194 Astonishing! A Tiger-Headed Gilt Military Token! (1)

To be honest, aside from watching it from the animal channel, this was the first time Luo Feng had witnessed a leopard hunting live.

Many of the rich second-generation heirs were experiencing this for the first time too.

As for the viewers in the live streaming room, since they were merely watching through a screen, it was similar to watching the scenes from the animal channel.

However, unlike those scenes which were typically edited by cameramen to reduce the gore. This, on the other hand, was a livestream, and the rawness of the leopard's display of power was in full force. Many of the more timid viewers were practically frightened to death by how bloody the scene was.

!!

"Damn! That leopard is amazing!"

"It's like a god descended to earth!"

"Heh, if a tiger were here, it wouldn't be so divine anymore!"

"The leopard's combat power is indeed not that impressive in the animal kingdom. It can't even defeat the second brother on the grassland!"

"That's right. There's a reason why the second brother has such combat power on the grassland!"

"What a weak bird! It doesn't even know how to fly in the face of danger!"

"Isn't it just because the leopard is too fast?"

At that moment, the leopard, which had just killed the pheasant, looked towards Luo Feng and the others. This was because animals generally did not like having other creatures around when they were enjoying their food. They would either drag the food away or drive people away. It was evident that the leopard was assessing whether it could defeat these humans.

Before long, the leopard crouched slightly, bent its front legs, and prepared to pounce.

"Is it trying to pick a fight?"

"Everyone, step back!"

"I'm afraid that you might accidentally kill this protected animal. That would be unacceptable!"

Usually, when an animal attacked humans, it was legal for the humans to fight back and kill the attacker. However, if it was possible to avoid harming the animal, it was best not to cause any injury.

"Damn! Is the host going to face the leopard alone?"

"Stop trying to flex!"

“Everyone should charge it together to reduce the casualties!”

“Damn! Can these newcomers at least find out about the streamer’s combat power?”

“Yeah, the host’s combat power should be more than enough to deal with a leopard!”

“What kind of combat power would allow the host to take down a predator of such stature?”

“Don’t tell me you’re thinking of a scene from some novel! This is a living, breathing wild animal with sharp claws!”

“Right, look at the host, who has not even bothered grabbing a stick to serve as a makeshift weapon! Is he trying to throw his life away!?”

Of course, Luo Feng did not use any weapons because he was afraid that he might accidentally kill the leopard. Even a stick, with Luo Feng’s combat ability, could be lethal.

As someone who had mastered various fighting techniques, Luo Feng was not to be underestimated.

Luo Feng shouted, “Everyone, step back! Leopards are very territorial. In this area, without any stronger predators, it thinks it is the king of the world!”

“Hahaha, when Lu Bu died, Guan Yu thought that he was uncontested!”

“Without a tiger in these mountains, this leopard thinks it’s really something, huh?”

Suddenly, the leopard began to growl. The growling sounded like a chainsaw cutting through wood, grating on the ears. It kept circling Luo Feng, trying to find his weak spot or attack him from behind.

“Luo Feng, it’s trying to ambush you from behind!” Li Shishi shouted.

However, just as the leopard was about to pounce, Luo Feng swiftly dodged with an Ali butterfly step, leaving the leopard grasping at thin air. The leopard felt like it was being toyed with, and it grew even more agitated, preparing for a second round of attacks.

“You want some more?”

“You think I’m a weakling just because I’m not a tiger?”

Luo Feng decided that although he would not kill the leopard, he would teach it a lesson. When it pounced again, Luo Feng once again nimbly dodged with an Ali shuffle. He then reached out and grabbed the leopard’s nape with pinpoint accuracy.

“Little kitty, trying to pounce at me, are you?”

The leopard, weighing around 100 catties, was like a young girl’s weight. As Luo Feng held its nape, the leopard tried to struggle and bite his hand. But with a flick of Luo Feng’s wrist, the leopard was sent flying several meters away, landing in the bushes.

The fall should not have caused any significant harm to it.

“Damn, that was impressive! I underestimated this guy!”

If the leopard could talk, it would have undoubtedly thought something like that. It growled a few more times, but its voice was noticeably less arrogant than before.

With its tail drooping, it finally turned and fled.

“Hahaha! That was awesome! That was so exciting!”

“In just a few moves, the host has effortlessly shut down the leopard!”

“I was wrong! My concerns earlier were completely unnecessary!”

“I told you, didn’t I? For the streamer, dealing with a small leopard is a piece of cake. Now do you believe me?”

“Is the Ali shuffle really that smooth?”

“The host’s skills are so good that it would be a waste if he didn’t go into boxing!”

Seeing the leopard run away, many of the audience members, who loved to see some more action, felt somewhat regretful.

“Hahaha, it ran away just like that? I thought it was more untamable. Is it not coming back for the pheasant? What if it starves to death?”

Of course, Luo Feng thought carefully about it. The leopard looked strong, which meant that it had eaten recently and was unlikely to starve.

“Host, why don’t you guys eat this pheasant?”

“Yeah! If you don’t eat the gift from the leopard, it would be a waste of its present!”

“Seriously, are they going to eat the colorful pheasant just like that?”

...

“There’s no problem, right? Millions of people have witnessed the scene with their own eyes. The leopard was the one that killed it!”

“A bunch of ignorant fools! Why don’t you pick up a dead panda and try eating it? See if you can get away with it?”

“It probably shouldn’t be eaten.”

“Indeed! Even if it had died from natural causes, the body should be handed to the authorities, and it should be put for sale!”
