Chapter 21: , Zhan Lin Muqing

Ten Thousand Beasts Arena, an ancient arena with almost the same history as Feiyun Kingdom, has an unfathomable background.

Here, the peerless masters who have walked out of countless megahistory history; here, there have also been countless young and frivolous geniuses.

Lin Muqing challenged Xu Ming and set the location at the Ten Thousand Beasts Arena, obviously coming prepared.

“The martial arts arena of ten thousand beasts, there is no life or death in a duel! If you kill Xu Ming here, even if you are a savage martial arts mansion, you can’t find fault with me, you can only blame their disciples for their poor strength!”

Standing on a separate arena in the Ten Thousand Beasts Fighting Arena, watching the surrounding isolation formation rise, Lin Muqing’s mouth curled into a wicked smile of a successful trick. Because what he asked the staff of the martial arts field to open was the “unstoppable game”; unless one party dies, or both parties agree to stop fighting, the martial arts will end!

It’s useless to admit defeat!

“Last time when Wu Pavilion was recruited, this Xu Ming was definitely only able to practice four turns outside!” Lin Muqing looked at Xu Ming, “Even if he can hide his cultivation, he will never escape the detection of the magic circle!”

At that time, Lin Yan and Lin Miao, the two outsiders who practiced 5th rank, were able to sneak into the 4th rank area, purely because of Wu Gao’s wind and water. As for Xu Ming and Wu Gaofeng, they would not release water for him.

“I only practiced 4th rank a few days ago, and now it’s at most at most, so let’s practice 5th rank!”

“And the reason why he is so powerful, according to the elders of Wuge, is because his realm is extremely high!”

“Realm?” Lin Muqing smiled disdainfully. He came from a wealthy family and naturally knew the importance of realm. “The difference in cultivation is not much, and realm can indeed turn the tide of the battle. However, my cultivation is already in the early stage of internal training, and dealing with him is a top priority. How many times have you practiced rank five? Hehe, if I just slashed over with a sword, he couldn’t stop it!”

As the saying goes, one power will drop ten sessions!

Lin Muqing has many calculations, but is Xu Ming stupid?

In fact, when Xu Ming saw Lin Muqing at the gate of the Wild Martial Mansion, he had already thrown a probe and analyzed his probability of winning against Lin Muqing.

“Lin Muqing, in the early stage of internal training, the realm is average...” After analyzing and analyzing, Xu Ming concluded that his chances of winning should be quite large, “I should also see how powerful the internal martial artist is!”

Xu Ming gently brushed the spear in his hands with both hands.

He spent a lot of money and asked a casting master in Wufu to make this long spear for him. Although he is an ordinary soldier, Xu Ming is very easy to use.

As for why Xu Ming chose a long spear as his main weapon, this is because Xu Ming’s research found that after a perfect battle, he had the strongest combat effectiveness with a long spear!

“Xu Ming, I admit, your marksmanship is really amazing; if my cultivation is equal to yours, I will admit that I am not your opponent! It’s a pity... your cultivation is too weak!” Lin Muqing used It was a sharp green sword, “With such a weak cultivation base, you dare to stand on this stage; you can only say that you were really forced into a corner by me, right?”

Xu Ming pointed his spear: “Then have you ever thought that the person who can’t get off this ring might be you?”

“Haha!” Lin Muqing seemed to have heard a big joke, “You can only practice rank five outsiders, you dare to talk to me like this? It seems that you really don’t know the difference between outside practice and inside practice. How big! Well, I’ll give you one last chance to survive – as long as you kneel in front of me, kowtow ten times, and shout ‘Grandpa, I’m wrong’ three times, I’ll spare you today, how about that?”

Lin Muqing sneered in his heart: Yes, I will spare you from death; however, I will definitely cut off your tendons and hamstrings, and then abolish your meridians, so that you will never be able to cultivate for the rest of your life! Moreover, I have to take it back and imprison it. Whenever I am happy, I will torture you!

“What are you shouting three times?” Xu Ming asked.

“Grandpa, I was wrong!”

“What?” Xu Ming still looked like he didn’t hear it.

“Grandpa, I was wrong!”

“What? Speak louder!”

“Grandpa, I was wrong... I fuck, kid, you are courting death!!” Lin Muqing finally realized that he had been tricked, “Fuck, how dare you play with me!”

Green light flashed on Lin Muqing’s blade, this is the profound energy that belongs to internal martial arts practitioners. And under Lin Muqing’s feet, the same green light thudded; in the blink of an eye, it had already soared to an extremely fast speed!

Internal martial arts practitioners not only have physical strength far superior to external martial arts practitioners, but also possess something that external martial arts practitioners cannot possess—profound energy!

Even in the initial stage of internal training, the power brought by profound energy is no less than the power of the body! That is to say, a martial artist in the early stage of internal training can exert at least two or three times the power of rank six externally; Three times the strength gap is already the gap between an adult strong man and a child!

“Death to me!”

With a flash of green light, it was in front of Xu Ming.

“It’s so fast!” Sun Ji, who was outside the arena, felt terrified when he saw Lin Muqing’s speed, “If you only fight for strength, maybe I can fight with him. However, his speed is much faster than me; If I confront him, I’m afraid I’ll be instantly killed!”

No matter how strong the power is, if the speed is not enough, I am afraid that even the corner of the opponent’s clothes cannot be touched.

“Boss, you must be careful!” Although Sun Ji was very convinced of Xu Ming’s strength, at this time, he was inevitably worried about Xu Ming.

Internal martial arts practitioners, regardless of all aspects, are much stronger than external martial arts practitioners!

Sun Ji, who was watching, was still in shock, but Xu Ming, who was facing the attack, could feel how fast Lin Muqing was.

but...

Lin Muqing is fast, and Xu Ming is not too slow!

Although Xu Ming is much weaker than Lin Muqing and Sun Ji in terms of strength, all aspects of Xu Ming—strength, speed, agility, endurance, etc., are all very balanced!

Xu Ming has no shortcomings!

Moreover, compared to the general rank 6 martial artist, Xu Ming's attributes in all aspects are 50% better!

It is these 50% attributes that prevent Xu Ming from being crushed by his strength and speed when facing Lin Muqing. In other words, even if he didn't start a perfect fight, Xu Ming could still struggle under Lin Muqing's hands; but now, Xu Ming started a perfect fight.

Bah!

The spear tip stabbed at Lin Muqing's weakest point with great precision. It was obviously Lin Muqing's power that had the upper hand, but this stab almost made his sword go away.

"This..." Lin Muqing was stunned, "Your strength and speed... When did you reach 6th rank outside training?"

"wrong!"

"You are a lot stronger than the average 6th rank outside training... I know! You must have taken a banned drug, you must have taken a banned drug!" Besides, Lin Muqing couldn't imagine why Xu Ming suddenly acted like this Awesome, "And it must be a very strong banned drug, so that you can practice outside the fifth rank, and exert your strength beyond the sixth rank!"

"Forbidden drugs?" Xu Ming was too lazy to explain, since he wanted to think this way, let him think this way; anyway... Xu Ming's murderous intention against Lin Muqing has already risen.

"It's useless!" Lin Muqing shouted, "Even if you take banned drugs, the gap between external training and internal training is insurmountable! I was careless just now, and I won't be as lucky as you are now. !—Eighteen Swords of Unrivaled Life!"

Xu Ming was just about to use his spear to resist the blade, but found that the sword qi formed in the place where the blade passed, and blocked him from all directions.

This is the unique skill of the Lin family—the Eighteen Swords of Unrivaled Life! At least one has to practice the realm of internal training and possess profound energy in the body before they can cultivate;

“Six Swords Qi!”

Although Lin Muqing could only display the six sword qi at the same time, the position of the six sword qi was so tricky that Xu Ming could not avoid it.

“Hey!”

I saw Xu Ming rise into the air, his body twisted by an unbelievable angle, and he forced his body to pass through the gap of the six sword qi up and down. Even at the same time, Xu Ming’s spear launched an attack~www.readwn.com~ bang!

Although Lin Muqing blocked the shot, he was still shocked by the shot that gathered all the strength of Xu Ming’s body and took a few steps back.

However, what Lin Muqing was shocked was not the power of this gun, but: “How is it possible? How can you avoid my Eighteen Swords!?”

The Eighteen Swords of Peerless Life is an absolute killer move. Once it is used, Lin Muqing has not heard of anyone at the same level who can avoid it. At least one or two sword qi must be resisted. But the fact was right in front of him, Xu Ming really avoided all of them.

“If it’s really the Eighteen Swords of Perfection, of course I can’t avoid it! It’s a pity, you are only Six Swords of Perfection, and twelve swords are missing!” Now, it was Xu Ming’s turn to pursue the victory; he was sure, Lin Muqing performed this kind of killing move that he thought he would win, and it definitely cost a lot.

“No...impossible!”

But now is not the time for Lin Muqing to shout that it is impossible, because he has to deal with Xu Ming’s onslaught with all his heart.

“After taking the banned drugs, you are really strong, and you could almost threaten me!” Until now, Lin Muqing still believes that Xu Ming is taking banned drugs; this is not his fault, after all, Xu Ming’s upgrade speed is really fast It’s so appalling that no one can believe it, “But... do you think you’re the only one with banned drugs?”

Lin Muqing waved his hand, and a red pill appeared in his hand.

“Although you took the banned drug first, but you can force me to take the banned drug, I admire you! But unfortunately, today, you will die!”

After the medicinal pill entered his stomach, Lin Muqing's aura suddenly skyrocketed.

Chapter 22: , Buy Life

"Fuck, it's so shameless!" Sun Ji, who was fighting outside the ring, clenched his fists and gritted his teeth.

Of course, Sun Ji knew that Xu Ming didn't take any banned drugs at all, but his strength was just like that. On the contrary, Lin Muqing, who kept scolding Xu Ming for taking banned drugs, is now taking banned drugs.

"It's okay to challenge external training with internal training. Now that I can't beat it, I actually take banned drugs!"

From Sun Ji's point of view, people like Lin Muqing would be nothing if they weren't from a prominent family background!

"It's just a coward who relies on his family background and shows off his power outside!" Sun Ji's character was straightforward and violent, and he scolded him on the spot.

However, no matter how much Sun Ji scolds, it cannot change the status quo in the ring.

At this moment, Lin Muqing's momentum skyrocketed by 50%: "Now, I see what other tricks you can use!"

The difference in strength is too great, even if Lin Muqing is crushed directly by his attributes, he can crush Xu Ming!

"It's a little troublesome!"

Fortunately, Xu Ming had long been fully prepared for Lin Muqing's shamelessness. Although he was troubled, he did not panic.

Secretly, Xu Ming unhurriedly threw a "probe" over.

"Lin Muqing, he is currently taking banned drugs, and his attributes in all aspects are close to the mid-term of internal training, so he can't compete!"

"Uh... can't be matched?" Xu Ming was speechless, "Nonsense, of course I know that I can't be matched!"

The investigation results continued to feed back: "...The drug-doping state continues for half a column of incense. In the current state, it is recommended to use detour tactics to delay time; when the drug-doping state is lifted, Lin Muqing will enter a weak state!"

“Detour tactics? It’s just wretched, right!”

Speaking of wretchedness, it is Xu Ming’s forte; when he used to play competitive games, Xu Ming’s favorite thing to do was wretchedness. Even, Xu Ming has a motto – people are not wretched and juvenile!

“It’s just a matter of delaying half a column of incense, it shouldn’t be difficult!”

In the blink of an eye, Lin Muqing was already aggressive: “Xu Ming, take your life!”

“I’m afraid you won’t succeed!?” Xu Ming’s body trembled, his spear shook, and he made a move to confront him.

“Head to head? I really don’t know how to live or die!” Lin Muqing had disdain in his eyes, and the strength in his hands was a little heavier.

However, when the two sides’ swords were about to touch, Xu Ming’s spear shrank sharply; and Xu Ming himself ran away.

“Haha! If you are tough with you, do you think I’m stupid?”

Xu Ming was prepared in advance, and this run was naturally easy. And Lin Muqing, without any preparation in advance, slashed into the air with a sword, not to mention how uncomfortable it was.

“You... are you playing with me?”

“I said young man, are you still arguing with me as a young master at this moment? We are in a life-and-death battle, not playing a house. What’s wrong with playing with you?” Xu Ming took a few steps back and exclaimed deliberately. “I just started playing. Next, there are more people who want to play with you!”

“You!” Lin Muqing was annoyed.

However, he also knew that he must remain calm at such times;

“Hey, just play! I’m far stronger than you now, just a little lower than you; soon, you’ll kill yourself!”

“You can come and try!” Xu Ming was so happy to fight with Lin Muqing, because every time he said a word, Lin Muqing’s drug-doping status would decrease by a few seconds, “Just you, your level is slightly lower than mine? Tell you, if we have the same cultivation level, I will let you kill you with one hand and no weapons!”

“Hmph, I just bullied you with low cultivation, what’s wrong?”

Lin Muqing bullied himself up again, and Xu Ming greeted him with a gun.

“Come again? I won’t fall twice in the same pit!” Lin Muqing, who had already suffered a loss, of course became more careful this time, and he didn’t dare to attack with all his strength with the long sword in his hand, but stayed behind. little leftover.

“I just need to be careful, approach him slowly, and get close to him, then he will definitely lose!” Lin Muqing thought to himself.

“Oh?” Xu Ming, who was in a perfect fighting state, had such tricky eyesight, he could see Lin Muqing’s intention at a glance, “Since you don’t do your best, then...”

Xu Ming’s realm at this time is close to the micro, and the control of the long spear in his opponent has already been commanded like an arm, which is extremely meticulous. As soon as he found that Lin Muqing’s envoy’s strength was a little small this time, he immediately seized the opportunity and exploded with all his strength.

“die!”

The speed of the spear suddenly soared, hitting Lin Muqing’s throat.

“Fuck!” Lin Muqing dodged again, but also increased the strength in his hand.

And Xu Ming’s spear, like a slippery loach, shrank back with a light touch, not giving Lin Muqing a chance to confront him.

“Damn! Damn! Damn!” Lin Muqing was going crazy after two fights in a row; the third time he used the sword, he had to suffer a little injury, and he had to show Xu Ming a good look.

Xu Ming still looked like he was retreating and attacking.

Only this time, Xu Ming’s eyes suddenly lit up and he looked behind Lin Muqing: “Xiaoji, how did you get into the ring? Quickly, help me get a sledgehammer to swipe him!”

“What? Is there someone behind him?” Lin Muqing turned around quickly, but saw nothing behind him.

“not good!”

Sure enough, Xu Ming’s spear had already arrived; although he tried his best to resist it, he was still slightly injured.

“Cunning and shameless!” Lin Muqing gritted his teeth in hatred.

This time, even Sun Ji, who was outside the ring, couldn't help but agree with Lin Muqing's opinion: "The boss is really cunning enough to use me! But the boss is worthy of being the boss, and now he must be teaching in actual combat. What should I do when I encounter an opponent who is stronger than me."

Thinking of this, Sun Jilian concentrated on studying and thinking, but after thinking about it, he found that all of Xu Ming's tricks could be summed up in two words – wretched!

With the weak and the strong, isn't it just wretchedness?

Under Xu Ming's extremely obscene delay, even if Lin Muqing took banned drugs and exhausted all kinds of tricks, he could not take advantage of it. On the contrary, he himself was beaten by Xu Ming from time to time, and he also suffered a little light. hurt.

Half a column of incense time passed quickly.

"I..." Lin Muqing clearly felt that the medicinal power receded like a tide in his body, and the momentum on his body suddenly dropped sharply; at the same time, a sense of weakness rose from the depths of his muscles.

Lin Muqing's face changed greatly: "Not good! The time limit for the banned drug is up!"

The current Lin Muqing is even weaker than before taking the banned drugs; in terms of attributes, he is no longer much stronger than Xu Ming.

"This...this...this..." Lin Muqing's eyes were reddened just now, but now that the power of the banned drug has receded, he realized that his situation is extremely dangerous!

"Why is it that my doping time has come, but your doping is not over yet?" Lin Muqing still couldn't accept the fact that Xu Ming never took the doping, "Which company bought your dosing? Why does the medicine last so long?"

"Huh." Xu Ming smiled without saying a word.

I didn't take banned drugs at all, do I need to explain to Lin Muqing?

"Lin Muqing, you still care about where I bought my banned drugs? I think you should be concerned about how you will die!"

"You... are you going to kill me?" Lin Muqing stared.

"Haha, we're not going to end the game right now; it's useless to admit defeat if we're not going to die!" Xu Ming said, "You said... Should I kill you?"

“It’s useless to admit defeat, but we both agreed to stop fighting, that’s fine!” Lin Muqing was also frightened by the current situation, and even said such silly things.

Sure enough, Xu Ming immediately cursed: “Silly X!”

“Is it possible for me to agree to stop fighting? Or think about it, if I am the loser, will you let me go? – Stop talking nonsense, and die!”

“You...you...Xu Ming, if you dare to kill me, the Lin family will never let you go!” Lin Muqing was powerless to intimidate.

“Ten thousand beasts fight in the martial arts arena, there is no life or death in a duel! I killed you today, right and right!” Xu Ming said, “As long as you are on my side, even if your Lin family is powerful, our Wild Martial House will definitely protect me!”

Joining a side of martial arts, in addition to getting guidance on martial arts, you can also get the blessing of martial arts.

Of course, even if it is as strong as the Wilderness Martial Palace, it is impossible to bless the disciples arrogantly; if the disciples made mistakes first, and the opponent is very powerful, then the Wilderness Martial Arts Palace will still give in when it should. But—if it’s on his side, then the Wilderness Martial House will not let his disciples suffer even at any cost!

Now that Xu Ming killed Lin Muqing, there was no problem, just kill him. The Lin family is indeed powerful, but the Savage Martial House is stronger than the Lin family!

Originally, Lin Muqing also considered that the Savage Martial House was too powerful, and if he killed Xu Ming outside, he might be retaliated by the Savage Martial House; therefore, he tried his best to force Xu Ming to go to the Ten Thousand Beasts Martial Arts Arena. Duel yourself!

But he never expected that when he stepped into the inner training for a long time, he was no match for Xu Ming who only practiced outside. And in the ten thousand beasts fighting field, this undead and endless game has become his own cocoon.

“I’m extremely important in the Lin family, and I’m a strong candidate for the successor of the family head! If you kill me, even if you have the protection of the Savage Martial House, our Lin family will definitely try our best to find an opportunity to avenge me!” Lin Muqing threatened weakly. , “Even, our Lin family will go to ‘Hidden Thorn’ to offer you a reward!”

Hidden Thorn, an extremely mysterious and powerful killer organization.

“Stop talking nonsense, today, you will die!” Xu Ming approached slowly.

“A coward is a coward!” Sun Ji outside the ring, looking at Lin Muqing’s stern appearance, became more and more contemptuous, “The Lin family is mainly succeeded by such people, so the glory of the Lin family may not last long!”

“You...” Lin Muqing was speechless, because he found that Xu Ming was not threatened at all.

Helpless, Lin Muqing had no choice but to beg for mercy: “If you are willing to let me go, I am willing to offer 100,000 taels of gold!”

“Oh? Beg for mercy?” Xu Ming stopped his pace with great interest, “One hundred thousand taels of gold, to buy your life?”

“Yes!” Lin Muqing gritted his teeth.

“Do you have gold? Cash?”

“Bring it, as long as you agree to stop fighting, I’ll give it to you right away!”

“Agree to stop fighting and give it to me?” Xu Ming smiled, “You think I’m stupid! If you turn your face and don’t admit it, who am I going to cry to?”

“Then... I’ll give you the gold first, it’s alright!”

“Haha...” Xu Ming smiled, “I think it’s better for you to give it to me if I don’t bother you. I’ll pick it up by myself. UU reading www.uukanshu.com is more convenient!”

Do it yourself?

Wouldn’t that just kill Lin Muqing first and then take it?

“You... you have to dare to kill me, and I will definitely destroy my Na ring before I die!” Na ring is made of natural stones; it is not easy to make, but not difficult to destroy. “You put it now. If you pass me, not only will you get 100,000 taels of gold for nothing, but you don’t have to make a deadly revenge with our Lin family. Otherwise, you won’t get anything, and our Lin family will definitely avenge me!”

Xu Ming thought for a while: “Yes, in this way, the value of your dog’s life is quite high! Hmm – so, if you give me your entire ring, you will buy your life for yourself!”

Najie, but his most precious treasure; even if all the contents in Najing are added up, it is not worth as much as Najjie.

If the Na ring is gone, Lin Muqing will almost go bankrupt! At that time, if he can't afford the expensive cultivation resources in the internal training stage, his cultivation progress will definitely be slowed down; in this way, his hope of inheriting the Patriarch's future will be slim.

"I'm not bargaining with you, I'm giving you a chance to live!" Xu Ming was expressionless, "If you give me the whole ring, I will show mercy and let you go; otherwise, go to death! Na Jie, I don't necessarily like your other things, if you want to destroy it, just destroy it!"

"Want to die or live, choose quickly! I don't have the patience to wait, you know, I've wanted to see you die for a long time!" Xu Ming raised his spear, "I only count down three times—"

"three..."

"two..."

Chapter 23: , Advanced Functions

"one!"

"I'll give you the ring!" Lin Muqing took off the ring, and his heart was bleeding.

This Na ring is Lin Muqing's most precious treasure; not to mention that the Na ring contains his savings for many years.

However, Lin Muqing was a bonehead, and his life and death were at stake. If Xu Ming was frightened, he would give in.

"But you have to keep your promise!"

"Don't worry, in my eyes, Na Jie is much more valuable than your life!" Xu Ming said, "Give Na Jie to me, and I will naturally let you die today."

"Okay!" Lin Muqing threw the ring to Xu Ming from a distance, "Let's stop fighting!"

Xu Ming took the acceptance ring; "OK, stop!"

Although Xu Ming wanted to kill Lin Muqing, he also knew that now was not the time. His own strength is still too weak, and the Lin family behind Lin Muqing is too strong; if he kills Lin Muqing, he will inevitably bear the wrath of the Lin family.

Although the Savage Martial House will protect him, he is as strong as the Lin family. If he really wants to kill someone, there are many ways. The easiest way is to pay enough money to put a reward on "Yin Thorn"; Yin Thorn's maddened killers dare to assassinate even the royal family, not to mention the mere disciples of the barbaric martial arts.

Although Xu Ming had to kill Lin Muqing, now is not the time.

Moreover, Xu Ming had been in another world for more than half a month. Although he was greatly influenced by the idea of martial arts in this world, he also understood that in this world, killing people was not an extremely evil thing. But as a modern man who has grown up in a peaceful world, calling him to kill is something he knows for a while, and he really can't do it.

"Just save his life for now!"

Xu Ming is really not in a hurry at all. His current hang-up points are enough for him to grow to a level that Lin Muqing can only look up to in a very short period of time.

"Huh?" Suddenly, Xu Ming felt blessed, "I seem to have eliminated one of the three obsessions in my mind?"

Originally, under the influence of Xu Ming's memory, there were three obsessions in Xu Ming's mind all the time; one of them was that he would not leave the capital when he died.

"I think... can I leave the capital?"

Xu Ming tried to move the idea of leaving the capital, and found that it would never be the same as before. When he thinks of this, there will be obsessions ringing wildly in his mind.

"Finally eliminated an obsession!"

Moreover, the obsession that was eliminated was the most influential to Xu Ming. Like the other two obsessions, although there are some influences, there is no time limit. Xu Ming can complete the content of the obsession whenever he wants.

In fact, it is normal for Xu Ming to eliminate this obsession now.

The reason why there was the obsession of "do not leave the capital without dying" at the beginning was because the former Xu Ming was too weak, was bullied, and even died because he refused to leave the capital. But now, Xu Ming's strength has risen, and it is no longer Lin Muqing's turn to bully him, and he has also taken Lin Muqing's acceptance ring; this way, the tone will be smooth, and the obsession will naturally disappear.

After stealing Lin Muqing's acceptance ring and eliminating an obsession, Xu Ming really walked off the ring with a good mood.

"Look at what's in your Najie." As soon as he got out of the ring, Xu Ming directly refined Najie in front of Lin Muqing, "Yo, not bad, you have a lot of savings, there are actually Hundreds of thousands of taels of gold!"

Without saying a word, Xu Ming directly transferred all the gold to his own ring. As for the other miscellaneous little things, he didn't bother to move them.

Lin Muqing's face turned blue with anger. His pocket money, New Year's money, family rewards, etc. from childhood to adulthood are all in this ring; hundreds of thousands of taels of gold are his savings for more than ten years!

But now, all the savings have been taken away by Xu Ming! Moreover, Xu Ming deliberately hit him in front of him.

"What the hell, Xiaoji!" Xu Ming shouted.

"Boss." Sun Ji's admiration for Xu Ming became more and more overwhelming – the boss is so fierce! Even the internal martial artist who took the forbidden drugs was defeated by the boss, and even the Najie was turned in!

"Xiao Ji, since you sincerely recognize me as the boss, then the boss has meat to eat, so he can't treat you badly!" After saying that, Xu Ming threw Lin Muqing's acceptance ring directly to Sun Ji, "Hey, the boss will reward you!"

Sun Ji held the Na ring in his hand, trembling slightly with excitement, and said incredulously, "Boss, give this to me?"

"Nonsense, I already have a ring, and one more is useless for the time being, so I'll give it to you first!" Xu Ming said indifferently.

"Boss... Boss..." Sun Ji looked at Xu Ming's boss, and became extremely moved and pious – this boss is really kind to his younger brother; for such a boss, even if I go through fire and water, I will not give up.

When Lin Muqing saw this scene, not to mention the anger and suffocation in his heart.

"Hmph, Xu Ming, you have to thwart! I see how long you can thwart!" Lin Muqing put down a harsh word, and walked away without looking back.

Xu Ming just smiled disdainfully.

“Boss, Lin Muqing is gone, do you want to return this ring to you?” Although Sun Ji was nervous, he still had a delicate side. He suddenly thought that Xu Ming might have given him the acceptance ring to be angry with Lin Muqing; now that Lin Muqing is gone, the acceptance ring should be returned.

“Keep it!” Xu Ming didn’t know what Sun Ji was thinking, “I’m not so bored, I just do something to get rid of Lin Muqing.”

The tall and mighty Sun Ji was so moved that his eyes were full of tears, and he vowed to follow Xu Ming as the boss.

Actually, Xu Ming planned to give this ring to Sun Ji before he got it. Because he had probed Sun Ji before, and knew that Sun Ji, a savage bull, was definitely a brother worthy of deep friendship; since he had the heart to befriend this brother and only accepted a ring, what could Xu Ming be reluctant to give up?

Although this Na ring can be exchanged for 2 level 2 hanging points; but Xu Ming is confident that when he can use the level 2 hanging points, he will definitely be able to earn more level 2 hanging points! Maybe by that time, Najie might not be so precious to him.

At this moment, Xiaohang sent a message to Xu Ming:

“The host currently meets the conditions for enabling the advanced plug-in function. Do you want to open it immediately?”

Advanced features?

Xu Ming has been waiting for this function for a long time, but he has not been able to get too many clues. And now, the conditions are met?

“Open it later.” Although Xu Ming really wanted to open it right away, but now he is in the Vientiane Battle Arena, and he doesn’t know if there will be any visions when the advanced function is activated. So I will go back and talk about it. .

“Xiaoji, let’s go back!”

Soon, Xu Ming returned to his residence in the Wilderness Wufu.

“Xiaoji, I have come to realize that I need to retreat and break through. You help me guard the door!”

“Yes, boss!” Sun Ji’s loyalty to Xu Ming was almost at full value. Naturally, he would do whatever Xu Ming ordered.

Moreover, when I heard that Xu Ming was going to break through again, Sun Ji’s admiration suddenly went to a new level: “The boss is the boss, and I have to retreat and break through again! As a younger brother, I must not lose the boss’s face; etc. The boss is out, I will go to the penance right away!”

Xu Ming entered the room and couldn’t wait to call out Xiaohang: “Turn on the advanced function immediately!”

“To turn on the advanced function, you need to consume 100,000 taels of gold. Are you sure to turn it on?”

“It turns out that the condition for activating the advanced function is to have 100,000 taels of gold!” Xu Ming understood immediately, “Turn it on immediately!”

These 100,000 taels of gold were spent on Lin Muqing’s money, and Xu Ming didn’t feel bad about spending it.

“Lin Muqing is really a gift boy!” In other words, Lin Muqing and his younger brothers really contributed a lot to Xu Ming’s rapid rise! If it weren’t for their ATMs to send money, Xu Ming really didn’t have so many upgrades!

“The plug-in advanced function has been successfully activated!” Xiaohang’s voice sounded, “At present, the advanced functions include: artifact store, stealth, acceleration, double attack, double defense! More functions, please look forward to it.”

Chapter 24: , Artifact Store

“Double Attack: Consume the hanging points to double the attack power. The higher the attack power is, the more the hanging points are consumed; as long as the hanging points are enough, the attack can theoretically be increased infinitely! The minimum attack power is increased by 1 times, and the hanging points are consumed. It is equivalent to the hanging points consumed by the current cultivation base of offline hanging for ten days.”

“Double Defense: Consume hard points to double the defense. The higher the defense, the more hard points are consumed; as long as the hard points are enough, the defense can theoretically be improved infinitely! The minimum defense is increased by 1 times, and the hard points are consumed. It is equivalent to the hanging points consumed by the current cultivation base of offline hanging for ten days.”

“Acceleration: Consume hanging points to increase speed. The higher the speed is, the more hanging points are consumed; as long as there are enough hanging points, the speed can theoretically be increased infinitely. The minimum speed is 0.1 times, and the consumption of hanging points is equivalent to the current cultivation base offline. Hanging points consumed by hanging up for ten days.”

“Stealth: Each consumption is equivalent to the hanging point consumed by the current cultivation base for 100 days of offline hang-up, ignoring physical attacks. If the host actively attacks others, it will exit the stealth state. The stealth state lasts up to twelve hours.”

very good!

very powerful!

This is Xu Ming’s evaluation of the advanced functions of external plug-ins.

“It’s just... this hanging point doesn’t seem to be very flowery!”

Xu Ming’s gold on his body now totals 50,000 to 60,000 taels; such a net worth can definitely be regarded as a “rich man”. If all the gold was replaced with hanging points, there would be more than 6,000, which is enough for Xu Ming to hang up offline to the innate stage!

However, if the advanced function of the plug-in is used, then Xu Ming’s hanging point is really stretched.

Xu Ming is currently practicing 6th rank outside, and he needs to consume 6 points of level 1 hanging points for one day to hang up offline.

Then, Xu Ming will spend 600 hanging points when he uses stealth once! After ten stealth attempts, he would go bankrupt!

Another example is to open the acceleration hang, the acceleration is 0.1 times, it is not expensive, only 60 hang points in twelve hours, drizzle. However, how much effect does it take to accelerate 0.1 times? Then, if the acceleration is 0.2 times, it will cost 120 hanging points; if the acceleration is 0.3 times, it will cost 240 hanging points; 0.4 times, 480 hanging points... In this way, for every 0.1 times of acceleration, the consumption of hanging points will double; if Xu Ming Accelerate to 1x, and that time will spend...

More than 30,000 hanging points!

As for Xu Ming, he only had more than 6,000 hanging points when his whole body was full!

In the same way, the hanging points of double attack and double defense consumption are the same as acceleration. The more you increase, the more hanging points consumed will double!

Finally, Xu Ming turned his attention to the artifact store that he was most interested in.

“The artifact store is all-encompassing. Here, you can buy all the items that are in this universe and not! The premise is that you have enough hanging points! At present, due to the limitation of the host’s cultivation base, the artifact store is temporarily only open to level 1 hanging. Click on the items that can be purchased.” Xiaohang introduced.

“Uh...you can buy everything?” Xu Ming was stunned, “This is literally the ingot store in the game!”

Many online games have ingot malls. Renminbi warriors can get everything just by throwing a little money; while civilian players, who have been rushing from morning to night to farm monsters, do quests, and pass dungeons, have worked hard for more than half a year, but they can only get one or two pieces of treasure in the Yuanbao mall.

And Xu Ming is probably the only person in the world who can use the “Yuanbao Mall”! Other people, no matter how much money they have, if they want some rare treasures, they can only go to great lengths to find a way to collect them.

In the artifact store, various items are divided into categories: weapons, medicinal herbs, runes, formations, books, exercises, secret skills, puppets... Just the names of the categories are all over the place; Xu Ming watched it for a while, From start to finish, I went through it in a flash.

And these are only the items that can be purchased at level 1 hanging point. If Xu Mingxiu came up and all the artifact stores were opened, there would be more than just a few categories.

“Attribute stone? What is it?” Xu Ming suddenly saw a category called “attribute stone” and couldn’t help but go in curiously.

After clicking in, there is a subordinate category called “first-level attribute stone”. Xu Ming guessed that there must be other small categories such as second-level attribute stones and third-level attribute stones, but he can’t see it yet.

Clicking on the sub-category of “First-Class Attribute Stones”, Xu Ming saw three treasures here:

“The first-level power stone can permanently enhance the strength. The price is 1,000 first-level hanging points. Each person is limited to 100, and multiple use is ineffective.”

“First-level agility stones can permanently enhance agility. The price is 1,000 first-level hanging points. Each person is limited to 100 stones, and multiple use is invalid.”

“The first-level wisdom stone can permanently enhance wisdom. The price is 1,000 first-level hanging points. Each person is limited to 100 pieces, and multiple use is invalid.”

Xu Ming pondered: "Can you permanently increase your strength, agility, and wisdom? It's still so expensive that it costs one thousand points!"

Xu Ming's entire net worth is enough to buy six.

However, Xu Ming knew that for things like attribute stones, other than himself, other people in this world, even if they had more money, probably wouldn't be able to get half of them.

"Would you like to... try one?"

One thousand hanging points is a lot of money; but Xu Ming's hanging points are not difficult to earn, so I don't feel much distressed when using them. With the mentality of trying it, he bought a first-class power stone.

"Successful purchase!"

When Xu Ming thought about it, a red stone the size of a goose egg with dense and intricate patterns engraved on it appeared in his hand.

"use!"

Following the fluctuations on the power stone, Xu Ming exerted a little force in his hand, and the power stone shattered. One after another, the mysterious energy sealed in the power stone flowed out along the cracked cracks, and as soon as it touched Xu Ming's skin, it melted directly into it.

For a moment, the power stone turned into nothingness, leaving no powder behind. As for Xu Ming, he suddenly felt that his power had increased a lot!

This is a very clear feeling, as if I was originally sick and suddenly became alive.

Xu Ming felt it carefully: "I am afraid that my strength has increased by as much as 30%!"

30% of the power, and it is a permanent increase!

Xu Ming just wanted to say that this thousand hanging points are so worth it!

For example, when Lin Muqing took banned drugs at that time, he only increased by 50% in a short period of time, and after that, he was weak for a long time; while Xu Ming's 30% strength was permanently increased!

Xu Ming was 50% stronger than ordinary rank six martial artists in every aspect because he practiced "Breaking the World". Now, on this basis, the strength has increased by 30%; in terms of strength alone, Xu Ming has barely reached the threshold of the initial stage of internal training!

“Furthermore, every time a power stone is used, the increased power is a fixed value. If I use ten power stones, my power will be quadrupled!”

Four times the original strength, that is already the strength of a mid-stage martial artist.

“But... I’m still too poor!” Xu Ming couldn’t help sighing; after using a power stone, he only had gold equivalent to 5,000 hanging points left on his body, “Only offline hanging up is the most cost-effective, I would still go first. Honestly hang up and upgrade! When your strength is strong, it will naturally be easier to make money, and then you will consider using attribute stones to improve your strength.”

Hanging point, you have to use it on the blade!

There is another category, which also makes Xu Ming very interested.

“Realm? Can you even buy realm directly?”

Xu Ming clicked into this category called “realm”. There are no small categories in it, and there is only one commodity – the realm of micro-level!

“!” Xu Ming’s eyes widened, “It’s true that even the realm can be purchased directly!”

Offline training can only improve Xu Ming’s cultivation, but it cannot improve his realm. Even if Xu Ming started the “perfect battle”, his realm was only close to “subtle”, but he didn’t really reach it.

In order to comprehend the realm of the micro-level, both understanding and luck are required.

Sometimes when you are lucky, when you see something, you feel something in your heart, and maybe you have an epiphany, and your realm is sublime. But if you have comprehension but no luck, you are likely to be stuck in a logical blind spot, and you will not be able to comprehend it even if you die.

Like Xu Ming, although his realm has improved compared to when he first came to another world, but when it comes to the micro-level realm, Xu Ming is completely unable to predict when he will be able to truly comprehend it.

But now, “into the micro-level realm”, lying in the artifact store, a look like being picked by you. It’s just that a first-level hanging point is needed... 100,000!

“I’ll go, when I don’t see it!” One hundred thousand first-level hanging points, equivalent to one million gold, this price made Xu Ming enchanted.

However, Xu Ming is really curious. When his realm reaches the lowest level, how powerful will he be when he starts a “perfect battle”? Will you come into contact with the realm of transcendence and subtlety?

After that, Xu Ming also saw Dacheng-level marksmanship, movement skills, swordsmanship and other items available for purchase in other categories. Of course, they were all expensive!

Even, there are puppets whose strength is comparable to half-step innate. As long as you have money, you can have as many as you want!

Xu Ming couldn't help YY. If he had countless gold, he would buy 10,000 half-step innate puppets and directly rule the Feiyun Kingdom.

In short, in this artifact store, as long as you have enough cultivation and enough hanging points, you can get everything!

“Uh... Cultivation? Hang up? I'll bury my head and hang up to practice!”

...

Before he knew it, Xu Ming had traveled to another world for a month.

The martial law in the capital had been lifted, but Lin Muqing was no longer able to attack Xu Ming.

Now, Xu Ming's strength has reached the initial stage of internal training. Once the perfect battle begins, he is not afraid of the middle stage of internal training.

With so much to rely on, Xu Ming certainly didn't see Lin Muqing as a threat; as long as he waited for the right opportunity, it would be Lin Muqing's death.

And that poor Wu Gaofeng... Wu Gaofeng later came to ask Xu Ming several times, hoping that Xu Ming could return to Feiyun Wu Pavilion, and promised various benefits; unfortunately, Xu Ming was simply too lazy to betray him. . In the end, Wu Gaofeng, who was forced into a corner, even moved his hand to Xu Ming; however, as soon as he made his move, the elders of the Savage Wufu immediately attacked him and slapped him half to death.

Then, Xu Ming heard that Wu Gaofeng was imprisoned by Cao Haishan, the law enforcement elder of Feiyun Wuge. As for what happened next, he had no idea.

“Akai, are you going on a mission again?” Xu Ming raised his glass, touched it, and asked.

Xu Ming, Xu Kai, and Sun Ji often drink together. The friendship between straightforward men has also sublimated very quickly; Xu Ming has already regarded Xu Kai and Sun Ji as his brothers from the bottom of his heart!

Although the strength of these two brothers is not as good as himself, it seems that they will never be able to help him, but what does it matter? Does it have to be valuable, that is the brother, is the friend? — No, those are just alcoholic friends!

“Yes, I will leave tomorrow!” Xu Kai said.

“You can endure in Yunqiwei for a few more days!” Xu Ming said, “Wen Shuai is already walking around, and after a while, you will be transferred from Yunqiwei to him; then, you will eat, drink and have fun every day. That’s it!”

The army has army rules. Xu Kai is still a member of Yunqiwei of the Feiyun Army. If he leaves without authorization, he will be treated as a deserter. And the third prince, Wen Shuai, has a normal relationship with Yun Qiwei, so he is trying to find a way to transfer Xu Kai through other friends.

“Eating, drinking and having fun every day? How can you do it!” Xu Kai said, “Xiao Ming, you are so good now, I can’t be too embarrassed to be a brother! At that time~www.readwn.com~ I must ask Wen Shuai to help me. I’m looking for a good master, and I want to cultivate hard! Not to mention catching up with you, but at least I can’t be pulled too far by you!”

“Haha! It’s done!” Xu Ming said, “When the time comes, I’ll get you a ring!”

Xu Kai’s current strength is too weak, and he is in the army. If he wears a ring on his hand, it is no different from courting death.

“When the time comes, I will give you this Na ring, Brother Kai!” Sun Ji said.

“Go go! Who wants your ring!” Xu Kai scolded with a smile, “And I’m useless!”

The three of them were drinking happily, and a burst of hearty laughter came from outside the door.

“Haha, the three of you, you really hid here to drink! If you drink, you don’t even call me!”

“Isn’t it afraid that Prince Wen, you are busy with your daily schedule, don’t you have time to drink with us rural people?” Xu Ming smiled.

It’s not the third prince, Wen Shuai, who else could it be.

“Bullshit!” Wen Shuai took a seat, sat down, and joined the drinking circle.

The four brothers drank happily, regardless of identity or cultivation.

“Right!” Wen Shuai suddenly smiled mysteriously, “Follow me tomorrow if you have time, and I will take you to a good place!”

“A good place? A kiln?” Xu Kai’s eyes lit up, then dimmed, “Unfortunately, I have a mission tomorrow.”

“Go on! Have you ever heard of the prince going to the kiln?” Sun Ji scolded, “Going, of course, is going to the brothel! Only such an elegant place is worthy of the identity of the third prince above!”

Wen Shuai was not annoyed, he just said a term that Xu Ming and the three had never heard of before: “Treasure Competition~www.readwn.com~ Welcome to reading, the latest, fastest and most popular serialized works are all available. ~www.readwn.com~ mobile phone users please go to read.

Chapter 25: , Wenman

Every year, the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce will hold several treasure competitions to auction treasures that are usually hard to see.

Every time the treasure competition is held, it is also the most lively time of the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce. The entire capital, and even the entire Feiyun Kingdom, the dignitaries and masters will gather here.

And this time, there are two new faces in the treasure competition – Xu Ming and Sun Ji.

“It’s been a long time since I saw Mr. Du.” Xu Ming, Wen Shuai and Sun Ji were walking on the bustling streets of Yunqi City, and suddenly said.

“Elder Du is in retreat.” Wen Shuai said, “Generally, Mr. Du spends most of his time in retreat. He will only come out when he encounters some more important things.”

“No wonder.” Xu Ming nodded.

In fact, it’s normal. At Du Lao’s current age, status, and cultivation base, many things have already been seen through; a quiet retreat is the best life for him.

“It would be great if Old Man Du could break through to consummation!” Wen Shuai sighed, “In that case, I won’t have to worry about the battle for the throne!”

Du Lao is now in the late stage of the Congenital, and it is difficult to meet an opponent in Feiyun Kingdom; with his support, the weak Wen Shuai can compete for the throne with the powerful first prince. If Du Lao can break through to congenital perfection, he will be almost invincible in Feiyun Kingdom, and he can even directly push Wen Shuai to the throne.

This is the deterrent power of a master!

The three chatted all the way, and soon came to the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce.

“Boss, Wen Shuai, do you know what I think every time I pass by the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce?”

“What is it?” Xu Ming asked casually.

“Every time I think—Damn, when I’m great in the future, I must grab this nest of local tyrants!” Sun Ji said with bright eyes.

“Grab the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce?” Wen Shuai was speechless, “You dare to think about it! When you have the strength of Mr. Du in the future, maybe you can give it a try!”

“How powerful is the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce?” Sun Ji did not believe.

“There are many people in the country who want to rob the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce just like you. If such a big family business is not strong, it would have been robbed many times. How can it be your turn to rob it!” Wen Shuai said, “Let me tell you, all the first-class forces in the capital, the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce, the Ten Thousand Beast Fighting Martial Arts Field, the Feiyun Martial Arts Pavilion, etc., all have experts in the late Tiantian stage!”

“But...” Wen Shuai had pride on his face, “The number one expert in Feiyun Kingdom is definitely my father!”

“Your father?” Xu Ming was slightly surprised.

Isn’t Wen Shuai’s father the emperor of Feiyun Kingdom?

“The matter of your royal family is too complicated, let’s not talk about it for now!” Xu Ming said.

“It’s really complicated!” Wen Shuai nodded sincerely.

In the royal family, the battle for the throne has become bloody.

If any prince wins the throne, then, in order to ensure the consolidation of the throne, the other princes can only have two fates – imprisonment for life, or death!

The eldest prince has extraordinary means. Now, the other princes have surrendered to him. Only Wen Shuai, because of the help of Du Lao, can still fight to the death.

Walking into the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce, there are already many upper-level people in Feiyun Kingdom. Seeing Wen Shuai coming in, many people had to come up to say hello reluctantly; even more people came directly and turned a blind eye.

“Brother, you can’t mix well!” Xu Ming teased.

“I’m used to it.” Wen Shuai said, “But on these occasions, I have to attend often and show my face more. Let’s go, hurry to my private room, I hope I can see some useful treasures today.”

“Um.”

However, when he was leaving, Xu Ming heard a lot of comments about himself in the surrounding discussions.

“That’s Xu Ming, right? I heard that he is a rare genius in the history of our Feiyun Kingdom!”

“Genius? Hmph, I’ve seen a lot of geniuses, but how many of them can become congenital warriors?”

“Indeed, talent is important, but in order to achieve innate talent, talent, understanding, perseverance, and resources are indispensable! With so many conditions, how many can Xu Ming account for?”

“The key is that he is in the wrong camp and is on Wenshuai’s side!”

“I don’t know how long this genius can live...”

Perhaps out of jealousy of Xu Ming’s talent, these upper-level people in Feiyun Kingdom were not merciful when they spoke ill of their backs. A group of people discussed for a long time, and they all agreed that Xu Ming would not be successful, and many people thought that Xu Ming would not live long – because Xu Ming stood on the opposite side of the first prince.

“No, it’s really bad luck!” Wen Shuai suddenly whispered.

“What’s wrong?”

Just when Xu Ming was puzzled, a domineering laughter came towards him.

“Yo, isn’t this my third emperor brother? You are also here to fight for treasure!”

Great prince!

Xu Ming suddenly understood that the burly young man in front of him was the eldest prince with the greatest possibility of inheriting the throne among the princes – Wen Man.

“Brother Emperor!” Wen Shuai said with a smile.

When the First Prince came out, the upper-class people in Feiyun Kingdom who had a lifeless expression when they saw Wen Shuai, were instantly excited as if they had been beaten by chicken blood, and they rushed to the First Prince like a tide.

However, when they rushed three meters to the side of the eldest prince, they suddenly braked suddenly.

Then, this large group of oily upper-class people, all bowing their waists, carefully surrounded the first prince, asking for warmth.

“It’s all gone!” The eldest prince waved his hand, and these people didn’t dare to let go of one fart, and immediately dispersed, returning to their original positions.

“Brother Three Emperors.” Then, the eldest prince looked at Wen Shuai with a smug look on his face, “Have you brought enough money to participate in the treasure competition? If not, Brother Huang can lend you some first.”

“No need!” Wen Shuai of course knew that what the First Prince meant when he said these words was actually humiliating himself, not really wanting to lend him money. UU reading www.uukanshu.com

“Oh, it seems that the third emperor has brought a lot of money! Wait for something, but you can’t be fooled; after all, you are doing things outside, and you also represent the face of our royal family.”

The subtext of Wen Man’s sentence is: wait, no matter what you fancy, I will shoot it high, so that you can’t get it comfortably!

“Don’t worry, eldest brother!” Wen Shuai said coldly, not showing weakness in the slightest.

“This is...” Only then did the eldest prince turn his attention to Xu Ming, as if he had discovered a new continent, “Xu Ming, right? – I heard that your talent is rare in the history of my Feiyun Kingdom? I have it here. A few heavenly proud people expressed their dissatisfaction, and I want to discuss with you later, I hope you don’t shrink back and weaken your reputation as a genius!”

After saying these words, the eldest prince walked away.

“Let’s learn from each other?” Xu Ming couldn’t help but wonder.

Entering the private room, Wen Shuai immediately closed the door: “I didn’t expect that Wen Man is actually here today, and he seems to be eyeing you!”

“Follow me?”

“You don’t know, every time the treasure hunt is over, there will be a major event – the gambling war! If I guess correctly, Wenman must be trying to take advantage of the gambling war to attack you; so, there will be someone at that time. Challenge you, you must not respond!”

“I see...”

However, Xu Ming is not afraid of gambling.

At that time, someone really wants to challenge himself. Xu Ming can’t afford to spend some time to hang up, so he will investigate him first; In any case, Xu Ming is already invincible.

Chapter 26: , Play With Him Again

In the morning, the treasure hunt will start on time.

A white-bearded old man from the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce stood on the central stage and began to take out treasures one by one.

“This person, Li Wenshi, has only perfected his internal training, but he has a pair of discerning eyes and is very good at appraising treasures! In the capital, his reputation is not weaker than some congenial warriors!” Wen Shuai introduced.

“This first treasure is still in accordance with the old rules of our treasure competition – three low-grade profound stones, bid separately!” Li Wenshi’s hands appeared three warm and round pebbles, “The use of low-grade profound stones, most of you here It’s very clear; but every time there is a new face in the treasure competition, I will introduce it again as a talkative old man!”

“Low-grade profound stones contain innate profound energy. When used by internal martial artists, they can quickly improve their cultivation; when used by internal martial artists, there is still a good chance of breaking through to the innate!” In a few short sentences, Li Wenshi took the low-grade profound stone’s The precious thing made it clear, “The reserve price of each piece is 100,000 taels of gold!”

“Low-grade profound stones? One hundred thousand taels of gold each?” Xu Ming just wanted to say, it’s really expensive, “Ten pieces of this stuff cost one million taels of gold, which is enough for me to buy micro-level realm in the artifact store. !”

“One hundred and five thousand taels.”

“110,000 taels!”

In the public gallery of the Treasure Contest, many warriors and dignitaries made bids one after another.

At this moment, Xiaohang, who had been invisible for a while, actually reacted: “Low-grade profound stone detected... Here I remind the host that 1 low-grade profound stone can be exchanged for 1 point and 2nd level hanging point.”

“Can it be exchanged for level 2 hanging points?” Xu Ming couldn’t help but glanced at the three low-grade profound stones.

“What, Brother Xu, are you interested in low-grade profound stones?” Wen Shuai noticed.

“Boss, do you want it? Buy, buy, buy!” Sun Ji shouted; but then, he found out, “One hundred thousand gold? Still the reserve price? What a fool! How can I afford this!”

In an instant, Sun Ji shut up.

“I’m not very interested, just curious to see.” Xu Ming said, “Is this thing very rare?”

There are only two things Xu Ming knows that can be exchanged for level 2 hanging points. One is the Na ring, like the Na ring in Xu Ming’s hand, which can be exchanged for 2 points and 2-level hanging points; the other is the low-grade profound stone on the stage.

Regarding the level 2 hanging point, although Xu Ming has not used it yet, he still needs to understand it first.

“It’s not so scary, it’s quite valuable!” Wen Shuai said, “The real upper-class people in Yunqi City have a way to buy one hundred thousand taels of gold, and they can have as many as they want. The few that were auctioned off at the auction were actually sold to those who barely made it to the upper echelons of society, because they had no other way to buy them.”

“Oh!” Xu Ming understood.

As long as it’s not too scarce, it’s easy to handle. In the future, if you need level 2 hanging points, there should always be a way to get some.

“Actually, this low-grade profound stone has another purpose!” Wen Shuai said, “That is to act as currency!”

“currency?”

“Yeah! Among innate experts, gold is almost never traded, because gold is no different to rotten iron to them. Generally, they will choose to use low-grade profound stones as their currency!”

At the treasure competition, a piece of rare treasure was released.

There are rare medicinal materials that can only be picked in the deep mountains where monsters are rampant, strange ores that can only be nurtured in extremely dangerous environments; there are medicinal pills from the hands of master alchemists, and old weapons, calligraphy and painting, antiques with a long history...

The upper-level people of Feiyun Kingdom gathered here, once they waited for the treasures they urgently needed, they all bid for it. There are also some local tyrants. When you see something you like, as long as the price is acceptable, buy it and buy it!

“This treasure below is a rare occurrence in our treasure competition!” Li Wenshi sold it for a while, and then took it out slowly.

“Illusory Sea Devil Insect—a kind of insect that you can’t find in the boundless desert; but some people say that it is not a worm, but a grass...” Li Wenshi introduced, but Xu Ming thinks this thing looks like Cordyceps sinensis, “This thing appears in the desert where the yang is raging, but it is a very yin thing. As for the function, I will not say much. If you understand it, you will understand it. If you don’t understand, you won’t buy it and play it. Two golds!”

The main function of the Magical Sea Devil Insect is to use it as an adjuvant when refining medicine pills. It is not precious if you say it is precious, and it is precious if you say it is not precious—because since it is only an adjuvant in alchemy, it is destined to be too precious; but this thing is too rare to be found. It’s not good to be exhausted and can’t find half a bar, so once it appears, the price will not be too low.

I don’t know how many warriors want to make money from the magic sea monsters; but most of them are not earning money, but get lost in the desert.

“Illusory Sea Demon Worm!” Wen Shuai suddenly stood up.

“What’s wrong?” Xu Ming couldn’t help asking.

The treasure competition has been going on for so long, and Wen Shuai has never made a move; but now, he was so excited that he stood up directly.

“Elder Du wants to refine an elixir and try to impact the innate perfection. All the other herbs are ready, so this phantom sea devil is missing!”

“Elder Du is about to hit the innate consummation?” Xu Ming asked in surprise.

If Old Man Du can succeed, then Wen Shuai’s many disadvantages in competing for the throne will be swept away! The deterrence of a congenital perfection master is no joke!

“Just try the impact first, and feel how difficult it is to break the bottleneck between late congenital and congenital consummation. I’m afraid it’s still too early to truly hit congenital consummation!” Wen Shuai still didn’t say a word, that is – Du Laoxiang Stepping into Innate Consummation, the chances are quite slim!

“Fifty thousand taels!” Wen Shuai immediately bid and shouted.

“The third prince, Wenshuai, offered fifty thousand taels!” Li Wenshi said calmly. He knew that the price of such a rare item would generally be much higher than the reserve price.

“Heh, I finally made a bid!” Wen Man has been waiting for Wen Shuai to make an offer, “Illusory Sea Devil Insect, although I’m useless, but even if I buy it for collection, I won’t let you easily get it!”

“Sixty thousand taels!” Wen Man shouted.

“Sure enough!” Wen Shuai clenched his fist, “Wen Man made an offer!”

However, Wen Shuai is determined to win this phantom sea monster—although Du Lao has a slim chance of hitting the innate perfection, but no matter how slim it is, he has to try it!

Just hesitate for a moment.

“Seventy thousand taels!” Wen Shuai immediately caught up.

“It’s very impatient, it’s interesting!” Wen Man smiled, “Eighty thousand taels—you can add it, and I’ll add it if you add it!”

Wen Man is a face that doesn’t let you get it easily.

“One hundred thousand taels!” Although Wen Shuai was angry, he had to increase the price.

“One phantom sea devil worm cost 100,000 taels? Brother Three Emperors, are you mad at me, or is it too much money to burn your hands? Or, are you really in urgent need of this thing?” The value of the phantom sea devil worm itself In fact, it’s not high, it's just because the rare goods are available, so it's expensive; but even so, in general treasure competitions, a magic sea devil worm will win at most seven or eighty thousand taels, no matter how expensive it is, it's not worth it. As an imperial brother, you can't be compared with you, 110,000 taels!"

The eldest prince said calmly.

In fact, some of the other people present also wanted the Illusory Sea Devil Insect; but when they saw that it was a fight between the royal families, they didn't dare to get involved. Moreover, the price of this phantom sea magic insect is already ridiculously high.

"110,000 taels..." Wen Shuai frowned.

It's not that he can't afford the hundreds of thousands of taels of gold, but it's really not worth spending so much money just to buy a magic sea monster!

However, Du Lao alchemy was in urgent need, and Wen Shuai had to buy it.

"120,000 taels!" Wen Shuai shouted bravely.

"This time, it seems that there is really some blood!" Wen Shuai knew that without bleeding, it seemed that he would not be able to get the Magic Sea Devil Insect.

"120,000 taels?" At this moment, even the eldest prince Wen Man was a little surprised, "He even raised the price to me to 120,000 taels for a mere phantom sea monster? Damn, does this kid think Give me a hand, and then withdraw?"

Although the eldest prince has a large family and a wealth of wealth, his money did not fall from the sky. Moreover, the family has a big business, which means that he has to raise a lot of mouths to eat every day; the eldest prince seems to have a lot of money, but in fact, every money he spends, he has to do a good calculation, otherwise he will not be able to make ends meet if he is not careful.

Therefore, when a phantom sea devil worm shouted at 120,000, the eldest prince really began to hesitate and retreat.

The scene of the treasure competition fell silent for a while.

Li Wenshi did not urge the two of them. As smart as he is, he will not easily get involved in the struggle of the royal family; and the price of this phantom sea devil insect has far exceeded his expectations, so he can be satisfied.

"Next, let's see who of the two princes loses first!" Li Wenshi thought to himself.

“Eldest prince!” In Wenman’s private room, a bodyguard suddenly whispered, “Our eyes have found that the third prince seems to be collecting the medicinal materials of the Heavenly Pill recently!”

“Huntian Pill?” Wen Man narrowed his eyes, “Could it be that the old ghost Du Yude wants to hit the Innate Consummation?—Although the probability of Du Yude stepping into Innate Consummation is very small, once he succeeds in breaking through, I might be like this. Years of hard work will be in vain!”

Wen Man is well aware of the deterrent power of a congenital perfection in Feiyun Kingdom.

“And it is speculated that his other medicinal materials should be almost collected, and this phantom sea monster should be missing!” the guard said again.

“What!?” Wen Man said in surprise, “You didn’t say it earlier! No wonder... No wonder the third child wants to fight with me! No, this Illusory Sea Demon Worm cannot be easily obtained by him; even if it is finally given up, it must be Until he vomits blood!”

The magic sea monster may not appear once a year. Of course, Wen Man has to seize the opportunity to suppress Wen Shuai!

If Wen Shuai can’t compete with the Magic Sea Devil Insect, then the time for Du Lao to refine the Huntian Pill will probably be pushed back a year, which is too beneficial to Wen Man! Of course, if the price is too great, and Wenman thinks it is not worth fighting for, then he will give up.

“150,000 taels!” Wen Man suddenly raised the price by 30,000 taels, making it clear that he was going to cheat Wen Shuai.

“160,000 taels!” Wen Shuai had to follow.

“This Illusory Sea Demon Worm is fighting too fiercely!” Xu Ming was stunned.

Then, he silently opened the “Medicinal Materials” category, and then clicked in to open several subcategories one after another. Finally, in a “Zizzizizi category” called “Desert Wonders”, sorted by name, from tens of thousands of Among the desert wonders, the phantom sea monster was found.

“One thousand hanging points?”

One thousand hanging points is equivalent to ten thousand taels of gold, although it is not cheap; but compared with this magical sea monster at the treasure competition, it is not too conscientious!

“Two hundred thousand taels!”

“Twenty-two thousand taels!”

In the minutes when Xu Ming was looking for something, Wen Shuai had already shouted a high price of 220,000 taels. On Wen Shuai’s face, there was also a slight perspiration, and he looked like his body was hollowed out – he was played by the first prince by the nose, and he played from 50,000 taels to 220,000 taels all the way.

“250,000 taels!” The eldest prince also played with a heartbeat. With such a high price, Wen Shuai could throw it away at any time and not follow; in that case, he would pay twenty thousand dollars to prevent Wen Shuai from buying the magic sea monster. The price of more than ten thousand taels of gold!

But he thinks it’s worth it!

“250,000 taels... Do you want to continue to follow?” Wen Shuai really hesitated, UU reading www.uukanshu.com “This price is too high, but if you don’t follow, you don’t know when you will meet Huanhai again. Demon!”

Wen Shuai gritted his teeth – follow!

“Hey, handsome Wen!” Xu Ming suddenly shouted.

“Xu Ming, don’t persuade me, this phantom sea devil is too important, I am determined to win it!” Wen Shuai looked like he was going to fight to the end.

“You want this thing, right? I have it here!” Xu Ming held a Cordyceps sinensis in his hand—oh, no, it was the Magic Sea Demon.

“Huh!?” Wen Shuai was startled, his eyes popping out, “Why do you have it?”

Xu Ming thought for a while, then took out another stick: “Is this thing very rare? I put it in the bottom of the box and forgot it, but now I see it and I remember it.”

Wen Shuai cast a secretive look, as if to say, “You kid, you don’t have a master?” This thing must have been given to you by your master!

Wen Shuai became more and more certain that there was a mysterious master behind Xu Ming, otherwise, how could Xu Ming casually bring out such a rare treasure as the Illusory Sea Devil Insect?

“If I had known you had it, I would have had a fight with him!” Wen Shuai scolded with a smile, “But that’s fine... 250,000 taels, enough for him to bleed!”

“It’s only 250,000 taels?” Xu Ming slanted the corners of his mouth, smiled evilly, and a third phantom sea devil appeared in his hand, “Why don’t we play with him again...”

Wen Shuai understood, and even summoned his guards hidden in the dark.

Only the simple and ignorant Sun Ji looked bewildered: “Playing? Playing? What fun is there with a man?”

Chapter 27: , Feed The Dog

“Huh? 250,000 taels will not follow?”

The eldest prince successfully captured the magic sea monster, but he was a little surprised; he originally predicted that Wen Shuai should be able to follow him to more than 300,000 taels.

“It’s better not to follow!” Wen Man’s mouth had a cynical smile, “More than 200,000 taels will delay Du Yude for a few months, or even half a year, before he can refine the Huntian Pill; this business is done well. It’s worth it!”

time is money.

Especially at Du Lao’s current age, the further a day goes on, the lower the possibility of successfully impacting innate perfection.

The eldest prince proudly photographed this phantom sea monster, and did not forget to show off to Wen Shuai: “Three emperors, why did you stop following halfway? Are you embarrassed? I am not following the emperor. Did you say that if you don’t have enough money, just ask the imperial brother to speak to me; they are my own brothers, so there is nothing to be ashamed of.”

“Humph!” Wen Shuai just snorted very “angry” in response.

“Haha...” The eldest prince laughed more and more smugly, “Well, what you want, brother, should be given to you as a big brother. But unfortunately, your royal sister-in-law just wanted to drink Huanhai recently. Demon worm porridge...hey, I can’t help it either!”

“Haha!” Wen Shuai laughed dryly and didn’t speak.

“Desperate, it’s so embarrassing!” In the private room, Sun Ji couldn’t help cursing.

“Let him be stunned!” Xu Ming smiled, “When there will be a time when his face is ugly!”

“At this moment, my guard should have secretly delivered the Illusory Sea Devil Insect to the people of the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce; as long as a while, it is estimated that it will appear at this treasure competition!”

At the next treasure competition, several top-quality weapons were put on display one after another.

Although it is a top-quality weapon, it is only considered a top-quality weapon in the “ordinary iron”. Compared with the treasure, it is very different. Therefore, it cannot be sold for a high price at the treasure competition; dispersed.

“The treasure below is a low-grade treasure!”

Treasure! ?

The few pieces of ordinary iron just now were unable to stir up many waves, which made the entire treasure competition usher in a trough. But then, as soon as the treasure came out, the upsurge of the treasure competition immediately rose again.

“This treasure is a three-foot green blade, from the hand of the famous forging master Tian Juzi! The reserve price is 100,000...”

“Tianjuzi?” Of course Xu Ming had never heard of who he was, “Licking oranges?”

In the end, this low-quality treasure forged by the master Lijuzi was auctioned for 180,000 taels.

“The next treasure... eh? Cough...” Li Wenshi’s expression suddenly became a little embarrassed, “I’m sorry everyone, there was a mysterious person just now, and another phantom sea devil was sent to participate in the treasure competition...”

Another phantom sea devil appeared?

Immediately, the expressions of many people at the treasure competition became extremely exciting. Because just in front of a few treasures, the eldest prince and the third prince of the royal family fought for a magic sea monster, which is fierce; the magic sea monster with a market price of 50,000 was directly won for 250,000.

And now, another phantom sea devil appeared?

Many people couldn’t help but turn their attention to the private room where the eldest prince was. They seemed to see how the eldest prince’s face was now. It’s just that the private room of the Treasure Fight Club is very secretive; you can see the outside from the inside, but you can’t see the inside from the outside.

“Li Wenshi!” The eldest prince’s voice sank, “Are you kidding me?”

Li Wenshi continued: “Eldest prince, how dare you be an old man! – I guarantee the reputation of the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce that this phantom sea devil was really sent by a mysterious person just now!”

“Humph!” The eldest prince snorted coldly and didn’t speak any more.

The Jiuding Chamber of Commerce keeps its word; the reputation of the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce is the best guarantee in Feiyun Country! Since Li Wenshi has taken out the reputation of the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce as a guarantee, it means that this phantom sea devil is really just sent by someone.

“It’s really bad luck!” Wen Man couldn’t help but scolded, “Things like the Magic Sea Demon Worm rarely appear once a year at the Treasure Contest, but they appear one after another today!”

The younger brother next to him comforted: “It may be someone present, who originally had the Magic Sea Demon Insect in their hands; now I see that you and the third prince are vying for a high price, so I came out and wanted to make a fortune! ”

“Humph! Dare to pit me! Don’t let me know who did it, otherwise, I will make his life worse than death!” One can imagine how angry Wen Man was at this time.

However, Wenman also knew that if the seller had the intention to hide it, even he would never even think about inquiring about the seller from the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce. In other words, this dumb loser, he is determined to eat!

“The base price for this phantom sea monster is 50,000...” Li Wenshi didn’t introduce much. In such a situation, he was also quite embarrassed; it was useless to say more, let the two gold owners watch it for themselves.

“Fifty thousand!” Wen Shuai shouted immediately.

After shouting, he did not forget to add a sentence: “Brother, I think a magic sea devil worm is enough for the emperor’s sister-in-law to replenish her body. If you eat too much...”

“One hundred thousand!” Wen Man was really annoyed.

In order to prevent Wen Shuai from getting the Magic Sea Devil Insect, he fought over it at a huge price; but in the blink of an eye, another one appeared. And the point is, he has to continue to fight; because if he doesn’t fight, the situation is – he spent 250,000 to buy a useless worm, and Wen Shuai only spent 50,000 to buy the much-needed one.

If that was the case, Wen Man would definitely go crazy.

“The first emperor is so generous, I can’t be too stingy – 200,000!”

In Wenman's heart, 100,000 grass and mud horses galloped past: "250,000!"

"Two hundred and sixty thousand!"

"Twenty-eight thousand!"

"As for fighting so hard, eldest brother?"

"You have money, can you manage it?"

"Twenty-nine thousand!" Wen Shuai added a price, "Don't force me!"

This price is already playing with fire, because Wenman may not follow at any time. However, Wen Shuai felt that he could still tease him a little more.

"300,000! What's wrong with forcing you!?" Wen Manang added to 300,000.

"Force me, I'll... don't!"

"Ha ha!"

"So cruel!"

In the private room, Xu Ming and Sun Ji both burst into laughter when Wen Shuai called out this sentence.

The happiest person was Xu Ming. I bought one thousand points from the artifact store. When I changed hands, they sold for a high price of 300,000 taels. It was a huge profit!

"Wen Shuai, call your subordinates and sell me one more!" Xu Ming laughed.

It is rare to encounter such a fat man, how could Xu Ming be willing to let it go so easily?

"okay!"

After a few more rounds of the treasure competition, Li Wenshi's expression suddenly became extremely embarrassing again: "Then what... Another mysterious person sent an Illusory Sea Demon Worm..."

puff!

The eldest prince, who was drinking fine wine, spit it out as soon as he heard this – is the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce trying to kill me today?

The two Illusory Sea Devil Insects cost him 550,000; but now, a third one has emerged?

“Isn’t the magic sea monster very rare, why are they appearing one after another today?” The value of the magic sea monster itself is not very high, otherwise the artifact store will not only sell a thousand hanging points; just because it is very rare, so the market price is only around 50,000 taels of gold, “Could it be that who was in the desert and hit the worm’s nest?”

“Big Brother, you’re not going to argue with me about this one, right?” Wen Shuai’s tone was full of sarcasm, as if he was saying – people are better than heaven!

“200,000!” Wen Man was furious, and without waiting for Wen Shuai’s bid, he directly called out 200,000; with the current situation, he would never let Wen Shuai buy it comfortably. The person who took the magic sea monster said, “If you want, you can increase the price. If you don’t want me to buy it back to feed the dog!”

“Uh, big brother, your dog’s condition is really good...” Wen Shuai said, and really didn’t add it to the top.

“What!?” Wen Man was stunned, “No more?”

In fact, Wen Man really didn’t intend to have this phantom sea monster.

Spending 200,000 to 300,000 yuan to stop Wen Shuai from buying the Magic Sea Demon Bug, he felt that the deal was worth it; spending 500,000-600,000 yuan would be a bit of a loss; and spending 700,000-800,000 yuan would simply be a loss to grandma’s house! Because the magic sea monster is rare, but if anyone really bids 300,000 to 400,000 to buy it~www.readwn.com~ some people will go to search.

Wen Man’s bid this time is purely to disgust Wen Shuai and make Wen Shuai spend more money.

But...

Wen Shuai did not increase the price directly?

“Well...” After a while, Li Wenshi’s face was already suffering from embarrassing cancer, “This treasure below is also a magic sea monster!”

“Fifty thousand!” Wen Shuai shouted, “Brother Emperor, why don’t you buy another one to feed the dog?”

The people in the treasure hunt all turned their attention to Wenman’s private room, wanting to see how this super swindler would react. However, everyone waited for a long time, but did not see any reaction in Wenman’s private room.

“Unfortunately...” Xu Ming shook his head regretfully, “I wanted to **** him off a little more!”

“Ha ha...”

Compared with the atmosphere on Xu Ming’s side, in the First Prince’s private room, the air was so gloomy that the temperature had dropped several degrees.

The eldest prince found out that he was completely a fool today, a clown jumping on the beam! Wanting to stop Wen Shuai from buying the Magic Sea Devil Insect, Wen Shuai bought it at the market price of 50,000, but he bought three for 750,000 to feed the dog.

Really beeping dog!

“First prince, don’t be annoyed!” The guard on the side comforted him, “Let him be proud first, and they will cry when there is a gambling battle!”

“Hmph, yes!” Wen Man’s icy eyes flickered, “Then Xu Ming can’t stay, if he can take advantage of today’s opportunity to kill him and lose hundreds of thousands, there’s nothing to feel bad about!”

When the eldest prince sees anything that threatens his throne, he will eliminate it as soon as possible; obviously, Xu Ming, who is on Wenshuai’s side, makes him feel threatened~www.readwn.com~ Welcome to reading, the latest and greatest The fastest and most popular serial works are all in ~www.readwn.com~ mobile phone users, please go to read.

Chapter 28: , Dare To Fight?

The treasure competition was over, and soon, a waiter sent a stack of golden tickets. Each piece was a large denomination of 10,000 taels, with a total of 54 pieces; the other 10,000 taels of gold was taken away by the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce as a commission.

“A lot of money!”

Xu Ming had to sigh with emotion, spending 100,000 taels to open the advanced functions of the plug-in is really cost-effective! In a blink of an eye, he made half a million dollars.

“Come here, brothers, let’s divide the dirty!” Xu Ming threw the golden ticket on the table and laughed.

“Boss, I don’t want it anymore, I won’t get paid for no merit!” Sun Ji said.

From start to finish, Sun Ji didn’t do anything other than giggling beside him.

“Huh?” Xu Ming pondered slightly, “Then I won’t give it to you, I’ll get you a good set of weapons later!”

“Thank you boss!”

“Brother Xu, I don’t want it either! You gave me such a big sigh of relief, I haven’t had time to thank you yet, how can I ask for your money? Besides, we brothers, don’t keep withdrawing money. Ah, cheesy!” Wen Shuai laughed.

“Okay, then I won’t be hypocritical!” Xu Ming knew that although this amount of gold was not a small amount for Wen Shuai, it was not a big amount; the most important thing was to help Wen Shuai to let out a good breath.” But I have to pay you back the 50,000 taels of gold. It’s just a magic sea monster, don’t ask me for money!”

“Haha, that’s fine…” Wen Shuai smiled, “The two pieces that my brother Wen Man bought have already made you a lot of money; this one of mine, you should give it as a gift!”

“Ha ha ha ha…”

After the treasure competition, there are some singing and dancing performances.

The singers and dancers invited by the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce were all celebrities from Feiyun Kingdom; with the singing and dancing on the scene, the atmosphere that seemed tense in the competition for treasure just now eased a lot.

But as many of you here know, this is just the calm before the storm. Because what will be held after the treasure hunt will be a betting battle with real swords and guns; in the gambling battle, even if someone dies on the spot, it is a normal thing.

Suddenly, the singing and dancing subsided, and there were bursts of piano sounds. The sound of the piano is like the ding-dong of spring water, refreshing.

“Huh?” Xu Ming’s spirit couldn’t help but shake, as if his head suddenly became much more ethereal.

“I didn’t expect Miss Quan to be here today!” Wen Shuai exclaimed in surprise.

“Miss Quan?” Xu Ming had never heard of these celebrities in the upper class of Feiyun Kingdom.

“Ms. Quan was originally a descendant of the ‘Sixteen Strings School’.” Wen Shuai introduced, “The Sixteen Strings School has been passed down in my Feiyun for hundreds of years; it is said that the founder of the school was born with the piano. , is also the top expert in Feiyun. It’s just that a few years ago, the Sixteen Strings School was destroyed; in order to avoid the enemy, Miss Quan had to be reduced to the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce to make a living by performing arts!”

"It's no wonder that the qin art is so exquisite, it turned out to be a descendant of the Sixteen String School!" Xu Ming's memory also had an impression of the Sixteen String School.

"It is said that he is making a living by performing arts, and it is estimated that he also wants to use the platform of the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce to get to know the powerful, so that one day he will make a comeback and rebuild the mountain gate!" Wen Shuai seemed to know something.

Xu Ming did not answer.

The world where martial arts is respected is just that direct. If you have a bigger fist than others, you can be at ease; if someone else has a bigger fist than you, even if you are wiped out, you can only swallow your anger.

"I, Xu Ming, will definitely stand at the top of Feiyun Nation, and even walk out of Feiyun Nation!" Since he was fortunate enough to travel to another world, and he could still hang up at any time, of course Xu Ming had to make a difference, and he would never be ignorant.

Before they knew it, the sound of the piano faded away, and many people had expressions of disappointment on their faces.

Obviously, Miss Quan's piano skills have reached a realm that can touch people's hearts.

"The time has come, the gambling battle begins!"

A deep voice spread throughout the audience, and it was obvious that a master of internal training encouraged profound energy to say it.

"Haha, the craziest gambling battle is finally here!"

Many people waited from morning to night for the upcoming gambling battle.

"I lost a lot of money in the last gambling battle, this time, I must win back even the principal and profit!"

For every gambling battle, the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce will set up a handicap and give the corresponding odds; generally speaking, the odds of the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce are relatively kind, so many people like to directly bet on the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce.

Of course, you can also find someone to gamble privately; in this case, it will be more exciting to play.

“The gambling battle has already begun. I don’t know which one will go first?” The Jiuding Chamber of Commerce’s inner formation changed, and the original scene of the treasure competition turned into a ring in a blink of an eye; and Li Wenshi also changed his career to preside over the gambling battle.

“I’m coming!” The voice was cold, but it contained an aloof momentum.

The owner of the voice passed through the crowd in a flash and stood on the ring. At this time, many talents saw clearly that the person standing on the ring was a young man with long hair reaching his waist.

“So fast!”

When they saw the boy’s face clearly, many people were very surprised.

“Sikong Liangjun!” Wen Shuai exclaimed, and a trace of ominousness flashed in his heart, “He actually participates in a gambling battle?”

“Who is Sikong Liangjun?” Of course Xu Ming had never heard of this character.

“The direct disciple of the ancient elders of Feiyun Wuge!” Wen Shuai said, “I am only fifteen years old this year, but it is already in the middle stage of internal training!”

“So powerful!” Sun Ji was surprised. I am fifteen years old, and I have only practiced Rank 6 outside; while others are already in the middle stage of internal training!

“Great... not necessarily?” Xu Ming stared at Sikong Liangjun in the ring and said.

“Sikong Liangjun’s talent is really good, but it’s not necessarily how powerful!” Wen Shuai said, “He is the eldest son of the Sikong family. achievement!”

“Oh...” Xu Ming and Sun Ji were all stunned.

The speed of cultivation is naturally different for those who grow up eating Tiancai and Dibao every day, and those who grow up eating ordinary rice every day.

“The Sikong family wants to pile him up to the innate and train him to be the heir of the family!” Wen Shuai explained, “It’s the first time I’ve seen him participate in a gambling battle!”

I saw Sikong Liangjun standing righteously on the ring, looking around with his hands behind his back; “I, Sikong Liangjun, fifteen years old!”

There are generally two rules for gambling in the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce: one is to find an opponent with the same cultivation base, and the other is to find an opponent of the same age.

As soon as Sikong Liangjun came to power, he reported his age, obviously looking for an opponent of the same age.

Those in the audience didn't know Sikong Liangjun's details, so they couldn't help but scolded: "Fuck, Sikong Liangjun is looking for an opponent of the same age? In the entire country, at the age of fifteen, you can count on one hand to reach the middle stage of internal training. And they are all his friends of Sikong Liangjun; he is gambling and looking for ghosts?"

A shrewd person also thought: "Could it be that Sikong Liangjun wants to challenge someone whose cultivation is lower than him?"

"This is too shameless, isn't it? Even among the mid-training martial artists, Sikong Liangjun is of superior strength; with such strength, do you have to challenge someone with a lower cultivation level than him? Is this interesting?"

Sikong Liangjun's eyes slowly turned to the box where Xu Ming was, and a sneer sneered at the corner of his mouth: "I heard that there is a person present today who is also fifteen years old, but he claims to be the top genius in the history of Feiyun Kingdom; he also said In our era, no one can compare to him? – I, Si Kong Liangjun, are not convinced, I am fifteen years old, and he is fifteen years old, but I would like to see and experience, the so-called top genius in the history of Feiyun Kingdom, what is the genius? To what extent!"

Some sensible people immediately understood that Sikong Liangjun was going to challenge Xu Ming!

"Then Xu Ming's realm is indeed very high. It is said that he is close to that. However, his cultivation base is very general. It seems that he has not even reached the inner training, right?" Xu Ming has only reached the inner training in the past few days. In the early days, he had never made a move, so outsiders naturally didn't know his strength.

"In the mid-term of internal training to challenge external martial arts practitioners? This Sikong Liangjun can really imagine it!"

"But it's normal... That Xu Ming, a martial arts practitioner outside the district, is known as the top genius in the history of Feiyun Kingdom. It's no wonder that Sikong Liangjun can't stand it and wants to challenge him!"

"Then Xu Ming is in the third prince's box, right? There's a good show to watch now, so let's see if Xu Ming dares to fight!"

"Outside trainers should face the mid-term internal training? Unless his brain is broken!"

"Xu Ming!" Sikong Liangjun pointed out, "How dare you fight!?"

How dare you fight! ?

Sikong Liangjun shouted loudly, leading the eyes of the entire scene to the private room where Xu Ming was.

“Will Xu Ming fight?”

“How is it possible to fight? Unless his brain is broken!”

“That’s right, then Xu Ming is nothing more than a high level, and his own strength is very weak; if he really wants to take the stage, Sikong Liangjun will definitely be able to play him easily!”

“What’s the use of just having a realm...”

There was a lot of noise at the scene, and there was no doubt that everyone obviously did not think Xu Ming dared to take the stage to fight.

“Xu Ming?” Wen Shuai was also not sure about Xu Ming’s true strength, “Everyone is waiting for your answer... If you feel reluctant, don’t go on it. Although gambling battles are not allowed to deliberately cause death, it is obvious that It’s a game aimed at you, there’s no need to save face...”

Xu Ming waved his hand to interrupt: “In the mid-term practice, it’s not a problem!”

Mid-term practice?

Wen Shuai looked at Xu Ming in surprise.

This sentence is too confident. Since Xu Ming dares to say this, it means that he has absolute certainty to win against Sikong Liangjun.

“Then be careful.” Wen Shuai didn’t say much.

“No hurry, tease him first!”

Xu Ming smiled, then stood up and shouted outside the private room, “Who are you?”

Sikong Liangjun was embarrassed.

I stood on the stage for a long time to show off my power, introduce myself, and provocatively; in the end, I waited for a long time until Xu Ming said, "Who are you?"

"You don't even know me?" Sikong Liangjun asked.

Sikong Liangjun prides himself on being in charge of talent, appearance, and temperament in the young area of Feiyun Kingdom, and in Yunqi City, there are indeed countless young girls who are budding and adoring him. Sikong Liangjun thought that his reputation in Yunqi City should have reached the level of a household name; therefore, Xu Ming's "Who are you?" made him very difficult to accept.

Xu Ming coughed: "Since I became famous, many people in the country have challenged me, who knows who you are? – Hurry up, briefly introduce yourself and let me know who you are and what you have cultivated. , I can decide whether to give you a chance to challenge me!"

"I..."

Just as Sikong Liangjun was about to introduce himself, the eldest prince interrupted him: "Xu Ming, right? Don't put on a pretense there, I don't believe it, my third emperor brother didn't tell him who you are!"

"Oh? The First Prince?" Xu Ming responded, "I remember when I met you at the door, you said that there are a few arrogant sons who refuse to accept me; presumably, this is one of them, right?"

"Humph!" Wen Man sneered, "Brother Sikong, he is the true pride of my Feiyun Kingdom, and success in the future is a sure thing! If you are a little bit daring, just come on stage and try, and you will naturally know that you and Sikong brother are inseparable. What a huge difference!"

"Want to provoke me?" Xu Ming said with a disdainful smile, "My name in the capital is now red and purple; there are many people who want to fight with me, and then take the opportunity to become famous, so generally I am Don't accept challenges easily! But it seems that this person has a good relationship with the first prince, right? From the first prince's face, it is not impossible to give him a chance to become famous! Or else – since the first prince, you think you are this little brother The strength is very strong, how about we gamble?"

"Haha, after walking around for a long time, it turned out that you wanted to bet with me!" The eldest prince smiled, "Actually, you don't need to circle around, you want to bet, I will bet; no matter how big, as long as you dare to bet, I will dare to bet. catch!"

"The eldest prince is really bold!" Xu Ming praised.

“Come on, let’s bet!” Wen Man said, “Also, my third emperor brother, don’t be idle, let’s bet together!”

The first prince’s intelligence system has thoroughly analyzed Xu Ming’s strength – when Xu Ming participated in the Feiyun Wu Pavilion to recruit new students, he definitely practiced 4th rank outside, and the appraisal of the big formation would not be wrong. Then, in such a short period of ten or twenty days, even if Xu Ming has the best supply of resources, even if Xu Ming makes breakthroughs one after another, his current cultivation will not be able to reach the level of internal training!

These analyses are all well-founded; after all, the accumulation of cultivation bases must be done gradually, and cannot be accomplished overnight.

And Sikong Liangjun, the leader in the mid-term internal training, to deal with Xu Ming, an external martial artist? —The First Prince admits that he has absolutely no chance of losing.

“Even if Xu Ming has reached the early stage of internal training, he will still not be Sikong Liangjun’s opponent, because...” the first prince sneered in his heart, “Just based on Sikong Liangjun’s trump card, the question now is not whether he can win, but whether he can win. Come by surprise, don’t give Xu Ming a chance to admit defeat, and kill him on the spot!”

If you have nothing to do, find someone to win against Xu Ming?

The First Prince has no such interest.

Now that he started, he naturally wanted to find a way to wipe out Xu Ming directly.

“Why do you dare to accept it?” Xu Ming asked with a sinister smile.

“Of course!” The eldest prince could not see Xu Ming’s cunning smile across the private room.

“I have one million taels of gold!” Wen Shuai shouted first.

“It’s only one million?” The eldest prince shook his head and said, “I’ll take it! Brother Three Emperors, your climate is still very general; since you’ve already ordered, why don’t you order more? – Come on, let’s send the money first. At the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce!”

Even in private gambling battles, everyone is used to finding the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce as a middleman, so that they are not afraid that the other party loses and defaults.

“Xu Ming, how much do you want to bet?” the eldest prince asked again.

“I’m just a little countryman, and I can’t compare to the wealth of the eldest prince!” Xu Ming said, “I’ll just take some local specialties as a bet! Send gold to Jiuding Chamber of Commerce from uukanshu.com!”

Souvenirs?

The corner of the eldest prince’s mouth trembled—you’re making fun of me and betting on souvenirs? Or do you feel that you are bound to lose, so you just take something worthless to lose?

“Souvenirs? Okay, let me taste your souvenirs!” The eldest prince accepted this betting method. Mainly because in his opinion, Xu Ming is likely to be a dead person, so be generous and let him jump around for a while!

“My local product, I don’t know if you like it, First Prince, but I can guarantee that your dog will like it!” Xu Ming laughed.

Do dogs love to eat?

The eldest prince’s face turned blue: “You dare to scold me! You dare to scold our royal family!”

The dignity of the royal family cannot be violated!

“Eldest Prince, I can’t stand you wearing such a high hat!” Xu Ming said, “You said it yourself, your dog loves it!”

“When did I tell you, what does my dog like to eat?” Wen Man shouted angrily.

“The eldest prince is really a noble person who forgets things!” Xu Ming smiled, “When you bought the magic sea monster just now, didn’t you say you want to buy it back to feed the dog? So... your dog must love this stuff, right? ?”

Phantom sea monster?

Wen Man was stunned, then suddenly thought of something: “It’s you...”

“Eldest prince, look, I still have fifty phantom sea devil bugs here, so it’s my bet!” Xu Ming opened the window of the private room, holding a large number of phantom sea devil worms in his hand, shaking at the private room where the eldest prince was. Shaking, “Would you like to ask the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce to estimate the price, or you can directly calculate the price based on the reserve price. The price of each piece is fifty thousand taels, a total of two hundred and fifty!”

Chapter 30: , Second Defeat

Phantom sea monster!

Fifty more?

Seeing this scene, even the pigs have already thought that the eldest prince was played like a monkey just now.

“The eldest prince just smashed 750,000 to get three Illusory Sea Devil Insects. I am now priced at 250 for 50, isn’t it expensive?”

Xu Ming asked with a smile.

“Not expensive... not expensive!” The eldest prince gritted his steel teeth. He only felt that the eyes of the audience were all turned to the private room where he was, as if they were mocking him for being two hundred and five.

“Xu Ming, it’s yours! However, you won’t be able to laugh for long!” The eldest prince snorted coldly, and then took out 2.5 million taels of gold and sent it to the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce.

Just when he sent these two and a half million dollars, for some reason, the first prince suddenly flashed a sense of alertness, as if the gold no longer belonged to him.

“Hmph, impossible! How could Xu Ming be Sikong Liangjun’s opponent!”

“The bet has been placed, you still haven’t come on stage?” Sikong Liangjun shouted.

Xu Ming’s random actions were all out of the limelight, which made him very unhappy. He can’t wait for the gambling battle to start immediately, and then he wants to trample Xu Ming under his feet, and even take the opportunity to kill Xu Ming.

“A rare peerless genius in the history of Feiyun Kingdom? Hmph, when I kill you, I’ll see what everyone will say!”

When Sikong Liangjun thought about this, he forgot that he didn’t know how much resources he spent in his family to achieve today’s achievements; if he didn’t have a lot of resources, I’m afraid his talent would not be amazing.

“So anxious to die?” Xu Ming sent fifty Phantom Sea Devil Insects to the Jiuding Chamber of Commerce, and then jumped onto the ring.

At the same time, a lot of gambling games about Xu Ming and Sikong Liangjun have also started.

“Who do you think should be bet?”

“It goes without saying, of course it’s Sikong Liangjun! Although Xu Ming has been very popular recently, Sikong Liangjun has been famous for a long time, and Feiyun Kingdom has been defeated by him!”

“Indeed! As far as I know, Sikong Liangjun has never failed!”

“What’s so entangled in this? You can see who should be trained by looking at the cultivation base! Sikong Liangjun has been in the middle of the internal training for a long time, and Xu Ming, I am afraid it is better to train externally!”

“But don’t you find it strange?”

“What’s strange?”

“If Xu Ming has no confidence at all, why would he dare to take on the stage? And he made such a big gamble with the eldest prince?”

“That’s true! Xu Ming shouldn’t be so foolish as to go up to shame and give money to the eldest prince!”

All of a sudden, many people are confused and don’t know how to bet.

In theory, betting on Sikong Liangjun should be a sure win. But Xu Ming’s self-confidence performance is too strange, which makes it difficult for many people to make a choice for a while.

In the ring, Sikong Liangjun started to brag to Xu Ming again.

“You actually dare to come on stage and fight me. Your courage is really beyond my expectations! I thought you would be a tortoise!”

Seeing that Xu Ming didn’t give him a shot, he continued to chatter.

“Do you think that you are invincible after winning a trash like Lin Muqing? I, Sikong Liangjun, will show you today what the real top genius of our Feiyun Kingdom is like!”

Sikong Liangjun even dared to call Lin Muqing a waste in public without hesitation.

But this is normal.

In terms of background, the Sikong family is no weaker than the Lin family; and Sikong Liangjun’s status in the family is even higher than Lin Muqing’s status in the family.

In terms of talent, Sikong Liangjun is obviously a notch higher than Lin Muqing.

In terms of personal connections, Sikong Liangjun and the eldest prince can be on an equal footing, while Lin Muqing can only bow his head to the eldest prince.

In the circle of princes in the capital, Sikong Liangjun was undoubtedly the top one, while Lin Muqing was a bit lower.

The upper class is strictly hierarchical, and Sikong Liangjun said that Lin Muqing was a waste, but Lin Muqing didn't dare to say anything in person.

"Is the nonsense finished? Can we start the fight?" Xu Ming only glanced at Sikong Liangjun, and then asked extremely impatiently.

"You are courting death, how dare you despise me!"

"Despise you? Do you have the right to be despised by me?" Xu Ming said disdainfully, "Just now, I was crying and begging me to come up quickly, I came up, and you are talking nonsense again – hurry up and fight? Going for supper!"

"Go to hell!"

Sikong Liangjun killed Xu Ming with his bare hands, but the profound energy between his fists flowed, and at a glance, he knew that the power was extraordinary.

"Sikong Liangjun is really angry, it's the ultimate move when he comes up!" Some of the people watching the gambling battle on the scene said with sharp eyes.

"Ultimate move? What ultimate move?" Of course, he was more clumsy.

"I don't understand, this is the secret skill of the Sikong family – the palm of the sky! With Sikong Liangjun's cultivation level, even if he is in the late stage of internal training, he will not dare to take it hard, and he can only avoid its edge!"

"So fierce? So, this trick, can't it be able to leapfrog and fight?"

"Let's leapfrog and fight, after all, the speed of this move is not fast enough! However, Xu Ming's cultivation is much worse than Sikong Liangjun, and his speed must be slower, but he was just beaten to death by this move!"

"Oh? Fortunately, I listened to you just now and placed a bet on Sikong Liangjun!"

"Just listen to me. I've been in the gambling battlefield for so many years. If I didn't have the eyesight, I would have lost all my money!"

Xu Ming calmly looked at Sikong Liangjun who came to kill him.

“The power is good, but the speed is so slow, it’s too easy to avoid! But – since today’s high-profile, let’s make a good high-profile! Besides, it’s really annoying to see this Sikong Liangjun!”

In a matter of seconds, Xu Ming understood Sikong Liangjun’s current exact strength with just one investigation.

“Open it up!”

“Perfect battle!” A perfect battle is a must; because it is cheap and high-quality, the effect is powerful!

“Another... double defense!” Xu Ming now has a lot of money, and as soon as he came up, he directly came with five times the defense.

“Since it’s open, let’s do another five times the attack!”

With all three hangings open, Xu Ming directly crushed Sikong Liangjun at the attribute level!

And Xu Ming’s realm at this time is also thrown out of Sikong Liangjun not knowing how many streets!

Sikong Liangjun’s ultimate move, the Breaking the Air Palm, is extremely powerful; while Xu Ming’s shot is even more of a state where there are no moves and no moves!

boom!

Xu Ming’s iron fist is like a dragon, and he is going to have a head-to-head confrontation with Sikong Liangjun!

Sikong Liangjun knows how fierce his own hand is; he dares to say that in the entire Feiyun Kingdom, no one of the same age would dare to take it hard, “This kid is in a good state, If he relies on realm to deal with me, then I am afraid that I will have to work hard; but he actually chose to face it hard!”

Sikong Liangjun’s eyes were hideous: “Then I will abolish you first!”

“Damn it, this Xu Ming is messing up, I can bet on him, he actually confronts Sikong Liangjun head-on!” Some people also bet on Xu Ming~www.readwn.com~ because they feel that it is close to the subtle The realm is terrifying, and there may be a chance to turn the tide of the battle. But Xu Ming’s first shot directly blinded their dog’s eyes – Xu Ming actually gave up the advantage of the realm and chose to face it hard!

Isn’t this stealing my money?

“Xu Ming...”

“Boss...”

Wen Shuai and Sun Ji were both worried. They also believed that Xu Ming's strongest point was his realm. As for other aspects, although he seemed to be very powerful, compared to his realm, he seemed average.

“Hahaha, good!” The eldest prince was the most happy to see such a scene, “Xu Ming is too impatient, Sikong Liangjun is just a random provocation, and he is so angry... Young man, it's still too much Impulsive!”

At this moment, this thought flashed in the first prince's mind – I won fifty magic sea monsters, how should I use it? So much that I can't use it all up! Moreover, the reason why the market price of the Magic Sea Devil Insect has been stable at 50,000 is because it is rare; now 50 are popping up all at once, and if I sell it, the price will definitely be greatly discounted!

“Do you really want to take a few to feed the dog?” Seeing that the situation on the field was good, the eldest prince even thought so.

In the blink of an eye, Xu Ming's fist collided with Sikong Liangjun's broken palm.

However... everyone expected, the scene where Xu Ming was abolished by the powerful Duankong Palm did not happen.

Instead, something unexpected happened—

Sikong Liangjun was blasted out of the ring by Xu Ming and smashed to the ground motionless; blood spurted out of his mouth, profound energy on his body was chaotic, and he didn't know his life or death~www.readwn.com~ Welcome to reading, the latest, fastest, most The serial works of Huo are all available at ~www.readwn.com~ for mobile phone users, please go to read.
