not know when to appear to fall asleep.

I don't know if it's because I'm tired, or because I wasted too much energy in helping the Major Crime Unit find the killer's identity information, Jiang Tianyu slept soundly this time.

Until some rustling sounds came to her ears, she frowned uneasily and slowly opened her eyes.

The familiar white lattice ceiling of the lounge and the white ceiling lamp that is still on are what I saw.

The difference is that it is already bright outside the window, the winter sunlight is not too harsh through the window softly sprinkled on the windowsill, looks warm in the room.

While rubbing his eyes and sitting up, Jiang Tianyu moved his neck contentedly.

I don't know what it is, but after wearing so many bodies, she always feels that the nights she spends at the Public Security Bureau are the best times to sleep.

With a slight side glance, she saw Lu Li and Xu Lida who were sitting there wolfing down their noodles.

"Yo, awake, huh?" Lu Li, after taking a bite of noodles, sucked his nose and opened his mouth in an odd manner, "I don't know what people are used to nowadays, one or two of them don't return home, but they love to sleep in the Public Security Bureau."

This last statement is purely emotional, and I do not know if it is really too much pressure on life, everyone is gradually perverted up.

If he were an ordinary person, he would want to be as far away from the police as possible.

Jiang Tianyu smiled and rolled her eyes, then a smile, "I do not know what the police are used to now, one or two from me to get an important clue, not even a word of thanks."

Lu Li was choked up, the mouth of the noodles in the mouth said what can not swallow.

The opposite Xu Lida's expression is also a difficult to say, feel their knees for no reason in an arrow, followed by eating melon fall.

In order to save a little face, Lu Li took out a tissue and wiped his mouth, then once again raised his voice: "You slept on our Public Security Bureau's sofa, but I didn't see you say thank you!"

Who knows that his side of the words just fell, Xu Lida picked up: "correction, that is the Qi team's sofa, but did not spend half a cent of the bureau's funds."

This thing is also strange, obviously they have two comfortable and good sleep sofa in the office of the crime unit, and everyday everyone choose to go to the backyard dormitory to rest, do not know Qi Ziang which tendon is wrong, last month non-pay out of pocket and put a lounge on this floor.

It is not afraid that colleagues interrogation too late?

It is a good leader who knows how to sympathize with his subordinates, although it does not take long to go upstairs by elevator, but this action and idea is very thoughtful.

Xu Lida's words led Lu Li to glare at him, after the entire collapse of the momentum, it can no longer hold up.

The man angrily forked up the last bite of noodles in the bucket, trying to completely ignore the girl sitting in the corner with a slight sneer in her expression.

But Jiang Tianyu of course will not let him go, after brewing himself a cup of coffee to wake up in the morning, then very familiar to the two people to sit down, smiling and inquiring: "two officers so hard, can not wait for the canteen to open, it seems to be busy all night."

"How was it? Did you find Henry Zhu?"

Xu Lida's eyebrows moved slightly, raised his eyes to look at the person who was sitting next to Lu Li, this scene of making the other side eat defeat, but unusually familiar.

Before he remembered something, Lu Li disgustedly moved to the side of the chair: "Last night, the feedback given by the municipal company side is that nearly six months, responsible for the area near your company are a sanitation worker named Liu Jiande, the other side is fifty-six years old."

Staring in surprise, Jiang Tianyu opened his mouth, "According to the identity information, that Wei Yushu should only be thirty-eight, right?"

"That's right, so I and Xu went to this Liu Jiande's home overnight, and people happen to be well lying in bed with their daughters-in-law sleeping!" Lu Li said, also feel outrageous.

"On the spot interrogation only after learning that Liu Jiande has not been working for a year."

"Our city's municipal companies, a month to these sanitation workers to open the salary, after removing insurance to hand is about three thousand just above the look. He dislikes the low wages and can not afford to pay the company's insurance, so hired a person to sweep the streets for him, only need to pay that person two thousand a month."

"This way he can also go out and take another job, which is quite cost-effective."

Jiang Tianyu pursed her lips in some disbelief, "There is still this kind of situation now?"

"Not what." Lu Li, a talk about this kind of thing, can be energetic, spittle flew across the face of Xu Lida: "How to operate the specific we are not clear, in any case, there are loopholes to exploit it! After all, these years are what outsourcing companies or labor dispatch, the operating space is still there."

"Then he hired that person?"

“According to Liu Jiande account, that person is also introduced by a friend, called Wei Ming. He just fixed the money fixed to people every month to send over, the other did not know too much.”

Head down a sip of coffee, Jiang Tianyu thought, no wonder the police could not find Wei Yushu's activity trajectory in recent years, mistakenly thinking that he and those missing people have disappeared.

I think this is how he survived after coming back from the dead? Changed identity, specifically looking for some odd jobs without ID cards, daily expenses only cash.

Because of this, he was able to evade Fei Jianming and Henry Zhu's gang to track him down, and managed to live to this day of revenge, right?

“Then we found the ‘friend’ who introduced the person to Liu Jiande and managed to get an address, after which the Qi team went over with the technical section directly from the bureau and is still not back.” Lu Liyan struck up, after throwing away the garbage after eating, walked to the refrigerator and took out two bottles of mineral water, and also threw a bottle to Xu Lida by hand.

Then he took a big sip of water, while turning to the window, after a short time, suddenly excitedly yelled out: “Back, back, Qi team they are back!”

The next second, Jiang Tianyu and Xu Lida rushed over, one left and one right standing beside Lu Li, together looking down.

I saw several police cars drive into the compound in turn, Qi Ziang and other people also got out of the car one after another.

Soon, from the last car came down two police officers, and in the middle of them, the person who was obviously controlled by the back handcuffs, from a distance, the figure and walking posture made Jiang Tianyu feel incomparably familiar.

It was the sanitation worker she had seen that day.

At this point, Lu Li spoke up again, his tone full of uncertainty: “How come I don't see Henry Zhu?”

“Couldn't have hung up, right?”

Soon, Qi Ziang led people up to the floor where Jiang Tianyu was.

Lu Li and Xu Lida naturally greeted them quickly, and the three of them got together and said something.

Jiang Tianyu stopped at the door of the lounge, leaning against the door frame and watching from afar.

The suspect who was escorted down the elevator, after noticing her line of sight, actually slowly raised his eyes and looked straight at this side.

The four eyes met, she only felt a chill down her spine.

The other side of a pair of eyes as if quenched poison, which does not even see any belonging to the human temperature.

In this confrontation, Jiang Tianyu is not at a disadvantage, the suspect is ruthless and inhumane, how can it be, now is not caught back by the police, detained in the interrogation room that a small world.

Just she looked again at Qi Ziang and other three looks, it seems that Henry Zhu should not be found.

The suspects happen to be good standing here, so that the fat man seems to be more than lucky, or to think better, he may not know what in advance, put himself deeply hidden.

It's true that you're a bit of a wimp, but at least you can live, right?

For some reason, Jiang Tianyu suddenly thought of the night she came out from Qiu Feiyang's wife's side, after the company downstairs, Zhu Henry on the third floor, and Wei Yushu on the first floor.

At that time she still felt that adult life is not easy, now in retrospect, the picture of two people going up and down more or less carries some deep meaning.

Wei Yushu every time he looked up to see his enemy what kind of mood it would be?

Henry Zhu and whether the busy figure downstairs in the eyes?

And then there's the fact that a sudden change can really change a person's nature completely?

I don't know how long it took, Jiang Tianyu was able to come back to her senses, and the wide corridor in front of her was already empty, so the interrogation of Wei Yushu had already begun.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

"The canteen is open below, why don't you join us?" Qi Ziang issued an invitation.

Jiang Tianyu naturally had no reason to disagree, and after dumbly responding, she followed the other party to the elevator.

While waiting for the elevator to arrive at this floor, she asked as an afterthought, "Wei Yushu's side you went to dinner, can it work?"

"What's not okay." Qiziang replied lightly, just in time for the elevator doors to open, he walked inside while pressing the floor button: "That is not there Lu Li and Xu in it?"

"Besides, the first interrogation is to grind each other's teeth, basically there will not be much progress."

As soon as he contacted Wei Yushu, he had a bottom in his heart about the difficulty of the next work, wanting to get some useful information from the other side's mouth, not to say that it is difficult to get to the top of the sky that is similar.

While talking, the two of them soon arrived at the canteen.

Inside slightly empty, perhaps after the peak of the meal, only a few scattered people sitting there, and occasionally can hear the sound of plates and porcelain bowls collide.

Not much polite clip two meat buns, and a bowl full of skin egg lean pork porridge, sitting at the table Jiang Tianyu while chewing the soup fatty sauce meat buns, while vaguely continue to mutter: "You in Wei Yushu's home, there is nothing else found?"

"Brought back a lot of things, the technical section is working overtime to deal with, but he is now temporarily settled in a very simple unauthorized tin house in the city village, the area of about twenty square meters, there is no place to hide people." Qiziang casually responded to a sentence, see her eating too good, thought about it or the only one in his plate of soy meat buns folder to the girl opposite.

Without noticing anything wrong, Jiang Tianyu, who had just finished drying two large buns, naturally took another bite without the small half: "Well want to change your mind?"

"Hmm?" The man lowered his head and took a sip of soybean milk and made a puzzled nasal sound.

"Wei Yushu he has lived all these years like a shadow, basically check the state of this person, every month to play odd jobs or help people sweep the streets to earn that money, to be able to maintain the basic life is already very good." She opened her mouth with deliberation and slowly stated her thoughts.

"I don't think he has the extra energy or money to prepare a hiding place that can hold a large living person, right?"

"What I mean is that the three previous victims' bodies were all quickly exposed to the public after their deaths were confirmed, and since Henry Zhu didn't, there should be a ray of hope."

Qiziang nodded approvingly, "Speaking of hidden places, not long ago the technical section found evidence of DNA that did not belong to Wei Yushu in the tin room where he lived, although the results are not yet available, but we initially deduced that DNA belonged to the deceased Qiu Feiyang."

"Because according to some traces in the house, the tin room is likely to be the first crime scene of Qiu Feiyang's death!"

"There is very close to the body dumping site, and the number of surveillance probes is very small, plus the complex structure of people in the village, so the police were not able to find anything unusual in the first search."

"I have a simple communication with the Yunzhou City Shi team, Yunzhou City police are also prepared to take the two victims of the body dumping site as a round point, the surrounding carpet search, as soon as possible to find the first two cases of crime scene."

Speaking of this, he paused slightly, then his eyebrows wrinkled slightly: "So what you want to express is that Wei Yushu most likely took advantage of Zhu Henry or Fei Jianming's place and played a set of black under the lights with the police?"

"The police have now figured out all the industries under their names, I'll go up later and have someone check again."

Jiang Tianyu burped lightly, after dazzling three meat buns, and then began to drink small sips of skinny meat porridge: "Officer Qi, there is still no progress on Fei Jianming's side?"

Qi Ziang shook his head: "This industrial chain is not as simple as it seems, the more you investigate, the more you can not see the end."

"I think Fei Jianming also knows in his own heart, to say or not to say in the end it is difficult to escape a death, but said most likely to attract the retaliation of the upper line."

He can't be himself manipulating such a huge chain of crime, as said before, those missing people? Where exactly is the final destination?

Now it is known that the Mu Yu Xuan teahouse in Yunzhou City is suspected to be a transit point, Shi Ge they are also pursuing this line, but still that sentence, the investigation takes time.

The two police do not expect to be able to solve this human trafficking case in a very short time, the immediate priority is the three murders.

The road must be taken one step at a time, and the food must be eaten one bite at a time.

"Also." Jiang Tianyu sent the last bite of white porridge into his mouth, but I do not know why, but the heart has been haunted by a stifling feeling, how can not linger.

After quickly finishing breakfast, Qi Ziang sent her back to the floor where the interrogation room was located, and then took the elevator alone to the Major Crime Unit office.

With half a bottle of mineral water in her hand, Jiang Tianyu passed by the interrogation rooms where Fei Jianming, Luo Xu and Yan Lili were located in turn, and finally stopped in front of the door of the last one.

Through the small glass on the door, she could see that Lu Li was knocking hard on the table with an agitated expression, while Xu Lida, with a cigarette between his fingers, was pacing back and forth inside.

Across the table, Wei Yushu was expected to say nothing, his face covered with thin scars expressionless, only occasionally blinking to make people realize that he was alive.

Uncertainty frowned, Jiang Tianyu withdrew his eyes and walked to the opposite side of the corridor, half leaning on the windowsill into a deep thought.

So in the end is

Wow.

The interrogation room was suddenly pushed open from the inside, and came out Lu Li and Xu Lida after seeing the figure outside the door, but also slightly surprised to look her up and down a bit.

"Niu Xiao-ting, what are you doing here?"

"I" Jiang Tianyu was about to open her mouth to explain.

Who knows Lu Li does not seem to care at all, only to see him waving his hand, then pull Xu Lida hurriedly run in the direction of the elevator: "I go first, Qi team said there may have found the location of Henry Zhu at the moment."

"Damn, when we turn back to find people back, I see that Wei Yushu still take what hard resistance!"

It seems that the two of them in just a few minutes, from the suspect side ate a lot of defeat, this time is a stomach of grievances and complaints have nowhere to vent.

Even when they were already on the elevator, Jiang Tianyu could still hear the curses echoing in the corridor.

A long breath of relief, she looked at the door of the interrogation room that had been closed again, and finally turned her head to put her eyes on the compound downstairs.

At this time a team of people have already assembled, the action is sharp successively on the police cars, accompanied by the sound of whistling sirens, the vehicle soon disappeared on the river highway.

Raising his hand, Jiang Tianyu used his finger to point at the window, and Wei Yushu's scarred, ghastly face flashed before his eyes once again.

"The victim?"

Drip – drip –

The narrow road outside the alley became unusually crowded because several police cars were stationed, and the passing vehicles occasionally emitted a piercing horn, but those in front of them on foot and on bicycles continued to watch themselves, so to speak, stolidly.

It was not long before two traffic police arrived on motorcycles and began to divert traffic in time, which did not cause too much of a public outcry.

The 120 emergency personnel from an old building deep in this alley, struggling to carry a stretcher to the direction of the ambulance, the stretcher is lying on an obese body, the other body is full of blood, it seems to have been more into the air and less out of breath.

"Make way!!! The people in front of you, please give way! The paramedics shouted hoarsely, afraid that if they delayed one more second, the person above them would be completely soulless.

At this time, Qiziang also came out of the building, after taking off the disposable gloves on his hands, he stood in place with his eyebrows furrowed and his arms crossed as he watched the 120 quickly drive away.

Jingle Bells Jingle Bells

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

The other side of Jiang Tianyu's tone was urgent: "Officer Qi, is there a possibility that this Wei Yushu is not the kind of victim we thought?"

In response, he did not respond at first, but after a short silence asked a rhetorical question, "Is there a possibility that Wei Yushu actually has accomplices?"

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 95 - Tips

0 8 minutes read

Time seems to have come to a standstill at this moment.

Two people in different locations with the same phone, very tacit understanding of both into the silence.

It was not until the scene, Lu Li also rushed out from the hallway, Qi Ziang then opened his mouth again, a deep voice admonished: "I now have to leave for the hospital, later Lu Li will go back, you two meet and then your ideas and him to talk in detail."

The words just fell, Jiang Tianyu did not even have time to respond, there was a 'beep beep' busy tone in his ear.

Although I don't know what the situation is on the man's side, but through the vague noise that I just heard, a scene of chaos emerged in her mind.

After putting her phone back into her pants pocket, Jiang Tianyu thought about it and walked back to the lounge, grabbed her backpack from the sofa, and took the elevator down to the first floor.

When Lu Li drove a police car back to the City Bureau compound, saw the girl sitting on the steps in front of the office building, slightly raised his head, the whole face is bathed in the winter sunlight such a scene.

Subconsciously slammed down the brakes, he rolled down the car window, did not expect a cold air came violently, freezing his face were twitching: "Niu Xiao-ting, today the temperature is more than minus 20 degrees, you do not wait up there, sitting here for what?

Hearing the movement, Jiang Tianyu opened his eyes, then stood up, patting the soil on his pants: "I don't know if it's because I've been in the house for a long time, my brain feels a bit wooden, I want to come down to get some fresh air, so maybe I can react a little faster."

In response, Lu Li just sneered, parked the car and then got out and walked to her side.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

The leader opened his mouth, plus the other side did make a lot of contributions when determining the identity of the killer.

So after thinking about it, he still swallowed back his stomach full of doubts.

Flinging the car keys, Lu Li jumped up the steps and signaled with his eyes for Jiang Tianyu to follow.

The two soon returned to the conference room that was temporarily commandeered by the Major Crime Unit, and the materials that were scattered all over the table were now organized, changing the previous chaos and looking much fresher.

Here, Jiang Tianyu also ran into the female police officer who brought her noodles last night, and they greeted each other politely.

Wang Chang was obviously very curious about her appearance, but did not ask questions, but only looked back and forth at them a few times, and then looked down again to work on matters related to the classification of documents.

"Take a seat." After entering this conference room, Lu Li immediately took on a master's posture and spoke in a condescending tone.

Looking at his such childish behavior and performance, Jiang Tianyu just raised his hand to scratch the corner of his forehead, intending to immediately get to the point: "Henry Zhu is still alive?"

"The situation is not optimistic, was found covered with wounds, the first aid paramedics said he had lost too much blood causing shock." Lu Li's eyebrows twitched, and his expression became serious after mentioning the serious matter.

"Then how was his location discovered?" She then asked.

She still has a very deep impression of the situation in the morning, from the discussion between herself and Qi Ziang in the cafeteria to Lu Li and other people out of the police, in the middle of only half an hour, right?

What could be done in half an hour? I'm afraid that Qi Ziang back to the office b.uttocks are not hot, how can so quickly from Zhu Henry and Fei Jianming's body to analyze the suspicious location?

"Because yesterday, after Xu and I came back from the police, I incidentally threw the identity information of Liu Jiande, who hired Wei Yushu, into the system to check, and as a result, just earlier today, it really found a rental information related to him." Speaking of this, Lu Li looked very proud.

After all, if it wasn't for his 'yawning' thought to check in passing, he really couldn't have found this blind spot.

"Let me guess, the house that Liu Jiande is renting happens to be under Fei Jianming's name?" Jiang Tianyu raised an eyebrow.

"That's right, except that only the relevant information is registered, and it has only been rented for less than two months, and there is no written contract in Fei Jianming's home, which is why we didn't discover it in the first place." Lu Li clapped his hands.

"Yunzhou City side has not been unable to find the first crime scene of the two murders? The Qi team has sent the identity information of this Liu Jiande to see if the Yunzhou police can find out something as well."

It is known that there is an illegal employment relationship between Liu Jiande and Wei Yushu, so it seems that it should be quite simple for Wei Yushu to get a copy of Liu Jiande's ID card or something.

And Wei Yushu certainly can not personally go out to rent a house with Fei Jianming, no wonder Qi Ziang suspected that he had accomplices.

In this way, it seems that in the course of the three murders, there are still a lot of suspicions.

The original did not identify the killer, these suspicions naturally no one noticed, now the killer is sitting downstairs in the interrogation room, many details will inevitably be magnified, it seems to be everywhere less logical.

In her somewhat distracted kung fu, Lu Li sat on his butt on the conference table, stretched out his hand and knocked hard on the desktop twice: "Hey! Qi team let me back but said about Wei Yushu side, you have any new ideas? Rather say ah!"

The words, he did not disguise the skirt, this girl do not look young, can be said to be tricky.

Just a careless, she was again set off a lot of words, his own side on the contrary is nothing.

“Oh, it’s about the injury on Wei Yushu’s body.” Jiang Tianyu frowned and opened his mouth with deliberation, “From the beginning of determining his identity, I’ve been wondering what happened back then to cause those scars we see now.”

“If Fei Jiangming and Henry Zhu really sold those missing people to the black market to do some kind of organ trade, it is basically the process of putting down, transport, on the operating table, trauma even if there will be, it will not be so serious, right?”

She said so, Lu Li also think that is indeed the case.

“Maybe he was too disobedient and resisted to cause this result?” He rubbed his chin and gave a guess.

“Unlike, based on the scars on Wei Yushu’s face and body, it doesn’t look like someone wanted him to listen and submit, but more like he had suffered some inhuman torture.” Jiang Tianyu said slightly narrowed his eyes: “Officer Lu, you just said Zhu Henry was found covered with wounds?”

Those three dead but suffocated, why would he suddenly change his modus operandi in the treatment of Henry Zhou?

Lu Li heard the hidden meaning of her words, can not help but breathe a stagnant, hesitant tone: “Niu Xiaoting, you would not suspect this Wei Yushu at first and Fei Jianming, Zhu Henry and other people are a gang, right?”

“But he well is”

But what, the man stammered and eventually failed to say a reason.

Yes, even if Wei Yushu used to be an employee of Henry Market Research, it does not mean that he must be a victim!

Although the man was missing, but who can prove that he is not because of the internal conflicts of the gang was the combined efforts of several people to get rid of it?

After all, the industry chain under the gang has been quite mature, and there has never been a precedent of a victim escaping for so many years, so why did he escape?

The same question that Jiang Tianyu had asked Qi Zion: Why didn’t he call the police?

How could he call the police when he was one of the abusers?

"F*ck!" The thousand words in his heart finally converged into only this one sentence, Lu Li muttered, "So it is highly likely that a few years ago, this Wei Yushu did something that made Fei Jianming and the others decide to get rid of him, and from the way he treated these few people's modus operandi, the one who did it to him in the first place should be Zhu Henry?!"

"Old me for a moment kinda pitied him."

Jiang Tianyu face down pressed the corners of the mouth in approval, before not knowing the true identity of Wei Yushu, to have sympathy for his unfortunate encounter should be considered a common sense, it is not shameful.

Unconsciously tapped the table with her fingertips, she raised her chin at the opposite side: "About the accomplice that Officer Qi said, do you have any preliminary ideas?"

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public. Want to see if you can pry something out of the mouth of Henry Zhu."

"Then let's wait."

After saying these two words, the conference room instantly fell into an enigmatic silence, only occasionally can hear the sound of paper turning, that is the corner of the female officers are organizing materials.

In the midst of the silence, Jiang Tianyu got up and walked to the window, looking into the not-so-familiar backyard of the office building.

The last time I saw it, it was still a lush scene outside, but now the trees have withered, and there is still untouched snow on the ground.

Boom!

Jiang Tianyu's mind suddenly came a loud bang, and a sky-rocketing fire sprang up in front of her eyes, which was all she could see before she lost consciousness during that mission.

Pursing her lips, she gently rested her forehead against the glass window, and the cold touch coming from the front of her forehead allowed her to barely peel herself away from that tragic memory.

I don't know how much longer I will have to live like a wandering soul drifting in this world

Suddenly, a loud 'bang' came from the doorway, causing the three people in the conference room to look over sideways.

The next second, Lu Li jumped down from the conference table, busy to welcome: "Qi team, Xu, you two are back? How about the hospital? What did Henry Zhu say?"

"What did he say?" Xu Lida did not look good: "Just a few minutes after the person was sent to the hospital, the doctor pronounced dead!"

Dead?

Jiang Tianyu's pupils shrank.

Lu Li directly yelled out: "How did he die? I was hoping to get some clues about Wei Yushu's accomplices from him, but now I have to start all over again."

Hearing the word 'accomplice', Qi Ziang's eyebrows twitched and he looked at the person by the window: "Assuming that Wei Yushu was indeed a member of this criminal gang of human trafficking and had no relatives or friends, then who could be found to work with him to complete this 'revenge'?"

Suddenly, as if he remembered something, he turned to Lu Li and said, "Contact with the He'an District Public Security Bureau and have someone pass over the video of Fei Jianming's interrogation on their side!"

In the afternoon of that day, there was heavy snow outside again.

In the corridor outside the office of the crime unit, Jiang Tianyu looked out of the window and was a bit lost in thought. In her ears, she heard the rambling voice of Lu Li, who had just come out for a cigarette, and her colleagues.

"The snow is a bit too heavy, right? Tonight my mother also asked me to go back for dinner, so the snow is saving me from finding another excuse." The other party took a strong puff of smoke, as if to take this to these days lingering in the chest of depression are spit out.

"I just received an abnormal weather warning text message, saying that the amount of snowfall can reach more than ten centimeters in a short period of time! The male police officer beside him responded.

"Qi team inside staring at the computer for two or three hours, right, check what this is?"

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

The words fell, his eyes fell on the girl a few steps away, could not help but raise an eyebrow: "I said Niu Xiao-ting, you can wait in the lounge, the snow is so heavy, you certainly can not return."

Jiang Tianyu slightly drops her head, low response.

The original she in Qi Ziang back, she intended to leave the city to go home, because at that time looked at the man that certainty and determination of the eyes, she felt that for Wei Yushu accomplice candidate, the other side should already have a bottom in mind.

Once you find the accomplice who has been hiding in the shadows, then the three murder cases across two cities should have been considered close to the end.

In view of past experience, as long as the case is solved, she will soon be out of this body.

Obviously, in the public security bureau in front of so many police suddenly fainted, is not a good choice.

When she proposed to leave, Qi Ziang also did not refuse, just instructed Lu Li by the way to go through the procedures of her previous less formal questioning into a formal transcript, so as not to have to come back later to toss a trip.

I didn't think, it was easy to sign a bunch of words to confirm it was finished, she raised her eyes, it was snowing outside, or the scale of the blurred vision.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

If she felt something, she said hello to the two people next to her and then ran away in the dust.

"Hey" Lu Li was about to open his mouth to ask, but heard someone in the office calling his name, helplessly could only extinguish the cigarette in his hand, head back.

Jiang Tianyu took the opportunity to take the elevator directly to the first floor of the office building, standing outside the door for a while to feel the biting cold wind attacked with cold snowflakes straight to the face of the sour, in the old comrade of the doorman a strong persuasion, finally sat in one of the empty reception room on the first floor, holding a cup of hot water.

About Wei Yushu's accomplices, in fact, there are only a few people, and the greater suspicion is

On the other hand, with the elevator 'ding' sound, Qi Ziang with a few people from the elevator down.

Straight to the front of one of the interrogation rooms, he did not hesitate much to push open the door and enter.

The person sitting inside heard the movement and withdrew his eyes looking out of the window, followed by an unhappy face and opened his mouth: "I say you guys are too much, right? Why did you leave me here unattended for so long? Do you think I don't know the law? It's unreasonable for you police to do this!"

In response, Lu Li, who came in a step behind her, heard her complaint, and habitually sneered: "You know the law? Do you want to carefully think about what you have done in Henry Market Research over the years, and then come to discuss with me whether you know the law or not?"

"Arbitrarily violate the privacy of citizens, with illegal tracking, secretly filming, listening to the so-called 'evidence' for profit trafficking, Yan Lili, do you think the public security organs of the temporary detention of your practice is still any problem?"

Lips moved, the woman finally failed to say anything to refute, deflated pile sat on the interrogation chair.

After a few seconds, she muttered again reluctantly, "Feel like the situation is now starting to turn over old scores? When you brought me back, you only said that you were cooperating with the investigation of Henry Zhu, how? I have taken the initiative to explain so much, can not be considered to redeem myself?"

"What did you explain?" Lu Li snickered: "Ask some insignificant, you can talk for hours, once it really involves some substantive issues, you all avoid talking!"

Really, this person said more than Luo Xu, but do not forget, she stayed in the company than Luo Xu can be more than two years!

"Officer, that's really interesting, I don't know those questions, what's useful and what's not." Yan Lili looked innocent and spread her hands: "Besides, it's just a job, who has nothing to do with staring at the boss all day long, unless there are evil intentions."

Her words are very obvious, is tantamount to directly pulling Luo Xu to his own body to block the gun.

Listening to the back and forth between the two, Qiziang face as normal to draw a chair and sit down.

At the time of the other party's words, he flexed his fingers and knocked on the table, successfully attracting the attention of the woman opposite.

"This person Wei Yushu, you know him, right?" He spoke, in a tone more like stating a fact than asking.

During that time, his gaze never left Yan Lili's face, and before she could open her mouth to respond, he added, "Or to put it differently, this person Wei Ming, you're familiar with him, right?"

"Miss Yan, since we can mention this name in front of you, it means that the police already have a large amount of evidence, so before answering, you might as well give it more thought."

After saying that, he wrapped his arms around his chest, and also raised his lips slightly at the opposite side of the table, with a face full of 'I'll see how you make it up'.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers. What Wei Yushu, Wei Ming, never even heard of it."

"It was you who used Liu Jiande's identity to rent a house on Fei Jianming's side, wasn't it? In response to this, we can go next door now and ask Fei Jianming will know, I think he will not help you hide." Qi Ziang did not give her a chance to defend, directly blocked the back way.

"Also, the Yunzhou City Police just got word that they found a house that was also rented with Liu Jiande's identity, and guess what the Yunzhou City Police found in that house?"

"A large number of unknown DNA and fingerprints, as well as some struggle and fight traces, I think that side should be Liu Kai and Pu Xiuxiu death of the first case law scene it"

"There is also Yunzhou City police in the interrogation of the landlord, the other side said that at first a woman with a copy of Liu Jiande's ID card to rent the house, why don't we now contact the Yunzhou side on the spot and do a little online identification?"

Yan Lili face suddenly white, whirled down the eyelids to avoid the two people that full of scrutiny gaze, vainly turned his head to the side.

"I and Wei Ming also known as Wei Yushu, indeed know each other, but"

Her side of the words halfway through, but was interrupted by Lu Li midway through: "Do not pull what look at him poor to help him bullsh!t, Yan Lili, this kind of excuse you think we will believe?"

"Since you've been a private detective for so many years, you're not a stupid person, so you can just get involved in this kind of thing without knowing anything?"

Scowling at his scolding, Yan Lili's whole body was trembling in a small way at this moment, as if she was afraid, and as if she was trying desperately to suppress something.

The next second, her emotions suddenly collapsed, hands on her head, and even began to tear their hair: "So I help him and what is wrong with it? He is just a victim! Henry Zhu, Fei Jianming and the three that died, who is innocent?"

"They should pay for all the bad things they did, shouldn't they?"

After a brief outburst, Yan Lili raised her hand again to straighten out her long hair that she had scratched, then raised her head and calmly apologized, "Sorry, I got a little excited just now."

"It's okay." Qiziang responded in a deep voice, quickly covering up the thoughts under his eyes, and opened his mouth again, "So tell me, how exactly did you and Wei Yushu get together?"

"In fact, in the past two years, I often feel that there is something wrong within the company, so I have conducted some private investigations." Lily Yan did not directly answer his question, looking at the frame is intended to start from the beginning to say.

"But Henry Zhu is really too cunning, and I did not dare to alarm him, so there has not been much progress, until a few months ago"

"I was free to continue investigating him when I suddenly discovered that there was another person who was following him, and that person I also knew." Speaking of which, she showed a very sympathetic expression.

Wei Yushu was previously an employee of Henry's market research company, the reunion of old friends after many years, no one expected such a sight.

Qi Ziang untraceable narrowed his eyes, the tone of voice calmly without ripples to follow up: "After learning about Wei Yushu's experience, you decided to help him?"

Yan Lili first nodded, then shook her head: "I did persuade him to call the police, but he said he would not contact the police until he had ascertained the facts of Henry Zhu's crime, so I had to follow his request to help rent two suites."

"I swear, I really only rented two suites, I didn't think he would kill anyone! It wasn't until the police found the company that I realized something was wrong, but it was too late."

"But, officers, there is still some truth to the old saying 'an eye for an eye' isn't there?"

Listening to her arguments, Lu Li sighed: "Haven't you ever thought about what if what this Wei Yushu said to you wasn't the truth?"

"If he is really a victim, let's say you are soft-hearted and can't see others suffer, but what if he is not?"

"How is it possible!" Yan Lili had a wounded expression on her face, and immediately after reacting, she bowed her head and wailed, like she couldn't accept the fact that she was cheated at all.

Looking at the woman whose emotions were once again out of control, Qi Ziang gave Lu Li a look and the two of them walked out of the interrogation room one after another, giving this interrogation an intermission.

"Qi team, how did you determine that this Yan Lili is Wei Yushu's accomplice?" Lu Li stood in the corridor, scratching his head in confusion.

"Not sure." Qi Ziang replied lightly: "Just according to the police in Yunzhou City gave a clue that the person who went to the rental procedures is a woman, just take a chance."

Who would have thought that the other party would have confessed himself.

The first thing that I can say is that she is lying."

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 97 - Tips

0 8 minutes read

"Lie?" Lu Li stroked his chin and pondered for a while, and then suddenly realized the point with his fingers: "Yes, yes, we are saying that this Wei Yushu has difficulty in maintaining his daily life, how can he also have free money to buy any illegal SMS base station?"

"Even if he wants to engage, it must also have a way ah, must be Yan Lili help him buy."

"What only helped to rent two houses, must be lying! Also said what the police did not know before they came to the door, they do private detectives in this line of work are monkeys, how can Wei Yushu's every move hidden from her?"

Speaking of which, he seems to feel where it is not right, a little pause after whispering again muttered: "In that case, Wei Yushu in the end what kind of person, she also can not know ah? Helping the bad guys against the bad guys, how in the end does she think?"

"Could it be that she wants to be the city's scavenger, to contribute her share to the harmony of society?" Speaking of which, Lu Li herself felt outrageous, the expression on her face was neither smiling nor not smiling.

But in addition to the speculation that she and both sides have a grudge, what else he really can't think of.

Qiziang let him twitter in his ears, after a few minutes of silent thought, suddenly opened his mouth: "I think Fei Jianming did not know the deceased named Pu Xiuxiu."

What?

Lu Li rounded his eyes, did not understand why the captain of the family will be cold to such a sentence.

"In fact, when Fei Jianming was interrogated at the He'an District Branch, I thought it was strange that his reaction to seeing Qiu Feiyang's and Liu Kai's photos was slightly different from when he saw Pu Xiuxiu's." The frown between Qi Ziang's eyebrows deepened.

"I didn't think deeply at that time, but when I watched the video replay of that interrogation, I became more and more sure of this possibility."

"Fei Jianming really doesn't know Pu Xiuxiu."

"But how is it possible?" Lu Li did not understand.

Pu Xiuxiu has been to the Mu Yu Xuan teahouse in Yunzhou City, and she herself is an employee of a medical company, and was killed by Wei Yushu

Like a sudden thought of a possibility, he fiercely breathed a stagnant, once again opened his mouth when the voice became hoarse a few: "Qi team, you suspect that this Pu Xiuxiu is Yan Lili to help Wei Yushu's true purpose?"

Indeed, the reason why the police judge Pu Xiuxiu is a member of the human trafficking gang Fei Jianming, is not precisely because of her whereabouts and she also died at the hands of Wei Yushu?

But what if Wei Yushu himself was misled?

Suppose someone made him think that Pu Xiuxiu was a member of this gang, and thus used a trick to kill her with a knife to successfully achieve his goal

It is already known that Yan Lili provided Wei Yushu with the convenience of renting a room, illegal SMS base station, etc., so who knows if she will 'incidentally' also provide some information about Fei Jianming and the criminal gang where Henry Zhu is?

After all, Wei Yushu has to support himself, most of the time he is working, monitoring Fei Jianming and Zhu Henry is already his limit.

Then the same in Jiangcheng City, Qiu Feiyang and far away in Yunzhou City, Liu Kai, and how he got the two wives of the relevant information so as to make the next series of deployments, no doubt worthy of deep thought.

Yan Lili often undertake the case of these two places, 'kindly' help the deceased a favor, everything is very reasonable ah.

"No, since we now suspect that Wei Yushu before and Fei Jianming and Zhu Henry they are all in cahoots, does he not know Liu Kai and Qiu Feiyang?" Lu Li issued a query.

Qi Ziang did not find it strange: "This kind of gang in the hierarchy, each has a division of labor, if he joined a very short time and a small role, have not seen the others is normal."

One wants revenge, and one has an ulterior motive of carrying private goods and coaxing the other side to achieve what they want.

To sum up, both people are not normal people.

Finally smoothing out a possibility, he pulled out his phone and dialed the number of the Yunzhou City Public Security Bureau.

After a short exchange with Shi Ge and asked the other side to help further investigate why Pu Xiuxiu went to Mu Yuxuan in the first place, and whether there was a deeper connection between her and Liu Kai, a human trafficking suspect, he ended the call.

Tapping the back of his phone with his finger unconsciously, he quickly came to a decision: "Lu Li, now take someone to Yan Lili's house to see if further discoveries can be made."

"Okay."

A few hours later, it was already dark outside, but the heavy snow still showed no signs of stopping.

The whole day, the people of the Major Crime Unit barely ate, this job is so busy, there is no rule to say.

Just returned from outside, the cold air has not completely faded Qi Ziang stood in front of his desk, his face is not very good with a hand against the upper abdomen, trying to use this action to ease the discomfort emanating from the stomach.

The years of high-intensity work, making them a group of people more or less have some occupational disease in the body, stomach disease is relatively light.

Thoughts back, he smoothly opened the left drawer, pulled out a box of medicine from inside.

Just then, there was a sudden knock at the door, followed by a man poking his head in.

After seeing his face, Qiziang greeted him in a rather familiar tone, "Uncle Sun, why are you up here."

The visitor was none other than the doorman in charge of watching the gate on the first floor, only to see that the other party was carrying a few food packing bags in his hands, and judging from the outline, what was inside should be lunch boxes.

"Hm?" He raised his eyebrows in some surprise: "Because of the unusual weather, didn't the bureau let the canteen staff go back early? How come there are still boxed lunches at night?"

The old comrade smiled and put the things in his hand on the nearest table: "This is the little girl downstairs just walked to the nearby restaurant to buy it back in the snow, she should be a party to your case, right? Look quite good, very polite, and also brought me a copy of it!"

After two seconds of reacting to who the doorman was talking about, Qiziang was a bit helpless: "Uncle Sun, we can't just take things from people involved in the case."

"I know ah, but she said you will give her money." Uncle Sun justified, after turning to go, but unexpectedly turned back halfway, pointing to a separate small bag next to: "By the way, the little girl has special instructions to me, that is for you."

Click.

Along with the door was closed by the light sound, Qiziang back to God, two steps forward to take the small bag.

The outside of the plastic bag is full of cold water beads, but the inside is warm, he opened a look, it is a box of well-packaged white porridge, the following is a few look at the color of the taste of light and good digestive dishes.

The mood became somewhat fantastic in this moment.

Qiziang actually did not know when the girl actually noticed his stomach discomfort, but did not think much about it, after drinking the porridge and eating the medicine, the stomach discomfort slightly relieved.

He was going to roughly estimate the price of the meal, and then take the time to go downstairs and send the money to the people, but he didn't expect that the next moment Lu Li pushed the door to come in.

"Team Qi, the technical section has cracked Yan Lili's computer and found a lot of interesting things from it." The man's expression at the moment is somewhat exuberant, his tone is also unusually urgent: "Also, I also found a public security case in the public security system a few years ago, one of the parties is Yan Lili!"

"What public security case?"

"Three years ago, a police station in this city received a report, the informant said that someone has been following him, and the person who followed others, is Yan Lili!" I do not know whether it is emotional or what, at this time, Lu Li's cheeks are translucent slightly red.

"Do you think a private detective is quite normal to be subjected to such allegations? Wonderful to come, the person who reported the case named Luo Lei, at that time because of insufficient evidence so the case ultimately did not have any results. After Luo Lei moved from Jiangcheng City to Yunzhou City, but also made a girlfriend, called Pu Xiuxiu."

In this instant, everything seems to be connected, and the original suspicions that do not make sense finally have an explanation.

Qiziang's eyebrows twitched and asked again, "What was found in Yan Lili's computer?"

"All of them are Luo Lei, that is to say, even if the other party has gone to Yunzhou City for the past two years, he has not been able to get away from Yan Lili's surveillance." Lu Li sighed.

"When the police station received the report to Luo Lei's statement, Luo Lei called Yan Lili more than once 'pervert', 'crazy woman', it seems that this Yan Lili's state of mind is indeed a little less normal. "

“So when it was discovered that Luo Lei had a girlfriend, Pu Xiu Xiu, Yan Lili must have been quite devastated, the already unhealthy psychological defense is even more precarious up.” Qiziang exhaled a breath of turbid air, raised his hand and pinched his brow.

Just at that moment, Wei Yushu appeared in her field of vision, and upon learning that the man had come back to take revenge on Fei Jianming, Zhu Henry and the others, she had a plan to go along with it.

“Who the hell would have thought that!” Lu Li let out a sigh of relief from the bottom of his heart.

Who would have thought that a serial murder case involving human trafficking and its serious and bad nature would be interspersed with a love murder case?

In other words, the four victims: Liu Kai, Qiu Feiyang, Henry Zhu and Pu Xiu Xiu, on the surface are Wei Yushu’s hands, but the actual murderer is not only him.

Pu Xiuxiu has a high probability of innocence, although she works in the medical company, but only an insignificant receptionist, the time of entry is not long. Unlike the remaining two deceased Liu Kai and Qiu Feiyang, can use their positions to manipulate some things.

As for the reason why she appeared in Mu Yu Xuan teahouse, Qi Ziang estimated that it is likely that Yan Lili used some way to lure her forward, so that the staged suspicion to let Wei Yushu completely believe that Pu Xiu Xiu is also a member of the criminal gang of human trafficking, so that the hands will kill it.

“But currently these are only our speculation based on relevant evidence, Yan Lili is too smart, she hid behind Wei Yushu, in addition to renting a room on this matter revealed the horse, there is no longer left any handle.” Lu Li followed by a guilty pleasure.

“Through the comparison of the pinch marks on the neck of the deceased and the traces and physical evidence brought back from several murder scenes, all show that the crime of Wei Yushu killing four people is clear and the relevant evidence is conclusive.”

Qi Ziang smiled and was silent for a moment, then said, “Arraign Wei Yushu again.”

“Yan Lili just think about killing people with a knife, but forget that since this knife can kill others, naturally it can also kill her.”

Wei Yushu, who always thought he was in control of the whole scene, once he knew he was being used, would he choose to bite back in the end

In this regard, he was looking forward to it.

The interrogation room.

Wei Yushu looked down at a table of reports and evidence, scarred face without any extra expression.

After two minutes, he finally reacted and slowly raised his head: "I killed the people, so what?"

"I don't regret killing them at all, this kind of scam that endangers society, isn't it a great good thing for society to die?"

Lu Li sneered at this, and simply slammed the things in his hand onto the table: "You still feel proud of yourself? What? After killing so many people still expect us to make a card to give you up ah?"

"Besides, when it comes to the dregs of society, don't you count?"

"Don't think that time will erase all evidence, something that you have done will definitely leave traces. Now the city police have joined forces with the Yunzhou Public Security Bureau, the case of a number of people missing for many years has officially launched the relevant investigation procedures, but all involved in the case, no one can escape."

For him, the crime of murder has become a fact, one more charge or one less charge on his body is quite indifferent.

Just see him take a deep breath, the upper body slightly backward, posture relaxed leaning on the back of the interrogation chair: "Even if I was not a good person, now can barely be considered a meritorious atonement, right? Without me, just rely on your police, do not know when to discover their crimes Zhu Henry."

"So you think, as long as you kill the guilty, you are not a guilty person?" The other party's thinking, Qi Ziang think this matter is easy: "If, say, you kill not all sinners?"

"Impossible!" Wei Yushu wanted to open his mouth to refute, but the words of denial came to an abrupt end after looking at the relevant evidence of dislike to his eyes.

"This is what we found in Yan Lili's computer, indicating that in recent years she has been frantically stalking a man named Luo Lei, who made a girlfriend a few months ago."

"His girlfriend you should also be familiar with is called Pu Xiuxiu." As he spoke, Qi Ziang placed a photo casually on the interrogation table.

Wei Yushu's pupils appeared to dilate for a moment.

"Yunzhou City police have confirmed that Pu Xiuxiu has only been working at that medical company for less than half a year, and before that had been a kindergarten teacher in a kindergarten. There is absolutely no relationship between her and Liu Kai, and Qiu Feiyang, and even Fei Jianming and Henry Zhu."

"The reason why the other side will appear in Mu Yu Xuan teahouse, but also just a coincidence, the teahouse's director admitted to know Liu Kai and Qiu Feiyang, but the bite has no impression of Pu Xiuxiu."

"She is a native of Yunzhou City, both parents, background of innocence, but you killed, is she not innocent?"

"Before you did it, did Pu Xiuxiu plead bitterly? Has she ever urgently complained of her injustice?"

"Wei Yushu, every time you think back to this, don't you have nightmares at night?!"

"This is not true! It's not true!" Wei Yushu obviously refused to believe it, he kept shouting as if this would erase the fact that he was being dominated by someone with a heart: "She is not innocent, how could she have done nothing? It can't be"

"Have you personally investigated this person Pu Xiuxiu? Or did you just give her a death sentence in your heart after seeing those so-called 'evidence' that Yan Lili provided to you?" Qiziang continued to press harder step by step.

"Don't you know that those behavioral trails handed to you can be faked?"

"Wei Yushu, you think you are quite smart? I don't know that Yan Lili has been playing you in the palm of her hand, she is using you to achieve her own goals."

Speaking of this, Qi Ziang suddenly softened his tone, leaning his upper body slightly forward with his hands on the desktop, "Although it seems that Yan Lili has helped you so far, but is her help really worth a human life?"

"The partnership between the two of you, obviously not as strong as you think, lending your hands she is free to be used in this way, you willingly?"

With his words, Wei Yushu's breathing began to get progressively heavier.

But unexpectedly, the other party suddenly laughed out: "Don't think I don't know the calculations of you stinking cops, trying to get some evidence from me that can identify Yan Lili?"

At that, Qi Ziang's face was very frank, not embarrassed by the unforgiving poke, but slightly raised the corners of his lips.

The two of them confronted each other and subconsciously held their breath.

The next second, a wonderful voice rang in his ears.

I heard Wei Yushu say, "Good, I will do as you wish."

"Although I don't like this high and mighty look of your police officers, as if they can save all beings, I am even more disgusted with people using me. Think about it, good partners are meant to be together, it's nice to pull a cushion down with me."

To this, Qiziang's response was to indicate with his eyes that Lu Li was ready to make the relevant records.

The corridor outside the interrogation room remains as quiet as it should be late at night, looking through the window, the snow that is flying in the sky, finally has a tendency to reduce.

At the same time, the first floor of the reception room.

Jiang Tianyu, who had been happy because the snow had gradually stopped, suddenly raised her hand to cover her head, forcing her eyelids to come together with a sense of sleepiness and the uncertainty that her soul seemed to be torn out of her body at any time, reluctantly curled up her legs and collapsed on the bench.

"Why"

Why is it that every time you are so hot and bothered, even if you set aside a few hours beforehand for her to make good, you won't make such a mess.

"Don't you forget that the one surnamed Qi still owes you money for the meal." After finally muttering in a low voice, the person lying on the bench never moved again.

By the time Qi Ziang's side was finished, it was already dawn.

When a figure finally flashed in his mind, he hurried out of the office and went all the way down to the first floor.

The old comrade of the gatekeeper was standing inside the glass door with his hands behind his back admiring the silver makeup outside, and turned his head to greet him after hearing a voice.

"Where is the person involved in the case yesterday?" Qiziang asked.

The old comrade pointed his finger in the direction of the western corridor: "Should still be in the reception room, I didn't see anyone go out early in the morning."

After a slight nod of thanks, he walked towards the reception room, and as expected, when he reached the door, he saw the person who was sleeping on the bench inside.

"Niu Xiao-ting?" Two steps forward, Qi Ziang tentatively called out softly.

The person on the bench moved as if she was aware, and soon opened her eyes, not knowing if it was because she had just woken up, a trace of confusion quickly flashed under the girl's eyes.

But soon her eyes regained their spirit, and after seeing the person standing at the door, she got up and stretched out her hand: "Officer Qi, meal money to settle?"

With eyes downcast, staring at the palm stretched out under his eyes for two seconds, Qi Ziang had little expression as he put the long-prepared cash on it.

"Thanks!" Niu Xiaoting glanced sideways at the window and spoke in a brisk tone, "The snow has finally stopped, so if there's nothing else, I'll go back first."

"The public transportation outside is not yet fully open, I will send you." Qiziang said without refusal, and then turned around and walked out.

Niu Xiao-ting could only hold her shoulder bag and follow it with a faint heart.

The road has been cleared by the city department, Qi Ziang drove his own private car, the speed is not fast, the car filled with an unusual silence.

The girl in the back seat seems to have suddenly thought of something, through the rearview mirror after glancing at the man in the main driver, tentatively opened his mouth: "That Qi officer, the case is solved?"

“Broken.” Qi Ziang gaze response: “Wei Yushu provided some evidence about Yan Lili involved in the case, Yan Lili will be charged by the prosecution suspected of intentional homicide.”

“As for the case of human trafficking, we and the Yunzhou City Police will continue to pursue it.”

Still the same words, no hurry. Now at the very least, Wei Yushu has given some direction for the investigation, and the Yunzhou City Police are dead set on that teahouse, so it’s always a good idea not to let the bad guys continue to get away with it.

“Also, the He’an District Public Security Bureau has officially filed a case against Henry Market Investigation Company for alleged violations, and may need your cooperation in the future.”

“I promise to be on call! Officer Qi, turn right at the intersection ahead and pull over on the line.” Niu Xiao-ting gently patted the front seat, after getting out of the car sweetly said thank you, then without the slightest lingering turn on the go.

The black car stopped at the side of the road for half a day, Qiziang just as if there was a sigh of relief.

She is gone.

If it was that person, after he said the case is solved, will certainly break the ca.sserole to the end.

Niu Xiao-ting, on the other hand, just now had no reaction to such a big doubt as to why Yan Lili was charged with intentional homicide.

The next meeting will be two months later?

When the time comes, we must ask her name first.

“Hiss

The consciousness recovered Jiang Tianyu s.ucked in a breath of cold air by the pain coming from her forehead and cheek, her ears buzzed, she only felt that the surrounding was very noisy, but it was hard to hear what those people were actually talking about.

In the next second, a cold, stinging thing was suddenly pressed against her face, stunned, she finally saw that she was squatting in front of a man in a police uniform, the other party looked concerned and asked: "Are you okay? The face is swollen, quickly hold the ice bag yourself to eliminate the swelling!"

"Thank you" Jiang Tianyu took the ice bag from the other hand, while ice packs while tilting his head to look at the male police officer stood up.

The other side with a strong Jiangcheng City accent, a few meters away from the crowd standing yelled: "What is this, something we say things, hitting people is not right!"

"We've called the police, and our police station is here, what can't you say calmly?"

"How do you want me to calm down? My child is lost! My child" opposite the crowd, a woman cloaked in a trance, said the legs are weak to fall to the ground.

The crowd next to him either reached out to help, or to speak comfort.

At that moment, the woman who seemed to be able to faint at any time suddenly looked straight at Jiang Tianyu, and from nowhere came a force that broke out of the crowd and ran straight towards her.

The male police officer just reacted quickly and stopped the other side in a few steps away from the position.

"You return my son, return my son ! ! ! !" The woman reluctantly stretched out her hands, struggling haphazardly in the air, but how can not break through the police line, can only helplessly issued a harsh cry.

Looking at the horrible face that had been twisted and deformed in front of her, Jiang Tianyu sat on the edge of the flower bed, a heart sinking again and again.

She put the ice bag in her hand to the side, haphazardly fished out a cell phone from her body, scratched the screen and looked at the date: February 13.

Sure enough, nearly two months had passed.

The woman not far away screamed again: "Comrade police, why don't you arrest her? It's her, she's the one who kidnapped my son ! ! ! !"

"My God, what kind of people kidnap people's children?"

"It doesn't look like this kind of person either"

"These days, you can't just look at people from the outside!"

"Comrade police, look at the child is lost, it is too poor, you help catch the bad guys, find the child!"

The crowd of onlookers began to gossip, at this point, the male police officer who had been stopping the mother who had gone crazy gave a wink to his colleague.

Another police officer went to Jiang Tianyu's body, slightly bent down: "This lady, because the two of you had a big conflict, and even a hand, so you need to follow us back to the next step of the investigation."

The other side said this, look slightly guarded, under the eyes with scrutiny, and even put his hand directly on the baton hanging on the waist, a ready to attack look.

"Good." Jiang Tianyu agreed to do so simply.

Soon, she was taken by the police to the police car and returned to the police station first.

The police officer who brought her back gave her a few words of advice and then left her alone in this office, but through the sound of small footsteps coming in from outside the door and the sound of talking too light to be judged, there is always someone guarding the corridor.

This, Jiang Tianyu does not care, while no one is around, she opened her mouth twice, and moved some of the stiff and painful muscle groups on her face.

Her cheeks were numb and sore, and she frowned as she tried to pull out some useful memories from this body's mind.

While she was slightly lost in thought, she suddenly heard a clamor, interspersed with familiar accusations: "What's wrong with me beating her? She stole my son, and now you police want me to apologize to a child trafficker?"

"I came to the police station last night, and what did you people do? Make a statement, check the surveillance, make a statement, check the surveillance? Our whole family looked for a night along the main road, really not their own children do not hurt ooooooooooooooooooooo " the woman said and then began a low and suppressed sob.

"My son is only four years old, he is so small, he still does not understand anything Now the temperature outside is so low, he will be cold, right, will be hungry, right?"

The desperate sobs gradually became louder, directly overshadowing the comfort of the police.

The harsh sound in the corridor around, even in broad daylight, still let people feel from the tailbone run up a burst of cold and a burst of cold.

“Ma’am, ma’am, we have issued a concordance notice in the city’s public security system, and now many police forces have been dispatched to find your son, please calm down first.”

“The family is here, the family is here!”

“You are the family of this Ms. Wu, right? Let’s help her to the conference room upstairs first, it’s not good for her own health if she continues to lose control of her emotions like this

The chaotic voices gradually moved away, accompanied by a ‘bang’, the iron door leading to the second floor closed, Jiang Tianyu only then felt that the surrounding world had returned to the quietness it should have.

But this state did not last long, after about seven or eight minutes, the door of the office she was in was pushed open from the outside.

When she lifted her eyes and saw the two faces that came in, she quickly lowered her eyes again.

“Ms. Zhang Baozhu, right? To introduce you, these two are from the Municipal Public Security Bureau, this one is surnamed Lu, this one is surnamed Xu.” The police officer in front of the police station made a simple introduction for the three, and then stepped back to the side.

Jiang Tianyu adjusted his expression and looked puzzled: “This I was just slapped by two people, how do you still need the leaders of the Municipal Public Security Bureau to deal with it?”

“Oh, you were beaten up this security case, to wait for another party to ease a little after the emotions to give her statement, they two came over not because of this matter.”

“People Ms. Wu identified you kidnapped the child, so they need to come over to the city bureau of criminal investigation to confirm the situation.”

Lies.

Although Jiang Tianyu did not have any extra reaction on the surface, but in the heart rolled a big white eyes.

To really just a kidnapping case, the District Public Security Bureau of the Criminal Investigation Brigade is enough, the normal is not to the City Bureau this level, let alone to the serious crime unit.

There must be some twists and turns that others do not yet know.

“Xiao Lu ah, nothing I will go out first, just the police also brought back two small ads everywhere.” The police officer of the police station smilingly pointed out.

Lu Li readily nodded: “OK, trouble you brother.”

After seeing the other party leave, he put his eyes on the person sitting on the opposite sofa at this time.

Just see the woman is probably in her thirties, dressed plainly, simple black pants plus a black cotton jacket, a long hair pulled into a bun at the back of her head, ordinary and kind-looking.

“Zhang Baozhu” Lu Li lowered his head to look at the information in his hands and stretched his voice: “You just said you were beaten? The lady Wu Han who beat you and your relationship is?”

Naturally interlocking hands rubbed together unconsciously, Jiang Tianyu calmly replied, “She is my employer, I have been working as a nanny in their house for almost two years now.”

“If that’s the case, then Wu Han’s son, you naturally know him as well.”

She nodded gently, when the original owner first came to work at Wu Han’s home, that little boy was only a little old, just walking, and now he has grown into a lively young man with a clear tongue and a lively personality.

“According to the police station records, Wu Han was reported to the police at eight o’clock last night, where were you at that time?” Lu Li then asked.

“I was at my own home.” When Jiang Tianyu said this, for some reason, his expression was a bit peculiar.

“You’re a day shift nanny?”

She shook her head in a small way, “It’s live-in, but because there was a little conflict with my employer’s family two days ago, they plan to dismiss me, so I’ve been in my own home for the past two days.”

Lu Li and Xu Lida smiled, looked at each other with understanding, and understood why that Wu Han bitingly said that the woman in front of him had kidnapped the child.

After all, it is not uncommon for nannies to take out their children because of conflicts between them and their employers, and you can often see related news reports online.

“You said yesterday was at home, there is no time witness? Or that time before and after where you have been, consumption records, surveillance video what can be, as long as it is able to prove that you can not be in the crime at the time of the past crime on the line.” Lu Li is quite understanding, gave her a lot of options.

Jiang Tianyu looked difficult, hesitated for a long time, and finally opened his mouth: “My husband can testify, but

But such a proof, the credibility of the police side will naturally be greatly reduced.

After all, it's not uncommon for couples to commit crimes together, and when you get right down to it, it's not really a serious witness.

Of course, what really makes her feel mixed emotions is that this body has a husband.

The first time I've experienced the married status after wearing it so many times.

“If it is convenient to contact your husband first, let him simply cooperate with the police to answer a few questions.” Lu Li made a request.

“Contact then, it is possible” Jiang Tianyu expression still hesitant, from the cloth pocket carried after rummaging for a cell phone, or gritted his teeth and suggested: “If the two officers have time, why not take a trip home with me Go ask him, this time to let him go out, may be a little difficult.”

This time?

Lu Li raised his eyebrows without a trace, and glanced sideways at the time on Xu Lida's wristwatch, just after ten in the morning.

After a quick eye contact with Xu Lida, he put away the information in his hands and stood up slowly: “It's okay.”

The trip was not a problem for the police, and could even be described as an unexpected surprise.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public.

The next Lu Li and the police station to say hello, Jiang Tianyu will be very smoothly on the police car driven by two people, closed the car door, she obediently gave an address, quiet as if not exist.

When the car was halfway to the road, the passenger Xu Lida suddenly opened his mouth, "Lu Li, Qi team just contacted me and said he was nearby."

"When you get to Chenghua Road, find a place to pull over, I'll go back to the bureau when he gets in the car, I still have a bunch of things to do."

Lu Li very indifferent shrugged his shoulders, a painful 'um'.

Soon, the police car turned into Chenghua Road. Through the car window, Jiang Tianyu noticed the tall figure standing on the roadside in front of her.

With the muffled sound of the car door opening and closing, the passenger side changed in just a few seconds.

Lu Li steered the wheel while taking the time to introduce: "Qi team, this is Zhang Baozhu, the live-in nanny of the family that lost the child."

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

"I heard that you had a conflict with your employer Wu Han family, because of what?" As soon as the man came up, he pointed straight to the crux of the matter.

Silent sigh, Jiang Tianyu some reluctant, but finally opened his mouth: "They lost the gold jewelry, suspected that I stole it, and tried to force me to admit it."

"I didn't do it, so naturally I wouldn't admit it, and they were about to fire me."

Lu Li frowned strangely: "Why didn't your employer call the police?"

"They said, remembering that I have been doing it for two years, the love is still there." Jiang Tianyu finished her words and did not take the opportunity to spill her guts, but turned her head to look out the window after the words fell.

Qiziang narrowed his eyes, and did not continue to ask questions.

Ten minutes later, the police car smoothly stopped at the side of the road, three people have gotten out of the car.

Jiang Tianyu clip cloth pocket quickly into one of the alleys, then took out the key to open a green courtyard door with the paint peeling off.

The courtyard is very small, all kinds of miscellaneous goods stacked into a mountain, directly in front is a bungalow, looking at the area is not large.

She pulled open the door, frowned at the smell of alcohol, and walked straight to the bed placed in the corner.

Not very polite to raise the bed quilt to the side, she said coldly at the man lying there: "The family is coming, you get up first."

The man did not even open his eyes and grabbed an ashtray from the side of the bed and threw it in the direction she was standing, shouting, "Damn, don't talk nonsense, or I'll kill you!"

The iron ashtray eventually fell short and hit the wall and landed with a loud bang.

This scene was naturally followed by Qi Ziang and Lu Li saw clearly.

At the same time, it also caused Jiang Tianyu, who had turned his body sideways in time to avoid the 'concealed weapon', to slowly narrow his eyes.

Every Time I Wake Up, I Become A Suspect – Chapter 100 - Tips

The situation was once very awkward, and even the air was slightly stagnant.

The two Qiziang looked around a bit, this so-called 'home' can almost be described as a humble room.

The house is even still cement walls, a few simple furniture and appliances, just a glance to be able to see a through.

The point is, which normal person in the noon is not yet eleven o'clock to drink so drunk?

The ashtray is still lying on the ground in front of the door, the man's temper is so bad that it is possible that he usually hits his wife. The daytime to the bed a nest, it does not look like there is any serious work model.

Jiang Tianyu stood in front of the bed and took a deep breath.

The two people behind the line of sight, she did not ignore, which is the fundamental reason why just reluctant to answer Qi Ziang's question.

The fact that a family is in such a situation, it is no wonder that the main family lost something and suspected her head, it can be said that those gold jewelry for the original owner Baozhu is indeed very attractive.

The family's life is still uncertain once she loses her job.

Once these circumstances are exposed to the eyes of the police, Zhang Baozhu's suspicions will certainly be infinitely expanded, after all, people are driven to the edge of the words, what crazy things are done.

"You can't get up?" The first thing you need to do is to look at the man who is sleeping with his mouth open and grit his teeth and ask.

The other party simply ignored her, turned over and rode the bed quilt and fell asleep again.

The law of the land, the law of the land

There are police behind, there are police behind

Even so, Jiang Tianyu eventually failed to control, directly on the hand force yanked away the other head under the pillow.

The actual skull of the man and his body only laid a thin layer of mattress hardwood board hit together, just listening to this sound, the door Lu Li feel mouth sour.

As a matter of fact, the person on the bed leapt up in the next second, his face turned purple, and he stretched out his big hand to drag Jiang Tianyu's neck collar.

"Hey!" The first thing you need to do is to take a look at the actual product.

After noticing the sudden appearance of strangers in his home, the man sobered up a bit, his eyes went back and forth between Jiang Tianyu and the other two older men, and his tone was not good: "Who are you?"

"Jiangcheng City Public Security Bureau." Lu Li also stepped forward and incidentally took out his law enforcement card and waved it around in front of his eyes.

The man's complexion changed and he once again reached out to drag his wife out from behind Qi Ziang: "Stinky biaozi! You dare to let the police come and screw me?"

He said, he also justifiably yelled, "This is a family matter, since when can the police interfere with other people's family matters?"

"Show some respect, I'm warning you not to come forward again, or you will be counted as obstructing the execution of official duties!" Lu Li sternly scolded.

In the end, the identity of the 'police' is still some deterrent to the other side, and finally the man cursed back to the edge of the bed, sat down on his butt, panting and panting.

"The police, right? What the hell do you want at my house?"

Jiang Tianyu also walked out from behind Qi Ziang and opened her mouth with no expression: "They came to ask you where I was last night."

The first thing you need to do is to get a good idea of where you are.

It is reasonable to say that the family has a husband with such a violent personality, then the wife will be relatively weak and deceptive.

The actual fact is that a long time to be mentally and even physically oppressed wife, will make just like that know will anger the husband's bold action?

The will not

On the other hand, Jiang Tianyu felt something, then turned around and walked to the shabby dining table, poured a glass of water and handed it to the man: "You first drink some water to wake up, just like that to the police comrade, too rude."

"Bitch, I'll settle the score with you later. Why did they ask you where you were last night?"

Seeing that the other party was not getting to the point, Qi Ziang cleared his throat and asked with a sober face, "What is your name, sir?"

"My name is Cui Yongfu."

"Mr. Cui, because the child in your wife's employer's home was accidentally lost, so we came over today just to make a routine inquiry." He tried his best to describe the matter as not so serious.

The police are only here to collect evidence, not to ignite conflict in other people's families.

"Wu Han's son is lost?" Cui Yongfu looked very stunned, and then sneered: "I told you that this kind of rich family's povvssy is not very reliable, right? My wife just came home two days ago, and the child was lost by themselves?"

"Then again, what are you doing at our house when the child is lost? How can you blame my wife for being so far away from them? How can rich people be so unreasonable!"

For Cui Yongfu's mumbling, Lu Li obviously has little patience, slightly frowning, he aggravated his tone: "So last night, Zhang Baozhu was with you?"

"In ah, she is on vacation these two days, not at home to serve me where else can go?" The man raised his neck, very righteous.

"About what time to what time?" Qiziang asked a follow-up question.

"Then who can remember clearly? I think it was a whole day, she never left the house." Cui Yongfu replied very perfunctory, after like suddenly thought of something, turned his head to ask: "mention this I also wonder, you work part-time that family is very smart, these two years you have something have not given you leave, recently what happened? Conscience found?"

Jiang Tianyu heard the question, shrunken neck, looks a little scared like a whisper: "They said to dismiss me"

"What?" Cui Yongfu 'rubbed' stood up, habitually raised his hand, but after noticing the two burning eyes next to him, a resentful face and put back.

"Two officers, do you have anything else you want to ask? If not, I've had too much to drink, and my head really hurts a bit." After the words, he collapsed on the bedpan in a smooth manner and lay there grunting straight.

"There's nothing else for now, thanks to Mr. Cui's cooperation." After Qi Ziang finished speaking, he gave Lu Li a wink.

Seeing this, Jiang Tianyu beside the bed also stepped away, looking like she intended to see them out.

Unexpectedly, just as they reached the doorway, Cui Yongfu on the bed grunted even louder: "Aiya, my head hurts so much! It hurts so much!!!"

Jiang Tianyu pursed her lips with an uncomfortable face and asked in a small voice: "Two officers, if there is nothing else, can I not go back to the police station? As you can see, he I'm afraid that something will happen to him at home by himself."

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the public. Of course, if you really have something to do, waiting at home for a phone summons from the police station is also possible"

After all, when Zhang Baozhu and Wu Han clashed, there were many witnesses around, and the police station side also retrieved the surveillance video near the crime scene.

She is indeed the party that was beaten, is the victim, this point is irrefutable, the police do not have any mandatory binding on her.

"But are you sure you want to stay home? I see your husband If you want, we can send you back to the police station's."

"Thank you for this Officer Lu's kindness." Although he looked scared, Jiang Tianyu eventually politely declined.

Lu Li instantly showed an expression of 'anger at him' and wanted to open his mouth to say something, but he was stopped by the people around him.

Qiziang, with a profound frown between his eyebrows, snapped in a solemn tone, "Ms. Zhang, it is our duty and obligation to protect every citizen from illegal infringement."

"I know." Jiang Tianyu smiled reluctantly at them, "Thank you two officers for reminding me, I will not see you off."

Such an obvious order of expulsion, the two could not possibly not understand, and in the end they did not say anything more and turned around and left the small courtyard.

On the way out of the alley, Lu Li was still whispering: "This Zhang Baozhu, is she really stupid or fake? Just because her man was so arrogant in front of us, do you think someone will be killed later?"

Qiziang did not respond at first.

So the woman was so bold as to wake up the men, was it really just because she was afraid of slowing them down? After all, all her subsequent performance was very much in line with the image of a woman who had suffered prolonged abuse.

"No....." he was just about to speak, the phone in his trouser pocket suddenly vibrated twice, pulled out the droopy eyes looked at, suddenly his expression changed: "Brother Xu said the technical section of the laboratory results came out, we first go back to the bureau. "

With a burst of rapid footsteps, the two figures soon disappeared at the end of the alley.

On the other side of the small courtyard, Jiang Tianyu slow movement to the iron courtyard door off the lock, then returned to the bungalow, by the way, and the door was also tightly closed.

The man who had a headache and foot pain not long ago was now sitting on the edge of the bed with his arms around his chest, his expression fierce, his tone cold and appalling: "You've grown up? You still want to hide such a big event from me?"

"You've lost your good job, haven't I been treating you a little too well lately?" As he spoke, Cui Yongfu stood up, carrying in his hand a black leather pants belt that he didn't know where to find.

Jiang Tianyu, on the other hand, looked coldly at the man with a fierce smile across the room and squeezed out a soft hum from his nose: "If I were you, I would have something to say."

His own wife did not immediately cry and kneel down and beg for mercy as before, and for a moment, Cui Yongfu detected a hint of anomaly.

Naive nerves paralyzed by alcohol is really not so responsive, looking at the calm familiar face, he was completely enraged instead.

He waved the belt in his hand, his mouth cursed and rushed over, the belt head is still very heavy metal, if this is pumped on, the feeling must be very sour.

Who knows, Jiang Tianyu is not afraid to meet up.

Her arm was like a snake that wrapped around the belt, and then pinched the man's wrist, and very smoothly clutched the belt in her hand.

Quickly turning around, she used her other hand to press hard against Cui Yongfu's back.

Bang!

Clap, clap, clap!

In the next second, Jiang Tianyu directly hit the somewhat shaky tin room door with the other side's face hard.

After that, I don't know if it was intentional or unintentional, that belt went around in her hand, because the inertia metal head just hit hard on the man's head.

"Ow ! ! ! ! !"

In the small bungalow, there was a pig-like scream.
