

After Divorcing, She Shocked the World Chapter 26 - Grandpa is Critically Ill

Chapter 26: Grandpa is Critically Ill

"All of you, remember her face..."

1

Li Nanchen wrapped his arm around Wu Mei's shoulders and lifted her chin slightly. His gaze swept over Brother Black and with an imposing aura, he said, "In the future, no one can touch her in the underground casinos. If anyone dares to make her unhappy, it'll be akin to going against the Li family. They have to be responsible for the consequences."

4

Looking at Lin Ligu, who had been brought over from next door, he frowned and said, "From now on, he has no special privileges in the casino."

"Yes..." Brother Black hurriedly nodded.

Lin Ligu's face turned ashen and he trembled with anger.

Wu Mei stared at his side profile. What is Li Nanchen's motive in protecting her?

Is it simply because she is his lawful wife?

The two of them left the underground casino side by side. When they saw Lin Ligu at the door, Wu Mei kindly took out two coins and threw them in front of him. She said calmly, "This is for you. Take the bus. Don't walk home and end up having someone cover you with a gunny sack and beat you up!"

"You will definitely get your retribution!" Lin Ligu roared at Wu Mei as his blood pressure soared.

Wu Mei let out a long sigh and returned to where he was. She raised her fist and saw Lin Liguó subconsciously cowering.

As she was in a good mood today, she let him off the hook.

Wu Mei retracted her hand and patted him lightly. She said, "You insist on looking for trouble."

She returned to the car and smiled awkwardly at Li Nanchen.

The moon was bright, but Li Nanchen was in no hurry to drive off. He leaned towards her to help her buckle her seatbelt and asked, "Are you short of money?"

"If you need money, you can tell me... The situation in the underground casino is complicated and very dangerous."

Li Nanchen was about to take out his checkbook. When Wu Mei saw his actions, she grabbed his hand. The screen lit up and she looked at the 50 million that had been transferred to her account.

"I won it from Lin Liguó. Helped you to win back all the medical fees."

"Don't spend money on quacks in the future. Save the money."

Wu Mei rolled down the window and took off her hairband. Her curly hair fluttered in the wind and brushed against Li Nanchen's shoulder...

"You..." Li Nanchen stared at her. In the end, he compromised and drove back to the villa.

...

In the bedroom, Wu Mei was wearing a bathrobe. She turned on her computer and tapped her slender fingers on the keyboard.

As she typed, a bunch of numbers appeared on the screen.

After decoding the code to get the message behind it, her heart sank.

"The recruitment for special agents this year has ended..."

"Why was it brought forward?"

Wu Mei muttered to herself as she slowly scrolled through the screen and looked at the namelist and the date of the final evaluation.

In previous years, the recruitment period for the Ministry of Defence had always been fixed!

She had planned to use Wu Mei's face and identity to be recruited back in, so that she could find out the truth behind the plane crash. However, all her plans were ruined!

"Looks like I'll have to find another way."

Furious, Wu Mei banged on her desk. She felt that there seemed to be a hidden web and trap that was slowly devouring and erasing the information she needed.

Time is of the essence. She has to pick up the pace!

The next morning.

All of the dishes on the table were prepared for Wu Mei.

She sat opposite Li Nanchen and watched as he drank his usual cup of espresso. Frowning, she asked, "Isn't it bitter?"

"Give it a try?" Li Nanchen raised his brows and pushed the coffee mug over to her.

Wu Mei inadvertently glanced at his wet lips and shook her head. "No thanks."

Although she was bloodthirsty and heartless, she had a fondness for sweet things and could not tolerate bitterness.

"Hello?" Li Nanchen chuckled. As he thought to himself that she also had the taste buds of a young girl, he picked up a call and his expression changed instantly.

"I'll rush over now!"

He grabbed his car keys and even forgot to change his jacket. Wu Mei felt that something was wrong. She tugged on his arm and asked, "What's wrong?"

"The hospital informed me that Grandpa is in a critical condition..." Li Nanchen's voice trembled as he spoke.

They sped the entire way and ran through countless red lights. Holding onto the steering wheel, Wu Mei raced to send Li Nanchen to the hospital. She then accompanied him to the VIP ward.

Lin Liguó stood there smugly and provocatively. At the same time, the numerous Li-family relatives in the room, all glared hostility at Li Nanchen and Wu Mei, who had entered the room.

"What's the situation?" Li Nanchen asked.

Lin Liguó sneered coldly. A certain uncle from the Li family looked at Li Nanchen and took out two critical condition notices. He said, "Isn't the final outcome up to you to decide?"

"Old Master Li loves you the most. Right now, only Doctor Lin can save him... If you don't divorce Wu Mei and marry Lin Piaopiao, are you planning to just watch him die?"

Ha, this emotional blackmail is really convenient.

Wu Mei tilted her head and observed Old Master Li's condition. Fortunately, his condition seemed to have stabilized temporarily.

"As long as you agree to sign the divorce agreement with Wu Mei and let Piaopiao marry you, I will immediately begin the treatment..."

"But if you don't agree, hmph... Old Master Li won't live past tomorrow..."

Lin Liguó didn't dare to look into Wu Mei's eyes, but he still mustered his courage and threatened Li Nanchen.

Li Nanchen did not respond. Standing by the bedside and looking at his tortured grandfather, he clenched his fists.

After Divorcing, She Shocked the World Chapter 27 - Sensing a Conspiracy

Chapter 27: Sensing a Conspiracy

"Nanchen, why are you hesitating?"

"Are you going to watch Old Master Lin die? Only Dr Lin can save him now!"

The uncles from the collateral branch of the Li family threw out the critical condition notices and glared fiercely at Wu Mei, while pressing Li Nanchen to make a decision.

Wu Mei sized them up with cold eyes. Their faces were filled with greed and desire. How do they even look in the least bit worried about the old master's condition?

"As long as you divorce Wu Mei and marry Lin Piaopiao, the matter will be resolved!"

"It's just changing a wife, what's so difficult about it?! Li Nanchen, don't tell me you're only thinking about yourself. You're so unfilial!" One of the Li Family's uncles hurled harsh words at Li Nanchen and inadvertently exchanged glances with Lin Ligu. He then nodded briefly.

3

Wu Mei caught their eye contact. She lowered her head and chuckled lightly. Her lips curled up into a smile and she looked at them mockingly.

"Well said. It's just a change of wives. Why not let Lin Piaopiao marry you?"

Wu Mei clapped her hands and glared at that uncle. She asked softly, "You colluded with Lin Ligu in secret, wanting to force Lin Piaopiao on Li Nanchen so that you can reap personal gains from Lin Ligu! Do you think no one can tell?"

"You did your calculations well. Uncle, you used to be a pimp?" Wu Mei said sarcastically.

2

Li Nanchen raised his eyes abruptly and stared fixedly at his uncle, who looked slightly flustered. Without batting an eyelid, he frowned.

"Nonsense! What evidence do you have? I'm just worried about the Old Master!" The uncle pointed at the bed in a panic as he shouted.

On the other hand, Wu Mei tilted her head and held Li Nanchen's arm. She leaned lightly on his shoulder and asked, "In that case, why didn't you stay in the hospital to take care of him?"

That uncle could not out-talk Wu Mei. Stumped for words, he looked at Lin Ligu.

In the ward, the smell of disinfectant filled the air. Lin Ligu did not dare to look Wu Mei in the eyes and could only look elsewhere to avoid making eye contact with her.

"Stop framing others! You yourself are hanging on to the Li family and occupying the position of the Li Family's Young Madam!"

"Aren't you just trying to get money from the Li Family to give to the Wu Family so as to fill the hole in their company? Don't think too highly of yourself!"

Lin Ligu naturally started berating her as he was not confident enough and he became less imposing.

The Li Family Uncle followed his lead and added on while pointing at Wu Mei, "That's right! You're leeching on the Li Family. The Li Family doesn't owe you anything. Quickly pack up and get lost!"

"Oh? All of you witnessed how much of Li Nanchen's money I spent after marrying him?" Wu Mei fiddled with her nails, not in the least bit annoyed.

"In that case, do all of you know how much money your wives spent on supporting gigolos while making you guys a cuckold?" Wu Mei sneered and looked sympathetically at their stunned expressions. "Mind your own business more and mind other people's business less!"

4

When it came to scolding people, no one was a match for her!

"Cough, cough, cough... Mei'er, lass..."

Old Master Li opened his eyes weakly and exhaled deeply. He tried to hold Wu Mei with his scrawny hand to back her up.

The alarm of the medical equipment in the ward rang out. The doctors and nurses rushed in frantically, but Wu Mei rushed to Old Master Li's side first. Her intention was to whisper to him to stay strong.

Unexpectedly, when she looked up, she smelled a faint but unusual medicinal scent coming from the IV drip bag!

This medicine...?

Wu Mei glared at Lin Ligu with more ruthlessness in her eyes and said, "Looks like someone can't sit still anymore after losing all their money last night!"

"You poisoned Grandpa Li today to force Li Nanchen to make a decision? Lin Ligu, are you fit to be a doctor?"

Based on her sense of smell, Wu Mei could tell that the medicinal ingredient contained a slight toxicity. If it was used for a long time, it would make one even weaker. As Old Master Li was advanced in age, he definitely wouldn't be able to withstand it.

So this is the cause of the illness!

Li Nanchen looked at Wu Mei in disbelief and asked, "Are you sure?"

"Don't listen to her nonsense! The IV drip is from the hospital, so how can I possibly inject poison into it?" Lin Ligu defended himself in a panic-stricken manner.

Wu Mei raised her eyebrows and retorted, "I never said that the poison was injected into the IV drip..."

"You..." Lin Ligu realized that he had said the wrong thing. He signaled to the Li family's collateral branch of the Li family with his eyes, asking them to step in and help to control the situation.

The uncles of the Li family quickly pointed at Wu Mei and said, "Nanchen, don't listen to her!"

"She's a mental illness patient. She imagined all of it and is slandering Dr Lin! How could he possibly harm the Old Master?"

"This is just Wu Mei holding a grudge. Look... It has already been reported in the news that she's mentally ill! You should send her to a psychiatric hospital for treatment..."

One of the uncles from the collateral branch of the Li family showed the piece of news to Wu Mei. It was a video of people, whose faces had been pixelated, sharing shocking revelations, that was being played on the screen. Instead of getting angry, Wu Mei smiled. Yang Shan is truly devious!

After Divorcing, She Shocked the World Chapter 28 - Mentally-unsound Couple

This expose was fully substantiated with evidence.

The video captured the scene of Mother Wu in the sanatorium and the scene of Wu Mei strangling Wu Yi's neck. There was also the medical record of Mother Wu's mental illness, as well as the interviews with the so-called neighbors. All these seemed to confirm that Wu Mei had a history of mental illness.

The netizens' comments were all one-sided. They were all censuring Wu Mei.

"This crazy woman is actually the Young Madam of the Li Corporation?"

"Although she is pretty, people with mental illness must be locked up. It's being responsible to society!"

3

"Exactly! President Li, hurry up and divorce her! She's not worthy!"

Wu Mei's expression turned cold. She knew that the Wu Family was behind this.

They want to use this method to force her to get the money as soon as possible, so as to salvage the Wu Corporation's decline. Wishful thinking!

"Do you see that? You're just a lunatic..." the uncles from the collateral branches of the Li Family mockingly asked Wu Mei when they saw that she wasn't saying anything.

Before she could speak, there was a sudden bang!

Wu Mei raised her head and saw that with a wave of his hand, Li Nanchen knocked the phone that was still playing the video out of the Uncle's hands. The screen instantly shattered!

Li Nanchen grabbed his uncle's neck and forced him into a corner. His fingers tightened slightly, making it difficult for him to breathe. "Cough, cough..."

"Do I like what is shown in the video?"

Li Nanchen smirked lightly, his lips curling up into a bloodthirsty arc. "If that's the case, I don't mind being a mentally-unsound couple with Wu Mei!"

5

Sweeping a glance over the uncles who wanted to furtively take photos with their phones, he threatened, "If you dare to take photos, you will know the extent to which a mentally unsound person can go! Do you want to give it a go and see what the consequences are?"

3

"..." They were so frightened by Li Nanchen's fury that they did not dare to utter a single sound.

They all kept their phones away and sized up Wu Mei and Li Nanchen. Why does it feel like they are becoming more and more alike?

They are both lunatics!

5

Li Nanchen released his grip. That Uncle slid against the wall and fell onto the ground. He clutched his neck and breathed heavily, his eyes filled with fear.

With a dark expression, Li Nanchen made a call, "Hello? Director Xu, please come over."

Ten minutes later, a man in a white coat and black-framed glasses entered the ward. He looked around and asked about the current situation.

"Could I trouble you to help me see if there are any other drugs in the IV drip that's not good for Grandfather's health?" Li Nanchen asked.

Hospital Director Xu had been a close friend of the Li family for many years and was trustworthy.

If not for the fact that his field of research was not beneficial to Old Master Li's condition and hence could not treat him, Li Nanchen would have chosen him to be Old Master Li's attending physician.

Lin Liguo nervously glanced at Director Xu's actions.

Wu Mei raised her leg and kicked the door of the ward shut to prevent anyone from escaping. Her eyes were cold as she smiled faintly.

"Nanchen, what... is going on?"

Director Xu performed a test on the spot. Picking up the vial that had a slight change in color, he shook it and sniffed it. He then said, "It is indeed poisonous!"

"Looks like it has been administered for a long time. I'm afraid that the Old Master has too much of it in his body now. It's impossible to eradicate from his body with just metabolism."

1

"Moreover, this poison is colorless and highly latent. It can't be detected easily! How did you discover it?" Director Xu looked at him and asked. Wu Mei gently fiddled with her nails and avoided his gaze.

Clenching his teeth, Li Nanchen stared at Lin Liguo. "I'll explain to you later. I'll have to trouble you to arrange to bring grandfather for a blood purification first."

"Okay." Director Xu called a few nurses over and they carried Old Master Li out of the ward.

2

In the unusually quiet ward, Lin Liguu lowered his head guiltily.

It's a plan that clearly won't go wrong. It's all Wu Mei's fault!

3

*This b*tch has knowledge on medicine?*

Li Nanchen threw the IV drip bag to the bodyguard to keep as evidence. He looked at Lin Liguu and asked, "Don't you need to give an explanation?"

"I... I don't know either!"

"I'm just treating Old Master's illness and not staying in the hospital permanently. Besides, you guys refused to let me go near Old Master in the past few days!"

"How are you so sure that I was the one who administered the poison?"

1

Lin Liguu refused to admit it and ambiguously shirked responsibility.

Those from the collateral branch of the Li family had colluded with him for profits, so they quickly spoke up for Lin Liguu, "Nanchen, the Li family's reputation and status will cause people to be jealous. Perhaps some corporation was jealous and secretly tampered with it to confuse us! You shouldn't suspect Doctor Lin."

"Exactly! We don't have any evidence, so we can't wrongly accuse a good person!"

"If word gets out, people will say that our Li Family..."

As the uncles uttered gibberish, Li Nanchen's expression darkened.

Wu Mei interrupted him impatiently. She had no blood relations with these good-for-nothing relatives, so naturally, she didn't need to show them respect.

1

"Oh? Uncles really trust him! In that case, I'll have to be the villain."

After Divorcing, She Shocked the World Chapter 29 - She's the Mistress of the House

Chapter 29: She's the Mistress of the House

Wu Mei bent down and picked up the two scalpels on the tray.

Going straight up to Lin Liguu, she held the sharp blade between her thumb and index finger and pressed it against his artery, causing the people around them to scream in fear.

Lin Liguu's legs were trembling and he did not dare to move. He stammered, "Let's talk this over!"

"Who put the poison in?"

Wu Mei narrowed her eyes and slit Lin Liguu's neck threateningly, scaring him so much that he shut his eyes tightly.

"Don't lie to me. Otherwise, when someone with a mental illness goes crazy, they are uncontrollable."

1

Wu Mei chuckled lightly and placed her knee against his abdomen. She picked up the other scalpel and ferociously stabbed it into Lin Liguu's waist. He screamed in pain.

2

"It's not me! The Old Master has a few caregivers who take care of him day and night! It must be them!"

Lin Liguu weakly spat out a few names. Wu Mei turned back and exchanged glances with Li Nanchen. She said, "Bring the caregivers here."

A few minutes later, Old Master Li's caregiver was brought to the ward.

"It's her. She's the one who usually takes care of Old Master Li. She must be the one who poisoned Old Master Li!" Lin Liguó shouted while pointing at the caregiver.

The caregiver was so frightened that her face turned pale. Wu Mei turned around and glared fiercely at Lin Liguó, scaring him into keeping mum. She tried her best to ask gently, "Was it you?"

"..." The caregiver raised her head and furtively glanced at Lin Liguó. She seemed to hesitate, but quickly nodded solemnly and said, "It was me."

This unexpected situation made Li Nanchen and Wu Mei somewhat puzzled.

"How is that possible? If you have any concerns, you can tell me. I promised that no one will dare to hurt you!"

Wu Mei moved closer to her and gently placed a hand on the caregiver's shoulder. She could feel that the caregiver was trembling, an obvious sign of fear.

"There isn't. I was the one who poisoned Old Master Li and caused him to end up like this!"

"I did it secretly during the shift change. No one knew..."

The caregiver insisted on admitting to the crime, but neither Li Nanchen nor Wu Mei believed her.

"What kind of poison was it? Where did you buy it from? How did you do it? What was the purpose and reason behind it?" Wu Mei interrogated her.

When she saw that the caregiver couldn't answer any of her questions, her voice turned cold as she said, "Was it really you?"

"It was me! I... won't tell you the specific details." The caregiver's attitude made Lin Liguó heave a sigh of relief as he clutched his abdomen.

"Are you sure? If you plead guilty, you will be ruining your life. Is it worth it?" Wu Mei looked at the caregiver with sympathy and asked in a low voice, trying to get her to spill the truth.

However, the caregiver remained silent and refused to say anything else. In the end, Wu Mei lost her patience and started spinning the scalpel in her hand again.

Li Nanchen held her back and said in a low voice, "Don't hurt anyone else. This is a lawful society. Let the police investigate."

With that, he called the police. Very soon, the police brought the caregiver away. The ward became quiet again.

Wu Mei tidied up the messy tables and chairs in the ward. Then, she randomly picked a seat to sit on. Staring at Lin Liguu coldly, she said, "Although I don't know what terms you promised her to make her take the blame for you... You should still be fired for not taking good care of Grandpa."

Lin Liguu retorted, "Who are you to fire me?"

Seeing that the situation had stabilized, the uncle from the collateral branch of the Li Family spoke up for Lin Liguu, "That's right! Dr Lin's medical skills are one of the best in the country. I can't find anyone else who is as diligent, responsible, and whom we know inside out. What do you know to just casually say that you want to dismiss him!"

2

They pointed at Li Nanchen and said, "Nanchen, since when was it up to a woman to call the shots for the Li Family?"

"And a crazy woman at that!"

"If this gets out, the Li Family will be utterly humiliated because of you!"

Those people's faces were ugly. When they met Li Nanchen's chilly gaze, they instantly cowered.

"She's my wife, the mistress of the Li Corporation."

4

"Why can't she call the shots? She's more qualified than any of you," Li Nanchen said adamantly as he stood beside Wu Mei and backed her up.

Wu Mei smiled at him and took out two pieces of paper and a pen from the bedside table. She quickly wrote down a few lines and threw them in front of them.

"Since you want to protect Lin Liguó, that's fine too."

"As long as you sign this affidavit of guarantee and stamp your thumbprint on it, I will agree to let him continue treating Grandpa."

"But if there's any problem with Grandpa and his health deteriorates or if there are complications, all of you will have to bear the full responsibility together with Lin Liguó! None of you will be able to escape. Since you trust him so much, it should be easy for you to sign the papers, right?"

Wu Mei stuffed the pen into the hands of the uncles. She raised her eyebrows to indicate for them to sign.

"Since you dare to speak up for him, you must vouch for him and share the risk together. Hurry up and sign it," Wu Mei urged.

After Divorcing, She Shocked the World Chapter 30 - Let Me Hug You For A While

Chapter 30: Let Me Hug You For A While

However, the uncles looked at them and threw their pens aside, saying, "We won't sign it! Why should we take responsibility for his treatment?"

Lin Liguó was trembling with anger and yelled, "All of you!"

The uncles of the Li family avoided Lin Liguó's gaze and pretended to look elsewhere.

Wu Mei tilted her head with a mocking look in her eyes. She clapped her hands to call for the bodyguards to drag Lin Liguó away.

"From now on, Lin Ligu is no longer Old Master Li's attending physician. He is not allowed to get close to Old Master Li!" Wu Mei said domineeringly. She leaned towards Lin Ligu's ear and whispered, "Heh, how solid can a relationship based on profit be?"

2

"You! You'll regret it. You won't be able to cure the Old Master!"

"When the time comes, you guys will come and beg me, Wu Mei! I will get you to kneel down and kowtow to me!" Lin Ligu shouted hysterically.

4

Wu Mei simply dug her ear and turned to look at the awkward Li Family relatives. She asked, "What do you people have to say for yourselves?"

"Nanchen, I... I just remembered that I have something to do at home. I'll leave first. I'll contact you next time!"

As they watch Lin Ligu getting chased away by Wu Mei, they knew there were no more benefits that they could covet. They could only silently pick up their coats on the ground and leave dejectedly.

Li Nanchen remained silent. Looking at the empty ward, he said in a hoarse voice, "Wu Mei, accompany me to see Grandpa."

"Okay." Wu Mei nodded. She wanted to say something, but she swallowed her words when she saw his shoulders slump.

Along the corridor outside the dialysis room...

Through the glass window, one could vaguely see Old Master Li breathing weakly as he lay on the blood purification machine. The blood flowed out of his body, went through a purification process, before entering his body again. The sight of the old man with machine tubes inserted all over his body, made one's heart ache.

Li Nanchen slammed his fist against the wall.

He actually didn't realise this before!

Standing next to him, Wu Mei felt slightly bad for him and comforted him in a soft voice, "Grandpa will be fine." Wu Mei.

Li Nanchen's eyes abruptly flew open and he stared at her.

As if he had found someone he could rely on in that instant, he pulled Wu Mei over and hugged her tightly in his arms.

Wu Mei was not used to such intimacy and instinctively struggled.

3

"Don't move. Let me hug you for a while. Just a while."

Li Nanchen gently placed his head on Wu Mei's shoulder and said in a low and tired voice.

Wu Mei wanted to push him away initially, but her raised hand simply landed on his back. She patted him gently and said, "It's going to be okay."

Li Nanchen took a deep breath. Smelling the fragrance of her hair, he felt strangely at ease.

This seems to be the first time he took the initiative to hug her?

Wu Mei could feel his heart beating as she thought back to the past. Gradually, she found it difficult to breathe. He's hugging her too tightly!

It's as if he wants to integrate her into his body...

"Ahem. Are you Old Master Li's family?"

A nurse passed by and saw them. She cleared her throat and asked.

Li Nanchen released his grip and nodded.

"You can visit Mr Li now, but only one family member can go in. Who wants to go with me to change into an antibacterial suit?" the nurse asked.

Wu Mei met Li Nanchen's eyes. She tilted her head and smiled as she said, "Go ahead."

While waiting for Li Nanchen, Wu Mei took out her phone and hid in the stairwell of the emergency exit. She took the initiative to dial a number.

She still had a score to settle.

"Hello?"

Wu Pang's voice was filled with smugness, as if he had guessed that she would take the initiative.

Wu Mei felt disgusted. She flipped through countless media reports and asked, "Was this piece of news yours and Yang Shan's doing? What good will this do for the Wu family?"

"Don't worry about it. As long as you hand over the money obediently, I will inform the media to withdraw the reports!"

"Otherwise, don't think that I will let you off. Even if I die, I will drag you down with me!"

Knowing that the exposé would have a huge impact on Wu Mei, Wu Pang regained his confidence and threatened her.

Imagining his expression at that moment, Wu Mei felt a physiological disgust. She said calmly, "If you insist on doing this, fine."

Then, she hung up.

When Wu Pang heard the disconnect tone on the phone, he thought that Wu Mei had finally relented. As he fantasized about how he would squander the money after getting it, he could not help but start humming.

1

"Hmph! Want to fight me? You're still too inexperienced!"

3

In the hospital, Wu Mei came out of the stairwell. She saw Li Nanchen looking around for her and waved to him.

"Is Grandpa alright now?"

When Wu Mei got an affirmative answer, she nodded and said softly, "I have to go somewhere."

Li Nanchen nodded and said naturally, "I'll accompany you."

Wu Mei did not refuse and went with him to the hospital that Mother Wu had briefly stayed in before entering the sanatorium. Through the reception desk, she found the doctor who had been responsible for Mother Wu's treatment. She said, "I would like to retrieve my mother's medical records."

"This is proof of our relationship." She showed him proof of her identity .

The doctor simply took a few quick glances at it before he said perfunctorily, "I'm sorry, medical reports are the patient's privacy. Doctors have no right to give it to anyone. Please leave!"

2

He rejected her without even listening to her reason?

Wu Mei soon guessed that the doctor had received hush money from the Wu family and was deliberately making excuses!

1
