

A Trash 40

Chapter 40

Treasure! Treasure! Have You Found the Ancient Building? (2)

“What happened to fishing? Why did you draw water?”

Seeing that the people in the live-stream did not understand, Luo Feng smiled and said, “It’s very simple. Under the streamer’s powerful money attack, I booked the seven-million-yuan pond. Now, of course, after the market investigation, there are treasures below. I have to drain them.”

As soon as Luo Feng said this, the live-stream exploded.

“What the f*ck? Streamer, are you crazy? You want to drain a huge pond in order to find treasures?”

“What kind of stupid streamer is this?”

“Is it worth it?”

“Even if you find tens of millions of treasures, it’s not worth it!”

“That’s right. What if there are no treasures? Wouldn’t it be a waste of effort?”

“It’s a huge project to drain this pond!”

“Let’s not talk about anything else. After all, it’s a contract fee of seven million. Can we respect seven million?”

“I can only say that you’re really irritable on the live broadcast.”

“I’m really convinced by this treasure hunter!”

“Tomorrow, if you find out that there’s a treasure in Donghai, won’t you f*cking drain the Pacific Ocean?”

“Hahaha! Awesome!”

“This is the first time I’ve seen such a ruthless streamer!”

It could be said that when the topic of today came out, Luo Feng gained more than 80,000 fans in a day.

In order to find treasures, he directly drained a pond that was tens of thousands of square meters.

This would definitely be popular.

“Everyone, stop talking. Let me calculate. There is a lot of fish in this pond. Even if we drain all of them and sell them, they should be sold for at least five million, right? Then, if we can find a treasure that costs a few million yuan, it will be considered a profit! However, the host’s market research has also been wrong some time ago. If there’s no one this time, it would be a loss of a few million. However, a few million is only a matter of finding a few fewer young girls every day!”

“In that case, can I deem it as spending money to watch the show?”

“Perhaps. I can only say that the streamer is rich and willful!”

“If that’s the case, I, Wang Long, will be the first to agree!”

“Well done. I love watching things like pumping water!”

Luo Feng was a little speechless when he heard everyone’s words. In fact, his thoughts were very simple. He didn’t want any fish. He wanted the densely packed punctuation at the bottom.

“I bought a seven-million-yuan fish pond just to pump water and hunt for treasures!”

“This streamer is good. If there’s anything, he can really pay!”

“Hurry up and drain the water today! I think there are seven or eight pumps working again, right?”

When Luo Feng saw this, he immediately puckered his lips and said, “What are you thinking about? How can you suck it dry today? It’ll take at least five to six days, right? You guys are really creative!”

“This won’t do. Five to six days is too long!”

“That’s right. It’s not easy to broadcast. We can’t let Old Luo have another chance to rest!”

“Don’t tell me you’ve stopped searching for treasures for the past five to six days? Are you waiting to pump water?”

“I have to think of a way to speed up the pumping process!”

Luo Feng had actually thought about this question before. Should he get more pumps?

But no matter how many there were, it would take at least a day or two, right?

Just as Luo Feng was thinking of a way to speed up the pumping...

Obviously, he had spent seven million yuan on the fish pond just to pump water and search for treasures. It directly rushed to the top of Weibo’s trending topics.

“What the hell? Spending seven million yuan on a fish pond just to find treasure?”

“What kind of treasure is this? Why is it so big?”

“He’s trying to gain popularity. These streamers can think of anything to become famous.”

“Hehe, he has the wallet to come down to the fish pond. Do you have the ability? Do you only know how to scold?”

“Regardless of whether we can find it or not, let’s go take a look first!”

“Let’s go and take a look at this streamer’s live-stream. Is it true?”

...

On Luo Feng’s side, it was already afternoon. Due to the addition of the eight high-power pumps, the water level in the current fish pond had clearly decreased.

But it was only a tenth of the entire pond.

Of course, after a wave of trending topics on Weibo, Luo Feng's actual followers increased by another 100,000. He was worried that his reputation points would not be enough after the system upgrade.

It seemed that he did not have to worry about this problem at all though.

Three days passed in the blink of an eye.

Over the past few days, Luo Feng had spent seven million yuan on finding treasures. He had not reduced his popularity online because everyone wanted to see what this streamer could find after draining the water.

Would it be more than seven million yuan?

Actually, there were all kinds of people who pumped water. Perhaps eight million was too much.

On this afternoon, after Luo Feng finished his lunch at home, he drove the Hummer to Shuitang Village.

The water level was already bottoming out, but not completely.

"It'll be done soon. It'll probably be finished by today! This fish pond is really deep! I thought it was only a few meters deep!"

...

"Nonsense, this isn't artificially dug up. It's naturally formed! Do you want to excavate it manually? Then, what about Daliang Village? Can you dig it up and surround our own village?"

"I heard from Grandpa's grandfather that many years ago, this place was a protruding mountain. I don't know who attracted the water and turned it into a fish pond! They even surrounded a village of tens of thousands of square meters!"

He saw that the bottom of the pond was dozens of meters deep.

Even many elders in the village were surprised.

This was because they had always had the impression that the pond was only seven to eight meters long.

"Not bad, Old Lu! Eight extra pumps are extraordinary!"
