Chapter 1141

"I know, I know, you want to ask me how I met Briana Cameron, right?"

"Mm-hmm."

Roxanne raised an eyebrow, her eyes full of mischief, "I won't tell you, it's a secret between her and me."

"Roxanne!"

Seeing his face turn cold, Roxanne made a face. "Nyah nyah nyah. I won't tell you. If you're capable, find out yourself!"

Maxim:

A hint of helplessness and indulgence flashed in his eyes, and he couldn't help but reach out and flick her forehead.

"Such disrespect, going abroad for a few years has completely changed your manners."

"That was not up to you."

"Did you not go to the hospital to see mom and dad after you came back?"

Upon hearing this, Roxanne's face stiffened for a moment, then she frowned and said, "I don't want to go. I can already guess what mom wants to tell me. She definitely wants me to find a way to snatch the Yoder Group from you. I'm not interested in doing business, so why would I want to take it over?"

"Then you should also go see them. These past few years, mom and dad have missed you a lot, and you've been staying abroad without coming back."

A hint of reluctance flashed in Roxanne's eyes, but she didn't refute Maxim's words again. Instead, she said, "Why did you deliberately say in the hospital that you wouldn't give me the shares of the Yoder Group? Mom called and told me that you wanted to monopolize the Yoder Group by yourself, warning me not to let the Yoder Group fall into your hands.”

“You wouldn’t believe it, she almost drove me crazy, she called me dozens of times today!”

She had long grown tired of these words, so she didn’t want to come back these past few years.

Moreover, when Maxim found out three years ago that they were not biological siblings, he transferred 10% of the Yoder Group’s shares to her name, and said he would always treat her as his sister.

In comparison, Kendra was too unfair to Maxim with her cold words and remarks.

“If you didn’t find something for her to do, she would just be idle every day. Moreover, you went back to your country without telling me, you deserved it.”

“You did find something for her to do, now she’s just persuading me to compete with you for the Yoder Group! I’m so annoyed!”

“Alright, enough talk. It’s been a while since you’ve spent quality time with them. During their hospital stay, you should visit them every day and have a chat.”

Roxanne had always been afraid to contradict Maxim’s words, she nodded and said, “Alright, I understand.”

“I had many villas in Haseton, Rayan would arrange one for you later, now I would accompany you upstairs to get your things.”

Roxanne sighed, unable to help but say, “Can I stay in a hotel? I feel it’s more liberating to stay in a hotel...”

“What did you think?”

Meeting Maxim’s cold gaze, Roxanne had no choice but to agree, “Alright, then you come up with me. I just booked the hotel today, I haven’t even opened my luggage yet...”

The two were talking and walking towards the elevator, completely unaware that their interaction was being observed by another person.

The other party secretly took a photo and immediately sent it to Aurora.

“Aurora, look at this, isn’t this your fiancé? Why is he messing around with a young girl in a hotel in the middle of the night? He wouldn’t do anything to betray you, would he?”

Aurora had just finished taking a bath when she received a photo from a friend. Seeing Maxim’s dotting expression towards that girl, she was so angry that she felt like her lungs were about to explode.

Briana Cameron hadn’t resolved it yet, and another woman came!

Suddenly, something occurred to her, a smile unconsciously crept onto her lips, and she immediately forwarded the photo to Briana Cameron.

“Briana Cameron, I thought Maxim was deeply in love with you. But now, he’s off with another woman, probably in a hotel room. If you want to catch him in the act, I suggest you hurry. Otherwise, it might be too late!”

Briana Cameron looked at the two people in the photo, then read the message sent by Aurora. Her face showed no expression as she immediately blocked and deleted Aurora.

After sending a message and receiving no response from Briana Cameron, Aurora assumed she hadn’t seen it and directly made a voice call. However, it turned out that the other party had activated friend verification.

The very next morning, Aurora stormed into the Yoder Group with the photo, ready to confront Maxim.

“Maxim, if you didn’t explain this matter to me today, I wouldn’t let this woman go!”

Maxim glanced at the photo, recognizing the scene from last night when he had gone to the hotel to pick up Roxanne. He couldn’t help but frown, “Where did you get this photo from?”

“Where I came from didn’t matter, what mattered was that this incident had spread throughout the upper class of Haseton today, and I had become the laughingstock of everyone.”

“If you couldn’t bear it, you could call off the engagement at any time, I wouldn’t mind.”

Watching him remain indifferent, without even a hint of guilt on his face, Aurora’s face twisted in anger.

“Maxim, if you don’t want me to personally investigate who this woman is, then handle this matter yourself.”

Maxim picked up a file, looking impatient, he said, “If you want to investigate. go ahead, but don’t come to the Yoder Group again if it’s not necessary. I’m very busy!”

“Alright, you wait for me!”

Aurora stormed out, immediately calling her subordinates to find out who the woman with Maxim was as soon as she left the office.

In less than half an hour. Aurora had learned that the other party was Maxim’s sister. Roxanne.

Aurora immediately called her friend who she had sent the photo to, and gave them a good scolding.

The other party was also innocent, “Aurora, I was just looking out for you, how was I supposed to know that she was Maxim’s sister...”

“Anyway, if something is uncertain in the future, don’t just casually send me messages!”

After speaking, she immediately hung up the phone.

Thinking back to how she had just stormed into Maxim’s office, Aurora was filled with regret. She was sure that Maxim must now think of her as an unreasonable woman.

However, it was Maxim’s fault. If he had explained even a bit, I wouldn’t have continued to misunderstand.

Thinking of this, she couldn't help but bite her lower lip. In the end, it was still Maxim who didn't value her enough.

However...

Since Maxim refused to show any friendliness, perhaps pleasing his sister could help create an opportunity for them to meet.

She immediately ordered her subordinates to find out where Roxanne was. Upon learning that she was shopping, she promptly drove to that mall.

At that moment, Roxanne was shopping for clothes. She had originally planned to invite Briana Cameron to join her today, but unexpectedly, Briana Cameron happened to be busy, so she decided to go shopping by herself

She had visited several places, but none had satisfied her. Just as she was about to leave, a woman suddenly stopped her.

"Hello, you're Roxanne, right? I'm your brother's fiancée, my name is Aurora."

Roxanne looked up, and a flash of surprise crossed her eyes when she saw the woman standing in front of her.

"My brother's fiancée?"

"Right, your brother is Maxim, isn't he? You didn't know about our engagement?"

Roxanne shook her head in confusion, "I don't know, he never told me about this."

Seeing the confusion in Roxanne's eyes. Aurora couldn't help but grit her teeth. She hadn't expected Maxim to not even inform his own sister, let alone how little he must care about her, his fiancée!

She managed to maintain a smile and said. "Perhaps he has been too busy lately, so he hasn't had the chance to tell you. I just went to see him and found out that you had returned to the country, so I took the liberty to come and see you."

A glint of amusement flashed in Roxanne's eyes, "So that's how it is. Since you're my brother's fiancée, that makes you my future sister-in-law. Nice to meet you, sister-in-law!"

This shout to Aurora made sister-in-law feel thoroughly refreshed, and her gaze towards Roxanne became much more sincere.

"Roxanne, did you come to buy clothes? Alone?"

Roxanne nodded, "Yeah, I just returned to the country and didn't know anyone, so I had to explore on my own."

"If you don't mind, I can accompany you for shopping. I'm pretty good at matching clothes."

Roxanne squinted her eyes and smiled, "Alright, then I'll have to trouble you, sister-in-law."

The two of them had been shopping for over three hours, and when they finally came out of the mall, they were both carrying shopping bags of all sizes.

tired. How about we put our stuff in my car first, then we go grab a meal? There are quite a few restaurants around here.”

“Alright then.”

After putting down the things, the two went to the restaurant.

Aurora was enthusiastic throughout, even introducing Roxanne to delicious food, just like a considerate best friend.

After they had ordered their food, Aurora looked at Roxanne somewhat sheepishly and said, “Roxanne, there’s something I want to tell you.”

With a puzzled look, Roxanne asked, “What?”

“Actually... my relationship with your brother wasn’t very good. I liked him, but it seemed like he was still stuck in his past relationship. I wanted to develop feelings with him, but I never got the chance...”

Roxanne looked puzzled, “How could this be? My brother doesn’t like you, why would he be engaged to you?”

At Roxanne's puzzled gaze, Aurora's face stiffened for a moment before she said, "You should also know that your brother's biological father is a business tycoon in Haseton. That tycoon is a good friend of my father, and he wanted to match us up. I don't know how your brother agreed to the engagement."

At this point, she couldn't help but bite her lower lip.

"I originally thought that after getting engaged to your brother, we could slowly cultivate our feelings for each other. But your brother has always been very cold towards me, every time I tried to get close to him, it didn't work... I really don't know what to do..."

Roxanne took a sip of her drink, "So... you want me to help you create an opportunity for you two to be alone?"

Aurora hadn't expected the other party to be so cooperative. She felt a surge of joy inside, but still put on a hesitant facade.

"If it's too much trouble for you, then forget it... I can think of other ways."

"I promised you!"

Aurora pretended to look at her in shock, her eyes full of joy, "Really? Roxanne, are you really willing to help me?!"

Roxanne nodded, "Of course, you are my brother's fiancée, we will be family in the future. Who else would I help if not you? If I had known about my brother's engagement, I would have asked him to bring you along for dinner when I returned to the country yesterday!"

"Roxanne, thank you!" Aurora grasped her hand, her face full of excitement.

Roxanne quietly withdrew her hand. her smile deepening a bit, "No need to thank me, it's what I should do. I'll find a way for you two to meet alone. But whether you can win my brother over, that's up to you."

"Um, as long as you can figure out a way for me to be alone with him, I will definitely seize the opportunity and make him fall in love with me!"

Watching Aurora's confident expression, Roxanne said, "Hmm, I believe you can definitely succeed!"

"Of course it's true. Although today was the first time I met you, I feel that you are a particularly good person. If you could become my sister-in-law, that would be great!"

Seeing Roxanne's sincere expression, Aurora finally breathed a sigh of relief, and the smile on her face became a bit more genuine.

"That's good. I also liked you the moment I saw you. I originally thought you would be a hard-to-approach young lady, but I didn't expect you to have such a good temper."

"People, you only know what they are like after spending time with them."

"Yes, from now on we are good friends. If there's anything you need help with, feel free to tell me anytime."

The smile on Roxanne's face deepened, "You are my sister-in-law, I will definitely bother you a lot in the future."

"The family said that any trouble was to be expected."

After they finished eating, Aurora didn't leave until she had taken Roxanne home.

On the way back, she was humming a tune all the time, clearly in a good mood.

With Roxanne's help, my relationship with Maxim would definitely have made great strides.

Thinking of this, her mood unconsciously brightened, as if she could plar 1144

see herself marrying Maxim in the near future.

On the other side, watching Aurora's car receding into the distance, the smile on Roxanne's face gradually faded.

She promised Aurora not with the intention of setting her up with Maxim, but rather planning to use Aurora to reconcile Maxim and Briana Cameron.

To her. Briana Cameron was her best friend. How could she help a woman she had just met once?

Just as I turned around and walked into the villa, before I could even put down my things. I received a call from Kendra.

“Roxanne, I heard you returned to the country, why didn’t you come to see me and your dad?”

“I just arrived last night, and planned to visit you and dad in the afternoon.”

Thinking about how she would definitely be nagged by Kendra later, Roxanne was extremely stressed out. She had absolutely no interest in managing the Yoder Group, okay?!

Moreover, her brother had already given her 10% of the shares in the Yoder Group. Even if she spent the rest of her life doing nothing, she wouldn’t be able to spend it all. Why did she insist on working?

“Good.”

At three in the afternoon, Roxanne walked into the ward with a bouquet of flowers.

“Mom, I came to see you.”

Upon seeing her, Kendra’s face first lit up with joy, then she snorted coldly, “So you do remember your mother? If I hadn’t called you, you definitely wouldn’t have come to see me, would you?”

Roxanne walked to the bedside and placed the flowers on the table, smiling as she said, “How could that be? Look. I brought your favorite perfume lilies. I’ve been thinking about you and dad all the time when I was abroad. Knowing that you were taken by Isaac, I was almost worried to death.”

“Hehe, you thought I would believe?”

With a helpless look on her face, Roxanne sat down by the hospital bed, “Really, you seem to be recovering well. Where’s dad? In the next room?”

Kendra looked at her, her expression suddenly becoming serious, "What do you think about what I told you before?"

Upon hearing this. Roxanne immediately felt a headache and quickly said. "Mom, please spare me. I really have no interest in doing business. Moreover, the Yoder Group is a foundation that my brother has built step by step over the years. Even if he hands the company over to me now, those shareholders won't pay attention to me."

"Wasn't it because you didn't have any ambition? If you wanted, I would definitely have my people help you!"

Watching Kendra's fanciful and naive appearance, Roxanne coldly said. "You don't have to say anything. I won't compete with my brother for the Yoder Group no matter what. If you want the Yoder Group so much, you can go and fight for it yourself."

Kendra's face turned pale with anger, she gritted her teeth and said, "What the hell are you talking about, how old do you think I am?!"

"You weren't old, you were in your prime, if you really wanted the Yoder Group, you should have planned it yourself. Instead of pressuring me, you should have taken the initiative."

Kendra:

If Roxanne wasn't her daughter, such a stubborn person, she would have started cursing long ago.

Seeing her upset, Roxanne quickly comforted, "Mom, I think you're making a fuss over nothing. You've been with my brother for so many years, do you really despise him just because he's not your biological son? Do you even want me to seize power?"

"You didn't understand!"

How could someone else's son compare to one's own? Before she knew he wasn't her biological son, she was fearless in whatever she did, thinking that Maxim would indulge her.

But after knowing that he was not her biological son, Kendra no longer had the confidence she used to have.

But she couldn't accept this disparity, she could only transform this imbalance into hatred and disgust for Maxim.

Roxanne rolled her eyes irritably. "Yes, I don't understand. All I know is that despite your cold attitude towards him these past few years, he never gave up on you. If it wasn't for him this time. do you think you and dad could still be here, recovering peacefully?!"

"This was all his fault, we owed it to him. If it wasn't for him, your father and I wouldn't have been caught by Isaac!"

Listening to Kendra's nonsense, Roxanne finally couldn't help but raise her voice and said, "Mom, do you even know what you're talking about?! It was Isaac who thought you and dad were the murderers of my uncle and aunt, that's why he attacked the Yoder Group and my brother. If it wasn't for you guys, none of this would have happened."

"It was clearly you and dad who wronged brother, why are you still blaming him now?!"

Kendra paused for a moment, then frowned and said, "Roxanne, what do you mean by this? Are you now speaking against me for a stranger?!"

"He was not a stranger, he was my brother. Although we had no blood relation, the memories of him protecting me were real. He fulfilled the duties of a brother."

Seeing the determination in Roxanne's eyes, Kendra couldn't help but feel a chill in her heart.

"Unexpectedly, he brainwashed you so thoroughly that you even call him brother Can you justify this to your brother who tragically died shortly after birth??!"

Roxanne looked calm as she said to Kendra, word by word, "I know the premature death of my biological brother was a big blow to you, but it wasn't his fault. He was also kept in the dark for over twenty years. Mom, if anyone is to blame for this, it should be dad, not my brother."

Kendra's face turned livid with anger, she snapped, "Enough, I don't want to hear any more, you can go now. You're grown up, I can't control you anymore, but for this matter, I have my own ideas, don't try to persuade me!"

Seeing her determined expression, Roxanne didn't plan to say anything more. Changing Kendra's hatred for Maxim would take time, it couldn't be rushed.

"Mom, take good care of yourself, I will come to see you again tomorrow."

Kendra turned her head to the side and said coldly, "No need, let's meet again when we've both calmed down."

Roxanne was silent for a long time, eventually just sighing, "Alright."

Chapter 1146

After Roxanne left, Kendra angrily swept the flowers from the nearby table onto the floor, her eyes filled with coldness.

She never imagined that Roxanne wouldn't listen to her and had no interest in the Yoder Group at all.

Thinking of this, Kendra couldn't help but grit her teeth, her heart filled with anger.

It seemed, I still had to rely on myself.

After leaving the hospital, Roxanne went straight back to the villa.

After resting at home for a while, she began to ponder how to reconcile Maxim and Briana Cameron.

As for Aurora, she had no intention of helping her at all, but only planned to make Aurora a catalyst for the relationship between Maxim and Briana Cameron. After all, she had known about Aurora's actions before she returned to her country, and now she was using Aurora without any guilt at all.

On the other side, after Melinda returned home, she waited for Apollo for several days but he never came back. She was also scolded by Madeline's father, which made her inevitably worried.

"Head of the household, you said Apollo has been gone for so long, could something unexpected have happened?"

Madeline's father gave her a cold glance, shook the pipe in his hand, and said in a deep voice, "Don't jinx it! Go make a call to him and find out what's really going on!"

13:09

Chapter 1146

Melinda was glared at by him to the point of not daring to speak, and immediately took out her phone to call Apollo.

Ten minutes later. Melinda's voice was shrill with anger, "What did you say?! That little wretch dared to hit you and even put you in the hospital?! I'm coming right now!"

Thinking of her son lying alone in the hospital, Melinda was both shocked and angry. After hanging up the phone, she immediately dialed Madeline's number.

However, after making several calls, they were all busy.

She slammed down her phone angrily, exclaiming, "That ungrateful Madeline, it seems she really doesn't plan to acknowledge me as her mother, she even dared to block me! Head of the house, I need to go to Haseton, get someone to book me a ticket!"

The following evening.

As Madeline was eating dinner, the door to the ward was abruptly pushed open with a bang, and an angry Melinda stormed in.

"Madeline, have you lost your mind?! You actually let your friend send Apollo to the hospital! Call her over immediately, have her kneel down and apologize to Apollo, or I won't let her off!"

Bella, who was sitting on the side, furrowed her brows and turned to look at Melinda who was quickly walking in, stepping forward to stop her.

"Melinda, you and Madeline had already signed an agreement to sever ties. Now, you have no relationship whatsoever, and you have no right to command Madeline."

Melinda pushed her away, scoffing, "So what if we signed an agreement?! No matter what, she is a piece of flesh that fell from my belly. Does a piece of paper say we have no relationship at all?!"

Bella hadn't expected Melinda to be so absurd. She had just received the money a few days ago and was already thinking of backing out.

“Melinda, if you continue to be unreasonable, I’ll have no choice but to call the police!”

Melinda was completely ignorant of the law. Regardless of what Bella said. she just sat down on the ground and shouted loudly, “Fine, let everyone see the true face of Madeline. this big star, who actually helps a stranger to bully her own younger brother. Is there no law anymore!”

Just as Bella was about to speak. the previously silent Madeline suddenly blurted out, “You’re saying my friend hit Apollo, did he do something?!”

Melinda looked up at Madeline, startled by the coldness in her eyes, and couldn’t help but shudder.

Madeline had never looked at her with such a cold gaze before, even when she was sometimes angry at their behavior, she would eventually smooth things over. Of course, Apollo had never been beaten so badly before either.

After realizing what was happening, Melinda raised her voice and said, “What kind of look is that, you ungrateful girl?! Your brother is the one getting beaten up right now, are you really going to blame everything on him for the sake of a stranger?!”

Madeline sneered, ignoring her and directly dialed Briana Cameron’s number.

Soon, after knowing the cause and effect, Madeline took a deep breath, her tone full of apology.

“Briana. I’m sorry for the trouble I’ve caused you. I will handle this matter. If you can provide evidence, I can arrange for a lawyer to put him away.”

Hearing Madeline’s firm voice, a hint of surprise flashed in Briana Cameron’s eyes, but she still said softly, “Madeline, I’m fine here, I’m not in any trouble, you don’t need to get involved in this.”

“I understand, let’s leave it at that for now. I’ll treat you to a meal to apologize after I’m discharged from the hospital.”

Briana Cameron frowned, her voice tinged with displeasure, "What dinner?! If you keep being so polite, I'll get angry! Besides, you've already cut ties with Apollo, no matter what, it's not your place to apologize to me!"

Madeline sighed, "Alright."

"Alright, you take a good rest, that's it."

After hanging up the phone, Madeline tossed her cell phone aside and coldly stared at Melinda.

"I had already found out, it was Apollo who was secretly stalking Briana Cameron, and in the end, he was beaten up by Briana Cameron. He deserved it. If it weren't for Briana Cameron not pressing charges, I would have personally taken him to the police station!"

Disbelief filled Melinda's eyes as she angrily said. "Madeline, have you lost your mind?! Apollo is your brother and my life. If you dare to harm him. I will never forgive you!"

Madeline looked at her coldly. "Since he is your life, then you should manage him well, don't let him cause trouble everywhere. Do you think Haseton is like Happiness Village, where you can cover up whatever he does?!"

She wore a mocking expression. If it weren't for the money she had been sending back continuously over the years, the Zhen family would still be the poorest in the village.

Over the years, they had built a large villa with her money, helped the villagers solve many problems, and their status in the village had risen significantly, making them the dominant family in the village.

It was her giving too much money that made them lose sight of their own worth.

"He was your own brother, if you didn't care for him, I would die for you to see!"

Madeline looked at her, her eyes full of impatience.

Over the years, she had always used this trick. Madeline used to fall for it, but now she wouldn't even bother with her.

“Suit yourself, but if you died, my dad might marry a stepmother very soon. Your good son would also quickly forget about you. You wouldn’t think that anyone would be upset, would you?”

Melinda’s face turned ashen with anger, but she knew in her heart that what Madeline said was true.

In the end, she just trembled and pointed at her, “You, you rebellious girl! You really want to infuriate me to death!”

“Are you done talking? Once you’re done, you can leave. After all, your precious son is still in the hospital room waiting for you to go take care of him.”

“You really wouldn’t help him?!”

Melinda stared at her intently, making the final confirmation.

Madeline sneered, “Don’t come looking for me again, or I’ll make you cough up every penny you’ve taken from me! Not a cent less!”

“Fine, you’ve grown bold now, daring to treat me like this, you’ll regret it one day!”

After speaking, Melinda got up from the ground, turned around, and left directly.

After the ward had returned to quiet, Bella looked at Madeline with some concern.

“Madeline, were you okay?”

Madeline shook her head, “It’s okay, Bella, you go ahead. I want to be alone for a while.”

“Good.”

After Bella left, Madeline was silent for a while, but still dialed Brycen’s number.

“Hello? What’s up?”

Brycen's voice was cold, as if he was dealing with a stranger.

Madeline's grip on her phone tightened as she slowly said, "I heard that my brother framed Briana, and you helped him, resulting in Briana being taken to the police station for questioning?"

As the words fell, the other side also plunged into silence.

After a while, Brycen finally said coldly, "Just this once, I won't interfere again in the future."

"I hope so, and I also don't want you to interfere. After all, you would only make things worse."

"Hehe!"

After a cold laugh. Brycen directly hung up the phone.

Madeline pursed her lips, set her phone aside, and stared blankly for a while before dialing another number.

"Bella, I forgot to tell you something earlier, could you find someone to keep an eye on Apollo's side? If they make any move, let me know immediately."

"Alright, I'll go do it right away!"

On the other side, Melinda arrived at the hospital, saw Apollo with bandages wrapped around his head, his face bruised in patches of blue and purple, and her eyes immediately welled up with tears.

"Oh my God! This damn thing! They actually did this to you! I'm so pissed off. I won't let this go!"

Apollo fell silent for a moment, then said, "Mom, don't worry about this. Just take care of me here for now. After I'm discharged, we'll leave Haseton."

Over the past few days, he had been warned several times. He also understood that Briana Cameron was someone he couldn't afford to mess with. If he continued to oppose her, he would only bring misfortune upon himself.

Upon hearing this, Melinda was instantly so angry that she gritted her teeth. "How could this be?! Don't you know that seeing you like this, I'm almost heartbroken to death, we can't let that scoundrel off so easily!"

"Just listen to me! Unless you want to kill me! Then you can go bother her!"

Seeing Apollo glaring at her with a face full of anger, Melinda was dumbfounded.

Had she not heard Apollo say that Briana Cameron had put him in the hospital, she wouldn't have rushed over in such a hurry, wanting to avenge him.

After a good while, Melinda finally reacted, hastily asking, "Apollo, has something happened?"

Apollo, impatient to explain, said coldly, "Even if I told you, you wouldn't understand. Just stay out of this matter! I'm starving, go get me a takeout meal!"

His tone was commanding, as if he was speaking to a maid.

However, Melinda didn't see any problem with this tone at all, she nodded and said, "Alright, I'll go right away. What do you want to eat?"

"Whatever, hurry up and buy it, I was about to starve to death!"

"Alright, mom will go right away!"

Chapter 1149

Chapter 1149

After leaving the ward, Melinda was packing food at the hospital entrance when she suddenly heard two young girls in front of her discussing with their heads down over their phones.

"Quick, look at this trending topic, wasn't Brycen Madeline's boyfriend?! I remember when Madeline was promoting her new show, he picked her up and dropped her off several times!"

"Hehe, either they broke up, or he was just playing around with Madeline. After all, the Carney Group is big capital, how could they possibly fancy a small star!"

“You’re right. I feel the same way. But poor Madeline, I heard she’s still in the hospital, and her boyfriend has already started to be linked with other female celebrities.”

“What’s there to pity? Those big–budget movies she was in might have all been obtained through connections with Brycen. She got what she wanted, it’s just a matter of mutual benefit!”

The voices of the two people talking gradually faded away. Melinda gave a cold laugh, her face full of satisfaction.

It served Madeline right to be dumped, since she didn’t help her own family. If she had been willing to help Apollo seek justice back then, she might even have let Apollo confront Brycen now. But she certainly wouldn’t do such a thing for this ungrateful daughter now!

After packing up the food and returning home, Melinda treated this incident as a joke and told Apollo about it.

After listening, however, Apollo did not show the cheerful expression she had expected, but instead his face changed dramatically.

“You said Brycen was already with another woman?!”

Meeting her son’s shocked gaze, Melinda nodded. “Yes, what’s wrong? It’s a good thing for us that she was dumped by Brycen. Only in this way will she realize that without the help of her family, she is nothing!”

Apollo kept a straight face and didn’t say a word, thinking about the things Brycen had said to him in the hospital room that day. At the time, he hadn’t given it much thought, but now he wondered if it was because Brycen had grown tired of Madeline, which was why he refused to help.

“Mom, don’t worry about this matter. Once I recover from my illness. we will go back.”

Melinda frowned, “Are we really just going back like this?”

Apollo gave her a cold glance, “Or what? If you think Madeline will still treat you well, you can stay in Haseton and see if she will pay attention to you!”

Melinda’s face turned pale, she stammered, “I just... just wanted to seek justice for you...”

“You thought Haseton was that little place called Happiness Village?!”

Seeing Apollo's contemptuous expression, Melinda stammered, "Alright, I understand..."

In the following few days, neither of them made any moves, and Madeline was also happily at ease.

Soon, the doctor informed her that she could be discharged.

Upon returning home, the first thing Madeline did was to invite Briana Cameron over to her house.

When Briana Cameron arrived, Madeline was cutting fruit with a crutch, a sight that terrified Briana Cameron.

She quickly stepped forward and took the fruit knife from Madeline's hand, frowning. "Your leg hasn't healed yet, you need at least two to three months of rest. Let your assistant do things like cutting fruit."

Madeline nodded, "I just wanted to try. I can't always rely on others."

"Just during this period of time."

"Mm-hmm."

"You go sit on the sofa first, I'll come over once I finish cutting."

Five minutes later, Briana Cameron placed a plate of cut fruit on the table, looking at Madeline sitting across from her, "What did you call me over for today?"

"The main thing is that I wanted to apologize to you. About the Apollo incident, if I had known earlier, you wouldn't have been taken to the police station."

Meeting her guilt-ridden gaze, Briana Cameron fell silent for a few seconds, her face turning incredibly unsightly.

"Madeline, you've already severed ties with Apollo, and there's no way you could have predicted what he was going to do. Why are you apologizing?! Was that agreement signed for nothing?!"

“Of course not, I just felt that he would hurt you, because of me.”

Briana Cameron looked at her irritably, “What could be your reason? Although you can’t just deny your blood relationship with them, you don’t have to bear everything on your own.”

Pausing for a moment, Briana Cameron continued, “Since you’ve already signed that agreement to sever ties with them, whether they will regret it later or not. from now on, you just need to be yourself. Their mistakes are not for you to bear.”

Upon meeting Briana Cameron’s sincere gaze, Madeline’s eyes instantly reddened.

“Briana, thank you!”

“What are you thanking for! Just take good care of yourself. If Apollo dares to plot against me again, I’ll teach him a lesson he won’t forget!”

“Don’t worry, I’ve already sent someone to follow him. He will absolutely not appear in front of you again!”

“Good.”

No longer seeing guilt on Madeline’s face, Briana Cameron stood up and said, “Alright, I have things to do later, so I won’t talk to you anymore. You rest well, I’ll come to see you in a few days.”

“Um, be careful on your way back.”

“Knew.”

Briana Cameron got up to leave, and just as she reached the door, she bumped into Bella, who was still holding a dozen or so scripts in her hands.

Upon seeing Briana Cameron, surprise flashed in her eyes, “Ms. Cameron, did you come to see Madeline?”

“Um, did you bring the script for Madeline to choose?”

Bella nodded. “Yes, these are all scripts for shows that start filming three months from now. I saw a few that might be suitable for her transition, so I brought them over for her to take a look.”

“She had been under a lot of stress recently. Besides work, you could sometimes take her out to relax a bit. Don’t assign her too much work. wait until her mood improves before increasing her workload.”

“Alright, I understood.”

On the way back, Briana Cameron received a call from Gemma.

“Briana, you came back for dinner tonight.”

Briana Cameron had no plans for the evening, so she agreed immediately.

“Alright, I wanted to eat sweet and sour spare ribs.”

“I had already asked the kitchen to prepare.”

“I knew my mom was the best to me!”

“Stop joking around, remember to dress up nicely tonight!”

Briana Cameron raised an eyebrow, “Mom, this isn’t going to be a trap, is it? Have you set me up on a blind date?”

“What blind date?! It was just a few days ago that Mr. Baldwin did your father’s company a favor. We invited him over for dinner tonight to thank him. Since we thought you two should meet, we took the opportunity to call you back. I haven’t seen you in a long time.”

“Turns out I was just a foil, so heartbreaking!”

Gemma: ”

After a few seconds of silence, she finally spoke, “You’ve already promised me, you must come over tonight, or I’ll come find you tonight!”

After speaking, as if afraid of Briana Cameron's rejection, he hastily hung up the phone.

Briana Cameron couldn't help but laugh, she put away her phone and set off back to the villa.

At six in the evening, Briana Cameron appeared punctually at the door of the Cameron family.

Seeing her dressed no differently than usual, Gemma was somewhat upset.

"Didn't I tell you to dress up a bit?!"

Briana Cameron looked helpless, "Mom, didn't you tell me that tonight was mainly to thank Hector? If I dress too beautifully, won't I steal the spotlight?"

Moreover, she had no intention of developing anything with Hector, she had absolutely no interest in romance at the moment, and didn't want to get involved.
