

Above All 416

Chapter 416 He Bullied Me

Dong Xi saw that Little Ya had revealed a flaw and immediately used a Heartless Sword Technique, stabbing over at him.

Little Ya reacted quickly and immediately raised his hand to block it.

Just as he blocked Dong Xi's attack, a voice came from the door of the training room.

Both of them looked over. A servant opened the door, and Shangguan Yun'er and Little Yue were standing at the door.

"Why are they still fighting?" Shangguan Yun'er asked.

Dong Xi immediately put away her sword and ran to Shangguan Yun'er's side. Dong Xi said in a low voice, "Madam, he bullied me."

Little Ya, "??"

Wasn't this too immoral?

Seeing Shangguan Yun'er's unhappy expression, Little Ya quickly said, "Young Miss, Young Master suggested to spar with me."

Shangguan Yun'er took a glance at Dong Xi and saw Dong Xi squinting her eyes. Shangguan Yun'er said, "Little Yue, get ready. I'll personally go and find a doctor for my husband."

Little Ya, "..."

Could it be that in the eyes of the Young Miss and Young Master, Little Ya was a fool?

"Miss, I have the Vitality Reinforcement Pills that Master has rewarded me with," Little Ya bowed with a gloomy face.

"I don't believe in these pills," said Shangguan Yun'er. "I must ask the doctor to come back and let him take a look at my husband. Only then can I be at ease."

Shangguan Yun'er's expression was a little fierce, completely different from her usual meek and weak self.

Dong Xi stood beside Shangguan Yun'er and pondered. It was impossible for a person to become like this in just a few days.

Unless... She was originally like this.

Little Ya's mood was very complicated. After all, Little Ya was just a servant, but these two masters were not easy to deal with.

Therefore, Little Ya could only turn a blind eye. After the two of them left, Little Ya secretly sent a message to Old Master.

Little Ya reported everything that had happened at home to Old Master in detail, but he never replied.

Dong Xi watched Shangguan Yun'er take Little Yue out of the door, then took out her communication jade slip.

There were a lot of messages. Dong Xi saw Senior Brother Rui Ming's message at first glance and immediately opened it.

When Dong Xi saw this message, she immediately became anxious.

She was not worried about Shangguan Patriarch, she was worried about Senior Brother Rui Ming.

Shangguan Patriarch was at the Soul Formation stage, but an accident happened. Senior Brother Rui Ming was only at the Qi Refinement stage...

Dong Xi immediately replied.

[Senior Brother, where are you? I'll pick you up.]

Rui Ming was currently sitting in a dark space, the light from the jade scroll shining on his face.

Rui Ming replied.

[I'm fine. Come and take Shangguan Patriarch away.]

After thinking for a moment, Rui Ming described the location and sent it to Dong Xi.

[Follow the direction I gave you. There's a protruding rock there, you can't miss it. Send me a message when you arrive.]

Before Dong Xi left, she wanted to leave a note for Shangguan Yun'er. She had just written two words when she saw the painting that Shangguan Yun'er had left behind.

In comparison, Dong Xi's handwriting was really ugly. Dong Xi coughed lightly, crumpled the paper into a pattern, and threw it into the dustbin.

Forget it, it's fine if she did not leave a note.

Dong Xi left the room and walked out unhurriedly.

Before the guards at the door could react, Dong Xi had already left.

According to the information Rui Ming had given her, she flew about 180 miles on the sea and saw a small island.

Dong Xi sat on the flying device and looked at the small island. She frowned.

This island was too small. It was not even as big as the Shangguan family's courtyard. What kind of treasure could there be? Why would the Shangguan Patriarch come here personally?

What was even more ridiculous was that the Soul Formation stage Shangguan Patriarch had actually fainted here.

The small island was like a huge abyss in the sea, as if it could swallow everything that came and went.

Dong Xi circled around the island on the flying device and found the protruding rock that Rui Ming mentioned.

Dong Xi took out a jade slip and immediately sent a message to Rui Ming.

[Senior Brother, I'm already here.]

When Rui Ming saw Dong Xi's message, he instantly heaved a sigh of relief.

Looking at the Shangguan Patriarch on the ground, Rui Ming secretly lifted the bell covering his body, grabbed the Shangguan Patriarch's leg, and threw it out.

Dong Xi was waiting for Senior Brother Rui Ming's news. Unexpectedly, before the news came, she noticed something.

Dong Xi looked on vigilantly. She saw the rock shaking slightly, and then noticed a figure starting to fall off.

Seeing someone about to fall into the sea, Dong Xi did not have time to see who it was. She instinctively saved the person first.

Dong Xi carried the man on her shoulder and slowly landed on the island.

“He’s quite heavy,” muttered Dong Xi.

After saying that, Dong Xi placed him on the ground.

Only now did she realize that this person was her father-in-law.

Dong Xi tested Shangguan Patriarch’s breathing. He was still alive.

Then, she took Shangguan Patriarch’s pulse. She wanted to use spiritual energy to investigate the reason for Shangguan Patriarch’s fainting.

Chapter 417 No Memory

At this moment, Dong Xi’s sea of consciousness recalled Su Cheng’s voice. Su Cheng said, “If I were you, I wouldn’t take such a risk to check on Shangguan Patriarch’s injuries.”

“Why?” Dong Xi frowned.

“All these years, you’ve suffered so many attacks from me,” Su Cheng said lightly. “All of them were for nothing. You don’t have a good memory.”

Dong Xi was stunned. Su Cheng continued, "As long as a cultivator with a high cultivation base still has a breath left in him, it's instinctive for him to retaliate. If you recklessly inject spiritual energy into him, I'm afraid it will backfire."

Dong Xi immediately understood and retracted her hand.

What did Dong Xi have to do with his father-in-law fainting? Of course, his life was more important.

"Thanks for the reminder," Dong Xi coughed lightly and said.

"Very good, you have a grateful heart," said Su Cheng with a smile.

"Thank you for reminding me how ruthless you have been to me these past few years," said Dong Xi seriously.

Su Cheng, "..."

If Su Cheng had really defended himself seriously, how could this little girl have survived until today?

Dong Xi threw the unconscious Shangguan Patriarch aside and took out a communication jade slip. Dong Xi sent a message to Rui Ming.

[Senior Brother, do you really not need my help?]

Rui Ming stood in the darkness, his eyes exceptionally bright. Rui Ming said in his voice, “No need.”

After saying that, Rui Ming put away the communication jade slip and the barrier.

In the next second, the cries of cranes spread throughout the Secret Realm. Some cultivators who were fighting also stopped and shouted at each other.

“Demon beasts are here!”

“It sounded like cranes.”

“Could it be that the demons are also optimistic about this Secret Realm?”

...

Before the group of cultivators could come to a conclusion, a large shadow fell over their heads.

Everyone looked over and saw rows of crane feathers flying by, emitting a metallic glow.

Only then did everyone react and speak one after another.

“The Crane Demon has entered!”

“The restriction is gone. Let’s hurry in too. We can’t let the demons get there first.”

After saying that, some people had already rushed forward.

However, a few of them bumped into the restriction and immediately bled. No one went over.

Everyone was confused and started discussing.

“What’s going on? Why can the Crane Demon enter?”

“That Crane Demon must have found the key before entering.”

“It’s too late to find it now. Let’s attack together. I don’t believe that we can’t break a restriction with so many people.”

“That’s right. Everyone attack together.”

...

All kinds of binding techniques smashed at the restriction, but the restriction was like an ocean. All the attacks hit it.

“Fellow Daoists, now is not the time to hide your strength,” one of them said. “Bring out your trump cards. If we delay any longer, the treasures inside will be taken away by that Crane Demon!”

When everyone heard this, they all became serious. The restriction finally fluctuated. Rui Ming did not know what happened after that. Rui Ming flew into the abyss and felt an inexplicable familiarity.

This feeling seemed to be... It was like going home.

There seemed to be something in the abyss that kept calling for Rui Ming. The deeper he went, the more undercurrents there were. The wind was like a knife, cutting Rui Ming’s feathers.

Rui Ming’s beak slowly turned golden. His eyes, neck, wings... Everything was changing.

From afar, Rui Ming looked like a metal machine, emitting a golden light.

In the end, Rui Ming slowly descended into the abyss.

This place was filled with colorful crystals, as if it was specially laid out for Rui Ming to return. Rui Ming's eyes were a little dazed.

In his memories, Rui Ming seemed to have been seriously injured and could no longer maintain his human form.

He could only shrink himself and fall into a forest.

A pair of feet appeared in front of Rui Ming. Rui Ming wanted to see who it was, but his vision was blurred by the blood.

Rui Ming could not remember what happened after that. Whenever he thought about what happened after that, he would have a headache.

How did he get hurt back then? Did the leg belong to Elder Fu Rui?

...

Rui Ming did not have time to think too much. He took out some crystals from his storage bag. Junior Sister Dong Xi would probably like these. He would take them back for her. It would be a worthwhile trip.

After everything was done, Rui Ming left and continued to fly deeper.

The deeper he went, the more violent the wind blades became. It was impossible for ordinary people to get close.

Rui Ming stepped on the wind blade, like a fallen leaf, spinning with the wind.

Rui Ming drifted with the wind like this, advancing another few dozen miles.

The front suddenly brightened up.

The rocks that had been blown by the strong wind gave off waves of green light. They were all Wind-Swallowing Stones.

In the middle of the Wind-Swallowing Stones, there was a huge bird's nest.

The bird's nest was made of agarwood, and there was a faint glow inside.

Chapter 418 Save Me

Rui Ming suddenly had a feeling that this bird's nest was his home. Rui Ming stepped on the Wind-Swallowing Stones and slowly landed in the bird's nest. Then, he transformed into his original body and slowly closed his golden eyes.

In an instant, a golden light screen rose and enveloped the bird's nest, like a giant egg that was hatching.

...

Shangguan Yun'er, who was walking outside, suddenly felt a pain in her heart.

Shangguan Yun'er clutched her chest and stood rooted to the ground. The pain in her heart instantly spread throughout her entire body. Her face was pale and cold sweat covered her forehead.

Shangguan Yun'er's eyes blurred as she said with difficulty, "Little Yue, save me."

Seeing Shangguan Yun'er like this, Little Yue's face turned pale as if she felt the same way. Little Yue said, "Young Miss, Young Miss, what's wrong?"

Shangguan Yun'er said, "My heart... It hurts."

As she spoke, a trace of blood flowed out from the corner of Shangguan Yun'er's mouth.

Little Yue's expression changed drastically. She took out her communication jade slip and sent a message to Little Ya.

[Young Miss is in danger. Hurry up and prepare the medicinal bath.]

After sending out the message, Little Yue kept the jade slip, picked up Shangguan Yun'er, and walked towards the Shangguan Residence.

Halfway through, she bumped into Little Ya.

Little Ya looked at Shangguan Yun'er, who was almost dying in Little Yue's arms. He became anxious and said, "What happened?"

Little Yue shook her head and did not stop. She said as she walked, "Is the medicinal bath ready?"

"I'm ready," said Little Ya immediately.

“Let’s talk when we get back,” said Little Yue.

Little Yue carried Shangguan Yun’er and went straight to the bathroom. Little Ya stopped outside and Little Yue carried Shangguan Yun’er into the pool. The thick medicinal bath seemed to be boiling and kept bubbling.

Little Yue helped Shangguan Yun’er take off her outer clothes and placed Shangguan Yun’er in the medicinal bath.

Shangguan Yun’er’s face turned bright red under the effects of the medicinal bath.

She did not react to the pain.

Little Yue stood at the side, watching over Shangguan Yun’er. She had already sent a message to Shangguan Patriarch, but after a long time, there was no reply.

Little Yue looked at Shangguan Yun’er’s pale lips, blood still flowing down from the corner of her mouth, Little Yue was helpless.

Little Yue walked outside. Little Ya saw Little Yue and immediately said, “How is it? Is Young Miss alright?”

“No, it’s worse than before.” Little Yue shook her head.

Little Yue looked at Little Ya seriously and said, "Little Ya, can you contact Old Master? Is Old Master really in seclusion?"

Little Ya opened his mouth and found that he was completely unable to tell his master's whereabouts. There must be a restriction in place.

Little Yue instantly understood when she saw the look on Little Ya's face.

Little Yue frowned and thought for a long time. She said, "That's the only way now. Go and prepare immediately."

At this moment, their identities seemed to have changed.

Little Yue was no longer a timid maid, and Little Ya was no longer a butler.

"Understood," replied Little Ya immediately.

Everything in the Shangguan Residence belonged to Young Miss. If anything happened to the Young Miss, everyone in the Shangguan Residence would be buried with her.

This was a restriction that the Shangguan Patriarch had personally set up. Therefore, whether it was Little Ya or Little Yue, their lives had long been tied to Shangguan Yun'er.

Little Yue looked at Little Ya's departing figure and immediately thought of the Young Master.

She had already been back for so long. Why had she not seen Young Master?

Thinking of this, Little Yue's expression became even more gloomy. She immediately called a servant over and asked him to find the Young Master.

However, this servant searched around the Shangguan Residence and finally told Little Yue that the Young Master had gone missing.

Little Yue's face was extremely gloomy. She said, "What is it? Missing? Go and ask the guards if they saw the Young Master go out."

"Sister Little Yue, I've already asked. The guard said he didn't see anything." the servant lowered his head and said.

Little Yue thought for a moment and said, "Have you seen the training room?"

"Yes," said the servant. "I've checked all the places that Young Master frequents. There's nothing there."

"It's really strange," Little Yue said. "Our Shangguan Residence is not that big. How can the Young Master just disappear?"

"I'll go take a look," the servant immediately said.

...

Little Yue sent the servant away and turned to enter the bathroom. Seeing Shangguan Yun'er's undergarment stained with blood, Little Yue thought of the missing Young Master and became even angrier.

Little Yue squatted beside the pool and muttered to herself, "Miss, why did you agree back then? That Dong Li is not reliable at all. You just got into an accident. Before anything happened, Dong Li went missing..."

Chapter 419 Everything Is Ready

Shangguan Yun'er's black hair was scattered in all directions, and her face was deathly pale, like a glass doll that would shatter at any moment.

After an unknown period of time, a small maid outside the door said, "Sister Little Yue, Lord Little Ya said that everything is ready, you..."

At this time, Little Yue came back to her senses and stood up. Little Yue called two maids in and said, "Come with me to help Young Miss put on her clothes."

The two maids immediately went forward to help.

...

When Shangguan Yun'er opened her eyes, she realized that she was not in the bedroom.

The room was filled with runes, the floor, the walls, and even the ceiling.

Shangguan Yun'er had been to this house before...

Shangguan Yun'er sat up, and Little Yue immediately went forward to help her. Little Yue said, "Young Miss, you're awake."

Little Yue's voice was filled with joy. Shangguan Yun'er nodded. However, the room was filled with symbols, causing Shangguan Yun'er's eyes to become deep and serene.

After a long time, Shangguan Yun'er closed her eyes again. She sighed and said, "Little Yue, there's no need."

“Young Miss, what do you mean?” Little Yue asked.

Shangguan Yun’er seemed to have been drained of all her strength. She leaned into Little Yue’s arms and said, “My fate is like this, why do I need to trouble people’s lives?”

Shangguan Yun’er knew that her mother had died early, and Shangguan Yun’er was congenitally deficient. She would not have lived past 30.

...

That year, Shangguan Yun’er was muddleheaded. Shangguan Yun’er would be unconscious for 10 hours every day.

Shangguan Yun’er knew that she was about to die, but her father seemed to be extremely busy. She had not seen her father for half a month.

Finally, one day, she opened her eyes and saw her father beside her.

Shangguan Yun’er clearly remembered that her father’s complexion was very good that day, and the exhaustion from before was also gone.

“Yun’er, you’re saved now, you don’t have to die. As long as you survive, I will pay any price...”
Shangguan Patriarch said that day.

As Shangguan Patriarch spoke, his eyes became moist. This was the first time Shangguan Yun’er had seen her father cry.

Shangguan Yun’er was also very happy. It seemed like there was a way for her to survive.

Shangguan Patriarch said that as long as she had this heart, Shangguan Yun’er could live to at least 200 years old.

Shangguan Yun’er had been trapped in the mansion since she was young. Her mind was very simple and could not accept the exchange of other people’s lives for her own.

Shangguan Patriarch said that the owner of this heart had a profound cultivation. Therefore, even if he did not have a heart, he would not die.

When Shangguan Yun’er heard this, the shackles on her body seemed to have been suddenly unlocked.

Only after a long time did Shangguan Yun’er realize that this matter was not that simple.

...

That day, Shangguan Yun'er was in a room like this. The red flowing symbols were the blood of many cultivators and their vitality.

Now that Shangguan Yun'er was in such a room again, the surrounding runes did not light up.

Little Yue's eyes widened when she heard Shangguan Yun'er's words. She said in shock, "Young Miss, why do you say that? You are the honorable noble lady Miss Shangguan, you must live."

Shangguan Yun'er laughed lightly. With her pale face, she suddenly felt a sense of sorrow.

"What noble lady? I'm just a mortal," said Shangguan Yun'er.

Little Yue supported Shangguan Yun'er. Little Yue's face was pale as she said, "Young Miss."

Shangguan Yuer was stunned for a moment. Little Yue continued, "You're the honorable Miss Shangguan. Your life is the most important. Do you know how many people will die with you if anything happens to you? If you die, everyone in the Shangguan Residence will die with you."

"I'm not in charge of life, and neither am I in charge of death," said Shangguan Yun'er helplessly.

At this moment, Little Ya walked in and said, "Everything is ready."

Just as Little Yue nodded, the guard ran over in a panic with a strange expression. The guard said, "The Young Master... is back."

"He's back?" Little Yue said with a gloomy face. "Why did he come back at this time? Does he really think that he can come and go as you please in the Shangguan Residence?"

The guard said with a strange expression, "But... The Young Master brought the Old Master back."

The guard did not know what else to say.

Little Yue and Little Ya were stunned. They said in unison, "What?"

The guard was under great pressure from the two of them. The guard said, "It's true. He's already in. Something seems to have happened to Old Master."

Hearing this, Shangguan Yun'er started to cough. Little Yue quickly checked on Shangguan Yun'er. She must make sure nothing happened to Shangguan Yun'er.

Chapter 420 I'll Go by Myself

At this moment, Shangguan Yun'er could still elegantly take out a handkerchief and wipe the blood from the corner of her mouth. Shangguan Yun'er stood up and said, "Let's go and see Father first."

Little Yue looked at Shangguan Yun'er, who was about to fall at any moment, and immediately went forward to support her.

"Miss, this servant will carry you," said Little Yue.

She did need to go and look for the Old Master. She did not know if the Young Miss's sudden behavior had anything to do with letting the Young Master take her place to soak in the medicinal bath.

"I'll go by myself," Shangguan Yun'er shook her head and said.

As soon as everyone left the room, they bumped into Dong Xi who was walking over.

Dong Xi was also carrying someone, and everyone had strange expressions.

Dong Xi hurried forward and threw Shangguan Patriarch to Little Ya.

"Hurry up and take it. I'm exhausted from carrying him all the way," said Dong Xi.

Shangguan Yun'er and the others also looked at the person in Little Ya's arms. When they realized that it was really Shangguan Patriarch, everyone immediately panicked.

One had to know that Shangguan Patriarch was at the Soul Formation stage. How could he become like this?

"Young Master, what happened to the Old Master?" Little Ya immediately asked.

"I don't know." Dong Xi shook her head and said, "I went out to look for something and happened to meet Old Master, so I brought him back."

As Dong xi spoke, she looked at Little Ya. Dong Xi asked in puzzlement, "Fellow Daoist Little Ya, didn't you say that Old Master is in seclusion? Why is he on an island?"

"Wherever that Old Master wants to go, how can I ask about it?" Little Ya shook his head and said coldly.

Dong Xi immediately understood. She said, "That's true."

After saying that, Dong Xi saw that Shangguan Yun'er seemed to be in a very bad state. He hurriedly went forward to hug Shangguan Yun'er. Dong Xi said, "Madam, what happened? I just went out not long ago. How did you become like this?"

As Dong Xi spoke, she coldly swept his gaze across the crowd. Dong Xi said, "What happened? Who caused my wife to be like this?"

Little Yue frowned and did not know what to say. There were some things that she could not tell Dong Xi.

"You two, go and receive your punishment!" Dong Xi said again.

Shangguan Yun'er immediately shook her head and said, "I'm fine. Don't punish them. It's my body's problem. It has nothing to do with the others."

Dong Xi carried Shangguan Yun'er and walked toward the room.

"Got it," replied Little Ya immediately.

Dong Xi entered the room and kicked the door.

It almost hit Little Yue's face. Little Yue looked at the closed door and frowned. In the end, she just stood at the door.

Dong Xi placed Shangguan Yun'er on the bed. Looking at her pale face, Dong Xi frowned and said, "Why is there so much blood all of a sudden? How much blood can a human have? What if it runs dry?"

As Dong Xi spoke, she took out a supreme-grade Vitality Reinforcement Pill and fed it to Shangguan Yun'er.

"Madam, it's not that I'm reluctant to give up the pill. You have a mortal body. I'm afraid that you won't be able to withstand the medicinal effects," Dong Xi continued.

Shangguan Yun'er shook her head and said nothing.

Dong Xi stretched out her hand to take Shangguan Yun'er's pulse. The wood spiritual energy began to flow along Shangguan Yun'er's meridians and checked one round before finally reaching her heart.

Dong Xi withdrew her hand, and her expression changed drastically.

Shangguan Yun'er's body was so weak, so why did she have such a heart?

Dong Xi thought of what Senior Brother Rui Ming had said before, that Dong Xi was in the Shangguan Residence.

Thinking of some possibilities, Dong Xi's fingers trembled slightly.

Dong Xi could clearly feel the coldness in his her palm. At the same time, her heart also turned cold.

Dong Xi wanted to know the answer. She said in her mind, "Big Snake, what's going on?"

"Haven't you already guessed it?" Su Cheng asked coldly.

Dong Xi was stunned. Su Cheng continued, "You humans always say that snakes are cold-blooded. Now that I think about it, humans are even more terrifying than demon beasts."

Dong Xi was unable to refute. She wanted to know the truth now. She said, "What should I do? How can I return Senior Brother Rui Ming's heart to him?"

"Hmm?" Su Cheng asked in surprise. "I thought you couldn't do it. "

Dong Xi did not say anything. She thought to herself that she did not have the ability, otherwise, she would definitely take out Shangguan Patriarch's heart and give it to Senior Brother Rui Ming.

Su Cheng knew what Dong Xi was thinking and found it funny. He said, "You don't need to do anything. That crane is not a good-for-nothing. The power of this heart will be returned bit by bit."

Senior Brother Rui Ming's strong heart allowed Shangguan Yun'er to live for another 200 years. Now that the strength had been lost...

Su Cheng was like a judge who controlled life and death. Su Cheng said, "This girl should only be able to live for a few days."

Dong Xi looked at the extremely weak Shangguan Yun'er and suddenly had an idea.