Chapter 295

“Could you help me decide which dress I should have worn today?”

After looking for a while, Briana picked out a coat and skirt from D brand, and said with a smile, “Grandma, this should suit you very well.”

Norma nodded, “Briana does have good taste, I was just eyeing this dress too.”

I chatted with Norma for a while, and soon it was lunchtime.

During lunch, Kendra and Reese also came over.

At the dinner table. Norma looked at Kendra and said, “Many socialites will be coming to day. Could you help Isaac keep an eye out? If there’s anyone suitable, you could introduce them.”

Kendra’s face changed. If Isaac married a wealthy and powerful woman, wouldn’t there be a chance to compete for the inheritance of the Yoder Group in the future?

She lowered her head, reluctantly saying, “Alright, I understand.”

Briana glanced at Isaac, if he didn’t plan on dating, now was the best time to express his thoughts.

However, he didn’t say anything, just kept his head down and ate quietly.

A meal, several people ate with their own thoughts.

In the afternoon, Briana had planned to take a nap, but unexpectedly,

Maxim called in a hairstylist and makeup artist to style her.

Briana was somewhat dissatisfied, glaring at Maxim and saying, "You did this on purpose, didn't you? I'm not the star of the night, why am I making such a big deal?"

Maxim raised an eyebrow, slowly saying, "The socialites coming tonight will surely be dressed to the nines. You wouldn't want to show up bare-faced and out of place, would you?"

After some consideration, Briana didn't refuse anymore.

Three hours later, the makeup artist and stylist finally finished their work.

"Ms. Schneider, it's done, you can open your eyes now.

However, Briana did not respond.

"Ms. Schneider..... Ms. Schneider?"

After calling out several times, Briana finally opened her eyes, still filled with the confusion of just waking up.

"What happened? Is it done?"

The makeup artist, who was seeing someone fall asleep during makeup for the first time, nodded and said, "Done, Ms. Schneider, you can take a look now."

Briana looked in the mirror, the makeup artist had applied the currently popular peach blossom makeup on her, which complemented her pink strapless chiffon long dress perfectly

Her long hair was pulled back, revealing a slender neck and delicate collarbones, so white they almost glowed.

percent alike. However, Briana's features were more delicate than Kiley's, and her skin was also better than Kiley's. I hadn't noticed it before, but now that I compared them, the difference was clear."

"Enough, didn't you see Kiley's face has already turned sour? Now she holds the Charm Dress, there's no benefit in offending her!"

Kiley's hand slowly tightened, her gaze on Briana was extremely cold. She should have been the one standing next to Maxim, she should have been the one admired and praised by everyone!

It was all because of this despicable person, who had taken everything from her!

Chapter 296

"Kiley, I've finally found you!"

Kiley turned her head and saw Adeline, whom she hadn't seen in a long time, a flicker of surprise in her eyes.

Adeline was completely different from before, her temperament had greatly improved, and she had become much more confident and beautiful.

"Adeline, weren't you supposed to be filming?"

Adeline chuckled and walked over to her, taking her hand and saying, "I've been on a break recently, and I heard that the banquet hosted by the Yoder family this time, although ostensibly to welcome Isaac, the real purpose is to select a wife for Isaac."

Kiley frowned, "Where did you hear that?"

"My mom told me, didn't you notice that all the socialites who came today dressed up with great effort? They all wanted to win Isaac's favor in their hearts!"

Hearing Adeline say this, Kiley realized that indeed, everyone around was dressed up flamboyantly.

However, she had no interest in Isaac at all. If his parents hadn't died in that car accident, perhaps Maxim wouldn't have been the president of the Yoder Group now.

"I had no interest in such matters. You didn't attend this banquet with the intention of marrying Isaac, did you?"

Adeline shook her head, her eyes filled with evident disappointment.

"No."

She realized she still couldn't forget Oliver, which was why she attended the party, hoping to catch a glimpse of him from afar. Unexpectedly, he didn't show up.

Seeing her in low spirits, Kiley couldn't help but ask, "Do you still like Oliver?"

Adeline didn't respond, she whispered, "Let's not talk about this anymore, how are you and Maxim?"

Kiley sighed. "Didn't you see him come in with my sister? I guess I'm not important to him anymore."

"How could that be? Didn't he just recently give you the CharmDress from the Yoder Group? If he really didn't care about you, would he casually give away companies?"

Kiley felt bitter inside, Maxim gave her the CharmDress, but it was only to draw a line between them.

"Adeline, a lot happened between Maxim and me while you were away. It's too much to explain all at once, but it was mainly because of my sister."

Catching Kiley's insinuation, Adeline lowered her gaze, a hint of mockery flashing in her eyes.

During this period, she had met all kinds of people in the entertainment industry, and was no longer as naive as she used to be.

If it had been in the past, upon hearing such seemingly misleading insinuations, she would have definitely stood up for Kiley, confronting Briana in various ways.

But back then, she didn't want to get involved in their affairs at all.

“Kiley, matters of the heart are unpredictable. Who knows, maybe one day Mr. Yoder will change his mind,”

Kiley nodded, managing to muster a smile, “Adeline, thank you for comforting me.”

The two chatted for a while longer, but still didn’t see Oliver. Adeline made an excuse and left.

Kiley watched her retreating figure, her eyes full of coldness. It seemed that Adeline had grown a lot in the entertainment industry recently, otherwise she wouldn’t have deliberately ignored her calls.

However, no matter how much she grew, as long as she still liked Oliver, he could continue to manipulate her!

On the other side, after Briana and Maxim entered the banquet hall. she let go of his hand and said, “Mr. Yoder, I’m going to my grandmother’s side, you go and chat with the business partners.”

Tonight, Norma not only invited the socialites of Bridenville, but also many business celebrities.

Maxim nodded, “Hmm, if a man tries to flirt with you, don’t respond.”

“Understood.”

Seeing her walk towards Norma without looking back, Maxim couldn’t help but laugh.

Briana had just walked up to Norma when Kendra spoke, “Briana, I have something to do now, can you stay here and chat with your grandma?”

“Good.”
