

A Trash 238

Chapter 238 Crazy! Madness! An Imperial Robe Fetches a Record-breaking Domestic Price! (5)

To his surprise, he had gained an additional 1 billion yuan.

This was half more than what he had expected to earn! How could he not be happy with such a scenario? Even after paying 20% in taxes, he still had a profit of 8 billion yuan. With that amount of money, he could find countless young, beautiful models.

He could completely surround himself with them, and he was certain that it would feel incredibly comfortable.

Soon after, wealthy individuals and various museums began transferring funds to Luo Feng's account. Once the transactions were complete, they could leave with the artifacts they had won in the auction. After the event, Lin Zixuan, a 30-year-old official reporter from Jiangnan, approached Luo Feng backstage with a smile, ready to interview him.

"Mr. Luo, hello. May I ask you a few questions?" Lin Zixuan inquired.

"Of course, Ms. Lin, go ahead!" Luo Feng responded, having gained some experience from recent interviews, he was confident he could handle this appropriately. The key to answering questions was to follow a simple principle: answer without addressing the question directly. It was important not to be too obvious. For example, if someone asked about his breakfast, he could not say that he had exotic delicacies. Instead, he could say that he enjoys a healthy and nutritious breakfast, which he often ate.

Luo Feng had already honed his ability to answer questions in this manner.

Soon after, another reporter, Wang Bingbing, approached Luo Feng. Not only were there reporters from Jiangnan, but even those from the capital had come. Luo Feng was truly gaining significant recognition.

"Mr. Luo, will you take a break after this, or will you continue treasure hunting?" asked the beautiful Wang Bingbing, who had gained quite a following online.

Luo Feng replied, "There is still work to be done at Dalong Mountain. I have always said that I do not waste a single grain of rice in my pot! Since we have spent a hefty chunk of money to obtain the foraging permit, I see no reason not to continue digging."

Wang Bingbing was surprised by his answer and continued, "Mr. Luo, based on your knowledge from your sect as well as your own experience, do you think there is still a possibility of finding even more treasures of the rebel king at Dalong Mountain?"

Luo Feng realized that she was attempting to dig a hole for him to fall into, but he had no intentions of admitting to having a sect. He replied, "As for Dalong Mountain, the mantra has been used up. But whether there is more treasure or not, no one can say for sure, right?" With a sly smile, Luo Feng knew that his words would cause the treasure hunters to follow him day by day, hoping for a chance at wealth.

You like to follow me around don't you? Fine then, I'll just send you all on a wild goose chase.

After answering a few more questions and completing the transaction process, Luo Feng returned to his hotel suite around 5 in the evening.

“Mr. Luo, let’s have dinner! Let’s go!” his companions urged.

“Yeah, treat us to a meal!”

Back at the hotel suite, without the presence of soldiers, everyone was much more relaxed compared to the day before. Upon hearing Li Shishi’s suggestion to have Luo Feng treat them, the other second-generation heirs immediately joined in to urge Luo Feng.

After all, Luo Feng had just made billions, and it was a cause for celebration.

“Alright then, Shishi, where should we go for dinner?” Luo Feng asked lovingly. Truth be told, he had always been quite fond of Li Shishi.

But do not be mistaken, as his fondness of Li Shishi was more akin to a brotherly love.

Nevertheless, if she were to somehow offer herself to him, Luo Feng would not reject her advances. After all, she was a goddess with a 95-point beauty score...

Li Shishi pondered for a moment.

Seeing this, Luo Feng turned to Qin Rubing and asked, “What about you, Little Qin? Do you have any suggestions? I think we should let the two ladies decide, but I promise I’ll pay for the meal!”

Some of the heirs objected, saying, “Old Luo, why do you always look after the ladies? What about us?”

“Agreed! You’re pretty biased!”

Luo Feng rolled his eyes and replied, “Alright, I will take you all treasure hunting for free in the future. Still though, there are only two girls in our treasure hunting team! Don’t you think we should spoil them a bit? Are we supposed to pamper you guys, who are in abundance in the team? As aspiring treasure hunters, don’t you know the principle that rarity increases an item’s value?”
