91 Another Treasure Chest! Worth 140 million! (2)

“Luo Feng, stop! What are you doing!”

“Stop digging! You said so yourself, this is a minefield!”

Upon seeing Luo Feng’s actions, Li Shishi was so terrified that she was on the brink of tears.

Viewers who had just joined the stream would hear the yelps from her immediately think of something else...

However, she truly was scared stiff at the situation.

What the hell is this?

Why is he still digging despite knowing that there’s a landmine right in front of him?

Very quickly, Luo Feng had dug out the soil around the mine.

More than half of the mine’s exterior had been revealed.

Luo Feng saw it clearly. It was a type of landmine that was created via old-fashioned techniques.

Its structure was simple.

It was made of iron on the outside.

And instead of being filled with destructive shards like iron sand and steel bearings, all that was contained within it were some sharp stones.

“I’m removing the mine! Shishi, don’t scream!”

“But I’m scared...”

“Don’t be, I’m confident that it won’t explode!”

Li Shishi did not know why, but when she saw the confidence that Luo Feng exuded, she actually believed his words and became less afraid.

At the same time.

Although the mine had yet to explode, the livestream’s chat surely had.

“What the f*ck?”

“He’s removing a mine with his bare hands?”

“What is this?”

In an instant, millions of people poured into the livestream.

The first sight they were greeted with was that of Li Shishi, the little beauty, standing stiff as a statue in a strange pose.

It made for a great opening act for these newcomers.

Meanwhile, Luo Feng was gripping his Swallowtail Hoe tightly as he continued digging the soil around the mine...

“F*ck!”

“What the f*ck? Are you really going to remove a mine with your bare hands?”

“Does this host have a death wish or something? Why isn’t he waiting for the authorities to come and help?”

“I’m f*cking convinced. This streamer is a bad*ss!”

“Host, just blow the mine up and run away before the explosion catches you!”

“Hahaha, are you a kid or something? Do you think these are the firecrackers you set off during the new year? There’s no delay for you to flee!”

“Hahaha! I was secretly hoping that the host would dig up a couple of mines, but I never expected my prediction to come true!”

“I’ve already returned the military shovel that I ordered yesterday. Digging for treasure is too dangerous!”

The millions of people that had flooded into the chat had caused bullet comments to completely fill up the screen.

No one could tell who was talking.

The stream looked as if it was snowing.

Naturally, Luo Feng had no time to look at the comments. Even if he did, he cared not about their comments.

After all, the Swallowtail Hoe’s ability to evade death was a powerful cheat.

He was afraid of nothing.

As such, he could just continue digging without a care for the world.

The Swallowtail Hoe would automatically change its position, direction, and strength on its own.

“Cousin, I heard that there’s a problem here again?”

“What did you find?”

Luo Feng looked up and met Yun Luo’s eyes. He replied, “Of course it’s treasure! A precious mine!”

“Holy crap! A mine?!”

Luo Yun shuddered as he took a few steps back.

“Don’t worry, what I’m actually aiming for is a box hidden under the mine!”

Luo Feng pointed at the small pit.

Now, a rusty brown-red sheet of iron could be seen.

“Could it be another treasure chest?”

Luo Yun’s eyes widened as he exclaimed, “Damn! Cousin, you’re rich again?”

The cousin was excited, but when he thought of the land mine, he asked, “But can you even extract it safely with the mine there?”

“It’s fine. Watch me buy a motorcycle from the money I’ll make from this chest!”

...

Luo Feng smiled nonchalantly.

“Aaaaaaaaaa, please stop making such a risky move! I’ll gift you a motorcycle, so please, just stop!”

Although Li Shishi could sense Luo Feng’s overwhelming confidence, she still felt that it was a gamble.

As a result, she began to worry again.

“Stop screaming. I’m just joking. I’m really confident!”

“Don’t you pee your pants!”

Luo Feng looked at Li Shishi’s statue-like appearance and said, “Actually, feel free to squat down if you’re tired. I’m sure it’s quite tiring standing like that!”

“Huh? You’re confident?” With her emotions calming down a bit, she suddenly realized the fatigue that had been building up in her legs. Therefore, she slowly squat down, though she made sure not to lift her foot.

“What the f*ck! Old Luo, are you crazy? Why are you gambling your life away just for a motorcycle?”

“I’m afraid that you’ll turn into a dead person!”

“Even if you have a death wish, don’t drag Shishi into it!”

...

“Has he gone crazy?”

“If it was for a box that’s worth tens of millions like yesterday, I would take the gamble!”

“Actually, a landmine like this can only break an arm at most. It’s not that serious. A treasure chest worth tens of millions is definitely worth it!”

“F*ck! An arm is not considered serious? What is considered serious then?”

The netizens were dripping with anxiety at the situation unfolding in the stream.

Halfway through his digging process, Luo Feng received a call.

“Luo Feng, I heard that you’ve started to dig for treasures again? Are you crazy?”

When Captain Sun heard about this, he called Luo Feng directly.

“It’s fine. These mines are not that sophisticated. Sometimes, even if a big truck goes over, they might not explode!”

“And it’s been so long. It’s probably already inactive, right?”

“Of course, I know a little about landmines. I’m confident in my ability to disarm it!”

Soon after.

Luo Feng proceeded to flood Captain Sun with a wealth of landmine-related knowledge.

At the same time, it felt to Captain Sun that Luo Feng was trying to assuage his fears.

It felt rather odd.

After all, was it not be Luo Feng, who was in the minefield, who needed to be comforted?

“Hohoho, after hearing so much about landmines from Old Luo, I feel like I’ve gained some more useless knowledge!”

“What kind of monster is Old Luo? How can he know so much?”

“Stop explaining. I’m never going to a minefield to dig for treasures! There’s no need to!”

“Actually, what the host says is true. It’s likely a mine that has been disabled. It’s very easy to dismantle it!”

“When you dig the mine, you must be gentle! Also, don’t pull it out immediately after digging it, you have to see if it’s connected to any fuse!”
