93 Shocking the Viewers! Qianlong's Imperial Longquan Seal Ink! (1)

"Mines in Area A1 have been removed!"

"Area B3 has been cleared!"

"A4 mines, cleared!"

The military engineers were all professionals.

With just one sweep of the machinery of a person in the field, the technician monitoring the screens would be able to determine the presence of landmines.

Beep! Beep! Beep! Beep!

Beeeeep!

Following the sound of the machine.

A 3D map of the minefield was displayed.

Luo Feng could not believe what he was seeing.

Perhaps this was the magic of modern technology. In the face of these mystical advancements, the landmines of the olden days had been rendered a mere child's play.

"I'm alive!"

"Woohoo, what a heart-stopping experience!"

Zhang Shunyong was already celebrating in exhilaration.

Just moments ago, he had been on the brink of death and had already mentally written his will, but now, he was saved...

Not a single ounce of fear remained within him, and instead, all he felt was giddiness from the thrill he had just experienced.

Perhaps this was to be expected of a thrill-seeking daredevil like him.

"I know right? This is truly a riveting experience, I can't believe we just walked out of a minefield unscathed!"

Another rich second generation said excitedly.

He had been in a anxious state just now, very, very anxious.

At this moment, they were all holding bottles of mineral water and gulping them down.

“Of course it is! We were prancing around on a minefield just moments ago! How can it not be exciting?”

“Hey guys, are any of you still tagging along with Luo Feng tomorrow?”

“Hehe, why wouldn't I?”

“That's right, this is the excitement I've been seeking for!”

“I sure as hell won't. Tag along with him at your own volition, but I'll just watch from the side. It's so f*cking dangerous!”

“You're scared sh*tless just from this? Man, what a party pooper!”

“Hahaha! Weren't you seeking thrills and for exciting experiences? How can you be scared off just because of this?”

Luo Feng, on the other hand, initially heaved a sigh of relief when he saw that everyone had been rescued.

However, upon hearing their conversation, he was left a little dumbfounded...

He had assumed that most would stay away after such a scare.

However, it seemed that the experience had only served to embolden them, to the extent that they had even called this an exciting experience.

Is this what they actually wanted?

Does that mean that to fulfill their truest desires, someone needs to get blown up to kingdom come?

One had to know that these people were all billionaires.

People like Zhang Shunyong, who was one of the richer ones in the bunch, had a net worth in the range of the tens of billions.

Usually, conventional wisdom would dictate that a richer someone was, the more afraid they would be of death.

However, this did not seem to apply to him, which perplexed Luo Feng.

Moreover, if Luo Feng was in their positions, he would safeguard his own life to the best of his abilities. Why waste a perfectly good life away?

“Oh yeah, we need to thank Luo Feng for giving us an opportunity to experience such an event!”

“Indeed. Although, while I still think this is a highly thrilling scenario, I don't really want to die, but if it comes to it, I'm not afraid!”

“Old Luo is really awesome! I'm getting more and more impressed by him!”

“He actually removed the mine with his bare hands?”

“I won't say anything else. He is definitely a novel-level ruthless person!”

Although the second generation heirs were going around claiming that it was highly exciting and they were unafraid of death, deep down in their hearts, death was still a primal fear for them all.

Otherwise, their faces would not have blanched white to such an extent in the beginning.

The only reason they could happily celebrate the experience at this moment was due to the fact that no one had died.

It was akin to gambling millions away in a casino. If you won and made several millions in return, you would be over the moon; but if you lost, you would be heartbroken.

“Hahaha, it’s okay. No need to thank me for this!”

“I’m just lucky that I didn’t detonate the mine!”

Seeing the rich heirs coming over to thank him one after another, Luo Feng could only humbly wave away his feats.

After all, what he said was not wrong, it had been purely down to luck, but the Swallowtail Hoe was a tool that transcended even the limitations of luck!

“Luo... Luo Feng... W-Where did Brother An go? M-My k-k-keys are still with him.”

At this moment, Li Shishi was still glued to her spot, her complexion pale and she looked rather uncomfortable.

...

She had intended to change her panties in her car.

“Brother An seems to have gone down the mountain!”

Zhang Shun Yong pointed at the path down the mountain.

“Yeah, I asked him to buy water for everyone.”

Luo Feng nodded.

After all, everyone had been standing under the sun for an hour.

On top of that, the nervousness and anxiety that had wracked them all this while had also left everyone’s mouth dry.

The bottles of water they had prepared were insufficient to quench their thirst, as some had doused themselves with the water from those bottles.

“Shishi, what do you want the car keys for? Are you going home?”

Luo Feng asked her in confusion.

“No, I-I’m not going home...”

...

Li Shishi squeaked a little and looked at the road at the foot of the mountain. It would take about half an hour to get to wherever An Peng was.

However, she was already very uncomfortable.

But she was too embarrassed to explain herself to Luo Feng.

How could she be so useless?

How could such a thing happen?

She would probably be laughed at if she told the others.

“Luo Feng, can I borrow your car keys?”

Li Shishi decided not to wait for An Peng and opted to deal with it in Luo Feng’s car instead.

“Huh? Okay!”

Luo Feng did not think too much about it.

Immediately after.

Li Shishi took the car keys and quickly headed towards Luo Feng’s big Benz.

Immediately upon entering, she locked the doors shut.

Huff, huff, huff.

Finally, a place where nobody is around.

“Alright!”

“Gotta find a bag to put it in!”

“This is too embarrassing!”

Li Shishi said as she used a finger to pull out the affected article of clothing.

After all, there were no spare clothes in Luo Feng’s car.

Her only choice was to remove the clothing and wrap it up in a plastic bag.

I probably won’t be able to join in the digging efforts later. It would be bad if anyone were to see what I’ve laid bare...

Also, Li Shishi had neglected to bring a bag with her this time. As such, the undergarments that she had taken off would need to be hidden within Luo Feng’s car...

She could not very well walk out with the plastic bag in hand, right?

“Everyone, listen to me. Although it’s still early today, it’s unrealistic to dig for treasure anymore after encountering such an incident!”
