Chapter 166 Are Things Tough for the Sword Sect?

Wei Nan invited Master Yijian to the cave. He had also accepted some missions these days and was ready to go to the sect. He did not expect the Sect Master to call him at this time.

As soon as Master Yijian entered, he saw the Sect Master's concerned gaze.

Master Yijian was not used to this. He frowned and asked in a bashful manner, "Sect Master, why did you call me over?"

"Yijian," Wei Nan sighed. "Are things tough for the Sword Sect? "

Master Yijian was speechless.

Yijian was a little suspicious. Right now, every disciple in Sword Sect was filled with fighting spirit and worked hard to complete missions. In a short period of time, they would be able to obtain a lot of resources. Sword Sect had never been so rich before, so why did the Sect Master ask this?

"Senior Brother, why do you say so?" Master Yijian asked.

Wei Nan personally poured tea for Yijian, and Wei Nan said, "I heard that the Sword Sect is now empty. Even the new disciples who have just broken through to the second level of the Qi Refinement stage have gone out to complete missions. Did the Sword Sect encounter some difficulties?"

Daoist Yijian wanted to say that it wasn't difficult, but he seemed to have thought of something. He immediately put on a worried expression and said, "Sect Master, you don't know this, but the cultivation of our Sword Sect consumes a lot of elixirs and spirit stones. Recently, I dug two pools for them to have better cultivation, so the expenses are very high. Those young disciples are all sensible and good children. They know that it's not easy to cultivate in the Sword Sect, so they fight to go out and do missions.

Daoist Yijian heaved a long sigh and looked at the Sect Master with a mournful look. "It's my fault. If I wasn't so useless as an elder and so poor, my disciples wouldn't be like this."

When Weinan heard Yijian's words, he frowned.

The Ningtian Sect was one of the eight great sects of the Eastern Continent. Would they have such poor disciples?

Wei Nan immediately said, "Why didn't you report the matter of the Sword Sect building the medicine pool? In terms of resources, I can't favor the Sword Sect, but the sect can still provide the basic infrastructure."

When Master Yijian heard the Sect Master's words, he knew that his goal had been achieved.

Yijian was happy, but he still had a worried expression on his face. Yijian said, "I am also afraid of making things difficult for you."

"It's fine," Wei Nan said. "This kind of basic infrastructure is what the sect should have. How many spirit stones did you spend to build the pool? "

"A total of 2,000 high-grade spirit stones," Yijian immediately replied.

Hearing this number, Wei Nan smiled and said, "I'll give you these spirit stones."

"Thank you for your generosity, Sect Master!" Master Yijian immediately cupped his fists and said.

"Calculate all the spiritual plants you need every month," Wei Nan said. "Next time, buy them with the alchemy master."

"Yes, Sect Master!" Yijian immediately replied.

Yijian thought that he had gained a huge advantage, so he went back happily with the spirit stones given by the Sect Master.

When he returned to the Sword Sect, he did not forget to call the other elders over to show off.

“Keep these spirit stones,” Master Yijian said, “And give them to the disciples to use for body tempering.”

Then, Yijian looked at Wukong and said, “Master Wukong, I’m going out to do a mission. You can keep this spirit stone.”

“No,” said Wukong. “My disciples have all gone out to do missions. I’ve also taken a few missions to go out!”

Master Yijian looked at the other elders, but they all shook their heads.

“Forget it,” Master Yijian sighed. “I’ll take it and send it to Master Lingxu. When the Alchemy Sect buys something next time, they can help our Sword Sect buy some.”

The rest of the elders agreed to this. After poaching Lingxu’s disciples twice, Master Yijian came to find him again.

Dong Xi had indeed run all the way there. In her storage ring, she had the medicinal pills that her Eldest Senior Brother had refined for her.

Even though she could imagine the difficulties and dangers she would encounter along the way, there was one thing that Dong Xi had not expected.

Dong Xi would never have guessed that the shoes on her feet would break in the middle of running.

Dong Xi picked up the shoe sole that had fallen off and sighed helplessly.

"I'm not rich, to begin with, and now things are getting worse!" Dong Xi muttered to himself.

Without shoes to wear, Dong Xi could only walk barefoot.

This rugged mountain road is so uncomfortable to walk on. Forget it, I'll just treat it as a foot massage.

She finally arrived at a town. There was a market here, but it basically sold some special products. After looking for a long time, she finally saw a shoe seller.

Dong Xi immediately walked to the shoe stall and asked, "Auntie, how much do these shoes cost?"

Chapter 167 Do I Look like a Human to You?

The stall owner's aunt had a hunched back and her head was wrapped in a handkerchief.

Hearing Dong Xi's voice, the aunt raised her head and looked at the little girl in front of her, a strange smile appearing on her face.

Dong Xi immediately had a bad feeling. She immediately circulated her cultivation technique, but she really did not feel any sense of danger.

Just as Dong Xi had calmed down, the smile on the aunt's face deepened and her slender eyes narrowed. She seemed to be particularly happy.

Dong Xi frowned. Just as she was about to leave, the middle-aged woman suddenly spoke. Her voice was a little sharp and did not sound like something someone of her age should have.

"Little Fairy, do I look like a human?" asked the aunt.

Dong Xi was stunned. She instantly recalled a folk legend he had heard in her previous life.

"I think you look like an Immortal!" Dong Xi said after thinking for a moment.

The aunt in front of him was very happy after hearing this. A yellow light flashed on her body. Dong Xi instinctively squinted her eyes and opened them again. The aunt was no longer in front of him. It was a girl in a pink dress.

The girl's eyes were long and thin, and her skin was white. She bowed respectfully to Dong Xi and said, "Thank you for your help, Fairy."

After she finished speaking, she gave the basket with shoes to Dong Xi. The girl then said, "Fairy, I'll give you these shoes."

Dong Xi was very happy. She had gotten shoes for free, and it was enough to use for a while.

Dong Xi wanted to give her spirit stones, but the young lady immediately refused. "You've helped me so much, so it's only right for me to give you these shoes. Fairy, you don't have to be so polite."

Dong Xi saw that they were all ordinary shoes, not as good as the storm shoes from before.

Dong Xi accepted it without hesitation and said, "Thank you for the shoes, Fairy."

After saying that, Dong Xi immediately took out a pair of shoes and put them on. Then, she turned around and said goodbye to the lady. Unexpectedly, this lady had been following behind Dong Xi the entire time.

Dong Xi looked around and realized that the townspeople were all looking at the lady with envy.

A thought suddenly appeared in Dong Xi's mind. Everyone in this town needed her help too?

It was probably not an ordinary town, but a gathering place for demon beasts.

After walking for a long time, when the sky had turned dark, Dong Xi turned back to look at the girl behind him.

“Where are you going, Fairy?” asked Dong Xi.

The girl in pink immediately walked forward and said respectfully, “You don’t have to call me Fairy. I’m Qianqian, a fox who has cultivated in this Eastern Mountain for a thousand years. If it wasn’t for your help, I don’t know when I would be able to transform!”

However, Dong Xi did not quite understand. She asked, “You’re so young, but you’ve already reached the transformation stage?”

When the fox heard this, she smiled and said, “If I had really reached the transformation stage, why would he come here to ask for a title?”

Seeing Dong Xi’s confused look, she quickly explained, “Our fox race will cultivate for a period of time before we can come out to seek for a title. If the fated person is able to help us, we will be able to transform. However, our cultivation speed will not be as fast.”

Then, she saluted again and said, “I’m so lucky today to have met you, Fairy. This year, when the mountain gate closes, I don’t know when I’ll be able to come out again.”

Dong Xi also understood. She said, "My name is Dong Xi. It's just fate. Fairy, you don't have to be so grateful. I'm heading to Fotai City. Are you also heading in this direction?"

Qianqian shook her head. "I don't know where I should go. Since you're going to Fotai City, how about I go with you? There's an uncle in my clan who has a shop in Futai city. I'll go take a look."

Dong Xi thought that it was good that she had a companion.

Half a day passed, and the two of them had only walked about forty miles when she could not help but ask, "Xiaoxi, you don't have any movement techniques?"

She did not know how long he would have to walk like this.

"There are movement techniques and magic tools," Dong Xi said with a smile. "But I'm currently refining my body, so I'm not in a hurry to go."

Qianqian seemed to understand and nodded. After thinking for a while, she asked, "You're an ascetic?"

Dong Xi, "..."

However, it was not as hard as bitter cultivation.

"I'm a body cultivator," Dong Xi emphasized again.

Qianqian immediately understood and said, "Yes, we do need to train. The human body is too weak."

Seeing the moon rise, the two people who were originally sweet-smelling stopped together. One began to cultivate, and the other knelt on the ground respectfully and began to worship the moon.

Chapter 168 The Human City Is Really Spectacular

After a night, their fatigue disappeared.

The two of them opened their eyes and looked at each other.

If it was not for the fact that he was certain that the original body was a human, Dong Xi would have suspected that the original body was related to the fox tribe.

Every day, they cultivated with the help of the moonlight. The fox tribe also cultivated with the help of the moonlight!

Dong Xi thought for a long time and realized that the fox was gone.

Dong Xi felt someone behind her. When she turned around, she saw Qianqian frowning at her feet.

“Fairy Qianqian, why are you looking at my feet?” Dong Xi asked, puzzled.

Qianqian touched her chin and said, “I just turned into a human, so it’s still a little ugly when I walk. But you look good when you walk. I want to learn from you.”

Dong Xi nodded. Qianqian’s walking was indeed a little strange. Dong Xi said, “Don’t be anxious. You’ll have more or less learned it when we reach Fotai City.”

Ever since he left with Wan Wan, Dong Xi had not encountered any demon beasts on the way.

Dong Xi should have tempered her body and practiced her sword. He did not neglect anything.

It would be a month later when the two of them arrived at Fotai City.

“Wow!” Qianqian exclaimed in surprise.

Dong Xi looked at Qianqian, who said in shock, "A human city is truly magnificent!"

Looking at the fox tail, Dong Xi carefully blocked it. Dong Xi reminded, "Sister, your tail is out again!"

Qianqian immediately retracted her tail when she heard this.

Then, she covered her mouth with her hand and stuck out her tongue. She said resentfully, "I'm a little too excited!"

When Dong Xi heard this, she smiled and walked towards the city gate. Dong Xi said, "Sister, where is your uncle in Fotai City?"

"I don't know," Qianqian shook her head and said, "I haven't seen my uncle in 300 years."

300 years old.

The people in the cultivation world all took at least 100 years. Dong Xi, who was not even 20 years old, was a little shocked.

Dong Xi said, "It's fine. We'll look around once we're inside. We should be able to find him. Our sect has a base in Fotai City. I can ask my Senior Brother for help. We'll definitely be able to find him."

“That’s great!” Qianqian immediately said.

The process required payment of spirit stones. Thinking that Qianqian had just transformed into human form and did not have any spirit stones, Dong Xi paid for her as well.

Qianqian also felt that Dong Xi was a good person, so she said, “In the past, the people in the tribe said that the human race was treacherous. Now it seems that the tribe was wrong!”

“It’s not that absolute,” Dong Xi said with a smile. “No matter what race it is, there will always be bad foxes. Take your fox race for example. Don’t you have any bad foxes? There are naturally bad people in the human race. Sister Qian, you need to be careful when you walk in the human world in the future.”

“Alright, I’ll remember it,” Qianqian nodded.

Dong Xi said, “I’m going to help someone with something now. Sister, you can walk around the city and see if you can find your uncle. If you’re tired, you can wait for me at the station of the Ningtian Sect. I’ll go back and find you when I’m done. Then, we can find your uncle together.”

“Alright!” Qianqian nodded.

Dong Xi had just taken a few steps when she seemed to have thought of something. She immediately walked to Qianqian’s side and said again, “Sister Qian, you must hide your tail well!”

Although the Qianqian had already transformed into a human, her strength was a little low. Her current strength was only around the fifth level of the Qi Refinement stage. Otherwise, there were all kinds of people in the city. If they encountered bad people, they might capture her and take her back as a pet or spirit object.

Qianqian nodded obediently, and Dong Xi left with peace of mind.

Dong Xi had originally thought that the Love Smoke Tower mentioned by the snake would be easier to find. In the end, no one knew anything about it.

Dong Xi's first reaction was to wonder if the snake was lying. But thinking about it, something wasn't right. The great snake was so serious at that time, and he did not seem like he was lying!

In the end, Dong Xi found out about Love Smoke Tower from an old man.

"Love Smoke Tower?" the old man asked. "There are still young people who know about this!"

When Dong Xi heard this, she squatted down beside the old man and immediately asked, "Old man, you know about Love Smoke Tower?"

The old man nodded and recalled, "This Love Smoke Tower was originally just a joke. That place first caught fire for no reason, and then it rained for a few days. After the fire went out, there was white smoke everywhere. At that time, someone rushed in to save his lover, and in the end, both of them died inside, so it was called Love Smoke Tower!”

Dong Xi’s face revealed an ‘I see’ look, and then she asked with a gossipy look, “Old man, does this Love Smoke Tower still exist? What does it look like now?”

Chapter 169 Tengshe Street

The old man looked at the pipe and blew out a white smoke ring. He continued, “That place hasn’t been rebuilt. It’s very strange. Not only that place, but the entire street is strange. Who would go there for good people?”

“A street?” asked Dong Xi. “What’s the street called?”

“Tengshe Street,” the old man replied.

Seeing Dong Xi’s curious look, the old man smiled and said, “Little girl, that place is not somewhere a child like you can go. Don’t wander around too much.”

Dong Xi smiled and quickly agreed.

She turned around and left to find out where Tengshe Street was.

Dong Xi asked as she walked, searching all the way until he reached the entrance of Tengshe Street. At this time, Dong Xi finally understood why the old man had said that this place was strange.

It was broad daylight, and the sun was shining brightly. However, the street seemed to be very dark and cold.

Dong Xi stood at the entrance of the street and hesitated for a long time. She thought that the snake probably would not have tricked her to come so far to die. Thinking of this, Dong Xi walked in.

As Dong Xi entered, a cold aura filled her entire body.

Dong Xi shuddered. This feeling was very uncomfortable. After circulating it once, the cold feeling was much better. Dong Xi directly wrapped herself in spiritual Qi and quickly walked in.

All the houses on the street had their doors tightly shut. They were all in bad condition, and some of the windows were even broken.

Dong Xi felt that she was being watched, and the further she walked, the stronger this feeling became.

Until Dong Xi stood in front of a ruin, looked up at the half-collapsed building, and said, "Is Lady Rong still here?"

In the streets, there was no response other than the sound of the wind blowing.

Dong Xi called out a few more times, but there was still no reply.

Dong Xi thought that perhaps the person had left long ago, so she could only sigh softly.

He suddenly felt that the snake was a little pitiful. He was seriously injured and his lover had left.

Dong Xi turned around to leave, but she entered a barrier.

The surrounding scene instantly changed. It was still the same street, but the street was no longer as dilapidated. Instead, it was very lively. There were merchants welcoming and sending off gifts, and all kinds of pedestrians.

A beauty in her thirties walked over from not far away. The woman asked, "You were the one looking for me?"

The woman's voice was a little lazy. When Dong Xi, a young lady, heard it, her bones felt a little weak.

Behind this woman was the Love Smoke Tower, which was not dilapidated at all. Beautiful women sat by the window and drank wine, attracting many cultivators to enter.

Dong Xi retracted her gaze and looked at the woman in front of her. Dong Xi asked, "You are Lady Rong?"

"That's right," the woman nodded. "Who are you?" Where did you find out about me?"

Dong Xi knew that there was something strange about this place, so she did not dare to ask.

After all, the more she knew, the faster she would die.

Dong Xi immediately took out the token and handed it to Lady Rong. Dong Xi said, "I'm just an errand boy. I'm here to deliver the token. He told me to just give this to you."

Lady Rong did not care about it at first, but when she saw the big snake on the token, it was as if she was struck by lightning. Her expression changed drastically. Looking at Dong Xi, Lady Rong became more respectful and said, "Please come with me, let's talk inside."

Lady Rong made an inviting gesture, and Dong Xi walked up the steps.

The people who entered here were all young and strong, and a girl like Dong Xi was the odd one out.

When the crowd saw Dong Xi, they were all very surprised. However, when they saw Lady Rong beside her, they restrained themselves.

Dong Xi followed behind Lady Rong until they reached the roof. Lady Rong immediately made a hand seal, and the house was surrounded by a barrier. Lady Rong then said, "Where is the person who gave you the token? Who are you to him?"

Those who could be chosen by the demon were definitely trustworthy, so Lady Rong did not have any doubts.

"He's living in my house, and I'm his Master," said Dong Xi directly.

In any case, the two of them had already concluded a contract, so there was nothing wrong with saying this.

Upon hearing this, Mother Rong's heart was in her mouth. The Demon Lord had always disdained to be with humans. Now, this little girl actually dared to say that she was the Demon Lord's Master?

Of course, Lady Rong did not believe it. The Demon Lord was so powerful. There was no one in this world who was worthy of being the Demon Lord's master. This little girl must be talking nonsense!

"Where is your home?" asked Lady Rong.

Lady Rong had to ask clearly so that she could quickly find Demon Lord. If it took too long and was discovered by those sanctimonious hypocrites, there would definitely be a lot of trouble!

"It's on the other side of the mountain!" Said Dong Xi.

Chapter 170 Do You Believe Me Now?

When Lady Rong heard Dong Xi's words, she was silent.

Lady Rong raised her hand and placed it on Dong Xi's shoulder. She bent over and looked at Dong Xi, her eyes as coy as silk.

Dong Xi did not care at all, but she sighed in her heart. These demons were truly born with charm.

It was a pity that this Lady Rong was not even one in a million of the great snake. The great snake had such a handsome face. He did not even need to say anything and just stood there and won.

Lady Rong's hand on Dong Xi's shoulder slowly grew long and black, and the branch moved toward Dong Xi's neck bit by bit.

"Are you playing with me, little girl?" asked Lady Rong. "I don't have that much patience."

Dong Xi raised her head and looked at Mother Rong's face. A smile appeared on her face as she circulated her spiritual Qi to cover her entire body.

Whoosh...

A ball of fire emerged from her shoulder and ignited Mother Rong's branch.

"Ah!" Mother Rong cried out in alarm and immediately pulled her hand back. She slapped the fire wildly and finally managed to put it out. She turned to look at Dong Xi, her eyes even gloomier.

Seeing Mother Rong in such a sorry state, Dong Xi shrugged her shoulders and said, "I'll help the big snake run errands and send things over. The snake didn't say anything else. If you don't believe me..."

Dong Xi tilted her head and pondered for a moment. Then, she extended her right hand, and a ball of green spiritual Qi appeared.

Dong Xi looked at Lady Rong, whose expression had changed drastically, and said with an innocent face, "Do you believe me now?"

Lady Rong looked at the green spiritual Qi in Dong Xi's hand in shock. The Demon Lord's spiritual Qi was highly toxic. The fact that this little girl could use it meant that it was given to her by the Demon Lord!

Dong Xi snapped her fingers, and the spiritual Qi in her hand dissipated.

With her hands behind her back, Dong Xi looked at Lady Rong and said, "I've already given you this token. You have to send me out."

Lady Rong did not dare to act rashly now. The fact that this girl did not say anything should be the demon's request.

"Fairy, may I ask if Master is doing well?" asked Lady Rong immediately with respect.

Dong Xi thought that although the snake's wound would emit a foul smell from time to time, he could still throw her around. Dong Xi nodded and said, "That snake? He's doing good!"

Upon hearing this, Lady Rong said with relief, "Since he's good, I'm relieved."

Lady Rong took out a porcelain bottle and placed it in Dong Xi's hand. She said, "Fairy, this is the poisonous Insect Queen that my subordinates found. If you bring it back, it'll be good for treating injuries."

Lady Rong was not afraid that Dong Xi would embezzle this thing. If Demon Lord could give spiritual Qi to this little girl to use, it meant that this little girl could be trusted. Secondly, this poisonous Insect Queen was not something that ordinary people could use.

Dong Xi took it and looked at it curiously.

The queen of venomous insects did not sound like a good thing.

If the great snake could even absorb this, it must not be a good thing.

Dong Xi put away the porcelain bottle and said, "May I trouble Lady Rong to send me out?"

Just as the two of them were about to leave, someone came in.

This person was tall and sturdy. He stood at the door and blocked most of the light.

The man's voice was very rough, as if someone was polishing their ears. He said, "Ah, Lady Rong, you have a guest?"

Lady Rong responded casually, then asked the others to invite this guy in.

However, she did not expect this person to not move at all. He walked around the crowd and looked directly at Dong Xi.

"Is this a human?" the man asked.

Lady Rong was still hoping that Dong Xi would return to the Demon Lord. She couldn't let anyone keep her here. She immediately stepped in front of Dong Xi and said, "Lord Niu Shan, she's just a little girl who barged in by mistake. I'll send her out now!"

"Lady Rong, you've become more and more kind now?" Niu Shan said with a faint smile.

"It's none of your business what I do!" Lady Rong said coldly. "Niu Shan, don't forget that this is a small space created by our family's hitman. You were able to escape from the pursuit of the human and demon race because our family took you in."

"Your family is indeed good at beating people up," said Niu Shan. "We're all convinced. But now, we don't even know if your family's beating person is dead or alive. We have to plan for our future."

Niu Shan's eyes widened as he looked at Dong Xi. He said, "She's just a young human. How can she come here? What if she brings other people here next time?"

Lady Rong took out the token that Dong Xi had just given her and said, "My Lord is doing very well now. If you dare to talk nonsense again, I'll break your legs!"

Under the candlelight, the snake on the token was very lifelike.

Niu Shan and the others immediately shut their mouths. As long as the Demon Lord was alive, they would be able to survive in this place. Otherwise, they would all die!
