

A World 581

Chapter 581: Gorefiend

Inside the Remnant Sword Tower.

Xu Ming swept all the way up.

The opponent on the second floor is a three-step Taoist warrior in black. Of course, opponents of this level could not pose any threat to Xu Ming; Xu Ming swept away his spear and easily blasted him into nothingness.

After the black-clothed warrior died, he also left behind a group of incomparably pure soul nourishing power, which strengthened Xu Ming's soul by a few points.

“Easy!”

Xu Ming is using a combat plug-in, but he is a top half-trail master. Dealing with a three-step Taoist is of course extremely easy.

The opponent on the third floor, the Six-step Daoist, also swept across without any resistance.

However, Xu Ming was secretly shocked: “The Canned Sword Pagoda has seven floors; it's only the third floor, and it's already the sixth-step Taoist... There are four floors behind, what kind of opponents will you meet?”

Refining consolidated the soul nourishing power of the third floor, and Xu Ming went straight to the fourth floor.

The fourth floor is a blood-red world.

This world is endless, the sky and the earth are all the color of blood, and it looks disgusting.

Not far from Xu Ming, there was a huge lake made up of blood. The lake was bubbling with blood from time to time, as if it had been boiled.

After Xu Ming appeared on the fourth floor, not long after that, in the center of the lake, there was a scarlet humanoid creature with its head popping out.

This crimson humanoid creature is about the size of a normal human being; however, his eyes are all sharp triangles, there are ferocious fangs at the corners of his mouth, and he has no nose, so he doesn't seem to need to breathe.

"This is..." Xu Ming fixed his eyes, "Gore Demon?"

Gorefiends are a special ethnic group.

The newborn Gorefiend is extremely weak, not even stronger than ordinary humans; however, as long as he touches a place with strong blood energy, his strength will increase rapidly! This Gorefiend lives directly in the blood lake, so there is no doubt about its strength.

Xu Ming threw it to investigate.

"The top half-step Taoist!" Xu Ming was slightly startled – on the fourth floor, he met the top half-walk Taoist! You must know that Xu Ming has opened a lot of fighting plug-ins now, and he is only a top half-step master.

Of course, because he passed the first three floors, his strength was greatly improved. Xu Ming is now a very strong existence among the top half-trail masters, almost approaching the limit of half-trail masters!

However, the Gorefiends are bloodthirsty by nature, and among their peers, they are almost invincible! Therefore, the strength of this top half-step master level Gorefiend should not be underestimated.

"A very good opponent..." Xu Ming vaguely expected.

Finding an evenly matched opponent is not easy. This Gorefiend is obviously a good opponent!

“Then... let’s have a good fight!”

Xu Ming’s fighting spirit was boiling.

“Roar-”

From the blood demon’s hideous **** mouth, a sharp and strange roar came out, “bang” directly into the blood pool, and pounced towards Xu Ming.

“Good come!”

Xu Ming’s spear shot up like a rainbow piercing the sun.

If it is on the battlefield of ten thousand races, the power of this gun can easily tear the sky apart. However, the space inside the Cannon Sword Pagoda is extremely stable, let alone Xu Ming, even a Taoist can hardly tear the space apart; this shot, however, failed to form even a little space ripple.

“Roar!”

Gorefiend waved his claws and slapped the spear directly. There are countless blood vessels flowing on his hideous arm.

boom!

A claw shot over, and even the long spear was shot to the side.

“What a powerful force!” Xu Ming was shocked.

Immediately, Xu Ming’s figure took advantage of the situation to slightly side, avoiding the attack of the Gorefiend. At the same time, he raised his spear with both hands and drew it towards the Gorefiend.

However, the Gorefiend's reaction was also extremely quick; a lightning-like change of direction made Xu Ming take a breath.

“Humph!”

On Xu Ming's spear, the mighty three heavenly paths of wind, fire, and water condensed, swept toward the Gorefiend and rolled away.

And this Gorefiend, although he only mastered one “Yang's Heavenly Dao”, he comprehended it extremely spiritually; the saplings of the Yang's Heavenly Dao in the sea of his consciousness were almost about to grow into towering trees!

“Roar!”

The irritable Yang Zhi Tiandao collided directly towards Xu Ming.

boom!

boom!

boom!

In just a moment, the two conveniences collided with each other countless times.

The entire blood-red earth was torn apart. Terrible cracks, like spider webs, covered the whole land, spreading hundreds of miles, thousands of miles—this is because the space of the **** world is stable, and the earth is extremely hard; if it is replaced by the endless continent, I am afraid that the cracks in the earth may spread thousands of miles. !

The collision between superpowers is completely a disaster for mortal warriors; fortunately, the **** world is a test world of the Canned Sword Pagoda, and no mortals exist here.

boom! boom! boom! boom! ...

After not knowing how many times they collided, Xu Ming and the Gorefiend both stopped in unison; the two sides kept a distance and looked at each other cautiously.

At this time, Xu Ming had some injuries on his body ; Gorefiend was even more seriously injured, and even his breath seemed a little weak.

“You are not my opponent!” Xu Ming said to himself.

“Roar!” Although this Gorefiend was transformed from the Canned Sword Pagoda, it also possessed simple wisdom. When he saw that the situation was wrong, he fled directly towards the blood lake.

“This...” This was the first time Xu Ming saw that the opponent in the test ground would escape! If he didn’t pay attention, he let the Gorefiend escape into the Blood Lake.

Immediately afterwards, Xu Ming saw that in the blood lake, a large amount of blood was taken into the body by the blood demon. The Gorefiend’s injuries are also recovering rapidly.

And this Gorefiend was hiding in the Blood Lake and couldn’t come out. It was obvious that he wanted Xu Ming to fight him in the Blood Lake!

“Damn it!” Xu Ming couldn’t help scolding, “This is too shameless, isn’t it?”

Gorefiend hides in the blood lake, it’s simply a rogue! Even a weaker extreme half-walker would be hard-pressed to get past the fourth floor, right?

but...

Although Gorefiend is shameless, Xu Ming can be more shameless than him.

“Damn, I originally wanted to have a good fight with you, but I didn’t want to open the ‘Soul Possession’! But, since you forced me to be a prostitute, don’t blame me for being rude!” Xu Ming thought hard.

However, when Xu Ming opened the “Soul Possession” hanging, he had to save the hanging point. After all, Xu Ming only had 30 million level 6 hanging points on his body now; and then, Xu Ming wanted to break into the fifth, sixth, and seventh floors.

“Then summon a soul with three million hanging points, it should be almost the same!”

Xu Ming opened the “Soul Possession” link, and suddenly there was a powerful ultimate half-walk master soul, which possessed Xu Ming.

This time, what Xu Ming summoned was an extreme half-step master who had understood the way of the heavens of the wind!

“kill!”

In the state of “soul possession”, Xu Ming directly entered the blood lake.

Chapter 582: Money Is Falling From The Sky!

call out-

After comprehending the way of the wind, he is best at speed.

Xu Ming’s figure flashed, and he was in front of the Gorefiend.

“Roar?” Gorefiend was stunned.

He found that Xu Ming’s strength seemed to have skyrocketed suddenly! However, with his poor IQ, he couldn’t figure out what was going on.

boom! boom! boom! boom! ...

Suddenly, Xu Ming’s spear vented towards the Gorefiend like a storm.

Gorefiend was bloodthirsty by nature, and because he was in the lake of blood, he killed Xu Ming unscrupulously.

However, the absolute suppression of strength allowed Xu Ming to suppress the Gorefiend to the death. Under Xu Ming's storm-like offensive, the aura of the Gorefiend was rapidly weakening – the supply of supplies couldn't keep up with the speed of the injury.

Bang!

Under the frantic thrusts of a series of long spears, the Gorefiend's body burst directly.

Fourth floor, win!

“Damn, wasting my three million level 6 hanging points!” Xu Ming was a little depressed.

It's not easy to earn some hanging points!

After the death of the Gorefiend, it also transformed into a mass of soul nourishing power, rushing into Xu Ming's body to nourish his soul.

This pure nourishing power is more powerful than the first three layers combined! Xu Ming's soul strength has soared again; it has almost doubled compared to before entering the Canned Sword Pagoda!

Double the strength of the soul, although it does not mean that the strength is doubled; however, the combat power of Xu Ming's clone has also increased by one or two percent – even stronger than the deity!

“The last three floors, if I can continue to soar my soul strength, that's not bad!”

It is very difficult to increase the strength of the soul; now that there is such an opportunity, Xu Ming must take advantage of it!

at this time...

“Experienced!” A magnificent voice sounded directly in the ***** world, “Congratulations on passing through the fourth floor!”

“This is...” Xu Ming was stunned, and then he reacted – this is a good rhythm!

The magnificent voice is still talking to himself: “If you can pass through the fourth floor, it is also the top existence among the many Taoists in the Endless Continent! And if you can get the token and enter the Remnant Sword Pagoda, you are also considered to be with me. Destiny!”

Xu Ming’s eyes lit up – there is indeed a good thing!

“You can choose from two rewards for passing the fourth floor! The first is a low-grade semi-artifact weapon; the second is a 100 million middle-grade Dao stone!”

Half artifact! ?

100 million middle grade Dao stones! ?

Xu Ming’s eyes are wildly bright – I rely on it, the shot is so good!

Semi-artifacts are generally weapons used by Taoist masters; at the level of Taoism, they are rarely available!

However, Xu Ming’s desire for semi-artifact weapons is not strong – first of all, Xu Ming himself already has a semi-artifact long spear; another one is useless. Secondly, most of the semi-artifacts have an artifact spirit; and Xiaohang once sternly warned Xu Ming, never use a treasure with a “artifact spirit” to exchange the hanging point, otherwise, it will cause unpredictable consequences!

In other words, if Xu Ming takes another half-artifact, it is very likely that he will not be able to use it, nor can it be exchanged for hanging points...

Therefore, Xu Ming chose without hesitation: “One hundred million middle-grade Dao stones!”

“as you wish!”

As soon as the magnificent voice fell, a pile of glittering things fell from the sky at the very high point of the blood-colored sky.

This pile of glittering things looks like stars from a distance, but if you look closely, with Xu Ming's eyesight, you can see that it is... a dense pile of middle-grade Dao stones!

A mountain of middle-grade road stones piled up!

100 million middle grade Dao stones!

Xu Ming's first reaction was—Wow, money has fallen from the sky!

call out-

A full 100 million middle-grade Dao Stones smashed down towards Xu Ming like a falling meteor! This scene is undoubtedly very impactful!

“Get rich! Haha...”

Really dozed off the pillow! Xu Ming was worried that he didn't hang any flowers, and the middle-grade Dao stone fell from the sky!

A mid-grade Dao stone can be exchanged for a level 6 hanging point!

100 million middle grade Dao stones, that is... 100 million rank 6 hanging points!

With so many hanging points, Xu Ming is full of confidence in the next three floors of the Canned Sword Pagoda; when it is opened and hanging, the hanging points are no longer stretched!

The 100 million middle-grade Dao stone slammed down, and when it approached the ground, it suddenly slowed down again. A hill made entirely of middle-grade Dao stones landed firmly in front of Xu Ming.

“A lot of hanging points!” Xu Ming suddenly burst into joy: “I accept it! I accept it! I accept it!”

The piles of hanging points were continuously collected by Xu Ming into the acceptance ring, and then directly converted into level 6 hanging points in equal proportions!

“Haha...” With 100 million level 6 hanging points, Xu Ming suddenly had the illusion of being rich.

“The rewards on the fifth, sixth, and seventh floors will definitely be higher!” Xu Ming looked forward to, “When I cross the seventh floor of the Canned Sword Pagoda, maybe, I will create a ‘independent space’ for the hanging Just click, and you’ll be able to make up most of it!”

To open up a level 1 independent space requires 10 billion level 6 hanging points! At present, Xu Ming is only short of... 9.9 billion...

Although the cost of hanging points can be described by the word “horror”; however, Xu Ming must open up an independent space! – As long as an independent space is opened up, then Xu Ming is absolutely safe!

Independent space, completely isolated from all cause and effect! Xu Ming’s deity, as long as he hides in the independent space; even if the gods are in person, they will never try to kill him!

Moreover, in the first-level independent space, there is a radius of ten thousand miles; when it is opened up, Xu Ming will bring relatives and friends to this absolutely reliable safe area! – At that time, Xu Ming will be rampant in the endless continent, and there will be no worries!

How to wave, how to wave!

How to be horizontal, how to be horizontal!

If you want to smack whoever’s face, you can smack whoever’s face!

Moreover, no one will be able to stop Xu Ming’s rise!

On the fourth floor of the Canned Sword Pagoda, 100 million level 6 points were awarded, which gave Xu Ming the hope of collecting 10,000,000,000 level 6 points in a short period of time! Even if you can't make it together it is estimated that you can make up more than half of it!

Suddenly, Xu Ming felt that the fighting spirit was roaring!

“Consolidate your soul, and then go to the next level!”

...

Outside the space channel of the demon clan.

The fat and bloated demigod was startled in vain—it had just received a summons.

The communication came from the demons.

The content of the communication was that Xu Ming single-handedly killed hundreds of demons to flee in embarrassment; moreover, he also beheaded over a hundred geniuses of the demons!

The Howling Demon Demigod's ugly face had a look of shock: “This Xu Ming... so powerful?”

It couldn't help but think – Dove Poison, can it be like Xu Ming?

The result of thinking is – can't do it!

“Jiu Du couldn't do it, but Xu Ming did it... Doesn't that mean that Jiu Du's strength is not as good as Xu Ming?” Howling Demon Demigod thought.

The strength is not as good as Xu Ming, but to assassinate Xu Ming? – Isn't this going to die?

“If Jiu Du died in the battlefield of Wanzu, the old guy with Wanxueyan would go crazy!” Thinking of the scene after Wanxueyan went mad, Howling Demon Demigod's fat and bloated body couldn't help but startled.

It roared: “Is there a way to find the trace of Dove Poison?”

A Yaozu Taoist on the side said respectfully; “Just now, a Yaozun came out of the battlefield of ten thousand tribes and said that a few days ago, he encountered Jiudu and went to the direction of the remnant sword mound. As for the specific location of the remnant sword mound, , but I don’t know!”

Howling Demon Demigod thought for a while: “Hurry up and send someone to find Jiudu! – After you find it, tell it about Xu Ming’s situation, and let him be careful and don’t be careless!”

“Yes!”

At the end, the Howling Demon Demigod added another sentence: “Tell it, if you don’t have the confidence to deal with Xu Ming, come out first! If it happens in the Ten Thousand Races Battlefield, it will also be a great loss to our Monster Race!”

Chapter 583: 1 Billion Six-Level Hanging Points

It is already a day later to consolidate the soul on the fourth floor.

Xu Ming’s soul strength soared again, and his own strength also increased again.

and...

The increase in the strength of the soul also made Xu Ming’s perception of the Dao of Heaven clearer!

“My comprehension of the Heavenly Dao of Wind...” Xu Ming was surprised to find that his own comprehension of the Heavenly Dao of Wind broke through to the second-step Daoist level unknowingly. This has undoubtedly improved Xu Ming’s strength.

Coupled with the soaring soul strength, now, even if Xu Ming does not use the “Soul Possession” hook, but only uses the combat plug-in, his strength is comparable to the ultimate half-walker!

“The fifth floor!”

Xu Ming took a step and went up to the fifth floor.

The world on the fifth floor is an endless forest. In all directions of the mountain forest, the roars of monsters sounded one after another; countless powerful breaths spread all over the place.

“This fifth floor seems to be a monster den!”

As Xu Ming was thinking, suddenly, powerful auras shot up from all directions.

“Roar!”

“Roar!”

“Roar!”

Thousands of ferocious monsters rushed towards Xu Ming from all directions. Among them, there are dozens of monsters whose auras are particularly powerful and have already reached the level of Dao Zun!

“Huh?” Xu Ming was slightly startled, “This fifth-floor opponent is so weak?”

Yes, weak!

Thousands of monsters look really big and scary. But you must know that among so many monsters, there are only a few dozen at the Daoist level; and most of them are only one-step Taoist, two-step Taoist, and the strongest is six-step Taoist...

Such a group of monsters is too weak! Just a top half-trail master can swept away all the monsters!

“You shouldn’t be so weak...”

In Xu Ming’s view, the difficulty of the fifth floor must be much higher than that of the fourth floor. But now, the fifth floor is only rushing out of these rabble, obviously not normal!

Xu Ming couldn't help but secretly keep an eye on him.

Suddenly, a strange-shaped monster with a blood-red long peck, thick limbs, and plump wings on its back exploded violently when it approached Xu Ming!

“Roar-”

The monster roared strangely, waving its claws in a special trajectory, and in an instant, it came to Xu Ming.

Xu Ming's expression suddenly changed.

He completely felt the power and terror of this monster, and hurriedly threw it away.

“Invincible Half-Trail Master!”

This investigation result shocked Xu Ming.

The invincible half-step Taoist means that under the Taoist, it is already invincible!

Invincible...it's very hard to do!

For example, Ye Hai, who is known as the “first person under the Taoist” of the entire human race, does not dare to claim to be the “invincible half-step Taoist”. Because, other ethnic groups still have half-step masters who are stronger than him—there are stronger ones, and naturally they cannot be called “invincible”.

The entire Endless Continent dares to claim to be the “Invincible Half-Trail Master”, but now, I am afraid that it is only the Dove Poison of the Monster Race!

“It turned out to be the invincible half-step master...”

If Xu Ming wanted to defeat the opponent, he naturally had to summon a stronger soul to possess him!

And even stronger than the invincible half-step master, that is only the ultimate half-step master from God's Domain!

“To summon the ultimate half-step master from God's Domain, you need 10 million level 6 hanging points...” Xu Ming gritted his teeth, “10 million is 10 million!”

Anyway, I earned 100 million level 6 hanging points on the fourth floor!

And since the fifth floor is more difficult than the fourth floor, the rewards will definitely be more generous! In order to ensure that he could 100% pass through the fifth floor, Xu Ming could not be stingy with the ten million level 6 hanging points.

boom!

Suddenly, a wave of incomparably powerful and mysterious power erupted from Xu Ming. This power is perfect to the extreme, and it seems that there are no flaws! – This is a power that does not exist on the endless continent! This power comes from a higher level world...

Holy area!

rumbling...

The mighty power of the Heavenly Dao of Fire converged on Xu Ming's spear—this time, the soul that Xu Ming summoned was cultivating the Heavenly Dao of Fire!

“roll!”

The spear swept furiously, and the odd-shaped monster of the invincible half-trail master level was directly smashed into the air by a spear.

This invincible half-trail master-level monster is simply unable to compete with the powerful mysterious power from God's Domain.

“kill!”

Xu Ming took advantage of the victory to pursue and attacked in anger.

Thousands of monsters around him rushed towards Xu Ming like moths to a flame; however, fire burned on Xu Ming’s body, easily annihilating all these monsters into nothingness.

And Xu Ming’s main target is the invincible half-walker!

rumbling...

The powerful and mysterious power of the Heavenly Dao of Fire once again converged on the spear.

“hiss-”

This invincible half-step master also rushed up to attack Xu Ming with grinning teeth. However, the absolute suppression in terms of strength made it only able to parry in front of Xu Ming and have no power to fight back!

boom!

boom!

boom!

...

The terrifying power of one shot after another was vented to this invincible half-trail master. Every shot can injure him.

Every time it collided, the breath of this invincible half-trail master would weaken a little.

After countless collisions...

Bang!

Xu Ming killed him very smoothly!

At the same time the thousands of monsters in all directions also dissipated.

Fifth floor, win!

“Huh...” Xu Ming let out a long sigh of relief.

Although he won, Xu Ming was not easy.

“This is only the fifth floor... The opponent is actually the invincible half-step Taoist!” Xu Ming couldn’t help thinking, “I don’t know, what kind of opponent will these sixth and seventh floors be...”

Xu Ming estimated that, looking at the Endless Continent, it is impossible for anyone to break through the sixth floor!

Passing through the fifth floor is already the limit!

After all, in the Endless Continent, the strongest ultimate half-step master is only at the level of Dove Poison. It is almost impossible to appear on the Endless Continent for the ultimate half-walk master of the God’s Domain!

“Experienced! Congratulations on passing the fifth floor!” The magnificent voice sounded again, “The opponent you just defeated is based on the prototype of the ‘Dove Poison’ who has the highest comprehension of heaven in the ‘Brahma Divine Kingdom’ at this moment; You can defeat it, which shows that you have some other good means besides the understanding of heaven! – The reward of the fifth floor is ten times richer than that of the fourth floor! It is also a choice between two: the first, yes A mid-grade semi-artifact weapon; the second one is... a billion mid-grade Dao stones!”

The reward is tenfold!

One billion middle grade Dao stone!

Xu Ming was going to faint with happiness!

One billion mid-grade Dao stones, that is... one billion rank 6 hanging points!

and...

Xu Ming is even more looking forward to the rewards of the sixth floor!

The reward of the fifth floor is ten times more abundant than the reward of the fourth floor! So, will the reward of the sixth floor be ten times more than the reward of the fifth floor?

If that's the case, didn't Xu Ming directly make up the 10 billion level 6 hanging points needed to open up an independent space?

laugh!

After being killed by Xu Ming, the duplicate version of "Dove Poison" also transformed into a mass of soul nourishing power.

Chapter 584: 10 Billion! ! !

"The sixth floor!"

A day later, Xu Ming appeared on the empty sixth floor.

His opponent was just an ordinary human monk. But this famous cultivator exudes mysterious, powerful and perfect power fluctuations.

A magnificent voice sounded: “The opponent on the sixth floor is a genius from the God’s Domain, and he is also a master of the ultimate half-step! Defeating him, you will get great benefits!”

“really...”

The opponent on the sixth floor is much stronger than the opponent on the fifth floor!

“The ultimate half-step master from God’s Domain...” Xu Ming exclaimed, “Who can pass this kind of test!?”

Indeed no one can pass!

For a long time, there have been many Dao Zuns who have entered the Canned Sword Pagoda!

However, there are only a handful of people who can pass through the fifth floor; including Xu Ming, there are no more than five! As for those who have crossed the sixth floor, not a single one! – It is almost impossible for anyone in the Endless Continent to defeat the ultimate half-walk master from God’s Domain!

The opponent’s strength is strong, and Xu Ming can’t be stingy!

In order to ensure 100% access to the sixth floor, Xu Ming gritted his teeth and directly spent 50 million level 6 hanging points to summon souls from the God’s Domain who have reached the limit of half-step master level in both heavenly comprehension. body!

“Humph! This is the total insurance!”

Xu Ming exudes the mighty aura of Thunder Heavenly Dao and Fire Heavenly Dao; these two Heavenly Daos are all at the extreme half-step master level, and... the fluctuations of the two Heavenly Dao have a perfect to the extreme. Charm!

The power from God’s Domain is much stronger than the power on the Endless Continent!

Facing the “God’s Domain” opponent, Xu Ming took it easy and slowly raised his spear.

“Thunder fire destroys the world!!”

rumbling...

The Thunder Heavenly Dao and the Fire Heavenly Dao are intertwined with each other, wrapping around the spear in a circle.

The power of a single Heavenly Dao is already extremely terrifying; the two Heavenly Daos are used together, and they are also vaguely blended together. The power is not as simple as “1+1=2”!

“kill!”

Xu Ming’s eyes widened.

Immediately, the power of destroying the sky and destroying the earth gathered at the tip of the spear and killed the opponent of the “God’s Domain”.

“Kill!” This “God’s Domain” opponent is naturally not simple; with his strength, he can easily defeat the invincible half-step master of the level of Jiudu! He gathered his strength without fear, waved the flaming sword in his hand, and killed Xu Ming.

However...

One shot!

Just one shot!

When Xu Ming’s spear collided with his opponent, the power of thunder and fire, which gathered at the tip of the spear, exploded!

Under the power of destroying and destroying, the “God’s Domain” opponent has no resistance at all! The flaming long sword was blasted away instantly, and then, the terrifying power directly impacted him, blasting his whole body into nothingness.

“This...” Xu Ming was stunned, “Second?”

Yes, instant kill!

You must know that in the realm of the gods, there is only one extreme half-step Taoist master of the heavenly way, and it is everywhere, it is not surprising at all! However, it is very rare to realize the ultimate half-step master of the two heavens at the same time; once it appears, it will be scrambled by the major forces in the realm of the gods!

And the cultivator who has comprehended two heavenly ways is also unparalleled in strength. It is not comparable to a cultivator who has only comprehended one heavenly way! – The strength gap is so big that it is not even at the same level! It’s not surprising that one trick kills!

“The 50 million worth is really extraordinary!” Xu Ming sighed.

Summoning the Invincible Half-Trail Master “Soul Possession” requires 8 million level 6 hanging points.

Summoning an ordinary “God’s Domain” extreme half-step master requires 10 million level 6 hanging points.

However, to summon the “God’s Domain” extreme half-step master who has understood two heavenly paths, it requires 50 million 6th-level hanging points!

The huge disparity in worth actually proves that there will be a huge disparity in strength!

But Xu Ming couldn’t help but sigh: “That shot just now was really expensive...”

Kill your opponent with one shot! And this shot directly consumed Xu Ming’s 50 million level 6 hanging points!

You must know that the treasures consumed by opening up a first-level Taoist secret realm are estimated to be worth about 100 million 6th-level hanging points. In other words, Xu Ming’s shot is equivalent to directly burning half of the secret realm!

Open it, it's too expensive!

Fortunately, when Xu Ming passed the fifth floor, he was rewarded with one billion mid-rank Dao Stones; in conversion, it was one billion 6th-level hanging points. It's not very distressing to spend 50 million now.

and...

Xu Ming is even more looking forward to... the rewards of the sixth floor!

The magnificent voice sounded again, but it was still extremely rigid: "Experienced, congratulations on passing through the sixth floor! The reward of the sixth floor is ten times richer than that of the fifth floor!"

ten times!

Ten times as rich!

Xu Ming was excited!

"Could it be that just passing through the sixth floor will allow me to collect 10 billion level 6 hanging points?"

Gathering 10 billion level 6 hanging points means that Xu Ming will be able to open up an "independent space"!

Opening up an independent space means that Xu Ming will enter an absolute "invincible mode"! Any aliens can never try to kill Xu Ming; even if a ***** emerges, they still can't hurt Xu Ming!

Xu Ming's rampant era is coming!

but...

Having said that, since Xu Ming came to the other world, he was either slapping his face or on the way to slap his face. It's like... it's been running rampant all along...

Xu Ming continued to look forward to listening.

“The reward for the sixth floor is also a choice of two: the first one is a top-quality semi-artifact weapon; the second one is... 10 billion middle-grade Dao stones!”

10 billion middle grade Dao stones!

Ten billion level 6 hanging points!

Although Xu Ming knew that in terms of value, top-quality semi-artifacts might be more precious than 10 billion mid-grade dao stones – after all, weapons of this level are no longer worth measuring with mid-grade dao stones! Even if you take out tens of billions of middle-grade Dao stones, no one will sell you a top-grade semi-artifact!

However, Xu Ming made his choice without hesitation: “I choose 10 billion middle-grade Dao stones!”

Ten billion mid-grade Dao stones are too important to Xu Ming!

As long as an independent space is opened up, not only can Xu Ming be extremely safe, but also the relatives and friends around him are also extremely safe!

“The harvest of entering the Canned Sword Pagoda this time is really great!”

Xu Ming didn't know that he needed the Year of the Monkey, the Horse and the Moon to gather 10 billion medium-grade Dao Stones; but he never expected that after entering the Canned Sword Pagoda, he swept all the way and easily achieved this “small goal”.

And, so suddenly!

Happiness comes so suddenly!

“I’m afraid, the short-lived old man didn’t expect that I could gain such a big harvest in the Remnant Sword Pagoda!” Xu Ming couldn’t help thinking.

Xu Ming’s harvest is indeed appalling!

After all, in the endlessly long years, the sixth floor, which no one has ever been able to penetrate, was run over by Xu Ming with one move! This harvest is impossible to imagine!

At this moment, a “stone rain” started falling directly from the sky!

The uncountable number of stones fell from the sky as if it was raining heavily, and landed in a circle around Xu Ming.

At this moment, Xu Ming just wanted to shout loudly: “Let the ‘Dao Shiyu’ come more violently! Even if I kill me, I am willing!”

Chapter 585: Open Up Independent Space

“I’ll take it!”

“I’ll take it!”

“I’ll take it!”

“I’ll take it!”

...

Xu Ming was frantically drenched in the “Dao Stone Rain” and ran around with his Na Ring in his hands to collect the Dao Stone.

As soon as Dao Shi was accepted into the ring, it was immediately converted into a hanging point.

Xu Ming's hanging point is rising rapidly!

One billion sixty million...

One billion seventy million...

One billion eighty million...

1.1 billion...

1.2 billion...

1.5 billion...

Two billion...

five billion...

The "Stone Rain" seems to be endless; and Xu Ming, of course, hopes that this rain will never stop!

Xu Ming frantically collected Dao Shi, while humming a little song proudly; from "The Rain Has Been Falling", humming, humming, to "It Raining All Night"...

In the end, the number of Xu Ming's level 6 hanging points was fixed at more than 11 billion!

This is undoubtedly a terrifying number!

"Cool!"

"Cool!"

"Cool!"

This kind of feeling of getting rich overnight, how can the word “cool” be so amazing! ?

“Calm down! Calm down!” Xu Ming tried his best to calm himself down, “Can’t be high-profile! Can’t be inflated! Be calm!”

Xu Ming took a few deep breaths to calm down his excitement. Then, he began to refine and consolidate the nourishing power of the soul! – Passing through the sixth floor, in addition to huge rewards, there is a lot of soul nourishing power!

And Xu Ming’s soul strength has also grown several times because he has passed through the six floors in a row and absorbed a lot of soul nourishing power! Xu Ming’s strength naturally rose with the tide!

Of course, it’s one thing that the short-lived old man left a big gift, and it’s also one thing that Xu Ming’s own strength is tyrannical! – After all, if someone else entered the Canned Sword Pagoda, it would be impossible to get as many benefits as Xu Ming!

Opportunities are in front of you, and you have to have the strength to get it!

“Consolidate your soul first!”

Thinking about it, Xu Ming sat down with his knees crossed.

...

And at this moment, the Endless Continent, the territory of Lake Heart Island, the Wilderness Sect.

Xu Ming’s deity, with bright eyes, walked out of the Wuyu ship’s cabin—of course, Xu Ming’s deity is now invisible, and will not be discovered by the weak people around him.

The deity and the avatar are completely connected in mind. Therefore, even if there is no external communication in the Wanzu battlefield, Xu Ming's deity still knows everything that happens in the Wanzu battlefield.

and...

The hanging points of the deity and the clone are completely shared! The clone got the hanging point, in fact, the deity got the hanging point!

"I can finally open up an independent space!" Xu Ming sighed.

As for the location of the independent space, it is not very important. After all, no matter where the location is chosen, anyway, without Xu Ming's permission, it is impossible to find an independent space, let alone enter an independent space – that is to say, no matter where the location is selected, the independent space is an absolute safe area!

"The location is here!"

Xu Ming was too lazy to find a place, so he directly chose the sky above the Wilderness Sect to open up an independent space!

"Xiaohang, I want to open up a Level 1 independent space!" Xu Ming shouted.

"Only one independent space can be opened! Please confirm the host, whether to set the current location as the entrance of the independent space? – Once the entrance is set, it will never be changed!" Xiaohang reminded.

"Sure!"

"To open up a level 1 independent space, it will consume 10 billion level 6 hanging points; please confirm the host, do you really want to open up an independent space?"

"Sure!"

"Please confirm again, host, whether to open up an independent space immediately?"

“Open now!”

“The independent space is being developed, please keep the host still and don’t leave the place!”

...

After a long wait, after about three hours, Xiaohang’s voice sounded again: “The independent space has been opened!”

“Opened up!”

Xu Ming couldn’t help but be overjoyed – as expected of a small hanging, the work efficiency is high!

“Xiaohang, how can I enter the independent space?”

“The host only needs to be near the current location, silently recite ‘I want to enter’, and I will pick you up and enter the independent space! The host can also set up other people to enter and leave the independent space; the method of entering and leaving is the same!”

“Yeah!” Xu Ming nodded, and then said silently in his heart, “I want to enter!”

Immediately, Xu Ming felt that an invisible space vortex formed in front of him, and he was directly sucked into the vortex and disappeared into the endless continent.

In the next instant, Xu Ming appeared in the independent space.

This is a flat continent with a radius of 10,000 miles. There are no mountains, no rivers, no living beings, no light. It is desolate, dark, and cold.

“This... is my world!” Xu Ming sighed inwardly.

He can feel that he has absolute control over this world! With a single thought, he can make this world undergo earth-shaking changes – just like the creator!

Xiaohang's voice continued to sound: "After entering the independent space, all causal connections will be isolated from the outside world! Any attack from the outside world will not be able to hurt the people in the independent space! It is almost absolutely safe to be in the independent space!"

"Haha, that's great!" What Xu Ming wanted was absolute safety! – Give yourself, as well as relatives and friends, a completely safe world!

"Next..." Xu Ming was full of anticipation, "Let's renovate this independent space first!"

Xu Ming has absolute control over the independent space.

In an independent space, he can even "follow the law"!

I saw Xu Ming stretched out his palm, pointed at the entire dark continent, and said softly, "There must be light!"

Immediately, a red sun rose at the end of the eastern part of the continent ; the rays of light shone from the sky, illuminating the entire continent in an instant. At the western end of the continent, there is a full moon that is sinking into the horizon—just because of an idea of Xu Ming, in this independent space, the sun and the moon will rotate alternately, forever.

Xu Ming said softly again: "There must be air and water!"

Immediately, the entire independent space was filled with incomparably fresh air.

Pieces of lakes, oceans, and rivers are formed one after another. The Wanli Continent also became uneven, allowing the water in lakes, oceans, and rivers to flow.

rumbling...

The entire independent space has undergone great changes.

All the terrains here are deep in Xu Ming's memory... China!

With Xu Ming's current strength, his memory is so terrifying, he can even look through every minute and every second of his childhood memories. Everything he has seen, including past lives, can also be easily retrieved from memory.

At this time, every mountain, every river, and every terrain in the independent space is exactly the same as that marked on the Huaxia map!

It's just... there are no living creatures, including plants and even microorganisms – Xu Ming has not yet had the ability to create living creatures!

In the end, Xu Ming had an idea and slightly changed the terrain around Mount Everest, making it the same as the Wilderness Mountain. Then, various buildings appeared on the mountain, all of which were exactly the same as those of the Wilderness Sect.

“Yeah!” Xu Ming nodded with satisfaction, “Now, let's go and bring all the people from the Wilderness Sect into the independent space first!”

In the Wilderness Sect, there are most of Xu Ming's relatives and friends!

Xu Ming planned to bring in all his relatives and friends first, and then slowly move the entire Kingdom of God into a separate space! -In this way, in an independent space, it becomes a paradise of its own!

Chapter 586: Certain Death

After constructing the rough terrain, Xu Ming left the independent space and returned to the Wilderness Sect.

“Humble.”

Xu Ming found Gu Hanmo directly.

Gu Hanmo is the only one who knows that he has a clone.

“Clone” secret skills, although inconceivable, still exist in ancient legends. Therefore, after Gu Hanmo knew that Xu Ming had a clone, although he was surprised, he was more happy for Xu Ming; because of this, it would be safer for Xu Ming to wander outside in the future.

“Um?”

Gu Hanmo’s face did not leave any traces of the years; her smile was still as sweet as when Xu Ming first saw her. It’s just that in terms of temperament, there is some precipitation and it becomes more elegant.

“Xu Ming, your deity, just came back from outside?”

“Yes!” Xu Ming said.

“Didn’t you say that the deity does not go out as much as possible?”

“I didn’t leave very far, I just went nearby and opened up a secret realm!” Xu Ming said.

Xu Ming didn’t plan to reveal the secret of “Independent Space”; after all, even if he did, he couldn’t explain it—he couldn’t tell Gu Hanmo that this was a new feature in my plug-in!

So, after thinking about it, I decided to say that the secret realm was opened up to avoid trouble.

“Secret realm?” Gu Hanmo was startled, “Xu Ming, have you opened up a secret realm?”

“Yes!” Xu Ming said, “My secret territory is much safer than the outside world! – Now I don’t show up in person, so as not to expose the secret of my clone. You help me gather and let the entire Wilderness Sect come to the Wuyu Ship; Then, you pretend to drive the fog and rain ship and lead everyone into my secret realm!”

“Okay!” Gu Hanmo was also very excited and looking forward to it.

The Wilderness Sect has always wanted to have a secret realm as a “base”. Now, this goal has finally been achieved!

“I’m going to tell Dad the news, he’ll be very happy!”

If Gu Kongshan knew that the Wilderness Sect was about to enter the secret realm, he would definitely be very excited.

“Yeah!” Xu Ming thought for a while, “It’s time for Dad to know that I have a clone... But, don’t know about other people for the time being!”

In fact, after opening up an independent space, it doesn’t matter if Xu Ming exposes the secret of his clone generously. Anyway, even if other people wanted to kill Xu Ming, they couldn’t do anything about Xu Ming.

Xu Ming is already truly invincible and immortal!

However, Xu Ming still likes to keep a low profile.

It’s just... Xu Ming’s low-key, in the eyes of others, is already extremely high-profile!

...

Just when Xu Ming secretly arranged for his relatives and friends to “relocate”, the Yaozu Dao Zun sent by the Howling Demon Demigod had already found Dove Poison beside the Canned Sword Pagoda.

This is a Flood Dragon Monster Beast. It respectfully sits in front of Jiu Du and asks doubtfully, “Monster Jiu Du, what are you doing next to the Canned Sword Pagoda?”

Jiu Du’s crimson eyes glanced at the monster, and said, “Xu Ming is in the Cannon Sword Tower, I’m squatting here, waiting for him to come out!”

“Do you know where Xu Ming is?” The Jiaolong Monster Beast was surprised, “I’m here to find you this time, because I have news about Xu Ming, and I want to tell you!”

“Speak!” Jiu Du snorted disdainfully.

The dragon monster said: “Not long ago, there was news from the Demon Race – it is said that Xu Ming defeated the Demon Race army led by the Demon Lord Ruotian head-on, beheading hundreds of Demon Lords; even the Demon Lord Ruotian himself. , also died at the hands of Xu Ming!”

“Oh?” Jiu Du’s red eyes narrowed narrowly, and he couldn’t believe it, “Xu Ming’s strength is so strong?”

“I can’t believe it either! But the Howling Demon Demigod has already confirmed the authenticity of the news, so there shouldn’t be any fake news!” said the Jiaolong Monster Beast.

Jiu Du was slightly stern: “Speaking of this, I really need to re-examine Xu Ming’s strength! – Defeat the demon army head-on, even me, it’s hard to do...”

The Jiaolong Monster Beast said again: “The Howling Demon Demigod also said that if you don’t have the confidence to deal with Xu Ming, you should withdraw from the battlefield of the Ten Thousand Races. We, the Monster Race Alliance, will think of other ways to assassinate Xu Ming!”

Although Doudu is arrogant, his personality is extremely cautious—a cautious personality is a prerequisite for becoming a good killer!

If it wasn’t for such a character, Jiu Du might not be able to be valued by the demigod of Wanxueyan and accepted as a direct disciple.

“If Xu Ming really defeated the demon army head-on, then I don’t dare to say that the assassination will be successful...” Jiu Du thought for a while, “However, my safety, the group does not need to worry. If I want to leave, Xu Ming Don’t have the ability to keep me!”

Dove Poison said confidently.

What it does best is stealth and speed.

“This way—” Jiu Du thought about it, and said, “I will continue to guard here and wait for Xu Ming to come out. And you, hurry up and report to the Howling Demon Demigod, and then find a way to find more of our demon clan. Come masters – the more the better!”

The two huge eyes of the Jiaolong Monster Beast suddenly lit up: “Dove Poison Monster Venerable You want to...”

“Humph!” Jiu Du coldly snorted, “If I’m alone, I really don’t dare to say that I can kill Xu Ming 100%! But... if you call up thousands of our demon clan’s masters, first lay them near the Canned Sword Pagoda. Formation; as soon as Xu Ming comes out, we will go straight to the urn to catch the turtle! – Thousands of demon lords, plus the formation assistance, even the four-step Taoist and the five-step Taoist will surely die! Even if Xu Ming’s strength increases Perverted, even if he is a Taoist at the level of ‘God’s Domain’, there is no chance of him surviving!”

Jiu Du is the invincible half-step master, and his strength is almost comparable to the second-step master!

And the ultimate half-step master of the “God’s Domain”, the strength is almost equivalent to the top two-step master, even close to the three-step master!

Those who come from God’s Domain, and the two Heavenly Dao comprehension reaches the limit of half-step Dao Master level, the strength is comparable to the top three-step Dao Master, close to the 4-step Dao Master!

With such an arrangement as Jiu Po, even a five-step Daoist would surely die!

Dou Du doesn’t believe it, Xu Ming’s strength can be stronger than that of the five-step Taoist master!

The Jiaolong Monster Beast couldn’t help but exclaim: “The Dove Poison Monster Venerable is really meticulous. With such an arrangement, Xu Ming will surely die!”

“No!” Unexpectedly, Jiu Du shook his head, “There is another question!”

“What’s the problem?” Jiaolong Monster Beast wondered.

“That is... I’m not sure, when will Xu Ming come out of the Canned Sword Pagoda!” Jiu Du said, “If he came out before our formation was formed, there would be no way!”

“Yeah... that’s right!” The Flood Dragon Monster Beast pondered.

Jiu Du glanced at it: “Do you understand?”

“Understood!” said Jiaolong Monster Beast, “What you mean is that we must move fast! Right?”

“Humph!” Jiu Du snorted coldly, “Since you understand, why are you still standing here in a daze? Why don’t you hurry up and act!?”

Chapter 587: 0 Reincarnation

After consolidating the soaring soul strength on the sixth floor, Xu Ming stepped directly to the seventh floor.

“The seventh floor, what will it look like?”

For the endless long years, a handful of people have set foot on the sixth floor of the Canned Sword Pagoda, but no one has ever been able to break through the sixth floor and set foot on the seventh floor.

Xu Ming only felt a flash of light, and he entered a world of white light.

Immediately afterwards, countless scenes began to twist and form around him.

“Huh?” Xu Ming was startled, “This seventh floor seems to be very different from the first six!”

In just one breath, the surrounding scene became clear.

And Xu Ming was horrified to discover that he had actually... turned into a teenager.

His right hand is pressing on a test stone tablet; around him, countless pairs of mocking, indifferent, or mean eyes are staring at him, as if waiting to see his own joke.

“What’s going on?” Xu Ming was suspicious—it seemed that he... had crossed again?

Do not!

To be precise, it should be caught in some kind of special assessment.

At this moment, a middle-aged man next to him said indifferently: “Xu Ming, the power of blood, third dan! Level: low level!”

The middle-aged man just blurted out his words, and there was a burst of cynicism in the crowded square around him.

“Three paragraphs? Hehe, it really is a waste!”

“This ***** has really disgraced the face of the family! – She is fifteen years old, and her bloodline strength is only 3rd stage, even a seven- or eight-year-old child is inferior!”

“Our Xu family’s bloodline has always been pure and powerful. Haven’t there been such wastes before?”

“This is also very strange to me, maybe... he is a wild breed...” A young man with a pointed mouth and monkey cheeks said with a sinister look.

...

When these people mocked, they didn’t lower their voices at all, as if they were deliberately telling Xu Ming.

At this time, Xu Ming gradually understood his current situation.

The way of cultivation in this “world” is very different from that of the Endless Continent.

The warriors in this “world” cultivate the power of blood! The purer the bloodline, the faster the power of the bloodline progresses! – It can be said that the bloodline determines future achievements.

The blood of the Xu family has always been pure and pure. “Xu Ming” only cultivated to the third dan at the age of fifteen, which naturally attracted countless ridicule and contempt.

“It’s also a world where the strong are respected!”

Xu Ming felt it for a while and found that his body was extremely fragile now. The spiritual power is naturally very weak, and it cannot mobilize the natural power of heaven and earth at all. And... the plug-in doesn’t work either.

“Damn it, this seventh-level assessment can’t be opened!” Xu Ming was depressed.

This made him, who was already used to hanging up, very uncomfortable!

but...

Although he can no longer hang up, and his own strength is also very weak; but... Xu Ming’s many years of combat experience are not empty!

He glanced at the sharp-mouthed monkey-gill boy—this boy dared to say that he was a “wild species”, which naturally made Xu Ming extremely angry.

“Wild species, what are you looking at!” The sharp-mouthed monkey-cheeked boy scolded Xu Ming directly when he saw that Xu Ming was looking at him.

Xu Ming’s face sank, he pointed at him, and shouted, “I want to challenge you! Now!”

The sharp-mouthed monkey-gill boy was startled: “What? Are you going to challenge me?”

Immediately afterwards, he laughed out loud, as if he had heard some big joke: “You dare to challenge me with your third-rank bloodline power!?”

“Just say you dare to accept it?”

“Humph! Since you are actively courting death, I will naturally be the next best person to fulfill you! – Time?”

“Now!” Xu Ming said indifferently.

“I’m really in a hurry to find death!” The sharp-mouthed monkey-gill boy smiled disdainfully and jumped onto the stage.

The squares in all directions were already filled with all kinds of voices mocking Xu Ming.

“A waste with only rank 3 bloodline strength dares to challenge rank 6th rank bloodline power? It’s really courting death!”

“I really don’t know, what’s wrong with this waste today!”

“Where else could there be a problem? Of course there is a problem with the brain!”

...

The sharp-mouthed monkey-cheeked boy looked at Xu Ming indifferently: “If you immediately kneel down and kowtow three times; when the battle comes later, I can consider making a little more effort! Otherwise...you plan to lie in bed for three months!”

“Humph!” Xu Ming sneered, “I will return this sentence to you as it is! If you honestly kowtow and admit your mistake, I won’t have the same knowledge as you!”

“Looking for death!” The sharp-mouthed monkey-gill boy rushed towards Xu Ming.

Xu Ming turned sideways very calmly to avoid him, and then slapped him out.

Snapped!

The sharp-mouthed monkey-gill boy who was three levels higher than him was directly slapped by a slap and collapsed to the ground, unable to stand up again.

Although in terms of strength, Xu Ming was much weaker than the opponent. However, Xu Ming's power use skills are by no means comparable to that young man!

With a single force, Xu Ming can exert a great force or even more effects!

This slap went out, and the audience was shocked – is this still the third-stage waste of blood power?

...

Then Xu Ming felt that the surrounding scene seemed to “fast forward”.

I live arrogantly in this strange world. His strength also increased rapidly.

3rd stage of blood power...

The tenth stage of blood power...

blood spirit...

Blood Emperor...

blood lord...

blood saint...

In the end, Xu Ming fought with the strongest existence in the world, the blood emperor “Xiao Huo”, and finally killed him.

While beheading the Blood Emperor, this world began to shatter.

At the same time, Xu Ming felt that a vast and majestic realization of the Heavenly Dao of Fire was coming towards him.

A magnificent voice, at the end of the sky, rumbled: “The seventh floor, the reincarnation of the world! The first reincarnation, pass the test! – Every time you pass through a reincarnation, you can get some rewards for the understanding of heaven; as for what you can harvest from it. How much insight you have depends on your own perception!”

Soon, this vast and majestic understanding of the Heavenly Dao of Fire was completely comprehended by Xu Ming.

However, because the time was really short, in the end, Xu Ming’s insights were only sporadically, not even a single CD! – But this little bit has already benefited Xu Ming a lot; his understanding of the Heavenly Dao of Fire has also steadily entered the second-step Daoist level!

“The seventh floor of the Canned Sword Pagoda is definitely a treasure!” Xu Ming secretly said, “I don’t know what mysteries and secrets are hidden here, but it can improve my understanding of the heavens!”

Immediately afterwards, the entire world around Xu Ming was shattered into pieces.

Countless fragments twisted into a vortex, turning into a white light.

After Bai Liang passed, a new scene began to twist around Xu Ming.

“The second cycle of reincarnation is about to start!”

Xu Ming discovered that this time, he actually lived in a modern civilized society; and his identity was – a physicist!

Chapter 588: Welfare Layer

At this time, Xu Ming was surrounded by huge and complicated instruments.

On the huge display in the center, there are hundreds of countdowns:

“At the bottom of the Pacific Ocean, ‘Rebirth No. 1’, 1 billion tons equivalent, 1 minute countdown...”

“At the bottom of the Pacific Ocean, ‘Rebirth 2’, 1 billion tons equivalent, 1 minute countdown...”

...

“At the bottom of the Atlantic Ocean, ‘Rebirth 30’, 1 billion tons equivalent, 1 minute countdown...”

...

“The Pacific Ocean, the Atlantic Ocean...” Xu Ming was startled, “Have I returned to Earth?”

However, Xu Ming was sure that this was by no means the earth he lived in, but it was probably a parallel world, a fantasy world, or something like that.

Seeing the hundreds of countdowns, Xu Ming was stunned for a moment, and then he reacted: “One billion tons, this is... a way of expressing the power of nuclear weapons!”

Xu Ming still had some understanding of physics. He knew that “1 billion ton equivalent” was equivalent to the power of a “1 billion ton bomb” explosion.

Xu Ming remembered that the largest nuclear weapon on the earth he lived in was only “100 million tons equivalent”. Moreover, because the equivalent is too large, if it is detonated, it may destroy the world, so I dare not detonate, but it is reduced to 50 million tons for the detonation test.

And now...

At the same time, there are hundreds of nuclear weapons with a yield of 1 billion tons that are detonating the countdown. What is this going to do?

This is the rhythm to destroy the earth!

Soon, Xu Ming understood his current situation from his memory—he was in the end times; the entire world was almost occupied by zombies, and only a few humans had fled to the moon for refuge.

And now, to detonate hundreds of nuclear weapons of 1 billion tons at the same time, I just want to use nuclear weapons to completely eliminate zombies and make this world... reborn!

“Damn it!” Xu Ming suddenly turned pale in shock.

If Xu Ming had crossed into this world with the strength of Dao Zun, then he would not be afraid at all. After all, Dao Zun’s attack is far more terrifying than nuclear weapons – nuclear weapons can’t tear space! And Dao Zun can easily tear space apart!

But the problem is, Xu Ming’s current body is just an ordinary person!

Hundreds of 1 billion ton nuclear weapons detonate at the same time, the world will be destroyed, Xu Ming will definitely die!

What was even more depressing was that Xu Ming discovered that there was a nuclear weapon directly under him...

“Damn it! This second round, I can’t play!”

This is no longer “Hell Difficulty”, but absolutely must die!

“I don’t know, what will happen if I die in the reincarnation of the world...”

However, Xu Ming is not very worried, the big deal is to lose a clone!

Anyway, the hanging point has been earned. Even if he loses a clone, it is not a big loss for Xu Ming. The only thing that makes Xu Ming feel a pity is that the soul strength of this clone is very strong, stronger than the main body! If it is lost, the recreated avatar will not have such a strong soul strength!

The countdown is decreasing second by second.

50...

40...

20...

10...

9...

8...

...

As for Xu Ming, he was just an ordinary person with no power. Although his mind was full of knowledge, at this time, knowledge was useless!

“This second reincarnation is simply inexplicable...”

In Xu Ming’s wailing, the countdown reached “0”, and hundreds of nuclear bombs all over the world were detonated at the same time; and there was one right below Xu Ming!

boom! !

The destructive power instantly burned the “physicist” Xu Ming into nothingness.

However, at the moment when it turned into nothingness, Xu Ming realized a trace of the true meaning of “destruction” – this is the true meaning of destruction in the Heavenly Dao of Fire!

Xu Ming felt that the world around him had turned into white light again. After Bai Liang passed, a new scene began to be twisted and formed; the third cycle of reincarnation was about to begin!

“Me?” Xu Ming wondered, “I seem to be fine?”

The explosion of nuclear weapons, although the “physicist” Xu Ming was burned into nothingness, but the real Xu Ming took the opportunity to realize a trace of the true meaning of destruction in the heaven of fire!

Xu Ming found that his understanding of the Heavenly Dao of Fire had improved again!

“What’s going on?” Xu Ming was a little puzzled – the second reincarnation passed just like that?

A magnificent voice resounded in Xu Ming’s ears: “Hundreds of reincarnations test your heart; everything you see in reincarnation is actually based on some of your memories, evolved and generated!” It all contains the mysteries of the heavenly way that you are best at; after a hundred reincarnations, how much you can realize depends on you!”

“Mystery of the heavenly way that I am best at?”

The way of heaven that Xu Ming is best at is indeed the way of fire!

Although Xu Ming first realized that it was the way of the heavens of wind; however, he and the way of heavenly fire were “true love”!

“It seems that this seventh floor is the ‘welfare floor’!” Xu Ming thought to himself.

This is also normal.

After all, the opponent on the sixth floor is already the ultimate half-step Taoist of the “God’s Domain”; in the Endless Continent, it is almost impossible for a person of the Taoist level to be able to pass the sixth floor! If the seventh floor was stronger, it would be impossible for anyone to break through!

And since the ruined sword tower exists, it is natural to hope that someone can pass the test. Therefore, after passing through the sixth floor, the seventh floor will usher in “welfare”, which can greatly improve the strength of the soul and the perception of heaven. !

“continue!”

The third world of reincarnation gradually formed around Xu Ming.

Xu Ming’s identity is a champion who has returned home. The relatives and neighbors who had been indifferent to him in the past seemed to have suddenly become friends with him; even a young lady who once laughed at him “toads want to eat swan meat” looked at him in awe. Frequent, flirtatious, a gesture of letting you pick.

Xu Ming had an idea and walked up to this piece of “swan meat” and said with a smile, “Yesterday you ignored my love, but today I will let you down!”

After he finished speaking, surrounded by a group of guards, he turned around and left; only the outgoing and moving lady was left, who cried to tears.

Later, in this world full of power and conspiracy, Xu Ming fought openly and secretly all the way to dominate the world.

...

“It turns out that in the Heavenly Dao of Fire, there is not only ferocity, but also the truth of forbearance!”

A fire that burns red and vigorous is not necessarily the most violent fire. Those quiet cyan and white flames are often more terrifying than red flames!

The Heavenly Dao of Fire contains both ferocity and low-key; both destruction and creation...

In an instant, Xu Ming’s understanding of the Heavenly Dao of Fire became much deeper.

...

In the fourth reincarnation, Xu Ming came to a world of swords and magic and became a respected fire magician.

In the fifth cycle of reincarnation, Xu Ming became a beggar who was completely disabled.

...

In the eighteenth reincarnation, Xu Ming became the emperor.

During a hunting trip, an innocent girl shouted and asked him, “Your Majesty, do you still remember... Xia Yuhe by the Daming Lake?”

Chapter 589: Fall Into The Hole

When Xu Ming was caught in the cycle of reincarnation on the seventh floor, the demon clan had assembled more than a thousand masters to surround the entire Remnant Sword Pagoda.

Of the more than 1,000 demon masters, the weakest are all beginners at the half-step master level! And, in order to make sure nothing goes wrong, they also set up a huge trap!

“Humph!” Jiu Du thought confidently, “In this way, no matter how strong Xu Ming is, he will never be able to escape!”

“Demon Venerable Dove Poison.” Next to him, a giant tiger demon beast at the extreme half-step master level said with some dissatisfaction, “Isn’t it just Xu Ming? Is it worth us to recruit so much?”

Jiu Du glanced at it and sneered: “Isn’t there just one Xu Ming? – This Xu Ming can defeat the army led by Ruotian Demon Venerable, just based on this, it is worthy of our attention! Moreover, we don’t know, Xu Ming Does Ming have any other means; so, no matter how cautious you are, you can’t be too cautious! As long as... we can kill this genius of the ‘tens of millions’ of the human race, everything we do is worth it!”

There was disdain in the eyes of the giant tiger monster: “Our current lineup is enough to sweep the entire battlefield of ten thousand races! There is only one Xu Ming, as long as he shows his face, he will definitely be instantly killed by us!”

“Humph!” Jiu Du smiled noncommittally.

In fact, Jiu Du also felt that he was a little too cautious.

However, the assassination of the “ten million-year-old” genius of the family is too important! Now that I have finally found an opportunity, Jiu Du certainly does not dare to be careless at all—be cautious, there is nothing wrong with it, right?

“However...” Jiu Du was also a little puzzled, “I’ve been outside the Canned Sword Pagoda for more than ten days! This Xu Ming, why hasn’t he come out yet?”

On the seventh floor of the Canned Sword Pagoda, Xu Ming seemed to have experienced dozens of reincarnations; in fact, only ten days had passed.

“Isn’t the Canned Sword Tower only seven floors? If you win, you can win, and if you don’t win, you can’t win—do you need to stay in it for more than ten days?”

The information about the Canned Sword Pagoda is relatively sparse, so Jiu Du does not know that it is normal or abnormal to stay in the Canned Sword Pagoda for more than ten days.

“Could it be that Xu Ming had already died in the broken sword tower?” Jiu Du couldn’t help thinking, “If that’s the case, wouldn’t it be stupid for us to be foolishly surrounding here?”

After thinking for a while, Jiu Du called out a very fast bird monster and ordered, “Go back and check to see if Xu Ming is still alive!”

“Yes!” This big eagle with only a red head immediately flew towards the demon clan’s space channel.

...

At this time, the sword master also learned about Xu Ming’s situation from some special channels.

“Xu Ming is in trouble!” The sword master suddenly said solemnly.

“What’s wrong?” Zhan Wuwei, Elder Xuanqing and other human race greats even looked at the sword master.

The sword master said word by word: “Xu Ming, he... has entered the ruined sword tower!”

“Entering the Canned Sword Pagoda?” Zhan Wuwei and Elder Xuanqing looked at each other and said, “Isn’t this a good thing?”

“Entering the Canned Sword Pagoda is a very rare opportunity to practice, and it’s really a good thing! But...” the sword master said, his eyes gradually turned cold, “but... I just got the news, the dove poison of the demon clan, and thousands of others. The monster clan masters have now surrounded the Canned Sword Pagoda, and even set up a trap... just waiting for Xu Ming to come out!”

“What!?” Zhan Wuwei, Elder Xuanqing and other great powers were all shocked. “Then Xu Ming came out of the Cannon Sword Pagoda, didn’t he immediately fall into the siege of the demon clan?”

“That’s right!” The Sword Master’s face was very cold.

In their opinion, Xu Ming was caught in such a situation, it was a dead end!

“We can’t just watch Xu Ming fall into a dead end, we have to find a way to save him!” Zhan Wuwei shouted.

“Yeah!” Elder Xuanqing also said, “If Xu Ming is left to deal with this situation alone, he will definitely die! Moreover, Xu Ming is now in the Cannon Sword Pagoda, I am afraid he still does not know that he is surrounded by aliens. It’s gone!”

The sword master said coldly: “Xu Ming is a genius of our human race’s ‘tens of millions’ grades, and there is no room for failure! Immediately arrange for people to gather the Dao Zun army and kill the broken sword tower!”

“I’ll arrange it right away!” Zhan Wuwei said.

The sword master said again: “That’s not enough! -Xuanqing, you go back to the palace immediately and gather more masters at the half-step master level to enter the battlefield of ten thousand races!”

The environment of the Canned Sword Tomb is harsh and requires a half-step master level to move freely inside. Although there are tens of thousands of Taoist masters in the human race in the battlefield of ten thousand races, less than 10% of them reach the half-step master level!

Therefore, the sword master has to mobilize more half-step masters to enter the battlefield of all races!

“Okay!” Elder Xuanqing immediately walked away.

And Zhan Wuwei has also ordered the Dao Venerables who are on the ship at this time to immediately enter the battlefield of ten thousand clans and summon the masters of the half-step Dao Master level!

...

Outside the demon clan space channel.

Howling Demon Demigod touched its big belly, and sneered disdainfully in his mouth: “It is said that there have been a lot of masters gathered in the human race to kill the Sword Pagoda?”

“Yes!”

“Hum, fortunately, I’m already prepared!” Howling Demon Demigod sneered, “As long as the half-walk master army of the human race dares to appear near the Sword Pagoda; I have arranged for more than a thousand half-walk masters~ www.readwn.com~ will kill them and give them a double attack!”

“Howling Demon Demigod.” A top Taoist master on the side said cautiously, “The human race will definitely find a way to mobilize more half-step Taoist masters to enter the battlefield of ten thousand races! Look... We arranged, will it not be enough? ”

The Howling Demon demigod smiled and said, “It’s really tiring to fight with the human race just from the words of our demon race! But, don’t forget the demon race and them... Go, pass the news to other races, and let them also Do your best!”

“Yes!”

“Haha...” The Howling Demon demigod smiled grimly, “It would be great if we could kill a large number of Half-step Daoists from the human race at the same time as hunting Xu Ming!”

Among the half-step Taoist masters, there are some who will be able to become Taoist masters in the future!

Killing a large number of half-step Taoists is equivalent to killing a lot of Taoists!

...

Demons.

In the eyes of Ruo Tongmo, a strange light flashed.

“Xu Ming, the ‘ten million-year-old’ genius of the human race, was surrounded by the monsters at the Canned Sword Tower? Moreover, the half-step Taoist army of the human race is about to rush over to rescue him?” Ruo Tongmo sneered, “It’s so lively. Why, how could we be without our demons? – Immediately arrange a half-step master team to help our demon allies in the past, and it can be considered a fun!”

...

Bloodlines.

“The demon clan invited us to hunt down the ‘ten million-year-old’ geniuses of the human race, and destroy the half-step road master army of the human race?—Humph! Our blood race was once a huge group that shook the endless continent; just because a **** appeared in the human race, kill our blood clan to decline! Tell the demon clan, as long as it can block the human clan, we will all participate!”

...

Crystal Race, Rock Life Alien Race, Eldar...

When they heard that they were looking for trouble for the human race, they all united to bring down the human race.

Chapter 590: Heart Of Reincarnation

Xu Ming, who was in the Cannon Sword Tower, was completely unaware of all the disturbances in the outside world.

At this point, Xu Ming has gone through ninety-nine reincarnations, and is about to usher in the last one of a hundred reincarnations!

During these ninety-nine reincarnations, Xu Ming experienced various identities: emperor, general, beggar, physicist, magician, sword immortal...

Every experience, Xu Ming seems to have spent his whole life.

Ninety-nine reincarnations are equivalent to ninety-nine lifetimes!

And so many experiences have also made Xu Ming look down on and see through many things; Xu Ming's state of mind seems to have a kind of detachment and open-mindedness of "seeing through everything".

Xu Ming's soul has become crystal clear! The strength of the soul is more than ten times stronger than that of a master of the same level!

Of course, what made Xu Ming gain the most was the improvement of his understanding of the Dao of Heaven!

Ninety-nine reincarnations, each time, gave Xu Ming a deeper understanding of the Heavenly Dao of Fire! Now, Xu Ming's understanding of the way of fire in the sky has been able to easily pass through the nineteenth floor of the Tongtian Tower; even if it is not far from passing through the twentieth floor!

In other words, Xu Ming did not resort to any other means, nor did he use plug-ins. Just relying on his understanding of the Heavenly Dao of Fire, he was already quite a formidable strength among the top half-step Daoists!

If he casually uses the Heavenly Dao of Wind and the Heavenly Dao of Water, his strength can easily be classified into the ultimate half-step master level!

If he uses his unparalleled mental power again...

You must know that the same Heavenly Dao perception, the stronger the spiritual power, the more terrifying the strength! -Xu Ming's mental power is more than ten times stronger than that of a master of the same level; if converted into combat power, it is enough to double Xu Ming's combat power!

And this... is still in the state that Xu Ming has not opened the plug-in!

As soon as the combat plug-in was activated, Xu Ming's strength soared a hundred times, enough to rival the five-step Taoist master!

Coupled with Xu Ming's self-created god-level marksmanship secret skills, it is not a problem to hold the Six-step Taoist head on!

and!

Xu Ming has other plug-ins to open! – As long as there is a hanging point, Xu Ming's strength has almost no upper limit!

In short, it can be summed up in two words – invincible!

and! and!

Xu Ming's independent space has been opened up, and relatives and friends have all moved to the independent space, where they are doing a lot of construction and construction; even the entire Kingdom of Palm God is migrating to the independent space in an orderly manner! —Xu Ming, there is almost no worries!

If Xu Ming had any worries, it would be the human race!

However, Xu Ming does not need to worry about the situation of the ethnic group for the time being; the demigods such as Sword Master and Jitian Palace Master, as well as top Taoist masters such as Zhan Wuwei, Ye Tianhun, and General Jingyu will protect the ethnic group!

“The last reincarnation!”

The scene of the hundredth reincarnation gradually became clear around Xu Ming.

This time, Xu Ming was surprised to find that he did not pass through, but used his own strength to meet the enemy! And his opponent is also “himself”.

“Fight yourself?”

Xu Ming was surprised.

At this time, the magnificent voice sounded again: “What you are facing now is your own inner demon! If you defeat him, you can dispel the inner demon; if you lose the battle, your soul will fly away...”

Spirited away?

Xu Ming was not worried.

Even if the soul is scattered, it is just this clone. His deity will not be affected.

“Jie Jie Jie Jie...”

The appearance of the demon and Xu Ming are exactly the same; the only difference is that deep in the eyes of the demon, there is a terrifying aura that seems to devour Xu Ming.

At this moment, the inner demon was clawing its teeth and claws, waiting for an opportunity to pounce on Xu Ming.

However, Xu Ming's attention was on the plug-in: "Hey... the plug-in can be used again!"

Now that the plug-in can be used, Xu Ming doesn't care about it at all.

"Check it out!"

During this investigation, Xu Ming discovered that his inner demons had reached the level of Taoist masters! -Although it is only a one-step Taoist, it is also the real Taoist strength!

"Damn it, my inner demon is so powerful!?"

However, Xu Ming didn't know that the inner demons that he had experienced in the ninety-nine reincarnations before, all merged in it! Therefore, it is not surprising that the inner demon is powerful!

"Fortunately, it can be opened, otherwise, it would be really difficult to kill this demon!"

Now I can hang up, this "be careful devil"...

Snapped!

Xu Ming slapped it with a slap and turned the demon into scum.

Xu Ming clapped the dust on his hands: "Easy to kill!"

The avatar and the deity have the same mind, the inner demon of the avatar is killed, and the inner demon of the deity naturally ceases to exist.

And at the moment of killing the demon, Xu Ming suddenly had a hint of enlightenment in his heart.

All the scenes experienced in the ninety-nine reincarnations, at this moment, frantically flocked to Xu Ming.

Xu Ming's body is like a huge vortex, all the reincarnation scenes and all the fragments of the world are rolled upside down to the depths of his "mind".

The mind is not a sea of consciousness, but a more ethereal existence!

It's so ethereal that even the Dao Venerable and even the Dao Master can hardly feel the "mind" and the "power of the mind".

It can be said that the mind is the true essence of a person! The soul is just a person's "underwear"; the flesh is a person's "coat".

Mind, soul, and body form a complete "person"! – This is how most species are constructed.

Of course, there are also some special species, such as "Spiritual Race", which have only mind and soul, but no body; such as some metal life, rock life, only mind and body, but no soul; such as "phantom race", which is extremely rare in God's Domain, neither soul nor body, but mind...

However, no matter what species it is, there is definitely a "mind" that exists. Because the mind is the essence of life!

And now, Xu Ming has realized the power of the essence of life!

"Is this the mind?"

For the first time, Xu Ming felt his own "mind", but he didn't feel it very clearly, it seemed real and illusory, and...it seemed to be extremely weak.

"Xiaohang, isn't my mind much stronger than that of ordinary people?"

If you don't know anything, ask Xiaohang.

“Your mental strength is close to seven times that of a Martial Artist who has practiced one turn!” Xiaohang gave a more accurate number.

“Ah? Only seven times?”

You must know that with Xu Ming's current strength, he can easily kill millions and tens of millions of ordinary warriors with a wave of his hand! But even so, Xu Ming's spiritual strength is only seven times that of the weakest rank-one martial artist...

To be precise, less than seven times.

This made Xu Ming sigh with emotion: “The gap is really small!”

The difference is small and normal.

Without the achievement of true gods, the mind will be very weak.

Only when a true ***** is achieved can the soul be great!

At this time, Xu Ming finally understood why the obsession left by “Xu Ming” after his death had such a terrifying binding force on him—because it was a powerful force that came from the very essence of life!

If you don't rest your eyes, you will naturally leave obsessions.

It's just that ordinary people die when they die, and even if their minds are obsessed, they can only die silently. It is only those who are particularly obsessed that there may be situations such as “deceitful corpses”.

And after the death of “Xu Ming”, there was still a strong obsession in the depths of his heart, and he just happened to encounter Xu Ming and came from crossing-this is Xu Ming's suffering.

Xu Ming also saw that there was a vortex circling around his weak mind, which seemed like an illusion. This was the vortex that Xu Ming had just created when he was enlightened.

With this layer of vortex, Xu Ming's mind seemed to be covered with a shield.

“Congratulations, you have realized the heart of reincarnation!”

A magnificent voice sounded in Xu Ming's ear.
