

ABOVE THE GRAY FOG

Chapter 4: Transfer again

Everyone could not hide their surprise.

"This is?"

"Is this golden light the source?"

"I don't know why, but there is a sense of intimacy."

"Me too. Is our time travel related to this golden light?"

Suddenly, someone exclaimed: "There seems to be something inside!"

Everyone took a closer look and saw that it was a jade volume.

It was quietly suspended in the golden light. It was only the size of a palm. Compared with the one-foot-wide golden light, it looked extremely small and difficult to detect.

"Hurry up and take it out!"

"Wait a minute," Xiao An said worriedly, "Is there any danger?"

Zhang Zhonghua said seriously: "I can't control that much. This is the only clue at the moment. I'll get it. If an accident happens, you can discuss it separately."

As he spoke, he reached into the light ball and took out the jade book. Fortunately, nothing unusual happened during the process.

At this time, everyone could clearly see the whole picture of the jade album. It was said to be a jade album, but it was actually an ancient bamboo slip, but the bamboo slips were replaced by jade.

"Open it quickly and take a look." someone urged.

Zhang Zhonghua unfolded the jade book as instructed.

After seeing the contents of the jade piece, everyone fell into silence for a moment, and then there was deathly silence, and you could hear a needle drop!

After a long time.

"This, this, this... how is it possible?" Someone muttered to himself, as if he had lost his soul.

"Is everything arranged?"

After hearing the sound, Lin Shancai woke up from a dream and stared straight at the contents of the jade album. The jade album was composed of eleven jade pieces, each with a name written on it.

Zhang Zhonghua, Zhao Xiaoan, Luo He, Yan Ruxin, Xia Xuan, Chao Yuxin, Wu Wang, Jin Tianzong, Huang Ying, Si Zhennan, Lin Shan.

"Why are our names on it?"

"It's so weird, there is a feeling of destiny..."

Everyone stared at the jade book and thought about its meaning. They thought they would know the answer to time travel if they got the jade book. Unexpectedly, the jade book did not bring any hints. Instead of reducing the problem, it became more complicated and confusing.

Lin Shan said: "Put the jade book away first. It may be useful in the future. This hall is very big. Let's go look elsewhere."

He wanted to see what the source of the black thread was and whether it might be some kind of object.

"You guys pass it around first and take a look. If there's no problem, I'll put it away." Zhang Zhonghua handed the jade album in his hand to everyone for circulation.

The jade album is ordinary and ordinary in style, but it is gentle to the hand. The most surprising thing is that when you hold the jade album in your hand, you feel a vague connection with yourself.

After everyone passed the jade album around, Zhang Zhonghua solemnly put it in his inner pocket. Everyone had no objections to this. Someone must hold the jade album, and Zhang Zhonghua, who currently has the highest prestige, is the most suitable one. .

After the incident, everyone began to explore the hall. Lin Shan took the lead and walked at the front. He followed the black line to the second floor of the hall.

There is not much difference between the second floor and the first floor of the main hall. They have the same screen, but there is no longer golden light behind the screen, but a group of black light. The strange thing is that other people turn a blind eye to the black light.

Lin Shan stared at the black light ball, and as if lost, he stepped forward and put his hand into the black light ball. The next second, his whole body trembled and twitched involuntarily. The whites of his eyes were dyed black, like an abyss. .

His skin also turned a strange black color, and the strange and mysterious power was changing his body, and his body was transforming in an unknown direction.

"What's wrong with you?" Xiao An's voice reached Lin Shan's ears, shaking his shoulders vigorously.

Lin Shan woke up from the dream and murmured, "What happened to me just now?"

"You suddenly started twitching just now. Did you encounter some supernatural force again?" Xiao An returned and immediately looked at Lin Shan with some worry.

"I'm fine." Lin Shan felt the changes in his body, shook his head and said, "It's my own body problem."

Some people had a strange look in their eyes, but they also breathed a sigh of relief. As long as it wasn't supernatural, it would be fine. After one experience, more than half of them would be reduced. If it happened again, I don't know how many would survive.

After regaining control of his physical body, Lin Shan discovered that this body had something extra, a talent called "Uncanny Body".

He accepted this talent naturally, as if he was born with it.

However, he didn't know what this talent was for, and he didn't have any hints. The only thing he knew was that this talent was called 'Uncanny Body', and it was born after being transformed by the black light.

At the same time, two strange objects appeared in his mind, a piece of parchment and a quill.

Lin Shan felt that he could take out the parchment anytime and anywhere, but now was not the time to study it, so he had to wait until he got out alive.

"This hall has a third floor, let's go up and have a look." A charming voice came into my ears.

Lin Shan was thinking a lot at this moment, and looking in the direction of the conversation, he saw the mature woman named Chao Yuxin, who was a member of the previous leading team.

"Since I can see the black line that others can't see, can someone also see some kind of guidance?" Lin Shan thought secretly in his heart.

Putting away his thoughts for the time being, he followed everyone up to the third floor of the hall.

Arrive at the third floor of the main hall.

"What is this?" someone exclaimed.

An altar is engraved with various complex symbols and messy lines. Around the altar, countless ancient characters are flashing. Each time the altar flashes, the overall light of the altar becomes a little brighter.

Staring at the altar, everyone was deeply surprised, vaguely feeling that this might be their hope of escaping from here.

At the same time, the lines in the middle of the altar began to flicker, and gradually formed a huge mysterious magic circle, and a mysterious force vibrated out.

"Why can't my body move..."

"Me too, my body is out of control!"

Everyone found it difficult to move, and they were terrified, but they couldn't change anything.

In the magic circle, the light kept flowing, and countless mysterious symbols flickered. After the ancient characters on the periphery flickered dozens of times, the mysterious symbols finally lit up at the same time, emitting dazzling light.

When the light faded, the magic circle returned to dimness, and there was no one in the field.

After a while, the entire hall turned from real to virtual again, turning into golden light and dissipating on the ground.

In the gray fog, a huge magic circle appeared on the ground, and the people who disappeared suddenly appeared again.

However, when everyone looked around, they were all stunned like clay sculptures and wooden carvings.

The earth seemed to be stained with ink, and it was inky. Occasionally, a few unknown weeds grew tenaciously in the soil. The visual distance was no more than ten meters. Beyond ten meters, it was gray and nothing could be seen.

"Where is this...? Did we... escape from that place just now?" The voice of the person who spoke was a little trembling.

"Why do I feel that this place is not as good as the forest just now..." Someone was complaining.

"This is not a forest, where are we? Did the magic circle just now make us cross again?" Many people showed panic. There was no joy after escaping the predicament, but only panic. Everyone had a bad premonition.

The next moment, the jade book that had been in Zhang Zhonghua's arms suddenly floated out by itself, releasing a thousand feet of golden light, illuminating the entire sky, dispersing the surrounding gray fog, and forming a golden light curtain to block the gray fog outside.

When the surrounding gray fog was dispelled, a desolate and empty scene came into view. There were some huge rocks standing on the ground, and there were also trees and weeds growing sparsely on the ground.
