

After Divorcing, She Shocked the World - Chapter 297 – 300 Injection

Chapter 297: Injection

Of course, Lin Piaopiao would not wait for Li Nanchen to catch her. However, her injured skin still needed treatment.

She did not dare to tell the others that she had contacted a reliable doctor through Mo Li to secretly treat her.

The doctor told her seriously that as long as she took good care of it, her hair could grow back.

Lin Piaopiao calmed down and put on her wig. When she walked out of the clinic and sneaked into the alley, she was blocked by two bodyguards.

She was all too familiar with the Li family.

These two bodyguards were the ones who usually stayed by Li Nanchen's side.

Lin Piaopiao's heart tightened. She guessed the reason for their appearance and immediately turned to run away, only to see another two bodyguards.

She was so frightened that she screamed, "Help!" Then, she was struck and fainted.

She woke up from the cold.

Opening her eyes, Lin Piaopiao realized that she was tied to a chair. She could only try her best to adapt to the light in front of her. When she saw her surroundings clearly, she shivered in fear.

"Where is this? I know you are the Li family's bodyguards. Wu Mei arranged this, right?"

"Once Brother Nanchen finds out, he will fire all of you. You won't have a good ending."

"It's me!" Li Nanchen's cold voice rang out from the side and was accompanied by footsteps.

Lin Piaopiao tried her best to tilt her head. When she saw Li Nanchen, she cried, "Brother Nanchen, I'm scared. Hurry up and let me go."

Li Nanchen stood opposite Lin Piaopiao and sized her up mockingly. The bodyguard moved a chair over.

He sat down and asked, "Do you know this place?"

Lin Piaopiao didn't dare to look at her surroundings. It looked like an underground garage. However, she was tied up here. Nothing good would happen.

"Brother Nanchen, don't scare me. Let me go," she pleaded softly, hoping that Li Nanchen would let her go.

She still had hope for Li Nanchen.

Li Nanchen was not adamant on hearing Lin Piaopiao's answer. Instead, he chose to answer his own question. "This is the Li family's underground garage."

"It's also a dungeon."

"You're not the first person to be locked up here, and you definitely won't be the last to die here."

Lin Piaopiao's face was so pale that it was almost transparent. She looked at Li Nanchen and murmured in shock, "Brother Nanchen, what are you saying?"

Li Nanchen frowned in disgust. "Stop calling me that. It's utterly disgusting."

Lin Piaopiao stared fixedly at Li Nanchen. The Li Nanchen before her was too unfamiliar.

His face was full of ridicule, disdain, arrogance, and viciousness.

"Take action," Li Nanchen said to the bodyguards behind him.

A bodyguard walked over, opened a box, and took out the syringe inside.

Lin Piaopiao's eyes were about to pop out as a thought flashed through her mind. She shouted, "No, I don't want it!"

"Brother Nanchen, let me go. I will never appear in front of you again."

She was not stupid. She knew that Li Nanchen had done all of this for Wu Mei, but she did not even harbor any resentment, only fear.

Li Nanchen did not reply. It seemed like talking to her was a waste of time.

He only wanted results.

Lin Piaopiao watched as the needle got closer and closer to her. Countless thoughts flashed through her mind, but in the end, only one remained.

She did not want to get addicted!

“It’s Mo Li. Mo Li asked me to collect Wu Mei’s hair and hand it to her for testing,” Lin Piaopiao said in a sharp and piercing voice.

Li Nanchen raised his hand and rubbed his ear. “Did you personally pass it to her?”

Seeing that Li Nanchen had calmed down, Lin Piaopiao thought that there was still room for negotiation. “Brother Nanchen, hear me out...”

Li Nanchen did not like this opening. He lowered his head and allowed the bodyguard to insert the needle into Lin Piaopiao’s arm.

“I gave it to her personally. She rented a house in the county. We usually meet there.” Lin Piaopiao spoke very quickly, afraid that if she was any slower, the liquid in the syringe would be injected into her body.

Li Nanchen got the answer he wanted and said slowly, “Give her an injection.”

Lin Piaopiao kept screaming. When the liquid was completely injected, she fainted from fright.

“Throw her out!” Li Nanchen stood up and dusted himself. He turned around to see Wu Mei.

Wu Mei did not know that there was such a place under the parking garage.

Li Nanchen’s expression stiffened. “H-how did you find this place?”

Wu Mei crossed her arms and sized Li Nanchen up. “President Li, you’re actually hiding such a big place? How impressive.”

Li Nanchen rubbed his nose and quickly walked to Wu Mei’s side. He wanted to hug her, but Wu Mei nimbly avoided him.

Li Nanchen did not attempt to approach Wu Mei again. Instead, he lowered his voice and said, “Lin Piaopiao has revealed Mo Li’s location.”

Wu Mei looked at him in surprise. “She talked so easily?”

“She thought that I was going to inject her and was so scared that she spilled everything.” Li Nanchen did not look at Lin Piaopiao.

Wu Mei couldn't help but laugh. Lin Piaopiao didn't understand Li Nanchen at all. Li Nanchen would never break the law. "So, it was a glucose injection."

"Exactly! What a waste of money." Li Nanchen wrapped his arm around her slim waist and walked to the stairs.

"Let me explain the original purpose of this place."

Needless to say, it also had to be used as a garage.

Chapter 298: Mom Gets Kidnapped

When they went upstairs, they saw Bi Fang, who had stayed in the hospital to take care of K. He had brought back a piece of news.

K was awake!

Bi Fang asked hesitantly, "Are you going to the hospital? Erm... Ben? He's in the hospital."

Wu Mei felt that this news revealed a hint of malice. The one in charge of this mission now was Ben. Why did he go and visit K?

"No!" Li Nanchen said firmly.

They had more important things to do. They couldn't push the important things aside because of the grudges between Ben and K.

Wu Mei composed herself. She knew that Li Nanchen was right. "We need to find someone."

Bi Fang whispered something into Wu Mei's ear. Wu Mei's eyes widened in surprise. "It's true. They are outside. He said that he will leave them to you for the time being."

Wu Mei turned her head in disbelief and stared straight into Li Nanchen's eyes. "He said that K left his men with me."

"This won't do!" Li Nanchen lowered his voice and said without hesitation.

K's mission had already been handed over to Ben. If his subordinates acted again, they would be fired for being absent without leave.

“Oh! So what? Aren’t you looking for someone? Bring them along! If you find her, it’ll be a coincidence. If you can’t find her, just take it as a stroll.” Bi Fang yawned.

He had stayed in the hospital for two consecutive days and was about to fall asleep. Without waiting for Li Nanchen and Wu Mei to speak, he turned around and returned to his room.

Li Nanchen and Wu Mei looked at each other, knowing that Bi Fang’s words made sense.

These people were filled with suppressed anger and would do their best to capture Mo Li.

When they arrived at the villa in the county, they did not expect to see the landlord locking the door.

Wu Mei took out her phone, found a picture of Mo Li, and asked the landlord.

The landlord told them an annoying piece of news. Mo Li had stayed here with her men for several days and left at noon today.

In other words, Mo Li and her men had fled while they were rushing over.

Wu Mei was so angry that her head hurt. She leaned on Li Nanchen’s shoulder, unable to utter a single word.

Li Nanchen gently caressed her back and said with a cold smile, “Don’t worry, no matter how she escapes, we will still be able to find her.”

The men K left behind were even more upset. When they saw this scene, they were all furious and upset. Some of them even kicked a tree hard, but they were the ones who ended up in pain.

Everyone could only force themselves to perk up.

When they returned to the Li Family villa, it was pitch black and completely quiet.

Wu Mei immediately became vigilant. She walked into the villa with Li Nanchen and pulled out her gun at the same time.

The lights in the living room were turned on. The butler and servants were lying on the floor.

Wu Mei held her gun tightly and quickly ran up the stairs. Li Nanchen followed behind her and kicked open the doors of every room.

They were extremely fast. They found the unconscious Old Master Li and Bi Fang.

Mother Wu was gone.

Wu Mei's heart sank and she immediately deduced that Mo Li was the culprit. But how did she do it?

There were surveillance cameras both inside and outside the Li Family's villa, and the bodyguards were also very strict. How could they have succeeded?

Wu Mei looked around again, her hands trembling uncontrollably. She wished she could rush to Mo Li and fight her.

As Li Nanchen protected Wu Mei, he said to the bodyguards behind him, "Check the surveillance cameras, call the police, call an ambulance."

"Thankfully, you're still calm." Wu Mei bit down hard on the tip of her tongue. After tasting blood, she regained her composure.

She could not be anxious.

If she was anxious, she would lose her rationality and instincts to search for important leads.

Li Nanchen gently patted her back, giving her a sense of security. At the same time, he methodically directed the bodyguards and the men K had arranged to come over.

Wu Mei felt her phone vibrate and picked it up impatiently. When she saw Mother Wu's phone number, her expression turned horrible.

She picked up the phone and heard Mo Li chuckle. "Wu Mei, long time no see."

Wu Mei held Li Nanchen's hand tightly, looking for support. She asked coldly, "State your conditions."

Mo Li chuckled happily and said, "Wu Mei is indeed Wu Mei. How decisive."

"Don't waste your breath. If even a strand of hair on my mother's head is hurt, all of your requests will not be met." Wu Mei gritted her teeth and couldn't help but sneer.

Mo Li smiled languidly and said, "Wu Mei, why would I do that? I don't plan to harm innocent people. You just have to save her yourself. That's enough."

"I don't want money or transportation. I just want to meet you."

"Okay!" Wu Mei immediately agreed.

Li Nanchen could clearly hear Mo Li's every word. When Wu Mei agreed, he immediately wanted to object but was stopped by Wu Mei.

"The address," asked Wu Mei.

Mo Li's voice was filled with joy, as if she was meeting an old friend. "I've sent it to your phone. I'm really looking forward to meeting you."

Wu Mei was so angry that she tensed up. Instead, she calmed down and replied, "I'm looking forward to it too."

Her phone was snatched away by Li Nanchen. She said tiredly and weakly, "Nanchen, return it to me."

Li Nanchen held his phone tightly and looked at her with reddened eyes. "If you want to go by yourself, you won't know Auntie's location.. You only have one choice."

Chapter 299: Revealing Her Own Identity

Wu Mei's phone rang. It was an address from Mo Li.

Li Nanchen refused to return the phone to her. After copying the address, he even deleted the message.

He called for someone to prepare the car and also enough ammunition. He even contacted K.

In short, everything had nothing to do with Wu Mei.

Wu Mei fed Old Master Li a glass of water when he woke up.

The Old Master was getting on in years. He had only slept for a little while, and did not know what terrible thing had happened.

Wu Mei did not intend to bring it up. She merely told Old Master Li that he had a nightmare in his sleep, so she and Li Nanchen accompanied him for a while.

After drinking the water, Old Master Li felt sleepy and fell asleep again.

After walking out of the room, Wu Mei's expression turned grim.

Good job, Mo Li. How dare she lay a hand on an elderly person. They could come and go as they pleased and do whatever they wanted.

"I'm ready." Li Nanchen leaned against the door frame and stared straight into her dark eyes.

If Wu Mei insisted on going alone, he would keep her here and make the arrangements himself.

Wu Mei sighed and strode over to Li Nanchen. Holding his arm, she said, "Grandpa is already awake. He's fine now."

"Nanchen, I have a plan. Listen to me."

When Li Nanchen heard her last sentence, a smile appeared in his eyes. He hugged her slim waist and gently kissed her eyes. "That's right. If there are any difficulties, we'll face them together."

"I will definitely hold on to you tightly and won't let go no matter what." Wu Mei raised her head and kissed the corner of Li Nanchen's lips, speaking the truth.

This place was very interesting.

It was very empty!

It was a place where you could play outfield CS.

One of the greatest benefits of this place was that it was tucked away and suitable for hiding.

Based on the agreed time, Wu Mei walked in with her phone. She was not afraid of an ambush.

There were indeed no obstacles along the way and she successfully met Mother Wu, who was tied to the tree.

"Mom!" Wu Mei shouted and quickly ran forward. Two strong men appeared beside her.

Women were not stronger than men, but Wu Mei was very skilled.

Moving as nimbly as a snake, she snatched the gun of one of the men and hit the other, just as her phone was snatched.

Mother Wu also woke up from the sound of the gunshot. When she saw this scene, not only did she not cry out in fear, she even bit her lips tightly, not daring to make a sound for fear of distracting Wu Mei.

Wu Mei took care of the two men, but more assassins rushed out.

They were all professionals.

Wu Mei had knocked out many of them by herself. The final result could be imagined.

When she got down on one knee and was sweating profusely from the pain, she finally saw the smug and arrogant Mo Li.

Mo Li was in a wheelchair with a cast on her left hand. She looked down at Wu Mei and said, "Wu Mei, we finally met."

"We finally met, Mo Li!" When Wu Mei raised her head, a gun was pressed to her head.

Mo Li turned to look at Mother Wu and said, "Auntie, look, it's because of you that your daughter has been implicated repeatedly. What's the point of living?"

Tears rolled down Mother Wu's face, but she still refused to speak.

Wu Mei was surprised by Mother Wu's resilience. It was nearly impossible in the past. Wu Mei simply said, "Mom, you don't have to listen to her. Since I'm here, she should let you off based on the terms of our exchange."

Mo Li bent down and stopped smiling. Staring at Wu Mei coldly, she asked, "Wu Mei, when did you become so naive?"

"So we've known each other in the past," Wu Mei guessed, following Mo Li's lead.

Mo Li stared at Wu Mei coldly and pinched her chin. "I'm your old friend."

Wu Mei was certain that she did not recognize Mo Li.

Mo Li pushed Wu Mei away and grabbed the gun from the bodyguard. "Wu Mei, I will treat you the same way you treated me back then."

"Since you killed my father, I will kill your mother."

"You killed me, but I was lucky to have survived. I'll kill you, too, to see if you have that kind of luck."

Wu Mei was shocked. She blurted out, "You are Zhong Ling?"

Mo Li was not surprised that Wu Mei had hit the nail on the head. She burst into laughter and asked, "Let me think again. What else do you owe me?"

Wu Mei quickly pulled herself out of her shocked state of mind and said furiously, "You are the person who made the anonymous report."

"Didn't you want fairness? You wanted to inject me with drugs. Should I return the favor?"

She studied Mo Li. "Don't tell me you've already injected it?"

Mo Li raised her intact hand and slapped Wu Mei hard.

Wu Mei tilted her head and dodged Mo Li's slap. At the same time, she heard gunshots.

Mo Li's hand was hit.

Mo Li shrieked in pain and frantically covered her wound with her injured hand, appearing extremely pathetic.

"Mei'er!" Mother Wu shouted. She thought that Wu Mei had been shot and fainted from shock.

Wu Mei was anxious. Who shot her? This was not the plan she had discussed with Li Nanchen.

She had no choice but to take this opportunity to pull a dagger out of her boot and slit the necks of two people in succession. She snatched a gun and aimed it at Mo Li.

A gunshot was heard.

The bodyguard behind Mo Li stood in front of her to shield her, and died from the bullet shot.

Pointing at Wu Mei, Mo Li yelled, "Hurry, kill her."

Chapter 300: Battle in the Wilderness

Wu Mei was afraid that these people would hurt the unconscious Mother Wu, so she could only draw all the firepower to herself. While dodging to the other side, she fired at Mo Li.

Mo Li jumped down from the wheelchair and staggered to find cover. She hid behind a foam wall not far away.

Wu Mei did not hold back at all. She aimed her gun at Mo Li and emptied the magazine. She was certain that Mo Li had been shot again.

Wu Mei was about to take out another gun when she realized that a knife was coming towards her. She nimbly dodged to the side but predicted that she was going to get hurt.

With the thought that even if she was injured, she would drag someone down with her, she saw that the knife-wielding killer was killed in a single shot.

Li Nanchen pulled her to an obstacle and said in a low voice, "Don't worry, the bodyguards and Bi Fang went to save Auntie."

Wu Mei's undulating heart instantly calmed down. She immediately kissed Li Nanchen's cheek and looked ahead. "Mo Li's hands are injured and her legs have been shot."

There was only one bodyguard left to protect Mo Li.

"Ben!" Li Nanchen suddenly said a name.

Wu Mei was stunned at first. Then, her face fell. She was extremely angry in her heart. She spat fiercely and said, "He's really shameless."

Her and Li Nanchen's plan was very simple. She would pretend to obey Mo Li and take cover after getting close to Mother Wu.

Li Nanchen had brought enough men to surround Mo Li and the rest.

Although the sudden shot had hit Mo Li's hand, it had also nearly killed her.

Turns out these are all Ben's instructions.

"Don't tell me it was Bai Xue who shot him?" Wu Mei smiled disdainfully.

Li Nanchen's answer was also within expectation, "It was Ben."

Wu Mei temporarily put aside her hatred for Ben and joined in the chaotic battle.

Ben and K appeared at the same time. They threw guns and enough bullets in Wu Mei and Li Nanchen's direction. Then, they quickly entered the forest.

Judging from K's figure, he didn't look like he had been seriously injured or hospitalized. If Bi Fang hadn't followed up with him the entire way, she would have thought that K had been faking it.

Wu Mei and Li Nanchen changed the magazine at the same time. Their target was every enemy present.

As for Mo Li... Let Ben and K handle her.

Wu Mei sensed that more than one person was running towards her from behind. She turned around, raised her gun and fired.

After they were shot, they couldn't move anymore.

There were quite a number of people, from both parties, who were lying in ambush .

Wu Mei lamented in her heart. She turned around and noticed someone dressed as an assassin. That person was bending down and stumbling towards the exit.

"It's Mo Li!" Wu Mei immediately recognized her.

No, it's Zhong Ling!

Wu Mei added in her heart and chased after her under Li Nanchen's protection.

Needless to say, Mo Li knew that she had been discovered. She kept turning around and firing, but not once did she hit Wu Mei.

She hid behind the obstacles for the time being and shouted at Wu Mei, "Wu Mei, it's useless even if you catch me. Do you know how many cancerous tumors there are?"

"Let me tell you, I know everything."

"Hahaha, if you can capture me alive, I'll tell you. How about it?"

Wu Mei moved stealthily. While Mo Li tried to distract her with words, she had already landed on an obstacle.

She fired the gun before Mo Li did, but it only hurt Mo Li's face.

Mo Li felt a sudden chill on her face and hollered at Wu Mei angrily, "Wu Mei, do you know how expensive this face is?"

"You still care about money?" Wu Mei sneered.

When she raised her gun and aimed it at Mo Li again, she heard Li Nanchen shouting behind her, "Get down!"

Wu Mei immediately jumped off the obstacle and lay on the ground. At the same time, she heard the sound of an explosion.

Did Mo Li plant a bomb here?

She still has so many resources in her hands?

Wu Mei realized that it had nothing to do with Mo Li. Instead, it was because Viper had appeared.

They wore the same uniform and their eyes were filled with bloodlust. They descended from the sky and raised their guns as they ran towards them.

Mo Li's face was covered in blood as she glared at Wu Mei viciously. However, she had no choice but to let herself be carried away.

"Let's go!" Li Nanchen said anxiously as he helped Wu Mei up.

Where should they go?

She was their target.

Wu Mei suddenly recalled what Ben had done to her. She planned in her mind and held Li Nanchen's hand. "Follow me."

Li Nanchen thought that Wu Mei had thought of a better plan. In the end, her plan was to run as fast as they could back to Ben's side.

When he thought about the incident in more detail, he was secretly annoyed. This was what Ben deserved.

He didn't care about Wu Mei's safety and recklessly made a move, almost killing her.

He wanted to take revenge as soon as possible.

Ben also spotted these killers and immediately shouted, "Gather, find cover."

Do they gather?

Or find cover first?

Wu Mei pulled Li Nanchen along a slope and quickly descended. They actually landed behind a bunker.

On the slope, sounds of battle could be heard.

It was safe at the bottom of the slope.

Li Nanchen did not dare to be careless. While protecting Wu Mei, he asked softly, "Are you hurt? Are you in pain?"

"I'm fine. What about you?" Wu Mei grabbed the back of Li Nanchen's hand and asked.

Li Nanchen sneered. "I threw a punch at Ben. It's not here that's injured."

Wu Mei let out a sigh of relief, but then anger appeared on her face. "One punch? He got off easy."

Suddenly, the sound of bombs exploding came from the slope, very close to where they were.
