Chapter 271 They All Had Their Own Drawing

Even though he said that, Kong Xing didn't say that he wanted to learn, allowing Dong Xi to heave a sigh of relief.

Dong Xi had been in this world for two years, and only Li Li had learned Arabic numbers. As for mathematics, Dong Xi had not taught him yet.

According to Li Li, divination was very difficult to begin with. Even though the diviners or fortune tellers had never learned mathematics and had the premise of probability theory, they could still calculate. In terms of intelligence, they were definitely among the top group of people.

As long as she taught them a little, these people would make rapid progress in mathematics. By then, even Dong Xi might lose to them. Dong Xi had also made an agreement with Li Li that she would teach him mathematics after he had a breakthrough.

The two of them squatted in a corner and drew their own drawings.

Dong Xi's calculation was faster, and the result was similar to her previous guess. According to her calculations, the Ningtian Sect had a great advantage.

Dong Xi put away the pen and paper in satisfaction, then looked at Kong Xing at the side. Kong Xing drew a beautiful pattern, and there were even symbols within the pattern.

Dong Xi could not understand this at all.

Seeing how serious Kong Xing was, Dong Xi did not want to disturb him, so she wrote him a note and left.

It was rare for her to come out to broaden her horizons. Dong Xi also wanted to see how other cultivators fought.

If he did not learn these real-life combat techniques now, when would he learn them?

Although Dong Xi was only at the Qi Refinement stage, the token in her hand could only allow her to watch the battles of Qi Refinement cultivators. After the top 50 were selected, the competition of the other two stages would be open to everyone.

Dong Xi stood in front of the projection screen, looking at the battle information of the Qi Refinement arena.

Dong Xi found a familiar face, it was Senior Sister Gu Yao, who had defeated her previously.

The one who fought Senior Sister Gu Yao was a disciple of Beast Trainer Sect. Dong Xi instantly thought of that little cat and made a decision.

That's right, let's go and watch this match. What else is more attractive than this beautiful Senior Sister?

In the 18th arena, Dong Xi squeezed through the crowd and found that there were a lot of people.

Thinking about it, not only was Senior Sister Gu Yao beautiful, but she was also so powerful. She should be admired by many people.

Just by standing there, she was already very pleasing to the eye. Some people were born to stand in the spotlight.

Although there was no spotlight in the cultivation world, Senior Sister Gu Yao could still attract everyone's attention.

The disciple fighting with Senior Sister Gu Yao was also at the 11th level of the Qi Refinement stage.

He looked like a middle-aged man, and his contracted beast was a Lightning Tiger.

Dong Xi immediately frowned. This competition was extremely disadvantageous.

Everyone knew that metals could conduct electricity, and the other party was a Lightning Tiger. Wouldn't that be a perfect counter?

If Dong Xi could think of it, so could everyone else. Everyone looked at the beauty on the stage.

They all had worried looks on their faces, as if they were the ones who would be defeated.

Everyone was worried for Gu Yao. Gu Yao indeed looked calm and did not seem to be worried at all.

After that, Gu Yao took out the wooden sword that she used to practice in her sect.

Everyone knew that wood would not conduct electricity.

However, a wooden sword was just an ordinary wooden sword. To sword practitioners, a treasured sword was very important, just like the beasts of the Beast Trainer Sect.

Gu Yao was originally fighting two Beast Trainer Sect disciples at once, but now she had broken one of her arms.

Everyone was sure that Senior Sister Gu Yao would lose this time.

Dong Xi even wanted to lend her sword to her Senior Sister. Although she did not know what material her sword was made of, she was sure it was not made of metal.

Unfortunately, the competition had already begun, and the ring had a protective shield. Unless the two of them decided who would win or one of them gave up, the protective shield would not be opened.

Gu Yao held her wooden sword and looked at the disciple of Beast Trainer Sect. She said, "Fellow Daoist, please enlighten me."

The disciple of Beast Trainer Sect was called Chen Wei. Seeing Gu Yao take out her wooden sword, Chen Wei was sure that he would win this competition.

Chen Wei's expression looked much better.

Chen Wei smiled. "Don't worry, Fairy. I won't ruthlessly destroy a flower."

As he spoke, Chen Wei patted the Lightning Tiger's head. Chen Wei continued, "This guy won't either."

Gu Yao knew that he underestimated her, and she was very unhappy. However, her expression was still calm.

The sharp tongue was useless. Only the winner could give a victory speech.

Chen Wei and the Lightning Tiger moved at the same time. Chen Wei knew that this was the first match and many of his trump cards could not be revealed.

Gu Yao looked as the tiger rushed at her. She knew that she had to take it out first before dealing with the disciple from the Beast Trainer Sect.

Compared to the Lightning Tiger, which had strong resistance, it was clear that it would be easier to attack Chen Wei.

Gu Yao's wooden sword flickered and she used her movement technique to attack Chen Wei.

Chen Wei knew very well that he could not allow the swordsman to get close to him. He immediately retreated and commanded the Lightning Tiger to block the sword strikes.

Chapter 272 You Know It In Your Heart

A lightning bolt struck in front of Gu Yao. Gu Yao's body paused for a second before she retreated rapidly.

Even though Gu Yao had a high ponytail and was dressed in neat clothes like Dong Xi, she still looked like a fairy when she did this.

Gu Yao tapped on the ground and charged at Chen Wei again.

Gu Yao also knew that the disciples of Beast Trainer Sect were not as strong as she was.

!!

After all, the disciples of Beast Trainer Sect all relied on the power of demonic beasts. It was not comparable to the power that sword cultivators cultivated themselves.

The Lightning Tiger saw that its master was about to be injured and immediately pounced toward Gu Yao. Gu Yao and the Lightning Tiger started to fight.

Chen Wei was at the side, throwing out some talismans at any time. Gu Yao fell into a passive position.

She could not let this drag on. If this continued, her spiritual energy would be depleted.

Although Dong Xi had given her the Spirit Restore Pill, she could not start taking the pill in the first round, right?

The girl and the tiger fought back and forth on the stage, making everyone extremely nervous.

Gu Yao turned her wrist and used her sword technique again. She pretended to attack the tiger but used the first move of her sword technique to block it for a moment. Then, she turned around and attacked Chen Wei.

The Lightning Tiger knew that he could not make it in time, so it could only cast lightning at Gu Yao again.

Gu Yao did not have any intention of stopping. Even if she was injured, she had to defeat Chen Wei.

Without the lightning Tiger, Chen Wei was like a sitting duck. He could only look at the protective shield on Gu Yao's body. Gu Yao waved her sword with a determined look in her eyes.

Chen Wei took out his Dharma artifact and planned to fight back, but Gu Yao easily broke through it.

When the tiger rushed back, Gu Yao's sword was already on Chen Wei's chest. Blood was flowing out of Gu Yao's wrist and dripping to the ground.

When the crowd below the stage saw this scene, they all cheered. Some of these people were not disciples of the Ningtian Sect, but most of them were sword cultivators.

The protective shield on the ring opened and a monk walked up, announcing Gu Yao's victory. He then read out the next person who would be fighting in the ring.

Gu Yao put away her wooden sword and cupped her fists, "Thanks for letting me win."

Then, Gu Yao jumped off the ring. Dong Xi immediately went up to her. Seeing Gu Yao injured, Dong Xi was very distressed.

"Hurry up and eat this, Senior Sister," said Dong Xi as he took out a bottle of pills.

Gu Yao looked at the porcelain bottle in her hand and felt warm in her heart.

Gu Yao smiled. "There are free healing cultivators in this competition. Let's go find them for healing. Don't waste the pills."

Dong Xi was speechless.

Senior Sister's cold temperament disappeared, and she instantly became the big sister next door, becoming really likable.

"Alright, I'll go with you, Senior Sister," said Dong Xi.

Gu Yao returned the pill to Dong Xi and Dong Xi said, "Senior Sister, keep it. There are still many competitions later, and it might be useful."

The two of them talked as they walked toward the healing point.

The rankings had to be determined in a short time, so they naturally had to use all their strength during the competition, so it was inevitable that there would be injuries. After a discussion, the sects decided that each sect would send someone to set up a free medical point.

The people at the medical center were almost all cultivators with wood or water spirit roots. Wood spirit root cultivators had better healing abilities.

Dong Xi also knew that the wood spirit root could heal injuries, but she had never learned it in detail. She could only use spiritual Qi to heal injuries, and the effect was naturally not as good as those professionals.

Dong Xi accompanied Gu Yao to a female cultivator and chatted with her for a while. The female cultivator then brought Gu Yao into a room.

Dong Xi was waiting at the door, and there was an endless stream of people who came to treat their injuries.

She instantly thought of Second Senior Brother. He could take out so many pills so easily. No wonder he said that this competition was not a challenge to him.

He had all kinds of pills. Unless his head was cut off, Second Senior Brother could not only heal his injuries but also eat a lot of Spirit Restore Pills. Even if he could not win, he could exhaust his opponent to death.

Dong Xi leaned against the wall, and the Big Snake's voice appeared in her mind. The Big Snake said, "Give your Senior Sister one of the Exorcism Pills you made."

Dong Xi was taken aback. Then, his eyes widened as if he had thought of something.

The Exorcism Pill was used to clear the demonic Qi. If he's asking her to give one to Senior Sister, could it be that Senior Sister...

Dong Xi immediately became a little nervous, and blood quickly flowed to her head. Dong Xi said, "What do you mean?"

If Dong Xi's guess was right, then the Masked Moon Sect had said that the demonic race had invaded the sect.

Everyone, even Dong Xi, felt that it was impossible. They wanted the demons to take the blame.

But now, Senior Sister Gu Yao was poisoned by demonic Qi? What was going on? Did the Masked Moon Sect say that to make the demons take the blame, or did they really discover something?

Su Cheng said ambiguously, "It's exactly what you're thinking,"

Then, Su Cheng fell into a deep sleep again.

Chapter 273 Eat This Pill

Dong Xi once again tried to call out to Su Cheng, but there was no sound at all.

Dong Xi was extremely anxious outside, but Gu Yao still did not come out.

After a long time, the door finally opened.

Dong Xi looked up and saw Senior Sister Gu Yao walking out of the house.

Dong Xi immediately went up to her. She said anxiously, "Senior Sister, how is it? Do you feel uncomfortable anywhere?"

Gu Yao noticed that Dong Xi was very anxious, and even had a thin layer of sweat on her forehead.

When Dong Xi had met earlier, she had not been like this.

Although Gu Yao did not understand what was going on, she said patiently, "I'm fine. It's not a big injury. I'm fine now."

Dong Xi did not ask any more questions, directly taking out a porcelain bottle and pouring out a pill for Gu Yao.

"Senior Sister, take this pill," said Dong Xi with a serious expression.

Gu Yao felt that it was too wasteful to eat pills like this. Besides, there was nothing wrong with it, so she did not need to eat it at all.

However, Dong Xi insisted that Gu Yao eat it. Dong Xi said, "Senior Sister, listen to me. I'll only be at ease when I see you eat it."

Seeing Dong Xi like this, Gu Yao thought for a moment and took the pill.

Gu Yao ate the pill and looked at Dong Xi again. She said, "Is it okay now? You can relax."

Dong Xi could finally relax when she saw Gu Yao eat the pill. Gu Yao did not have much demonic Qi in her body, so one Exorcism Pill should be enough. She would let the Big Snake take a look at her next time.

"Don't worry, Senior Sister, you can go back and rest," said Dong Xi.

After they parted, Dong Xi took out her communication jade slip again and sent a message to Song Qingfeng.

[Second Senior Brother, where is Eldest Senior Brother? Why can't I contact him?]

Song Qingfeng replied.

[He probably went to fight, right? The geniuses of the eight big sects are all here. Eldest Senior Brother is a sword cultivator, so, of course, he's going to fight.]

Song Qingfeng was also very curious. Little Junior Sister is also a sword cultivator, why didn't she go fight?

Usually, Little Junior Sister would grind so much, but now she didn't? It was really rare.

Dong Xi sighed and replied.

[Forget it. I can look for you. Where are you now?]

Soon, Dong Xi came to Song Qingfeng's location and sat across from him. She said, "Senior Brother, I didn't expect you to end the battle so quickly."

Song Qingfeng's puppet maidservant brought a plate of spirit fruits to Dong Xi, and Dong Xi ate them without any hesitation. Song Qingfeng said lightly, "This level of competition is really boring."

Dong Xi completely ignored his boastful words. Second Senior Brother was a cheater, how could he say such things? Forget it, business is more important.

"Senior Brother," said Dong Xi, "you have to be careful of the people from the Beast Trainer Sect. There's something wrong with them."

Song Qingfeng looked at Dong Xi in surprise, his fingers tapping on the tea table. He said, "Oh, really? Little fellow, did you notice something wrong?"

Dong Xi nodded. "Today, I watched Senior Sister Gu Yao's battle with the disciple from the Beast Trainer sect. Although Senior Sister won, she was injured by the other party's demonic beast. When I accompanied Senior Sister to the healing spot, I suddenly noticed a little demonic Qi on Senior Sister's body."

Hearing this, Song Qingfeng immediately became serious. He said, "Are you sure it's demonic Qi?"

"I'm very sure." Dong Xi nodded and said, "My spiritual aura is somewhat special. Even if the demonic Qi is faint, I can detect it. I'm absolutely sure."

As the Big Snake could not be exposed at the moment, Dong Xi could only take the credit himself.

At the same time, Dong Xi thought to himself, the kitten that had jumped into his arms that day, did it really like her?

Now, it did not seem like it. It was probably because Dong Xi also had some demonic Qi.

After hearing these words, Song Qingfeng frowned and did not look up. He stood up and said, "You go back to your room first, I'll go look for Master Yi Kun."

Dong Xi nodded. Just as she was about to leave, Song Qingfeng stopped her. Dong Xi turned to look at Song Qingfeng, who said, "Little Junior Sister, go back and lock the doors and windows. You must protect yourself."

"Don't worry, Senior Brother, I know what to do," said Dong Xi with a smile.

Second Senior Brother had been very good to Dong Xi for a long time, so Dong Xi was not afraid of those demons. She even had strong demons by her side, so these small fries were not scary at all.

Even if Dong Xi had really been contaminated with demonic Qi, she still had so many Exorcism Pills.

Although she did not know why the Big Snake had asked her to prepare these Exorcism Pills, it might be because he wanted to turn over a new leaf and become a good person. No matter what, they were now completely useful.

Dong Xi left Song Qingfeng's room. She did not go back to her room directly, but went to the projection screen and recorded all the disciples who went against the Beast Trainer Sect today.

When she had the time, she could check them one by one to see if these people had been contaminated with demonic Qi.

Chapter 274 Trouble Is Here

When Dong Xi returned to her room, she immediately activated the restriction. A bell suddenly rang from outside. Then, Thunder Sound Temple activated the sect's grand formation.

Kong Xing also sent a message to Dong Xi.

Dong Xi replied.

!!

[Okay, thank you for your reminder, Senior Brother.]

After that, Dong Xi sent a message to her Senior Brothers and sisters, and then anonymously posted on the messenger jade slip that something had happened in the inter-sect competition, telling everyone to stay in their rooms and not go out.

Those who could come here to compete were all smart people and geniuses. None of them were stupid and they cherished their lives very much. No one would be so bold as to act rashly.

Dong looked at the various messages in the messenger square and smiled. She put away the jade slip and prepared to continue using the power of lightning to temper her body.

When it was dark, Dong Xi let out the tool Su Cheng and sent a message to Song Qingfeng.

[Second Senior Brother, how is it? Is there a problem with the Beast Trainer Sect?]

Song Qingfeng replied quickly.

[I've already found demonic Qi on the four of them, and I don't know when they were infected.]

Dong Xi thought for a moment and replied.

[Senior Brother, I have an idea. Don't just think about the disciples. We should also look into those demonic beasts.]

Dong Xi had just sent the message when a sound came from outside the door.

Dong Xi turned to look at the door, and the sound seemed very strange to Dong Xi. Alarms rang in her heart.

Dong Xi's hair stood on end. Even though she felt that she had seen many things, she could not help but feel a little nervous in the face of such a situation.

Before Dong Xi took it out of her ring, she stuck the talisman her Master had given her on the door. However, she was still worried that something would break in.

Dong Xi thought quickly and had an idea.

Dong Xi quickly sent a message to her two Senior Brothers.

[Senior Brother, help! There's something outside my door!]

After sending the message, Dong Xi took out many small dresses from her ring. These were all gifts from Su Cheng.

Right now, she could not care less about how pretty these little dresses were. Dong Xi only had one thought.

That was to save her own life!

Dong Xi checked the effects of the dresses one by one and finally found the one with the best defense and speed. Then, she put on the pair of boots given by the Sect Master.

Not only that, Dong Xi even took out a hair band made of defensive runes and tied it around her hair.

The tortoiseshell that the Big Snake had given him was also worn around her neck.

At this moment, Dong Xi was wearing red boots and a green dress. A black turtle shell was around her neck, and her hair was tied up with a yellow hairband.

This color scheme was quite cool. If it was any other day, Dong Xi would not wear these at all. But now, she had no choice. As long as they could save her life, it was fine.

Dong Xi then took out the Thousand-Mile Teleportation Talisman Su Cheng gave her. Only then did she feel a sense of security. Even if she could not fight, she could at least hold on until her two Senior Brothers came over. Dong Xi secretly leaned against the door and looked outside.

She happened to meet a pair of yellow eyes, the vertical pupil looking straight at Dong Xi.

Dong Xi immediately recognized that it was the kitten from earlier in the day.

It was said that cats only had such eyes when they were hunting. Combined with what happened to Senior Sister Gu Yao today, Dong Xi no longer felt that kittens were cute.

Dong Xi took a few steps back and called out to Su Cheng a few times in his heart.

However, Su Cheng did not make a sound. Dong Xi felt helpless. He did not usually sleep, but he had to sleep now?

Dong Xi was so anxious that she could not sit still. She did not know what to do. She turned her head and saw a shadow by the window.

Dong Xi immediately became even more afraid, her hands reacting faster than his brain.

He threw out a defensive talisman and stuck it on the window. Dong Xi said, "Don't come any closer, or I won't be polite to you!"

“Meow...”

Normally, Dong Xi’s heart would soften when she heard this sound, but when she thought of the kitten and the demons, Dong Xi’s heart was as hard as iron.

“It’s no use, I won’t be soft-hearted,” said Dong Xi.

The kitten meowed a few more times, but Dong Xi completely ignored it.

The kitten scratched the door unhappily. Dong Xi sat on the bed, deep in thought.

If the kittens outside were really contaminated with demonic Qi, they should be afraid of the Exorcism Pill. If Dong Xi could feed the kitten the Exorcism Pill, would the problem be solved?

But the problem was that Dong Xi did not dare to open the door at all.

What do cats like? Catnip did not exist in the cultivation world!

Dong Xi rummaged through her storage ring for a long time and finally found the spirit fruit she had bought to tease Songsong.

Dong Xi dug out the core of the fruit and threw it out through the crack of the door. Then, she turned her spiritual Qi into wood spiritual Qi to stimulate the growth of the spirit fruit.

The kitten squatted beside the fruit tree and watched it grow. Then, it looked at the crack in the door.

Dong Xi took out the Exorcism Pill and was about to crush it when he was stopped by Su Cheng, who had woken up.

“Have you ever seen a cat eat a spirit fruit?” Su Cheng asked.

Chapter 275 Not That Stupid

Dong Xi heard Su Cheng’s voice and was stunned. Su Cheng continued, “You can’t be thinking of crushing the pill and scattering it on the spirit fruit, right?”

Dong Xi was speechless.

Dong Xi was busted. He had seen through her. She bit her lip and did not say anything.

“These demonic beasts aren’t that stupid,” Su Cheng said again.

Dong Xi heard Su Cheng still mocking her, so she whispered, “You ignored me when I called you just now...”

Su Cheng laughed and then said in a weird tone, “You didn’t tell me that you’ve hidden so many Exorcism Pills in secret either.”

“When we made the deal, we only talked about the rules,” Dong Xi said seriously. “I didn’t say that I would hand over all the pills I refined. Big Snake, don’t go too far, okay?”

After saying that, Dong Xi paused for a moment and continued in a low voice, “It’s a good thing I didn’t give it all to you back then. Otherwise, I’d be in a very passive position now.”

As soon as Dong Xi finished speaking, a wave of Sanskrit chanting came from outside.

At this moment, the sound of Sanskrit chanting was like the sound of nature. Dong Xi’s spirit was instantly lifted, and he took out her communication jade slip to send a message to Kong Xing.

[Senior Brother Kong Xing, I didn’t know your temple’s Sanskrit had the ability to inspire people!]

Kong Xing, who had been captured to chant Sutras, did not have time to reply. In front of the host, Kong Xing did not have the guts to slack off.

Su Cheng transformed into his half-human, half-snake form again and appeared in the room.

Without waiting for Dong Xi to say anything, Su Cheng's tail reached out and brought the kitten in.

Dong Xi was so scared that she jumped onto the bed. Then she remembered that Su Cheng was a Demon Lord, and they were on the same side!

Dong Xi stared at Su Cheng. If Su Cheng did anything outrageous, Dong Xi would immediately crush the teleportation talisman and leave this place.

Su Cheng saw Dong Xi's actions and was a little speechless. Then, he waved his hand and Dong Xi's Exorcism Pill flew out of her grip, and into Su Cheng's hand.

Dong Xi was taken aback, and she almost crushed the teleportation talisman.

Cold sweat appeared on her forehead. She remembered that Su Cheng had the space element, and most of the equipment she was wearing came from Su Cheng.

If Su Cheng did not let Dong Xi leave, Dong Xi definitely would not be able to run away. All that stuff that she was wearing on her body was a joke to Su Cheng.

Su Cheng did not care about her at all. He raised his hand and fed the Exorcism Pill to the kitten.

The cat looked at Su Cheng. Su Cheng said coldly, "Eat it."

The kitten swallowed it obediently. Dong Xi heaved a sigh of relief. Then, looking at the change in the kitten, Dong Xi said, "The demonic Qi on the kitten's body is all gone?"

Su Cheng ignored Dong Xi and put his hand on the kitten's head.

"You..." Dong Xi immediately said nervously. "What do you want to do?"

Su Cheng calmly raised his head. His dark golden eyes were similar to the kitten's. However, Su Cheng had a sharp face, but it was a little more demonic.

"Let me see," Su Cheng said. "I'll see what this Beast Trainer Sect is hiding."

When Dong Xi heard this, she immediately understood. It seemed like he was about to perform a Soul Search!

She remembered reading in a novel that Soul Searching was very cruel. Those who had their souls searched would have their souls destroyed.

Dong Xi immediately said tactfully, “Big Snake, didn’t you say that it is very difficult for demonic beasts to cultivate? Who knows how many years it took for this little fellow to develop its wisdom. Now that there is no demonic Qi in its body, should we give it a way to live?”

The kitten might be guilty, and Dong Xi would also support the Soul Search, but...

Su Cheng looked at Qing Xi and said, “Who said it’ll die if I search its soul?”

“Even if it doesn’t die, its spirit will be affected in the future,” said Dong Xi immediately. “How is the kitten going to cultivate in the future?”

As soon as Dong Xi finished speaking, Su Cheng looked at Dong Xi as if he was looking at an idiot. Su Cheng’s hand still did not move away, and the kitten did not dodge.

Instead, it rubbed itself against Su Cheng’s hand. Su Cheng smiled and used his spiritual sense to enter the cat’s spiritual sense.

Dong Xi kept looking at the kitten and found that it did not show any signs of discomfort. It was very obedient. After a while, Su Cheng retracted his hand.

Dong Xi found that the kitten was sitting on the bed, meowing happily and licking its paws.

“Nothing happened?” Dong Xi immediately asked.

The cat rolled her eyes at Dong Xi and turned around, ignoring her.

Dong Xi was speechless.

She seemed to have been despised by the kitten. It did not matter. It was not that Dong Xi was stupid. It was those novels that were written wrong.

Dong Xi coughed twice to cover up his embarrassment. She looked at Su Cheng and said, "Big Snake, did you find anything?"

Su Cheng nodded. Dong Xi immediately said, "What is it?"

Su Cheng glanced at Dong Xi and said indifferently, "I don't talk to people who wear green dresses."

Dong Xi was speechless.

Dong Xi was so angry that she wanted to vomit blood. Was there something wrong with this snake's brain?
