Chapter 181 See You Again

Ah Leng thought for a moment and said calmly, "I've been trapped there for a thousand years, and the world has changed a lot. I want to walk around, so I won't go back with you. Please tell Xiao Qing that I'll take a look outside. After a while, I'll go back and find you."

Dong Xi did not try to persuade her and just cupped her fists, "Alright, we'll meet again!"

Dong Xi sat on the little leaf and quickly flew back to the sect.

For some reason, Dong Xi's right eyelid kept twitching, as if something bad had happened.

There was something wrong with the Eight-nine Cultivation Technique. Dong Xi avoided the path she usually took. There shouldn't be any problems, right?

However, reality had taught Dong Xi that misfortune and fortune always came together, and she could not avoid it.

This was the first time in Dong Xi's year in the cultivation world that she had encountered a case of murder and robbery.

A middle-aged man was taunting and attracting attention, and his spirit pet suddenly attacked another man from behind. The man was hit, and the middle-aged man immediately went forward and attacked, piercing his heart.

Dong Xi immediately sucked in a breath of cold air. She recalled the feeling of being pierced by Dong Rourou. It was really too painful!

The middle-aged man raised his head and looked at Dong Xi. The sense of danger in Dong Xi's heart grew even stronger.

Without hesitation, Dong Xi put away the leaf and replaced it with the little turtle. Then, she quickly injected spiritual Qi and ate a top-grade Wind Speed Pill. She chose a direction and quickly flew out.

The middle-aged man was at the Foundation Establishment stage, so Dong Xi did not dare to stay and fight with him.

As Dong Xi ran, she dodged the attacks coming from behind her and also had to be careful of the middle-aged man's spirit pet.

At this time, Dong Xi was very glad that she had cultivated 'multitasking'. Otherwise, she would have really died here.

This middle-aged man should be from the Beast Trainer Sect. As for the person who was killed, Dong Xi had also seen him clearly. From the clothes he wore, he should be from the Masked Moon Sect!

Dong Xi had seen it very clearly, and the middle-aged man had also seen Dong Xi. He wanted to murder her to silence her. The middle-aged man would definitely not let Dong Xi off.

When Dong Xi sensed that her spiritual Qi was quickly disappearing, she could only bitterly swallow another top-grade Spirit Restore Pill.

The middle-aged man was also surprised. The girl in front of him was just a little girl. Normally, she should have used up her spiritual energy long ago. How could she run so fast?

Could it be that he was a direct disciple of some sect elder? Wasn't this too unlucky?

However, what the middle-aged man did not know was that in this world, there were things that were even more unfortunate than meeting the sect elder's direct disciple.

The middle-aged man was chasing seriously when a gust of wind suddenly blew over. The middle-aged man did not see where the attacker was, only a black shadow flashed by.

The next second, the middle-aged man exploded in the air. Dong Xi turned around and saw the bloody scene.

Dong Xi's eyes instantly widened. Then, she immediately squatted on the little turtle and could not help but vomit.

"Look at you," a familiar voice said.

Dong Xi raised his head and saw a familiar yet unfamiliar person appear above his head.

His face was still as handsome as ever, but his signature tail was gone, replaced by a pair of long, slender legs.

"Why are you here?" Dong Xi asked with a puzzled look.

"I don't want to use the Soul-Seeking Lamp to search for your three souls and seven spirits all over the Immortal world," Su Cheng said with a contemptuous smile.

When Dong Xi heard this, she asked in confusion, "You mean, if I die, you'll help me find my three spiritual and seven physical souls?"

If that was the case, Dong Xi would no longer fear death.

For some reason, su Cheng immediately saw through the little girl's thoughts. He said indifferently, "Forget it, you're just a Qi Refinement stage cultivator, he's not of much use."

When Dong Xi heard this, she was instantly unhappy. She said, "What crime did a Qi Refinement stage cultivator commit? Which person didn't cultivate from the Qi Refinement stage? I'm not an ordinary Qi Refinement cultivator, I'm a future super alchemist!"

Dong Xi's positioning was very accurate. When Su Cheng heard this, he smiled and said, "Tell me when you've lived to that day. But with your abilities, you can forget about it."

Dong Xi, "..."

Looking at Dong Xi's speechless face, Su Cheng continued, "Your cultivation is very low now. If you don't have anything to do, don't wander around outside. Stay in the sect and cultivate. Come out when your cultivation is high enough!"

"But, the Senior Brothers all said that I can come out and accept missions when I'm at the third level of Qi Refinement," Dong Xi said while biting her lip.

"That's because there's something you don't know about!" Su Cheng snorted.

"Huh?" Dong Xi immediately asked curiously. "What do you mean?"

Chapter 182 The Higher Your Cultivation, the More You Can Do Whatever You Want

Su Cheng squinted his eyes and said with a serious face, "Things are different now."

Dong Xi thought for a moment and nodded. Then, she suddenly remembered something and immediately took out a porcelain bottle from her pocket and threw it to Su Cheng. She said, "Lady Rong asked me to give you this. She said it can help you."

Su Cheng threw it to Dong Xi and said, "Take it and give it to me when we return to the sect."

Dong Xi was just about to ask why he did not take it himself when he saw Su Cheng's figure dissipate with the wind.

Dong Xi was stunned at first, then suddenly discovered that this was not his main body, but only a wisp of divine sense.

That Foundation Establishment man could not even deal with this wisp of divine sense. Just because his cultivation was high, he could do whatever he wanted!

Dong Xi looked at the middle-aged man who had turned into a bloody mist behind her. She felt that leaving just like that would be letting this person off too easily.

Changing the turtle under her feet to the little leaf, Dong Xi thought for a long time before finally choosing to take out a jade slip and anonymously post a message in the square.

[600 kilometers North of Fotai City, Beast Trainer Sect disciple at the Foundation Establishment stage killed a Masked Moon Sect Qi Refinement stage disciple!]

After sending an anonymous message, Dong Xi immediately left.

If something were to happen now, no one would save Dong Xi again.

Moreover, that stinky snake had already said that she was only at the Qi Refinement stage, so there was no need for her to gather her three souls and seven spirits.

However, Dong Xi did not know that while he was running, the square in the jade slip was in an uproar because of the message Dong Xi had sent.

This was because Beast Trainer Sect and Masked Moon Sect were both Righteous sects. How could these Righteous sects kill each other? Could it be that when he went out again in the future, he could not even trust these famous and Righteous sects?

Coincidentally, the grandson of the Masked Moon Sect's elder Zha Chen had gone out to train and his soul lamp had been extinguished. Zha Chen had blamed this matter on the Beast Trainer Sect.

Beast Trainer Sect wanted to know what happened, so they sent people to follow Zha Chen to a place 600 kilometers North of Fotai city.

People asked about this every day, but there was no response at all.

It was not until six days later that Beast Trainer Sect appeared and clarified that demons had invaded. At that time, the disciple should have been possessed by the demons.

At this moment, Dong Xi had already arrived in front of the sect. After a few days of continuous travel, Dong Xi's skin had turned two degrees darker.

Dong Xi came down from the leaf and was about to enter the sect when she was stopped.

The person who stopped Dong Xi said, "Only disciples of our sect are allowed to enter. If there is an important matter, you can enter after registration."

Dong Xi was taken aback. She raised his head and looked at the person in front of her. It was actually someone she knew.

"Chen Farong!" Dong Xi said. "Take a good look, it's me!"

As he spoke, Dong Xi took out her waist token and waved it in front of Chen Farong to prove her identity.

After Chen Farong got closer, he saw the name on the waist token.

Chen Farong immediately said in disbelief, "Junior Sister? How did you end up like this?"

Dong Xi smiled awkwardly and said, "These two days have been too coy. It's okay. I'll go back and cultivate in seclusion for a few days. My skin will turn white again."

"See you later!" After saying that, Dong Xi walked towards the cave dwelling.

Chen Farong looked at Dong Xi's back as he walked further and further away. He wanted to say something, but he didn't. Perhaps Junior Sister did not know that it was impossible for her to go into seclusion. The entire Alchemy Sect's disciples were waiting for Dong Xi to return and share her alchemy experience!

When Dong Xi returned to the cave, she found that Songsong was already awake.

After it woke up, it stayed in the courtyard of the cave abode very obediently, not daring to go anywhere else.

When Songsong saw Dong Xi's appearance, it immediately ran into Dong Xi's arms and said, "Xiaoxi, you've finally returned! Songsong thought you didn't want me anymore! Sob sob, that snake is too scary. I waited for you to come back and help take revenge for me!"

Dong Xi was originally very happy to see that Songsong had woken up, but when she heard Songsong say this, her expression instantly became complicated.

“Relax!” Dong Xi immediately said. “What revenge? It’s basically the two of us getting beaten up together. Don’t talk like that in the future, or we’ll get beaten up!”

Songsong was stunned for a moment, then she climbed out of Dong Xi’s arms and onto his shoulder.

“Xiaoxi, even you can’t beat him?” asked Songsong in disbelief.

“Yes!” Dong Xi nodded.

Songsong’s ears drooped down and it said, ” “So, you can only sleep in the yard with Songsong tonight?”

“That’s right!” Dong Xi bitterly replied.

As she spoke, Dong Xi took out the scroll and let Liu Qing out. He placed him not far from the pond.

Songsong saw a willow tree. It was confused and asked, “Xiaoxi... This... This tree is growing so fast?”

As soon as songsong finished speaking, Liu Qing came down from the tree. After looking around, Liu Qing said happily, "Xiaoxi! He was really not at the village entrance! What is this place?"

Chapter 183 This Is a Treasure Ground

Liu Qing squinted her eyes and took a deep breath. She had a satisfied look and said, "The spiritual energy here is so dense. This is a treasure land!"

If Liu Qing had been here since she was born, she would not have taken so long to gain wisdom.

Songsong saw that Liu Qing and Dong Xi were very close. Songsong immediately asked, "Xiaoxi! Who is this?"

Songsong's question suddenly appeared in Dong Xi's mind. Dong Xi did not expect Songsong would be jealous. She smiled and said, "This is my friend, Liu Qing!"

After saying that, she pulled Songsong down from her shoulder and held it in her arms. Dong Xi said, "This is Songsong, my contracted demonic beast. We can play together in the future!"

!!

Songsong and Liu Qing looked at each other and heard Songsong squeak twice.

Dong Xi was just about to explain when Liu Qing said with a smile, "No problem! As long as I'm here, you can live on this tree!"

Hearing Liu Qing's words, Songsong squeaked a few more times. Songsong ran from Liu Qing's hand to the tree and jumped between the branches, extremely excited.

Dong Xi jumped up lightly and grabbed Songsong.

"Don't think that you'll be fine just because you've woken up!" Dong Xi angrily rebuked with a serious expression. "I didn't even ask you! Didn't I tell you before not to crawl around? Not only did you run around, but you also ate someone else's food?"

Songsong lowered its head and sneaked a glance at Dong Xi's expression, just in time to see her stern gaze.

Songsong immediately wrapped itself up with its tail. It whispered, "S-Songsong didn't do it on purpose. Songsong was very hungry at that time..."

Only then did Dong Xi remember that the last time she had gone into seclusion to refine pills, it had indeed been a long time, and Songsong had no one to feed it.

Dong Xi sighed softly. This could be considered as a reminder to Dong Xi.

In the future, she had to prepare food for it. She could not wait for it to eat another family's spirit herb and regret it.

Dong Xi took out some spirit plants that Songsong liked from his storage ring. Dong Xi said, "I'll leave these for you to eat. If it's not enough, tell me quickly. You can't eat other people's food. Second Senior Brother didn't blame you before, but if you eat someone else's food, you might just disappear from this world!"

Songsong thought about how the man had dealt with it with a single finger. How terrifying would it be if someone were to take aggressive action?

The more Songsong thought about it, the more scared it became. It almost scared itself to death.

All of Songsong's fur stood on end. It kept chopping peppers in Dong Xi's hand and then jumped onto Dong Xi's head uneasily. It wrapped itself with its tail and trembled.

Dong Xi took down Songsong and gave it to Liu Qing. Dong Xi said, "You guys have fun, I have something to do."

After saying that, Dong Xi went into the cave abode. After all, there was still an ancestor waiting inside!

Moreover, no matter what, the great snake had saved Dong Xi's life two days ago.

This time, when she entered the cave dwelling, she found that it was very clean inside. The black floor was also very clean, and Dong Xi was not quite used to it.

Dong Xi looked at the bed at the side. The large snake was still the same as before, its his coiled.

Dong Xi coughed a few times and probed, "Umm.. You aren't asleep, are you?"

Su Cheng slowly opened his eyes. Just as he was about to speak, he saw a dark face approaching.

Su Cheng's pupils contracted, and the lines in his eyes became more complicated.

"How did it become so dark?" Su Cheng asked.

Dong Xi would never have thought that the snake's first words would be this after she had returned with great difficulty.

Dong Xi was now like a husband who worked hard to earn money outside, but was despised when he came home!

Dong Xi looked at the snake with resentment and frowned. Dong Xi said, "Darker than you? You're a black snake, why do you look down on others being black? Isn't that a little bad?"

Su Cheng, "..."

This was considered disdain? He was just asking casually.

Besides, so what if Su Cheng did not like it? Can't he despise a human baby?

"Is everything done?" Su Cheng asked.

Dong Xi looked straight at Su Cheng and said, "You're changing the subject too stiffly."

"I wanted to give you a reward, but it seems like you don't want it anymore!" Su Cheng snorted.

When Dong Xi heard the word 'reward', she immediately smiled in a flattering manner. Dong Xi said, "Of course it's all done! When I'm working for you, I'm naturally very serious! I've also taken a look at your lover. She's very confident and very beautiful..."

Dong Xi praised and even gave Su Cheng a thumbs up. Dong Xi said, "You're quite lucky with women!"

Su Cheng looked at Dong Xi's behavior and instantly thought of Qian Ling. Everyone said Qian Ling was good at talking, but when it came to human cubs, Qing Lian was not even one in ten thousand of this little girl!

Chapter 184 Thank You for the Compliment

Su Cheng thought about it and said seriously, “Flowery words!”

Not only did Dong Xi not feel any shame, but she also cupped her fists and said, “Thank you for the compliment!”

Su Cheng threw an item over, and Dong Xi immediately caught it. It was just a stone!

“What is it?” asked Dong Xi.

Dong Xi had never seen such a thing before. She had only been in the world of cultivators for slightly more than a year. Even if she had absorbed a lot of knowledge like a stuffed duck, there would still be many blind spots.

Su Cheng casually looked at the confused Dong Xi and said, “This is called Cold Chalcedony, and it can repair the sword in your hand!”

Repair?

Dong Xi instantly caught the main point. The great snake had said that it would be repaired. Did not that mean that the sword stone in his hand was really broken?

But from Dong Xi's usage of it during this period of time, there was nothing wrong at all!

Just a light touch and it would split into two, should not that be considered a bug? Perhaps it was not, it should be said that it was a work of art!

This sword was also something that the great snake had asked her to buy back then. Presumably, the snake should know more about it!

With the intention of getting to the bottom of this, Dong Xi cupped her fists and asked again, "Snake, is my sword really broken?"

Su Cheng nodded. "That's right. The sword could store spiritual Qi, but it can't now. If it stores enough spiritual Qi, the power of the sword moves will be greater."

Dong Xi nodded. If that was the case, it was possible to repair it.

But before Dong Xi could be happy, Su Cheng continued, "This sword has been severely damaged before, causing it to split easily now. After repairing it, this situation will not occur again."

Dong Xi, "!!!"

What? It will not split after restoration? How could this be?

Dong Xi immediately interrupted Su Cheng's words. Dong Xi asked, "If that's the case, there's no need to repair it, right?"

Su Cheng was confused.

Dong Xi returned the Cold Chalcedony to Su Cheng. Dong Xi said, "Can you change this reward?"

Su Cheng was confused.

It was the first time in a thousand years that they had encountered such a strange human!

Su Cheng frowned and asked in confusion, "Are you really not going to repair your sword?"

"That's right, I won't repair it!" Dong Xi nodded.

Su Cheng was very curious. He asked, "Why?"

Dong Xi raised her head and said with a serious face, "If I want to improve, I can't rely too much on external objects. Although the sword has flaws, I will become stronger because of it!"

Su Cheng, "..."

This girl was so young, how could she have such great reasoning? Su Cheng chuckled and said, "You will be stronger? Hahaha... Then you'll live to a stronger time. Now that you're not strong enough, external things are the capital for you to live on!"

Dong Xi remained silent. She knew that the great snake was right! But Dong Xi really did not want to repair the sword like this!

Su Cheng looked at Dong Xi's expression and gently knocked on the stone bed. He suddenly understood something.

"Tell me the truth, why don't you want to fix it?" Su Cheng asked indifferently.

Dong Xi raised her head and happened to see Su Cheng's eyes. Dong Xi immediately turned her head with a guilty conscience. Dong Xi whispered, "Who can resist a two-handed sword?"

Su Cheng did not expect this to be the reason. Su Cheng frowned and asked, "Two-handed sword?"

Dong Xi nodded and immediately took out her sword. Dong Xi said, "You watch carefully!"

Su Cheng looked at the sword in Dong Xi's hand. Dong Xi raised the sword and slashed at Su Cheng's stone bed.

But just as the sword was about to touch the stone bed, Dong Xi stopped.

Su Cheng was stunned and saw Dong Xi walking out with the sword. Dong Xi said, "I'd better go outside and cut other things, in case I break your bed and I don't have money to pay for it!"

Dong Xi immediately walked to the courtyard. Su Cheng looked at the open stone door and also got up to go out.

In the courtyard, there was a sword-testing stone that she had brought back from the Sword Sect. Dong Xi injected some spiritual power into it and looked at the sword-testing stone.

Su Cheng just happened to walk out and saw the sword in Dong Xi's hand break.

But the broken sword did not just become useless, but instead became two?

Dong Xi just picked it up and wanted to go back to show it to Su Cheng, but when he turned around, she found Su Cheng behind her. She raised the two swords in her hands and said, "Look, a two-handed sword, right?"

Su Cheng was also confused. What was going on?

Dong Xi held the sword with both hands and kept showing off. Dong Xi said, "Look, this can grow longer and also become shorter, isn't it very convenient? So, there was no need to repair it, right? I think it's better to use it like this, right?"

Su Cheng looked at the two swords that became longer and shorter and suddenly thought of a long-forgotten name, the White Owl Purple Jade Sword!

Chapter 185 Who Is This Person?

White Owl Purple Jade. Su Cheng was very curious before. Why would there be the word 'Purple Jade' when it was white? This must be the origin of the Purple Jade, right?

However, the sword's previous owner had not discovered this way of using it. If it was broken, it was broken. The sword was very powerful, but it was very fragile. It could only be strengthened by adding in materials.

It was indeed good in the early stages, but many materials were needed to strengthen the sword later on. It was not worth it, so the sword was slowly forgotten.

From the looks of it now, it was possible that the White Owl Purple Jade Sword had never met the fated person in the past!

Su Cheng saw that Dong Xi was having a good time, so he walked back to the cave.

Dong Xi was still thinking about the reward for running the errand and immediately followed Su Cheng.

Liu Qing was sitting on the willow tree, still holding onto Songsong.

After seeing Dong Xi and Su Cheng enter the cave, Liu Qing asked curiously, "Songsong, who is this?"

Songsong, who was lying on Liu Qing's lap, raised its head and looked at Liu Qing. It narrowed its eyes and thought for a moment before saying, "That person is probably... Xiaoxi's ancestor, right?"

Liu Qing's expression showed that he understood. Liu Qing said, "So that's how it is. No wonder Xiaoxi cave dwelling was given to that person to live in. In the past, Ah Leng told me that humans are very particular about respecting the elderly."

"That big snake is very fierce, stay away from it in the future!" said Songsong.

Su Cheng did not know that he had become the old man the two little things were talking about. He sat on the stone bench in the house and waved his hand. A tea set appeared on the table.

Su Cheng poured a cup of tea and watched Dong Xi follow him in.

Dong Xi was still holding two swords in her hands. She stopped two steps away from Su Cheng and asked tentatively, "Can this really be used as a two-handed sword? I'm used to it now. Can I not repair it? "

Su Cheng took a sip of tea and said, "This is yours, do as you please."

Dong Xi heaved a sigh of relief when she heard this. Dong Xi continued to ask, "Then, can you change the reward for me?"

Su Cheng thought for a moment and threw another talisman to Dong Xi.

Dong Xi turned pale with fright, thinking that the snake was about to attack. She dodged immediately.

The talisman slowly fell from the sky to the ground.

Nothing happened.

Su Cheng saw Dong Xi's actions and said contemptuously, "If I wanted to kill you, would I need to waste a spirit talisman?"

Dong Xi was stunned. She suddenly remembered that the spirit talisman was a reward given by the great snake. Her eyes immediately lit up and she quickly bent down to pick it up.

The runes on the spirit talisman were extremely complicated. No matter how ignorant Dong Xi was, she could guess that this was a high-grade spirit talisman.

Dong Xi carefully picked up the talisman and blew off the dust on it. She walked to Su Cheng's side with a smile and asked, "Snake, what is this talisman?"

Su Cheng rolled her eyes at Dong Xi. She said, "teleportation a thousand miles at random. This can be used three times. After three times, it will lose its effect!"

Instantly, Dong Xi felt that the talisman in her hand was as heavy as a thousand pounds. How was this just talisman paper? This was Dong Xi's life!

The giant snake had given her a turtle shell that could withstand three attacks, and now it had given her a spirit talisman that could help him escape three times.

In that case, the great snake had already given her six lives!

From the looks of it, the great snake was really afraid that Dong Xi would die?

Dong Xi's mood immediately became very good. It seemed that her spiritual energy was indeed extraordinary.

"Thank you, snake!" Dong Xi patted his chest and said. If there's something like this in the future, I'll definitely help you!"

After saying that, Dong Xi seemed to have thought of something and immediately took out the porcelain bottle that Lady Rong had given him from her storage ring.

"Your lover misses you, so he asked me to bring this back for you. Please keep it well," said Dong Xi.

Dong Xi directly said that he was in a relationship. Su Cheng was too lazy to explain, but now he could not help it!

He frowned and lightly said, "Lady Rong is my subordinate, not my lover! Why don't you learn to be a good girl at such a young age?"

Were all human cubs this mature? One had to know that when the snake tribe was this old, they had not reached the mating season!

Dong Xi could vaguely hear Su Cheng's displeasure and immediately shut her mouth.

"If there's nothing else, I'll take my leave first!" said Dong Xi.

Dong Xi was afraid that the great snake would attack her in a fit of anger and wanted to leave quickly.

Su Cheng glanced at the bottle and said, "Get out!"

Dong Xi immediately turned around and ran. After she went out, she did not forget to close the door of the cave for Su Cheng.

Dong Xi's voice disappeared, and the Immortal's cave returned to its previous tranquility.

Su Cheng liked the cool and humid environment. The windows of the cave were covered by a curtain, and the light shone on the curtain, reflecting dreamy spots on his face.
