

After Divorcing, She Shocked the World

Chapter 101: Tracking and Combat

“Brother Nanchen, stop thinking about her!”

Wu Yi quietly sat down on the hospital bed. Her fingers gently hooked Li Nanchen’s Adam’s apple. Deliberately revealing her beautiful chest, she leaned in and wanted to kiss him...

The scene of Wu Mei and K being intimate could not be dismissed from Li Nanchen’s mind. Frustrated, he glanced at Wu Yi and raised his hand to push her away. He decisively rang the nurse’s bell and said to the medical staff who rushed in, “Don’t let me see her again!”

Silence returned to the ward. Li Nanchen’s fingers were cold as he kept arranging for people to search for Wu Mei.

No news came back for the next few days.

Thinking about Wu Mei, Li Nanchen contacted the higher-ups of the Ministry of Defense through his personal connections and tried to obtain national satellite surveillance to accurately locate Wu Mei’s possible location.

However, the other party turned him down repeatedly and even persuaded him, “President Li, you need to be calm and rational. The national satellite surveillance system is extremely important.”

“It is only used if the situation is an important emergency that concerns the safety of the country. Yet you want to use it to find a Special Agent from the Ministry of Defense?”

“And a newbie who has just joined the Special Agent Camp at that. This goes against the rules, and it’s difficult for me to do that!”

“I promise you that I will try my best to find Wu Mei’s whereabouts, but we don’t need to cause such a commotion...”

The other party’s nagging made Li Nanchen even more frustrated. He looked up at the liquid in the IV bottle and paused for a while before saying, “Let’s make a deal.”

“You guys haven’t been able to find a location for your weapon research.”

“I know you want the piece of land that belongs to the Li Corporation. Help me find Wu Mei, and I’ll give you the land!”

The other party remained silent. The Li Corporation had held onto many tricky and remote plots of land for many years. It seemed like useless investments, but in actuality, these plots of land were extremely valuable. They had communicated with Li Nanchen many times but to no avail. Now that there was a solution, the Ministry of Defense naturally agreed after weighing the pros and cons.

Half a day later, Li Nanchen was looking at Wu Mei’s trail and current whereabouts. He got up and wanted to leave the ward.

Along the corridor, the young nurse saw that he had removed the IV drip without permission. She raised her hand in shock to stop him and said, “You’re still very weak. You need to be hospitalized for observation! If you leave, you might be in danger at any time. This won’t do...”

Li Nanchen pushed her away and said, “I have something I have to do.”

On the top floor of the hospital, the helicopter’s propeller was spinning rapidly, stirring up clouds of dust.

The Li Corporation’s assistants and subordinates were all armed. They helped Li Nanchen board the plane and headed straight for the address provided by the Ministry of Defense.

Outside the dilapidated building, Li Nanchen stared fixedly at the closed window and snatched the gun from his assistant. In his heart, he was still worried that Wu Mei was being controlled and was in danger. He silently gestured with his hand as a signal, before raising his leg to kick the door open...

“Don’t move! Behave!”

K hugged Wu Mei and pressed her down.

Hearing the door fall to the ground, he turned around abruptly. Without giving any explanation, Li Nanchen lifted his leg and kicked K in the chest. K rolled aside to dodge.

Wu Mei vaguely made out Li Nanchen’s figure. She wanted to explain, but her teeth were chattering from the pain of the drug relapse and she couldn’t say anything.

Five minutes ago, Wu Mei began enduring the agony from the drug addiction. She had ground her wrist against the hemp rope to resist the pain until her flesh was badly mangled...

Seeing that she was really too pitiful, K could only untie her and use his body to hold her down to help her survive this wave of drug addiction!

She did not expect to be seen by Li Nanchen by accident...

"D*mn it!"

Li Nanchen gritted his teeth and punched K with bloodshot eyes. Out of the corner of his eye, K glanced at Wu Mei who was on the ground. He sneered as he speculated about their relationship.

As the strongest high-ranking Special Agent in the Ministry of Defense, K did not let Li Nanchen have the upper hand. Instead, he quickly attacked Li Nanchen's weak spot and they fought nonstop.

Tables and chairs crashed to the ground. Li Nanchen picked up a wooden stick and hit K's knee.

However, K took the opportunity to hurl him onto the ground. At that moment, they both sensed the other party's abilities and knew that there was no way for a winner to be determined within a short period of time.

However, the space in this building was narrow and Li Nanchen had brought many people with him. Even if K dodged all the attacks, he would still be surrounded by them with their guns.

Instantly, a murderous intent rose in Li Nanchen's heart and he gritted his teeth tightly.

He raised the gun and aimed it between K's eyebrows.

After enduring this wave of drug addiction, Wu Mei finally regained some rationality. She propped herself up on the ground and staggered to her feet. She staggered to a spot two steps away from them and said in a weak voice, "Don't... Li Nanchen! You can't kill him!"

Chapter 102: Securing the Villa

What is the truth behind M's death?!

K was the only clue she had obtained. She absolutely can't let it slip!

Li Nanchen looked at her in disbelief. His hand trembled while his lips curled up in a self-deprecating smile. He asked, "Why?"

“Are you stopping me because of him?!”

“You went to the Ministry of Defense and became a Special Agent to get close to K? Is that right?”

Li Nanchen’s voice sounded somewhat miserable. Wu Mei did not understand what he was talking about. Thinking that she would have a chance to clarify the misunderstanding in the future, she stood in front of K and said weakly, “You misunderstood... Cough, cough.”

“He’s a Senior from the Ministry of Defense. If you kill him here, you’ll be in trouble!”

Li Nanchen’s brows furrowed and his lips gradually lost their color. They turned pale but he endured it and said, “I’m not afraid!”

“If it’s not what I think, then why? Tell me! As long as you tell me, I’ll believe you.”

Li Nanchen grabbed her shoulder. His gaze was almost begging as he said this. Wu Mei couldn’t give him a specific reason and could only press her lips together tightly.

K looked at them. Li Nanchen called his subordinates over and forcefully brought Wu Mei away.

Wu Mei tugged on his sleeve tightly and said gently, “Li Nanchen, look at me. Are you okay? Are you hurt anywhere?”

After they parted ways, Wu Mei was always worrying about Li Nanchen.

However, Li Nanchen did not even look at her and urged his subordinates to move faster...

The moment Wu Mei left, he finally couldn’t hold on any longer. He knelt on one knee and clutched his aching heart as he spat out two mouthfuls of blood.

His subordinates were shocked to speechlessness. They surrounded him and immediately sent him to the hospital for treatment!

In the villa, there were bodyguards, who were very agile, with guns every five meters. Wu Mei wanted to leave, but she was tightly surrounded!

Wu Mei paced around the room in frustration. She asked, “How long do you want to keep me under house arrest? I want to see Li Nanchen!”

“He can’t meet you.”

The bodyguard replied stoically. Wu Mei stood in front of him with a frown. She observed his expression as she asked, "Is it because he doesn't want to see me?"

"I have something to say about that day! We need to sit down and have a good talk!"

The bodyguard turned his gaze away and remained silent, keeping mum no matter what she asked.

This guy! Why does he always make speculations based on his own imagination?!

Wu Mei was furious. She heard a few coughs and saw Old Master Li coming out of the study in a wheelchair. She quickly concealed her expression.

She did not want the Old Master to worry about them. Fortunately, her drug addiction was under control now. Li Nanchen would come back eventually!

Wu Mei squatted down with a smile and asked, "How are you today? Are you feeling unwell? Can I take your blood pressure?"

Old Master Li looked at her with worry in his eyes. Looking around at the strangers who had suddenly appeared in the villa, he asked, "Did that brat make you angry?"

Wu Mei shook her head and comforted him, "We're fine..."

The door of the detention center opened slowly. Lin Piaopiao looked up at the dazzling sunlight and was somewhat unable to get used to it.

She hailed a cab and returned to the villa. When she saw the people standing guard outside, she was instantly afraid and hesitated, not daring to step in.

Coincidentally, Lin Liguó came out with the trash and dragged Lin Piaopiao to the cafe outside the surveillance range. He recounted the events of the past two days to her in detail and said, "Wu Mei has already fallen out of favor. Li Nanchen hasn't returned to the villa for a few days. Those people are also very cold to her."

"Something might have happened between them! This is your best chance. Seize it!"

"You'll be the mistress of the Li family!"

As Lin Liguó imagined the future, Lin Piaopiao's gloomy emotions were swept away. She instantly put on a haughty posture and ran to the bedroom to push the door open. Seeing Wu Mei's dejected expression as she stared at the screen, Lin Piaopiao became smug and deliberately taunted her, "Since you two have already divorced and Brother Nanchen is no longer interested in you, quickly pack up and get lost. Don't stay here anymore, or else Brother Nanchen will get angry when he comes back and sees you!"

Wu Mei tilted her head and looked up at her derisively as she said, "It's not your place to lecture me."

"If you have the ability to get Li Nanchen to protect you, you can tell me to move out in front of him."

"If you're not capable, hide yourself well and be a freeloader..."

Lin Piaopiao was furious. She recalled that the miserable life she had in the detention center was all thanks to Wu Mei. She rushed to the edge of the bed, wanting to slap Wu Mei.

Wu Mei couldn't even be bothered to look at her. She grabbed Lin Piaopiao's wrist accurately and flung it gently. Lin Piaopiao fell to the ground and wailed in agony as her waist hit the foot of the bed.

Chapter 103: Escaping from Imprisonment

Lin Liguu, who was hiding in the dark, heard the commotion. Sensing that something was amiss, he ran over to stop Wu Mei from continuing to teach Lin Piaopiao a lesson.

In the bedroom, Wu Mei stared at her phone in frustration every few minutes. She waited for Li Nanchen to either reply or call her, but to no avail.

Lin Liguu steadied Lin Piaopiao. His eyes darted around as he offered, "I can help you leave!"

He guessed that something had happened between Li Nanchen and Wu Mei. Since Wu Mei was unwilling to be placed under house arrest in the villa, Lin Liguu could use this situation to his advantage!

Wu Mei's brows furrowed. She just wanted to find Li Nanchen as soon as possible. She knew that Lin Liguu had some motive, but she still nodded in agreement.

The next day, Lin Piaopiao secretly swapped clothes with Wu Mei and wore a wig. She then deliberately appeared in the courtyard with her back to the surveillance. Lin Piaopiao remained in the line of sight of the bodyguards to distract them while Wu Mei wore a baseball cap low on her head as she waited for Lin Liguu's news.

Beep! Beep!

The car outside the house honked rhythmically. Lin Liguu escorted Wu Mei out of the villa and deliberately shouted, "Don't come back again!"

“President Li and Wu Mei don’t want to see you around. Your presence here will only cause trouble!”

The bodyguards only glanced at him once and did not show much concern.

Wu Mei got in the SUV. The hired driver looked at her cold eyes in the rearview mirror. He was so nervous that he gulped and asked her where she was going.

Five minutes later, Li Nanchen returned to the villa and asked for Wu Mei’s whereabouts. Following the bodyguards’ report, he went to the courtyard and realized that it was Lin Piaopiao, who was disguised as Wu Mei. The bodyguards were stunned. When he thought about how Wu Mei had escaped right before his eyes, he wanted to plead guilty in a low voice.

That intense feeling of loss caused Li Nanchen’s face to turn ashen. He clutched Lin Piaopiao’s neck and asked, “Where’s she?”

“Wu Mei threatened us to help her escape!”

“We urged her to wait for you to come back, but she... seemed to have gone crazy. She said that she wanted to leave this place for good!” Lin Liguang quickly shirked the responsibility when he saw that the situation was bad.

Li Nanchen snatched the car keys. Recalling the SUV he had run into on his way back, he searched for its car plate number and its whereabouts, before stepping on the accelerator to give chase.

Along the empty road near the airport, the driver caught a glimpse of the “pursuer” who was flashing his headlights and honking. Li Nanchen nearly caused him to get into a car accident, so he had no choice but to stop by the side of the road. Li Nanchen opened the car door and threw the driver out. Looking into Wu Mei’s dazed eyes, he interrogated, “Who sent you? Was it K? Did he ask you to take Wu Mei away?!”

The driver was so frightened that he stammered, “Someone hired me to go to the airport!”

Li Nanchen gritted his teeth and yelled, “Get lost.”

Looking at his furious expression, Wu Mei was baffled. She explained patiently, “I ran out to find you.”

After the past few incidents, Li Nanchen clearly did not believe her. His tone became more solemn and even somewhat threatening as he said, “Wu Mei! You’re now my Special Agent who is supposed to always be by my side to protect me. If you want to escape again, I’ll report this to the Ministry of Defense and have them determine that you were negligent in your mission!”

“An incompetent Special Agent will be punished by the Ministry of Defense!”

“You might be fired from the Ministry of Defense!” You won't be able to continue meeting K... Li Nanchen did not say this aloud.

He still couldn't imagine the relationship between Wu Mei and K. Seeing that his face had turned ashen from anger, Wu Mei chuckled and shook her head.

This is the first time she's seeing Li Nanchen behaving so recklessly. He's actually quite cute...

Wu Mei pushed open the car door and wrapped her arms around Li Nanchen's neck. Sensing his stubbornness, she leaned her lips in towards him and playfully bit down hard on them as she said, “Don't cause trouble for the Ministry of Defense. Why don't you punish me now?”

Li Nanchen narrowed his eyes and the tightly strung string in his mind snapped...

He pressed Wu Mei down and pushed her onto the backseat. Without giving her any time to react, he forced Wu Mei to back towards the other car door...

Inside the cramped space, Li Nanchen held her ankle, lifted her leg, and roughly rammed into her!

Her bent posture allowed him to go deeper with every thrust. Wu Mei couldn't take it anymore and started moaning. Her fingers grabbed his back tightly as she murmured, “Li Nanchen, be gentler... Don't... Not there...”

Li Nanchen's eyes were bloodshot. He just wanted Wu Mei to remember this moment as he gently stroked her red peas.

Wu Mei's body trembled violently and she clamped her legs together.

Feeling her tight hole constricting, Li Nanchen groaned and continued to ram into her sensitive spot. The car was filled with the scent of love-making and bashful sounds kept coming out from there. Finally, Wu Mei arched her body. Unable to take it anymore, she let out a soft moan and fainted.

Li Nanchen still did not let go of her and continued to take her in another way!

Chapter 104: Mother Wu Goes Crazy

In the evening, the setting sun was like a fire.

Li Nanchen carried Wu Mei home in an intimate manner. The love-making marks on her collarbone were particularly prominent, indicating how intense their fierce battle was.

Lin Piaopiao, who was sitting in the living room, suddenly stood up and stared at Lin Nanchen in disbelief. She pointed at Wu Mei and shouted, "Brother Nanchen?!"

"Wu Mei's relationship with other men is complicated. Why did you still bring her back?"

"She was clearly the one who wanted to leave the Li Family and escape from you! What's the point of bringing her back?"

Lin Piaopiao stared at Wu Mei with jealousy and hatred. She could not understand why Li Nanchen would fall so deeply for Wu Mei.

Li Nanchen lowered his head to look at the woman in his arms who had her brows knitted slightly. His gaze gradually turned cold as he said, "Don't let me hear you utter a single word about Wu Mei again..." he warned Lin Piaopiao and went straight to the bedroom. He adjusted the temperature of the air conditioner, changed Wu Mei's pajamas, and placed her on the bed.

Li Nanchen sat by the bed and caressed her face with the back of his hand. His eyes were filled with love and agony.

He took out the ointment for improving blood circulation and treating bruises from the first aid kit. He heated it up between his fingertips and gently smeared it on the dark purple marks...

Wu Mei felt something happening in the outside world. Exhausted, she lifted her eyes and saw Li Nanchen in her field of vision. Her lips curled up into a smile and she fell asleep again.

It was as if when she was by Li Nanchen's side, she could let her guard down and rely on him.

In the servant building of the Wu family, Wu Pang excitedly called Lin Liguo and reported the situation, "Hello? It's been settled!"

"You promised me that you would let me regain control of the Wu Corporation and then find me some lucrative cooperation projects. You have to fulfill your promise now. Don't think about going back on your word!"

Wu Pang rubbed his hands together as if he could already see countless bills waving at him.

When Lin Liguang saw Wu Mei return, he was filled with anger and roared, "Wu Mei is still in the Li family! Not only is her relationship with Li Nanchen not affected, it's even better! How are you guys doing things? No wonder you even lost the company!"

"What an idiot! Hurry up and think of a way to get rid of Wu Mei..."

"If you can't do it, spit out all the money you've eaten! I have the recording and evidence. Don't think about fleeing!"

Slam! Lin Liguang hung up the phone. His heart was pounding from the anger. He raised his head and glared fiercely towards the bedroom door with his fists clenched.

After being berated by him, Wu Pang understood that Wu Mei was just humoring Mother Wu...

Yang Shan and Wu Yi heard their conversation, but how could they bear to return the money they had earned? They incited Wu Pang to make his move on Mother Wu.

Wu Yi's eyes were filled with disdain as she glanced at the woman in the wheelchair. "As long as she goes crazy, we won't be able to control her. We can only rely on Wu Mei to come back and comfort her... Think of a way to use her to trap Wu Mei here. Make sure she doesn't even think about leaving!"

"Even if Li Nanchen finds her, can Wu Mei leave with him in front of her?"

Yang Shan took the opportunity to spur him on, "The psychiatrist said that she already subconsciously believes that Li Nanchen is dangerous. As long as she receives an intense stimulation from the outside world, this thought will be in the forefront of her mind! Why don't we help her..."

Wu Pang hesitated for a few seconds before approaching Mother Wu and strangling her.

Yang Shan and Wu Yi both started to attack. They grabbed Mother Wu's arm and tugged at her hair. They scolded, "Get your daughter here! Only she can save you now! Quickly call her!"

Mother Wu was so frightened that she was in a daze. She cried intermittently and flailed her arms in fear, but Wu Yi restrained her...

Wu Pang took the opportunity to call Wu Mei. "Come back quickly. She's going crazy again!"

Mother Wu kept shouting, "Mei'er, Mei'er..."

Wu Mei instantly sobered up. The night lamp by the bed shone with a faint yellow light. Li Nanchen was sleeping soundly beside her with his hand on her waist, appearing extremely insecure. Wu Mei's brows knitted together at this sight, as she felt apologetic and her heart ached.

She quietly grabbed her jacket and moved Li Nanchen's hand away. Dragging her aching and tired body, she drove to the Wu family's house.

In the Wu Family villa, one could hear Mother Wu's cries even from far away. Wu Mei quickened her pace and ran in. She squatted in front of Mother Wu and held her hand as she asked gently and patiently, "Mom, don't be afraid. What happened? Tell me! Mei'er is here..."

Mother Wu was nervous and could only mutter, "Dangerous! Li Nanchen is very dangerous!"

"Mei'er has to leave him. She can only live if she leaves him! If Mei'er doesn't listen, I'll kill myself..."

Mother Wu pointed the sharp scissors at herself as if she was threatening her.

Standing at the door, Wu Pang said in support, "You call yourself filial. What's wrong? Between your biological mother and a man, you want to choose the man?"

"Remember, this time, I was the one who discovered her going nuts and informed you to come back. What about next time?"
