Chapter 171 I've Been Thrown Out Again

Su Cheng was also really powerful. The 81 lightning bolts did not kill him, and the eight big sects even took the opportunity to kill him. In the end, they were all injured by Su Cheng.

Just as Niu Shan was about to say something, he suddenly realized that something was wrong.

Since Su Cheng did not die, it meant that the demon had successfully passed the Tribulation, right? But why was he still in this space? Didn't he Ascend?

However, just as Niu Shan was in a daze, Lady Rong waved her sleeve and threw Dong Xi out, closing the door behind her.

Dong Xi's butt hit the ground. It was so painful that Dong Xi sucked in a breath of cold air. She rubbed her butt and got up, only to find that he had once again returned to that dilapidated street.

The collapsed buildings and the puddles on the streets were dense.

Originally, she thought that he would be able to get some money by helping the big snake deliver stuff. She did not expect that he would be thrown out again without any tea.

Forget it, the things have been delivered anyway. I can go back and explain to the big snake.

However, from their conversation just now, this space seemed to have been opened up by the big snake?

It was too awesome!

Although Dong Xi was only a fifth-stage Qi Refinement cultivator, he knew that anything related to space and time was an absolute art!

As Dong Xi praised, she cast a cleaning spell on himself before walking towards the Ningtian Sect.

She did not know if she had found the clan number at this time.

Dong Xi strolled around as she walked. When she saw the stalls selling treasured weapons and medicinal pills, as well as the fortune-telling monastic monk, Dong Xi turned around and saw a familiar thing.

She smiled.

She walked straight to the fortune-telling stall on the street. There was a banner next to the stall with the words 'Divine Fortune-Telling' written on it.

In front of the stall, two people seemed to have some dispute. A robust man grabbed the old man's collar and lifted him up.

"You told me that I've been very lucky recently. I went to the jewelry store and opened more than 70 gift boxes, but there was nothing!" The man said. "What do you say?"

The old man immediately cupped his fists and said with a sad face, "A person's luck changes at any time. I said that you have good luck in money, but you insisted on getting some money. Now that you've lost money, you come to me. There's no such reason!"

"It's none of my business," the burly man said. "Just pay me for the gift boxes! Otherwise, I'll smash your stall!"

"Then you can do whatever you want," the old man said. "I really don't have any money!"

The old man was already so poor that he came here to fool others, how could he have the money to pay?

The brawny man did not dare to really make a move. This was Fotai City. If he made a move, he would have to go to the arena. If he made a move privately, he would be thrown out!

In the end, he could only smash the old man's stall to vent his anger. The old man seemed to be used to it. After the brawny man left, the old man took out a table from his storage ring and put it down. After cleaning up the mess on the ground, he stroked his beard in satisfaction and returned to his previous Sage-like and profound appearance.

Dong Xi walked to the old man's stall and stopped. The old man looked at the little girl and frowned, "Such a small child also needs fortune-telling?"

Dong Xi raised her eyebrows. These words sounded very familiar. Li Li, who had asked this last time, was still in seclusion at the foot of her master's mountain!

"I'm not here for divination, old man," said Dong Xi with a smile and a shake of his head. "But I have something to ask you."

The old man frowned and said with a serious face, "One question, two low-grade spirit stones."

Dong Xi took out a spirit stone and placed it on the table. With a smile on her face, Dong Xi said, "Old man, can I ask now?"

The old man immediately put away the spirit stones. He rolled his eyes and coughed a few times. He stroked his beard and said, "You can ask."

Dong Xi waved her hand, signaling the old man to come closer.

The old man curiously stretched his head over. Dong Xi said, "What did that person say when you asked for the title?"

The old man's face immediately darkened. He pointed at Dong Xi and said, "You... you..."

Seeing the old man so excited, Dong Xi smiled and pressed down the old man's finger. Dong Xi asked, "What did I do?"

The old man looked at Dong Xi warily. His eyes rolled and he asked with a fox-like look, "How did you know?"

Dong Xi did not continue to tease the old man and directly said, "You should be an uncle from the Qianqian's tribe, right?"

The old man said, "Qianqian? Why does it sound so familiar?"

The old man had not gone back to see his clansmen for 300 years. All these years, he had been setting up a stall in Fotai City. He had met countless people every day, so how could he still remember them clearly?

The old man thought carefully and said, "I think I know her. Are you her friend?"

yes! Dong Xi nodded and said, "I got to know Qianqian that day when she asked me for a title!"

Hearing that the two of them had such fate, the old man's face immediately became serious. Asking for a title was a great favor to the fox!

Chapter 172 You Rate Is Too Expensive for Me

The old man stood up and saluted Dong Xi respectfully. The old man said, "Thank you for your help, fairy. I'm called Yi Li, and I've been in Fotai City for a few hundred years. If there's anything you don't understand in the future, just come and ask me."

Dong Xi shook her head and said with a serious face, "Old man, your rates are too expensive. I can't afford it!"

It was rare for Yu Li to be so serious, and now, she was almost breaking down!

Yu Li immediately took out the spirit stones and returned them to Dong Xi, saying, "If I knew that you've done Qianqian a favor, I wouldn't have dared to accept it. You don't have to call me an old man either. Just call me 'Uncle' as Qianqian does."

"Uncle Yu Li?" Dong Xi blinked and called out.

Yu Li laughed. He suddenly thought of something and asked, "Fairy, how did you know that I'm Qianqian's uncle?"

Dong Xi deliberately kept him in suspense and said, "Because of..."

Seeing that Yu Li wanted to know immediately, Dong Xicai said, "Because there's one thing about you that's very similar to you!"

"What is it?" asked Yu Li anxiously.

Dong Xi moved closer to Yu Li and said in a low voice, "You and Qianqian can't hide your tails well!"

Yu Li, "..."

Yu Li had been in Futai city for so long, how could he not have hidden well? It was all because of that person who had lifted him up. His clothes could not cover himself at all, so only the tip of his tail was exposed!

Forget it, I'll be more careful in the future.

Yu Li looked at Dong Xi and asked, "Where is my niece now?"

"She should be looking for you all over the city. Why don't you close your stall and wait for her at the Ningtian Sect's encampment with me?" said Dong Xi.

This time, Yu Li did not say anything. He just kept her stall and followed Dong Xi.

After turning a few corners and exiting the alley once more, a red glow appeared on Yu Li's body. A young man in red appeared beside Dong Xi.

Dong Xi felt the change in spiritual Qi. When she turned around, she was stunned.

If the great snake was described as a feminine and dangerous beauty, then the one in front of him was a hot and gorgeous beauty.

"This?" Dong Xi exclaimed. You!!!"

Dong Xi suddenly felt that the cultivation world was not bad at all!

She must have been doing good in the 18 years of her previous life. Otherwise, how could she have met so many handsome men?

However, Dong Xi could not say the words 'Uncle Yu Li' to such a handsome young man.

When Yu Li saw Dong Xi's reaction, he felt a little troubled. He frowned and sighed helplessly.

The handsome man sighed. He was still so good-looking.

“Why are you sighing?” Dong Xi asked. “With such a handsome face, you should be happy every day.”

Yu Li looked at Dong Xi and asked softly, “Am I handsome?”

“Of course you’re handsome!” Dong Xi nodded and immediately replied. “It’s only right to say that you’re rare in the human world!”

Dong Xi looked at the handsome faces of the great snake and Second Senior Brother every day, but she still felt that Yi Li was very handsome.

But in the next moment, Yu Li cried out, “Of course I’m handsome. This is what I got in exchange for my cultivation!

Dong Xi was stunned. She could not accept it.

Why did he say that it was exchanged for cultivation?

No, it should be asking for a title!

“What did you say when you were asking for the title?” asked Dong Xi.

Yu Li almost burst into tears.

“That woman said that I was a man with a smile on my face, with eyebrows like green feathers and skin as white as snow,” Yu Li replied.

Dong Xi’s words puzzled Yu Li.

Yu Li looked at Dong Xi carefully, then said, “What do you mean by your fault? You weren’t even born when I asked for the title, right?”

Dong Xi lowered her head and frowned. She said guiltily, “Why didn’t I think of this word at that time? It’s my fault that I didn’t study well. Otherwise, I could’ve gotten Qianqian a peerless face too!”

Yu Li, “...”

He had originally thought that Dong Xi would say a few words of comfort, but he had not expected it to be like this!

Dong Xi looked at Yu Li and immediately asked, "You said you exchanged it with your cultivation? What do you mean?"

Yu Li sighed, "When the fox race was being conferred the title, if we were to become Immortals, our cultivation base would be left behind. If we were to be called humans, our cultivation base would be dispersed and we'll take on the human form."

When Dong Xi heard this, she frowned and said, "But I noticed that you have spiritual energy around you."

Yu Li looked at Dong Xi, finding it hard to explain in a few words. "Little girl, I've been in Fotai City for hundreds of years. My aptitude is still good. I can still cultivate."

Dong Xi could not hold on to her smile and immediately coughed a few times, "Alright, let's go and see Qianqian. Otherwise, she'll be waiting anxiously!"

Chapter 173 I'm Not Usually like This

Dong Xi had almost forgotten that the cultivation world was not all about looks.

Dong Xi brought Yu Li to the Ningtian Sect's encampment. Along the way, there were always people watching the two of them.

Dong Xi also knew that these people were looking at Yu Li.

In the cultivation world, where handsome men and beautiful women were everywhere, Yu Li's appearance was considered top-notch.

However, Dong Xi was still very curious. She asked, "Yu Li, you've been here for a few hundred years, aren't these people used to your face?"

Yu Li subconsciously wanted to stroke his beard, but he raised his hand and awkwardly put it down. "I'm not like this usually."

Dong Xi instantly understood. She said, "Indeed, no one would believe you if he came out to swindle people with this appearance!"

Hearing Dong Xi's words, Yu Li was extremely dissatisfied. "What swindling? How could fortune-telling be accurate every time? Moreover, people's fates are constantly changing!"

"I'm the one who hasn't seen the world, please don't hold it against me," said Dong Xi immediately with cupped fists.

Yu Li snorted coldly, but did not say anything.

Dong Xi let out a sigh of relief. Yu Li asked, "Why don't you call me Uncle Yu Li?"

Dong Xi, “...”

Of course not. Who could call him uncle with his young face?

Qianqian walked around Fotai City a few times, but she did not find her uncle or Dong Xi.

She rubbed her hungry stomach and went to the Ningtian Sect’s encampment alone.

When Li He heard that he was here to look for Dong Xi, he poured a cup of tea for himself. Li He said, “Did Junior Sister come with you?”

“That’s right,” Qianqian nodded. “Xiaoxi said she had something to do and asked me to wait for her here.”

As soon as she said that, her stomach growled. Li He immediately gave her a Fasting Pill.

Qianqian felt a little awkward. Just as she was at a loss for what to do, a voice came from outside.

Qianqian turned around and saw Dong Xi coming in with a man.

Qianqian immediately looked happy. She got up and walked over, saying, "Xiaoxi, you're back! Is everything done?"

"It's all done," said Dong Xi while holding Qianqian's hand.

Qianqian looked at the person beside Dong Xi and asked in confusion, "Xiaoxi, this is..."

Dong Xi also said with a face full of doubt, "Sister Qian, aren't you looking for your uncle?"

Why didn't they know each other? How was she going to find him?

Qianqian was stunned for a moment. She looked up at the bracelet on her wrist and said, "It's not bright?"

Yu Li looked at a little fool and said, "I didn't bring it with me, so of course, there wouldn't be a reaction."

Qianqian sized him up and asked, "Is this really my clan uncle?"

"I can see his tail. It's red!" Dong Xi nodded.

Qianqian's eyes lit up and she said, "Red fox? He really is my clan uncle!"

"What's the matter?"

"I'm here to seek shelter with Uncle," Jian Jia said honestly. "I just transformed a few days ago and came out to look for you. I don't know where to go."

It was already difficult for Yu Li to support himself. Now that there was one more person, Yu Li was really worried.

However, it was not good to reject him directly, so Yu Li said, "You..."

When Li He heard their conversation, he asked excitedly, "Transformation? You are demonic beasts?"

Dong Xi was worried that Senior Brother Li He was the kind of ruthless person who would exterminate evil and defend the Dao, so she immediately explained, "They are all good demonic beasts! Senior brother, don't be nervous!"

Li He looked at the two seriously and said, "I'm not making things difficult for the two of you. This is not Fotai City. Once you're discovered by the guards, they'll definitely attack you."

“It’s fine, I’ve been here for hundreds of years, I’m used to hiding here and there, but ...”

Yu Li then turned to Qianqian, who reacted and said, “I understand, Uncle. I’ll leave this place.”

“Where can you go? You still want to walk in the Immortal world with your cultivation level?”

Qianqian did not say anything either, while Yu Li sighed and said, “Forget it. You can follow me from now on. However, your future days won’t be easy.”

Dong Xi saw that they were in a difficult position and said to Li He, “Senior Brother, they are all good demonic beasts. It’s not easy for them to cultivate. If they encounter any difficulties in the future, please help them if you can.”

As Dong Xi spoke, she secretly gave Li He a Wind Speed Pill.

Li He was only a Foundation Establishment cultivator, and the Wind Speed Pill was a good item. It was enough to get Li He to agree.

Li He furrowed his brows and thought for a moment before finally compromising. “Alright, I will help them!”

Chapter 174 The Laughter at Night

Dong Xi smiled and cupped her fists to the crowd. "I still have some missions to complete, so I won't delay any longer. Goodbye."

Seeing Dong Xi leave, Qianqian and Yu Li looked at Li He and cupped their fists in farewell.

After Dong Xi left the Ningtian Sect encampment, she immediately went to the location of the first mission.

Was this a village near Fotai City? Every night, there would be laughter. Dong Xi's mission was to find out what was going on and report it to the sect.

In her previous life, Dong Xi had been obsessed with all kinds of supernatural horror stories. When she had first seen this mission, Dong Xi had been overjoyed.

Midnight laughter? Was there a ghost?

Dong Xi threw away the broken shoes on her feet, changed into a new pair, and walked towards the village.

Dong Xi could see a big willow tree at the village entrance from afar. The willow tree was very thick and needed two people to hug it. The dense crown of the tree covered the sky at the village entrance.

Dong Xi activated Earth Bending and arrived under the willow tree.

There were also a few large rocks under the tree. The surface was smooth, and it was obvious that many people used to sit here and chat in the cool.

There was a well beside the tree, where the villagers drew water. Dong Xi took a quick look and walked into the village.

The doors of every house were closed. Dong Xi glanced at the chimneys. They were all smoking, indicating that there were still people living there.

Dong Xi immediately knocked on the door of a house. Dong Xi said, "Is anyone there? I'm just passing by and want to drink some water."

The person in the room looked around and realized that it was a little girl.

But how could her family be at ease when she came out alone? Thinking of the laughter at night, which seemed to be children, the people in the house did not dare to open the door!

Dong Xi knocked on the doors of a few houses, but none of them dared to open the door. Dong Xi peeked through the crack of the door and could see some children tied up by their family members.

Many families were the same. It was really strange.

Dong Xi felt that he should change his strategy. This time, he walked directly to the door of a house and removed the door.

The people in the house were all wrapped together. Dong Xi stood at the door and looked at the old couple in the house. Dong Xi said, "You're all at home, why didn't you open the door?"

The two old men immediately knelt on the ground and kowtowed, "Fairy, please spare me!"

Dong Xi casually put the door back in place. After circulating her wood spiritual energy, all the damaged parts were repaired.

Dong Xi sat at the side and looked at the two old men who were trembling in fear. Dong Xi said, "Get up! Can you tell me why you won't open the door even though there are people in your house?"

The old lady looked at Dong Xi and asked in fear, "Y-y-y-you're an Immortal?"

Dong Xi stretched out her hand, and a flame appeared in her palm. She said, "What do you think?"

The old lady immediately relaxed and said, "Fairy, save me!"

"Answer my question first," said Dong Xi. "If you don't say anything, how can anyone save you?"

The old lady said, "It's like this..."

The two old men talked for a long time, and Dong Xi also understood.

From three months ago, this village had been filled with laughter every night.

At first, everyone was also afraid, but at most, they did not go out at night and worked normally during the day.

But one day, when they were ready to go out to work, they suddenly realized that everyone had gone out of the village, and they were even more afraid.

At this time, everyone also found that the children in the family always ran out in the middle of the night. The families with children were even more afraid, so they could only tie their children up.

“There’s only so much food in the village,” the old lady said. “We’ll run out of food one day. What will we do when we run out of food? And those children, I don’t know what’s attracting them, but they run out in the middle of the night. Don’t you think it’s scary?”

Dong Xi frowned. It was indeed a little scary. She had to investigate properly and report it to the sect.

At this moment, she finally understood why the mission description was not so detailed. It was because no one could get out of here!

“Then can I still go out?” Dong Xi asked.

The two old men looked at each other and shook their heads, “We don’t know,”

Dong Xi immediately stood up and used earth shrinking to walk towards the village entrance.

The two old men looked at Dong Xi’s actions and immediately became happy.

“Although this female Immortal is very young, she looks quite powerful!” the old man said.

The old lady also nodded excitedly, “Yup! It’s quite powerful!”

When Dong Xi arrived at the village entrance, she found that she was also blocked inside. There seemed to be an invisible wall in front of her blocking his way.

Dong Xi circulated her spiritual Qi and raised her hand to poke the barrier. She discovered that her finger had actually poked a hole in the barrier.

Chapter 175 Can't Get Out

Dong Xi retracted her hand and walked into the village, pretending that nothing had happened.

When the two old men saw Dong Xi return, they immediately went up and asked, "How is it? Fairy, can you go out?"

"I can't get out," Dong Xi shook her head.

When the two old men heard Dong Xi's words, they immediately said anxiously, "What should we do? Even you couldn't get out. Are you not a match for these monsters?"

Dong Xi did not say yes or no. She only said, "You guys sleep tonight, I'll go out and take a look. Isn't this thing supposed to attract children? I'm also a child."

The two old men said worriedly, "Umm..."

The two old men started to worry. This little female Immortal did not look very old, but the age of this Immortal was usually a mystery. This female Immortal might be a few hundred years old.

As night fell, Dong Xi sat at the door, letting the moon shine on her body.

Fortunately, although this barrier could block people, it could not block spiritual energy.

Dong Xi began to cultivate when she suddenly heard laughter. Dong Xi opened her eyes and looked in the direction of the sound.

She saw a little girl sitting by the well under the willow tree. She had two pigtails and looked to be seven years old.

When Dong Xi saw her, she smiled sweetly at her, and the willow tree swayed slightly as if there was a wind blowing.

The two of them were clearly far away, but Dong Xi could clearly hear the little girl's voice. The little girl said, "Are you here to play with me?"

Dong Xi stood up and looked at the little girl. Dong Xi said, "That's right. How do you want to play?"

The little girl said happily, "How about kicking a shuttlecock? I'm very good at kicking the shuttlecock!"

“Sure!” Dong Xi said.

The little girl jumped into the well and soon came back up with a shuttlecock.

Dong Xi played with the little girl for a long time. The little girl kicked the shuttlecock very badly and was no match for Dong Xi.

Seeing that the sky was almost bright, Dong Xi said, “You can’t beat me at all.”

“This is my first time kicking!” The little girl said angrily.

Dong Xi suddenly seemed to understand something. He looked at the little girl’s shadow under the moonlight and was very puzzled. Wasn’t there a shadow?

“You’re a ghost cultivator?” Dong Xi immediately asked.

“No, I’m not. I’m a demon!” The little girl shook her head.

Dong Xi thought about how the commoners had found Daoist priests to exorcise the ghosts, and how a little demon like this girl was more dedicated than ghosts.

“You can only come out to play at midnight?” Dong Xi asked with a frown.

“No,” the little girl shook her head. “It’s just that there’s no one to accompany me during the day. I only have someone to accompany me at night.”

Dong Xi was stunned for a moment and asked, “Tonight?” Someone’s playing with you?”

“That’s right,” the little girl said. “Ah Leng can only come out at night.”

Ah Leng? Who was it?

Dong Xi looked at the little girl and asked, “Where’s Ah Leng? Why didn’t I see her tonight?”

“Ah Leng is very shy, she doesn’t dare to meet strangers,” the little girl immediately said.

Dong Xi thought that the laughter at night must have come from the two of them playing at night.

“Since you already have someone to play with you, why did you call those children out?” asked Dong Xi.

"It's more lively with more people!" the little girl immediately said.

There's nothing wrong with what she was saying...

"Do you want to leave with me?" Dong Xi asked. "Here, these people are afraid of you. I have other friends at home, we can play together!"

The little girl shook her head and said with a sad expression, "I can't leave this place."

"Why can't we leave?" Dong Xi asked.

The little girl sighed and said, "I am the demon born from this willow tree. Wherever the willow tree is, I will be there!"

Dong Xi thought for a moment and said again, "If I cut off a section of this willow branch, can you leave with me?"

"I don't know!" The little girl shook her head.

"I'll try," Dong Xi said with a smile. "If it works, I'll take you back. I have plenty of spiritual energy there and someone to play with you. It'll definitely be better than here."

The little girl was convinced by Dong Xi and agreed to try.

Dong Xi raised her hand and broke a section of the willow branch, then walked out with the branch.

When the young lady saw Dong Xi walk out so simply, she was also instantly stunned.

Why was she able to walk out?

The little girl followed her and found that she had also gone out.

The big willow tree behind her was getting further and further away. The little girl stopped, and she was confused.

Why did the barrier seem to have lost its effectiveness?

Dong Xi stopped and turned to look at the little girl. She found that the little girl was confused. Dong Xi said, "How is it? You're out now!"

The little girl looked and murmured, "That's impossible..."
