70 Scanning the Steel Factory Again! 300 Dots! (3)

“Good job! That Chen Zhilong is a slimy one I tell ya!”

“Getting jailed is probably equivalent to a death sentence for him! He’ll get his just deserves in there!”

Luo Fugao thought back on how the despicable entrepreneur had colluded with the village chief to reduce the price per mu<sup>1</sup> of land from 18 thousand to 10 thousand and his anger flared.

Fortunately, the b*stard was soon to be jailed, and upon recalling that fact, a wave of calm washed over him.

“Hehe, it looks like my popularity is going to soar this time.”

Luo Feng reclined back on his cushy sofa and turned on his phone.

News of his achievement had already made it to the top of Weibo’s Trending Searches.

The comments below are also diverse and exciting. But they were nothing more than expressions of shock and admiration.

He brought up his channel. Although he was not live at the moment, many of his viewers, or possibly his new fans were sending several bullet comments.

Better yet, he had broke through 800 thousand followers!

This was a stark contrast from the 300 thousand he had earlier that day!

Luo Feng felt that he was truly on fire this time.

Compared to those erotically dancing streamers, treasure-hunting ones were very low profile, and had often gone under the radar of many who visited the site.

As such, the fact that he had achieved 800 thousand followers was an amazing feat!

Moreover, the quality of Luo Feng’s fans was also very high. This could be seen clearly from the 20 Mercedes-Benz G-Class vehicles he had sold at noon.

“Hello, Director Wu? To what do I owe the pleasure of this call?”

“Yes, I’m on fire again! I’ve even made it to the number one trending topic!”

“Congratulations? Nah, why is there a need for congratulations? This is all down to luck!”

“Huh? You’d like me to participate in the platform’s special program?”

“I’m afraid I’ll have to decline! I don’t have the time! After all, there are several young models waiting for me, and I need to continue digging for treasures if I am to satisfy them all!”

“Hahaha, you’re going to upgrade my contract again? You’re going to direct more traffic to my streams?”

“Alright, thank you! Thank you, Director Wu!”

Luo Feng ended a call with an ecstatic smile on his face.

Last time, it was only a small manager of the platform who had contacted him.

However, now that he was gaining more and more fame, he had even received a personal call from the director.

Moreover, if he were to sign the upgraded contract, he would be able to retain 85% of the revenue from gifts, and the platform would only receive 15%!

Not only would his share of the revenue increase, but more importantly, the platform would divert more and more traffic to Luo Feng’s streams in the future.

“After my latest system upgrade, each scan I make would consume 500 thousand Reputation Points. However, from the looks of it, it seems that I no longer have to worry about the consumption as long as the platform continues to direct traffic to my stream! As long as there are enough fans, I can rack up Reputation Points in no time! Plus, the same could be said of Shock Points too!”

Upon placing down his phone, Luo Feng fell into deep thought.

I wonder...

Just what on earth is hidden underneath the Steel Factory?

There are 300 dots there...

“Son, who was that call from? You look so happy.”

Soon, his mother, Xu Zhenzhu, also came over.

She plopped down on the sofa, right beside Luo Feng.

“Someone from the livestreaming platform. Apparently, my contract will be upgraded to an S-tier contract!”

“They even invited me to attend a large-scale offline event, but I declined!”

Luo Feng laughed out. Although many pretty female streamers would likely attend the event, Luo Feng had no interest in joining.

His priority was first and foremost, digging for treasures and making money off said treasures.

His villa costs 180 million yuan.

He had 130 million in savings.

Even with the money that the authorities had yet to transfer over...

He would only have 145 million.

He used to think that this was a lot of money, but now, he felt that it was still too little.

He had to work harder.

"I see."

"By the way, son, let me show you a few photos!"

Xu Zhenzhu smiled happily at her son's enthusiasm. Even though she had no idea how significant an S-tier contract was, she was happy that the platform was giving her son the attention he deserved.

"Photos? What photos?"

Luo Feng was puzzled by her mother's sudden shift in topic.

Could it be...

"Yes, the aunties in the neighborhood gave us some photos of their daughters. Come and take a look!"

As she said that, Luo Feng's mother turned on her phone and showed Luo Feng pictures of 8 or so women.

After all, Luo Feng was living in the King of Villas, and not only was he rich, he was also filial and handsome.

Regardless of them being a daughter from an ordinary family or a daughter from a well-off family, Luo Feng was the perfect partner for them. How could they not be tempted?

"Mom, why are you being such a busybody? Plus, they're just trying to climb up the social ladder! I'll never accept them! Not even in their dreams!"

"My net worth is over 100 million now, and thus, I need a woman who's also worth at least 100 million. That way, we'll both be able to work together and make more riches!"

"There's no need to lower my standards for women!"

In truth, Luo Feng cared not of the wealth of his partner. He had only uttered those words to trick his mother.

"That's true, hmm..."

Xu Zhenzhu nodded. "If that's the case, I can pass on a majority of these girls!"

"The only one left hails from a family with assets in the hundreds of millions like you requested. They live in a villa opposite ours, and though it's not as expensive as ours, it's still worth more than 10 million!"

“She’s the only daughter, and her assets range in the hundreds of millions. She isn’t considered a gold digger than, is she?”

The Rose Garden neighborhood was filled with all sorts of villas, some expensive, some cheap.

There were also ordinary suites.

It was a neighborhood that could fit all sorts of housing needs.

“Mhm, she’s quite beautiful! Try to set up a meeting when I have time. Yes, I find her much to my taste! I guess this is what it means to fall in love at first sight!”

“Wow, mom, thank you so much! You’ve found me my destined woman! I can feel it at a glance.”

Luo Feng inspected the photo. The woman’s looks were average, and he had no desire to be with her.

However, he felt that there was no other way to convince his mother to stop.

As such, he would simply invite the woman to a date, and piss her off during it.

“Wow, really? You like her that much?”

Seeing this, Xu Zhenzhu beamed with joy. It seemed that the day where she could hold her grandson in her hands was not far away.

“Mhm, go and arrange the meet then! I’m feeling a little peckish, so I’ll grab some dinner and then get some shut-eye!”
