

Even After Death

Even After Death Chapter 1646-Olivia carried Ethan into the water. In Ethan's mind, some memories of the past resurfaced. His eyes were not clear at the time, and Olivia had been there to treat him. Now returning to the old place, there was naturally a very special feeling.

The gentle waves rippled, and Olivia raised her hand to untie his clothes little by little. She climbed on Ethan's strong body and whispered in his ear, "Relax, Ethan."

Olivia was well aware that her poisoning had made everyone around her, especially Ethan, extremely nervous. Maybe it was because she had experienced life and death too many times, but she was more indifferent than ordinary people.

For her, she should have died three years ago. She felt that she had earned a lot to survive when she was terminally ill. Every day now was picked up.

Furthermore, she found her relatives and had no regrets in her life. She would no longer worry about the future, and it was good to grasp the present.

The long-lost joy broke Ethan's nervous mood. He hugged Olivia's body tightly, as if he wanted to strangle her into the depths of his bones.

Ethan was really scared—afraid that the person he had finally found would leave him again.

The turbulent waves gradually subsided, but Ethan still didn't let go of Olivia's hand. "Liv, you must be fine."

Olivia gently looked into his worried eyes, and her slender fingers gently stroked his eyebrows.

"Okay."

"I want to go back to Aldenvine." Ethan said softly.

Although both families were not in Aldenvine, they lived together. In Ethan's heart, that was their home.

Ethan said, "I'll have someone redecorate the wedding room, and when we go back, we'll take a family photo and hang it up. Even if your father beats me to death, I will never separate from you again."

Hearing his childish words, Olivia couldn't help but giggle. "I'll listen to you."

Ethan hugged Olivia's body, his chin resting on top of her head.

The two hadn't been so affectionate for a long time. They had a good time together before, not to mention the long time they had been apart.

It was rare for them to be at peace after such a long separation.

"Liv, I still remember when you were pregnant; you leaned on my arms like this, as if it happened yesterday."

They quickly became parents to four children.

Even Connor has grown older; time passes quickly.

Olivia said, "Yes, at that time I really wanted to have a pair of twins, a boy like you and a girl like me, but unfortunately..."

Ethan held her hand tightly and said, "I'm sorry."

"It's all over."

Olivia only used a few words, "it's all over," to lightly describe her first half of life, which was a turbulent one. How many people in the world can be as broad-minded as she is?

The moonlight fell into the valley, and Olivia's skin was as white as snow and her eyebrows as beautiful as a painting. Without the immaturity of the past, she looked more elegant and extraordinary.

Ethan couldn't help but kiss her forehead again.

However, a moment later, Olivia scowled slightly, and he abruptly pressed against her chest. She said, "It hurts..."

"Liv! "It's Jacqueline's heart-eating poison that has broken out!" Ethan reacted immediately.

At the beginning, Wendy only said that their fates were connected, and she originally wanted to use the heart-eating poison to control Jacqueline, but she didn't expect the other party's poison to be so overbearing.

Beyond fate, the two of them shared a connection through pain.

At this moment, Jacqueline fell off the bed suddenly. "Ah!"