

A World 641

Chapter 641: Domineering

Metal, wood, earth, yin, and yang, these five heavenly Dao, although they have just planted Dao seed, there is no profound understanding; however, no matter how small mosquitoes are, they are still meat, and Xu Ming's strength is still slightly improved. of!

“The Nine-step Daoist!”

Xu Ming felt his own strength.

After the enlightenment of Heavenly Dao is improved, his human avatar, in the open state, can burst into the strength comparable to the nine-step Daoist master!

And the willow avatar is undoubtedly stronger!

Moreover, the biggest advantage of refining the Dao Spirit Fruit is that it will be much easier and smoother when you realize the way of heaven in the future. In comparison, the strength improvement in front of him seems insignificant.

“It's amazing to grow Taoist fruit!”

Xu Ming has no idea how many times he has expressed such emotion.

Looking at the leopard in the tube, you can see it – from the magic of this kind of spiritual fruit, you can also imagine how mysterious the realm of the gods will be!

“God's Realm...” Suddenly, Xu Ming had some curiosity and longing for the unknown and mysterious God's Realm, “If there is a chance, I must go to the God's Realm and explore!”

The Endless Continent is already very vast; but Xu Ming knows when he thinks about it with his toes, the Divine Realm must be even more vast!

This world is full of endless mysteries, waiting for Xu Ming to explore.

“Hanmo!” Xu Ming flashed and appeared in front of Gu Hanmo, “I have refined a kind of Taoist fruit, and then, let me help you refine it together!”

Gu Hanmo frowned beautifully: “Xu Ming, don’t lie to me! A person can really only refine one seedling fruit?”

“Really! It’s absolutely true!” Xu Ming knew that Gu Hanmo wanted to save himself another Dao Spirit Fruit, and even explained why eating too many Dao Spirit Fruit was ineffective.

After all, he finally persuaded Gu Hanmo to refine the seedling fruit.

Xu Ming caressed Gu Hanmo’s head and said with a smile, “You have an average talent for cultivation. If you have any treasures that can improve your cultivation, you should use it more than me! – In this way, we can grow old together; grow old earlier than me...”

Gu Hanmo was a little moved, and was about to shed tears of happiness when she suddenly changed her face and snorted angrily, “Xu Ming, you’ve made it clear – who is average in cultivation? Who is average in cultivation?”

“Forehead...”

In the face of “furious” Gu Hanmo, Xu Ming was speechless.

“Humph!” Gu Hanmo smugly waved his pink fist, “Be careful next time you speak! When my sister was young, her cultivation talent was also very outstanding! Later, when I got married, in order to manage the housework, to take care of you, and to take care of you, my cultivation slowed down. Yes!—Understood?”

“Got it, got it!” Xu Ming nodded sly, then a sly look flashed in his eyes, and his mouth shouted “sweetly”, “Sister, you are so right!”

“I...” Gu Hanmo suddenly became unhappy, “Who are you calling sister? You think I’m getting old, don’t you?”

The sound of playful chasing and beating only made Xu Ming hold his head and beg for mercy.

...

What Xu Ming didn't know was that the "Joint Assassination of Ten Thousand Clans" launched against him had already reached its final stage.

Wanxueyan, Ruotong Demon, Blood Sea Demon God and other superpowers of various races gathered together again.

"Wanxueyan, this assassination was carried out by your demon clan. Has the assassination been decided?" Ruotong's eyes flickered fiercely.

"It's already been decided!" Wan Xueyan said confidently, "The assassin is the one of my Shadow Alliance... tyrant to kill the Taoist!"

The Shadow Alliance is an organization among the demon clan that specializes in lurking and assassination. When the major alien races want to assassinate the race, they are often shot by the Shadow Alliance.

"Kill Daoist?"

"Is it actually shot by it?"

"Kill the Dao Master, but the Nine-step Dao Master! It's not far from breaking through to become an invincible Dao Master! – If it takes action, it is natural to be sure!"

The superpowers of the alien races, their perception of Xu Ming's strength was still at the time when Xu Ming slaughtered the half-step masters of all races. According to their judgment, Xu Ming's strength is at most the seven-step Taoist master, and there can be no more!

The judgments of the super-powers of various races are indeed very accurate – at that time, Xu Ming's strength in the open state was indeed only the seven-step Taoist master!

To dispatch a nine-step Taoist master to assassinate a seven-step Taoist master is already a bit like killing a chicken with a knife! However, the assassination of Xu Ming should not be missed; Wan Xueyan felt that this “cow knife” should be taken out!

only...

What the superpowers such as Wanxueyan didn't know was that their news about Xu Ming was seriously behind! – Now, Xu Ming's human avatars are comparable to the nine-step Taoist master; willow avatars are even more comparable to the invincible Taoist master!

Send the “tyrant killer” of the nine-step Taoist master to assassinate the invincible Taoist Xu Ming?

How can I vaguely feel that Wanxueyan is sending his men to die...

But... the superpowers of the various foreign races don't think so. In their opinion, Xu Ming is almost certain to die if the tyrant Daoist is responsible for the assassination!

“However, I still need the help of all your clans!” Wan Xueyan said again, “At that time, after the successful assassination of the ‘tyrant killer’, he will definitely be intercepted by the human race! I need you to join me, Corresponding to the ‘tyrant kill’!”

“it is good!”

“It's natural!”

Ruo Tongmo and other great powers of various races responded in succession.

“We are on the edge of the human race territory, let's come back with the ‘tyrant killing’!” Wan Xueyan said.

The powers such as Wanxueyan did not dare to easily penetrate into the depths of the human race.

Infiltrating the territory of the human race is risky! If his whereabouts are revealed and he is besieged by the human race, it will be a tragedy! – This kind of dangerous work, the demigods of all races, generally do not do it.

After talking about some details of the assassination, it's time to talk about the "price".

"This assassination is the responsibility of our demon clan. In order to let the tyrant kill, our demon clan paid the price of a 'fire source stone'!" Wan Xueyan said all of you, What kind of compensation are you going to give us? "

"If Ba Sha can return smoothly, our major ethnic groups are willing to collect 20 lower half artifacts as compensation for your demon clan!" Ruotong Mo said, "And if Ba Sha unfortunately dies, our major ethnic groups, I would like to collect a hundred lower half artifacts!"

A hundred lower half artifacts, even if all of them are of the attack type, the value is close to that of a ship class lower half artifact!

"Ha!" Wan Xueyan laughed dumbly, "Are you sending beggars? – Or, you don't know the value of the 'Fire Origin Stone'?"

"Of course we know the value of the fire source stone!" Ruotong said, "However, after consuming a fire source stone and training it, isn't it still a master of your demon clan?"

"Don't talk nonsense!" Wan Xueyan snorted directly, "If Ba Sha can return safely, your major ethnic groups will give out fifty medium and semi-artifacts! If it unfortunately dies, you will give out two hundred medium and semi-artifacts! – That's it! If you don't agree, the assassination of Xu Ming will be done by you!"

Wan Xueyan's tone is so tough, it's actually a bargaining strategy.

"Wan Xueyan, are you robbery?" Ruo Tongmo widened his eyes and exclaimed exaggeratedly.

In the end, after some bargaining, the assassination of Xu Ming was still the responsibility of the demon clan. If Tyrannical Daoist returns safely, the major ethnic groups will collect 20 medium and semi-artifacts to give to the demon clan; if Tyrannical Daoist dies, they will give out 100 medium and half-artifacts.

"Humph!" Wan Xue snorted slightly proudly in his heart.

For this price, it is quite satisfactory.

However, what Wan Xueyan couldn't imagine was that because of this assassination, the price they paid by the demon clan in their revenge after Xu Ming was far more than the value of a hundred medium and semi-artifacts!

Chapter 642: I Want To Sell Myself

The speed at which Gu Hanmo refines the seedling fruit is much slower than Xu Ming.

A full month has passed, and she has not been able to completely refine the seedling fruit.

This is normal.

Gu Hanmo's talent, although in the Wilderness Sect area, is absolutely top. However, in the entire lake island territory, it is relatively mediocre.

And the territory of Lake Heart Island, among the 3,600 territories of the human race, is only a small territory ranked at the bottom of the stream.

To be honest, with Gu Hanmo's talent, under normal circumstances, it would be difficult for her to even participate in the banquet—of course, now that Xu Ming has provided Gu Hanmo with a lot of training resources, attending the banquet is naturally not a problem.

And Xu Ming is the first genius in the history of the human race!

Gu Hanmo, how can he compare his talent with Xu Ming?

Xu Ming looked at Gu Hanmo who was cultivating with some anxiety, and thought a lot in his heart.

"I am destined to become a * in the future! After becoming a god, I will transcend life and death and have an endless lifespan..." Xu Ming's thoughts were flying, "And with Han Mo's talent, I want to become a god... At least now, I think There is no hope!"

If Xu Ming became a god, but Gu Hanmo did not become a god; then, Xu Ming would only be able to watch Gu Hanmo age and die—what kind of painful feeling would this be?

“No – absolutely not!” Xu Ming roared in his heart, “I must let Han Mo be with me and transcend life and death!”

Hold the hand of the child, grow old with the child!

These words are not just words!

As long as Xu Ming is not old, then he will not allow Gu Hanmo to grow old!

“Listen to Yin Ran, in the realm of the gods, there is even a kind of ‘Daoist Fruit’ that is even more divine than planting the Taoist fruit! Eat one and directly prove the Taoism and become a god...” Xu Ming thought to himself, “If I can get it The fruit of proving the Tao will allow Han Mo to live with me forever!”

Xu Ming felt that the heavy responsibility on his shoulders was heavy!

Although it is heavy, Xu Ming must do it!

“It’s just... The fruit of the Taoism, I have only heard of it from Yin Ran’s mouth! There is no record even in the ancient books of the Human Race God’s Book Pavilion... Can I really get the fruit of the Taoism?”

At this moment, even Xu Ming felt a little confused.

God’s Domain, to him, is still too mysterious!

It’s so mysterious that you can’t find the slightest clue.

“Oh, I don’t want to!” Xu Ming shook his head, “In any case, I will go to the God’s Domain in the future! Just let me know where there is the fruit of proving the Tao, even if I use all the means, I will get it!”

It's just that Xu Ming couldn't help but worry, what incredible methods would the powers of God's Domain have?

For example, if your "teleportation" hang and "absolute stealth" hang, will you be easily seen by those great experts after you arrive at God's Domain?

Although Xu Ming was full of confidence in the external link, he still held a trace of reverence for the unknown domain of the gods.

The answers to all these will only be known after Xu Ming goes to the God's Domain.

actually...

All these thoughts of Xu Ming are completely unfounded!

The realm of the gods is indeed vast and mysterious. However, Xu Ming's plug-in is even more mysterious!

Even if all the treasures of God's Domain are added together, the value is not as good as a drop in the bucket! -Xu Ming's plug-in is so awesome! However, Xu Ming himself did not know.

"Um?"

Suddenly, Xu Ming's mind moved. He found that Gu Hanmo's refining of the Dao Spirit Fruit had reached the final stage.

"A lot faster than I thought!"

Xu Ming originally thought that it would take Gu Hanmo a year to completely refine the seedling fruit. And now, it's ten times faster! – This speed was beyond Xu Ming's expectations.

It was so fast that Xu Ming was a little... inexplicable.

However, refining quickly is a good thing. Therefore, Xu Ming didn't think much about whether Gu Hanmo had any secrets.

"Han Mo, how are you feeling now?" Xu Ming asked with concern.

"It feels..." Gu Hanmo's eyes were so clear that it could make people sink, "Excellent!—This kind of Dao Lingguo is really amazing!"

Gu Hanmo has never comprehended the tiniest bit of the Dao of Heaven, but now, he has directly planted the seeds of the Nine Dao of Heaven. Moreover, he has an extremely solid grasp of the foundation of the mysteries of the Dao of Heaven!

"I think the power I control... is so powerful!" Gu Hanmo said weakly.

Of course strong!

You must know that Gu Hanmo was originally just an ordinary spiritual cultivator; but now, he has reached the level of a step-dao monarch on the nine heavenly realms! – Can you be strong?

The speed of this rapid progress is simply much faster than Xu Ming at the beginning!

"Your strength is soaring, you may not be able to adapt!" Xu Ming said, "Now you need to get used to your own strength, and then go out!"

"Okay!" Gu Hanmo said.

...

Xu Ming's deity always accompanied Gu Hanmo.

And his two avatars are above the clouds in the independent space.

At this time, the clone of the willow tree, which is more than a hundred miles high, is full of golden brilliance from the top to the root; each of the billions of willow branches is the color of "local gold” – it is the clone of the willow tree, The “Golden Bead of Forging God” obtained in the underground labyrinth of refining.

Forging * gold beads are usually used by gods to temper the body!

Under the gods, only the top demigods, who are good at the physical aspect, dare to use it! Otherwise, the powerful energy contained in the Golden Bead of Forging God will burst the body.

As for Xu Ming’s willow avatar, it was only because of its size that he dared to use the Golden Bead of Forging God!

“This God-forging golden pearl is indeed a treasure used by the gods, it is indeed powerful!” Xu Ming’s human avatar looked at his willow tree avatar with great appreciation.

There is a heart-to-heart connection between several avatars.

The human avatar can completely feel what kind of earth-shaking changes are going on in the willow avatar’s body!

If the original wicker is regarded as the wicker of an ordinary willow tree; then, the now transformed wicker is “steel bar”!

“The physical strength of the willow avatar is comparable to that of an exalted weapon...”

Every willow branch is like a long whip of a high level!

Hundreds of millions of willow branches dance together This scene, thinking about it, makes people feel terrible!

Bang!

After the refining was completed, the “local gold” color of the willow avatar gradually converged. The entire willow tree was cloned back to its original appearance.

but...

They look the same, but they are fundamentally different!

Xu Ming even thought playfully: “When you’re short of money to spend, just fold a few wickers of your own and sell them!”

The texture of the wicker is comparable to that of a high-level long whip!

Moreover, each wicker is hundreds of miles long! That is to say, any piece of wicker can be made into hundreds of venerable long whips!

And the wicker of the willow tree clone is countless!

“If you think about it like this, my willow avatar is really valuable!” Xu Ming couldn’t help thinking, “I really want to sell my body to earn extra money...”

Chapter 643: 00,000 Miles Of Cause And Effect

“Xu Ming!”

Just when Xu Ming was thinking about whether to “sell out and get rich”, a voice came from the world ring.

Xu Ming’s mental power penetrated into the world ring: “Yin, has the poison on your body been cured?”

“Solution?” Yin Ran shook his head, “It’s still far from there! – If the blood jade is in good condition, there is still hope that the poison on my body will be eliminated. But the blood jade I got contains the essence. There is not much left, and it would be very good to relieve my toxicity!”

“Um...” Of course Xu Ming knew that most of the essence in the blood jade was absorbed by the big willow tree. The big willow tree was reduced to Xu Ming’s willow clone.

“It seems that if you want to help you detoxify, you have to keep looking for other treasures!” Xu Ming sighed.

“Come with me, go to the Eternal Demon Pit!” Yin Ran said, “According to my understanding, other places in your continent are very ordinary. However, this Eternal Demon Pit is very mysterious! – Maybe , where I can find a way to detoxify!”

“Okay!” Xu Ming had already received Yin Ran’s “deposit”, and of course he wanted to accompany her to find a way to detoxify.

Moreover, even if it wasn’t because of Yin Ran, Xu Ming had planned to go to the Eternal Demon Pit, which he had heard about for a long time, to see what kind of mysterious place it was.

“Where are we now?” Yin Ran was in Xu Ming’s world ring, so naturally he couldn’t know Xu Ming’s current position.

“You are in my secret realm!” Xu Ming said – the independent space is indeed similar to the secret realm.

“Wait a moment, I’ll do something and take you out!”

“it is good!”

After Xu Ming finished speaking, his mental power directly withdrew from the world ring.

Then, Xu Ming’s human avatar cooperated with the willow avatar to start... breaking the willow branches!

Breaking willow branches, of course, is not to sell oneself, but to leave some “genes” of willow clones.

After all, if Xu Ming’s human avatar hangs up outside, Xu Ming can regenerate his human avatar by simply pulling out his hair.

However, if the willow avatar hangs, if Xu Ming does not have the gene of the willow avatar, he will not be able to conceive again! Therefore, Xu Ming had to take precautionary measures and leave some willow branches in a separate space; in that way, even if the willow tree avatar hung up, it wouldn't matter.

...

Holy area.

Holy City.

After more than a month of hard work, Bai Lao finally set up a "causal formation" with a diameter of one million miles!

The causal formation with a diameter of one million miles is countless times more splendid than the causal formation with a diameter of 108,000 miles! The mighty force of cause and effect is constantly colliding and disillusioning inside.

Bai Lao Fushu smiled and looked at his proud work: "This huge causal formation is enough to help me pierce most of the causal isolation!"

With Bai Lao's achievements in causality, there are really not many causal isolations that even he can't pierce!

"Xiao Ran shouldn't be so unlucky, just randomly teleported to the causal isolation that even I can't spy on, right?"

As long as Yin Ran's position can be determined, with Lao Bai's strength, Yin Ran can easily be brought back.

"Old Bai, it's time to work!" The imposing middle-aged man said, "I will arrange the consumption of this karma formation, I will..."

"City Lord, it's boring to say these things!" Bai Lao laughed, "It's just a one-time karma formation, I can still afford it! – If you want to arrange a permanent million-mile karma formation, then I really I will charge you for consumption!"

The middle-aged man bowed his hands and did not continue to delve into this issue.

After all, in their identities, if they are pushed around because of this “little money”, it will appear worthless.

“I’m going first!”

Bai Lao said aloud, stepped directly into the great formation, and disappeared in the dreamlike ocean of cause and effect.

Immediately, the boundless force of cause and effect formed a vortex and rushed towards Bai Lao.

boom!

A beam of light ten times thicker than last time shot out from the top of the white old man’s head and penetrated the sky!

hum...

With Bai Lao as the center, an invisible but domineering force of causal investigation directly covered the entire God’s Domain, and quickly spread beyond the God’s Domain.

When this force of causal exploration touches some causal isolated places, it will turn into a needle shape and stab it directly.

Most of the causal isolation was pierced by Bai Lao without any resistance.

Of course, there are also hard bones to crack.

“Huh? What a tough causal isolation!”

When encountering this kind of tough causal isolation, most of the results are that after Bai Lao stabbed a few times, he failed to pierce and had to return without success.

puff! puff! puff! puff! ...

Countless places where cause and effect were isolated were forcibly stabbed by Old Bai.

The situation inside the place where the cause and effect is isolated is also clearly seen by Bai Lao!
– Of course, with the respected identity of Bai Lao, he doesn't bother to spy on other people's secrets at all; the power of causal investigation is only swept away in it.

“No!”

“No!”

...

How vast is the realm of the gods!

In the Divine Realm, there are so many places where cause and effect are isolated, there are so many stars in the sky, it is impossible to count!

Bai Lao's causal power swept across the entire Divine Realm, and instantly spied into millions, tens of millions, and even hundreds of millions of causal isolated places.

but!

There was no trace of Yin Ran.

“nothing...”

The entire God's Domain, the isolated place of cause and effect that can be probed, has been probed by Old Bai. What cannot be probed only accounts for a very small part – of course, this very small part is also a huge number that cannot be counted!

“Continue to explore beyond God’s Domain!”

hum...

The invisible but domineering power of cause and effect continues to sweep through other worlds outside the God’s Domain.

Of course, it also swept the endless continent where Xu Ming was located. However, all the creatures on the Endless Continent were not aware of the arrival of this vast and mysterious force of cause and effect.

“Huh? In this small world, there are places where cause and effect are isolated!”

Old Bai was a little surprised.

Immediately, Old Bai’s causal power condensed into a needle shape and stabbed into the... Eternal Demon Pit!

However, the stab can’t go in!

“It’s so tough!?” Bai Lao was slightly moved.

But then, Bai Lao directly skipped this place of causal isolation – there are too many causal isolation places that cannot be pierced; Bai Lao has no time to grind past them one by one.

Whoa!

The majestic power of causality only stayed in the endless continent for a moment, and then swept to other worlds.

And from start to finish...

Bai Lao did not discover the existence of independent space at all! – You can't even find out, let alone probe anything.

And just after the power of karma left the Endless Continent, Xu Ming's human clone came out of the independent space and returned to the Endless Continent.

In the world ring carried by the clone, Yin Ran and Willow clones are all inside.

Chapter 644: 2 Ha

As soon as Xu Ming came out, he was stunned by the scene in front of him.

“This Nima!” Xu Ming stared at him in a stunned manner.

On the top of the Wilderness Mountain, there was a huge human-shaped statue 3,600 meters high – exactly the tall image of Xu Ming.

The statue of Xu Ming, carved from a whole piece of glazed golden body jade, stands proudly with his hands behind his back, his expression is indifferent, but he is so powerful that he looks at the world. A special temperament that belonged to the palm  alone rushed towards him.

The whole statue, in the sun, shone brightly, shining with a vast golden light.

Moreover, after absorbing sunlight during the day, the glazed golden body and jade statue will still glow at night.

People in the entire wild mountain range, whether in the daytime or at night, can look up and see the statue of Xu Ming, the palm god.

Those believers of the Palm God Alliance who regard Xu Ming as a “spiritual belief” may worship the Palm God sculpture anytime and anywhere when they have a whim.

“Damn it, these little  are moving too fast!” Xu Ming cursed inwardly.

Of course Xu Ming guessed that this statue was the work of the top leaders of the Palm God Alliance such as No. 2 and Zhang Kuang.

“Such a large piece of glazed golden body jade was found within a month, and it was carved...”

Xu Ming had to sigh with emotion, the power of fans is really powerful!

“However, wouldn’t this be a little too high-profile?” Xu Ming couldn’t help but think a little shyly.

“Brother Ming!”

“Brother Ming!”

No. 2 and the others soon discovered Xu Ming’s arrival and shouted respectfully.

“No. 2!” Xu Ming said speechlessly, “Isn’t it telling you not to build statues? Why do you still want to build them?”

No. 2 laughed and said, “It’s my fault! Brother Ming, please punish!”

Punishment?

How can Xu Ming be punished for this?

“Fuck off!” Xu Ming said angrily.

“Hey, yes!” No. 2 rolled away sullenly.

Xu Ming couldn’t help pondering: “What about this statue? Putting it here, it feels really too high-profile...”

“Host!” Xiaohang reminded at this time, “This statue is of great benefit to improving the host’s luck. I suggest the host not to hide this statue.”

“Oh?” Xu Ming was surprised, “Can you improve your luck?”

Luck, ethereal nothingness.

Xu Ming actually didn’t know what the use of luck was. I only know that the higher the luck, the better!

People with great luck seem to be loved by heaven and earth.

“Unexpectedly, on the 2nd, they built a statue for me by mistake, and it even helped me improve my luck!”

Since it was of great benefit to him, Xu Ming naturally did not intend to move the statue.

Although, a little high-profile.

“Okay, I have something to go out, so please do it first!”

Xu Ming slowly rose into the air and was about to fly away when suddenly, he felt an inexplicable heart palpitation.

“What’s the situation!?” Xu Ming was suddenly alert.

I saw two huge blood-colored pupils suddenly appeared in the void in front of him.

Pupils are domineering and ruthless.

“Huh?” Xu Ming couldn’t help but shuddered – Alien!

The aliens dare to sneak into the territory of the human race?

Xu Ming thought about it a lot, and the whole person quickly flew away into the distance.

He fled without a fight, not because he was afraid of this unknown alien race, but because he didn't want the war to spread to the Wilderness Sect.

After all, a battle at this level of Xu Ming, if it spreads out a little, would be a disaster for the entire Wilderness Sect area!

At the same time, a nameless anger rose up in Xu Ming's heart: "How dare you go to the Wilderness Sect to assassinate me... If I am a little careless, my friends, won't they suffer because of me?"

"Kill!" Xu Ming's chest boiled with killing intent!

call out!

At this moment, two blood-colored mental attacks shot out from the two huge blood-colored pupils, hitting Xu Ming in an instant.

"Die!" The blood-colored pupils were expecting and insane.

Almost at the same time, a wave of exploration from the "Questioning Mirror" instantly covered the entire Wilderness Sect area.

On the ninety-ninth floor of the Taoist Palace, the treasure of the town's clan, "Ask the Sky Mirror", sent a message to the great power of the entire human race: "The demon clan, tyrannizing the Taoist master, sneaked into the territory of Huxin Island and the wild sect area, and is assassinating. Xu Ming, hurry to support!"

In an instant, many human powers received this message.

"Ba Killer dares to sneak into the territory of my human race!?"

"court death!"

"Can't let it go!"

boom!

boom!

boom!

boom!

A powerful momentum rose into the sky in every part of the 3,600 Terran Territory.

Near the territory of Huxin Island, a Taoist master, one after another, tore apart the space and rushed towards the Wilderness Sect area.

Several human race demigods who were relatively close also quickly killed them.

As for the other demigods and Taoists who were farther away, there were quite a few, who got into the cracks in space to find out if there were alien powers and where they were lurking to meet them.

As soon as the assassination of the demon race was launched, the entire human race immediately reacted.

This is also why, there are very few monsters who dare to sneak into the territory of the human race to assassinate – there is “asking mirror”, and the human race’s response is too fast! If you sneak into the human race, it is easy to be besieged and killed by the human race!

...

call out!

At this time, Xu Ming was already under the mental attack of the alien race!

“Humph!” Xu Ming snorted softly.

He just wanted to say – what a weak mental attack!

Obviously, the other party is not good at mental attack.

At the same time, Xu Ming also received a subpoena from Wentian Mingjing.

“Kill Daoist?”

This name is really domineering!

Xu Ming didn’t stop at all, and quickly flew into the distance. At the same time, Xu Ming observed secretly, wanting to see what kind of domineering existence this tyrannical Daoist was.

wow—

The two huge blood-colored pupils in the void gradually dissipated.

A black monster full of murderous aura stepped out from the void.

“Um?”

However, seeing the image of this black monster, Xu Ming was stunned: “Is this the tyrant killing the Taoist?”

Xu Ming couldn’t help rubbing his eyes – what he saw was clearly a * long-haired dog.

In the eyes of this big dog, although the murderous intent was leaking, it was also... stupid. Its appearance is very similar to the “Erha” that Xu Ming is familiar with!

exactly...

This is a “two ha”!

I have cultivated to the second ha of the nine-step Taoist master!

This Erha is famous in the Shadow Alliance, and even in the entire Monster Race. After all... even a dog has cultivated to the nine-step Taoist master, if you can't cultivate, isn't even a dog inferior?

"Killing the Daoist, it turned out to be one two ha..." Xu Ming was speechless.

He felt that the "assassin" sent by the demon clan was too casual and disrespectful to him!

Just let a dog over and you want to assassinate me?

"Wang woo-"

The domineering Taoist roared with murderous intent: "Humans, suffer!"

call out!

Erha instantly turned into a black lightning bolt and rushed towards Xu Ming.

"Humph!"

Xu Ming snorted coldly and tore open a space crack: "If you want to kill me, come and fight in the space crack!"

After speaking, Xu Ming dodged and got into the space crack.

Fighting in the space cracks will have less impact on the outside world.

"Wang woo! Don't run away!" Er Ha thought Xu Ming was going to run away, so he flew quickly and chased into the rapidly shrinking space crack.

Chapter 645: So Cute!

In the space crack, Xu Ming and Er Ha, one after the other, fleeing and chasing.

“Human, don’t run away! Stand still and die!” Erha’s eyes of the pair of dogs were filled with murderous and stupid salvos.

“Stupid Wang!” Xu Ming scolded coldly.

Erha’s dog eyes suddenly became round: “What did you say? Who are you calling stupid?”

Xu Ming couldn’t stop sneering: “You made me suffer, you said, is it possible for me not to escape?”

“Hmph, it’s no use running away!” Erha shouted murderously.

And the distance between it and Xu Ming is also shortening rapidly.

It’s not that Erha’s speed is too fast, but Xu Ming... deliberately slowed down.

Er Ha chased closer and closer, and even roared excitedly: “Wang Wu!!”

Just when its dog paws were about to photograph Xu Ming; Xu Ming’s eyes exploded, and he turned into a carbine.

“Reincarnation black hole!”

The first form of the god-level secret technique “Reincarnation Disruption” – Reincarnation Black Hole!

“Wang woo?” Er Ha was startled, but his reaction was not slow, and he quickly flew back.

boom!

The terrifying black hole of reincarnation appeared instantly.

However, Erha reacted quickly, so he was not directly hit by the gun, but was scratched by the edge of the black hole of reincarnation, and he was not injured.

“Humans are really shameless, they even play sneak attacks!” Erha roared.

“Ha!” Xu Ming couldn’t help laughing, “Sneak attack? – Then what is it that you come to assassinate me?”

“Stop talking nonsense, you will die today!” Erha killed again.

And Xu Ming, of course, did not show weakness.

Erha Daoist, oh, no, killing Daoist, is it very powerful?

“kill!”

Xu Ming’s spear marched forward mightily.

“I really don’t know whether to live or die!” Erha’s dog nose snorted coldly, “The mere seven-step Taoist master, dare to confront me!?”

According to the information Erha obtained, Xu Ming was the master of the Seven Steps.

To deal with a seven-step Taoist master, Erha is of course not afraid.

“die!”

boom! boom! boom! boom! ...

The terrifying collision continued to explode in the cracks in space.

Fortunately, these collisions all happened in the cracks in space; if it happened in the outside world, then the shock wave generated by the collision might be enough to raze the Wilderness Sect area to the ground.

But even so, the warriors in the entire Wilderness Sect area could hear the muffled thunder smashing down from the sky, oppressing their hearts—the sound of muffled thunder spread over millions of miles, it was Xu Ming and Erha who were there. The sound of collision in the space crack came out.

In just a moment, the two sides did not know how many times they had collided.

“This Xu Ming is really the seven-step Taoist master?” Erha became more and more frightened as he fought, “I Wang! Whose seven-step Taoist master is so powerful!? – This is clearly the nine-step Taoist master, right? The strength is not inferior at all. to me!”

“Pit!”

Erha wanted to cry but had no tears: “The lord of the alliance pits me!”

The head of the Shadow Alliance, Wanxueyan, was a demigod, and he clearly told him that Xu Ming was the master of the Seven Steps. Therefore, Erha accepted this high-risk mission for the sake of the Origin Stone.

But now, Erha tragically discovered that the target of the assassination was a Nine-step Daoist whose strength was not inferior to it at all.

This is embarrassing!

“Is the alliance leader deliberately trying to kill me?” Erha couldn’t help but wonder.

Of course, Erha knew that if Wanxueyan really wanted it to die, he would probably kill it directly, it wouldn’t be so troublesome at all.

“If the leader of the alliance didn’t deliberately trick me, then... the information is wrong!”

As an “assassin”, Erha discovered that the information was wrong when he was carrying out the mission – how painful this is, one can imagine it!

However, the overbearing Daoist “Er Ha”, who has shaken the Endless Continent for so many years, is not just because of its stupidity; its strength is also very terrifying! -Under the full blast, it is even close to the invincible Taoist!

“You have to work hard!” Daoist Erha suddenly looked solemn.

Of course, no matter how serious it looks, it is still a foolish dude.

boom!

Around Daoist Erha, thousands of black phantoms suddenly appeared in layers.

“Wang!!”

Dao Master Erha roared, and thousands of black phantoms all blasted towards Xu Ming.

At this moment, Xu Ming had the illusion that he was being chased by thousands of dogs.

“I flash!”

Xu Ming’s figure quickly dodged to the side.

However, no matter how Xu Ming dodged, thousands of black phantoms always stuck to Xu Ming like dog-skin plaster.

“I rely on!”

Xu Ming had to stop and deal with these phantoms.

rumbling...

Xu Ming's long spear rolled past, and instantly defeated several phantoms. However, there were more phantoms that continued to pounce on Xu Ming, trying to bite him.

At the same time, the main body of Daoist Erha also rushed over with great interest, trying to bite Xu Ming.

"I'm going!"

This is the first time Xu Ming has faced the dilemma of being bitten by a dog since he traveled to another world. Moreover, the strength of this dog is still close to the existence of the invincible Taoist.

boom!

boom!

boom!

After Xu Ming blasted away many black phantoms with several shots in a row, he was finally powerless to resist—Xu Ming's human avatar, after all, was only a very ordinary Nine-step Taoist master; compared to Erha's "close to invincible Taoist master" strength, Slightly inferior.

"Fuck!" Xu Ming was angry.

Of course he couldn't accept it, he was going to be bitten by a dog.

"The willow clone, come out!"

Xu Ming's heart moved, and the world ring opened. Thousands of tough wicker sticks sticking straight out of the world ring.

boom! boom! boom! boom! ...

Thousands of wickers directly and tenaciously swept all the phantoms around.

Immediately afterwards, a large willow tree that was more than a hundred miles tall appeared in the sky.

“what is this!?”

Er Ha was so shocked that the eyes of the two dogs were rounded, their tails stood up, and the black hair all over their bodies exploded!

Before it could react, the endless willow branches formed a willow branch cage, besieging Erha.

During the whole process, Erha was completely dumbfounded—what the * is this...

“Help!”

This is Erha’s first reaction.

However, Er Ha was trapped in the willow branch’s cage, and all the communication was blocked by hundreds of millions of willow branches – it was impossible to send the news out!

Feeling the powerful and terrifying aura on the willow branches, Erha’s whole dog felt frightened and trembling.

“Am I here to assassinate or to die?”

Xu Ming’s figure also appeared in the Willow Branch Cage. Carrying a long spear, he looked at Daoist Erha with a playful face: “Very good? Do you still want to bite me?”

Erha Daozhu wants to cry but has no tears, it is not an assassination, it is simply sending sheep into the tiger’s mouth.

Inside the world ring, Yin Ran’s puzzled voice sounded: “Xu Ming, what happened? Why did you call the big willow tree out?”

Xu Ming said, “I ran into a dog and wanted to bite me, so I asked Liu Shu to come out and help!”

When he said this, Xu Ming felt a little dull on his face. After all, it’s a shame to beat a dog.

“Dog?” Yin Ran’s eyes lit up, “let me go out and see!”

“Okay!” Xu Ming also released Yin Ran from the world ring.

As soon as Yin Ran saw Erha, his eyes lit up: “So cute! Such a cute little dog!”

Chapter 646: You Are A Demigod!

At this moment, Daoist Erha’s heart is absolutely broken!

Originally, Erha heard that the mission was to assassinate the “Seven-step Daoist”, so he did it for the Origin Stone!

But as soon as they played against each other, it found out – I went, the news was wrong! The assassination target was not the Seven-step Daoist, but the Nine-step Daoist, not much weaker than it.

But what can be done?

Open the bow without turning back the arrow! The nine-step Taoist master is the nine-step Taoist! Fight!

However, at the beginning of the fight, a terrifying big willow tree was a god-like soldier – so scared that Erha’s hair was blown up!

Erha didn’t have time to react, so he was trapped in the willow branch’s cage.

Erha is very clear that the moment of life and death has come!

Therefore, Erha is also ready for the last stand!

But at this moment, a little girl from the human race suddenly appeared, looking at herself with bright eyes, praising herself as “cute”! – This made Erha completely collapsed!

“Cute?” Xu Ming was about to collapse.

He really can’t see what’s so cute about this Erha – it’s obviously stupid and fierce, right?

“Yin!” Xu Ming shouted, “Let’s join forces to fight quickly and kill it!”

“Huh!?” Daoist Erha immediately raised his tail vigilantly, ready to enter the battle state at any time.

“Kill it?” Yin Ran said in disbelief, “It’s so cute, how could you have the heart to kill it?”

“I...” Xu Ming was speechless, “Where is the cuteness? Why didn’t I see it?”

Yin Ran said excitedly: “You see its soft black hair and cute eyes, isn’t it cute? – I am in God... At home, I have a dog like this, and it looks very similar! However, Its strength is far worse than that of my family!”

Yin Ran has indeed raised an Erha in the Holy Emperor City of the Divine Realm. Moreover, that Erha has already become a god...

After all, in the realm of the gods, it is much easier to become a god!

“The supple black hair...the cute eyes...” Xu Ming was speechless.

Daoist Erha was stunned when he heard it, and then he became angry: “Stupid!? You dare to say that I am stupid!? – Shike can’t be humiliated! You can kill me, but you can’t humiliate me like this!”

“Okay, then I will kill you as you wish!” Xu Ming picked up his spear and was about to kill him.

The hundreds of millions of willow branches around are also ready to move, ready to strangle Erha at any time.

“Wang woo...” Seeing that Xu Ming was going to kill himself, Er Ha couldn’t help but flinch in fright – as Er Ha, although he looked “fierce”, he was actually very timid.

“Don’t, don’t, don’t kill it!” Yin Ran urged quickly, “What a cute one! Why do you want to kill it, I’m going to adopt it!”

Adoption?

Xu Ming said speechlessly: “This Erha has the strength to be close to the invincible Daoist! – How do you adopt it?”

If you want to adopt, unless you enslave this Erha soul first!

However, soul enslavement requires a huge disparity in strength before it can be successful!

Xu Ming remembered that Yin Ran only had the strength of the Eight-step Daoist, not as good as Erha! – How to enslave?

“Adopt?” Erha’s cute eyes also flashed a trace of panic, “You...what do you want to do? You want your soul to enslave me!?”

Immediately, Erha laughed arrogantly: “Wangwangwangwanghaha... I’m the master of the Nine Steps! Just by you, I want to enslave me with my soul? – Who do you think you are?

A mysterious smile appeared at the corner of Yin Ran’s mouth, and he laughed so hard that he became hairy.

“If it’s another monster, I really can’t enslave the soul! But, the puppy...” Yin Ran said, “Xu Ming, wait a moment, you can help me control it, and I’ll use the soul enslavement! ”

Xu Ming said in disbelief, “Is it really possible?”

“Don’t worry!” Yin Ran was full of confidence.

“Then... Okay!” Xu Ming thought about it, Yin Ran was from God’s Domain, and he should have some special means. Moreover, if there is not enough confidence, Yin Ran may not choose soul slavery.

“Then I’ll control it first!”

boom!

Xu Ming kicked in the void at his feet, and the long spear blasted at it angrily!

“Reincarnation black hole!”

One trick is fresh, eat all over the sky.

Another god-level gun  back to the black hole!

“Wang woo!” Er Ha roared, roaring, turning into thousands of phantoms that were stacked on top of each other, also killing Xu Ming.

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

...

Countless willow branches flew out from all directions of the willow branch cage, entwining towards Master Erha.

boom!

In a head-to-head collision, Xu Ming and Daoist Erha were both knocked backwards and flew back.

Bang!

When Xu Ming flew back, he was easily caught by the rattan net made of thousands of wicker sticks. Xu Ming was lying on the rattan net, enjoying himself very comfortably.

And Daoist Erha was not so lucky! – When it flew back upside down, countless wicker sticks wrapped around it directly, wrapping it into a silkworm cocoon. Only one dog's head was left, exposed and immobile.

“Wang! Wang! Wang! Wang! Let me go! Let me go!” Erha barked and struggled.

However, every willow branch of the willow avatar is as tough as a venerable long whip. Thousands of willow branches are wrapped in a ball, it is simply an “iron egg”!

No matter how hard Daoist Erha struggled, it was impossible to break free.

“Okay! It's tied up!” Xu Ming clapped his hands and said.

The strength of the willow avatar is one or two levels stronger than the human avatar. Now, the willow avatar has refined the God Forging Gold Pearl, and the strength is naturally even more terrifying, it is already a real demigod level!

Binding an Erha Daoist is naturally not difficult!

Yin Ran was surprised: “You really used the forging  gold beads for the willow tree? – The strength of this willow tree has improved a lot!”

“Hehe!” Xu Ming smiled slightly, “Next, I’ll leave it to you!”

“Wow, wang!” Erha barked and grinned, “If you want your soul to enslave me, don’t even think about it! – Even if I die, I won’t let your soul enslave!”

Yin Ran didn’t speak, but just threw a collar – it was a dog collar.

Daoist Erha was  and could not move, he could only watch the dog sling tuck into his neck.

“What is this!? What is this!?” Erha roared. But I don’t know why, being trapped by this dog, there is an inexplicable happiness in his heart; as if he feels that as a dog, he should be put on a dog trap!

“This is...” Yin Ran smiled strangely, and then, a mysterious spiritual attack attacked Erha.

Erhan’s “dumb and cute” eyes instantly became dull and empty.

After a while, a frantic struggle suddenly appeared in its eyes: “Don’t think about the soul enslaving me!”

Without any hesitation, Erha mobilized the power of his soul and wanted to commit suicide!

But at this time released a strange energy from the dog pen, suppressing its suicide.

“Can’t commit suicide!?” Erha’s face turned ashen.

Immediately, it looked at Yin Ran in horror: “You are a demigod! You are a demigod!?”

Er Ha never thought that an inconspicuous little human girl who appeared out of nowhere would have the strength of a demigod!

Demi god?

Yin Ran smiled noncommittally—the poisonous spirit fog in her body eased a little. Now, she can use less strength to suppress the poison, so she can exert the combat power of a demigod!

“The enslavement failed!” Yin Ran smiled indifferently, “If you fail once, then do it a second time, a third time...”

Anyway, Erha has been completely controlled; he can’t move, and he can’t commit suicide.

Yin Ran didn’t believe it, if he enslaved him a few more times, he would fail!

Chapter 647: 1 Must Be Low-Key!

“Go to sleep...”

“Go to sleep...”

“The world is so sinister and difficult, just sink into this fantasy world, enjoy it...”

“Stop struggling!”

“How tiring and futile the struggle is... Let go of the obsession, and it will be easy...”

“Fall down...”

Yin Ran’s illusion attack hit Erha like a tide.

Erha’s firm and silly eyes gradually became psychedelic. Its will is gradually lost in the ocean of illusion.

Unconsciously, Er Ha’s eyes towards Yin Ran began to become pious and fanatical.

Bang!

Suddenly, Erha's "dog body" was shocked, and he was finally completely lost in the enslavement of his soul.

"Master!" Erha looked at Yin Ran enthusiastically, and flattered his dog tongue.

"Let go of it!" Yin Ran said after feeling the spiritual bond between himself and Erha.

WOW WOW WOW...

The countless willow branches entwining Erha all retreated.

Er Ha wagged his tail and ran to Yin Ran with a flat face: "Master!"

"Good!" Yin Ran touched Erha's head, then turned to Xu Ming, "Look, how cute!"

Xu Ming was speechless: "If you don't have a soul to enslave it, if you touch it like this, believe it or not it bites you..."

After a pause, Xu Ming said again: "I estimate that the great power of my human race should be here soon! – Go back to the world ring first!"

"it is good!"

With a wave of Xu Ming's hand, Yin Ran, Erha, and Liu Shu's clones were all put into the world ring. He was the only one left, standing proudly in the turbulent flow of space.

After a while...

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

...

One by one, the great powers of the human race arrived from all directions. They are all holy masters of holy places, or leaders of top heaven-level forces.

“Xu Ming, are you alright?”

“Xu Ming, what about killing the Taoist master? Did you run away?”

One after another, all of them even asked.

Xu Ming thought for a while, and said indifferently: “I have killed the tyrant Daoist!”

Xu Ming didn’t say that the Dao Master, Erha, was actually enslaved. After all, enslavement is much harder than killing; speaking out, it will shock these powers even more.

Anyway, it was difficult for Wentian Mingjing to detect the situation in the space crack, so Xu Ming made up a lie, and no one knew whether what he said was true or not.

However, even though Xu Ming had tried his best to keep a low profile, the great powers of the clan were still shocked.

“Xu Ming, you said, you...killed the tyrannical Daoist!?” All the experts stared at Xu Ming in astonishment.

Domineering Daoist, but Nine-step Daoist! Moreover, the strength is already very close to the invincible Taoist – even if you face super experts like Zhan Wuwei and Ye Tianhun, you will not be killed so easily!

And Xu Ming, can actually kill the tyrant and kill the Taoist?

Xu Ming sighed silently in his heart—I tried my best to keep a low profile, but I still shocked them by accident... Really distressed!

Xu Ming had no choice but to continue editing: “I got a powerful treasure in the battlefield of ten thousand races, so I was able to kill it...”

“Oh...” After hearing Xu Ming’s explanation, all the great powers felt that it was acceptable. In their opinion, Xu Ming must have used foreign objects to successfully kill the tyrant and the Taoist; based on his own strength, he would definitely No way!

However, is Xu Ming really unable to kill the tyrant and the Taoist by his own strength?

not necessarily!

Once the big willow tree came out, it was completely easy to ravage Erha!

Of course, Xu Ming would not reveal these secrets and cards at will! – Xu Ming can feel that this world is far more vast and splendid than he imagined! Therefore, until he has the strength to crush everything, he still has to hide his trump card in a low-key manner.

Some people will say, doesn’t Xu Ming already have the invincible means of life-saving such as independent space, teleportation, and absolute stealth? Do you need to be humble? If you really encounter an unbeatable enemy, you can just hide!

People who can say this can only say that they are too “short-sighted”!

These methods of Xu Ming are indeed invincible in the Endless Continent. However, what if it is in the vast Divine Realm?

Xu Ming didn’t know what incredible means those powerful gods in the Divine Realm would have! – Maybe, the gods will also teleport, break absolute stealth, and break into independent spaces... Xu Ming has no idea what means the gods have!

Even Xu Ming always had a doubt – where did the plug-in come from?

Plug-ins, will there be creators?

If there is, then how strong should the plug-in creator be! ?

Xu Ming just got a plug-in, what qualifications does he have to be too high-profile?

As the strength became stronger, Xu Ming was more in awe of the “plug-in creator” who didn’t know whether it existed or not! And this kind of awe always urges Xu Ming: You must keep a low profile!

After hearing that Xu Ming used a plug-in to kill the Dao Master, he couldn’t help but ask: “What treasure is so terrifying that it can help you kill the Dao Master? It’s a one-time thing. ?”

“Uh... yes!” Xu Ming admitted following the words of the great masters.

Because he felt that if he said “no”, these great powers would probably let him take out the treasures to see and see!

...

Finally, Xu Ming finally sent these enthusiastic powers away.

His spiritual power sank into the world ring, looked at Yin Ran in surprise, and asked, “Yin, can you show the strength of a demigod now?”

“Yes!” Yin Ran said while teasing Erha.

“What level of demigods is that?” Xu Ming asked.

Demigods are also divided into many levels.

The person who broke through the thirty-first floor of the Tongtian Tower was a demigod; the person who broke through the 36th floor of the Tongtian Tower was also a demigod—can the strength of the two be the same?

Furthermore, like Palace Master Potian, although he only crossed the 32nd floor of Tongtian Tower; however, the strength of Palace Master Potian is no weaker than that of the 36th floor of Tongtian Tower—the perception of the Tao of Heaven is only one of the factors that affect his strength. Just one aspect. .com “It’s the weakest among the demigods!” Yin Ran said.

Yin Ran’s strength has recovered somewhat. However, most of her strength is still used to suppress the poison of the Fallen Soul Mist; the strength that can be exerted is only a small part.

However, this small part of the strength has already given Yin Ran the strength of a “demi-god”!

If Yin Ran’s strength explodes completely, one can imagine how terrifying it will be!

...

And those human race powers far away from the territory of the lake heart island searched for a long time in the depths of the space cracks; in the end, at the edge of the human race territory, they found the alien powers such as Wanxueyan, Ruotong Demon, and Blood Sea Demon God.

“Wan Xueyan, you really are here!” On the human side, the leader of the team was the “Thunder Palace Master” who was not inferior to Wan Xueyan.

Wan Xueyan sneered: “Jinglei, are you still thinking of coming to me? Go and see Xu Ming, the genius of your human race. At this moment, he might be dead... Hahahaha!”

Chapter 648: Unlucky Monster

Ten thousand blood eyes demigod sneered wildly.

And the Thunder Palace Master looked at it like a silly X.

“Huh? Thunder!” Wan Xue shouted coldly, “What kind of eyes are you looking at!?”

“What kind of eyes?” Jinglei sneered, “Wanxueyan, look how proud you are! – You probably still don’t know that the tyrannical Daoist has been beheaded by Xu Ming!”

“what!?”

Wan Xueyan shuddered suddenly, shouting again and again: “This is impossible! This is absolutely impossible!”

Of course Wan Xueyan thought about the possibility of killing the Taoist master “forever and never return”.

But in his opinion, even if Tyrannical Killer didn’t come back alive, it was because he died in the siege of the human race. But he never thought that Tyrant Killer would be beheaded by Xu Ming.

“Impossible!” Wan Xueyan roared, “The Jade Slip of Tyrant Killing is still fine, how could it be dead?”

“The jade slip of my life, not every time I can sense life and death!” The Thunder Palace Master sneered.

The power of cause and effect contained in the jade slip of life is very limited. For example, when you are in a secret realm or a kingdom of gods, the jade slip of life cannot sense life and death. There are many other situations that will interfere with the life-and-death sense of the natal jade slip.

“Anyway, whether you believe it or not, the overbearing Taoist is already dead. And Xu Ming, he is still alive and well!” Palace Lord Jinglei continued, “By the way, you are here to meet the overbearing Taoist, right? -In that case, you should continue to wait here, I will not accompany you!”

After finishing speaking, Palace Master Jinglei and other Human Race greats sneered for a while, and then they actually turned around and left.

At the level of Palace Lord Jinglei and Wanxueyan, even if they ran into them, they wouldn't shoot casually. After all, both sides are the top existences of their respective ethnic groups, and they have life-saving means on their bodies, and it is difficult for anyone to kill anyone.

Seeing the great powers of the human race, they actually left; Wan Xue's eyes couldn't help but be stunned: "Could it be that Tyrant Killer is really dead?"

Of course, Wan Xueyan also doubted whether it was the Thunder Palace Master who was deliberately lying to him.

"Myriad blood eyes, what should I do?" Ruo Tongmo said.

Wan Xue's eyes were cold and imposing: "I want to find a way to inquire about the situation!"

The Shadow Alliance is specially responsible for lurking and assassination, and Wanxueyan naturally has a channel to inquire.

After about an hour...

Wan Xueyan's expression was hard to see to the extreme: "The tyrant... Really died! What special means did Xu Ming use to kill..."

"what!?"

"what!?"

Ruotong Demon, Blood Sea Demon God and other superpowers of alien races were shocked—the Daoist Tyrant was really dead! Moreover, he was really killed by Xu Ming!

"This Xu Ming... is really scary!" Ruo Tongmo's eyes flashed fiercely, "It seems that every time, his strength is far beyond our expectations!"

"If we don't try our best to get rid of Xu Ming, I'm afraid, the human race will have another super master at the level of Palace Master Soul Heaven and Palace Master Jitian!" The Blood Sea Demon God said in horror.

“Let’s go back and have a good discussion, how can we get rid of Xu Ming! Really can’t let him continue to grow...”

The top experts of the major foreign races said, and got up and prepared to go back.

“Wait!” Wan Xueyan shouted.

Ruotong Demon, Blood Sea Demon God and other superpowers all looked over: “Wanxueyan, is there anything else?”

Wan Xueyan snorted coldly; “You seem to have forgotten something...”

“Forgot what?” Ruo Tongmo seemed to not know.

“Before, when we discussed it, we said that if the bully returns safely, you will give twenty pieces of mid-grade semi-artifacts of all your clans; if you die, you will give one hundred pieces of mid-grade semi-artifacts as compensation!” Wan Xueyan said. , “Now, Ba Sha unfortunately died, what about the 100 mid-grade semi-artifacts? When will they be given to me?”

Ruo Tongmo said coldly: “We did have such an agreement before! But... what we said at the time was that the assassination of Xu Ming was successful! But now, the assassination failed...”

Ruo Tongmo’s meaning is very simple – if the assassination fails, we will not bear the “assassination fee”!

“you...”

boom!

A terrifying murderous aura suddenly erupted from Wanxueyan’s body: “Ruo Tongmo, are you kidding me!?”

“It’s not a joke! It’s just a matter of fact!” Ruo Tongmo sneered, “However, considering that your demon clan lost a nine-step Taoist master for no reason, it’s unfortunate! We have just discussed it privately, and decided to give you fifty A mid-level semi-artifact—just a little thought between allies!”

The promised 100 mid-grade semi-artifacts have now become 50?

Wanxueyan was really angry: “Good! Good! Good! Next time you assassinate, don’t let our demon clan take action!”

Ruo Tongmo sneered: “We really can’t believe the assassination efficiency of your demon clan! – This time, the assassination of Xu Ming failed, and the human clan became vigilant; it will definitely be more difficult to assassinate Xu Ming in the future! ”

“Humph!” Wan Xueyan knew that it was useless to talk too much, so he took fifty pieces of mid-grade semi-artifacts and left in a rage.

Thinking about it carefully, the demon clan is really unlucky enough! Not only did he lose a power close to the invincible Daoist, but he was also tricked by his allies.

but...

The bad luck of the demon clan is far from over.

A month later...

Demon territory.

Broken edge cliff.

Xu Ming appeared here with the “absolute stealth” hanging on.

“It should be here!” Xu Ming looked around the terrain, “Finally here...”

The power of the demon race can sneak into the territory of the human race to assassinate Xu Ming. Xu Ming, of course, can also sneak into the territory of the demon clan.

Moreover, Xu Ming has “absolute stealth” hanging, “teleportation” hanging and other means to sneak into the territory of the demon clan, which is actually relatively easy.

“The Shadow Alliance of the Demon Race, how dare you sneak into the Wilderness Sect and come to assassinate me...” Brother Ming was very angry!

Fortunately, this time, there were no casualties in the Wilderness Sect. Otherwise, Xu Ming would definitely make the demon clan pay ten times, a hundred times the price!

But even so, Xu Ming wouldn't just let it go if he was assassinated this time!

Now, Xu Ming will come and talk to the demon clan first... to calculate some interest!

“Er Ha!” Xu Ming's spiritual power sank into the world ring and condensed into a spiritual projection.

Erha's dog face looked at Xu Ming with a displeased expression: “Wow! – How many times have I said it, my name is ‘Ba Kill’, not ‘Erha’!”

Xu Ming said impatiently: “I know, I know, Erha!”

“Wang * wang!” Erha barked angrily.

“Don't bark!” Xu Ming said, “I have something to do with you! – I've already arrived at the position you said. Take a look at the dog's head out of the world ring and make sure it's not this place!”

“Humph!” Erha said angrily I have something to ask for, so rude! ”

“Er Ha.” Yin Ran advised, “The business is important, go have a look!”

Erha was enslaved by Yin Ran, and was naturally extremely loyal to Yin Ran. It was precisely because of Yin Ran's order that it brought Xu Ming to this place.

Erha stretched the dog's head out of the world ring, looked at it carefully, and then retracted it.

"That's right, it's here!" Erha said, "One of the treasure houses of the Shadow Alliance is at this location! – You first break through the space and find a broken secret realm; the treasure house is hidden in the depths of the secret realm! "

Xu Ming's eyes lit up: "We have worked so hard to come to the territory of the demon clan, and finally we have reached our destination. It's time to harvest!"

"Xu Ming." Er Ha said, "Don't say I didn't warn you! – Although this place is only one of the treasure houses of the Shadow Alliance, it is also heavily guarded. If you force your way in, you will soon attract nearby people. The demon clan is powerful; when the time comes, you won't even be able to escape!"

Xu Ming smiled lightly: "This... you don't need to worry about it!"

Chapter 649: Go Home Often

"This... you don't have to worry about it!"

Xu Ming has been focusing on "stealing the treasure house" for 20 years, and he can be regarded as a rich experience. It's been a long time since I stole it, and now I'm back to my old business. Standing at the door of the treasure house, I feel like I'm standing at the door of my house.

hiss-

With a light stroke of Xu Ming's finger, a small crack in the space was drawn in the void – just enough for his body to drill through.

call out!

Xu Ming's figure flashed, and he entered the space crack. Then, with both hands, it was like closing a curtain, closing the crack in the space. During the whole process, there was hardly any big fluctuation in space.

“It shouldn’t have been discovered by the monsters!” Xu Ming secretly said.

The demon clan does not have such a treasure as the “Questioning Mirror”, and their surveillance of the territory is far inferior to that of the human clan.

Like the human race, if it was the situation just now, it would have been detected by the Mirror of Heaven.

swoosh—

Xu Ming’s figure quickly shuttled in the turbulent flow of space. Not long after, I saw a dilapidated secret realm.

“Looking at the size of the secret realm, it should be an ordinary ‘Taoist secret realm’!” Xu Ming secretly estimated.

Dao Zun has the ability to open up secret realms.

The stronger the strength, the greater the secret realm opened up!

Like the Taoist Demon Realm that Xu Ming has traveled to, the pioneer “Taiwu Taoist” is an extreme half-step Taoist, which is considered to be the top level of Taoist! Moreover, Taiwu Dao Zun obviously spent a lot of thought on the secret realm; the Taoist Demon Realm, in the “Dao Zun Secret Realm”, is already the ultimate!

And this secret realm in front of you is even more vast and vast than the Taoist Demon Realm, so it must be the “Secret Realm of Taoist Lords”.

“Although this secret realm has been dilapidated, it can continue to exist for a long time. It is also suitable to hide the treasure house!” Xu Ming thought to himself.

Immediately, Xu Ming directly broke through the earth and drilled into the depths of the ground.

Not long after, Xu Ming saw a formation formation.

“It’s really hidden!” Xu Ming secretly said, “If Er Ha didn’t know the location of this treasure house, I really wouldn’t be able to find it here!”

However, with Erha’s authority, he only knew the location of this treasure house. It doesn’t know where the Shadow Alliance, the Demon Race, and other treasure houses are.

“A treasure house is enough for me to make a fortune!”

Of course, Xu Ming can also use the “exploration” link to explore the location of other treasure houses. However, there are too many causal factors involved in exploring the location of the treasure house; therefore, the cost of exploration is a very exaggerated figure.

“This formation barrier is very strong! Even a demigod can hardly break it for a while!” Xu Ming turned on “Absolute Invisibility” and observed for a while nearby, “Furthermore, once I attack the formation barrier, I will absolutely attract the siege of the powerful demons! – By then, before the formation barrier is broken, the demon demigods may have already arrived!”

Xu Ming didn’t come to fight, he just wanted to steal a treasure trove quietly.

“If you want to not touch the formation barrier, then...” Xu Ming’s eyes flashed with light, “Teleport!”

Swish!

Xu Ming’s figure disappeared directly from the spot; in the next instant, teleportation appeared in the treasure trove – formations below the * level could not block teleportation at all!

As soon as he entered the treasure house, the first thing that caught Xu Ming’s eyes was the dazzling array of treasures piled up like mountains.

Xu Ming’s eyes lit up: “It’s all mine! It’s all mine!”

“Roar?”

Inside the treasure house, a sleeping rock monster suddenly woke up.

This rock monster is responsible for guarding this treasure house.

It looked at Xu Ming with a bewildered expression: “Human?”

He looked at the formation barrier with a dazed expression: “The formation barrier is intact! Why do humans appear here?”

Xu Ming was not surprised at all. He had known for a long time that there was a rock monster with the strength of the eight-step path master in the treasure house, guarding the treasure house.

“Roar!” After the rock monster was stunned, he immediately realized that something was wrong, and quickly triggered the formation to signal an enemy attack.

At this time, Xu Ming also moved!

boom!

Thousands of willow branches drilled out of Xu Ming’s world ring.

How huge is the size of the willow avatar! And this treasure house is only a few miles around – so Xu Ming couldn’t release the entire willow tree clone at all; he could only let a part of the willow branch of the willow tree clone stick out from the world ring.

In an instant, the dense willow branches filled the entire treasury, stuffing the entire treasury full and tight.

The ignorant rock monster, before he could react to what was going on, was directly  by the endless willow branches.

Although the body of the rock monster is strong, the willow branches of the willow tree clone are even tougher!

Countless tough willow branches madly strangle the rock monsters.

The poor rock monster was so tightly bound by the willow branches that it couldn't even move, and there was no resistance at all. It could only watch its rocky body, under the strangulation of the willow branches, gradually cracks and began to disintegrate.

And more willow branches swept the treasures in the treasure house mightily.

Although these treasures are also protected by formations, they are much more fragile than the formations around the entire treasury.

boom! boom! boom! boom! ...

Under the frantic attacks of countless willow branches, these miniature formations protecting treasures were easily destroyed. Then, these willow branches rolled up the treasure directly and retracted into the world ring.

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

Whoosh!

...

Inside the world ring, Yin Ran and Erha were both stunned, looking at the sky of the world ring, it was raining treasures.

“What’s the situation!?” Yin Ran patted Erha’s dog’s head, “Didn’t you say that the treasure house of the Shadow Alliance is difficult to break through? – How come so many treasures fell in so quickly?”

Treasures raining all over the sky, this is clearly Xu Ming’s performance of looting the treasure house of the demon clan!

“I...I don’t know...” Erha also didn’t know what was going on.

It also wanted to stick the dog’s head out of the world ring to see the situation, but the exit of the world ring was already stuffed with dense willow branches, and it couldn’t stick its head out at all.

“What method did Xu Ming use to break into the treasure house of the demon clan?” Yin Ran was puzzled – she found that she knew too little about Xu Ming! There are so many secrets in Xu Ming’s body, so many that even she who comes from the Holy Emperor City of the Divine Realm can’t see through it!

After a while, the treasure rain stopped; countless willow branches also retracted into the world ring.

Er Ha was about to stick out his head curiously to see what happened outside . With a “bang”, Xu Ming closed the export of the world ring!

“Look at the hair!” Xu Ming’s voice sounded in the sky.

Inside the treasure house, Xu Ming covered his mental power and looked at it carefully. After confirming that there was no root hair left, Xu Ming nodded with satisfaction: “Successfully evacuated!”

Afterwards, Xu Ming sympathetically glanced at the pile of stone powder not far away—this pile of stone powder was still an eight-step master-level rock monster a quarter of an hour ago.

“After moving and finishing work, it’s time to go!”

For Xu Ming, “going” is simpler than “coming”; as long as the “coordinate positioning” link is activated casually, he can directly teleport away.

“But...” Xu Ming secretly said, “Before leaving, let’s set up a spatial coordinate point here! In that case, when you have time in the future, you can often go back to ‘home’ to have a look...”

After setting the space coordinate points, Xu Ming directly opened the “coordinate positioning” link, and the space teleportation left.

Chapter 650: Origin Stone

Demon clan.

Shadow League.

Wanxueyan Demigod suddenly changed his face: “Broken Blade Cliff Treasure House was attacked!”

In the next instant, Wanxueyan stepped directly into the teleportation formation and rushed towards the Broken Blade Cliff.

...

boom! boom! boom! boom! ...

Around the Broken Blade Cliff, one after another tyrannical momentum also rose into the sky. One after another, the powerful demons rushed to the Broken Blade Cliff.

“Who is it that dares to attack the treasure house of our Shadow Alliance?”

“Is it a human race? – Attacking the treasure house, is it courting death?”

You know, even a demigod, it is difficult to break through the treasure house of this level! – Before breaking the formation barrier of the treasure house, the surrounding monsters have already rushed over!

So, no one would foolishly attack the treasure trove – thankless!

And now, the Broken Blade Cliff treasury of the Shadow Alliance has been attacked!

This, can not help but let the great power such as Wanxueyan be shocked.

“Who’s going to raid the vault? Is he stupid?”

With this thought in mind, Wan Xueyan waited for the great power, soared all the way, and rushed to the treasure house of Broken Blade Cliff.

“Um?”

All the great powers of the demon clan were all startled: “The formation barrier, is it intact?”

“Could it be that the person who attacked the treasure trove found that the formation barrier was difficult to break, so he ran away?” Someone from the demon clan guessed.

“It should be so!” Wan Xueyan couldn’t think of other possibilities.

However, since we have come to the treasury, we naturally have to go in and have a look.

call out!

I saw Wanxueyan shoot out a few special runes, and immediately, the formation barrier of the treasure house opened a door.

“Go in and see!”

Ten Thousand Blood Eyes first walked into the treasure house.

As soon as he entered, Wan Xueyan was immediately stunned.

“This this...”

I saw a mess in the treasure house.

All the treasures were swept away, not even a root hair was left.

The miniature formations that protected the treasures were also violently destroyed, and even the formation base was completely destroyed.

“What the * is going on here!?” The powerful demons were all stunned and speechless.

The formation barrier around the treasure house was intact, but the inside of the treasure house was destroyed and swept away—what happened here?

“Is it a robbery?”

Wanxueyan was about to be furious, but found that the rock monster in charge of guarding the treasure house had turned into a pile of stone powder.

“Stone... is dead!?”

The stone was the name of the rock monster of the Eight-step Path Master.

Since “Stone” is already dead, it is impossible for him to be stealing by himself.

But since it’s not a robbery, what happened?

How did the enemy break into the treasury?

How did he kill the “stone” and empty the treasure house in such a short period of time?

And...who is the enemy?

Wanxueyan has nowhere to vent his anger, because he doesn’t even know who the enemy is...

suffocated!

It’s so frustrating!

“Lord of the Ten Thousand Blood Eyes.” A giant centipede’s eyes were red, “It must be a ghost from the human race!”

“Human Race?” Wan Xueyan sneered a few times.

Of course, he guessed it right away—it was done by the human race!

But what about the evidence?

The treasure house has been emptied, and even if there is evidence, the human race will not bird them. What’s more, there is no evidence at all!

and...

Ten Thousand Blood Eyes is not 100% suspicious of the human race, but also suspects that it may be the work of aliens such as demons and blood. Although it is said that the demon clan and the demon clan, the blood clan and other alien races are alliances; but everyone knows that in the face of interests, this alliance is very fragile!

“If it was done by the human race... the human race is powerful, I will endure this tone!” Wan Xue’s eyes were full of anger, “But if... let me find out, it was the work of the demon race, the blood race and other ethnic groups, hum! I I have to make those ethnic groups look good!”

Ten thousand blood eyes and demigods, it can be said that the word “back” has been capitalized recently.

He sent a direct disciple to assassinate Xu Ming, but the direct disciple was slapped by Xu Ming instead.

He dispatched his right-hand man, the tyrant who was close to the invincible Daoist, to assassinate Xu Ming; as a result, he was also slapped by Xu Ming.

Now, the treasury of the Shadow Alliance has been stolen again, and an Eight-step Taoist master has also been lost. And... the demigod of Wanxueyan doesn’t even know who did it.

“Roar-”

Wanxueyan couldn't help roaring in anger.

The extremely cold roar frightened the spirits of the surrounding monsters to tremble.

...

At this time, Xu Ming, the initiator, opened the “coordinate positioning” link, and sent it back to the Wilderness Sect directly from the demon clan.

“Transportation across half an endless continent is really expensive!” Xu Ming couldn't help sighing.

Xu Ming went from the Wilderness Sect to the Broken Blade Cliff of the Yaozu, and he has indeed crossed half of the endless continent!

The farther the distance, the higher the cost of opening “coordinate positioning” for space transmission.

Of course, it's just a space transfer. No matter how high the cost is, it won't be too high—at least, it's definitely not as rewarding as Xu Ming's vote!

“Hmph! The Alliance of Shadows of the Demon Race dares to assassinate me over and over again!” Xu Ming groaned inwardly, “This time, I'll charge you some interest first!”

Yes, evacuating one of the treasure houses of the Shadow Alliance is just the interest charged by Xu Ming.

As for the “general ledger”, after a while, Xu Ming's strength will rise, and he will go to the demon clan to settle it properly!

call out-

After teleporting back to the Wilderness Sect, Xu Ming quietly entered the independent space again.

Independent space, above the clouds.

Xu Ming poured out all the treasures he had just harvested and began to count them.

“Half-artifact...”

“Half-artifact...”

“Half-artifact...”

“Seventh-order beast pill...”

Xu Ming counted all the treasures, and couldn't help shaking his head silently: “It's all useless things!”

Semi-artifacts, most of them have artifact spirits.

Treasures with Item Spirit cannot be exchanged for hanging points; otherwise, it is very likely to cause unpredictable and terrible consequences.

You can't change the hanging point, and the half-artifact Xu Ming needs to use is only one or two pieces! – That is to say, other semi-artifacts are useless, they can only be placed there to see.

“Wait when sell these semi-artifacts to the ethnic group!” Xu Ming thought to himself, “When the time comes, I can exchange some Dao stones, and I can exchange some more hanging points.”

Xu Ming's understanding of the Tao of Heaven is about to enter the level of “Tao Master”. Therefore, Xu Ming had to find a way to get some level 7 hanging points for backup.

Xu Ming continued to take stock of the harvest beamingly.

“High-grade Taoist stone? – Not bad!”

High-grade Dao Stone, which can be exchanged for level 7 hanging points, is exactly what Xu Ming needs.

“Exquisite Dao Stone?” Xu Ming’s eyes brightened even more – this can be exchanged for level 8 hanging points!

Although Xu Ming has not yet used level 8 hanging points; but, in the near future, he will definitely use it! – Be prepared early and be prepared.

“Huh? This is...?”

Xu Ming’s eyes were attracted by the three stones that exuded the aura of the Heavenly Dao of Fire.

“Fire Origin Stone?”
