58 Jade Qilin! A Priceless Artifact! (3)

“Yes, our young madam wishes to talk to you about the honey!”

Gu Xiaofang stated the truth upfront.

Being polite and beating around the bush would only leave Luo Feng with a bad impression of them.

“Didn’t I already make myself clear on this matter? My mom really likes it, so I’m planning to keep it!”

Luo Feng did not care about an offer that only goes up to the millions.

After all, he was already worth hundreds of millions, and he was certain that his net worth would only grow in the future.

There was no need to sell off such a valuable item.

“Ms. Su says that you’ll regret declining this invitation!”

Gu Xiaofang said with a smile and in a confident tone.

“Oh? Really now?”

Luo Feng nodded and agreed to the invite.

He wanted to know just what on earth would make him regret declining the invitation.

Around three minutes later.

Under Gu Xiaofang’s lead, Luo Feng arrived at Ancient Tree Cafe.

They entered a private room and he was greeted with a beautiful lady in a black halter dress sitting on the sofa by the window.

Her deep and distant gaze gave the impression that she was wise and intelligent, unlike the naive and simple women of her age.

Moreover, she was extremely good-looking.

Her jet-black hair that streamed down her shoulders was glossy and was as smooth as silk.

Due to the strap dress she was wearing, her shoulders and arms were exposed, revealing her flawless skin, free from any blemishes.

Although her legs were obscured from view, judging by how great her upper body look, Luo Feng could feel that she was like a goddess who had walked out of a novel.

“Mr. Luo, you’re here?”

Su Meiji heard the sound of the door opening. She immediately stood up and stretched out her hand, “Hello, Mr. Luo.”

“Hello, Ms. Su, you...”

Luo Feng was genuinely surprised.

He had assumed that the so-called number one beauty was merely an exaggeration, but what he saw today was indeed beyond his imagination.

He had met many beautiful women before, but the one standing before him had the most temperament of them all.

“Did you wish to say something?”

Su Meiji smiled and invited Luo Feng to sit down. She then pushed the coffee menu over.

“Not really, just a little surprised.” Luo Feng replied as he looked down at the drink menu.

“Oh yeah, your assistant mentioned earlier that I’d regret not coming over. By regret, you wouldn’t be referring to this feast to the eyes, right?” Luo Feng joked while browsing the drink menu.

“What if that was all? Would you have regretted it?”

Su Meiji asked.

“Emmm!” Luo Feng looked up, looked at Su Meiji with appreciation, “Then, I definitely would’ve regretted declining the offer. Your reputation is well-deserved.”

“Thank you!” Su Meiji smiled gently, flicked her hair, and said with a changed expression, “I heard that you’re looking to buy a villa for your parents that has good Fengshui and is close to sources of public transportation?”

“Hmm?”

Luo Feng’s interest was instantly piqued. “Sorry to trouble you, Assistant Gu. I’ll have this Blue Mountain Coffee.”

He quickly picked out and looked into Su Meiji’s eyes. “How did you know?”

“To know oneself and know one’s enemy is to be victorious in every battle. Of course, I’ve done my research on you, but don’t worry, I have my own principles when it comes to privacy. There are certain lines not meant to be crossed.”

Su Meiji did not try to hide anything, moreover, it was clear that the battle she was referring to was the deal regarding the honey.

“I see. But I’m actually interested in what you mentioned earlier. Can you tell me where the house is located?”

Smart people speak to the point, without being long-winded.

Luo Feng cut to the chase.

“I think the place is pretty good. I think you’ll like it.”

Su Meiji said as she tapped her phone a few times, then handed it over to Luo Feng, showing him some pictures.
