

After Divorcing, She Shocked the World

- Chapter 265 -296 Leave It to You

Chapter 265: Leave It to You

Wu Mei secretly heaved a sigh of relief. The person who came was really her savior.

She hurriedly stood up. When she opened the door, she realized that it was not the servant who was delivering the lunch, but Li Nanchen.

Li Nanchen stood at the door for a long time, thinking that he could hear the sounds in the room. However, there was no sound at all.

Afraid that Wu Mei wouldn't be able to handle the stubborn Mother Wu by herself, he became especially worried and couldn't help but knock on the door.

Wu Mei was surprised. "What are you doing here? I thought you were waiting for me downstairs?"

In Mother Wu's room, Mother Wu asked, "Who is it?"

"It's Nanchen!" Wu Mei replied.

Li Nanchen neatened his clothes and pushed open the door. "Auntie, it's me. The servants have already prepared the food. Do you want to go downstairs now?"

Wu Mei quickly held Li Nanchen's hand. "We'll eat in the room."

Li Nanchen winked at her, hinting at her to relax. He smiled at Mother Wu and said, "Auntie, we haven't eaten yet."

How could Mother Wu not see through Li Nanchen's thoughts? Her gaze landed on Li Nanchen and Wu Mei and she smiled lightly. "I'm hungry too. Let's go downstairs together."

Wu Mei was very surprised.

Li Nanchen actually learned to please his elders, and Mother Wu was especially cooperative.

Wu Mei held Mother Wu's arm and they went downstairs together. Bi Fang was sitting at the dining table pitifully.

When Bi Fang saw them, he immediately stood up and smiled. "Auntie, do you want to drink something hot..."

Li Nanchen rudely interrupted Bi Fang and said to Mother Wu, "Auntie, come downstairs slowly."

At the dining table, Li Nanchen and Bi Fang exchanged banter. It was very lively and made Mother Wu much happier.

Wu Mei guessed that Li Nanchen's idea was to distract Mother Wu.

There was no need!

Wu Mei looked at Mother Wu, who had finished eating, and asked secretively, "Mom, should I tell them?"

Li Nanchen looked at Wu Mei uncomprehendingly and then at Mother Wu. "Auntie, what do you want to tell us?"

Mother Wu thought for a while and placed the cup aside. She rubbed her fingers uneasily. "I know that Mei'er believes you, so I can tell you about this."

Why was she so secretive?

Mother Wu repeated what she had discussed with Wu Mei before explaining what she wanted to do.

Not only did she not want to cover up for Wu Pang, but she also wanted to hand the recording to the police. This was something that had never happened before.

After she finished speaking, she felt relaxed.

"Of course, your ideas should be better than mine. You guys can make the final decision."

Li Nanchen's current mood was the same as Wu Mei's back then. However, he did not express his opinion immediately. Instead, he immediately speculated about who had contacted Mother Wu.

Wu Mei thought for a while. "Mom, I think..."

Mother Wu misunderstood their thoughts and thought that they were afraid that she would regret it.

She looked at Wu Mei with an apologetic expression. Because of her stubbornness and cowardice, she had become more and more indulgent of Wu Pang's appetite, so much so that when Wu Pang couldn't get what he wanted, he took the risk to sell drugs.

"Don't worry, I won't change my mind. I won't let Wu Pang, who wants to bring down the Wu Corporation, off the hook."

Wu Mei glanced at Li Nanchen and saw that he was frowning. She thought about it seriously and suggested, "Mom, you've misunderstood. I'm only considering other possibilities. I think we should wait. Perhaps we can find other clues."

Li Nanchen agreed, "Auntie, this matter is very serious. Let us handle it."

Mother Wu was secretly relieved. If she had to call the police herself and ask them to arrest Wu Pang, she would not be able to do it.

She looked lovingly at Wu Mei, who was sitting opposite her. She finally realized how wonderful it was to have her family by her side. There was no need for her to shoulder everything by herself. Everyone could discuss it together.

"Nanchen, I feel very assured to leave it to you." Mother Wu knew that Li Nanchen was very capable. Leaving it to him was the most suitable.

"Mother, why are you only praising him and not me?" Wu Mei pretended to be unhappy. "I did better."

Bi Fang looked at their loving family of three and wanted to hug his pitiful self.

He had once traveled around the world. Suddenly seeing the warm atmosphere of their home, he felt really envious.

Li Nanchen noticed Bi Fang's expression and looked at him suspiciously. He pursed his lips and sneered, "Doctor Bi, what's wrong with you?"

Bi Fang frowned, his expression unnatural. He said pitifully, "I feel so lonely."

Wu Mei rarely saw Bi Fang sad. Just as she was about to stand up, Li Nanchen held her hand.

Bi Fang lowered his head and continued, "I'm all alone. I want a home too."

Wu Mei was shocked. She joked, "Doctor Bi, you can also have a family and career."

Bi Fang looked up and stared at Wu Mei blankly. "I have a career, but I have to find a girlfriend first."

Wu Mei couldn't help but stare at Bi Fang and ask, "You envy us, right?"

Bi Fang didn't deny it. "Of course I'm envious, especially since you have such a good mother."

Wu Mei threw a piece of tissue to Bi Fang and Bi Fang caught it.

How could she not realize that Bi Fang was pretending to be pitiful and innocent?

Chapter 266: You're So Annoying

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Bi Fang's words successfully moved the soft-hearted Mother Wu.

Wu Mei suspected that if they continued their conversation, Bi Fang might become her younger brother.

She was about to coax Mother Wu back to her room when Li Nanchen stopped her.

Li Nanchen shook his head at her. "Bi Fang, not bad."

Wu Mei looked at Li Nanchen, who was stopping her, and could not understand.

Li Nanchen said patiently, "Auntie must be feeling very uncomfortable. When she sees us, she'll think about how we dealt with Wu Pang. It's a good thing for Bi Fang to accompany her."

"Thank you." Wu Mei suddenly realized that as a daughter, she did not even think as much as Li Nanchen.

Li Nanchen reached out to stroke her black hair and said gently, "Silly, are you still going to be polite to me?"

Wu Mei pulled Li Nanchen's hand away. "Let's go to your study room and check on K first."

She thought it was possible that K found the waiter dressed as a woman.

K did indeed have news. Due to the urgent situation and the need to make arrangements, he didn't have much time to tell them.

He only said that he would follow the clues first and hoped that Wu Mei could find more information in the Wu Corporation.

Wu Mei was very surprised. She thought that K had already found witnesses, physical evidence, and even the transaction location.

Li Nanchen looked at her angrily and said with jealousy, "You have a lot of confidence in K."

"What are you talking about?" Wu Mei lightly lifted Li Nanchen's chin and hooked her other hand around his neck. She kissed his chin lightly.

Li Nanchen reached out to hug Wu Mei's waist, but he was still dissatisfied as he said, "Didn't you hear me? You still want me to repeat myself?"

Wu Mei could feel Li Nanchen's anger and jealousy. She smiled and moved closer to his red lips and nipped at the corner of his lips. "Why does my President Li always like to be jealous? Do you think my relationship with K is very close?"

Li Nanchen narrowed his eyes and moved closer. "You've mentioned him too many times. I hope that you'll only remember me."

Wu Mei conveniently wrapped her arms around Li Nanchen's neck and sat on his lap with her legs apart, rubbing her nose lightly against his cheek.

"Li Nanchen, you're so cute."

Li Nanchen grunted sullenly. His eyes were red as he said frustratedly, "Wu Mei, you're really a vixen."

Wu Mei's legs wrapped around Li Nanchen's waist steadily. When she tugged open his shirt, she reminded him wickedly, "The door to the study isn't closed. We'll be discovered."

Mother Wu could come upstairs anytime.

There was also that dude, Bi Fang.

Li Nanchen was distressed, but he did not let go of Wu Mei. He simply picked her up and strode towards the study room door.

Wu Mei was shocked and clung tightly to Li Nanchen until she was pressed against the door.

He locked the door.

"No one will disturb us now," Li Nanchen murmured.

Wu Mei looked at his face, her heart racing. She bit his shoulder and said impatiently, "Li Nanchen, hurry up."

Li Nanchen laughed and pressed Wu Mei onto the sofa.

How long had they been doing this?

The sky was already dark.

They squeezed together on the narrow sofa and hugged each other quietly.

Wu Mei stretched out her hand and tried to push Li Nanchen's hand away.

Li Nanchen hugged her even tighter.

"The sofa is too squeazy. Let's go back to our room," Wu Mei said lazily.

Li Nanchen forced out a sound as an answer, but he hugged her even tighter.

Her phone suddenly rang.

Wu Mei wanted to get up and look for her phone but was dragged back.

Li Nanchen refused to let go of her. "Didn't K say before? He's very busy."

"Who said it was K? You're so annoying." Wu Mei couldn't deal with Li Nanchen's shamelessness and could only compromise.

Li Nanchen's hard erection poked her waist.

Before Wu Mei could react, Li Nanchen pinned her beneath him.

Just then, her cell phone rang again.

They let the phone ring, not intending to pick it up.

An hour later, Wu Mei pushed Li Nanchen away and staggered to pick up her phone.

It was her assistant who had called her.

Based on the photos provided by Wu Mei, the assistant found the wives who had lunch with Yang Shan as well as their husbands who worked in the company.

As Wu Mei had expected, the waiter had lied to her.

In the photo that the waiter picked out, there was a shareholder. He usually did not participate in the company's affairs and had recently taken his family on a trip.

As Wu Mei listened to her assistant's report, Li Nanchen hugged her waist.

She quickly pressed Li Nanchen's hand down and said, "Stop fooling around. It's serious business."

As expected, Li Nanchen restrained himself and put on a coat for Wu Mei.

Wu Mei realized that on the other end of the line, the assistant had stopped talking. The assistant must have felt embarrassed. She quickly said, "Go on."

The assistant continued, "I realized that Ms Mo Li was the one who had brought these directors in."

Mo Li?

Wu Mei had always been suspicious of Mo Li. However, Mo Li did not leave behind any evidence that could be used against her. At most, she was only doing it for her own benefit but she stood on a different side.

Wu Mei said gratefully, "I've troubled you this time, but there's something I need your help with."

"The corporation may be facing a major storm. We need to bring forward the matter of public relations."

Wu Mei hung up the phone. She felt a little suffocated.

Li Nanchen no longer harbored any playful intentions. He hugged Wu Mei and asked, "What should we do next?"

Wu Mei held his hand and replied firmly, "Take the initiative to attack and kick Wu Pang and his accomplices out of the Wu Corporation."

Chapter 267: Exploded to Death

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Mo Li stood by the window and stared at the scenery outside, her eyes filled with anger.

The waiter who had successfully escaped from Wu Mei knelt behind her, his head covered in blood.

"I-I made a big mistake! But please give me a chance. I can definitely do it well." The waiter was so nervous that his back was drenched in sweat as he stammered.

Mo Li's red lips curled up into a smile and her eyes were filled with viciousness. She sneered and said, "A chance, of course you have a chance."

She slowly turned around and looked at the waiter, who was once in disguise. She tapped the rim of her cup with her finger, clearly considering what to do next.

Outside the door, a bodyguard walked in and said, "They're already upstairs."

Staring at the waiter, Mo Li asked, "I'll give you a chance. Do you know what to do?"

The waiter nodded fervently and expressed his loyalty to Mo Li, "I know, I know. I'll lure all of them away. You can rest assured."

Mo Li had chosen him precisely because he was a young and innocent-looking boy who was actually very scheming.

She didn't realize at all that this boy was stupid enough to lure all of K's men to where she lived.

K and his men had blocked all her escape routes.

"You said it yourself. I'll give you a chance. You have to grab onto it tightly," Mo Li said menacingly.

At that moment, the bodyguard reminded Mo Li, "Madam, we should go."

Mo Li handed the boy a remote control and said in a low voice, "Wait until they reach this floor, then press it and trap them."

"We'll meet you down there."

The boy had no idea what he was about to face. "I'll trap them all," he agreed excitedly. "They won't get away."

The bodyguard reminded Mo Li again that they had to leave.

Mo Li patted the boy's shoulder and said, "Don't disappoint me."

"That won't happen," the boy said quickly. He looked at the remote control in his hand as if he had control over the lives and deaths of these people.

A look of satisfaction flashed across his eyes as he missed the disgust in Mo Li's eyes.

When K's men ran upstairs, Mo Li and her two bodyguards jumped out of the window. They landed heavily on the shed, and jumped onto the ground.

The bodyguards walked behind and in front of Molly, protecting her as best they could until they went around an inconspicuous side road and found a parked car.

When the bodyguards opened the car door in front of Mo Li, there was an explosion behind them.

Forget about K and his subordinates.

Even the boy Mo Li had left there, would die in the explosion.

There would be no evidence, nor would there be any traces.

One should give up on useless things immediately.

Mo Li sat in the car expressionlessly. The chauffeur would drive her to a safe place.

The supervisor, who she had planted in the Wu Corporation, sat in the front passenger seat and handed her a document.

Mo Li was feeling vexed. Even though she knew that Wu Mei and Li Nanchen had secretly met up with K in the restaurant for a discussion, it was already too late. Fortunately, she had only lost a chess piece.

She took the document and asked in frustration, "What is this?"

The supervisor answered respectfully, "Will Wu Pang be in charge of the latest batch of goods as per the original plan?"

Mo Li did not make a decision immediately. Instead, she touched the document and pondered.

She thought of Mother Wu.

She laughed ironically. "That crazy woman hasn't called the police yet. She seems to be doing everything in her power to protect Wu Pang. Hand it to him, he's perfect for it."

"Should we change the transaction location? Since they can find Madam's residence, they'll also find the transaction location," the supervisor suggested.

After all, the surprise attack on Mo Li's house by K and his men had caught them off guard. However, it also proved that they were in danger.

Staring at him, Mo Li said coldly, "We've always been living on the edge. From the day you agreed to follow me, you should know that you can't return to your peaceful life."

"If you can go this far for money, you have to pull yourself together now, understand?"

She would not allow anyone to oppose her. Everyone had to listen to her.

The supervisor sighed inwardly, knowing that Mo Li was extremely angry at this loss.

But how could she let an inexperienced child handle such a huge matter? It was ridiculous.

Not only had they been exposed, but one of them had also been sacrificed.

In actuality, only the boy died.

When K was about to go upstairs, he noticed the silence and quickly changed the plan based on his sharpness and experience.

With a cold expression, he sent a message to Wu Mei and placed a hand on his forehead. The other party is ruthless and vicious. She didn't hesitate to sacrifice her trusted subordinate to cover up her tracks. This is already the best outcome.

Wu Mei quickly returned his call, but the voice K heard was not Wu Mei's but Li Nanchen's.

"She's asleep." Li Nanchen's attitude was firm.

K's heart felt like it was stuffed with cotton. He sneered and said, "President Li, the person you treat as a treasure is just a colleague in my eyes."

"She had better be." Li Nanchen's voice was like ice.

K suppressed his anger and recounted everything. Li Nanchen remained silent.

"Next, we can only let Wu Mei keep an eye on the Wu Corporation."

Li Nanchen replied half-heartedly, "I understand."

K wasn't in the mood to argue with Li Nanchen. He still had many things to settle.

They hung up at the same time, unwilling to have any contact with each other.

Chapter 268: News from K

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

In the study room of the Li Family's villa.

When Li Nanchen turned around, he saw Wu Mei, who was rubbing her eyes, enter the study room and dazedly walk towards him.

He hugged Wu Mei and asked gently, "Did I wake you up?"

Wu Mei snorted and said in a hoarse voice, "You were the one who took my phone away. It's so late. Who called?"

Li Nanchen said, "K."

Who?

Wu Mei looked up in shock. "It's already the latter half of the night. Could he have... caught someone?"

She immediately sobered up, eager to know what had happened.

The outcome was disappointing.

Li Nanchen flung the phone onto the sofa and gently coaxed Wu Mei, "Go back to the room. We'll talk tomorrow."

Wu Mei did not manage to catch her phone in time and Li Nanchen carried her towards the room.

She said in a low, accusatory tone, "Put me down quickly. Business is more important."

Li Nanchen refused to let her go. He murmured, "If you don't want to sleep, we can do something else."

Someone knocked on the study room's door.

Who woke up?

Just as they were wondering, they heard Mother Wu coughing.

Wu Mei struggled to get out of Li Nanchen's embrace. She neatened her pajamas.

Li Nanchen opened the study room door first. "Auntie, what's the matter?"

When Mother Wu saw Li Nanchen, she was especially surprised. She saw Wu Mei enter the study room and wanted to come over, but she had not expected Wu Mei to have come to look for Li Nanchen.

“Mom! Why aren’t you sleeping? I’ll send you back to your room.” Wu Mei walked out from behind Li Nanchen and casually linked her arm with Mother Wu’s.

Mother Wu glanced at Li Nanchen apologetically before returning to her room with Wu Mei.

“I’m sorry. I didn’t mean to disturb you. I just wanted to say that we should bring more people when we go to the company tomorrow.” She was really worried that Wu Pang’s matter would implicate the Wu Corporation.

However, she also did not expect that Wu Mei and Li Nanchen would still be in the study room in such high spirits.

Wu Mei pretended to be calm and explained to Mother Wu, “Mom, don’t misunderstand. Nanchen and I were discussing serious matters. Things are going well.”

It was indeed going quite smoothly.

Just that someone died in an explosion.

Wu Mei admired the mastermind behind this. She thought that that person was someone who could do great things. However, she did not intend to say it out loud. She was afraid that she would scare Mother Wu.

Mother Wu nodded lightly and urged Wu Mei, “Quick, go back and rest.”

Wu Mei only left the room after seeing her mother lie down on the bed.

The moment she closed the door, Li Nanchen hugged her.

She couldn’t help but yawn. “No, I have to get up early tomorrow. I’m too tired.”

Li Nanchen used the tip of his nose to nuzzle her cheek. “Don’t worry, it’s too late. Let’s go back to our room first.”

After they returned to their room, they really covered themselves with their blanket and went to sleep.

However, the sun rose too quickly.

Wu Mei patted her face and forced herself to sober up. She was about to head downstairs for breakfast when she received K’s message.

K found out that the boy, who had been disguised as a waitress, had been staying overseas and came back alone. The moment he came back, he headed out to monitor Li Nanchen and Wu Mei.

This boy's origins were a mystery. At the same time, he was someone who could be easily abandoned. His death was destined to not stir up too much trouble.

Wu Mei replied with an "okay" and put her hand down.

"I'm here." Li Nanchen walked behind Wu Mei and gently kissed her face. He realized that she was staring blankly at her phone.

He narrowed his eyes. "It can't be K, right?"

Wu Mei came back to her senses and reached out to grab his collar before kissing him back.

"Ahem, be more mindful, you guys. There are elders in the house," Bi Fang said gloomily. He woke up early in the morning and had to witness such an indecent scene. He couldn't take it anymore.

Li Nanchen raised his head to look at him and chased him away. "Doctor Bi likes freedom. If he doesn't want to see it, he can move out."

Bi Fang's eyes were filled with grievance, as if he had been bullied.

Someone walked over.

Thinking that it was Mother Wu, he turned around and shouted, "Auntie, President Li is bullying me."

Was Bi Fang complaining to Mother Wu?

However, it was the maid who had come over with the fruit.

Li Nanchen sneered and said, "Auntie hasn't come downstairs yet."

Bi Fang sat down and snorted, "Forget it, I'll let you off."

Li Nanchen could not be bothered to argue with him.

Wu Mei helped Li Nanchen adjust his collar. "K only told me that he found out that the kid had just arrived in China and didn't have any relatives."

Li Nanchen's expression darkened. "Foreigner?"

Bi Fang picked up a piece of bread and said, "I remember Ms Mo Li. Isn't she from overseas too? I think there are two new supervisors in your company who are from overseas too."

What a coincidence.

"How do you know all these? Did you investigate the Wu Corporation?" Wu Mei didn't understand.

Bi Fang shook his head and said, "I was going to wait for you guys to come back to tell you. I noticed that some illegal drugs were traded through underhanded means. The person who facilitated this transaction was the new supervisor of the Wu Corporation."

Illegal drugs entering the borders?

Li Nanchen asked angrily, "Why didn't you say so earlier? Can you find out the transaction location?"

Bi Fang realized the seriousness of the matter and immediately replied, "Yes!"

Chapter 269: New Speculation

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

The plans for today had all changed.

Wu Mei's initial plan was to first bring Mother Wu to the Wu Corporation and then investigate the relevant personnel in the company.

Now, because of Bi Fang's words, they had a new direction.

When Mother Wu heard their decision, her eyes were filled with disappointment even though she knew that she would not be able to change anything even if she went to the Wu Corporation.

However, when she saw Li Nanchen instruct his assistant, Qin Yang, to investigate the relevant locations and saw that Wu Mei had also gotten in touch with some powerful figures, Mother Wu finally chose to remain silent.

If she could not help, she should not be a burden to the children.

Bi Fang noticed the change in Mother Wu's expression. Not wanting her to have any awry thoughts, he suggested, "Auntie, shall I accompany you to the Wu Corporation?"

Mother Wu immediately rejected him and scolded Bi Fang with a stern face, "That won't do. There are bad people in the Corporation. It's too dangerous."

Bad people?

Bi Fang leaned over and said softly, "Auntie, if there's danger, I'll escape with you."

Mother Wu looked at Bi Fang and felt that this child was a little silly.

She smiled and patted his hand. "Silly child, let's stay home and rest today."

Bi Fang felt uncomfortable under Mother Wu's gaze. He felt that he had been misunderstood and that something was amiss.

Then, he changed the subject, realizing that Mother Wu's attitude towards Wu Pang had changed completely since she found out about his illegal dealings.

Not only did Mother Wu not help Wu Pang, but she also wanted Wu Mei to do a thorough investigation and hand him over to the authorities.

If she had known earlier, Wu Mei would have shown all the evidence to Mother Wu. This would have saved her a lot of time.

Li Nanchen's phone rang.

It was Qin Yang who had replied with the information he wanted.

He hung up the phone and glanced at Mother Wu and Bi Fang chatting in the living room before looking away.

He finally found an important clue that they had overlooked and that was... Where was the location of the drug deal?

K could find out that Wu Pang played an important role in these transactions, but never told them the location of the transactions.

Why was that?

This is probably not just because of a lack of trust.

What if K took this opportunity and hid this important clue so as to plot against Wu Mei in order to deal with Ben?

Li Nanchen's gaze was cold. No one could tell what he was planning.

Bi Fang cleared his throat and interrupted Li Nanchen's thoughts. He kindly reminded Li Nanchen, "Aren't you guys going to the study room to work?"

Li Nanchen glanced at him coldly and frowned unhappily, but he noticed Mother Wu's uneasiness.

Mother Wu sat in the living room while the servants walked around. It was inappropriate for the others to hear their conversation.

Wu Mei also came back to her senses. She tried her best to calm Mother Wu down and said, "Mom, I'm going to the study room. I'll let you know if there's any news."

"Go ahead. Don't tire yourself." Mother Wu looked at Wu Mei as her heart ached.

She was afraid of giving her daughter too much pressure, so she did not continue.

Li Nanchen agreed with Wu Mei and said, "Auntie, we'll tell you after we've settled things."

Mother Wu nodded in relief and told them to go and do what they needed.

Li Nanchen and Wu Mei went upstairs together. He told Wu Mei everything he had heard from Qin Yang and his speculation.

Wu Mei looked at her phone. There was no news from K.

"The location of the transaction is set at the Wu Corporation. The person who ordered Wu Pang to do this is very smart. He wants to pull all of us into the trap." Wu Mei sneered. She did not think that this person was interested in Wu Pang's ability to do things. This person was more interested in the strength of the Wu and Li Corporations.

"If Wu Pang had been caught, he would have threatened my mom. Mom might have found me because she wanted to cover it up."

If she compromised, Li Nanchen would also help.

If word got out, they would all die in the same boat.

Li Nanchen sat beside her and hugged her with one hand. He said softly, "Don't be angry. We already know their motive."

"Their motive," Wu Mei repeated.

She thought about K's sincere expression in front of her and felt disgusted.

“Nanchen, I don’t believe that K didn’t find out the location of their transaction. But he hid this from me,” her tone was cold as she clenched her fists and said with hatred.

She had wanted to work with K to deal with Wu Pang’s matter. It turned out that this was a chain of events, and she was the one being plotted against.

Wu Mei seemed calm enough. In actuality, she was trembling with anger as she considered her next step.

Her mind was in a mess and she could not think of a better idea. She could only look at Li Nanchen and said, “What ideas do you have?”

Li Nanchen had been waiting for Wu Mei to say this. “I think that…”

As Wu Mei listened to Li Nanchen’s arrangements, her brows gradually eased up and her entire body relaxed.

After Li Nanchen finished speaking, he pinched her chin. “Do I get a reward?”

Wu Mei hugged Li Nanchen’s neck and used her soft lips to kiss his thin lips. “I won’t treat you badly.”

How could Li Nanchen let go of such an opportunity? He pushed Wu Mei down. Just then, her phone rang, dampening their spirits.

It was K.. He finally called back.

Chapter 270: Transaction Location

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Li Nanchen let go of Wu Mei and walked to the window. He picked up his phone again and started to make arrangements.

When Wu Mei picked up the phone, she noticed the fatigue in K’s voice. She changed her plan of discussing with K into checking on the progress of the investigation.

K said impatiently, “Don’t worry. I will inform you when I have news. Keep an eye on those people from the Wu Corporation.”

“Okay!” Wu Mei immediately agreed and hung up impatiently.

If it was the usual K, he would have noticed Wu Mei’s strange tone. However, he was focused on dealing with tricky matters and did not have the time to notice it.

When Li Nanchen turned to look at Wu Mei, he smiled gently and said, "Ms Wu Mei, everything is ready. You first."

Wu Mei stood up and held Li Nanchen's arm. She deliberately spoke in a slower tone as she replied gently, "Thank you, President Li."

They left in a hurry and only had time to inform the butler that they would not be home for lunch.

The butler seemed to have expected it. He trailed behind them and asked, "Madam, are you coming back tonight? The Old Master said that if you don't come back for dinner... That's fine too."

They had walked away too quickly and did not hear him.

Along the way, Wu Mei received a call from her assistant, who informed her that the supervisor, who had been contacting Wu Pang the most, was suddenly leaving the company in the name of meeting a client.

This was a normal business dealing in the company. If it was during normal times, there wouldn't be any problems, but this was a very special situation.

Wu Mei could smell the conspiracy and laughed scornfully. "Sure, let him go. You have to be careful when you monitor him too. Safety first."

The assistant agreed and prepared to leave the washroom to do what Wu Mei said.

What a coincidence.

The supervisor he mentioned came in and they ran into each other.

"Manager Cheng," the assistant greeted.

The supervisor remembered this assistant. Previously, he appeared to have sided with Wu Pang, but he was actually still helping Wu Mei.

"Manager Cheng?" The assistant noticed that the supervisor was looking at him viciously and called out to him again uneasily.

The supervisor looked at the assistant's attire and guessed that he was heading out. He smiled and asked, "Are you going out too?"

When the assistant heard this, he explained, "Yes, I want to pass a document to Madam Wu."

"Ah? What a coincidence. Let me give you a lift," the supervisor suggested generously.

Everyone in the company knew that he and Wu Pang were close.

Despite Wu Pang's scandal, he did not change the side he was on. When he offered to give the assistant a lift, he thought he would see the assistant's awkwardness or even fear.

He was disappointed!

The assistant replied without hesitation, "Really? Thank you very much, Manager Cheng. I'll go get the documents first."

The assistant went to get the documents and took the elevator with him to the underground garage.

As they stepped out of the elevator, it made a strange noise that startled them.

When they turned around, the elevator door slowly closed.

The supervisor and assistant looked at each other and laughed out loud. They laughed awkwardly.

"This way, please." The supervisor pointed at his car and walked ahead.

He looked forward to the development of the situation. This assistant was one of Wu Mei's cronies. It would be brilliant if the assistant was involved in the illegal drug deal and pushed the blame on her.

"Old Cheng, I'm here." Wu Pang got out of the car and called out to the supervisor, only to find that the person behind the supervisor was his former assistant.

That assistant was very cunning. In fact, he was the one who had helped Wu Mei.

His face darkened. "Old Cheng, why did you bring him here?"

The supervisor looked back at his assistant and smiled. "A gift, of course."

The assistant hugged the documents helplessly and staggered two steps back. "President Wu, Manager Cheng, what do you mean?"

The supervisor turned around and looked at the assistant with a dark expression. "As long as you follow us obediently, nothing will happen. Otherwise, you can only die."

Wu Pang's face was pale. He did not understand the supervisor's intention. He said anxiously, "No, he will tell the others. We can't let him live."

The supervisor put his hand on Wu Pang's shoulder and confidently assured him. "Don't worry, President Wu. From today onwards, we will not be the ones carrying out the transaction, but the assistant who will be working for your good daughter."

If this secret was discovered, Wu Mei would be responsible for it.

Wu Pang understood the supervisor's intentions and agreed happily. However, he hesitated for a moment. "But, Mo... she doesn't know yet. We should tell her."

While they were still discussing this, several ordinary taxis pulled into the parking lot and parked around them.

A couple of men dressed as passersby got out of the car. One of the men took a bag and walked up to Wu Pang and the supervisor. "Money," he said coldly.

"Here, here." Wu Pang immediately took out a large suitcase and opened it in front of the men.

The suitcase was filled with cash.

At this moment, the supervisor asked the assistant to lean over. He pressed his head down and asked, "Did you see it clearly?"

The assistant shuddered. "Yes, I saw it clearly."

At that moment, the man checked the money and handed a bag to Wu Pang.. "Check the goods."

Chapter 271: Emergency Siege

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

It was Wu Pang who examined the goods.

Wu Pang hurried over to the man, took the bag hastily, and began to examine the goods.

The assistant could not move as the supervisor was grabbing him by the neck. The assistant could only lower his head so that he could see what was happening more clearly.

After inspecting the goods, Wu Pang said with a fawning smile, "This is right, this is right."

The man put on his sunglasses and asked stiffly, "Are you sure? We're leaving then."

"Take care, take care!" Wu Pang bowed respectfully.

This was one of his bankrollers.

The men were about to get into their cars when one of them looked up and suddenly said, "Someone's here!"

Wu Pang hugged the bag and turned around to talk to the supervisor. He then saw the supervisor shove the assistant forward.

The assistant stumbled a few steps forward, looking especially pathetic.

The supervisor lowered his voice and warned the assistant, "Tell that guy to leave. If we're found out, we'll say you did it."

The assistant turned around. His eyes were red from fear and he was about to cry. "What should I say? Let me go."

The person who walked over was the security guard in charge of the parking lot. He was walking towards them with a flashlight in his hand.

The supervisor shouted, "Hurry up."

At this moment, Wu Pang carried the bag and carefully hid in the car.

The assistant braced himself. Panic-stricken, he walked around the few men staring at him and said in a sobbing tone, "It's me. I'm... Madam Wu's assistant. I'm going to deliver a document."

When the security guard saw a familiar face, he smiled and said, "Oh, it's you. Are you going out? Please, please."

The assistant nodded. All of a sudden, he shouted. Then, he turned around and threw himself into a corner.

At the same time, the security officer shouted, "Don't move, police."

Not only the security guard, but all the other police officers also gathered around them.

The men in charge of the transaction seized the opportunity and got into the car.

They locked the car door and drove towards the security guard.

The security guard stepped back quickly and fired a shot at the tires. The shot missed and only knocked the license plate off.

The second shot struck the window, but there were no signs of damage. It was actually made of bulletproof material.

The other taxis followed quickly, making a sharp turn toward the exit.

“Roll down the shutters of the parking lot. Put it down quickly.” The voice of the walkie-talkie came from nearby.

An answer came over the walkie-talkie. “It’s been put down. It’s been put down.”

Their ultimate goal was to trap those people in the parking lot so that no one could leave.

The police shot and pursued them.

The drug dealer’s accomplices pulled out guns from their cars and returned fire.

The scene was chaotic.

In the blink of an eye, Manager Cheng was the only one left standing rooted to the spot.

In the midst of the gunfire, he was like a forgotten person.

He knew very well that even if the police did not care about him now, they would definitely not let him off when the time came.

The supervisor instinctively ran to Wu Pang’s car and tried to open the door, only to find it locked.

The car was empty and Wu Pang wasn’t in it.

How could Wu Pang leave him behind and escape?

The supervisor was very flustered and angry. He turned around and wanted to return to his car, but when he remembered that the parking lot was about to be shut, he immediately ran to the elevator.

The doors to the elevator were also locked.

The supervisor had heard the sound coming from the elevator earlier. It was very likely that the elevator had been locked or malfunctioned.

Then, he noticed the stairwell next to him and ran inside without hesitation.

The carpark suddenly became very quiet.

The assistant was curled up in a corner, holding his phone. His voice was hoarse from fear. "Did you receive everything?"

"Yes, I've received it. Leave the car park immediately." Wu Mei's calm voice rang out from the phone.

The assistant looked around and was much calmer than before. "Manager Cheng ran into the stairwell, but... I don't know where President Wu went."

Wu Mei raised her voice to remind him, "Now, get as far away from that place as you can. Do you hear me?"

"I don't need you to risk your life for my next plan. Leave immediately."

The assistant pulled himself together. He wanted to leave too, but everything had happened too quickly.

From the moment he walked towards the security guard to an actual shoot-out.

Everything calmed down within a few minutes.

He was so scared that his legs were shaking and he couldn't stand up. "Don-don't worry. I'll wait for the police to come back and save me."

Wu Mei guessed that the assistant must have been frightened. She softened her tone and comforted him softly, "Hide yourself well, got it?"

The assistant agreed quickly. After he hung up the phone, he found some strength again. Once he stood up, Wu Pang put his hand on his shoulder.

He broke out in cold sweat and stammered, "President Wu, you haven't left?"

"Leave? You are too smart. You have gotten me in trouble time and again." Wu Pang was furious. He wanted to break the assistant's head, but he could not defeat a young and strong man.

After the assistant stood up, he leaned against the wall and begged for mercy, "President Wu, let's talk it out nicely. Look..."

He searched for an opportunity to escape.. It would be best if the police came looking for him.

Chapter 272: A Bomb in the Car

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

“Do you expect me to believe you? It’s all Old Cheng’s fault. Why did he bring you here?” Wu Pang said angrily.

In his rage, he grabbed the fire extinguisher beside him and swung it at the assistant.

The assistant’s vision turned black and he fainted.

Wu Pang looked at the assistant he had knocked out and kicked him several times in anger. It was all because of this kid.

He remembered that the assistant was helping Wu Mei. As long as he had a hostage, Wu Mei could not do anything to him.

Wu Pang dragged the assistant away with difficulty.

At the entrance of the Wu Corporation.

The company’s security guards had already received the news and was about to lock the main door.

The supervisor ran up two flights of stairs and down a long corridor. He shouted to the security officer, “Wait a minute, I want to go out.”

The security officer immediately stopped him and said, “Manager, I’m sorry. We’ve just received notice that everyone in the company cannot leave.”

When the supervisor saw the security officer, he immediately thought that he was a police officer.

Fear began to fill him, and he instinctively backed away. “Stay away from me. Don’t come any nearer to me.”

“Manager, this really won’t do.” The security guard felt especially awkward as he retreated.

The supervisor didn’t care what the security officer thought. He continued shouting “I’ve already applied to go out. If something important is delayed and there are losses, can a security officer like you be responsible?”

Of course not.

The value of any contract in the company could be equivalent to a security guard's salary of more than ten years.

The security guard had to ask his captain first. Just as he was about to take out his walkie-talkie, the supervisor immediately noticed a police car appear outside the company and drive towards the exit of the underground carpark.

What did this mean?

This meant they had all been caught.

He had to escape.

The supervisor saw a private car parked at the entrance of the company. The man who came out of the car was on the phone and deliberately shouted, "Can't go in? Why? I'm your big client."

He knew that this person had once come to the company to sign a contract, but he could not remember the exact details.

What really attracted his attention was that car.

As the security guard communicated with the head of the security team, the supervisor rushed out of the company's door, pushed the person aside, opened the car door, and got into the driver's seat.

The man banged on the door with all his might and even ran after the car. "Hey! Hey! Are you crazy? Return the car to me."

The supervisor didn't care at all, so he kept stepping on the gas and shaking everyone off.

After running two red lights, he finally got through to Mo Li. He shouted in despair, "Mo Li, save me, hurry up and save me."

Mo Li asked impatiently, "What are you shouting for? Was the transaction successful?"

"It's a failure, Mo Li. It's a failure. Send me and my family out of the country immediately," the supervisor yelled instinctively.

He saw Li Nanchen's car in the rearview mirror.

Li Nanchen and Wu Mei have caught up?

These two damned fellows!

Swiftly, the supervisor turned the steering wheel with one hand, and drove the car in another direction.

Mo Li's voice was filled with astonishment as she asked, "Manager Cheng, how could you mess up such a simple matter?"

How could the supervisor not hear Mo Li's sarcasm? He could only plead with her, "You said that if I was discovered, you would give me and my family a sum of money and send us overseas."

Mo Li stopped pretending and sneered, "But, Manager Cheng, how much money did you make for me after carrying out a few transactions? Do you know how much losses you've caused this time?"

"I heard that you brought Wu Mei's assistant to participate in the transaction. Were you not afraid that this matter would be exposed?"

The supervisor understood that Mo Li was merely patronizing him.

He thought about how he had given up his dignity in front of Mo Li to get everything he wanted. However, when he was in danger, Mo Li chose to give up on him.

He mustered his courage and shouted threateningly, "Mo Li, I know all your secrets. If you can't do it, I'll expose you."

Mo Li hung up without answering.

The supervisor kept calling Mo Li, but the last call only informed him, "The number you've dialed does not exist."

Mo Li managed to get rid of her mobile number so quickly?

The supervisor's heart sank as a thousand possibilities ran through his mind.

If he turned himself in, he would have a chance.

No!

He would leave the country first. After settling down, he would get his wife and child out of the country and they could lead a more carefree life.

When the supervisor made up his mind, Li Nanchen's car suddenly stopped beside him.

He broke out in cold sweat and immediately stepped on the accelerator.

“Manager Cheng, get out. There’s a bomb in your car,” Wu Mei shouted to the supervisor.

The supervisor turned his head and looked at Wu Mei resentfully. He thought that Wu Mei was lying to him. He growled fiercely, “Wu Mei, I could have lived well without you. It’s all your fault.”

Wu Mei responded loudly, “Manager Cheng, if you have something to say, you can go to the police station. Stop the car! I’m telling the truth.”

The supervisor turned the steering wheel and was about to hit Li Nanchen’s car.

The chauffeur dodged swiftly.

Li Nanchen quickly reached out and pulled Wu Mei into his embrace, instructing the driver to close the car window.

He looked at Wu Mei worriedly and tightened his arms around her.. “I told you, he won’t believe us.”

Chapter 273: Major Mistake

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

The supervisor was an important witness. They couldn’t let anything happen to him.

Wu Mei hurried the driver and said, “Chase after them and stop the car.”

Li Nanchen immediately objected. “No, it’s too dangerous. We have to think of a way to make him stop.”

What then?

The driver suggested, “President Li, I think I can do it. If there’s any danger, I’ll avoid it immediately.”

This was an emergency.

They must make the best decisions.

Li Nanchen had no choice but to compromise. He gritted his teeth and said, “Be careful.”

After receiving Li Nanchen's permission, the driver approached the supervisor's car again.

The two cars were in hot pursuit, neither willing to give up. They collided repeatedly, producing ear-piercing sounds.

The passing cars had no choice but to give way and keep their distance.

"Lead his car to somewhere less crowded!" Li Nanchen calmly reminded the driver.

There was a bomb under the car.

All they could do was minimize casualties.

Wu Mei saw that their car was already on the highway. On both sides of the highway was the scenery of the lake.

She was not in the mood to admire the scenery. Ignoring Li Nanchen's obstruction, she rolled down the car window again and shouted to the supervisor, "You can't escape. As long as you stop the car, there will be a way out."

"Are you willing to die without knowing why and let the person who instigated you get away with it?"

The supervisor was moved. His hands trembled as he asked, "Is there really a bomb? This car..."

"Of course there is. It's right under the car," Wu Mei shouted at the top of her lungs.

The manager finally recalled that the owner of the car had been invited by Mo Li to the Wu Corporation to sign the contract.

They were in cahoots.

Not only did Mo Li know that the deal had failed, but she had even arranged for a car to wait for him.

What if he did not get into the car and chose not to escape?

The supervisor instinctively denied the possibility, thinking that Wu Mei was merely lying to him, but refusing to suspect Molly.

No!

That's impossible.

How could there be such a coincidence in the world?

“You have to think about your family too,” Wu Mei said as a row of traffic cones appeared in front of them.

The chauffeur stepped on the brakes and stopped in front of the traffic cones.

When the supervisor ran through the cones, he immediately accelerated and nearly flew up.

The few police cars that were tracking them also arrived at the same time. They bypassed the roadblock and continued to chase after the supervisor’s car.

The chauffeur had no choice but to wait for the police car to pass by before trailing behind.

They drove for a long time before they saw the supervisor’s car hit the railing as it kept dodging.

The railing was knocked aside as the car lost control and flew into the lake.

It happened so fast that they couldn’t stop it.

Wu Mei gritted her teeth in anger. She turned to the chauffeur and said, “The car will explode. Move back.”

The driver immediately stopped the car by the side of the road and heard the echo in the water.

The supervisor’s car exploded in the water.

The sound of an explosion came from the water. It was earth-shattering.

It took some time before peace returned.

Under such circumstances, the supervisor had no chance of surviving.

Wu Mei leaned weakly against Li Nanchen’s chest. She looked at the police officer who got out of the car and said angrily, “Just a little bit more and we would have been able to catch him.”

“We’ve already tried our best.” Li Nanchen was also very disappointed and comforted Wu Mei.

They spent a lot of time only to end up watching one of the suspects die in an “accident.”

Wu Mei suddenly opened her eyes and recalled what had happened. She was puzzled as something occurred to her and she voiced it out, "We might have a clue if we find the owner of the car."

Li Nanchen sighed helplessly and let go of Wu Mei. He said in a low voice, "How could the police not notice such a big thing?"

Seeing Wu Mei's depressed expression, he put an arm around her shoulder and said, "How's the Wu Corporation? Ask your assistant? He should be at the police station taking a statement."

Right. There's still the assistant.

Wu Mei finally pulled herself together. She looked at the busy police officers in the distance and dialed her assistant's number.

The other party quickly hung up.

Wu Mei's face darkened and she said coldly, "He hung up the phone. This is not his habit. Could he be in danger?"

As she could not contact her assistant, she asked the person in charge of this case to check the surveillance cameras. In the end, she found that the corner where the assistant had hidden was a blind spot and there was no video of him leaving.

The only person who had not been caught was Wu Pang.

It was Wu Pang who brought the assistant away.

Wu Mei made a judgment and immediately informed the person in charge of this case of her thoughts and that they needed to search more carefully.

After she hung up, she looked at Li Nanchen, who was beside her, and said with a worried expression, "President Li, I failed because I underestimated my enemy."

"It has nothing to do with you. If you have to talk about failure, it was because someone intentionally hid stuff from you." The person Li Nanchen was talking about was K.

He felt that if K had been willing to talk about the case, such an accident would not happen.

Wu Mei knew that Li Nanchen was consoling her, but in reality, if she had left home earlier and rushed to the Wu Corporation, and even arranged for people to lock all the entrances and exits, such a huge mistake would not have happened.

Chapter 274: Mastermind

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

This time, it was her fault.

The chauffeur, who had been listening quietly to their conversation, suddenly said, "President Li, Young Madam, there's news about President Wu on the Internet."

About Wu Pang?

The police had yet to find any trace of Wu Pang in the barricaded Wu Corporation, but there was already news online?

They believed that someone in the Corporation knew the details and had sold the information online.

The Wu Corporation was truly messy.

Wu Mei clenched her fists in frustration. She felt that these people should be dealt with properly, but she didn't have the authority to speak up for the time being.

"Let's go to the Wu Corporation first," Li Nanchen said to the chauffeur.

The chauffeur bypassed the scene of the accident and rushed to the Wu Corporation.

Along the way, they checked the news online.

Wu Pang is a drug dealer.

He used his connections in the Wu Corporation and the families of these people to help him transfer funds and goods.

In the online article, it mentioned that the Wu Group was under a police lockdown, but while arresting the drug traffickers, the important criminal suspect, Wu Pang, had gone missing.

Wu Mei put down her phone and seemed to be thinking about something. She said doubtfully, "Nanchen, the description in the article is too detailed. It was as if they saw it with their own eyes and knew what happened."

"He's probably someone who holds an important position in the whole affair."

After she said that, she noticed a large group of reporters gathered outside the main gate of the Wu Corporation.

The reason for that was because the entrance had been locked. Everyone had been stopped from entering.

After getting Wu Mei's approval, the chauffeur didn't continue driving to the front gate. Instead, he turned to the underground parking lot.

After Wu Mei contacted the person in charge of the case, the door to the car park was opened.

The car drove into the car park.

They noticed that the cars parked inside were more or less damaged, and there were bloodstains on the walls.

The chauffeur parked the car near the elevator.

Before they got out of the car, a thought popped up in Li Nanchen's mind. He stopped Wu Mei, who was about to get out of the car, and said, "Do you think it could be the mastermind who's behind this?"

This was possible!

"This person arranged for Wu Pang, who is in urgent need of funds, to do something illegal and chose the location of the transaction to be at the Wu Corporation. This shows that he only has one motive." Li Nanchen looked at her steadily, with a faint cold glint in his eyes.

Wu Mei's heart suddenly sank. "His goal was never to target a single person, but to destroy the entire Wu Corporation."

How big of a grudge is it and how much hatred does this person have to do that?

Wu Mei had only been in contact with the Wu Corporation for a short period of time. Could it be that someone had a terrible dispute of interest with the Corporation?

This time, Wu Mei had made a wrong guess.

The mastermind behind the scenes had nothing to do with the Wu Corporation. That person simply wanted to kill Wu Mei and everyone she cared about.

Mo Li sat on the couch and watched the servants pack her luggage. She asked coldly, "Have you found Wu Pang?"

"No. He should still be hiding inside the Wu Corporation," the bodyguard said.

Mo Li snorted in surprise and said admiringly, "This stupid man. He can actually evade the police's emergency search. I really underestimated him."

She placed her hand on the computer beside her and swiped her finger lightly.

The screen showed the backstage of the stock market transaction.

Mo Li began to sell the stocks in her hands in large quantities and quickly cashed out, causing the Wu Corporation's situation, which had been embroiled in the controversy, to worsen.

She withdrew her finger and looked at the bodyguard. "Has everyone else been taken care of?"

It was not just Wu Pang.

There were also the people who had been caught by the police.

The bodyguard answered, "Ms Mo Li, the situation isn't very good. The Corporation has been controlled and our people can't do anything."

"The police station is also very strict, and there's no chance to get close."

Mo Li was not surprised at all.

Be it Wu Mei, the police, K or Ben, none of them were to be trifled with.

The deal she made after she entered the country had been tracked by K, and it had not been easy for her to last this long.

The servant put her packed suitcase on the porch and went to clean the kitchen.

Staring at the servant, Mo Li said reluctantly, "He's been working here ever since I moved in."

"Yes," the bodyguard replied.

Mo Li stood up and put on her sunglasses. "Be quick when you do it, don't let him suffer too much."

The bodyguard understood what Mo Li meant. They had no choice but to relocate again and they had to get rid of all the irrelevant people.

Including this servant.

When Mo Li walked out of the door with her luggage, she heard a gunshot and sighed in pity.

The servant was dead.

The bodyguard locked the door and escorted Mo Li out.

As soon as they got into the car, Mo Li received news from the people who were monitoring Wu Pang's family.

Wu Pang's family was not Wu Mei and Mother Wu, but Yang Shan and Wu Yi.

They had been taken away by the police.

Mo Li was not surprised at all. She sneered and said, "Can you send someone to get them to shut up?"

The bodyguard did not know how to answer because Yang Shan and Wu Yi would be sent to the police station.

All he could do was brace himself and reply, "We'll do our best."

Mo Li nodded and said, "People like us don't have to be gentle.. We just have to solve the problem and eliminate the obstacles."

Chapter 275: Chaos in the Interrogation Room

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Early in the morning, inside the detention center.

The officer on duty yawned and went to fetch a glass of water.

A man, who was bent over, raced past him. He moved as fast as a panther, making no sound.

The police officer picked up his glass of water, turned around, found nothing unusual, and sat down at his desk to continue his work.

This man was an assassin.

The hallway was dimly lit.

After the assassin walked in, he took out his gun and looked for the suspect.

Suddenly, all the lights in the corridor lit up.

“You’re already surrounded. Drop your weapons now and don’t resist.” The police officer held up his gun as he slowly approached the man.

When the police officers approached him from the front, the assassin raised his gun and turned around to look behind him. There were also police officers approaching him from the back.

He knew that he could not escape.

The man steeled his heart and with the mindset of taking a gamble with his last hope, he raised his gun without any hesitation, aimed at a police officer, and pulled the trigger.

In the long and narrow corridor, gunshots rang out continuously. After a few minutes, peace was restored.

The assassin’s hand closed around his gun and he curled up on the floor, staring at the gunshot wound in his leg, as his body shook.

They were amazing.

Every shot only hit his leg, but he had no bullets left.

A police officer quickly kicked the assassin’s gun away and checked his wound.

Another police officer shouted into the walkie-talkie, “We’ve caught the suspect. We need an ambulance.”

The assassin looked up with difficulty. His eyes were beginning to blur. He could no longer make out the face of the officer in front of him. “I knew it wouldn’t work,” he muttered.

However, he had no choice.

His employer had requested that all of the suspects in custody be killed.

There was only one way to end this.

The ambulance arrived outside the detention center.

Including the assassin they caught in the detention center, a total of seven people were sent onto the ambulance.

They were well-equipped but they had been ambushed by the police and gotten arrested.

Li Nanchen's bodyguards watched as the assassins were tied up and sent onto the ambulance before returning to the car.

"President Li, they're all still alive. Their vital parts were not hurt," the bodyguard replied.

Li Nanchen patted Wu Mei's hand and raised his brows. As if waiting for praise, he said, "How's that? It's just as I predicted, isn't it?"

"It's the same. You're really amazing." Wu Mei planted a heavy kiss on Li Nanchen's face and prepared to open the car door.

The chauffeur quickly locked the door from the inside.

Wu Mei tilted her head and looked at the chauffeur in shock. "What are you doing?"

The chauffeur smiled awkwardly. "President Li said that Madam's safety is the priority."

Wu Mei frowned unhappily and looked at Li Nanchen. "Really? That's what you said?"

Li Nanchen suppressed his laughter and held her hand. He said to the chauffeur, "We can leave now."

There was no need for them to stay outside the detention center. They had to go to another important place where important people were imprisoned.

Wu Mei's gaze followed the ambulance. She reluctantly retracted her gaze and raised her fist to punch Li Nanchen's shoulder. She grumbled, "Why can't I go take a look?"

Li Nanchen's reason was very reasonable. "Of course it's because it's too dangerous. They can handle it very well. You don't have to do it yourself."

The police officers lying in ambush in the detention center were all experienced. They didn't need Wu Mei to risk exposing her identity and charge in the frontlines.

They arrived at a detention center in another area.

Whoever the assassin was looking for was here.

Li Nanchen and Wu Mei got out of the car and saw the Police Chief who had been waiting for a long time.

When the Police Chief saw them, the first thing he did was not greet them. Instead, he said, "The car owner said that he was invited by an acquaintance to sign a contract with the Wu Corporation. When he found out that there was a bomb under his car, he was so scared that he vomited."

He really vomited.

Wu Mei stopped in shock and forced a smile. She held Li Nanchen's arm and said, "Sorry to trouble you, Police Chief."

The Police Chief looked tired, as if he'd aged several years in the space of a few hours. He shook his head. "What do I have to complain about?" he said. "I'm going to have to trouble you next."

Oh? What does he mean?

The difficult ones were Yang Shan and her daughter Wu Yi.

"If you hadn't brought the recording evidence here ahead of time, I'd think they were really crazy." The Police Chief didn't need to say anything more. They'd see it for themselves soon enough.

Yang Shan was naturally the first to spot her.

Slumping in her chair, Yang Shan was crying and cursing, "I don't know. I don't know anything. I don't know who you're talking about. I don't know anything."

The police officer in charge of the interrogation said in a calm tone, "Madam Wu, this is a recording of you and evidence regarding the transfer. You deny..."

"We were talking nonsense. You can't use this as evidence. I want to get a lawyer, I want to sue you guys." Yang Shan suddenly sprang up, slammed the table and shouted at the police officers.

She crossed her arms again and flinched. She continued to mutter, "I want to get a lawyer. You're going to get me killed. You're going to kill me."

Standing outside, Wu Mei could clearly see the entire interrogation process. Fairly impressed, she silently gave Yang Shan a thumbs up.. "If I didn't know her true condition, I would think that she is a mental patient."

Chapter 276: Use This Opportunity

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Yang Shan grabbed a glass of water and drank it before continuing to shout.

“Let’s go take a look at Wu Yi.” Wu Mei saw that Yang Shan was acting crazy and guessed that she would not reveal any useful information for the time being. Hence, she decided to visit Wu Yi.

Wu Yi’s interrogation had also reached a bottleneck, because she knew too little.

Only Wu Pang and Yang Shan were involved.

Wu Yi covered her face and silently cried. No matter how much they interrogated her, she did not respond.

The Police Chief looked at the scene in the interrogation room. His blood pressure was rising. He could hardly take it anymore.

“Go and tell Wu Yi that the evidence of her good father’s crime is conclusive and he fled for his life. She has no choice but to tell us as much as possible about what she knows,” Wu Mei said calmly.

“Tell the same thing to Yang Shan again. If they’re willing to go to jail with Wu Pang, of course we will agree.”

Wearily, the Police Chief rubbed his temples. “We’ve used that,” he said simply. “They don’t believe us.”

They don’t believe them?

They don’t believe what the police officers are saying?

They lived in shallow ignorance and did not know that after getting involved in such matters, there was no future to speak of. There would only be a dead end in the end.

Wu Mei had another good idea. She turned to look at the Police Chief and said, “Didn’t Madam Wu want to hire a lawyer? Let her hire one. Let the lawyer speak to her.”

The Police Chief had never thought of this idea. He clapped his hands hard and immediately arranged for the police officers to handle the matter.

When Yang Shan heard that she could engage a lawyer, she proudly raised her head as if she was looking at the police officer with her nose in the air.

Her behavior did not anger the interrogator at all.

The police officers had seen too many of such people and knew how to deal with them. However, they lacked a breakthrough point.

The breakthrough was Yang Shan’s lawyer.

Wu Mei had met this lawyer before.

Back then, Wu Pang's legal team had appeared at the Wu Corporation. He was one of the lawyers present.

The moment the lawyer saw Wu Mei, he understood the gravity of the situation and followed the police officer to see Yang Shan.

An hour later, Yang Shan was willing to tell the truth.

Wu Yi felt that she had nothing to do with this matter. She had merely taken the money from Mo Li and encouraged Wu Pang to deal drugs.

She had spent all her time trying to help Wu Pang pull strings to find a suitable buyer to carry out the transaction.

Buyer?

To buy the goods?

They had obtained something useful again.

Their contact person was Mo Li and the list of buyers were in the hands of Yang Shan and some of the wives of their accomplices.

The police officers got busy again.

Sitting on the bench, Wu Mei was shocked when she heard the result.

Unable to understand Mo Li's motives, she said, "She spent a large sum of money to own the shares of the Wu Corporation just to sell drugs?"

"They only completed a few transactions. The amount is not even enough to recoup their losses." Li Nanchen was equally surprised.

Could Mo Li be so brainless?

The Police Chief sent someone to find Mo Li and bring her back to the station.

The only disappointment was that Yang Shan did not know where Wu Pang was, nor did they find the missing assistant.

Without the help of her assistant, Wu Mei had to rely on herself.

She discovered that there was an abnormal situation with the Wu Corporation's stocks. They had fallen tremendously, and someone had started to purchase a large number of stocks.

Wu Mei tapped her finger on the phone screen and looked at Li Nanchen. "Look, someone wants the Wu Corporation again."

If she did not know the Wu Corporation very well, she would think that it was a huge cake that everyone wanted a slice of.

"Let him do it. Let's see how many more people he can drag out." Li Nanchen had long gotten used to this kind of situation and was not surprised. Some people actually dared to use this opportunity to acquire Wu Corporation's shares. They must have some secret collaboration with Mo Li, right?

The Wu Corporation could use this opportunity to solve their internal problems.

Since the news about the Wu Corporation was spreading like wildfire on the Internet, it would be best to blow things up.

Just before dawn, a new report appeared on the Internet.

Someone in the know said that the police had already detained the drug dealers involved, including Wu Pang's wife Yang Shan and their daughter, Wu Yi.

Was Wu Mei involved in this incident?

Was it out of revenge, or was someone trying to slander him?

Wu Mei did not get angry when she saw the "factual" content and malicious speculations. Instead, she laughed until her stomach hurt.

Li Nanchen raised his head to look at the busy police officers and lowered his voice as he said, "Is the author I hired not good enough?"

"Exceptionally good." Wu Mei nodded.

Her phone suddenly rang. When she picked it up, she heard Mother Wu's voice.

Mother Wu did not sleep well. When she went downstairs to the kitchen to drink some water, she heard the servants making breakfast and talking about some things online. This worried her.

"I guess you guys are very busy and didn't rest. How is the situation now? When are you guys coming home?"

“If you guys don’t come home, I’ll get the servants to make some ginseng soup and send it to the office first?” Mother Wu asked Wu Mei as her heart ached.

Wu Mei’s heart warmed. Indeed, a child with a mother is a treasure. However, she still rejected Mother Wu’s good intentions. “Mom, don’t worry. I’ll be fine. Besides, I’m not in the company.”

Mother Wu did not give up. Afraid that Wu Mei would reject her, she continued, “Tell me the address. I’ll send the soup over. I’ll go out with my bodyguards. Oh right, Bi Fang will accompany me.. I’ll be fine.”

Chapter 277: Hidden in the Trunk

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Wu Mei had no choice but to compromise and tell Mother Wu her location.

When Mother Wu heard the word “detention center”, she was very scared. “Aren’t there many suspects there? Isn’t it very dangerous?”

Wu Mei looked at the busy police officers and said with a smile, “Mom, there are also a lot of reassuring police officers here.”

Just then, the Police Chief walked out of the office with a pair of dark circles under his eyes. He nodded at them.

Is there news about Mo Li?

After exchanging a few words with Mother Wu, Wu Mei followed Li Nanchen into the Police Chief’s office. The news she received was that Mo Li had already left the place where she was staying and could not be located for the time being. Moreover, a servant had died from a gunshot.

The office fell into a dead silence. Mo Li’s presence was unexpected and made sense.

After all, as the boss behind the scenes, it would be stupid of her to obediently wait for the police to come knocking after the incident.

The Police Chief looked at Wu Mei and rubbed his temples. He said tiredly, “You have to be mentally prepared. Wu Pang might have taken his hostage to find Mo Li. Something might have happened to the hostage.”

Wu Mei’s brows were tightly knitted together. “No. The Wu Corporation is still under lockdown. Everyone who left has been inspected.”

As a grown man and with an assistant in tow, Wu Pang could not escape the eyes of so many people.

However, Li Nanchen was not optimistic. Hoping that Wu Mei would be objective, he reminded her sternly, "Don't forget that there are many people in the Wu Corporation who will help Wu Pang for the sake of money."

The internal management of the Wu Corporation would be a mess, precisely because many people would want to earn quick money from Wu Pang.

Wu Mei could only stay in the Police Chief's office and wait for the news. At the same time, she went to investigate the other suspects in the Wu Corporation.

In the end, Qin Yang received the news first.

Just as Li Nanchen was walking toward Wu Mei with a cup of coffee, he received a message from Qin Yang.

After staying up all night, Qin Yang finally discovered that the employee who had acquired the Wu Corporation's shares was also an ambitious but incompetent second-generation heir.

After entering the company through his connections with Wu Pang, he did simple work but earned more than anyone else.

Li Nanchen turned back to look at Wu Mei and said softly, "The Wu Corporation is really full of hidden talents. Continue."

After being inspected, the rich second-generation heir left the Wu Corporation in an empty car. When he returned home, it was as if he had received the news beforehand and started to buy large amounts of stocks at a low price.

Investigating these things sounded very simple, but it required a lot of effort.

"You've worked hard," Li Nanchen said gratefully.

Qin Yang gave a wry smile. "Boss Li, if you think that I've worked hard, please approve my annual leave."

Li Nanchen could not help but laugh. He could only make a verbal promise first. "Don't worry. After this matter is settled, you can have your leave."

When Qin Yang heard this reply, he reckoned that he might not have a chance to take his annual leave. He hung up the phone gloomily.

"Did you find him?" Wu Mei asked.

Li Nanchen shook his head. "Qin Yang found an employee who was buying stocks at a low price. He was a rich second-generation heir arranged by Wu Pang to enter the company. However, it seems that this has nothing to do with Wu Pang."

The real surprise was that they could not find him.

Where is Wu Pang?

Was the assistant alive or dead?

At that moment, the assistant was curled up in the trunk of the car. The car was driving so fast that he was about to vomit.

The last thing he remembered was seeing Wu Pang again, before waking up in the trunk of a car.

The trunk was really dirty.

All he had to do was inhale, and he could smell the dust which suffocated him.

The assistant realized that his hands and feet were tied with ropes. The ropes were very strong and there was no possibility of him breaking free.

The car finally stopped.

He clearly heard the sound of the car door opening and closing. He immediately used all his strength to kick the door of the trunk and rammed against the back seat.

Not long after, the trunk door suddenly opened.

The dim street lights shone on his face.

As the assistant squinted and adapted to the light, he was lifted up by the collar.

Wu Pang said viciously, "Why did I get you out of the Corporation, you useless guy?"

The assistant squeezed out a smile and chuckled. "You can kill me too, but you wouldn't dare."

Wu Pang's face twisted in anger as he glared at the young man. "Who says I wouldn't dare? I can kill you right now."

He took out a pistol and aimed it at the assistant's head, but he didn't pull the trigger.

"If you didn't help Wu Mei deal with me, how would you have ended up like this?" Wu Pang clenched his fists and shouted.

The assistant looked at Wu Pang who was about to go crazy and replied loudly, "President Wu, turn yourself in. The evidence of your transaction is in the hands of the police."

Where was the evidence?

Wu Pang recalled what had happened and said in horror and despair, "Do you have a camera on you?"

"Even if I don't have a camera on me, President Wu's conviction is a done deal. Even if you want to blame someone, blame Manager Cheng." The assistant's neck was tightly strangled by Wu Pang, and his pupils started to dilate.

"My mission was to ensure that Manager Cheng went to the underground car park.. He was the one who suggested giving me a ride."

Chapter 278: His Trump Card

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

After hearing the assistant's words, Wu Pang realized that Wu Mei had already discovered the deal that they thought was a success.

His daughter was outstanding, but they were never on the same side.

At this thought, Wu Pang loosened his grip on the assistant's collar, giving him some breathing space.

The assistant sneered. His voice became hoarse as he said, "President Wu, you should go and take revenge on Manager Cheng, right? Ah, right, he must have been caught."

"Why did you have to join in? We were all discovered because of you," Wu Pang snarled, trying to blame the failure of the deal on an innocent assistant.

The assistant laughed mockingly and said, "But he had a gun too, didn't he? He put it in his briefcase."

He had been instructed to keep an eye on the manager and found him carrying a gun.

Since the manager approached him and decided to make him the scapegoat, he had to fight for a chance to make a contribution and take the initiative to suggest to Wu Mei about changing the main mission.

It was worth the risk.

“Lunatics, you are all lunatics!” Wu Pang’s body was trembling, and he almost spat out two mouthfuls of blood.

The assistant’s face was pale. He scanned the area with his peripheral vision and realized that they were in a high-class, unfamiliar neighborhood. Someone was walking in their direction.

His eyes widened and he shouted desperately, “Help, help...”

Wu Pang also heard footsteps behind him. He covered the assistant’s mouth in panic, stuffed him back into the trunk, and quickly slammed the trunk shut.

The passers-by happened to see this scene and pointed in their direction, shouting, “Hey, what are you doing? Stop, I’m going to call security.”

Wu Pang wanted to shoot a passerby, but he did not have the courage to do so. He held the pistol warily, went back to the driver’s seat, and drove away.

He did not know where he was going. He stopped in a dimly lit area and listened to the assistant’s faint cries for help. Slowly, he lit a cigarette.

His fingers kept trembling and he couldn’t put the cigarette to his lips.

What should he do next?

Wu Pang felt cornered, but was unwilling to give up.

He looked at his phone and heard the voice message that kept reminding him that the number did not exist. Furiously, he threw his phone aside.

Mo Li deleted her mobile phone number and opened the doors to a few of her properties. It was as if she was inviting guests in. However, the traces of her life had long been cleaned up. Not only did she abandon them, she even drove them into a corner.

Wu Pang picked up his phone again and searched for the latest news about the Wu Corporation.

The police had shown up at the home of a rich second-generation heir whose servant had accused him of helping Wu Pang escape.

Damn it!

His car belonged to this rich second-generation heir. He had to change it.

Suddenly, a message popped up: Wu Pang’s order for arrest.

Wu Pang's heart sank. He knew that he would never be able to escape again, but he was unwilling to give up.

All of a sudden, he thought of an idea. How could he forget that crazy woman? With Mother Wu's personality, she would be soft hearted if he uttered some sweet nothings and she would definitely help him escape overseas.

Even if Wu Mei wasn't willing, she wouldn't be willing to cut her ties with Mother Wu. In the end, she would compromise.

"Just hold on a little longer and I'll let you go after dawn," said Wu Pang, turning to the assistant, whose voice was growing weaker.

However, the assistant who was locked in the trunk was on the verge of passing out. He could not hear Wu Pang's voice.

Wu Pang did not care. He drove to the Li Family's villa before dawn.

He took the assistant's phone, went around to the back of the car, and opened the trunk.

The assistant forced himself to open his eyes and parted his dry lips. He said weakly, "President Wu, if you continue this, there won't be a good outcome. If you surrender now and reveal the mastermind..."

Wu Pang used the assistant's fingerprint to unlock the phone that was about to run out of power. After sending a message to Mother Wu, he bent down and patted the assistant's face. "Kid, have you forgotten? I still have a trump card."

What else is there?

The assistant took a few deep breaths. Before he could say anything, he was locked up again.

Wu Pang hid in the back seat with the assistant's phone. He sent a few messages in the assistant's tone, asking Mother Wu for help.

At that moment, Mother Wu was sitting in the dining room, thanking the servants who had been busying around for a long time.

When the butler heard that Mother Wu was going to visit Li Nanchen and Wu Mei at the detention center, he immediately got the chauffeur to arrange for a car to wait for Mother Wu outside the villa.

Mother Wu was about to pick up two thermos containers when her phone suddenly rang.

Thinking that Wu Mei had replied, she quickly opened the message. However, when she saw the content, her expression became rather nervous. It was actually a message from her assistant that she hadn't received any news from.

The assistant was injured and was being pursued by Wu Pang. He could only hide in the car opposite the Li Family's villa, and hoped that Mother Wu would come to see him alone.

Alone?

Mother Wu held onto her phone. She remembered that she had promised Wu Mei that she would bring a bodyguard with her when she went out.

She received more messages from the assistant. He said he didn't trust anyone at the moment.. He only dared to tell Mother Wu about the evidence of Wu Pang's crimes and where he was hiding.

Chapter 279: Put Herself in Harm's Way

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Meet, or don't meet?

Mother Wu clutched her phone tightly and thought about the assistant's words. The scales in her heart started to tilt.

She wanted to meet the assistant who had helped her. Perhaps she could ask the bodyguard to follow her secretly and try not to let the assistant see.

She made up her mind and went out with the thermos.

When Mother Wu walked to the entrance of the villa, she passed the thermos to the bodyguard who followed her out and secretly whispered to him.

The bodyguard's expression turned ugly. He immediately rejected Mother Wu's suggestion. "Madam, this won't do. It's too dangerous."

"It's not dangerous. Just keep your eyes on me." Mother Wu was very unhappy with the bodyguard's rejection. She confidently pushed the bodyguard away and walked around the car.

She felt that she would be able to do such a small thing effortlessly, and she would be able to do it well.

Without Wu Mei around, no one could persuade Mother Wu.

The chauffeur also noticed Mother Wu leaving alone. He got out of the car and was about to stop her when suddenly, a child ran over and fell beside him.

The little kid sniffled in pain and started crying pitifully.

As the chauffeur was busy helping the child up, the bodyguard was blocked by a car that suddenly appeared.

A mother ran over and held the child's hand. After thanking the chauffeur, she lectured the child as they walked forward.

The car that blocked the bodyguard seemed to have broken down. After a few tries, it started up again and the driver drove away slowly.

The bodyguard saw Mother Wu walk to a corner and his face immediately darkened. He said anxiously to the chauffeur, "They did it on purpose. You can't let them leave."

As these two events had happened too coincidentally, they appeared abnormal.

As the chauffeur immediately contacted the butler, he stopped the car that almost hit the bodyguard, as well as the mother who was about to leave with the child.

If they had deliberately created an accident, none of them could escape.

A few minutes later, the bodyguard returned and informed Li Nanchen and Wu Mei over the phone.

Mother Wu was gone.

Someone must have lied to her and taken her away with a false excuse.

This man was probably the wanted criminal, Wu Pang.

Just as the Li Family's villa was in chaos, Mother Wu was trembling in the backseat of a car.

She asked in a quavering voice, "You're making it worse, Wu Pang. You know that?"

"Where did you hide that child? Tell me quickly."

She recognized that the suit on Wu Pang belonged to the assistant, which meant that the assistant was in his hands.

“What are you so anxious for?” Wu Pang sneered as he pinched Mother Wu’s chin. Mother Wu shook him off in disdain but he did not care. He took out a phone and waved it in front of Mother Wu.

Mother Wu did not understand what he meant. She kept trying to open the car door and wanted to get off.

There was arrogance in Wu Pang’s tone as he threatened Mother Wu, “Contact Wu Mei now and ask her to prepare money and a car for me to leave.”

Mother Wu looked at Wu Pang in surprise and said in shock, “Wu Pang, where is your pride?”

Wu Pang raised his hand and gave Mother Wu a tight slap across the face. It was a loud slap. “I asked you to make the phone call, so just make the phone call. What nonsense are you spouting?”

Mother Wu covered her face as tears welled up in her eyes. She recalled every warning Wu Mei had given her and felt that it was extremely ironic.

Back then, she trusted Wu Pang wholeheartedly and kept opposing Wu Mei’s decision, but this was the end result.

“Aren’t you afraid that I will contact Mei’er and ask her not to save me?” Mother Wu stopped what she was doing and looked at Wu Pang mockingly.

“This is that little assistant’s phone,” Wu Pang kindly reminded Mother Wu.

“You and Wu Mei’s trusted subordinate are both in my hands. With two lives in my hands, surely she’ll be obedient?”

Mother Wu looked at him in shock. Suddenly, as if she had gone mad, she reached out and grabbed Wu Pang’s face. She roared, “Wu Pang, you used an innocent little assistant to trick me. I will kill you. I will kill you.”

There was no way she could defeat Wu Pang. After a few hits, she was subdued.

Wu Pang grabbed her hair impolitely and scolded her, “Who do you think you are? Everyone is coaxing you not because of your ability or status, but because you are Wu Mei’s mother.”

He threw the phone at Mother Wu. “Are you thinking that I made use of you? But weren’t you the one who wanted to prove your strength in front of Wu Mei? You were the one who didn’t listen to her arrangements and spoke so beautifully. Out of all the things you’ve done, when did you ever use your brain?”

Mother Wu picked up the phone and cried, "This time, I..."

What she wanted to say was that she really wanted to help her Mei'er.

Mother Wu stopped, suddenly realizing that Wu Pang was right.

She truly wanted to find the assistant to share Wu Mei's burden, but more than that, she wanted to prove that she wasn't as weak as Wu Mei thought her to be. She could do many amazing things, but in the end, she still dragged Wu Mei down and put herself in harm's way.

Mother Wu looked fixedly at Wu Pang. Suddenly, she giggled.

"W-what are you laughing at?" Wu Pang snapped out of his daze.

His previous plan was to coax Mother Wu and then use her to help him escape. However, when he saw the bright and beautiful Mother Wu, he immediately lost his rationality and forgot his next plan. He attacked Mother Wu.

When Mother Wu laughed creepily, his hair stood on end. He was so frightened that he stammered, "W-what are you laughing about?"

Mother Wu screamed and slammed herself against the car window, knocking herself unconscious.

Chapter 280: Missing Madam

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Seeing the blood on the window, Wu Pang panicked. When he wanted to shake Mother Wu awake, he heard a strange sound coming from the trunk.

He turned around and saw Li Nanchen's bodyguard.

No way!

He had to escape.

Wu Pang could no longer be bothered with Mother Wu. He climbed into the driver's seat and drove away.

Unbeknownst to him, the assistant had discovered the emergency button in the trunk. He opened the trunk and jumped out, successfully escaping.

The Li family's bodyguards noticed a suspicious car that had stopped in a spot where they could observe the Li family villa, so they immediately ran over to check. When they saw a pathetic-looking person jumping out of the trunk, they hurriedly took a photo of the car plate number.

The assistant's face was pale. His lips were dry and cracked. He was delirious. Even then, he clutched onto the bodyguard's pants and said with difficulty, "Call the police. The driver is Wu Pang. He kidnapped Madam."

His hand landed heavily on the ground and he fainted.

When Wu Mei received this news, she was already on her way home. She was about to tell Mother Wu that she didn't need to send the soup to them because they could go home to drink it.

They should also go to the Wu Corporation together to take charge of the situation. After all, the internal affairs of the Wu Corporation had changed drastically because of the Wu Pang incident. The Corporation needed a mainstay.

Mother Wu was a good candidate.

However, before she returned home, she heard that Mother Wu had gone missing and her assistant was found and had been sent to the hospital.

Her hands and feet turned cold from anger. She instinctively grabbed Li Nanchen's hand, wanting to calm her restless heart.

Li Nanchen held her hand tightly, giving her a sense of security while also mobilizing all his power to search for Wu Pang's car.

"The car plate number should be fake." Li Nanchen did not want to upset Wu Mei, but he had to voice it out.

Because there was no record of this license plate.

Wu Mei took a few deep breaths and calmed herself down. She said, "We can ask the Police Chief to arrange for someone to interrogate that rich second-generation heir to find out what car he lent to Wu Pang."

Li Nanchen did not seem to understand her words. He frowned and asked, "What are you talking about?"

Wu Mei repeated herself. Then, she suppressed her anger and laughed in a self-deprecating manner. "I've been wondering where Wu Pang could have hidden, but it did not occur to me at all that it was the rich kid who had given the car to Wu Pang."

How close they were.

The second-generation heir would rather be Wu Pang's accomplice than betray him.

"Damn it." Li Nanchen was furious. He did not think of such a possibility. It really shouldn't have happened.

After contacting the Police Chief, they rushed back to the Li Family's villa.

The moment they entered, they saw Old Master Li's gloomy face.

"You guys finally know to come back? Do you know that something has happened? Where have you been all night?" Old Master Li's tone was cold and angry when he saw them.

"Grandpa, I'm sorry." Wu Mei immediately stepped forward and apologized to Old Master Li.

Old Master Li had heard about Mother Wu's disappearance and was about to throw a tantrum at Li Nanchen, but he did not expect Wu Mei to apologize first.

His temper instantly dissipated. He looked at Wu Mei and said discontentedly, "You. You can't spoil this brat too much. He will develop a temper."

Li Nanchen was wronged by Old Master Li and had a helpless expression on his face. He could only say, "Grandpa, we have to find Auntie first. You can teach me a lesson later."

He stepped around Wu Mei and hurried upstairs.

Wu Mei quickly comforted Old Master Li who was panting. "Grandpa, don't be angry. There's a reason for all of this. I can explain."

Old Master Li could tell that Wu Mei was anxious, but in order to comfort him, she chose to stay.

He could not delay matters.

"Alright, you don't have to say anymore. Go upstairs and help that brat. Find your mother as soon as possible." Old Master Li's heart softened. He patted the back of Wu Mei's hand and said this in a gentle tone.

Having received permission from her elder, Wu Mei immediately went upstairs.

Glancing at the staircase, Old Master Li suddenly sighed. He slammed the table and looked at the butler. "What exactly is going on? Why didn't they call the police? Are they going to look for her themselves?"

The butler thought about Li Nanchen and Wu Mei's way of doing things and consoled Old Master Li, "Old Master, Young Master and Young Madam know what they're doing. Everything will be fine."

How can everything be fine?

Old Master Li had just woken up when he heard that Mother Wu had gone missing.

An assistant had also been sent to the hospital for serious injuries.

He suddenly looked up and asked, "I remember you said that they came back from the detention center? Why did they go to the detention center?"

This...

The butler's expression froze. He did not know why either, so he could only change the topic and bring Old Master Li out for a walk to relax.

In Li Nanchen's study room.

Sitting at her computer, Wu Mei stared at the screen.

The images kept changing, and they observed the surroundings of the Li Family's villa from all angles.

Wu Pang was quite capable of avoiding the surveillance cameras.

"The photo is here. It's this car." Li Nanchen handed the photo sent by the Police Chief to Wu Mei.

Just as Wu Mei had guessed, Wu Pang had sneaked away in the rich second-generation heir's car, which the bodyguards managed to snap a photo of.

Unfortunately, it was a fake car plate number..

Chapter 281: Clue from the Surveillance Camera

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

A car like this could be found everywhere, so it was difficult to find it immediately.

Li Nanchen sat beside Wu Mei and opened his laptop to observe the stock market of the Wu Corporation. It was a mess.

Today, Wu Mei had intended to go to the Corporation to instill confidence in the employees, but now, she couldn't do anything.

"You..." When Li Nanchen turned to look at Wu Mei, his expression darkened.

Did Wu Mei hack into the city's traffic network?

No one could be more daring than her.

"Don't worry, I know what I'm doing." When Wu Mei looked at Li Nanchen, she wanted to appear calm and composed. However, she was too worried about Mother Wu's safety, and her voice was trembling. All of a sudden, she could not hold back her sadness and reached out to Li Nanchen.

Li Nanchen immediately held Wu Mei in his arms and reached out to gently pat her back. He comforted her gently, "Don't be anxious, don't be afraid. I'm here."

Wu Mei wasn't just 'afraid', she was also filled with hate.

She hated the fact that Wu Pang had no brains and was used by Mo Li. After being abandoned, he did not dare to seek revenge and only dared to take Mother Wu away.

"Don't forget, we have many helpers," Li Nanchen comforted her.

He was talking about the police who were searching for Wu Pang.

Wu Mei nodded, but she didn't dare place all her hopes on the police. She had to do something too.

She took a deep breath and looked at the computer screen again. "Let me take another look. There might be a clue."

Starting from the suspicious vehicles around the Li Family's villa, she started to investigate. She did not believe that Wu Pang, who did not have anti-reconnaissance abilities, would be able to run that far with Mother Wu in tow.

Li Nanchen kissed her forehead. "I'll get the servants to bring lunch up."

Has it been that long?

Wu Mei's fingers started to stiffen and her heart ached. Watching as Li Nanchen left the study room, she wiped away the tears that had yet to fall.

Half an hour later, from a surveillance camera in a convenience store, she saw Wu Pang wearing the assistant's suit jacket and a baseball cap that didn't fit him. Only the lower half of his face was visible. He bought a bag of food and crossed the road.

Wu Pang dropped the bag on the backseat and slammed the door shut.

Mother Wu must be sitting in the back seat.

Wu Mei watched every move Upang made, knowing her efforts would not go to waste.

She only heaved a sigh of relief when the scene of the bag being thrown appeared. Her eyes turned red.

She took special care of Mother Wu and cherished her. How dare Wu Pang treat her like this?

Wu Mei rushed downstairs with her laptop.

In the dining room downstairs, Old Master Li was frowning as he spoke to Li Nanchen. From his angle, he was the first to see Wu Mei and immediately asked, "Lass Mei, where are you going?"

Li Nanchen followed Old Master Li's gaze and saw the anxious Wu Mei. He immediately ran over to stop her.

Wu Mei immediately explained softly to Li Nanchen, "I've found Mom. I'm going to save her now."

"You're going to look for her?" Li Nanchen raised his voice.

When Wu Mei saw his worried and angry expression, she realized that she had only been worried about Mother Wu's safety but she did not take Li Nanchen's feelings into account. She hurriedly tiptoed.

When Li Nanchen saw her move, he misunderstood and instinctively moved his face closer. In the end, Wu Mei only whispered to him, "No, we're going together."

She turned sideways and shouted at Old Master Li, "Grandpa, I'm hungry. I want Nanchen to bring me out to eat something."

Without any hesitation, Old Master Li agreed, "Go on, go quickly."

As long as it was a request from Wu Mei, Old Master Li wouldn't refuse.

Wu Mei left the villa with Li Nanchen, who had a worried look on his face. They took a taxi and continued to track Wu Pang according to the location shown on the surveillance camera.

As her charming hands tapped on the keyboard, Li Nanchen noticed the “specialness” of the taxi.

It was one of the taxis that the drug dealers had driven when they carried out the transaction with Wu Pang and Manager Cheng.

Wu Mei suddenly said, “The plainclothes police will follow behind. Hopefully, Wu Pang won’t find out.”

In her eyes, Wu Pang was merely not smart enough, but it did not mean that he was not vigilant.

“You sit in the car and lure Wu Pang over. I’ll go save Mother Wu.” Li Nanchen wanted to hold Wu Mei’s hand, but he stopped when he was about to reach out.

He was afraid of hindering Wu Mei’s search.

Wu Mei wanted to agree with him, but when she thought about how Mother Wu might have been threatened or even beaten up by Wu Pang, Mother Wu might be too afraid to believe Li Nanchen if she saw him while in a state of confusion.

Her fingers quickly tapped on the keyboard a few times to calm her emotions. She lifted her head to look at Li Nanchen. “I think Mom will be very scared. She might not recognize you in her panic, so you should stay in the car and lure Wu Pang over. I’ll go save Mom.”

This was not a good decision.

Wu Pang was targeting Wu Mei. What if...

Wu Mei took the initiative to hold Li Nanchen’s hand and said gently, “Trust me!”

Li Nanchen did not answer and did not look at her again.

The car fell silent.

It wasn’t that Li Nanchen didn’t trust Wu Mei’s ability, but he was worried about her safety.

Wu Mei suppressed the anxiety in her heart and reached out to hug Li Nanchen.. She wanted Li Nanchen to feel at ease and at the same time, to feel warmth for herself.

Chapter 282: Saving Mom

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

“Nanchen, thank you for always accompanying me,” Wu Mei said in a low voice.

When she pulled the worried Li Nanchen out of the villa, Li Nanchen could have rejected or objected, but he did not.

Regardless of the outcome, Li Nanchen stood by her side.

Li Nanchen’s eyes dimmed slightly. As he hugged her back, he smiled dejectedly. “I just hope that you can think about yourself and think about me.”

“I-I do.” Wu Mei hugged Li Nanchen even tighter. She seemed to want to convey all her feelings to Li Nanchen.

The bodyguard in charge of driving interrupted their conversation softly, “Young Master, Madam, is it the car in front?”

They had no choice but to let go of each other and settle the important issue first.

Wu Mei looked at the image displayed on the computer screen, then looked at the style and model of the car. She frowned and said, “It’s this car. It actually didn’t leave? Let’s park opposite that road.”

The bodyguard turned the steering wheel and parked the car where Wu Mei had indicated. He could clearly see the scene inside Wu Pang’s car.

Wu Pang was sitting in the driver’s seat, eating. There was obviously someone in the back seat, but he couldn’t see that person clearly.

Wu Mei opened the car door and said, “I’ll go over.” Li Nanchen abruptly tugged on her wrist.

She turned around in surprise and met Li Nanchen’s worried gaze. She comforted him, “Don’t worry, I’ll be careful.”

Li Nanchen clearly knew that the person Wu Mei wanted to save was her mother. No one could stop her.

He forced a smile. “Okay. I’ll wait until you get back.”

Everything was going according to plan.

When Wu Mei came out of the car and went around to the other side, the bodyguard honked.

It seemed to be a signal.

As expected, the person in the car moved.

He straightened his suit, pulled down his hat, put his hand in his trouser pocket, and hurried over.

Li Nanchen was shocked to see a gun in Wu Pang's pocket.

Wu Pang had learned a lot from Mo Li.

Li Nanchen lowered his voice and reminded the bodyguard, "You have to be careful. He has a gun in his hand."

The bodyguard nodded seriously. "Don't worry, President Li. The car windows are bulletproof."

Li Nanchen was stunned at first, but then he could not help but sneer. "That's true. They have to be more careful."

On the other side, Wu Mei walked along the inner side of the car and bent down to approach the door of the backseat.

If the person in the car was not Mother Wu but someone else who had ambushed her earlier, she would not show any mercy.

Wu Mei opened the car door and gasped when she saw that Mother Wu's mouth was wrapped in duct tape and her hands were tied. Her forehead was injured and her face was flushed with an abnormal redness.

She tore off the tape and ripped the rope that was not secure, so that Mother Wu could get some air.

Mother Wu opened her eyes in a daze and muttered, "Wu Pang, you are not human." After which, she was helped out of the car by Wu Mei.

"No, I don't want to leave, you don't..." Mother Wu thought that the person holding her was Wu Pang, so she immediately used her strength to push the person away.

Wu Mei lowered her voice and kept calling, "Mom, Mom, it's me."

When Mother Wu heard Wu Mei's voice, she carefully looked at the person in front of her. When she realized that it was Wu Mei, she immediately revealed a surprised expression and then became especially frightened.

Without hesitation, she reached out and pushed Wu Mei away. "Leave, leave quickly."

"Yes, it's me." Wu Mei mistakenly thought that Mother Wu was in a confused state of mind once again after being threatened by Wu Pang. She was secretly glad that she was the one who came to save Mother Wu and not Li Nanchen.

Mother Wu cried anxiously, "Wu Pang has gotten in touch with Mo Li. They set this up."

Wu Mei was stunned for a moment. At the same time, she felt that someone was secretly approaching her.

"Mom, hide well," Wu Mei immediately told Mother Wu.

Mother Wu quickly retreated and saw a man in a suit and a baseball cap. He had a pistol in his hand and was aiming it at Wu Mei.

Was Wu Pang back?

No.

Wu Mei quickly turned around and grabbed the wrist of the man who was holding the gun. She shoved his hand towards the sky and noticed that the man only had a face shaped like Wu Pang. It was probably to confuse the person who came to save Mother Wu.

The man who had just come out of the car was also dressed like this.

They had more than one person lying in ambush.

Wu Mei was so angry that she let out a cold laugh. "Are you a killer? Mo Li is so considerate." She immediately pulled the killer in front of her.

The killer noticed the movement of Wu Mei's hand and immediately showed a frightened expression. When he dodged backwards, it gave Wu Mei a chance.

Wu Mei dismantled the gun with one hand and let the bullet fall to the floor. She raised her hand to strike the killer's jaw.

Instinctively, the killer opened his mouth to spit out a tooth that had been knocked out, before turning to flee.

This was not enough.

When she thought about how this was a trap set up by Wu Pang and Mo Li, Wu Mei held back her anger and grabbed the back of the killer's collar, dragging him back.

The killer was about to turn around and resist when Wu Mei struck his neck several times.

The killer fainted on the ground.

Wu Mei flicked her wrist and smiled disdainfully. "Arranging such a weak killer, is there no one else?"

All of this happened in less than ten seconds.

Wu Mei deliberately left a survivor in the hope that it would be helpful for further interrogation.

She turned to face Mother Wu and said, "Mom, let's go somewhere safe first."

Chapter 283: He's a Piece of Trash

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Mother Wu had just come out of the car. When she raised her head to look at Wu Mei, she suddenly opened her arms and stood in front of Wu Mei to shield her. However, her hands and feet had been bound previously, so her movements were not nimble and she nearly fell to the ground.

Wu Mei also noticed a killer in casual clothes. He was dozens of meters away from them and his gun was aimed at them.

The killer was a sniper. He had to shoot at close range.

"Mom, hurry up and go back." Wu Mei pushed Mother Wu back into the car and swiftly squatted down. Just as she hid behind the open car door, the killer also fired.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

He fired several times.

The killer missed his shot and realized he hadn't hit his target. He angrily dropped his weapon and fled.

Just as Wu Mei was about to run after the escaping killer, she heard Mother Wu scream, "Mei'er, Mei'er, you're bleeding."

It turned out that before Wu Mei could hide, the killer had fired and hit her in the left arm.

“Mom, stop shouting. I’m fine.” Wu Mei’s head hurt from Mother Wu’s shouting, but she still endured it and comforted Mother Wu first.

“I won’t yell anymore. I’ll hide myself well.” Mother Wu knew she was bringing harm to Wu Mei. If she had pulled Wu Mei into the car instead of going to help Wu Mei take the shot, Wu Mei would have been able to get away.

It was all her fault.

Wu Mei pushed herself to her feet. She suddenly felt dizzy and had no choice but to squat back down.

Just then, the siren on the police car blared.

They were on the move.

Wu Mei heaved a sigh of relief and held onto the car door with her right hand to relieve the dizziness.

Mother Wu’s heart ached as she held onto Wu Mei. “Mei’er, let’s hide first and not cause trouble for the police, alright?”

Wu Mei was about to answer when she saw the assassin in casual clothes come back in a hurry.

The killer was courting death.

Wu Mei was furious. Ignoring the gunshot wound, she went to stop the murderer from leaving.

In his haste to escape, the murderer did not notice Wu Mei who had appeared, and got struck in the eyes by her. He was in so much pain that his eyes were tearing, but his reaction was very fast. He swiftly retaliated. His target was Wu Mei’s injured arm, but this was also part of Wu Mei’s plan.

Wu Mei dodged at the same time and she struck the killer’s abdomen with her elbow.

The killer stumbled back two steps. When he was about to move forward again, two pistols pressed against his head.

“Don’t move. Squat down and put your hands behind your head.” It was the police.

The killers lying in ambush in every corner had been staring in the direction of Wu Mei and Mother Wu, but they were all captured by the police who were watching them.

They all lowered their heads, placed their handcuffed hands behind their heads, and walked towards the police cars.

As the paramedics escorted the injured Wu Mei into the car, the police also spotted Wu Pang.

Wu Mei was relieved when she heard that Wu Pang was hiding in an unexpected place.

Where was it?

Wu Pang was quite capable. He hid himself in a rubbish bin, thinking that he could escape arrest. However, he was found by the police who were not afraid of hard work.

But it was simply too smelly.

A few passers-by saw this lively scene and vomited from the stench.

Mother Wu had insisted on waiting for the police to find Wu Pang before going to the hospital for a checkup. But when she saw the disheveled Wu Pang, she suddenly ran over like a madwoman.

Wu Pang was shocked and fell to the ground. He even sat on the ground and shouted, "Don't come over! I have garbage on me. I stink!"

He also knew that he was a piece of trash?

Mother Wu kicked Wu Pang several times. If the police did not stop her, she would have grabbed Wu Pang's hair. "Wu Pang, spend your days in prison."

Wu Pang was frightened by Mother Wu's ferocious expression, but he still tried to provoke her. "Haha, me in jail? Can you bear to do that? You had better ask Wu Mei for help."

Who did he say to get help from?

Mother Wu did not expect Wu Pang to be so shameless. She spat at him.

Mother Wu looked at Wu Pang, who was being hauled up. She was so angry that she wanted to hit him again. In the end, the bodyguards escorted her to the car and also headed to the hospital.

When she arrived at the hospital, she found out that Wu Mei had been sent to treat her wound. She also had to treat the wound on her forehead before going for a checkup.

"Auntie, don't worry. Wu Mei will be fine." Initially, Li Nanchen was so angry that his fists were clenched. He itched to break the killer's head, but he did not dare to show his true feelings in front of Mother Wu. He was afraid that Mother Wu would be even more worried.

Mother Wu regained her senses and felt so guilty that she wanted to cry. However, when she looked at Li Nanchen, she smiled. "Silly child, Meier only injured her arm. Of course she'll be fine."

She should be fine, right?

Mother Wu comforted Li Nanchen but kept staring at the emergency room door.

Waiting is not a solution.

Mother Wu had an idea. She found an excuse to go to the washroom.

In the washroom, she contacted a few old shareholders and a trustworthy manager to make arrangements.

Wu Mei was injured.

The Wu Corporation was in chaos.

Someone had to clean up the mess.

Mother Wu did not think that she should hide behind Wu Mei and enjoy the fruits of her labor, then reach out and mess everything up.

They discussed what to do next and made decisions.

Mother Wu hung up the phone and realized that her palms were covered in sweat. This was the first time she had taken the initiative to take responsibility. She was very nervous and she had to admit that she could not compare to her daughter.

At the same time, Wu Mei was transferred to the hospital ward.

Chapter 284: Mother's Determination

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Wu Mei's face was pale as she looked at the IV drip hanging by the bedside. Li Nanchen reached out his hand. "Nanchen, my head is so dizzy and my eyes are a little blurry. I feel very uncomfortable."

Li Nanchen rushed to her side and kissed her forehead. "I'll go get the doctor. Wait for me."

Wu Mei used her injured left hand to tug on Li Nanchen, who was about to leave. She immediately sucked in a breath of cold air from the pain. "Don't go. I need comfort and care."

Li Nanchen stared fixedly at Wu Mei. He still did not understand what she meant.

He knew that Wu Mei had gotten injured in order to save Mother Wu, but this anger was bottled up in his heart and made his heart ache. However, he could not blame Mother Wu. Wu Mei also knew that he was feeling uncomfortable and was actually using such a method to coax him.

Right now, because of Wu Mei's words, his heart softened and he sat down beside her. He said softly, "Auntie is fine too. Wu Pang was sent to prison too. Everything has been resolved."

How is that possible? There is still Mo Li.

But the atmosphere was just right, so Wu Mei didn't want to break it.

She used her right hand to gently lift Li Nanchen's chin. "Come closer."

Li Nanchen could not help but laugh. He could only lean forward and gently kiss Wu Mei's lips. Then, he straightened his body and said, "Sleep for a while."

Wu Mei knew that Li Nanchen had other matters to attend to but she was reluctant to let him go. "Come back quickly."

"Okay!" Li Nanchen looked at the weak Wu Mei. Although his heart ached for her, he felt that it was pretty nice.

It was rare for Wu Mei to show weakness.

Mother Wu knocked on the door and walked in. She asked softly, "How is Mei'er?"

"Mom, I'm fine," Wu Mei replied immediately.

Li Nanchen reached out to hold her shoulders, signaling her to stop moving.

Mother Wu walked in. The first thing she saw was Wu Mei's bandaged arm. She felt extremely guilty and even rubbed her hands helplessly.

"Auntie, I have something to deal with at the company," Li Nanchen said.

Mother Wu nodded. "Go ahead. I'll accompany Mei'er."

Li Nanchen walked out of the ward. Wu Mei looked at the quiet Mother Wu and smiled. "Mom, I'm tired. Sleep with me for a while."

Mother Wu was tired after being tormented for an entire day.

She carefully walked to the other side of the bed and sat on the bedside chair. She reached out and patted Wu Mei gently. "Go to sleep, child. When you wake up, you can deal with those miscellaneous matters. Everything will be in time."

Wu Mei leaned towards Mother Wu and closed her eyes. A wave of exhaustion washed over her and she fell into a deep slumber.

Mother Wu yawned. When she saw her phone screen suddenly light up, she immediately picked up her phone and replied to a message.

The next morning, Wu Mei woke up but Mother Wu was still resting on the bed beside her.

She turned to Mother Wu and covered her with a thin blanket. Mother Wu did not want to go home alone and insisted on staying at the hospital to accompany her. Wu Mei could not persuade her to leave no matter what.

Wu Mei sighed and swiped her phone with her right hand. She saw the message that she was most concerned about.

"The police have successfully destroyed a drug gang."

"During the arrest operation that day, the police seized... confessed to the crime of selling drugs."

In the police statement, there was no mention of her and Li Nanchen's meritorious performance, but that was only expected.

They needed to live a normal life, not be pushed into the public eye.

Wu Mei scrolled through her phone and finally saw the "insider information".

This time, the content mentioned that Wu Mei and Mother Wu had helped the police catch the drug traffickers and performed meritorious deeds.

Wu Mei was particularly shocked about another piece of news.

The Wu Corporation made a statement and decided to donate money to medical institutions such as rehabilitation centers. At the same time, the police forwarded this statement.

She could guess what would happen next.

The crisis of the Wu Corporation would be resolved and they would even establish a positive image. The direction of public opinion would also be changed.

Did the shareholders and managers in the Corporation notice where the situation was headed and made the decision as soon as possible?

No, that can't be.

If she was not wrong, Mother Wu was the reason why the Wu Corporation made such a decision.

The door to the ward was pushed open from the outside.

Seeing that Mother Wu was still resting, Li Nanchen immediately lightened his footsteps, afraid of waking her up.

Wu Mei blinked at him in anticipation.

Li Nanchen leaned close to her ear and said gently, "Auntie's medical report is out. Everything is fine. You just need to rest. You can also settle the discharge procedures and go home to rest."

This news was fantastic.

Wu Mei gave Li Nanchen a thumbs up.

Li Nanchen's voice deepened as he said, "Also... there's no news from K."

In less than 72 hours, they had caught the drug dealer, disrupted the transaction, and arrested the buyer based on the statements. However, K seemed to have disappeared without a trace.

K did give them clues, and he lost a colleague in the process of following the suspect. There was no way he would give up.

K was probably in trouble.

"Make the arrangements after you're discharged." Li Nanchen did not say anything else and went to settle the discharge procedures for Wu Mei first.

When Mother Wu woke up, they packed up and went home together.

As soon as they entered, they heard that the Bi Fang had personally prepared medicinal cuisine for Wu Mei to nourish his brave junior sister.

Wu Mei rolled her eyes. What is there to nourish?

It was only later on that she learned that Mother Wu had deliberately brought only one bodyguard with her when she left. She did not inform Bi Fang, who should have been accompanying her.. Otherwise, she would definitely deal with Bi Fang.

Chapter 285: Can You Bear to Leave?

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Bi Fang placed the medicinal cuisine on the dining table. The fragrance assailed the nostrils.

Pitifully sitting beside her, Bi Fang begged for mercy, "Junior Sister, out of respect for Grandpa and Auntie, please don't blame me."

Wu Mei's anger had long since dissipated due to hunger. Her mood for interrogating Bi Fang had long since disappeared.

After all, Bi Fang was not the one who broke the agreement.

After Wu Mei drank the first mouthful of soup, Bi Fang immediately heaved an exaggerated sigh of relief, as if a huge weight had been lifted off his shoulders.

Li Nanchen reached out and pulled Bi Fang to the side. He then sat beside Wu Mei and took the bowl from the servant.

Old Master Li looked at Wu Mei lovingly. When he turned to Li Nanchen, he said fiercely, "Come to my study room later."

"Okay!" Li Nanchen swiftly agreed.

After Old Master Li went upstairs, Wu Mei whispered into Li Nanchen's ear, "What's the matter with Grandpa?"

Li Nanchen wasn't too sure either. He only shook his head slightly at Wu Mei, reassuring her not to worry.

He believed that it was because of this incident.

After all, the elders already knew that he and Wu Mei were in danger, so it was inevitable for them to be worried. It was also necessary to teach them a lesson afterwards.

After the meal, Bi Fang accompanied Mother Wu to the courtyard, saying that he wanted to go out for a walk.

Mother Wu agreed to Bi Fang's request and smiled gently. However, her lonely expression revealed her worries.

Wu Mei noticed this and immediately said, "Mom, come back to the room with me."

At this moment, Bi Fang stood up and got behind Mother Wu. He said to Wu Mei, "Junior Sister, go back to your room and have a good rest."

Mother Wu was afraid that Wu Mei would object, so she immediately added, "Mei'er, don't worry."

Wu Mei noticed a flicker in Mother Wu's eyes, as if she felt guilty about something she'd done in the past and didn't know how to face Wu Mei.

If this wasn't handled properly, it would become an emotional knot.

Wu Mei wanted to undo that knot, but Mother Wu always ran away and hid. She could only ask Bi Fang for help.

"Sorry to trouble you!" Wu Mei's heart sank as she forced out a smile.

Bi Fang sighed and looked away from Wu Mei to Mother Wu. "Auntie, let's go."

In the blink of an eye, only Wu Mei was left in the dining room.

Wu Mei shook her head helplessly and left the table. She let out a self-deprecating smile and said, "Everyone is very busy. I am the only one who is free."

She returned to her room and headed straight to the bathroom.

The clothes she had changed out of smelled like disinfectant.

Wu Mei turned on the shower and stood under the water, humming as she washed herself. Her mind, which was originally empty, kept thinking about what had happened.

There were only two things left to worry about.

Mo Li has fled somewhere.

It wasn't normal that she couldn't contact K.

When Wu Mei reached for the towel beside her, she felt a cool breeze in the humid air.'

Someone has entered the bathroom?

Her expression was extremely cold as she quickly grabbed the towel and wrapped it around her body. Then, she lifted her leg and kicked the person who entered.

That person swiftly blocked her kick and used his other hand to hug her waist, pressing her against the wall. "Wu Mei, can you please take care of yourself?"

Only then did Wu Mei realize that the person who had entered was Li Nanchen.

This is the Li Family's villa.

The killers can't get in.

"Why are you so fierce? I'm so scared from listening to you." Wu Mei saw his angry expression and felt guilty. She immediately leaned into his arms.

Acting cute today was not going to work.

Li Nanchen carried her and walked out of the bathroom. When he reached the bed, he was about to throw her out.

Of course, Wu Mei knew that Li Nanchen wouldn't be that harsh, but she still instinctively stretched out her arms and wrapped them around his neck. She closed her eyes and said, "Nanchen, I'm scared."

"Do you know what fear is?" Li Nanchen asked with a cold smile.

"You showered even when you're injured. It'll get infected."

"You could have pretended to compromise when you sensed someone coming in. Why did you attack? What if you fell?"

Wu Mei instinctively wanted to retort, but when she stole a glance at Li Nanchen's reddened face, she felt increasingly guilty. She immediately leaned in and kissed his cheek.

Li Nanchen was still angry and was about to throw Wu Mei down. "This move is not going to work."

"Aiyo, my wound hurts." Wu Mei immediately frowned, as if the pain was unbearable.

Li Nanchen's face fell. He couldn't care less about his earlier emotions and hurriedly asked, "Did your wound touch water? I'll go get Bi Fang."

How could Wu Mei let go of Li Nanchen? She hugged him even tighter. "Mr Li, I'm already in so much pain. Can you bear to leave?"

"You have to help me change my dressing."

Realization dawned on Li Nanchen that this was another of Wu Mei's tactics to coax him.

He smiled and leaned closer to Wu Mei.

Wu Mei cooperated, but Li Nanchen threw her onto the bed and turned to leave.

She panicked and immediately reached out to hug Li Nanchen. She said softly, "Don't be angry. I was just kidding."

Li Nanchen pushed her hand away and said resignedly, "I'm going to get the first aid kit."

Wu Mei watched as he left and came back. She took the initiative to extend her injured arm. "Sorry to trouble you, President Li."

The entire process of changing the dressing went very smoothly.

This small injury was nothing to Li Nanchen and Wu Mei, who had experienced danger before.

However, because they already had each other...

After Li Nanchen treated her wound, Wu Mei immediately held onto Li Nanchen's shoulder and leaned over.

Chapter 286: Hurry Up

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Li Nanchen wanted to push Wu Mei away again but was stopped by her.

"Mr. Li, you're a fool if you don't take advantage of me." Wu Mei's tone was filled with frustration as she glared at Li Nanchen, wishing she could eat him up.

Li Nanchen gently stroked her cheek. "You're injured. Stop fooling around."

If he used too much strength, he might...

Wu Mei flung her towel aside and reached out to hook Li Nanchen's collar. "Are you sure, Mr. Li?"

Without waiting for Li Nanchen's reply, she unbuttoned her shirt and asked seductively, "Do you really not want to eat me at this time?"

Li Nanchen abruptly sat up and hugged her slim waist. He looked at her wet hair and reached out to push it away.

"Do you really not want it?" Wu Mei asked, feeling aggrieved.

She had already taken the initiative, but Li Nanchen was not tempted at all. This made her feel defeated and she wanted to give up.

Li Nanchen carefully avoided her injured arm and gently placed her on the bed. "What do you think?"

He tugged on his shirt with one hand and threw it to the side. With the other, he hugged her waist tightly, making her stick her chest out and move closer to him.

Wu Mei felt his gentle strength as if he was afraid of hurting her. Warmth surged in her heart as she took the initiative to hook his leg.

"What's the rush?" Li Nanchen asked softly as he kissed her lips.

"It's still early."

It's still early?

Sounds that made one's face turn red came from the room.

Wu Mei narrowed her eyes and felt a shiver run down her spine. However, she felt that it was not enough. She lifted her left hand and hugged Li Nanchen's head. "Nanchen, it's not enough."

Li Nanchen's eyes were blurry, but he held onto her wrist. "Don't move your left hand."

"Hurry up." Wu Mei was so anxious that she almost cried. She felt that Li Nanchen was deliberately torturing her.

Li Nanchen snorted. He grabbed her legs and wrapped them around his waist. "Be obedient in the future, understand?"

“I know. I’ll listen to you in the future. Give it to me now.” She hummed seductively and finally sighed comfortably when Li Nanchen thrust in.

Li Nanchen bent down and bit her earlobe, demanding for more.

Wu Mei grew louder and louder. However, she refused to admit defeat and squeezed Li Nanchen’s waist tightly.

This was a fierce battle!

Wu Mei licked her lips in satisfaction and leaned into Li Nanchen’s embrace, not even bothering to move a finger.

Li Nanchen’s eyes were half-closed as he silently supported Wu Mei’s back until her phone rang.

It rang really timely.

If it was a little earlier, it would have disturbed them.

Wu Mei tried her best to reach out for the phone. After grabbing the phone, she opened it and found that K had taken the initiative to contact her.

“It’s K,” she said.

Li Nanchen unceremoniously took the phone and threw it to the other side. “Ignore him.”

Wu Mei was also very frustrated. She flipped over and threw herself into Li Nanchen’s arms.

Since when did K become so unreliable? The matter had blown up so much, yet there had been no news from him at all.

Li Nanchen carefully held her left hand. “Don’t touch the wound.”

K didn’t send any more messages.

It wasn’t until noon the next day that K sent another message asking to meet Wu Mei.

It was written clearly.

“Important matters. Discuss alone.”

Did this hint mean that he didn’t want her to bring Li Nanchen with her again?

The first thought that flashed through Wu Mei's mind was, "Why should I?" But thinking of her deal with K, she decided to compromise for the time being.

She replied and asked for the time and location of the meeting, but K went out of contact again.

Who cares?

She and Li Nanchen had more important matters to attend to today.

They were going to see Wu Pang.

When they reached the detention center, the first thing they did was to meet Wu Pang.

Wu Pang refused to reveal anything about Mo Li, and Yang Shan knew too little to find out more.

"He wants to negotiate? Mom's right, he's really too shameless." Wu Mei took a deep breath and suppressed the anger in her heart.

Of course, she knew that Wu Pang had never been a man with a bottom line, but it was beyond her expectation that he would bargain with the police.

Li Nanchen held her shoulders and sighed. "There's nothing to be angry about. Let's see how we can deal with him first."

Wu Mei's anger was appeased by Li Nanchen. She held his arm and said, "Of course, let him see what he's most afraid of."

"Negotiate the terms? No way!"

Wu Pang was still arguing that he wanted money and a car before he would tell them about Mo Li. Otherwise, he wouldn't say anything. He'd make every person responsible for interrogating him be blacklisted.

He leaned back in his chair smugly. "You heard what I said, didn't you? Aren't you going to hurry up and make arrangements?"

Before he could finish, Wu Mei grabbed him by the collar and threw him against the back wall.

"L-let me go. I'm your father." Wu Pang was quite shocked when he saw Wu Mei. The girl was too strong. Then, he remembered who he was.

Was he trying to threaten her with this identity?

Wu Mei sneered and lifted her hand again. Wu Pang cried out in fear.

“Do you believe that no one will stop me even if I beat you up?”

Li Nanchen stopped her and persuaded, “Mei’er, don’t do anything.”

Wu Pang immediately chimed in, “Yes, you can’t do anything to me.. I’m your father.”

Chapter 287: Unreliable Information

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

“No, I must beat him up.” Wu Mei shook off Li Nanchen’s hand and sneered at Wu Pang.

Wu Pang broke out in cold sweat under Wu Mei’s cold stare. He stammered, “W-what are you doing? I’m your biological father.”

He had no choice but to utter those words.

Wu Mei approached Wu Pang.

Wu Pang was scared out of his wits. Although he was looking at Wu Mei’s familiar face, he was filled with indescribable fear.

What did his daughter want to do? It was definitely nothing good.

“You are not in good health. You fell ill in the detention center and were sent to the hospital. How do you feel about that?” Wu Mei looked at Wu Pang and suggested in all seriousness.

What will happen to him when he gets to the hospital?

Mo Li might send someone to hurt him or even kill him.

These policemen would never do that because of the rules and regulations. It was Wu Mei who chose it without hesitation.

Wu Pang knew that Wu Mei was serious. Once he was sent to the hospital, he would be the bait to catch Molly. There would only be death waiting for him at the end of the road.

Just as he was about to say something harsh again, he saw Wu Mei walking towards him. In the end, he could not help but scream, “Mo Li, it’s Mo Li. Mo Li told me to do this.”

“She provided the funds and contacted the supplier. I’m only responsible for passing the goods to the buyer.”

“I know that she has a few places that she stays at, but I’ve already taken a look and she’s not there.”

Wu Mei patted Wu Pang’s shoulder and said with a mocking smile, “Daddy, think again. If there’s anything else you missed, it won’t be easy to arrange.”

“How can I, as your daughter, save you then?”

Of course, Wu Pang knew that Wu Mei would never let him off, so her words were even more threatening.

Li Nanchen looked at Wu Pang, who was pressed down on the chair, with contempt. He said in surprise, “President Wu, you’re really impressive. You actually used these useless things to negotiate with the police?”

The police officer in charge of the record took down the addresses that Wu Pang had given him and went out to study them with his colleagues.

One should not only see the surface when doing things. Although Wu Pang said that he had been to several of Mo Li’s addresses but did not find her, this did not mean that Mo Li did not stay on.

For professional matters, they needed these professionals to carry them out.

Wu Mei went around to the back of the table and looked coldly at the pale-faced Wu Pang. “Don’t worry, Dad,” she whispered.

Wu Pang looked at Wu Mei with hatred and fear. “Don’t worry? What’s there to worry about?”

“I’ll let you see Mo Li again!” Wu Mei slapped the table and held Li Nanchen’s arm as they walked out of the interrogation room.

When Wu Pang saw Wu Mei walk out, he immediately started cursing, as if it was not him who had been afraid of her just now, but someone else.

When Wu Mei walked out, her face fell. “We can only wait for news now.”

“This is a good thing.” Li Nanchen comforted Wu Mei as he hugged her shoulders and led her forward.

Her phone rang and she took it out to take a look. It was a message from K. She thought it would be the time and address of the meeting, but it was a location that he had sent.

The location of this place was not in the city. It was a little far and the scope was not small.

Wu Mei immediately understood what K meant and turned to look at Li Nanchen.

They merely looked at each other and immediately understood each other's thoughts. They didn't hesitate to look for the Police Chief and make the appropriate arrangements.

The Police Chief trusted Wu Mei very much now. He made the appropriate arrangements in a short period of time and cooperated with Wu Mei.

As Wu Mei got into Li Nanchen's car, a thought surfaced in her mind.

Is K's information this time really trustworthy?

What if she was tricked?

Li Nanchen held her hand and said seriously, "Don't worry. If it's fake, we'll deal with K."

Deal with K?

When Wu Mei thought about how she still had to continue working with K in the future, she could only smile wryly but she quickly hid it. "Yes, we have to deal with him."

K didn't contact Wu Mei, probably because he was trying his best to track down Mo Li.

They had all reached the location that K had sent when they heard gunshots from afar.

All of them felt a chill in their hearts. No matter how nervous they were, they appeared calm on the surface. They followed the arrangements and entered the abandoned car park one after another.

The car park was not as big as they had imagined, but it was a mess.

If they were not familiar with the terrain, they would soon get lost.

"Let's go in and take a look. We might be able to find something." As Wu Mei suggested this to Li Nanchen, she carefully observed his facial expression.

Li Nanchen pondered for a moment before saying, "I've already used your name to call for backup from the organization."

What?

Wu Mei was completely stunned, as if she did not understand Li Nanchen's words. Her eyes were filled with shock. "You mean you've already reported this to the organization? But this is K's mission."

Li Nanchen's expression turned cold and his tone was filled with dissatisfaction. "The core of this incident is the Wu Corporation. Even without K, we will investigate to the end."

"If we don't report it and K gets the credit, will he be grateful to you?"

Of course not.

When the situation became clear, K might even become a stumbling block for Wu Mei.

Wu Mei knew better than anyone else that she and K were not close partners, but opponents who could stab each other anytime.

She leaned against Li Nanchen's side and took a deep breath.. Just as she was about to tease him, a few taxis suddenly appeared opposite them.

Chapter 288: Let Her Escape Again

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

The moment a car appeared in front of them, Li Nanchen immediately reminded the driver to park at a safe spot. Then, he squatted down with his head in his hands.

The chauffeur listened to Li Nanchen's instructions and did everything in one shot.

Several cars sped towards them. One of them quickly rolled down the window and pulled out a gun, firing without hesitation.

Li Nanchen hurriedly shielded Wu Mei under him. At the same time, he took out a gun from the backseat and prepared to retaliate.

Outside the car, sounds of collision could be heard.

Their car swayed from the impact and gradually stabilized under the continuous gunshots.

"Let's get out of the car," Li Nanchen shouted.

Wu Mei turned around and opened the car door behind her. She and Li Nanchen quickly jumped down and saw what was happening outside.

It was K's car that had caught up with the cab, but his aim was clear. He only attacked one of them.

Wu Mei took the gun from Li Nanchen's hand and immediately hid behind the car to shoot the tires of the taxi.

The taxi flipped twice and a woman jumped out. It was Mo Li.

Mo Li's movements were not very smooth. Clearly, she had been injured before this. When she glanced in Wu Mei's direction, her expression changed. She immediately aimed her gun at Wu Mei.

It was at this moment that Wu Mei realized that she was probably the one Mo Li really wanted to attack.

Why?!

Have they interacted before?

Wu Mei hid behind the car as this thought flashed across Wu Mei's mind.

They kept going back and forth, neither giving in to the other.

All of a sudden, a motorbike rushed out from the side and knocked open the door that K had just opened. It flew past Wu Mei on the other side before turning to Mo Li.

"I'm not leaving! I'm going to kill her!" Mo Li yelled.

The person on the motorbike grabbed Mo Li's arm and dragged her onto the motorcycle, bringing her away.

K tried to give chase, but the other cabs had hit him.

Wu Mei shook the gun in her hand and realized that there were no more bullets in it.

K was alone and wouldn't be able to hold on for long.

Finally, the people sent by the organization rushed over to provide back up and chase after Mo Li, thereby saving them.

The entire incident happened in less than a minute. If they missed Mo Li again, it would be equivalent to losing.

With his gun in hand, K turned his head and bent back. The ground beneath him quickly turned into a sea of red blood.

Wu Mei was supported by Li Nanchen. When she turned back to look at K, she was shocked and impressed. K should have been injured a long time ago, but he was able to persevere until now. He was a role model.

Li Nanchen also noticed this scene and no longer targeted K like before. He immediately went over to help him up.

K forced his eyes open. When he saw that it was them, he grabbed Wu Mei's wrist and said, "I have a lead," before fainting.

Li Nanchen furrowed his brows. His gaze landed on Wu Mei's wrist, which K was grabbing. His heart was ablaze with anger.

He grabbed K's hand and pried it open rudely, but there was a worried expression on his face. "He's seriously injured, don't move him haphazardly. It's easy to injure him further."

Hearing Li Nanchen's words, Wu Mei's expression was indescribable.

The ambulance arrived and K was lifted onto the ambulance.

Ben, who looked a little disheveled, also rushed over.

"Are you hurt?" When Ben rushed over, he completely ignored Li Nanchen and only saw Wu Mei.

Wu Mei was uncomfortable with Ben looking at her. She only said, "I'm fine. Mo Li ran away."

Ben's expression suddenly darkened. He tilted his head with a solemn expression and said, "Come over and talk."

Li Nanchen immediately placed his arm around Wu Mei's waist and said possessively, "Ben, you're injured. You should go to the hospital too."

There was blood on Ben's jacket, but it wasn't his.

He looked at Li Nanchen coldly and said sarcastically, "Mr. Li, what happens next has nothing to do with you."

It was Li Nanchen who had reported to the organization using Wu Mei's name. Ben, who had accepted the mission, only communicated with Wu Mei.

Li Nanchen could not help but take a step forward, but Wu Mei held his hand.

Wu Mei did not think that Ben was angry with Li Nanchen. Instead, she thought that Ben had discovered something from his fight with Mo Li. She only said to Ben, "Okay, let's go to the side to talk."

Li Nanchen was unwilling to let go of Wu Mei, but he had to.

Wu Mei trailed behind Ben. As soon as they stepped aside, the atmosphere became tense and subtle.

She heard Ben lower his voice, his tone sounding like it had been dipped in gunpowder, as he demanded, "What's going on with you and K?"

Ben's words alarmed Wu Mei. What worried her most was that her deal with K would be discovered by others.

Puzzled, she asked, "K? What's wrong with him?"

Ben's gaze was murderous as he stared at Wu Mei. However, because Li Nanchen was standing behind them, he could only question Wu Mei in a low voice, "Do you think I don't know about the frequent interactions between you and K?"

Wu Mei frowned and said firmly, "Ben, what are you talking about? Why should K and I interact privately?"

"This is K's mission. You're helping him, aren't you?" Ben countered with a rebuke.

Wu Mei was not nervous at all after hearing what Ben said. Instead, she heaved a sigh of relief and said in a frustrated tone, "I didn't help him. I was helping myself and gaining his trust. Mo Li used the Wu Corporation to fence her goods for her. Needless to say, I have to settle her myself."

Ben sneered. "Is that so? To gain his trust."

Wu Mei looked at Ben and said casually, "Of course! If you think that there's no need for us to interact, I'm naturally willing to stop contacting him."

Chapter 289: Unreasonable

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Ben observed Wu Mei's expression carefully, not missing any details.

Wu Mei felt uncomfortable being stared at by Ben. Casting him a puzzled look, she asked, "Did I say something wrong? K has never shown mercy to me. If it wasn't for benefits and leads, who would be willing to interact with him?"

After hearing what she said, Ben narrowed his eyes and finally nodded. "He still has other leads, so we can't stop contacting him for now."

"You'll have to work a bit harder."

Wu Mei answered reluctantly, "Fine. I'll do my best."

When she turned around and walked towards Li Nanchen with her back facing Ben, her expression darkened.

Did Ben believe her? Of course not.

It was difficult for them to truly trust each other.

Ben let her off for the moment, but once the seed of doubt was planted, it would be hard to eliminate it completely.

Wu Mei was frustrated. When she reached Li Nanchen's side, Li Nanchen held her waist roughly, bringing her back to her senses.

"Let's go home first," Li Nanchen suggested.

The rest of the matters were handled by the police. In addition, K was in charge of this case, so it wouldn't be of much use for them to stay.

Wu Mei shook her head. "Shall we go see K?"

Li Nanchen's expression instantly became rather expressive. Hearing Ben's mocking sneer, his heart seemed to burn with anger.

Wu Mei said in a low voice, "K said that he has a lead."

Li Nanchen suppressed the anger in his heart. Knowing that K might have what they wanted, he could only suppress the frustration in his heart.

After they got into the car, they received a message from the police officer in charge of K's safety.

K's injury had already been treated. It was merely a surface wound, just that it looked frightening.

Wu Mei relaxed a little and asked about when K might wake up. The answer she got was that it was “uncertain”.

“K lost a lot of blood. When he wakes up, we’ll still need to wait,” Wu Mei said helplessly.

There was no better way to handle this than to wait.

Wu Mei turned to look at Li Nanchen. “Nanchen, if he stays in the hospital, will he be plotted against?”

Given Mo Li’s viciousness, she even dared to make a move in the police station, let alone the hospital.

Naturally, Li Nanchen did not know the answer either. His expression was slightly cold and he did not answer Wu Mei’s question.

Wu Mei finally realized that Li Nanchen was in low spirits and even looked gloomy. She quickly stood in front of him and asked, “Nanchen, are you alright?”

“Since he’s fine, let’s go home first.” Wu Mei’s words echoed in Li Nanchen’s ears. Everything she said was about K, making his head from listening.

He and Wu Mei were inseparable, as if they were glued together. Neither of them wanted to leave the other.

Only Li Nanchen knew clearly in his heart that Wu Mei always felt a sense of closeness to K. If there were any clues, she would immediately think of K. This made him very uncomfortable.

His tone was cold. He only wanted to bring Wu Mei home as soon as possible.

Wu Mei temporarily let go of her worries about K and looked at her wrist that was tightly held by Li Nanchen. She said to the chauffeur, “Stop the car by the roadside first. I have something to tell Nanchen.”

The chauffeur had just replied with a “okay” when Li Nanchen coldly said, “You’re not allowed to stop. Head home.”

Wu Mei was certain that Li Nanchen was angry but she did not quite understand and could not be bothered to argue with him. She leaned on his shoulder and closed her eyes to relieve her stress.

Until they returned to the Li Family’s villa.

Wu Mei felt the car stop. Groggily, she rubbed her eyes as Li Nanchen carried her.

She immediately sobered up and said anxiously, "Grandpa and Mom are at home. Put me down quickly."

Li Nanchen carried her into the villa with a cold expression on his face. Without even changing his shoes, he headed upstairs.

Wu Mei did not struggle anymore and took the initiative to wrap her arms around Li Nanchen's neck. She looked into his eyes and asked, "Why are you angry?"

Li Nanchen looked at the serious Wu Mei and felt a surge of anger. He tightened his grip on her and did not let go of her even after returning to the room.

"Say something!" Wu Mei held Li Nanchen's face and kissed him, but Li Nanchen turned away from her.

Her expression turned even worse. After she was carried onto the bed, she nimbly dodged to the side and placed a hand on Li Nanchen's shoulder. "If you don't tell me, don't touch me."

Li Nanchen was in a terrible mood after being rejected. There was a hint of suppression in his voice as he said, "You only discuss things with K. Even Ben found out about your relationship with K, it goes to show how overboard you've gone. You guys didn't even try to hide it."

Wu Mei frowned. "K probably didn't keep it a secret and leaked..."

Li Nanchen kissed her harshly on the lips. She could not say a word and could only struggle to push Li Nanchen away.

Li Nanchen pushed her black and seductive top up and wrapped it tightly around her hands. He wrapped her hands tightly together and lit her entire body up on fire.

"Nanchen, let's clear the air first." Wu Mei panted heavily. She shook off her shoes and instinctively wrapped her legs around Li Nanchen's waist. However, she still tried to reason with Li Nanchen.

"K has many relevant leads. I need him to help me..."

Wu Mei sucked in a deep breath and tried her best to relax as she took Li Nanchen in. She shrugged off her shirt and touched Li Nanchen's chest.. "Be, be gentler."

Chapter 290: Control

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Although Wu Mei was shouting at him to “be gentle”, she was desperately clinging onto Li Nanchen.

Li Nanchen held her waist and pressed her back onto the bed. “Can’t I find the things found?”

Wu Mei was in a daze. There were many suspicious points revolving around the cause of her death and it became a huge mystery.

She could not tell Li Nanchen too much. She also hoped that Li Nanchen would not fall into a difficult situation on this matter. This would put him in danger.

“Ah! Nanchen, slow down.” Wu Mei came back to her senses and begged for mercy as she pressed her hands against his chest.

Li Nanchen held her hands above her head and refused to say anything.

Wu Mei watched as a drop of sweat rolled down Li Nanchen’s face. She licked her lips and leaned forward to kiss him. “Nanchen, you’re misunderstanding me.”

Li Nanchen lightly harrumphed and returned her kiss.

After an unknown period of time.

Li Nanchen finally stopped.

Wu Mei huddled in Li Nanchen’s arms and frowned. “Nanchen, I want to take a shower.”

Li Nanchen ignored her.

Wu Mei moved her fingers and hooked Li Nanchen’s chin. “Then, we’ll have a good talk after that?”

She had clearly thought of an excuse to appease Li Nanchen during the few minutes of rest.

Unfortunately, Li Nanchen did not intend to listen. Instead, he lifted his leg.

Wu Mei’s lower body was numb. She gasped and tried to push Li Nanchen away, but he still rammed into her.

Her vision blurred and her body was no longer controlled by her brain. She leaned against Li Nanchen and endured his thrusts.

She really... loved and hated Li Nanchen.

Wasn't it the same for Li Nanchen?

He absolutely hated hearing names of other men coming out of Wu Mei's mouth. A surge of jealousy welled up in his heart and he kept tormenting Wu Mei.

It was almost dawn.

As Wu Mei bit Li Nanchen's shoulder, everything ended.

Li Nanchen held Wu Mei in his arms and stroked her hair before closing his eyes.

A thought flashed across Wu Mei's mind before she fell asleep.

Li Nanchen is really made of steel.

When Wu Mei woke up again, she glared at Li Nanchen and forced herself to sit up. She lifted the blanket slightly and scanned her body.

Her body was really...

Her body suddenly stiffened as she felt Li Nanchen's arms wrap around her waist. "I... I'm hungry."

Li Nanchen let out a satisfied laugh and caressed her back with his fingers. "I'm hungry too. Should I get the servants to bring it up, or should we go to the dining room to eat?"

Wu Mei instinctively trembled. She grabbed the pillow and threw it at Li Nanchen.

Not only was this action harmless, but she even threw herself into Li Nanchen's arms.

Li Nanchen hugged Wu Mei and continued to move his fingers downwards. "It seems like it's your other mouth that's hungry."

Wu Mei reached out to cover Li Nanchen's mouth and used her last bit of strength to warn Li Nanchen, "If you continue to mess around, you're not allowed to touch me in the future."

Li Nanchen also knew that Wu Mei could not take it for the time being, so he carried her to the bathroom.

When they appeared in the dining room, it was already past lunchtime.

The lunch on the table was a little cold.

Wu Mei did not mind at all. There was only one thing on her mind, and that was to fill her stomach before settling the score with Li Nanchen.

In the end, she couldn't even hold her chopsticks.

Li Nanchen held Wu Mei's waist with one hand and picked up his chopsticks with the other. "What do you want to eat? Can I help you?"

"Go away!" Wu Mei glared at him angrily, but it was harmless.

Li Nanchen leaned over and coaxed her, "Don't be angry, I apologize."

"After you're full, you can punish me however you want."

Punishment?

Wu Mei immediately closed her legs. "If you dare to mess around again, I'll..."

"Don't you like it?" Li Nanchen gently bit her earlobe.

Wu Mei trembled again and instinctively swallowed her saliva. She clearly liked it very much.

She pushed Li Nanchen away and grabbed the spoon. "Stop teasing me. Eat."

When Old Master Li walked in from the courtyard, he saw that Wu Mei couldn't even hold the chopsticks and Li Nanchen was actually still snickering.

"Li Nanchen." Old Master Li harrumphed.

Li Nanchen asked seriously, "Yes, Grandpa."

"What do you mean 'yes'? You have to control yourself, understand?" Old Master Li blurted out. His face turned red and he coughed.

"If you want children, you have to take care of your health too. Look at Lass Mei, even the chopsticks..."

He swallowed the rest of his words and said unhappily, "You have to dote on your wife."

Li Nanchen obediently replied, "Don't worry, Grandpa. I will take good care of Mei'er."

His hands restlessly pinched Wu Mei's waist.

Wu Mei really wanted to slap Li Nanchen's hand away, but since Old Master Li was still in the living room, she could only awkwardly reply, "Grandpa, don't worry, we'll be fine."

Old Master Li was a little tired and asked Li Nanchen to go to the study after dinner. He then slowly made his way upstairs with his walking stick.

When Wu Mei and Li Nanchen were alone in the living room, she turned her head and wanted to bite Li Nanchen. However, Li Nanchen was prepared and blocked her lips with his.

She was at a disadvantage again and did not dare to fight against Li Nanchen. She shouted pitifully, "Don't do it. I was wrong. Stop fooling around. This is the living room. There are people around."

"If you continue to torment me, I will ignore you from now on."

Wu Mei's voice became intermittent, and towards the end, her voice was quavering.

The spoon fell to the floor.

Li Nanchen carried Wu Mei back to the bedroom.

Chapter 291: Tampering with

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

"If you get this done, I'll make her pay."

"You and I will get what we want, isn't that good?"

Mo Li's voice traveled into Lin Piaopiao's ears from the other end of the phone, as if she was a demon from hell who was bewitching her.

Lin Piaopiao looked at the Li Family's villa in front of her. "But... but I already obtained it previously!"

In order to get Wu Mei's hair, she had gone into the sewers.

Mo Li did not answer. Even through the phone, Lin Piaopiao could feel the coldness radiating from her.

"Ms. Mo Li, don't worry. I'll do my best," Lin Piaopiao immediately corrected herself.

Mo Li reminded her in a low voice, "They'll be back soon. You have to hurry."

Li Nanchen and Wu Mei went to the hospital.

Old Master Li had gone to inspect the Li Corporation on a whim.

Mother Wu had also returned to the Wu Corporation with Bi Fang to clean up the mess.

There were no owners in the entire villa right now.

“Alright, I understand,” Lin Piaopiao agreed. After Mo Li hung up the phone, she finally felt a sense of warmth.

Needless to say, she knew that the police were openly arresting Mo Li. However, in order to become the mistress of this villa, she was willing to cooperate with the devil.

Just as Lin Piaopiao was about to walk into the villa, she was stopped outside by the butler in the name of no masters being at home.

Her eyes turned red with anger. She pushed the butler away and said through gritted teeth, “I’m here to see Grandpa.”

The butler stopped her twice. In the end, he could only ask Lin Piaopiao to stay in the living room for the time being. “The Old Master will be back soon. I’ll have to trouble Miss Lin to wait for a while.”

Soon?

Lin Piaopiao’s heart skipped a beat. She pretended to agree perfunctorily. While the butler was busy, she immediately ran upstairs to Li Nanchen’s bedroom.

It was Li Nanchen and Wu Mei’s bedroom.

After she ran in, she knew that the servants would clean the room, so she quickly searched around and finally came to the bathroom.

The bathroom was clean.

Lin Piaopiao gritted her teeth in anger. “Thankfully, I was prepared.”

“Wu Mei, just wait to be despised.”

Lin Piaopiao could not imagine that a man would like a woman who had lost all her hair in one night.

She took the shampoo out of her bag and replaced all the bottles on the shelf before hurrying out of the room and to the stairs. She happened to run into Wu Mei, who had returned due to exhaustion.

When Wu Mei saw Lin Piaopiao, she was especially surprised. It had been a while since she last saw her.

Lin Piaopiao immediately felt guilty and glared at Wu Mei fiercely. “You’re really shameless. You’re already divorced and you’re still hanging around here.”

“What about you? You don’t even have the right to stay here, yet you want to compete with me?” Looking at Lin Piaopiao, who was pretending to be calm, Wu Mei had a slight speculation.

“Of course I won’t compete with you. You can’t compare to me anyways. Go away.” Lin Piaopiao didn’t dare to look into Wu Mei’s eyes and immediately ran down the stairs.

Thinking about Li Nanchen and Wu Mei coming back together, she felt bitter and angry. However, she also wanted to see Li Nanchen as soon as possible.

Wu Mei narrowed her eyes as she watched Lin Piaopiao run away. Her gaze landed on the floor and she looked at the footprints left behind that led straight to her room.

This Lin Piaopiao was not clean at all when doing things.

Wu Mei strode back to her room and looked at the footprints that had become indistinct. She carefully observed them before her gaze fell on the bathroom.

What was Lin Piaopiao doing in the bathroom?

Could it be that she wanted to steal Li Nanchen’s things?

Wu Mei knew that was impossible. She walked into the bathroom cautiously and did a thorough check, but found nothing.

Lin Piaopiao had only come in for a walk?

She did not believe that.

When Wu Mei walked down the stairs again, she heard Lin Piaopiao suggest to Old Master Li for her to stay here. However, Old Master Li persuaded her gently and arranged for a car to send Lin Piaopiao away.

“Grandpa, if Miss Lin wants to stay, she can stay. There are so many guest rooms in the house, we can spare one.” Wu Mei felt that Lin Piaopiao was up to something and her wanting to stay the night was to see the results.

Before figuring out Lin Piaopiao’s motive, she could not let her go.

Old Master Li looked at Wu Mei, then at Lin Piaopiao, and finally nodded.

The thoughts of young people are really hard to guess.

At dinner, instead of going downstairs to eat, Wu Mei stayed in her room and checked the bathroom again.

This time, she found something.

Wu Mei shook the shampoo in her hand and smelled a familiar fragrance and an indescribable stench.

She had used it this morning, so there shouldn't be any problems.

In that case, it had to be Lin Piaopiao's doing.

Wu Mei smirked and walked out of the room with all the shampoo.

When she came back, she was relaxed and waited to watch a good show.

Li Nanchen walked into the room and saw Wu Mei smiling at the mirror. Puzzled, he hugged her from behind and asked, "Are you happy that I didn't accompany you today?"

Wu Mei quickly stood up straight. "Lin Piaopiao is here."

Li Nanchen gave a perfunctory reply and lowered his head to kiss Wu Mei's back. "I'm hungry."

Wu Mei was waiting for Li Nanchen to come back so that they could have dinner together. However, she did not intend to make herself a part of the dinner.. She immediately held Li Nanchen's hand and said angrily, "Wash your hands and let's eat."

Chapter 292: Blood-stained Hair

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Lin Piaopiao was completely ignored.

She waited until Li Nanchen returned and wanted to have dinner with him. In the end, Li Nanchen completely ignored her and went straight upstairs.

She waited and waited. Finally, the servant brought the dinner to Li Nanchen's room.

Tears welled up in Lin Piaopiao's eyes. She felt aggrieved and sad at the same time. She lowered her head and wiped the corners of her eyes. When she raised her head, her eyes were filled with viciousness.

Just you wait! Wu Mei!

Since the Li Family didn't chase her away, Lin Piaopiao didn't stand on ceremony and stayed. However, she rarely saw anyone else.

They were all very busy. Even the useless madwoman, Mother Wu, was also not at home most of the time.

Lin Piaopiao stood in the bathroom, combing her hair while her mind was filled with the call she just had with Mo Li.

She wanted her to speed up.

She wanted to too.

She was very sure that Wu Mei had washed her hair.

Lin Piaopiao slammed the wooden comb on the table. "The dosage must be too little. I need to try again and increase the dosage."

She was about to walk out of the bathroom when she caught a glimpse of the hair on the teeth of the wooden comb. Her eyes widened in shock and nearly popped out.

A thick layer of hair covered the teeth, and there was even blood.

Blood?

Lin Piaopiao's eyes were filled with tears. She walked over in shock, grabbed the wooden comb, and looked at herself in the mirror.

Her hair was still thick, but she could see a few drops of blood dripping from it.

My hair... What happened?

Lin Piaopiao had an incredulous speculation. She slowly raised her hand and grabbed a bunch of hair.

She touched the other side and saw the same result. There was even blood on her scalp.

Lin Piaopiao screamed in fright and turned around to turn on the shower.

No matter how stupid she was, she knew what had happened. The shampoo she had swapped out for Wu Mei had now been used on her head.

It was Wu Mei's doing.

Lin Piaopiao walked out of the bathroom and found a bald patch on her head. She couldn't help but scream.

At that moment, Mother Wu, accompanied by Bi Fang, were walking towards the room when they heard a woman's scream.

She was frightened and turned to look at Bi Fang. "What's wrong? Did something happen at home?"

Bi Fang was also confused. He comforted Mother Wu first and said, "Auntie, don't be afraid. I'll find out."

"I'm not afraid," Mother Wu said honestly. She was just worried that something bad had happened at home and hurt her Mei'er.

After Bi Fang sent Mother Wu back to her room, he wanted to see who was causing a ruckus. In the end, he saw Lin Piaopiao wearing a hat.

"It's you?" Bi Fang looked at her with disdain.

This woman is still in the Li family's villa?

Why doesn't she think about her status? How can she just stay here and not leave?

The moment Lin Piaopiao saw Bi Fang, her eyes lit up. She frantically grabbed Bi Fang's sleeve. "Bi Fang, you must have a way. Come and help me."

Bi Fang hurriedly retreated as if he was afraid that he would be stained with something dirty. He said in disgust, "Miss Lin, don't come closer."

"If you come any closer, I'll... blech!"

Lin Piaopiao was too eager to pull Bi Fang away. In the end, she knocked off her own hat, revealing her messy hair and bloody scalp.

When Bi Fang saw this, he could not help but retch.

Lin Piaopiao was both angry and anxious. She wished she could strangle Bi Fang to death right now, but she also needed Bi Fang's help.

"Bi Fang, Doctor Bi, Mr. Bi." Lin Piaopiao shouted anxiously as she approached Bi Fang again.

Bi Fang had goosebumps all over his body. He shouted frantically, "Don't come near me anymore. Let's talk things out."

Lin Piaopiao was so anxious that her eyes turned red. She said pitifully, "Dr Bi, I was set up by Wu Mei. She changed my shampoo. Please help me."

“Wu Mei is putting on airs in front of Brother Nanchen, but she’s using such despicable means in private. You have to help me.”

Bi Fang’s voice was cold as he said disdainfully, “Wu Mei wants to deal with you? You’re not worthy!”

Lin Xiao Piaopiao was in a hurry to seek help. Clearly, she had forgotten how close Bi Fang and Wu Mei were. In the end, he ruthlessly poured cold water on her.

When she raised her head angrily, she happened to see Li Nanchen walking up the stairs.

This was a good opportunity.

If her life wasn’t going to be easy, she would not let Wu Mei have it easy either.

“You’re not going to help me?” Lin Piaopiao’s tone was so cold that it made one’s scalp tingle.

Bi Fang said bluntly, “Why should I help you? You’re crazy.”

When Bi Fang turned around, Lin Piaopiao grabbed her hat and put it back on. She said sarcastically, “Dr Bi, you have an affair with Wu Mei, don’t you?”

Bi Fang stopped in his tracks. His expression was dark as he said, “Say that again.”

He usually had a good temper and focused on his medical skills. However, that did not mean that he was a man who could be easily manipulated.

Lin Piaopiao smiled sinisterly. She already knew that Bi Fang would not treat her, so she said harshly, “I said, Brother Nanchen doesn’t know about your relationship with Wu Mei, does he?”

“You like Wu Mei. Don’t tell me that the man Wu Mei likes is you?”

Bi Fang looked at Lin Piaopiao as if he was looking at a fool. “Do you think Li Nanchen will believe your words?”

“Didn’t you say that on purpose because he’s standing right here?”

He sneered and said, “Instead of scheming, why don’t you think about how to cure your hair?”

Chapter 293: Punishing Kiss

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Lin Piaopiao watched as Bi Fang walked down the stairs. She still wanted to threaten him to vent her anger, but she met Li Nanchen's icy gaze.

Her head shook and her legs turned to jelly. She was speechless.

"Tomorrow, get lost!" Li Nanchen coldly spat out these few words. Without even sparing a glance at Lin Piaopiao, he returned to his room.

Lin Piaopiao gripped her hat tightly and shouted at Li Nanchen, "Brother Nanchen, I'm telling the truth. Wu Mei tried to harm me. Why don't you believe me?"

"She's a vicious woman. Why can't you see that?"

Only when Li Nanchen's door closed did Lin Piaopiao squat down and cry silently.

In the Li family, no one came out to comfort her. Everyone was waiting for her to leave.

Li Nanchen looked at Wu Mei who had already changed and asked softly, "Where are you going?"

Wu Mei turned around and met Li Nanchen's cold gaze. She was slightly confused. "What's wrong? I heard Lin Piaopiao's voice."

"Her hair dropped and there's blood." Li Nanchen said simply.

Oh! Wu Mei immediately understood. She nodded and sneered, "So that's what you had in store for me."

If she hadn't swapped the shampoo, she would have been in the same situation as Lin Piaopiao.

How can there be such a stupid woman, who would do something so clumsily and leave behind so many clues?

"Where are you planning to go?" Li Nanchen pressed on the back of Wu Mei's hand and narrowed his eyes.

Wu Mei tiptoed and kissed Li Nanchen's chin. "Didn't I tell you? I want to ask Bi Fang to help me check on K. If K doesn't wake up, I won't be able to get any leads on Mo Li."

Over the past few days, she had been convinced that K's last sentence was directed at Mo Li. She had to make good use of the time and not let anyone else beat her to it.

Most importantly, Ben could not get it first.

Li Nanchen's gaze darkened. First it was Bi Fang, then K. He was standing right in front of Wu Mei. How can Wu Mei not take him seriously?

Wu Mei looked at Li Nanchen in surprise. "Didn't you say that you would accompany us..."

Oof! Li Nanchen's kiss cut off the rest of her sentence.

She instinctively raised her hand to reject this suffocating kiss. However, Li Nanchen held her hands behind her back, so she could only whimper in protest.

When the kiss ended, Wu Mei could no longer stand.

She leaned into Li Nanchen's embrace and said gloomily, "What's wrong? Who provoked you?"

Li Nanchen tightened his grip on Wu Mei. "Stay away from Bi Fang and K."

Why?!

Wu Mei was not foolish enough to ask this question. Instead, she lowered her head and smiled foolishly.

Li Nanchen bit down on Wu Mei's earlobe unceremoniously. As he wished, he heard Wu Mei's soft moan. "I'm already in so much discomfort, yet you still want to anger me."

"President Li is getting more and more jealous." Wu Mei raised her finger and drew a circle on Li Nanchen's chest.

Li Nanchen asked faintly, "So what?"

Wu Mei wished she could hang it on Li Nanchen. However, she had to deal with this matter immediately. She lightly pecked Li Nanchen's lips. "Of course I like it very much."

A fire burned in Li Nanchen's heart and he bit down on Wu Mei's lips again.

Wu Mei did not reject him. Instead, she lifted one leg and hung herself on him.

Two hours had passed by the time they left the room.

The tips of Wu Mei's hair were slightly wet, obviously freshly washed.

Bi Fang was carrying a bag as he walked out of the bedroom. When he saw Li Nanchen and Wu Mei acting so strangely, he spat out, "President Li, you're already so old, why are you still so clingy?"

Li Nanchen wrapped his hands around Wu Mei's slim waist. "You're jealous."

Bi Fang rolled his eyes at him. "You'd better send your little green tea bitch away as soon as possible. She looks disgusting."

Li Nanchen looked at Wu Mei, who was in his arms, and said bitterly, "Whoever allowed her to stay here can handle it."

Wu Mei coughed awkwardly. She was the one who allowed Lin Piaopiao to stay. "After we return, I will personally invite Ms. Lin home."

The three of them walked downstairs as they talked.

Lin Piaopiao carefully walked out of the room and ran into Li Nanchen's room.

He and Wu Mei had just showered, and the room still smelled damp and the love-making scent had yet to dissipate.

Lin Piaopiao was fuming with anger. Fortunately, Mo Li had given her a call to hurry her. Otherwise, she would have been so infuriated that she would have destroyed everything in the room.

She walked into the bathroom. When she came out again, she ran out as if she was clutching onto a life-saving straw.

She stayed in the guest room for a long time. When she came out again, she was full of energy. She didn't even need Wu Mei to arrange for her to leave. After greeting Old Master Li, she got into the car and left.

When Wu Mei heard the news, she was waiting in the hospital for Bi Fang to check K's injury.

She felt that there must be another reason for Lin Piaopiao to leave.

What could it be?

Wu Mei rubbed her fingers together. As she was seriously speculating, Bi Fang walked out and said, "There's nothing wrong with his injuries. He only injured his head."

"Don't worry, he'll wake up."

Chapter 294: Stupid Plan

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Outside the hospital, Wu Mei was holding her phone and listening to Ben's call.

Because K's condition hadn't improved, his mission was temporarily handed over to Ben, who was prepared to bring Wu Mei along with him.

Wu Mei hesitated. She instinctively rejected contact with Ben and merely said, "Ben, I'm President Li's bodyguard now."

Ben scoffed and said in a commanding tone, "Bodyguards can be reassigned. This is a good opportunity to make a contribution."

What Wu Mei needed was never an opportunity to make a contribution, but an opportunity to find out the truth. Between Ben and K, it was obvious that the latter was more worthwhile.

Before Wu Mei could reply, she suddenly saw the glint of a knife slashing out from the side.

She shouted, "Who is it?" as she quickly hung up the phone and hid on the other side.

Who dared to kill someone outside the hospital?

Wu Mei thought that Mo Li was the one who arranged the hitman. However, when she turned around, she realized that it was Yang Shan, who had not appeared in a long time.

Yang Shan has been released? How is that possible? She was Wu Pang's accomplice.

Countless possibilities flashed through Wu Mei's mind, but she still evaded ingeniously until she turned around and grabbed Yang Shan's wrist. She did not use any much strength and merely prevented Yang Shan from attacking.

"How did you get out?" Wu Mei asked solemnly.

Yang Shan tried her best to turn her head to look at Wu Mei's face, but all she got in return was Wu Mei pressing her down. She had no choice but to kneel on the ground, "Wu Mei, save me, save your father. All you need to do is say something."

"What I'm asking is, how did you get out?" Wu Mei was extremely angry. Yang Shan's answer made her very upset.

Yang Shan simply said, "Because I only helped them pull some strings. I thought they were just doing business and didn't know they were dealing drugs."

Wu Mei thought about it carefully and knew that this was one of the pieces of evidence in the lawyer's defense. Yang Shan had never been involved with the drugs during the entire process and was only responsible for pulling strings. She would be fine as long as she refused to admit it.

“You pushed all the blame onto Wu Pang. After being released, you came to attack me again?” Wu Mei’s gaze fell on Yang Shan’s knife. She did not think that this was just an ordinary attack.

Yang Shan screamed, “As long as you help him, I won’t appear again. But if you don’t help him, I’ll pester you every day. Even if I become a ghost, I won’t let you off.”

Disgust surfaced in Wu Mei’s heart. When she reached out to push Yang Shan away, she noticed a strange flash.

She immediately guessed what Yang Shan was up to and smiled scornfully. “I only have one question for you. Do you know about the content of the deal between Mo Li and Wu Pang?”

Yang Shan looked up and said in a trembling voice, “I know, I know everything was done by Wu Pang. He just wanted to take over the Wu Corporation.”

Wu Mei let go of Yang Shan’s hand and said, “I won’t help Wu Pang. You can leave now.”

“You have no conscience.” The moment Yang Shan was released, she turned around and took a stab at Wu Mei.

Snap!

Yang Shan’s hand that was holding the knife trembled. She looked at Wu Mei, who had taken a photo of her, in shock. “You... What did you do?”

“Even if you arrange for reporters, I also have to leave behind some photographic evidence!” Wu Mei sneered as she dialed a number and directly called the police in front of Yang Shan.

Yang Shan’s plan was too simple. She just wanted to anger Wu Mei and even let Wu Mei hurt her so that she could threaten her. However, she underestimated Wu Mei’s ruthlessness and shrewdness.

“Also, I recorded what you said just now.” After Wu Mei said that, she saw the security guards surrounding them.

The knife in Yang Shan’s hand really became evidence of her crime.

When the police arrived, not only did they take Yang Shan away, they also arrested the reporter who wanted to escape.

After Li Nanchen rushed over, he immediately hugged Wu Mei. “Are you hurt?”

“Yang Shan doesn’t have the ability to hurt me,” Wu Mei said nonchalantly as she reached out to neaten Li Nanchen’s collar. Seeing his and Bi Fang’s pale faces, the first thing she thought of was that K was in danger.

She took a deep breath. “Did something happen again?”

Li Nanchen took off his jacket and draped it over Wu Mei. He leaned close to her ear and said softly, “Li Yanghong is in the country. Grandpa discovered him.”

Wu Mei was not surprised. She did not think that Li Zhuo and his family would give up the Li family’s assets so easily. Their pretentious act would only show how despicable they were.

Yang Shan’s final words to Wu Mei were: Just you wait, I have a way to deal with you.

Is there any other way?

Wu Mei stopped in her tracks. At the same time, she and Li Nanchen watched as Yang Shan was shoved into the police car. A strange feeling welled up in her heart.

Yang Shan was so certain when she said that, that she couldn’t help but doubt.

The next day, Wu Mei received the news that because of her recording, they found out that Yang Shan helped Wu Pang and Mo Li pull strings. This was a breakthrough in their interrogation.

This time, they wouldn’t let Yang Shan off so easily.

Similarly, Wu Yi also received the news. She was sitting behind the coffee table as she watched Li Yanghong make phone calls non-stop. He was saying that as long as they could save Yang Shan, he did not care how much it cost.

Extreme reliance surged in her heart, and she even treated Li Yanghong as her savior.

When Li Yanghong put down his phone, his eyes met Wu Yi’s red and swollen eyes..

Chapter 295: Suspended for Investigation

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Li Yanghong knew what it meant for a woman to look at him with such a gaze. This was the effect he wanted.

It was thanks to the stupid Yang Shan who gave him such a good opportunity.

“I’ve already made arrangements. You just have to wait for the news. Don’t plot against Wu Mei like Auntie. There won’t be a good outcome.” Li Yanghong’s words made Wu Yi’s eyes turn misty.

Wu Mei.

Why is it always Wu Mei?

When did this Wu Mei become so powerful?

Li Yanghong continued, “I will hire a lawyer and arrange a backup plan. Wait for me.”

Wu Yi was so shocked by the words “wait for me” that she suddenly raised her head. She looked at the person who took care of her and nodded vigorously. “Okay, I’ll wait for you.”

Li Yanghong picked up his coffee and took a sip, revealing a disdainful smile.

On the other hand, Wu Mei was also in trouble.

This trouble was really not caused by Li Yanghong, but an anonymous report.

Someone reported Wu Mei for taking drugs.

Wu Mei was already recalling the entire incident when she received the news from Ben and was forced to undergo a test.

The first to be eliminated were Li Nanchen and the people Li Nanchen had arranged for her.

Who were the people who knew that she had been plotted against by Zhong Ling and touched drugs?

How could they be sure that she was not framed?

Wu Mei was waiting for the result. When she saw the report in Bai Xue’s hand, her expression darkened.

It was actually hair?

Was someone from the Li family bribed to do this?

Bai Xue looked at Wu Mei mockingly. “You have no self-respect. Why did you touch such things? Your life will be ruined by yourself.”

Wu Mei looked up and faced Bai Xue squarely. "Where is Ben?"

When Bai Xue heard Wu Mei mention Ben, her face twisted for a moment. "Of course Ben has to be responsible for the case that K left behind. He's very busy every day. Not only are you unable to help him, but you also caused trouble for him. If I were you, I would resign voluntarily."

"I was in the process of carrying out my mission and was tricked by the enemy into injecting drugs into my body, but I've kicked the addiction," said Wu Mei in a neither servile nor overbearing manner. Or rather, she didn't even bother to look at Bai Xue.

She just wanted to know who had plotted against her. She had to find out.

Bai Xue placed her hands on the table and looked at Wu Mei's expressionless face. She was furious and raised her voice, "Who would believe you? You..."

Wu Mei was shaken out of her thoughts by the sound of Bai Xue's voice. Why was she arguing with Bai Xue? It meant nothing to her. It was a waste of time.

Not only was she not angry, she was smiling. She could clearly see how Bai Xue felt about Ben, and she knew how to attack her opponent. "As long as Ben believes me, that's enough."

As expected, Wu Mei saw Bai Xue's pale and furious expression. She took the test report and said politely, "I'll write a report about the whole thing and send it to Ben's email. You don't have to follow up."

As Wu Mei turned away, Bai Xue slammed the table and yelled, "I'm telling you, no one will believe that you can quit so quickly after touching drugs. You've already been suspended for investigation."

The woman who had shouted those words must have felt pleased, but it quickly turned to annoyance.

Because Wu Mei wasn't offended. She merely tilted her head to the side and said calmly, "I'll send the report to Ben. Even if I'm suspended and kept under investigation, the truth about the whole incident must be known. It should not be a malicious speculation."

She looked at Bai Xue sternly and said, "Isn't the truth what we're after?"

Bai Xue felt that Wu Mei was implying something else.

As Wu Mei walked out, her expression turned ugly. She completely ignored Feng Yue, who was blocking her way. She was just thinking about how the development of the situation would affect her plan.

Feng Yue blocked Wu Mei's path again. "Did you hear what I said? I will be responsible for Mr. Li's safety. It won't be you any longer."

Wu Mei finally snapped out of it. When she fixed her gaze on Feng Yue, a bright smile blossomed on her face.

Feng Yue was shocked by Wu Mei's smile. Then, she heard Wu Mei laugh and say, "We don't know who will be responsible for President Li's safety. Why are you so anxious?"

"I have to go back and write my report. I don't know how Ben is doing and I don't have a bodyguard mission right now, so I can help him."

Feng Yue finally came back to her senses. She gritted her teeth and said to Wu Mei, "Let me remind you that you've been suspended. You can't do anything."

"I can still get them a cup of coffee." Wu Mei suppressed the dissatisfaction in her heart, as well as the surging thoughts and resentment, and walked out with a smile.

Her suspension had been imposed according to the rules. She had no chance to protest. The only thing she could do was to find out the truth.

Where should I start looking?

Li Nanchen already knew about Wu Mei's punishment. Just as he was about to extend his hand to Wu Mei, Feng Yue blocked his path.

He did not expect someone to suddenly appear. He instinctively took a step back and distanced himself.

Feng Yue lowered her head. "Mr. Li, Wu Mei has been suspended. From now on, I will be the one protecting you. You..."

"This matter hasn't been settled yet, but you're taking matters into your own hands already?" Li Nanchen's voice was cold as he strode past Feng Yue and grabbed Wu Mei's hand.

Chapter 296: Accept the Result

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Looking at their clasped hands, Feng Yue trembled in anger. She wanted to stop them from leaving but realized that she had no right.

As her superiors had not decided who would take over Wu Mei's bodyguard job, she would only be laughed at by more people if she continued to pester them.

Li Nanchen did not have a chauffeur today, so there were only him and Wu Mei in the car.

He opened a bottle of water and handed it to Wu Mei. "Don't worry. I'll investigate it thoroughly."

"I won't let anyone else be my bodyguard."

After taking the bottle of water, Wu Mei held Li Nanchen's hand and said seriously, "No, you do!"

Li Nanchen looked at Wu Mei in astonishment, thinking that she had lost her temper because she was angry. However, upon closer inspection, he realized that she was serious.

"I'm being serious. The tests have been done. What else is there to say? What's important right now is not to do anything but find out who provided the anonymous tip." Wu Mei's voice grew colder, emitting a chilliness like the ice in winter.

She smirked. "I already have a candidate in mind. Do you want to hear it?"

Li Nanchen's train of thought went along with Wu Mei. When he heard the word "candidate", he immediately thought of the uninvited guest at home.

She came on her own and merely informed them when she left.

"Lin Piaopiao?" Li Nanchen muttered this name. His smile was filled with cruelty. He already had some plans in his mind and was prepared to investigate thoroughly.

Wu Mei nodded. "The composition in her shampoo is harmful to the skin. The user will lose a lot of hair."

Before leaving, Lin Piaopiao had been suffering from such symptoms.

"I understand." Li Nanchen did not think about how "difficult" it had been for Lin Piaopiao to collect Wu Mei hair during those few days. He only knew that he had a target to continue the investigation.

"However, it doesn't matter if I'm not your bodyguard. Are you going to chase me out?" Wu Mei secretly let out a sigh and turned to smile at Li Nanchen.

How could Li Nanchen chase Wu Mei away?

If Wu Mei insisted on leaving, he would follow her.

“That’s it...” Before Wu Mei could continue, someone knocked on the window.

When she turned around and saw Bai Xue’s face, she had mixed feelings.

Li Nanchen was also full of doubts. After pulling Wu Mei towards him, he pressed the button that controlled the window and calmly asked, “What do you want?”

Bai Xue was infuriated by Li Nanchen’s cold attitude, but she controlled her temper and passed a document to him in the car. “From tomorrow onwards, I will be responsible for Mr. Li’s safety.”

Inside and outside the car.

The air froze and became suffocating.

Bai Xue’s face instantly darkened. She suppressed her dissatisfaction. Compared to protecting Li Nanchen, what she wanted more was to accept the mission of helping Ben.

“I’ll be at the Li Family’s villa starting tomorrow,” Bai Xue said.

“Okay!” Li Nanchen’s eyes shifted slightly. Hooking Wu Mei’s finger, he expressed his gratitude to Bai Xue before rolling up the car window.

Bai Xue looked at Wu Mei who was sitting in the car. How could she not understand?

Wu Mei had gotten together with Li Nanchen.

Wu Mei would not leave the Li Family even if she did not have a mission.

Why did everything fortunate befall such a woman?

Wu Mei did not know what Bai Xue thought of her. She thought about how Bai Xue would be around the Li family’s villa in the future. It would really be an eyesore.

She snapped out of it and began considering what to do next.

Actually, it was beneficial for her to not accept the “bodyguard” mission.

At the very least, she could free up more time to communicate with K and find out the cause of her death and the truth. That was her real motive. She did not intend to be trapped in the mess of the Wu Corporation.

Li Nanchen thought that Wu Mei was in a bad mood and turned the car around. He tried to coax her, "What are we going to eat? Let's not go home."

Wu Mei raised her brows and smiled. She propped her chin on one hand and looked at Li Nanchen. "President Li, aren't you going to the office this afternoon?"

"The company is not as important as you." Li Nanchen pinched her chin. He also realized that his girl's emotions were hard to guess.

A moment ago, her face was covered with dark clouds. Now, she was all smiles.

After they reached the restaurant, Wu Mei went to the bathroom first. He took the opportunity to send a message and contacted Bi Fang at the same time.

After Bi Fang heard Li Nanchen's arrangement, he said, "Crazy." Then he asked, "Which restaurant did you guys go to? How's the taste? Is the service good?"

Li Nanchen was baffled by Bi Fang's series of questions. He sneered in confusion, "Why? Do you want to bring your girlfriend here to try the food?"

Where was Bi Fang going to get a girlfriend? He paused, cursed, and hung up.

Li Nanchen put down his phone and saw Wu Mei walking back.

Wu Mei sat beside him and naturally leaned into his embrace. "I'm really tired today."

When she did the test again, she already knew this result. While calmly accepting it, she also suppressed her anger.

Who instigated Lin Piaopiao?

This person had to know the inside story.

Li Nanchen raised his hand and pressed it against her temple. "Don't think about it for now. We'll find out soon."

Wu Mei shook her head helplessly.. "She's not stupid. Why would she wait for you to catch her?"