

After Divorcing, She Shocked the World

- Chapter 301 – 328

Chapter 301: The Man in Camouflage Clothing

The explosions on the slope continued, causing the ground to shake.

Li Nanchen swiftly hugged Wu Mei tightly, afraid that she would be hurt.

He waited for the explosions to die down before letting go of Wu Mei.

“Are you alright?” Wu Mei immediately checked Li Nanchen’s condition. She was really worried that Li Nanchen would be injured.

Li Nanchen shook his head and pointed at his ear. Sullenly, he said, “It hurts.”

Wu Mei hurriedly wanted to check Li Nanchen’s ears, but she heard K shouting at them in a dissatisfied tone, “Wu Mei, chase after Mo Li.”

Li Nanchen swiftly grabbed Wu Mei’s hand. With a cold expression, he looked up at K whose face was covered in blood.

When he saw K in such a sorry state, the sarcastic words he wanted to utter got stuck in his mouth.

Impatiently, K raised his hand and wiped the blood off his face. He shouted angrily, “Wu Mei, you have your mission.”

“K, don’t forget, you...” Wu Mei held back Li Nanchen’s hand. He did not say anything else after that.

Wu Mei shook her head at him. There was no need for Li Nanchen to argue with K. She whispered into Li Nanchen’s ear, “Help me take care of Mom. I’ll go after Mo Li.”

Li Nanchen gripped Wu Mei’s wrist tightly, unwilling to let her do anything dangerous.

That was because the Viper Organization had taken action.

The appearance of the Viper Organization also meant that the mastermind behind it had an extraordinary relationship with Mo Li. It was possible that he would fight them to the death to protect Mo Li.

“This is my mission.” Wu Mei pushed Li Nanchen’s hand away.

“Trust me!”

Li Nanchen didn’t have a better solution. He could only weakly let go of Wu Mei’s hand. He watched as Wu Mei climbed up the slope, took the gun from K, and ran forward with him.

When Li Nanchen saw this scene, his eyes reddened with anger. Helpless, he could only look for Mother Wu.

Mother Wu should have been rescued by Bi Fang, but it was also possible that she had encountered danger along the way.

Only by saving Mother Wu would Wu Mei be able to deal with the enemy in peace.

The men from both sides gathered on both sides of the sandbags. They each found cover and attacked each other mercilessly.

Wu Mei noticed one of the burly Westerners who was dressed in camouflage clothing and carrying a gun in one hand. With his other hand, he supported his companion and appeared to be giving orders.

She quickly stood up and prepared to bypass the obstacles to ambush the burly man.

Ben immediately turned to Wu Mei and shouted, “What are you going to do? Listen to my orders.”

“Orders? Are you planning to spare the members of Viper’s organization? He could be the leader.” She raised an eyebrow at Ben, her gaze cold.

Not only Ben but even K was stunned when he heard Wu Mei’s words.

K asked bluntly, “How did you know?”

He seemed to be asking why Wu Mei knew so much about Viper’s internal affairs.

Wu Mei rolled her eyes impatiently and replied stiffly, “I don’t know.”

She turned to Ben and said in a low voice, “Don’t tell me that we can only handle each mission in a conservative manner and not take the initiative?”

Of course not.

They should not be falling into a passive state.

“You don’t need to mobilize any more people, I can go by myself!” Raising the gun in her hand, her gaze once again landed on the burly Westerner. She stared fixedly at him, unwilling to turn away.

When exactly does Ben plan to hesitate until?

Wu Mei had never known that Ben was a person who was hesitant in doing things and lacked decisiveness. His target was standing behind an obstacle and could escape at any time, but he didn’t dare to take another step.

The opportunity couldn’t be missed.

With the intention of making a mistake, Wu Mei went around the obstacle alone and injured the burly man first.

As for the possible punishments in the future?

She didn’t care.

When Wu Mei looked at Ben, disappointment flashed across her eyes. She quickly turned her head and prepared to go past him.

It was precisely because of Wu Mei’s gaze that Ben felt like he had fallen into an icy cold environment at this critical juncture.

Wu Mei’s gaze was too much like M’s.

Ben gritted his teeth and started running faster than Wu Mei. Bending down at the back of the obstacle, he swiftly ran over.

His movements were agile, and there was no longer any hesitation.

Wu Mei also gripped her gun tightly and chased after Ben.

“What are you guys going to do?” K was shocked by them, but he did not dare to shout too loudly for fear of alarming the Viper members.

By the time Ben realized that Wu Mei was running with him, it was already too late.

He said angrily, “I’m your Mentor. You must remember to follow behind me. You can’t advance recklessly.”

Wu Mei’s gaze never left the burly man. Suddenly, her eyes widened and she said, “It’s Mo Li. Mo Li is back.”

Injured, Mo Li grabbed the burly man’s hand, wanting to take him away with her.

Clearly, the burly man wanted to stay behind to protect Mo Li and let her retreat safely.

They really were a pair of lovers.

When Wu Mei saw this, she felt that it was ridiculous. She raised the gun in her hand again and aimed it at the man.

Ben did the same.

He quickly reacted and aimed his gun at the burly man instead of Mo Li.

When Wu Mei sensed what Ben was thinking, she did not intend to stop him at all. She felt that the man who was with Mo Li had a special status and could not be let off.

They fired at the same time, and hit the target simultaneously

Chapter 302: Wrapping Up

“Carl!” Mo Li shrieked in terror.

Carl’s pupils dilated in shock. He lowered his head and clutched his chest where the bullet had struck, before collapsing into Mo Li’s arms.

Mo Li looked up in the direction of Wu Mei and Ben and hollered angrily.

The members of the organization who were responsible for protecting them immediately raised their guns and ran towards them.

Without any hesitation, Wu Mei raised her gun and fired several more shots at them until she was out of bullets and Ben dragged her back.

They ran behind K and loaded their guns while seeking protection.

Ben reprimanded Wu Mei angrily, “Are you crazy? Why did you have to shoot all the bullets?”

Wu Mei raised her head abruptly and sneered., “Because they’ll definitely protect Mo Li and that man called Carl. They won’t chase after us.”

Her attitude was that she would deal with whoever she could.

Ben couldn't bring himself to object. He could only seize the opportunity and prepare for another attack.

But this time, it was too late.

Several members of the Viper Organization carrying green backpacks quickly ran towards them.

They had no fear, as if they were doing an honorable and difficult task.

Wu Mei had a bad feeling when she saw this. She instinctively grabbed Ben's wrist. "Ben, they're carrying explosives."

"What?" Ben immediately saw one of them throw his backpack in their direction.

The explosives exploded and a loud boom rang out, nearly deafening them.

His reaction was too slow. From hearing Wu Mei's speculation to seeing the backpack explode, he wasn't even able to make a timely judgment, let alone order a retreat.

In the end, K acted in time and pressed him down behind the obstacle, thereby saving his life.

Wu Mei was lying at the back of the obstacle. When she saw Ben's sorry state, a sense of dismay emerged in her heart. She suddenly felt that the disciple she personally taught was becoming worse and worse.

K immediately shouted, "Retreat, find a safe place for yourself."

Wu Mei was the first to run to the other side. She fired and shot one of the men who was about to shake off his pack.

Seeing this, K also threw Ben aside and went around to the other side. Like Wu Mei, he fired with clear aim.

Ben was the only one who struggled to get up. Listening to the continuous gunshots, he was rather irritated.

He was actually saved by K, it was too embarrassing.

After Ben issued the delayed order, other than those shooters with great aim, the rest of the team retreated to a safe place. Bypassing the obstacles, they pursued Mo Li and the man called Carl.

The others planned to kill the bomb-carrying members within their control.

The explosives also exploded.

That was until a helicopter suddenly flew up from the ground and flew in the opposite direction.

Wu Mei immediately guessed that Mo Li must have escaped on a plane.

She instinctively took two steps forward, feeling especially anxious.

Didn't Ben arrange for his men to chase after Mo Li and Carl? Why are they still able to escape?

Wu Mei was also so angry that she was almost dazed.

Their team members avoided the explosives and were stopped by the members of the Viper Organization. By the time they chased after them, they could no longer catch up.

Another gunshot.

Wu Mei instinctively wanted to hide, but she saw that it was a member of the Viper Organization that had been killed by Ben.

It was time for them to fight back.

Wu Mei turned all her anger into motivation and carried out the wrap up.

At the same time, she also realized that both Ben and K didn't intend to leave any survivors behind. She and the other team members had tried to stop them several times but were all rejected. This made her think a lot about it.

It was over.

Wu Mei walked up to Ben and said in a low voice, "Ben, I'm going to see my mother."

Ben's brows were knitted together as he said hesitantly, "You can't leave alone in this situation."

Can't I?

Wu Mei seemed to have heard a joke as she asked calmly, "Ben, am I not allowed to visit my mother?"

Ben was startled by the question. He looked at Wu Mei in astonishment, then looked at the other teammates around him. He deliberated and said, "Go ahead, wait for my news."

"You might need to provide the relevant report details."

Wu Mei understood what was going on. After all, she was being supervised. It was considered a violation for her to come here alone to save her mother.

She raised her eyebrows and answered with a smile, "Alright, I'll take my leave then."

She really left!

Ben stared fixedly at Wu Mei's back. He felt somewhat uncomfortable, but he was distracted by the rest of the situation and temporarily set Wu Mei's matter aside.

This time, they had really made a huge contribution with their attack against the Viper Organization.

Wu Mei threw the gun with the empty magazine aside and stumbled outside. All of a sudden, she heard someone calling her name.

She lifted her head and saw Li Nanchen running towards her.

"I'm back." She opened her arms and hugged Li Nanchen tightly, letting out a long sigh of relief.

Li Nanchen stroked her hair and said hoarsely, "Auntie is still waiting for us. Let's go first."

Wu Mei nodded her head vigorously and said, "Okay." However, she felt a pair of vicious and resentful eyes land on her.

She turned her head and saw that it was Feng Yue.

Feng Yue always brought her personal emotions to work and behaved in a completely unprofessional manner.. If someone like her stayed in the team, she would only be a greater disaster.

Chapter 303: Successful Escape

Wu Mei was in a particularly good mood and couldn't be bothered with Feng Yue. She leaned into Li Nanchen's embrace and sat in the car that had come to pick them up. They then drove off.

In the hospital, Wu Mei met Mother Wu.

Mother Wu clutched Wu Mei's hand tightly. Recalling what had happened, a wave of fear washed over her.

She has implicated Wu Mei more than once. Is she going to do the same in the future?

Wu Mei comforted Mother Wu and said with a smile, "Mom, my clothes are just dirty. I'm fine."

Mother Wu stared fixedly at Wu Mei. She really wanted to take a good look at her, but she still let go of Wu Mei's hand. She turned to Li Nanchen and said, "Nanchen, accompany Wu Mei for a checkup first. I have a nurse by my side. I'll be fine."

"Okay!" Li Nanchen had been itching to do just that for a while now. However, because Mother Wu was present, he could not bring Wu Mei for a checkup.

Li Nanchen led Wu Mei out of the ward and she underwent a series of examinations. After confirming that they were all superficial wounds, Li Nanchen finally relaxed.

Wu Mei suddenly cupped Li Nanchen's face and kissed the tip of his nose heavily. She narrowed her eyes and said in a slightly hoarse voice, "Look, the doctor said that they're just superficial wounds. There won't be any problem if I take good care of it. Don't worry. We'll head home in a while."

When Li Nanchen heard the word "home", his heart instinctively fluttered. He immediately held her hands and sat beside her. He then switched to hugging her shoulders and said softly, "Okay, let's go home."

Wu Mei leaned against Li Nanchen's chest. She was so tired that she could barely keep her eyes open.

Bi Fang passed Mother Wu's medical report to them and sat opposite them. He shrugged his shoulders and said, "Don't worry, everything is fine."

He yawned and squeezed out a few tears. "Everyone's tired today. I've decided to stay in the hospital."

"Thank you," Wu Mei thanked him sincerely.

Looking at the rarely-seen fragile and gentle Wu Mei, Bi Fang let out a sigh. "I hope Auntie... can be safe in the future."

He wanted to say that Mother Wu was used as a tool to plot against Wu Mei. He hoped that Mother Wu would be more guarded and not trust others so easily.

However, he didn't want to spoil the mood now.

Wu Mei perked up and went to visit Mother Wu with Li Nanchen. They only left the hospital after they bid her goodbye.

Along the way back to the Li Family villa, she kept thinking about Mo Li.

Mo Li's injuries should not be light. She won't be causing any more trouble in the near future, right?

"What are you thinking about?" Li Nanchen felt that Wu Mei was distracted and shook her hand unhappily.

Even though he was sitting next to her, he couldn't attract her attention. He was extremely downcast.

Wu Mei narrowed her eyes and muttered under her breath, "Of course I'm concerned about Mo Li. I really want to know where she has gone."

Li Nanchen pinched her chin and forced her to look at him. He asked gloomily, "What are you talking about? Are you neglecting me because you're worrying about a woman?"

Wu Mei hugged Li Nanchen's shoulders and kissed him hard. She smiled sweetly. "How can that be? You're the most important."

However, she still had to continue the mission to capture Mo Li.

Ben arranged for men to track Mo Li's helicopter and found it parked in a private clubhouse in Lin City. He then immediately sent someone to investigate.

By the time they arrived, it was already too late.

There was no one in the plane. The interior had been cleaned and disinfected, so there were no clues left.

They then sent someone to monitor the situation and saw that Mo Li and her team had gotten into disguise and walked out of the clubhouse. They only disappeared after they entered a gas station.

Ben was so angry that he was shaking all over. He could only let his team members work on the only clue they had and try their best to track down Mo Li and the Viper Organization.

Other than that, there was nothing he could do.

In actuality, Mo Li was within their search range.

Mo Li followed the members of the Viper Organization and arrived at a villa that had been arranged in advance. The doctor who had been prepared performed the surgery on the seriously injured Carl.

She clearly knew that Carl might not be able to hold on any longer, but she still stood outside trembling. She had to wait until Carl was pushed out again.

“Ms Zhong Ling.” A servant brought a glass of water over, but Mo Li flung it onto the ground.

With a sullen expression on her face, Mo Li said coldly, “I told you, there’s no Zhong Ling in this world.”

Zhong Ling was long dead.

Now there was only Mo Li. Mo Li who belonged to Carl.

Mo Li hugged herself tightly, ignoring the members’ persuasion and refusing to treat her wounds.

Until the doctor walked out of the bedroom and shook his head at them.

The corridor was dead silent.

Mo Li jumped up all of a sudden and yelled, “No!” Ignoring the wound on her leg, she dashed into the bedroom.

Carl lay quietly on the big bed covered in blood. His eyes were closed as if he had fallen asleep.

Mo Li hugged Carl tightly and murmured, “Hurry and wake up. We still have a lot to do.”

“You said before that you would stay with me. You can’t leave me behind.”

Carl would never open his eyes again.

Stroking Carl’s face, Mo Li suddenly shouted, “Wu Mei, I won’t let you off. I’ll definitely make you pay.”

“I will return all the bullets you shot at Carl today.”

“I’ll be back.”

Chapter 304: Unprofessional Team Member

Wu Mei was officially unsuspending.

She needed to write a reflection report and wait for approval before she might be assigned a new mission. Until then, she was still in a state of suspension.

Wu Mei knew that she wouldn't be able to change their decision and request to be assigned, and she also knew that her injuries weren't light and that she needed to recuperate.

She could make use of this opportunity to find out where Mo Li and the rest had gone. Compared to Ben, who always couldn't find them, she had a better chance of succeeding.

Ben looked at Wu Mei, who had been keeping her head down. He thought she was in a bad mood because of the reprimand, so he consoled her patiently, which was rare for him. "You made a contribution this time, and it was recognized by the organization. Although you made a mistake in the process, your contribution made up for it. This outcome is already considered quite good."

What is he saying?

Wu Mei looked at Ben belatedly and realized that he was talking to her about the outcome of the reward and punishment. She suddenly felt that it was especially ridiculous.

Would she care about the merits this time?

What she really cared about was Mother Wu's safety and Mo Li's whereabouts.

Most importantly, it was to find out...

Wu Mei took a deep breath and said perfunctorily, "I understand. I will wait at ease."

"It's good that you know!" Ben nodded in satisfaction. He turned around and saw Bai Xue walking towards them, together with Feng Yue, Qi Feng, and the others behind her.

Their expressions were very grave, as if they had encountered something major, making Ben cautious.

"I'll report it to the higher-ups." Bai Xue's first words to Ben surprised even Ume.

Report what?

Hearing Bai Xue's words, Wu Mei had an ominous feeling. This was verified when Feng Yue spoke.

Feng Yue gritted her teeth and said, "Ben, in order to save her mother, Wu Mei put her personal feelings in the mix. She was rash and impulsive during the entire operation. She shouldn't be let off just like that."

"No matter what, I must seek justice for those injured members."

Wu Mei felt like she had just heard a joke.

Seek justice.

There is no justice in their mission, only victory.

Where does Feng Yue get the confidence to think that she can make this decision?

Wu Mei instinctively took a step forward. When she wanted to retaliate, Ben raised his hand and blocked her.

Is Ben protecting Wu Mei?

What's so good about Wu Mei? Why is Ben taking such good care of her?

Ben ignored Bai Xue's gaze and looked coldly at Feng Yue. He called out, "Feng Yue."

Feng Yue stared at Ben in a daze. She didn't react as Ben called her name.

"Feng Yue!" Bai Xue shouted angrily at Feng Yue.

Feng Yue still did not understand what was going on, but when she realized that everyone's gaze was on her, she instantly turned red in frustration, but she did not know what she had done wrong.

Ben turned his gaze to Bai Xue and said sternly, "I hope you can teach your team members well. In the future, they shouldn't involve their personal feelings when they talk or do things."

How could he not notice the hidden turbulence between the women?

He just didn't want to get involved, but if they came to cause trouble for Wu Mei, it would be the same as finding trouble for him, who was her mentor.

He had to teach them a lesson.

“If she ever says something so unprofessional again, I don’t mind asking the higher-ups to set up a course on moral ethics.” Ben’s voice was loud enough for everyone in the hall to hear.

All of their expressions could be said to be very interesting, especially Wu Mei.

Wu Mei couldn’t imagine how ridiculous it would feel to have to attend classes every day while they were on a mission.

Feng Yue’s eyes turned red. She looked at Bai Xue anxiously, but Bai Xue said pitifully, “We’re just following the rules.”

“Then you’d better always be in the future,” Ben said, not intending to continue this confrontation with Bai Xue and her men.

There was no need.

It was a waste of time.

Ben suddenly raised his voice and called out, “Wu Mei.”

Wu Mei was analyzing the relationship between Ben and Bai Xue when she saw what happened.

She didn’t care about Feng Yue, but she had to be wary of Bai Xue.

Bai Xue has Ben in her heart.

What about Ben?

How will he handle this relationship?

While Wu Mei was thinking, she heard Ben calling her name and immediately shouted, “Here!”

Ben nodded. “Let’s go,” he said coldly.

Wu Mei trailed after Ben. She looked at Feng Yue mockingly and strode after Ben.

Feng Yue finally knew what reaction she should have had when Ben called her name. Instead, her face had been full of confusion, and she seemed to have lost her discipline, becoming a joke.

Bai Xue was annoyed as well. She merely said, "Keep your spirits up from now on. Our only chance of winning is to do better than them."

What she means is to do better than Wu Mei, right?

Bai Xue had long treated Wu Mei as an imaginary enemy.

She looked at Feng Yue, who was on the verge of tears. Frowning, she said, "Why are you still standing here? Go and protect Li Nanchen."

Only then did Feng Yue pull herself together. The gloominess in her heart was swept away. She turned around and left quickly.

She didn't want to stay on. It was too embarrassing.

Bai Xue was extremely annoyed. She walked forward in silence, but she had given up on the idea of telling on Wu Mei again. She only thought about how she could have a chance to work with Ben.

This time, the contribution was due to Ben and K's collaboration.

What about her?

Why hadn't Ben informed her?

Chapter 305: You Have to Treat Your Brain

Feng Yue rushed back to the Li Corporation. She had to seize any opportunity to interact with Li Nanchen.

When she hurried out of the main door, she saw Wu Mei alone.

She did not see Ben, nor did she see anyone who would protect Wu Mei.

Feng Yue felt a wave of malice wash over her.

Li Nanchen was really good to Wu Mei.

The Li Family would arrange for bodyguards for Wu Mei, chauffeur her around and take care of her.

Everything made her jealous.

In Feng Yue's eyes, everything that Wu Mei possessed was so easy to obtain. She could do it as well.

Because with her ability and appearance, she could definitely surpass Wu Mei, his ex-wife.

Feng Yue was dreaming, but reality was cruel.

As she turned around and strode towards Wu Mei, two men wearing sunglasses walked towards her and successfully blocked her way.

Feng Yue was startled and quickly frowned. She looked at the rude men angrily and asked unhappily, "What are you doing?"

One of the men in a suit looked at Feng Yue in confusion. His attention was all on Wu Mei, so he didn't notice the woman who had suddenly appeared.

He politely apologized, so Feng Yue ended up not being able to lose her temper.

This would only make Feng Yue seem rude.

Wu Mei also heard Feng Yue's voice and turned slightly. She smiled and said, "You're going to the Li family too?"

Feng Yue replied with a cold face, "I have a mission."

You're going too?

Is Wu Mei also returning to the Li Family house?

How annoying.

Feng Yue really wanted to control her expression, not wanting Wu Mei to see through her thoughts. Yet, she couldn't control her facial muscles better, so she ended up looking ridiculous and sinister.

It was pretty scary.

Wu Mei smiled indifferently, "In that case, do your job well. I'm going to visit my mother."

Feng Yue was elated. When she was almost certain that Wu Mei would not return to the Li family, Wu Mei had already followed the two men to the car parked opposite the road.

Wu Mei felt that Feng Yue was extremely funny. It was as if she could change her expression at any moment. Her facial expression kept changing along with her real feelings.

She was going to the hospital to visit her mother, but there was someone accompanying her.

That person was Li Nanchen.

Just as Wu Mei was about to open the car door, Li Nanchen came out from the other side.

“What’s wrong?” Wu Mei asked in surprise.

Li Nanchen walked up to Wu Mei and neatened her slightly messy hair. He could not help but kiss her forehead.

Wu Mei giggled and hugged Li Nanchen’s waist. She smiled coyly and asked, “You can’t even hold it in for a while?”

“I can’t.” Li Nanchen glanced at the bodyguards, signaling for them to get into the car first.

Wu Mei still did not quite understand. She looked up at him and guessed, “Did something interesting happen that needs President Li to handle personally?”

Could it be that Li Nanchen didn’t specially come to pick her up?

“It’s just a declaration of sovereignty,” Li Nanchen said seriously.

Wu Mei was confused by Li Nanchen’s words and didn’t quite understand what he was saying. When she tilted her head and wanted to clarify, she hugged her waist and kissed her on the lips.

Here?

Li Nanchen can’t wait any longer?

Wu Mei instinctively wanted to dodge, but Li Nanchen held her tightly in his arms so that she could not move away at all.

She did not continue evading and took the initiative to wrap her arms around Li Nanchen’s neck.

After this kiss, she gently rubbed her lips against Li Nanchen’s and asked curiously, “What’s wrong? I’m too curious.”

Li Nanchen still did not explain. As he held her slender waist and allowed her to get into the car, he raised his head to look at the displeased K who was holding a cup of coffee.

Is he doing all this for K to see?

Is he jealous of K?

K watched everything in confusion. When the car drove away, he was still confused.

Li Nanchen is really an open-minded man.

In the middle of the road, he hugged Wu Mei and kissed her passionately. As a bystander, he really couldn't take it.

As for whether the others could take it, he really couldn't guess.

Amongst the people who saw this scene, there was also Feng Yue.

Feng Yue was tugging at her sleeves and looked like she was about to rip them apart.

When K walked over expressionlessly, Feng Yue slowly came back to her senses.

He did not look at Feng Yue. Just as he was about to enter, Feng Yue suddenly said, "K, aren't you angry?"

K halted in his tracks. There was a hint of confusion in his eyes, as he did not understand why he needed to be angry.

Feng Yue gritted her teeth and said impolitely, "Wu Mei... They are making out in front of you. You must be very angry."

"Wu Mei went too far."

K was even more confused now. "Do you think I should be angry?"

Feng Yue paused for a moment before she changed her tone and said in a low voice, "I know your relationship with Wu Mei. Wu Mei is ignoring your feelings by doing this."

K finally understood what Feng Yue was thinking and found it ridiculous.

K sighed and looked at Feng Yue seriously, before commenting. "You're Bai Xue's team member, right? I hope you can go see a doctor and get this treated."

He pointed at his head as he said that. He sneered, "Do you think everyone is like you? Nonsense."

Watching K leave, Feng Yue suddenly understood what K meant.

She thought that she had found out the real relationship between K and Wu Mei and seeing how close Wu Mei and Li Nanchen were made her dizzy from anger. That was why she provoked K.

She wanted to borrow K's hand to deal with Wu Mei.

Turns out she made a mistake?

Chapter 306: Carrying Her Home

Mother Wu's condition was very good. She just needed to be observed in the hospital for a period of time.

The hospital was really too stuffy.

Wu Mei didn't think it was necessary. She could hire a good caretaker to accompany Mother Wu.

However, Mother Wu listened to the doctor's advice and decided to stay in the hospital to recuperate.

Wu Mei couldn't persuade Mother Wu and respected her wishes.

On the way home with Li Nanchen, she felt extremely puzzled.

Mother Wu did not like hospitals.

Back then, she would feel extremely uncomfortable if she stayed in the hospital for even two more days. She would want to go back to her own place but this time, she took the initiative to stay for observation.

It was too strange.

Could Bi Fang have said something to Mother Wu?

Seeing that Wu Mei was frowning in deep thought, Li Nanchen coaxed her, "Auntie might have thought it through and thought that she should stay in the hospital and listen to the doctor's arrangements so that she can truly recover."

In the past, Mother Wu did not like to stay in the hospital and would never remember the doctor's instructions. Her health had always been poor.

This kidnapping incident would probably make Mother Wu think things through.

Wu Mei reluctantly accepted Li Nanchen's explanation and leaned into his embrace. She closed her eyes and languidly said, "I can't accept any missions for now. I'm still suspended."

Once she was suspended, she could no longer follow up on M's incident.

"I think I might be able to find clues about Mo Li faster." Wu Mei asked Li Nanchen, "Do you think I will find her first, or Ben?"

Li Nanchen replied without hesitation, "Of course it's you."

Wu Mei swiftly sat in his lap and tilted her head to size up Li Nanchen. She smiled and asked, "Why?"

Everyone liked being coaxed, and Wu Mei was no exception.

When she heard Li Nanchen's reply, her heart was already filled with sweet bubbles, but she still wanted to hear Li Nanchen elaborate.

Li Nanchen pressed Wu Mei down and pulled her back into his embrace. He said calmly, "Because Ben is too conservative. Between making a contribution and making a mistake, he chose not to do anything."

Wu Mei suddenly froze. This was her evaluation as well.

Ben was no longer as driven as he used to be. Instead, he had learned to weigh the pros and cons. He was hesitant and uncertain when doing things.

Regardless of whether Ben was the person who killed her, she was already disappointed in him.

"You're different. In the face of your strength and persistence, you'll do better than Ben." Li Nanchen trusted Wu Mei wholeheartedly.

Wu Mei's heart was not only filled with sweetness, but also warmth.

It was great to have Li Nanchen by her side.

"Go to sleep. I'll wake you up when we get home," Li Nanchen comforted Wu Mei.

Wu Mei really fell asleep in Li Nanchen's arms.

The car arrived at the Li Family residence.

After the car door opened, Li Nanchen carefully alighted and carried Wu Mei into the villa.

Wu Mei felt the motion and opened her eyes groggily. "Are we home?"

"Yes, go to sleep," Li Nanchen assured Wu Mei.

Wu Mei did not stand on ceremony. She smiled and opened her arms to hug Li Nanchen's neck. She found a comfortable position and fell asleep again.

When Li Nanchen carried Wu Mei into the house, Wu Mei saw Feng Yue walking out to welcome Li Nanchen. Her expression darkened.

Feng Yue completely ignored the beauty in Li Nanchen's arms and only smiled at Li Nanchen. "Mr Li, I..."

"Quiet." Li Nanchen coldly spat out a word.

Feng Yue's face was slightly pale as she watched Li Nanchen carry Wu Mei and walk past her. She was trembling with anger.

The Li family's servants were even less likely to pay attention to Feng Yue. After cleaning up in a hurry, they left Feng Yue alone at the entrance.

"Young Master carried Young Madam home and she actually blocked their way. This is too ridiculous."

"There are always women who want to reach the top in a single step. Doesn't she know where she is? This is the Li Family."

Feng Yue regained her senses and wanted to go to the kitchen to get a glass of water when she heard the servants whispering.

They were all looking down on her.

They all believed that Wu Mei was the only Madam Li.

Feng Yue was about to yell at them when the butler walked into the kitchen.

"Ms Feng, what's the matter?" The butler's attitude was gentle but distant.

Feng Yue took a deep breath and suppressed her anger, but her voice was still very loud when she spoke. "Uncle Butler, your Li Family's servants really like to whisper behind people's backs."

The servants retreated awkwardly to one side when they were discovered.

The butler maintained his smile. “Ms Feng, don’t worry. I will punish them according to the contract.”

Feng Yue’s eyes were filled with glee. She seemed to have done something that matched her status as the mistress of the house.

However, she did not know that the contract did not restrict the freedom of speech of the servants.

The butler changed the topic and said impolitely, “But Ms Feng, please respect the Li Family’s living habits. Don’t speak too loudly and be polite.”

Feng Yue’s voice was too loud just now.

It was inappropriate for her to eavesdrop on others.

Feng Yue’s expression changed again and again. In the end, she glared at the butler angrily and turned to leave.

The butler’s expression did not change. He said to the servants, “You guys have to be more careful in the future. Don’t let outsiders catch your mistake.”

In their eyes, Feng Yue was someone they needed to be wary of.

The butler instructed, “Prepare some tea and snacks.. I want to send them to the study room.”

The servants did not dare to ask further. They immediately prepared tea and snacks and handed them over to the butler to send to the study room.

The butler knocked on the door and entered. He saw Old Master Li and Li Nanchen.

They sat facing each other without saying a word.

The atmosphere was uncomfortable.

The butler’s intention was to stand by the side and serve them at any time, but Old Master Li touched his walking stick before slowly raising his head to look at him.

He was also embarrassed and smiled at Old Master Li. “Old Master, please speak.”

Old Master Li pointed at the door of the study and said faintly, "Go and stand guard."

Don't let anyone in.

The butler hurriedly responded. He lowered his head and quickly walked out of the study room. He gently closed the door and guarded it firmly.

He hoped that this pair of grandfather and grandson would not quarrel.

They were alone in the study again.

Old Master Li then looked at Li Nanchen with a cold gaze. "Tell me, what happened?"

Li Nanchen and Wu Mei returned in a sorry state. Although they were already very careful and tried not to make too much noise, they still alerted Old Master Li.

Because of Wu Mei, Old Master Li did not question them on the spot, but he still needed an explanation.

Li Nanchen was already prepared.

When he was called to the study, he had already thought of a way to deal with Old Master Li.

He picked up his tea and sighed. "There are drug dealers in the Wu Corporation and they have guns in their hands. They made use of Auntie to threaten Wu Mei."

Furious, Old Master Li straightened his back and said, "They are really bold."

Li Nanchen agreed with him, "Exactly. Wu Mei called the police and we pretended to accede to them to save Auntie."

"Grandpa, you also know that drug dealers are people who don't care about their lives. After discovering that there were police officers, they chased after Mei'er and me."

"But we ran so fast that they couldn't catch up. Instead, they fell into the police's trap."

Old Master Li held his walking stick tightly and snorted. He asked in disbelief, "Is it that simple?"

Li Nanchen was just taking a sip of tea when he heard Old Master Li's question. He choked on his tea and tears almost came out.

He took a deep breath and looked up. "Grandfather, how can this be simple? The other party had guns. Even if we had the police's protection, our lives were in danger."

“It’s just that our preparations were meticulous, so they didn’t succeed.”

Old Master Li sized Li Nanchen up and forced himself to believe Li Nanchen’s words. In the end, he only said angrily, “Next time, no, there won’t be a next time.”

Li Nanchen repeatedly said “yes” and promised to be extra careful in the future.

When Old Master Li heaved a sigh of relief, he thought of Mother Wu and shook his head. “This child was very decisive when she was young. How did she become like this?”

That’s right!

Why?!

As long as Mother Wu was a little cautious, she would not have implicated Wu Mei to this extent.

Li Nanchen smiled warmly and tried to coax Old Master Li, “Grandpa, don’t worry. Mei’er and I can protect you and Auntie.”

Needless to say, Old Master Li was very happy, but he still tried his best to control his expression. Maintaining a serious expression, he deliberately said disdainfully, “This old man doesn’t have any other abilities, but I can still protect myself. I don’t need your protection.”

When Li Nanchen put down his teacup, a vicious glint flashed across his eyes.

Self-protection?

He still remembered how Lin Ligu had schemed against the Li Family and how he had made all sorts of unreasonable requests to him.

If not for his grandfather’s safety and health, he would have found a way to get rid of Lin Ligu and Lin Piaopiao.

Old Master Li leaned against the sofa tiredly. He squinted his eyes and sighed. “Alright, I’ll go out first. You...”

The butler’s voice came from the door.

The butler seemed to be stopping someone who wanted to barge into the study.

Li Nanchen narrowed his eyes and glared coldly at the door of the study.

Old Master Li's expression was not great either. However, he had already discussed things with Li Nanchen, so he could go and see who was looking for trouble.

He raised his voice and shouted, "Let him in."

There was a short silence at the door.

The door to the study was opened and Lin Liguó walked in.

After the last time Lin Piaopiao found an excuse to stay in the Li Family, Lin Liguó became much quieter.

Lin Liguó was anxious. After greeting Old Master Li, he turned to Li Nanchen. "President Li, where's Piaopiao?"

Li Nanchen raised his brows and looked disdainfully at Lin Liguó. He replied lightly, "Lin Piaopiao? Does Dr Lin not know where she is?"

This was also very strange!

Ever since Lin Piaopiao moved into the Li Family villa, she had never been content. However, she had been unusually quiet these past two days.

Had the servant not been sending all three meals a day into Lin Piaopiao's room, he would have thought that she had left on her own.

Lin Liguó lowered his voice and said through gritted teeth, "President Lii, don't make things difficult for me. If my daughter encounters danger in the Li family, I won't let you off."

"What are you talking about?" Old Master Li asked coldly.

Lin Liguó could not help but stiffen. He was used to using words to threaten Li Nanchen and had forgotten that Old Master Li was still sitting beside him.

He stammered, "I'm just too worried about my daughter."

Old Master Li looked at Lin Liguó with a hint of disgust in his eyes.. He asked in dissatisfaction, "If you're worried about her, why don't you ask the servants to bring you to see her? Instead, you came to my study room to kick up a fuss."

Chapter 308: Half a Bald Head

“Don’t tell me you think that as my attending physician, you can make a ruckus in the Li family?” Old Master Li’s words were becoming more and more impolite, causing Lin Liguó’s face to flush and turn pale alternately.

Lin Liguó lowered his head in embarrassment. “I missed that out.”

Li Nanchen raised his hand and casually pointed in a direction. “Dr Lin, you can ask my butler to bring you to the guest room where Lin Piaopiao is staying.”

The butler walked in and said politely to Lin Liguó, “Dr Lin, please.”

Lin Liguó didn’t dare to be too impudent in front of Old Master Li. He was really worried about Lin Piaopiao, so he hurried out of the study.

The study door closed again.

Li Nanchen slowly picked up his teacup, blew on the steam from the tea, and took a sip.

It was as if he did not care about what had just happened.

However, Old Master Li was looking at Li Nanchen. Recalling Lin Liguó’s attitude, he said tiredly, “Because of Lin Liguó, you’ve suffered.”

Suffered?

Was Lin Liguó worthy of making him suffer?

Li Nanchen smiled disdainfully and raised his hand to pour another cup of tea for Old Master Li. He did not take the matter of Lin Liguó to heart and started to persuade Old Master Li “Grandpa, your health is the most important. I also believe that with Dr Bi’s ability, he will definitely be able to treat you.”

One day, when Old Master Li no longer needed Lin Liguó, he would deal with Lin Liguó.

Old Master Li also said expectantly, “Bi Fang is a good child.”

Bi Fang happened to arrive at the Li Family villa. He met Wu Mei in the corridor and handed her Mother Wu’s report. “Junior Sister, take a look. How is it?”

Wu Mei flipped through the pages and revealed a satisfied expression. She nodded and said, “Mom can be discharged now. Thank you for your hard work.”

Bi Fang raised his eyebrows and said proudly, “Of course. If you hand Auntie over to me, I will definitely do a good job.”

When Lin Liguó saw this scene, his heart jumped for joy.

He remembered that Lin Piaopiao had once told him that Wu Mei and Doctor Bi Fang were very close. It was obvious that they had an unusual relationship.

If he could get hold of the evidence, he would be able to chase Wu Mei away.

Lin Ligu coughed heavily and said to Wu Mei, "Ms Wu, be mindful of your words and actions. You..."

Wu Mei did not even glance at Lin Ligu. She turned around with the report and asked the butler, "Where is Grandpa?"

"In the study room!" the butler replied.

Wu Mei walked in front while Bi Fang followed behind. They were going to meet Old Master Li.

Because Mother Wu really did not intend to disturb the Li family this time and wanted to return to her former home. Thus, she should personally let Old Master Li know about it.

Lin Ligu's face turned red from anger when he was ignored. He wished he could go up and scold Wu Mei.

But he didn't dare.

The butler reminded Lin Ligu in a low voice, "Dr Lin, do you not want to go and see Ms Lin anymore?"

"I want to see her, why wouldn't I?" Lin Ligu waved his hand and strode forward, only to discover something else.

Lin Piaopiao's guest room was the furthest from Li Nanchen's room.

They were obviously guarding against Lin Piaopiao.

This lass usually has some tricks up her sleeves. Why isn't she using them now?

Lin Ligu was secretly annoyed. The moment he walked into Lin Piaopiao's room, he was struck by a bowl.

Startled, he quickly took a few steps back and hastily said, "Piaopiao, it's me. Daddy is here to see you."

What's going on?

When Lin Piaopiao left home, she was still fine. In the blink of an eye, she became a little lunatic?

Lin Piaopiao sat by the bed with disheveled hair and hurled the bowl in her hand. However, when she heard Lin Liguó's voice, she immediately cried and said, "Dad, what took you so long?"

Lin Liguó's heart ached terribly. He walked over to Lin Piaopiao, wanting to see her.

Lin Piaopiao screamed in fear. She turned to the butler and shouted, "You, get out!"

The butler didn't react much to Lin Piaopiao's rudeness. He simply quietly closed the door and left.

Only the father and daughter were left in the room.

Lin Piaopiao raised her head, tidied her hair, and started crying under Lin Liguó's horrified gaze.

She grabbed Lin Liguó's hand and sobbed. "My hair, my hair is all gone. It's all gone."

When Lin Liguó saw the smooth scalp, he thought that his eyes were playing tricks on him.

He rubbed them vigorously and saw that it was still the same. He said in a hoarse voice, "Was it done by Wu Mei?"

Lin Piaopiao immediately nodded. "It's her. It must be her."

Lin Liguó rolled up his sleeves and said fiercely, "I'm going to find the Old Master. I want him to know the true colors of that brat Wu Mei."

Lin Piaopiao grabbed her father's hand in a panic and shook her head desperately. She cried and said, "You can't do that Dad, she knows that I did it. She will deal with me."

She still remembered the scary basement, the ruthless Li Nanchen, and Wu Mei, who seemed to live in the dark.

She did not want to go back.

Lin Liguó did not understand.

He grabbed Lin Piaopiao's hand and asked anxiously, "Tell me, what exactly happened?"

Lin Piaopiao's voice was hoarse as she tried to recount how Mo Li made her swap the shampoo for Wu Mei's hair and how Wu Mei seemed to have found out about the matter and swapped the shampoos back.

Chapter 309: I Want to Stay

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

“I’m really scared, Dad. I don’t dare look in the mirror every day. I have nightmares every day.”

Crying and hugging Lin Liguó, Lin Piaopiao shouted as if she was venting, “I’m so afraid. I’m afraid that Wu Mei will send me to the police station with the evidence. I’m also afraid that the Li Family will help her.”

“The Li Family members are all trying to harm me.”

Lin Liguó’s heart was also trembling, but he kept patting Lin Piaopiao’s back to comfort his flustered daughter.

He had threatened and bribed many people in the past and had even threatened Li Nanchen before. How could he be forced to give up with such a small blow?

That’s impossible.

Lin Liguó composed himself and coaxed Lin Piaopiao, “All the more you should stay on then.”

Lin Piaopiao raised her head abruptly and looked at Lin Liguó in shock. “Dad, Wu Mei will take my life.”

“In that case, you must take her life,” Lin Liguó said bluntly.

Lin Piaopiao immediately felt that Lin Liguó was too confident in her. She really couldn’t do it.

Lin Liguó continued to persuade her, “It’s just hair. What’s the big deal? Give me the shampoo and I’ll analyze it. I’ll definitely let your hair grow out again.”

That’s right!

Lin Piaopiao had only been focused on breaking down and going crazy. She had forgotten that her father was also an outstanding doctor.

If Lin Liguó did not have the ability, how could he be kept in the Li family and become Old Master Li’s attending physician?

“Daddy, you have to help me make my hair grow out again,” Lin Piaopiao said anxiously.

Lin Liguó immediately promised his daughter that he would solve her problem in the shortest time possible, but he also wanted Lin Piaopiao to stay in the Li family.

“You’ll only have a chance if you stay.”

Lin Piaopiao repeated her father’s words. “Yes, I will only have a chance if I stay.”

“I can’t leave the Li Family. I have to chase Wu Mei away.”

“That’s right. How can Lin Liguó’s daughter admit defeat?” Lin Liguó finally succeeded in persuading Lin Piaopiao.

Only by staying in the Li family would she have countless opportunities to get close to Li Nanchen.

With Wu Mei’s personality, would she accept Li Nanchen having sex with another woman?

No way.

Lin Piaopiao felt relieved. She hugged Lin Liguó and said coquettishly, “Dad, why did you only come to see me now? If you had come earlier, I wouldn’t have been so afraid.”

The prospect of her becoming the Young Madam of the Li family lessened her fear of Li Nanchen’s methods.

If she was married to Li Nanchen, in the future, she could secretly catch people she disliked and torment them, making them unable to leave.

Lin Liguó brought up the main point.

That bottle of shampoo.

He wanted to take the shampoo with him.

Lin Piaopiao immediately stood up and brought Lin Liguó into the bathroom, handing him the two bottles of shampoo.

Lin Liguó deliberately put on gloves before putting the shampoo into a bag. He lowered his voice and said, “There’s suddenly no news of Mo Li. When you’re free, contact her.”

“You’ve collected Wu Mei’s hair. She hasn’t given you the benefits she promised.”

“Is there no news from her?” Lin Piaopiao felt uneasy.

Lin Liguo nodded and said angrily, “This foreign woman suddenly disappeared, causing me to waste so much time.”

Everything was done.

Lin Liguo received a mysterious call and was about to leave the Li Family.

He looked at Lin Piaopiao and said worriedly, “Daughter, you have to keep your phone connected. Don’t lose contact again. Daddy will be worried.”

Lin Piaopiao promised, “I won’t. Not only will I not lose contact, I will also brace myself to deal with Wu Mei.”

“I’m going to stay and deal with Wu Mei.”

She became more confident and her goal became more obvious.

She wanted to stay and think of a way to get Li Nanchen and chase Wu Mei away.

When Lin Liguo walked out of the room, Lin Piaopiao only walked him to the door and did not dare to step out.

Her face could not be seen by others.

Lin Liguo’s heart ached. He took the shampoo and left in a hurry.

He met Wu Mei in the living room. Wu Mei was chatting with Bi Fang and did not greet him.

Lin Liguo grunted unhappily. He mumbled, “How rude,” and left in a hurry.

Bi Fang paid more attention to Lin Liguo than Wu Mei.

“What is he holding in his hand?” Bi Fang frowned and carefully observed the contents of the bag, but he could not see clearly.

He speculated, “It’s two bottles.”

Wu Mei sneered coldly and said, “It must be shampoo.”

Lin Liguo had his own laboratory. He should have a way to solve Lin Piaopiao’s predicament.

Bi Fang looked at Wu Mei in confusion and rubbed his ears. "What are you talking about?"

Wu Mei did not answer. She looked at Bi Fang and asked curiously, "You value Lin Ligu very much."

It was more than just paying attention.

Bi Fang would pay attention to Lin Ligu's every move and was very vigilant.

He leaned forward, lowered his voice, and said mysteriously, "Because I suspect that Old Master Li's relapse has a lot to do with him. It's not wrong to pay more attention."

What a coincidence!

Wu Mei thought so too.

She lowered her eyes and said mockingly, "He also thinks that Grandpa can't leave him. That's why he's so arrogant and smug."

"You're the only one who can get rid of this big hidden danger."

Bi Fang immediately assured Wu Mei, "Don't worry, Junior Sister. Leave Old Master Li and Auntie to me."

As soon as he finished speaking, he was pushed to the other side of the sofa by a strong force.. His eyes widened and were filled with shock.

Chapter 310: Good Affinity with the Opposite Sex

When Bi Fang saw who had pushed him away, he immediately jumped up in anger. "Li Nanchen, what do you mean by this?"

Li Nanchen sat behind Wu Mei and hugged his woman lightly. He looked at Bi Fang unhappily and said, "I should be the one asking you. What do you mean by this?"

"Shouldn't you have some self-awareness and keep your distance from my woman?"

Bi Fang glared angrily at Li Nanchen. Suddenly, he rolled up his sleeves as though he was about to start a fight. He said fiercely, "I'm going to ignore you guys. I'm going to have afternoon tea."

When the servants saw this scene, they could not help but laugh.

Wu Mei smiled and leaned into Li Nanchen's embrace. She raised her head and pinched Li Nanchen's chin, asking gently, "Is Grandpa still angry?"

"He's not angry anymore. He just wants to know what happened." Li Nanchen lowered his head and tried to bite Wu Mei's finger, but Wu Mei pushed him away.

Frustration flashed across his eyes, but when his gaze swept over the wound on Wu Mei's shoulder, his eyes dimmed.

Wu Mei had many external injuries and was not suited for strenuous exercise.

Wu Mei felt Li Nanchen's gaze lingering on her neck. Goosebumps appeared involuntarily. She quickly sat up straight and adjusted her collar.

Li Nanchen sighed in disappointment. His eyes stared blankly ahead as he grumbled about her heartlessness, "I'm also very pitiful. I gave so much, yet I have to sleep in another bedroom."

Wu Mei blushed and glared at him. "You're injured too."

She was afraid that if the two of them were together, they would not be able to control themselves. If they were injured again, it would be very serious.

Li Nanchen understood Wu Mei's concern.

Wu Mei was just sitting in his arms, but he couldn't help himself.

Bi Fang deliberately ate the pastries in huge mouthfuls and praised the maid's cooking skills, making Wu Mei laugh.

Li Nanchen's brows furrowed slightly as he looked at that brat grouchily.

There were two elders at home who needed Bi Fang, so he could only suppress his anger.

Wu Mei held Li Nanchen's hand and walked to the dining table with him.

The servants served them the stewed tonic. When they opened the lid of the casserole, the aroma immediately filled the entire dining room.

Bi Fang stared at the soup in Li Nanchen's and Wu Mei's bowls with his mouth agape. He then looked at the pastry in his hands and instantly felt that it was no longer fragrant.

It wasn't that the servants were biased, but that the Young Master and Young Madam needed to be taken care of.

While Wu Mei was drinking the soup, her gaze landed outside the window. She saw that Feng Yue was practicing her martial arts. Her figure was graceful and could easily attract the attention of men.

The person Feng Yue wanted to attract was definitely Li Nanchen.

Wu Mei pretended to sigh sadly. "Mr Li's affinity with the opposite sex is really good. There's Lin Piaopiao upstairs and Feng Yue downstairs."

Bi Fang could not help but spit out a mouthful of food. He quickly took out a piece of tissue and laughed until his face turned red.

Li Nanchen looked at the bowl of soup in front of him and was in a particularly bad mood.

He couldn't chase Feng Yue away, but why couldn't he chase Lin Piaopiao away either?

He had already shown Lin Piaopiao the greatest mercy by not killing her. However, Lin Ligu did not take Lin Piaopiao with him when he left.

Is Lin Piaopiao not afraid?

Lin Piaopiao had been successfully persuaded by Lin Ligu. How could she be afraid of Li Nanchen?

In her eyes, Li Nanchen was a fierce and charismatic man. If she wanted this man, she had to use extreme means.

She was prepared to ask Mo Li for a reward for collecting Wu Mei's hair.

She wanted a drug that could make Li Nanchen unable to control himself and could only be cured by sleeping with a woman.

As for Wu Mei... She could also have a taste of it.

Lin Piaopiao was filled with joy as she imagined the future ahead of her. However, no matter how hard she tried to call Mo Li, she only heard the dial tone of an empty number.

Just as Lin Ligu had said, Mo Li had gone missing.

“That’s impossible. Mo Li is so capable and wealthy. How can there be anything that she can’t handle?” Lin Piaopiao said with a frown, thinking that Mo Li was probably going back on her word and had intentionally blocked their numbers.

Facing the bathroom mirror, she gently wiped her slightly wet hair. When she looked at her smooth hair, she instinctively shivered.

It was too scary.

She was already starting to despise herself.

Lin Piaopiao retracted her gaze and tidied up her remaining hair before picking up her mobile phone to continue searching for news about Mo Li.

What she found out this time was more comprehensive.

Because it was all over the internet.

One of the investors of the Wu Corporation, Mo Li, had become a fugitive after breaking the law and was wanted nationwide.

There was a cash reward for anyone who could provide clues that were verified true.

The moment Lin Piaopiao saw the “reward”, she felt lost. She really wanted to know how much cash she would get, but she quickly regained her senses.

Mo Li was richer.

If Mo Li were to seek her help and was willing to pay more, she would do her best.

Lin Piaopiao was certain that she really could not find Mo Li and that the police had also lost their direction. Hence, she had no choice but to give up and think of other ways to deal with Wu Mei.

However, it would be more convenient with Mo Li’s help.

Mo Li remained in the mansion the entire time. After burying Carl’s body, she began to think of ways to send Carl’s body back to his country. She could not let him stay in a foreign land.

But her status was special, and she couldn’t handle it personally.. Hence, she had to pay a fortune to get Carl’s remains on a private plane and leave her.

Chapter 311: The Second Branch Is Coming Back

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

After sending Carl away, Mo Li stayed in her private mansion and refused to see anyone.

Her will was diminished, and she took it that Carl was still with her.

The members of the organization stayed nearby and continued to protect Mo Li as per Carl's orders.

It did not matter even if they lost their leader, Carl, because they would have a new leader. Hence, they could only stay by Mo Li's side before then, until she was willing to walk out.

Mo Li's mobile phone began to ring and she frowned in disdain when she answered the call.

The other party spoke to her in fluent English, discussing the deal.

She wasn't interested.

She just wanted to be alone.

It was only when she heard that the person who wanted to buy the new drug was from the Li Family that she was truly interested.

Who could it be in the Li Family?

Of course it was Li Zhuo.

Mo Li did not have any relationship with Li Zhuo, nor did she have any dealings with him. However, Li Zhuo had once accepted Carl's help and hence, had business dealings with him.

Li Zhuo was sent to the branch company at the border and was developing his underground business. He needed Carl's supplies.

Mo Li finally perked up and proposed a deal with Li Zhuo. However, she had a request.

She had a new type of drug that needed experimentation, and this target needed to be within close observation.

She had already said so much, and the person who had contacted her had also relayed her message.

Li Zhuo should understand now, right?

If Li Zhuo didn't understand... Someone in the Li family would definitely be able to do it.

After ending the call, a smile finally formed on Mo Li's face. She hugged Carl's bloodstained clothes and said with a sneer, "It's not like the Li Family is very capable. They also have their own selfish motives."

"Wu Mei, you are truly miserable."

Li Nanchen should be the one suffering, right?

Even if Li Zhuo wanted to deal with Wu Mei, he would not directly deal with her. Instead, his gaze would land on Li Nanchen.

He heard that Li Nanchen was injured and brought a lot of tonics back to the Li Family to pay him a visit.

It was really a visit.

When Old Master Li heard the news of his return, his face was as black as a dark cloud. However, because the reason for Li Zhuo's return was reasonable and the Li Corporation knew about this matter, he couldn't just chase Li Zhuo away.

His face was cold as he looked at Wu Mei and Li Nanchen at the dining table. He said seriously, "When you see Li Zhuo later, don't take it to heart. They'll be heading back soon."

"If they have other intentions, you don't have to be merciful."

If they really wanted to deal with Li Zhuo, Old Master Li might hesitate.

After all, their surnames were Li and they were family.

Li Nanchen smiled lightly, but his eyes were extremely solemn. It seemed like Li Zhuo wanted to take advantage of his injury to return to the company and seize power.

Unfortunately, he wouldn't have the chance.

Wu Mei's gaze shifted from Li Nanchen's face to Old Master Li. She smiled and comforted Old Master Li. "Grandpa, it's a good thing that our relatives came to visit Nanchen. They won't have any bad intentions."

If they really have bad intentions, what should they do?

Of course, they would make them pay the price and not give them any chance to turn the tables.

Her smile was very infectious, and it made Old Master Li's gloomy mood dissipate a lot.

She held Li Nanchen's hand on the table and shot him a look.

Li Nanchen accompanied Old Master Li upstairs. On the other hand, she looked at the butler and smiled. "Uncle Butler, my mother's health isn't very good. I'm also worried about letting her stay at home alone so I still want her to stay here for a few more days."

The butler beamed when he heard that.

He was still worried that if Mother Wu went home alone, Wu Mei would choose to leave Li Nanchen because she was worried.

It seemed that this would not happen.

"Young Madam, don't worry. I'll make the arrangements," the butler immediately assured Wu Mei.

Wu Mei put down the spoon and said in a low voice, "Second Uncle Li is coming back. You have to take care of him."

She felt that Li Zhuo might do something in the dark, so she had to be careful.

As soon as she finished speaking, Feng Yue, who had walked into the dining room, said bluntly, "Wu Mei, you're thinking too much. The Li family has me protecting them. Nothing will happen."

"Good luck then," Wu Mei said. She wiped her mouth with a napkin and cheerfully left.

Feng Yue was furious about being completely disregarded. When she heard Wu Mei asking the butler to give Lin Piaopiao an extra bowl of soup, she grew even angrier.

One Wu Mei was already annoying enough.

There was still a crazy woman upstairs.

She wanted to get close to Li Nanchen, but she could not execute her plan. She could only watch from afar.

It made her anxious.

When Li Zhuo arrived at the Li Family villa that afternoon, he only saw Old Master Li.

It was very busy in the Li Family residence. They tidied up another guest room.

Li Zhuo was unhappy. He felt that Old Master Li was just being perfunctory by letting them stay in the guest room. However, he did not dare to make too many requests.

He would settle down first and plan slowly.

“Why don’t I see Nanchen? I heard that he’s injured. He must be resting in the bedroom.” Li Zhuo smiled sincerely.

Old Master Li cleared his throat and touched the walking stick in his hand. He said lightly, “He has already gone to the company.”

Li Zhuo’s eyes widened instinctively.

Where did Li Nanchen go?

Didn’t they say that Li Nanchen was seriously injured and couldn’t take care of business for the time being? Why did he suddenly go to the company?

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Li Zhuo tried his best to keep a smile on his face. He was afraid of angering Old Master Li and being chased away.

He smiled awkwardly and said, “Nanchen is working too hard. But don’t worry, I’m back. I can help him with the company’s business.”

Old Master Li looked straight at Li Zhuo and saw through his intentions.

It was really annoying for people who did not have the ability to try and seize power.

Old Master Li smiled coldly and said, “After you return to the branch office, take care of your business properly and don’t let Nanchen worry about you. That will be the greatest help you can provide.”

How could Li Zhuo not be able to tell?

Old Master Li was chasing him to leave.

Li Zhuo’s expression darkened as well. He leaned back in his chair and couldn’t be bothered to pretend anymore. “The Corporation knows that I came back to help. If I return to the branch company, they will think that Li Nanchen disregards family ties and is stubborn in his own ways.”

“Won’t it affect Li Nanchen’s corporate image?”

Old Master Li was furious, but he knew that Li Zhuo was telling the truth.

Li Zhuo's return was very loud, and it spread throughout the company. This was also the reason why Li Nanchen had returned to the company.

Old Master Li could not hide his disgust and waved his hand. "Alright, if you want to stay in the company, that's fine too."

Li Zhuo's eyes lit up. When he thought that Old Master Li had no choice but to compromise, he was angered by the latter half of his sentence.

"Just listen to Nanchen's arrangement. He will arrange everything for you."

If Li Nanchen arranged for him to return to the branch office, wouldn't he have to go back again?

What a cunning old man.

They sat facing each other, but their faces and hearts were not harmonious.

At that moment, someone entered.

Old Master Li turned around and saw Mother Wu, whom Bi Fang had sent back. He put on a smile and said, "You're back?"

Mother Wu hurriedly walked towards Old Master Li and said apologetically, "I've made you worried. It's my fault."

Old Master Li looked at her helplessly but could not say anything harsh. He could only say, "Stay here for a while longer. You can go back after you've recovered."

"Mei'er is worried about you. If you go home, she will follow you."

How could Mother Wu not understand Old Master Li's meaning?

They didn't want Wu Mei and Li Nanchen to separate.

She immediately smiled and said, "I understand. Don't worry."

The butler reminded Old Master Li, "Old Master, it's time to take your medicine."

Old Master Li stood up with the help of Mother Wu and walked towards the stairs.

Li Zhuo did not have a chance to speak or interfere.

He was worse than a guest.

Old Master Li had only taken a few steps when he suddenly turned around and looked at Li Zhuo. "Why are you still standing here?"

Li Zhuo knew that Old Master Li would not be able to be ruthless. He quickly said, "I'll be staying at..."

"It's good enough that you have a place to stay. You should leave early. It's getting dark," Old Master Li said impolitely and turned around, ignoring Li Zhuo.

Clenching his fists tightly, Li Zhuo was so angry that he almost fainted.

It's already dark?

It's only morning now, why would it be dark?

Did Old Master Li not even use his brain to come up with an excuse to chase him away?

Sheng Hongfei, who was beside Li Zhuo, finally moved. She tugged on Li Zhuo's sleeve and asked, "Are we leaving now?"

"Why should we leave? Why didn't you say anything?" Li Zhuo shouted angrily.

Even an outsider like Mother Wu could get close to Old Master Li, but Sheng Hongfei could not.

Sheng Hongfei lowered her head gloomily. She was no longer as arrogant as she usually was. She seemed to be troubled.

Li Zhuo's attention was not on his wife. He was only thinking about how to stay on.

The butler stood beside Li Zhuo and smiled politely. "Sir, please."

Li Zhuo glared fiercely at the butler. As he walked towards the door, he saw Lin Piaopiao walking down the stairs.

Lin Piaopiao was dressed up innocently. Her curly hair was rather beautiful, but her complexion was not too good.

She was holding a glass of water in her hand. It seemed like she was going downstairs to get some water.

Li Zhuo's eyes lit up. He smiled and said, "Isn't this Piaopiao? You're here too."

When Lin Piaopiao saw Li Zhuo, she instinctively shrunk back. However, when she recalled the reminder Lin Liguo had given her when he contacted her, she responded enthusiastically, "Uncle Li, Auntie, you're back."

Sheng Hongfei also greeted Lin Piaopiao. When she noticed Li Zhuo's gaze, her mood turned sour.

Li Zhuo ignored Sheng Hongfei beside him and held Lin Piaopiao's hand. He patted it gently and smiled warmly. "We still have things to do. We'll leave first. See you another day."

"Uncle Li, Auntie, take care." Lin Piaopiao stood at the entrance and watched Li Zhuo and Sheng Hongfei leave with the butler.

Lin Piaopiao walked into the kitchen with a glass of water in her hand. There was a crystal chain on her left hand.

However, perhaps because she was too inconspicuous, no one noticed an additional piece of jewelry on her.

While Lin Piaopiao was pouring hot water, she saw a servant carrying two suitcases in. After asking around, she found out that Mother Wu had moved in again.

There was a glint in her eyes as she swirled the glass of water, revealing a vicious message.

Is Li Nanchen the person Wu Mei valued the most?

Is it Mother Wu?

Mother Wu did not have any ability and would only cause trouble for Wu Mei.

She could use Mother Wu to send Wu Mei away before making a move on Li Nanchen.

Lin Piaopiao was in a good mood because she had a new plan.. However, her smile made people uncomfortable.

Lin Piaopiao stayed in the living room all day.

Occasionally, she would see Feng Yue standing in the courtyard. However, because she was too focused on her staring, she angered Feng Yue and was mocked by her.

She also listened to music occasionally, but was shunned because she got in the way of the servants.

She endured all these.

In order to achieve her final goal, she was willing to bear all these ill intentions.

Lin Piaopiao was deeply moved by herself. As she watched the servants busying about to prepare for dinner, she carried the cup of water to the kitchen once again.

Because of his health, Old Master Li had to eat tonics and medicinal cuisine every night. Lin Ligu specifically told her which type it was.

What she did not know was that Li Nanchen and Wu Mei were injured, so the servants had also prepared tonic soup for them.

Lin Piaopiao looked at the three pots that were steaming hot at the same time, and her head started buzzing in pain. She was at a loss.

Which pot is it?

“What are you doing?” Wu Mei’s voice came from behind.

Lin Piaopiao was so frightened that her hands trembled. She grabbed the cup in her hand tightly, but the other thing that she had hidden in her palm fell to the ground.

She quickly turned around and looked at Wu Mei through gritted teeth. “Did you scare me on purpose?”

“This is the kitchen. It’s not suitable for you to be here.” Wu Mei’s gaze landed on Lin Piaopiao’s hand. There was only a cup of water.

Lin Piaopiao frowned and grunted, “I want to get water.”

Wu Mei crossed her arms and watched as Lin Piaopiao walked to the kettle. She poured a cup of water and drank it slowly.

She began to admire Lin Piaopiao.

Lin Piaopiao had suffered several blows, and even after being imprisoned by Li Nanchen, she was able to pull herself together in a short period of time.

Her willpower was strong.

“Young Madam, this is Madam Wu’s medicine.” The servant brought a bowl of soup to Wu Mei and apologized to her.

The servants at home were preparing dinner, and there was no one to deliver the medicine to Mother Wu.

Wu Mei wasn't going to get angry over something like this. She assured the servants, "This isn't a big deal. I can get it myself. You guys can do your thing."

While she was carrying the medicine, Lin Piaopiao had already walked past her and returned to the living room.

When Wu Mei came back today, she had already heard that Lin Piaopiao was no longer hiding in her room. Instead, she appeared in the living room and even exchanged a few words with Feng Yue.

Not noticing anything strange about Lin Piaopiao's behavior, she headed upstairs with the medicine.

Mother Wu was already waiting for her in the room.

When Wu Mei placed the bowl on the table, Mother Wu immediately held her hand and blew on it gently. "Your hand is red from the heat."

"Mom, I'm not that delicate." Wu Mei didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

She pulled Mother Wu to sit at the table and persuaded her softly, "Hurry and drink while it's hot. I'll keep you company."

Mother Wu picked up the slightly bitter medicine and drank it slowly. She also talked about how she wanted to go home.

She could not stay in the Li family forever, but she hoped that Wu Mei would stay.

Wu Mei smiled helplessly. "Mom, rest for a few days first. We'll talk about this later."

Mother Wu held Wu Mei's hand. "I don't care what you young people think. I just hope that you can be taken care of. Nanchen is great. He can take care of you."

Wu Mei couldn't refute. She blushed and tried to change the topic.

Her mother was very concerned about her relationship with Li Nanchen.

Wu Mei also started to hesitate. Should she and Li Nanchen...

No way!

Her matter had yet to come to an end. Now was not the time.

Mother Wu saw that Wu Mei was starting to get distracted. She placed the empty bowl on the table unhappily and reminded Wu Mei, "You must hold on to such a good man, understand?"

Wu Mei nodded her head vigorously and quickly coaxed Mother Wu, "Don't worry, Mama. I'll remember what you said."

As they were chatting, they heard a knock on the door.

Li Nanchen was back.

Li Nanchen greeted Mother Wu. "Auntie, I'm back. I'll call you when dinner is ready."

How could Mother Wu not understand Li Nanchen's intentions? She pretended to be miserable and said, "I just drank some medicine but now I have to eat again."

She pushed Wu Mei away and said, "Hurry up and leave. Let me have some time to myself."

Wu Mei was forced to leave the room. When she closed the door, she raised her hand and was about to hit Li Nanchen.

Li Nanchen was faster than her. He pinned her hands behind her back and pressed them against the wall, kissing her forcefully.

They had not seen each other for a day.

They missed each other a lot.

Wu Mei felt a change in a certain part of Li Nanchen. Her face turned red and she hurriedly avoided Li Nanchen's kiss.

How could Li Nanchen let go of her? He hugged her tighter and tighter until Wu Mei gently bit him.

He moved away slightly and complained pitifully, "How could you bear to bite me?"

Wu Mei pulled out her hands and looked around. She lightly tapped Li Nanchen's chest and said in a low voice, "My skin isn't as thick as yours. What if the elders see us?"

Li Nanchen held her wrist graciously and replied smugly, "They hope we can be intimate every day. Can't you tell?"

He's doing this again?

Wu Mei was afraid that Li Nanchen's wounds would be reopened, so she did not dare to dodge too harshly. In the end, Li Nanchen still succeeded.

They kissed in the hallway for a long time, until the butler came upstairs to remind them to eat. After which, they parted awkwardly.

Wu Mei angrily punched Li Nanchen's shoulder and returned to her room to change.

Wu Pang's case would not be resolved so soon.

The entire process might take nearly half a year.

Yang Shan wanted to use this time to go around to find a way to help her husband.

Wu Yi had a different attitude. She believed that even if Wu Pang came out, the family of three would no longer have the luxury they once had.

She would be looked down upon even more.

Yang Shan looked at Wu Yi angrily and screamed, "Your dad loves you so much, how can you say that?"

Wu Yi sized up the house they were living in now. It was the smallest and oldest of the few houses they once owned, but they didn't sell it only because of the good location.

Now that it had become their home, they saw all kinds of people every day.

These people were also rich, but they were completely different from the neighbors of the Wu family.

They had to work hard for their livelihood, and it was even more impossible for them to spend a large sum of money to buy a set of Haute Couture.

This kind of life was almost unbearable for her.

"What if Dad comes back?" Wu Yi asked Yang Shan.

If Wu Pang returned, could he take them back to their old lives?

Of course not.

Wu Pang would only bring them along and stand outside the Wu Corporation forever, watching Mother Wu and Wu Mei live a good life.

Yang Shan looked at Wu Yi, her face red with anger as she slammed the table angrily.

Wu Yi was frightened and looked up instinctively. There was a flash of fear in her eyes as she hurriedly said, "Mom, I'm telling the truth. Why are you so fierce to me?"

Yang Shan lowered her voice and said angrily, "Think about it carefully. After your father comes back, he will bring us back to the Wu Corporation."

“Putting everything else aside, Wu Mei still has the obligation to support your father in the future.”

She was determined to pester Wu Mei.

Looking at Wu Yi in front of her and thinking back to how she had fought to be the official wife, she was very dissatisfied with Wu Yi’s disappointing performance.

“Oh and you, your surname is also Wu, isn’t it?” Yang Shan’s eyes suddenly lit up.

Wu Yi forced out a smile. She already knew what Yang Shan was thinking but couldn’t understand it. She said in a quavering voice, “Mom, do you think I can compete with Wu Mei?”

“Of course,” Yang Shan clasped Wu Yi’s shoulder and encouraged her.

“If I could do it back then, why can’t you? We just have to drag them down and make them disappear from this world. Won’t the assets in their hands be ours at that time?”

Wu Yi finally “woke up” and looked at Yang Shan in shock. She said excitedly, “Yeah, why didn’t I think of that?”

In the Wu Family, there was only Wu Mei and her.

If both Wu Mei and Mother Wu were not alive, the inheritance that belonged to Wu Mei would be inherited by her younger sister.

But...

Wu Yi looked at the hopeful Yang Shan and asked curiously, “Is it necessary to save her father in this plan?”

Isn’t her father having gone to jail a huge stain?

Yang Shan’s phone rang. After looking at the caller ID, she immediately picked up her phone with a smile and went to the side to answer it.

She chatted with the other party for a long time. After hanging up, she received a sum of money.

That was a lot of money.

Enough for them to change houses.

“Daughter, come over quickly. Let’s think about what to do,” Yang Shan called out to Wu Yi.

Wu Yi didn't understand what Yang Shan meant at first, but she soon realized that Yang Shan had made a deal with a mysterious elder.

The elder had given them a sum of money to change their terrible accommodations.

As part of the deal, what they needed to do was find a way to use Wu Mei's past stain to smear her name.

Looking at the amount of money that had just been transferred into Yang Shan's phone, Wu Yi felt stifled.

Just this little bit of money yet they want them to work so hard?

If Wu Mei found out, she would definitely deal with them.

But there was no choice.

This was because Wu Yi heard the cries of children from outside the courtyard, as well as the accusations between the elders. They acted like they didn't have any upbringing, and just looking at them made her feel embarrassed for them.

She had to move away.

Wu Yi took some money from Yang Shan and hired fake reviewers online. She chose something that could not even be verified to discredit Wu Mei.

An article titled "Mother Wu was once a lunatic, and Wu Mei is a ruthless woman" suddenly appeared.

A lot of likes and reposts pushed it to the top of the trending topics.

For a moment, it was extremely popular.

Anyone who had some understanding of the Wu Corporation would know that what was written in the article was fake, but this would not affect their mood to watch the show.

When Wu Mei heard about the news online, she immediately took out her phone to check.

Defaming her is fine but they are targeting her mother?

These people were extraordinarily bold and seemed laughable and pathetic.

Wu Mei didn't need to borrow anyone's power. She could resolve this small matter herself.

She quickly found out that the accounts that were spreading untruths were all from the same studio.

The studio had received a large sum of money from an account.

Yang Shan?

Wu Mei had already let Yang Shan and Wu Yi off. Did they still want to come knocking on her door on their own accord?

This was ridiculous.

“Why are you unhappy?” Li Nanchen noticed that Wu Mei was sitting on the floor and staring at a message. He asked curiously.

Wu Mei smiled disdainfully.. “Yang Shan spent money to hire people to spread rumors about me and my mother online.”

Chapter 315: Leaving Him Behind

Li Nanchen instantly narrowed his eyes. They are really unwilling to give up. Even when they have no chance of winning, they still want to fight.

Is there any meaning to this?

Maybe there was.

Li Nanchen placed his hands on her shoulders and said in a low voice, “You can leave this matter to me. I’ll think of a way.”

Wu Mei seemed to not have heard Li Nanchen’s words. She narrowed her eyes and muttered to herself, “With Yang Shan’s ability, there’s no way she could hire these people. It should be Wu Yi’s idea.”

She thought she knew Wu Yi quite well.

They were willing to spend this money. Seems like they are quite confident.

Li Nanchen sighed. “Wu Yi, is it? I’ll send someone...”

Wu Mei tossed her phone aside and stopped looking at her computer. She lifted her head and smiled at Li Nanchen. “It’s getting late.”

Li Nanchen's eyes lit up as he gently held Wu Mei's hand. "Yes, it's getting late. My injuries are already..."

Wu Mei moved aside and let Li Nanchen have the desk. She hurriedly said, "You can handle the rest of the work first. I'll go see Mom."

She could not let Mother Wu notice the information on the Internet. She had to let her go to bed as soon as possible.

Li Nanchen stood rooted to the ground, watching Wu Mei run away. He sighed helplessly.

He seemed to have been left behind again.

Wu Mei walked swiftly along the corridor to Mother Wu's room and knocked on the door.

"Come in," said Mother Wu.

Wu Mei immediately pushed down the handle of the door. After pushing the door open, she first observed Mother Wu's expression.

Mother Wu was very gentle and did not seem to be uncomfortable at all.

Mother Wu felt uncomfortable under Wu Mei's gaze. She glanced at the clock on the wall and said softly, "Child, look at the time now. Why aren't you resting?"

"I miss you, Mom," Wu Mei immediately said coquettishly.

She threw herself into Mother Wu's arms and grumbled softly, "Don't you believe me?"

Mother Wu patted Wu Mei's back and muttered, "You left Nanchen alone in the room again?"

"He needs to handle his work," Wu Mei said sullenly.

She helped Mother Wu to the bed and they talked for a while until Mother Wu yawned. She quieted down too.

Mother Wu stroked Wu Mei's hair and said with a smile, "Don't worry, I'm safe here. Go back and rest."

"Alright!" Wu Mei said sullenly.

After Mother Wu lay down, she turned off the lights in the room and walked out.

In the dark, Mother Wu took out her phone and opened a trending article.

The article was regarding gossip about her and Wu Mei. The content was obviously fake, but it was well-written and was enough to smear their past.

Who would be so cruel?

Are they targeting her again?

In order not to worry Wu Mei, Mother Wu pretended not to know anything. However, she was already upset.

She decided not to rely on Wu Mei anymore. Instead, she would find a way to deal with what had happened on her own.

Wu Mei stood outside the door and massaged her temples. Her head was hurting.

Thinking that her mother had not seen the news on the Internet, she was temporarily relieved. As she walked back to her room, she was suddenly pulled by a strong force and pressed against the window.

Before she could see who this person was, she instinctively raised her hand and attacked swiftly, unwilling to admit defeat.

“Mei’er, it’s me,” Li Nanchen said softly.

Under the moonlight outside the window, Wu Mei saw the man’s face clearly. She didn’t know whether to laugh or cry as she said, “Mr Li, you scared me.”

Li Nanchen hooked her chin. “Ms Wu, you also hurt me.”

Hurt him?

Wu Mei did not think that she had injured Li Nanchen.

Her eyes were dazed and filled with uncertainty. She muttered, “Did I really hurt you?”

Wu Mei misunderstood that she had struck Li Nanchen’s wound and reached out to touch his waist, wanting to examine the gauze-covered wound.

Li Nanchen quickly pressed down on Wu Mei’s hand and reminded her in a hoarse voice, “We’re still injured. You can’t act recklessly.”

What he said...

Made it seem like Wu Mei was on the verge of losing control.

Wu Mei's face immediately turned red. She raised her hand angrily and lightly punched Li Nanchen's shoulder. "What are you talking about? Didn't you say that I hurt you?"

Li Nanchen pressed down on Wu Mei's hand and wrapped it around his waist. "Aren't you hurting me by leaving me alone in the study?"

"You're taking me less and less seriously."

Wu Mei's heart sank. Thinking back carefully, she also felt that she had gone too far.

She groaned and carefully avoided Li Nanchen's injuries. She hugged him tightly. "From now on, I will focus all my attention on you. Mr Li, you have to receive my blows properly."

"I couldn't ask for more." Li Nanchen kissed Wu Mei's forehead, wishing he could fuse her into his bones.

Before he walked out of the study room, he specially checked his wound. It was not convenient for him to do any special exercise, so he could only suppress this thought.

He was on fire right now.

Wu Mei could feel his emotions rising and falling. She patted his back gently, as if comforting him.

Li Nanchen slowly exhaled and said through gritted teeth, "Wait a few more days. I won't let you off."

Wu Mei nestled in Li Nanchen's embrace and couldn't help but laugh out loud.

Chapter 316: Keeping Things From Mom

Standing by the window, they hugged each other and reveled in the silence of the night.

However, there would always be people who would come and disturb them.

Li Nanchen glanced at someone coldly from the corner of his eye. It was as if he wanted to drag out the person who was spying on them and teach that person a lesson.

Lin Piaopiao, who was hiding in the shadows, immediately recalled her encounter with Li Nanchen. Fear washed over her and she staggered away.

Li Nanchen's gaze was too frightening.

Lin Piaopiao ran downstairs and stumbled into the kitchen. Suddenly, the kitchen light was turned on.

She hurriedly screamed in fright. When she turned around, she saw a servant passing by and immediately asked with a dark expression, "It's already so late. What are you doing in the kitchen?"

The servant wasn't curious about Lin Piaopiao, but she still maintained the most basic courtesy and replied politely, "Ms Lin, I heard noises so I came over to take a look."

Thinking that the servant was looking down on her, Lin Piaopiao said unhappily, "Enough, I'm just pouring a cup of water. You can leave."

The servant walked over to the kettle and poured a cup of hot water for Lin Piaopiao. She reminded her, "Ms Lin, there's a water dispenser in the living room."

In other words, Lin Piaopiao didn't need to run into the kitchen every time to pour water.

Lin Piaopiao suddenly felt a sense of panic after being exposed. She didn't even dare to look at the servant and turned to leave. However, the crystal bracelet on her wrist fell to the ground.

She cried out in surprise and hurriedly bent down to pick up the bracelet. At the same time, she also picked up the small bead that had fallen earlier.

When Wu Mei suddenly appeared, she was afraid that the little thing in her hand would be discovered, so she could only throw it on the ground first.

Fortunately, the servant did not clean the floor in time and left it behind.

Lin Piaopiao put the bracelet back on her wrist and left with the cup.

The servant looked at Lin Piaopiao and felt that this Miss Lin was getting weirder and weirder. After cleaning the place that Lin Piaopiao had touched, she turned off the kitchen light.

Lin Piaopiao returned to her room. Leaning against the door, she sank down on the floor.

This time, she had failed again.

Old Master Li took his medicine at a fixed time every day. After missing it time and time again, she could not help but doubt her ability.

“It’s alright. I’ll definitely succeed.” Lin Piaopiao held onto that little bead and giggled.

She kept the small bead in the crystal bracelet and looked up smugly. “Wu Mei, you will be so tied down by Yang Shan that you won’t notice what happens next.”

“I’ll make you watch me get together with Brother Nan Chen. I’ll make you wish you were dead.”

Her laughter was sinister and deep. She was crying and laughing like a lunatic. Her expression was hideous as she hid in the dark room. She looked terrifying.

Just as Lin Piaopiao had expected, Wu Mei wanted to deal with Yang Shan and Wu Yi.

She had to go to the office today to discuss with her assistant on how to deal with the situation and respond as soon as possible.

Not only did she want to find out who was hiding behind the scenes, but she also wanted to send solicitor letters to the studios who were spreading rumors about her and her mother.

Wu Mei left the Li family villa with Li Nanchen early in the morning.

Li Nanchen also had to rush to the Li Corporation as soon as possible and prepare to deal with Li Zhuo, who would appear at the headquarters any time.

The car stopped outside the Wu Corporation.

All of a sudden, Wu Mei turned her head and kissed Li Nanchen. She said softly, “Mr Li, you’ve worked hard.”

“Ms Wu, you’ve worked hard too.” Li Nanchen shook her hand gently.

“Remember to tell me when you’re done handling matters.”

He did not want to be the last to know.

Wu Mei swiftly got out of the car and strode towards the headquarters. Her assistant was already waiting at the door.

The assistant had prepared several plans, and was just waiting for Wu Mei to retaliate, but Wu Mei had waited until today.

Why?

This was because Wu Mei had to avoid Mother Wu as much as possible. She didn’t want her mother to worry too much.

“This is just a small matter. It won’t affect us too much.” The moment Wu Mei walked into the Wu Corporation, the employees who saw her instinctively lowered their heads.

Wu Pang was in jail.

Mo Li had disappeared.

There were even people in the company who secretly conducted drug deals.

On the outside, Wu Mei did not do anything against them. Instead, it was Wu Pang and Mo Li who were driving Wu Mei and Mother Wu into the corner.

But did what happened to them really have nothing to do with Wu Mei?

Wu Mei didn’t even look at them. She swiftly strode into the elevator and arrived at the highest floor with her assistant.

“When the time comes, prepare for the meeting,” Wu Mei said coldly.

The assistant quickly agreed. After sending Wu Mei into the office, he prepared the documents.

Wu Mei looked through the several proposals prepared by her assistant and picked out the one she was most satisfied with.

Someone knocked on the door.

“Come in!” Wu Mei was about to ask her assistant to prepare a cup of hot water for her.

When she looked up, she could not utter a single word.

Because the person who walked in was Mother Wu.

“Mom, you’re here?” Wu Mei forced out a smile. She put down the documents in her hand and stood up to welcome Mother Wu.

Mother Wu cleared her throat and sat on the sofa. She grumbled, “You keep everything from me. Do you really think you can hide it?”

“I didn’t.” Wu Mei refused to admit it.

Mother Wu glared at her and slammed her phone on the table. “Don’t you know how to read it yourself?”

Wu Mei’s expression turned ugly.. She had already arranged for someone to remove the news from the internet.

Mother Wu took Wu Mei's hand and asked her to sit down first.

"I saw it last night. I was afraid that you would be worried, so I didn't tell you." Mother Wu smiled gently. She took out her phone, found a few photos and videos, and handed them to Wu Mei.

Before Wu Mei took the phone, she was still furious.

She still cared too little about Mother Wu and neglected her mother's true feelings.

Mother Wu did not miss Wu Mei's every expression. She gently held Wu Mei's hand and said, "Bring me the proposed solution first. Let me see how you plan to handle it."

Wu Mei snapped out of it and did not hide anything from Mother Wu.

She brought the proposal she had selected to Mother Wu and said seriously, "I think this is the simplest and most reasonable solution. It's nothing more than handling everything with the law and refusing any compensation or mediation to let them know the consequences of their actions."

Mother Wu took a deep look at Wu Mei and flipped open the proposal to check the contents of the document.

Wu Mei was also browsing through the photos on her Mother Wu's phone at this moment. Her expression turned increasingly ugly.

It turned out that Yang Shan took advantage of the fact that it was impossible for her to always be by Mother Wu's side and publicly came to find trouble with her mother.

Mother Wu had learned her lesson.

When she saw Yang Shan and Wu Yi, she would take a corresponding video just in case.

Mother Wu nodded and said approvingly, "I think that's great, but I should be the one hosting this meeting."

Wu Mei quickly wiped away the tears at the corner of her eyes and looked at Mother Wu in surprise. "Mother, don't worry and leave it to me. I will take care of it."

This was not a big deal.

Surely she could deal with a few marketing accounts that spread rumors?

Mother Wu patted the back of Wu Mei's hand and shook her head gently. She said firmly, "I won't change my mind, but my way of doing things will be different."

Wu Mei didn't quite understand, nor did she intend to interrupt Mother Wu. She merely waited for her to continue.

Mother Wu looked sad. She raised her head and tidied the stray hairs on Wu Mei's forehead. She said softly, "I can find excuses for myself. I can say that I'm sick and have lost my memory. Then, I can push all the responsibilities to you. But I don't want to do that."

"I hope that my daughter can live a carefree and lawless life, just like Wu Yi. No matter how many mistakes or bad things she does, she will be protected well."

Wu Mei laughed and retorted unhappily, "Mom, what are you talking about? How can Wu Yi compare to me?"

She was not joking. She was serious.

What kind of person was Wu Yi?

How is she worthy of letting her mom take her to heart?

Mother Wu smiled at her and continued, "But, I'm serious. If I want to be like Wu Pang and Yang Shan, I must at least have the spirit and will to protect you."

"I can't be like before. I have to become stronger!"

Become stronger?

How can it be that easy?

This was not the first time Mother Wu forced herself to remain calm. However, the results were always bad.

Wu Mei naturally didn't want to agree, but she didn't want to disappoint Mother Wu. She forced herself to agree, "Alright, Mom. You can handle it. I'll just be by your side."

"That's great!" Mother Wu heaved a sigh of relief.

She was really worried that Wu Mei wouldn't support her. She could relax now.

The assistant knocked on the door and walked in, reminding Wu Mei to prepare for the meeting.

Mother Wu also tidied her clothes and took a deep breath. She picked up the proposal on the table and instinctively looked at Wu Mei.

As long as her daughter was by her side, she would be able to obtain great strength.

Wu Mei sensed the change in Mother Wu and calmed herself down. She wanted to see how Mother Wu would perform.

Under the protection of the bodyguards, the mother and daughter walked towards the meeting room.

The company's shareholders and senior executives had arrived early. They sat upright at the conference table, looking exhausted. It was obvious that they had suffered a huge blow from yesterday's incident.

The Wu Corporation was always in danger. The internal situation was unstable and there was a crisis outside. The situation was very bad.

Some of them had already started to give up. They felt that by giving up the shares of the Wu Corporation, they might not have to worry and fear every day. They also wouldn't have to see its negative news every day.

Their negative emotions peaked when Mother Wu sat at the main seat.

They were well aware of Mother Wu's capabilities.

She was no match for Wu Mei.

If Wu Mei was the one hosting the meeting, they might have been looking forward to it. But now, they reckoned that Wu Mei would indulge Mother Wu once again. They were all disappointed and no longer had any expectations.

Mother Wu sat in her seat and could clearly see their expressions.

Her heart ached, but she still pulled herself together and explained the source of the news online.

It originated from Yang Shan and Wu Yi.

"Everyone, don't worry. I already have enough evidence, but now is not the time to deal with them," Mother Wu said with a smile.

She was very confident and performed very well, but this was not enough to appease everyone present.

An elderly shareholder looked at Mother Wu and said sternly, "You're not planning to let them off, are you?"

This was not the first time Mother Wu had been soft-hearted and let her enemies off. In the end, the Wu Corporation would fall into danger.

Mother Wu moved her hand under the table and clenched her fist.. She forced a smile and looked at the shareholder firmly.

Chapter 318: Mom's Protection

“The first thing we need to do is deal with the studio that spread rumors online and let them personally reveal Yang Shan and Wu Yi.”

“Then, we'll send Yang Shan a solicitor's letter. We will definitely sue them. We will not accept a private settlement or a mediation.”

Today's Mother Wu was indeed different from usual.

Wu Mei looked at Mother Wu worriedly, but Mother Wu gave her a reassuring look.

The assistant handed a document to the shareholders and higher-ups before retreating to Wu Mei's side.

Mother Wu had a similar document in her hand. When she flipped it open, she could see the contents inside.

Did they think they would see a concrete solution?

They were wrong.

It detailed that during her marriage to Wu Pang, he and Yang Shan had given birth to Wu Yi.

When she was sick, he changed the Corporation to his name. No one present objected to it and let Wu Pang do whatever he wanted.

Wu Mei's gaze landed on their faces. They all looked as if it was a matter of course and did not think that this decision was wrong.

Mother Wu was sick, and the company needed someone to support it.

It was just a change of name. What was the big deal?

Wu Mei lowered her eyes as her heart began to fill with anger.

Mom must be feeling very sad.

Mother Wu's thoughts were not as complicated as Wu Mei. She flipped to one of the pages and said, "Wu Pang and I are no longer married, and the Wu Corporation will be Wu Mei's in the future."

Of course it would be Wu Mei's.

Did anyone want to retort?

Mother Wu paid attention to everyone's actions and expressions. When someone took a deep breath and was about to speak with a dissatisfied expression, she smiled and said, "Because no one's ability can compare to Wu Mei's. I think this should be the consensus of everyone present."

It was indeed a consensus.

Wu Mei had been able to save the Wu Corporation from danger several times. Other than it being because of her outstanding ability, there was no other reason.

Mother Wu said bluntly, "The Corporation will never change its name again. The 'Wu' in Wu Corporation refers to Wu Mei's surname."

"After the meeting ends, the Public Relations department will officially issue a lawyer's letter. At the same time, I will apply to review the financial issues within the corporation."

What?

Wu Mei looked up in shock.

Of course, she knew how serious the financial problems of the Wu Corporation were. Otherwise, Mo Li would not have successfully invested in them.

If Mother Wu wanted to investigate, it might be a huge project. It would also involve many shameful things.

Wu Mei's plan was to slowly investigate and clean up the mess. Mother Wu seemed to think differently from her.

"The amount of money Yang Shan and her daughter took from the company will be returned. Don't worry, the police will handle it well." Mother Wu's words were very clear.

Not only did she want to investigate, but she would also hire a special agent to investigate Yang Shan and Wu Yi's financial problems. In the end, she would hand them over to the police.

Two of the higher-ups in the seats looked at each other with guilt in their eyes, as if they were hiding something important.

They quickly averted their gazes and listened attentively to Mother Wu's arrangements.

Mother Wu only planned to focus on dealing with Yang Shan and her daughter. After everything was settled, she would also return to the company.

She was not here to explain the solution. She was here to express her stance.

She wanted to tell everyone that for the sake of her daughter, she would protect the Wu Corporation well and not let anyone else take any advantage of them.

The meeting ended.

Mother Wu held Wu Mei's hand and strode out of the conference room.

Wu Mei would raise her head from time to time and let Mother Wu hold her hand. However, when they walked into the office, she quickly supported Mother Wu.

"Mom, are you okay?" Wu Mei anxiously helped Mother Wu to the sofa and took the cup of water from her assistant.

Mother Wu shook her head gently. After taking a sip of water, she took a deep breath and smiled at ease. "It's great. I've voiced out everything I want to do. I can do it too."

Wu Mei's heart ached as she hugged her gently. "Mom, why do you have to do this? I can do very well too."

Mother Wu patted Wu Mei's hand lightly and looked at the door. She smiled and said, "You and Nanchen are still young and are truly in love. You should have more time to enjoy life."

Wu Mei followed Mother Wu's gaze and turned to see Li Nanchen. Her face reddened as she coaxed Mother Wu, "Don't worry, Mom. We're fine."

"If your relationship is really good, then why haven't you remarried?" Mother Wu harrumphed and exposed Wu Mei's thoughts.

Wu Mei opened her mouth and realized that she couldn't resolve this matter, so she could only smile and change the topic.

"Auntie, don't worry," Li Nanchen spoke first.

How could she not worry?

She looked forward to Wu Mei's happiness, but Wu Mei refused to hold on to it. Li Nanchen was also very slow, making her feel especially anxious.

Li Nanchen said solemnly, "Wu Mei and I have other plans. We are not lacking that piece of paper."

Wu Mei nodded vigorously, agreeing with Li Nanchen's words. "Mom, Nanchen's thoughts are my thoughts."

How could Mother Wu not tell that Li Nanchen was trying to help Wu Mei out?

She reached out to poke Wu Mei's forehead, but there was nothing she could do.

Li Nanchen stayed at the Wu Corporation and accompanied Wu Mei to have lunch. Meanwhile, Mother Wu stayed in the office to settle her work..

Chapter 319: Daddy Has A Way

Of course, Wu Mei didn't like that Mother Wu was too busy. However, Mother Wu was very persistent, so she could only agree.

When she and Li Nanchen appeared side by side in the employees' cafeteria, it fell completely silent and no one spoke for a long time.

Li Nanchen held her shoulders and whispered in her ear, telling her about his encounter with Li Zhuo when he reached the office.

He was not polite to Li Zhuo and chased him away with a few words.

"Impressive." Wu Mei gave Li Nanchen a thumbs up.

She recalled that there were two senior executives in the meeting room who had exchanged glances with each other. It was obvious that they were involved in some shady business in the dark, so she could not expose them for the time being.

They had to solve the problems in the outside world first before dealing with the internal problems.

Li Nanchen took a tissue and wiped the corner of Wu Mei's mouth. He smiled gently and said, "Don't worry, take it slow. Wu Pang has made the Wu Corporation dirty and smelly. It will take a long time for it to return to normal."

"It has quite a big scale. If you reorganize it properly , it will return to its former status."

Wu Mei grabbed Li Nanchen's hand. Her heart was warmed. "Thank you, Nanchen."

Li Nanchen pushed the plate in front of Wu Mei, gesturing for her to eat quickly. They were going back to help Mother Wu later.

While the two of them were eating, someone was secretly taking photos with her phone.

However, Li Nanchen's bodyguard appeared and rudely ordered that person to delete the photos. Otherwise, they would officially sue her.

Oh my god! This is too overbearing.

Are photos not even allowed?

No!

Li Nanchen and Wu Mei meant that they could be close to each other, but news related to them could not be spread.

That afternoon, the Wu Corporation released a new piece of news. They issued a lawyer's letter to the person who started the rumor and caused trouble. Everything had entered the stage of investigation.

They still did not intend to let anyone off.

Meanwhile, Yang Shan also received the relevant news.

In order to have a chance to settle the matter outside of court, the person who had been bribed by Yang Shan and Wu Yi to release the news, did not hesitate to betray them.

What was worse was that the Wu Corporation was starting to check the accounts, and the main targets were the mother and daughter.

Yang Shan was terrified. She gritted her teeth and said, "Is this woman crazy? Is she just missing that bit of money?"

She seemed to have forgotten that the money she had transferred from the Wu Corporation did not belong to her alone, but to the company.

She had already broken the law.

Wu Yi hugged her phone and kept sending messages. Suddenly, she said to Yang Shan, "Mom, two uncles just sent a message saying that they've already paid their debt to the company. Should we..."

"No money!" Yang Shan shouted at Wu Yi before biting her finger. She was in a state of panic.

Wu Yi looked at Yang Shan's phone and proposed a solution that she thought was reasonable.

Wasn't the mysterious elder working with Yang Shan able to help?

When Yang Shan heard Wu Yi mention this person, she became even angrier and roared even more frighteningly.

She seemed to be going crazy.

"I just got out of the detention center. I definitely don't want to go in again. I need to think of a way." Yang Shan slammed the table and glared angrily.

The first thing she thought of was that it was Mother Wu's idea to send a lawyer's letter to the person who spread the rumors online. It was also Mother Wu's arrangement to check the accounts.

As long as something happened to Mother Wu, Wu Mei wouldn't be able to deal with it. They would be able to escape successfully.

How could she let something happen to Mother Wu?

Mother Wu was protected by bodyguards every day, so they could not get close to her.

Wu Yi finally thought of her father.

Her good father, Wu Pang, was very good at dealing with Mother Wu.

As expected, the next morning, Mother Wu went to visit the imprisoned Wu Pang.

Not for anything else, but only because Wu Pang said that he had information that would harm Wu Mei.

If Mother Wu refused to appear, he would pass the news to the Wu Corporation's opponents and let the company collapse forever.

Mother Wu had no choice but to agree. After leaving the house, she told Wu Mei about this matter.

Wu Mei was furious.

This Wu Pang always had a way to convince Mother Wu to listen to him.

He was the one who should have disappeared.

“Arrange for a car,” Wu Mei said, tilting her head to the bodyguard. She wasn’t going to stop Mother Wu, but she was going to visit Wu Pang with her mother.

She wanted to see what else Wu Pang had up his sleeves.

The bodyguards immediately arranged for a car to take Wu Mei and Li Nanchen to fetch Mother Wu.

Wu Mei’s heart was on fire, but when she saw Li Nanchen, who was working, she couldn’t bear to see him like this.

This was the Wu family’s business, but Li Nanchen, who was busy, was going to come along.

“Nanchen, it’s not a big problem. I can handle it,” Wu Mei said softly.

Li Nanchen put down his laptop and reached out to press her lips. “Shh, don’t say things that make me unhappy.”

“If the company can’t operate without me, and Li Zhuo takes advantage of it, then the employees I hired should leave on their own.”

No one would keep useless people in the company.

Wu Mei smiled and held Li Nanchen’s finger. Without another word, she looked ahead.

Li Nanchen opened his laptop again. He couldn’t bear for Wu Mei to let go of him.. He was also very efficient when working with just one hand.

Mother Wu met Wu Pang.

Wu Pang was no longer his usual glamorous self. His head was shaved and he was thin to the bone.

He leaned back lazily in his chair. When he saw the exquisitely dressed Mother Wu, a look of amazement flashed across his eyes, but it was quickly replaced by a look of deep disgust.

The more noble Mother Wu acted, the more he hated her.

What’s the big deal?

She’s just born with a silver spoon.

“What do you have for me?” Mother Wu asked coldly.

She did not think Wu Pang was that capable. Perhaps Yang Shan asked him for help?

Wu Pang sneered and leaned forward. "Do you remember what you did in the psychiatric hospital?"

She remembered part of it.

It was for this reason that Mother Wu was filled with guilt towards Wu Mei. She hoped to use her motherly love to make it up to her daughter.

Wu Pang lowered his voice and said smugly, "But there's something you don't know."

What does he mean?

Mother Wu tried her best to appear calm, not wanting Wu Pang to see her cowardice. Wu Pang told her an email password and asked her to check it herself.

Mother Wu immediately took out her phone and logged in. However, the photo she saw made her head buzz and she almost fainted.

This is... an injured Wu Mei?

In the pictures, Wu Mei looked pitiful. There were pictures of her being hurt, and pictures of her being punished by Wu Pang.

The most infuriating thing was that Wu Mei had been bullied by Wu Yi.

Mother Wu took a deep breath and tried her best to control her voice. "You should know that I want to deal with Yang Shan and her daughter. You are angering me."

"Especially this photo. Did you take it to provoke me? I can tell you that you succeeded."

"It was Wu Yi who bullied my daughter in the past. In the future, I will let her have a taste of all that suffering, and all of this was thanks to you."

Wu Pang widened his eyes in shock and started to panic.

Because this was not right.

Mother Wu should be crying non-stop, acting especially timid and cowardly. Even if she didn't beg him for mercy, she shouldn't be able to take the blow.

Yet now...

Mother Wu looked at him with determination and hatred.

“I’ll keep what you’ve given me safely. That’ll be your proof of guilt from now on.” She swiftly transferred everything to her inbox, then cleared out Wu Pang’s.

The indignance in Wu Pang’s eyes was almost overflowing.

He banged on the table and yelled, “You bitch! What are you doing?”

“I still have important documents in my inbox.”

The police officers on both sides immediately went forward and pressed Wu Pang back down.

Mother Wu stood up in disdain, unwilling to take another look at Wu Pang. She turned and left.

She had not visited Wu Pang for more than five minutes. However, this meant that they were officially over.

Mother Wu walked to the door. When she breathed in the fresh air, her vision turned black.

She supported herself with the door frame and held her forehead with one hand, silently crying.

Just how much pain has Wu Mei suffered?

Wu Pang revealed everything bit by bit. It was an arrogant and cruel process. However, all she could do was to keep Wu Pang in jail. She could not make him feel the same pain.

She was such a failure as a mother.

“Mom, how are you?” Wu Mei hurried over and spotted the weak Mother Wu at a glance.

Mother Wu shook her head. “Yang Shan should have come and begged Wu Pang, but it’s no use. I won’t listen to him either.”

“I thought he’d give me something important. Turns out it’s still the same thing.”

She was planning to hide it from Wu Mei.

“Mom, don’t trust him anymore,” Wu Mei said worriedly.

“He broke the law. He should be punished. He is not worthy of sympathy.”

If Mother Wu's heart softened every time she saw Wu Pang, it would not be a good thing.

Li Nanchen also walked over and said softly, "Auntie, let's go home first."

Mother Wu wanted to go to the company to take a look, but as soon as she steadied herself, she felt dizzy.

She was infuriated by Wu Pang.

Forget it!

Let's return to the Li Family villa first.

Mother Wu looked at Li Nanchen apologetically. "Nanchen, I know you've been very busy recently. I've wasted your time again."

Li Nanchen hurriedly replied, "Auntie, what are you talking about? Wu Mei and I will be filial to you."

When Mother Wu heard this, her mood instantly became better. She even patted the back of Wu Mei's hand.

Look! Li Nanchen is so good.

Wu Mei's face turned red. She glared at Li Nanchen angrily and stood beside him. She helped Mother Wu into the car and returned to the villa.

Li Nanchen had other work to do and had to leave again.

When Wu Mei sent Mother Wu back to her room, she suddenly asked in a low voice, "Is the woman protecting Nanchen slacking off?"

Who?

Feng Yue?

Wu Mei couldn't help but laugh. "She was ditched by our car."

Feng Yue still remembered her mission and insisted on staying by Li Nanchen's side, but she could not ride with them.

In the end, Li Nanchen had already rushed back to the office but Feng Yue had yet to return.

Wu Mei wouldn't sympathize with Feng Yue. Since she dared to covet her man, she must suffer a little.

Mother Wu was already very tired. Wu Mei stayed by her side.

Until Li Nanchen returned, Wu Mei was still guarding Mother Wu.

This was too much.

Wu Mei had promised Li Nanchen that she would not leave him alone.

Wu Mei was still in a daze when she suddenly heard her phone vibrating. Her eyes immediately widened.

Her eyes were especially bright in the dim bedroom.

She took out her phone and found a message from Li Nanchen.

The content was very simple.

He was hurt.

Wu Mei suddenly sat up, alerting Mother Wu beside her.

Mother Wu opened her eyes groggily and asked softly, "Mei'er, what's wrong?"

Wu Mei cleared her throat and said in a low voice, "Mom, I'm a little thirsty. I'm going out to get a drink."

"Alright!" Mother Wu was still sleepy. She closed her eyes again and fell into a deep sleep.

Shuffling her feet, Wu Mei carefully moved out of the room. After opening the door, she closed the door gently, trying not to make any noise.

After everything was done, she quickly walked to her room.

It was the same spot again.

Li Nanchen grabbed Wu Mei's arm and pressed her against the window.

She quickly sized Li Nanchen up and finally found a trace of blood on his arm. She hastily pulled open his pajamas, revealing a wound that had been treated but was still bleeding.

Her face instantly turned pale. Suppressing the anger in her heart, she gritted her teeth and asked, "Who did it?"

"She escaped." Li Nanchen lowered his eyes and answered weakly.

Wu Mei pursed her lips tightly as several candidates swiftly flashed across her mind.

Mo Li, Li Zhuo, and many others might choose to harm Li Nanchen.

Wu Mei then thought of Feng Yue and said angrily, "Looks like there should be someone to protect you."

But this person could not be her.

Li Nanchen pinched her charming chin and forced her to raise her head. In a hoarse voice, he asked, "What are you talking about? Who should protect me?"

Wu Mei lifted her leg and gently bit Li Nanchen's lips. She persuaded him, "Stop fooling around. Let's return to the room first and I'll help you treat your wound."

Li Nanchen looked at her with a faint smile on his face. He tilted his head and kissed her lightly on the lips. With a faint smile, he said, "Okay, help me redo this."

They returned to their room.

While Wu Mei was helping Li Nanchen treat his wound, she found out what had happened.

It was especially simple.

Just as Li Nanchen was about to reach home, a car suddenly crashed into him, knocking his car to the side.

The other party had brought a gun and fired without any hesitation, but they missed.

"I wanted to get the bodyguards to catch them, but they are very strong even though they don't know how to use guns. One of them injured me." Li Nanchen calmly recounted what had happened, as if he was telling a story that wasn't important.

How can it not be important?

Li Nanchen's injuries were not light, but the spot they chose was good. It should have been aimed at his heart, but he warded off the attack.

Wu Mei could imagine how urgent the situation was.

After treating Li Nanchen's wound, Wu Mei gently tidied his pajamas and said gloomily, "The wound isn't serious, but don't let it get wet."

She had just stood up when Li Nanchen pulled her back into his embrace.

Wu Mei's movements were nimble. She swiftly found a corner so that she would not press on Li Nanchen's wound.

Li Nanchen is too much. He doesn't care about himself at all.

Wu Mei glared at him angrily, but he kissed her eyes.

Weakly leaning on Wu Mei's shoulder, Li Nanchen closed his eyes and said helplessly, "I'm really in pain. I need someone to take care of me. Do you still plan to go back?"

Is Wu Mei going to leave the injured him to accompany Mother Wu?

Li Nanchen also knew that no matter what, he should not be jealous of Mother Wu, but he could not control himself.

In Wu Mei's heart, Mother Wu was too important.

Wu Mei stared at him fixedly. In the end, she could not help but tilt her head and kiss his lips, successfully cutting off the rest of his words.

When Li Nanchen wanted to deepen the kiss, Wu Mei had already ended it.

"I just wanted to get the hairdryer to dry your hair first." Wu Mei looked at Li Nanchen's hair that was still dripping with water.

Li Nanchen finally let go of Wu Mei and waited for her in silence.

Wu Mei helped Li Nanchen blow dry his hair seriously. When she was done, she realized that Li Nanchen's eyes were closed. He was leaning back in his chair and had fallen into a light sleep.

He has a hard time every day!

Wu Mei bent down and gently hugged Li Nanchen. "Nanchen, it's done. Let's rest."

Li Nanchen raised his hand and grabbed Wu Mei's wrist, unwilling to let go.

"Listen to me and go to sleep." Wu Mei placed the dryer aside and held Li Nanchen's hand, pulling him towards the bed.

Li Nanchen took the opportunity to hug Wu Mei, unwilling to let her leave.

But if Wu Mei insisted...

He wouldn't have a choice as well.

Not only did Wu Mei not want to leave, but she even took the initiative to burrow into the blanket. Carefully avoiding Li Nanchen's wound, she hugged his waist.

Li Nanchen was overjoyed. He had indeed successfully captured Wu Mei's attention.

He was pleased, but pretended to be nonchalant. It wasn't something to brag about anyway.

He couldn't help but kiss Wu Mei's forehead, truly satisfied.

Wu Mei felt his joy and sighed, not knowing whether to laugh or cry.

Whoever hurt Li Nanchen was actually not that important.

Because as long as they were enemies, they would be dealt with one by one.

After Mother Wu woke up, she realized that Wu Mei was not sleeping beside her. Wu Mei had probably returned to her room to accompany Li Nanchen.

Only then did she feel at ease. Furthermore, because she had a good sleep, she was in a very good state today.

When she went downstairs, she realized that the servants were busy preparing breakfast in the dining room.

"Good morning, Madam," the maid greeted Mother Wu.

Mother Wu smiled at them and replied gently, "Good morning. Did Nanchen come back at night?"

"Yes, Young Master came back a little late," the servant replied.

Mother Wu was certain that Wu Mei should be accompanying Li Nanchen. This was good.

She should not always stick to her daughter in the future. After all, her daughter had grown up and should have a life of her own.

Just as she was about to sit in front of the meal, she noticed Lin Piaopiao carrying a cup of water as she tiptoed into the kitchen.

Lin Piaopiao thought that she had done it discreetly, but with so many servants busy in the kitchen and dining room, how could they not notice her?

It was just that no one really cared about her in the Li family residence.

“Has Ms Lin been appearing in the kitchen often recently?” Mother Wu suddenly asked.

The servant hurriedly replied, “Yes, Ms Lin goes to the kitchen every day to pour warm water.”

They had already reminded Lin Piaopiao more than once that even if she didn't go to the kitchen, she could still drink hot water. However, Lin Piaopiao refused to listen.

Mother Wu looked at these few servants in all seriousness. An ominous feeling emerged in her heart, and her voice turned cold as she said, “You guys have been working in the Li family for many years.”

“Yes!” The servant noticed that Mother Wu's tone was not right, so she did not dare to be negligent and quickly replied.

Mother Wu lowered her voice and said unhappily, “There's a person who often goes into the kitchen. Shouldn't you be more careful?”

Not only was her medicine in the kitchen, but there were also tonics prepared for Old Master Li. Shouldn't the Li family's servants be more careful?

The servant was very embarrassed, but she still said truthfully, “Ms Lin's father is Dr Lin. He's in charge of taking care of Old Master Li. It should be fine.”

Just because Lin Liguo was Old Master Li's doctor-in-charge, did that mean that Lin Piaopiao would not do anything bad?

Lin Piaopiao had done a lot of immoral things, hadn't she?

Mother Wu saw everything clearly. Lin Piaopiao refused to leave the Li family because she liked Li Nanchen.

Old Master Li and Li Nanchen's attitude towards the Lin father and daughter was very cold and even guarded.

She should be more guarded against.

Mother Wu also picked up the cup of water and stood up. “You guys go ahead. I'll go get some water from the kitchen.”

The servant wanted to take it for Mother Wu, but Mother Wu had already walked around the table and into the kitchen.

In the kitchen, Lin Piaopiao was very frustrated.

The things brewing in this row of pots are all about the same. Which one was it for Old Master Li?

She only has one pill in her hand. If she had more, she could throw one pill into every pot.

While Lin Piaopiao was fretting, she suddenly found a sea cucumber in one of the pots and immediately threw the pill inside.

She was holding a glass of water and had just reached the kettle when Mother Wu came in.

What a close shave!

Lin Piaopiao heaved a sigh of relief. At the same time, she was immensely pleased with herself.

She was able to tamper with stuff right before Wu Mei and Mother Wu's eyes. This goes to show that she is really an impressive person.

No one can compare to her.

"Ms Lin, you really like to drink the hot water from the kitchen." Mother Wu's gaze shifted slightly as she asked with a smile.

Lin Piaopiao looked down on Mother Wu.

Mother Wu only knew how to cry every day and was completely useless. She would only implicate Li Nanchen and make him help her clean up her mess.

Right!

Yang Shan and Wu Yi are also useless.

They accepted the money from her father, but did not successfully divert the attention of Mother Wu and Wu Mei. Instead, they used the large sum of money to fill the monetary hole because of the Wu Corporation's internal audit. It was really ridiculous.

"Yeah, I really like it." Lin Piaopiao casually replied and then left.

Mother Wu hesitantly took a cup of hot water. As she did not notice what Lin Piaopiao had done, she could not reveal her doubts to anyone.

She then went to the Wu Corporation with Wu Mei.

Wu Mei did not stay in the office. Instead, she went to check on the audit results.

The assistant followed behind her and said softly, "Someone has already put back the missing funds. I've also recorded them down."

"Well done," Wu Mei said coldly.

The assistant continued, "Among them, Yang Shan should have made up for one part of it, but..."

"Did someone else make up the shortfall for her?" Wu Mei raised her eyebrows and asked.

Aware that he had not handled the matter properly, the assistant said awkwardly, "Yes, she did not appear, nor did she have any transfer records. Furthermore, the employee who made up the shortfall for her... surrendered himself."

Good job!

When Wu Mei heard this news, she wanted to clap and cheer for Yang Shan.

How much benefits did Yang Shan give this employee to make him go to jail to cover for her?

"Have you asked him? We have money too. Whatever Yang Shan can give, we can give him too." Wu Mei turned to ask her assistant.

Of course the assistant had asked, but it was futile.

This employee probably had something that Yang Shan could use against him. If he didn't take the blame for Yang Shan, things would be even more troublesome.

How could Wu Mei possibly let Yang Shan off?

She would investigate this employee thoroughly and make it become Yang Shan's weakness.

Chapter 323: Send Auntie to Her Grave

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

Things went very smoothly at the Wu Corporation. Mother Wu also had plans to move out of the Li Family villa.

As long as she stayed, Wu Mei would not be able to spend quality time with Li Nanchen.

With Lin Piaopiao in the front and Feng Yue in the back, this was not good.

After hearing about Mother Wu's arrangement, Wu Mei was rather reluctant. However, after her persuasion was futile, she could only say that after she installed the security system and tidied up the villa that Mother Wu wanted to stay in, she would help Mother Wu move houses.

She walked out of Mother Wu's room gloomily. She really wanted to go back to live with her mother but she had no choice.

Wu Mei could tell that Mother Wu wanted to lock her and Li Nanchen together so that they would never be able to separate.

No matter how much she tried, it would be useless.

"Didn't succeed?" Li Nanchen asked.

Wu Mei nodded lightly and leaned into Li Nanchen's embrace. She compromised, "If Mom wants to go back, then she can go back. I can't stay by her side every day to protect her safety."

There were bodyguards, servants, and security systems.

These should be enough to keep Mother Wu safe.

Li Nanchen gently patted her shoulder and stroked her hair softly. He agreed with Mother Wu's idea. "Auntie wants to grow up. We should give her this chance."

Wu Mei glanced over and noticed Li Nanchen's shirt. She held Li Nanchen's hand and said, "Let's go back to the room to change your dressing."

As soon as they left, Mother Wu walked out of the room with a cup of water.

Wu Mei had agreed to let her move back. This made her happy, but at the same time, she thought of something else.

This afternoon, she had also noticed that Lin Piaopiao had gone to the kitchen, and that timing was very special.

It was time for afternoon tea.

The only ones at home were Old Master Li and her, who had gone home to rest. Only the two of them sat together and had some snacks.

She did not feel uncomfortable at that time, but the more she thought about it, the more scared she felt. Something was amiss.

Might as well take a look!

As Mother Wu stood in the dimly lit corridor, she suddenly felt afraid. Her first thought was to look for Wu Mei.

If Wu Mei accompanied her to the kitchen, she would feel much more at ease.

That won't work either.

Wu Mei and Li Nanchen should have already rested.

Mother Wu cheered herself on.

This is the Li family villa.

No matter how bold Lin Piaopiao is, she won't act recklessly. Besides, the butler and servants live downstairs, so she should be fine.

Mother Wu had just walked into the kitchen when she saw Lin Piaopiao standing in front of a pot and throwing something inside.

What is that cooking in that pot?

She remembered that Old Master Li was getting on in years, so he ate more meals but smaller amounts at each meal. Hence, he would have some supper at night.

So the person Lin Piaopiao wants to deal with is Old Master Li?

Mother Wu held the cup tightly. She did not expect her speculation to become reality.

Lin Piaopiao giggled at the pot. It sounded terrifying.

Mother Wu did not have time to think about where the servant who should be guarding the kitchen had run off to. She turned her head and ran towards the stairs while calling out "Mei'er".

At this distance, Wu Mei could not hear her.

Mother Wu immediately shut her mouth. She was afraid that Lin Piaopiao would find out, so she quickly ran up the stairs.

But it was too late.

Lin Piaopiao had already heard Mother Wu calling Wu Mei's name. She immediately turned around and ran out of the kitchen.

The moment she saw Mother Wu, who was about to go upstairs, she ran over like a madwoman and reached out to pull her hair.

Mother Wu's speed was not slow either, causing her to miss.

"Stop right there!" Lin Piaopiao started panicking.

If Mother Wu told Old Master Li about this matter, and then take the food in the pot for testing.

She would be doomed.

How could Lin Piaopiao let Mother Wu escape?

She chased Mother Wu up to the second floor and successfully blocked her way.

"Auntie, why are you running away?" Lin Piaopiao smiled awkwardly. When she was shaking away her curly hair that covered her face, she didn't realize that the wig had already fallen off, revealing a small patch of smooth scalp.

Mother Wu saw it clearly. Her eyes widened in shock, and she thought that it was the result of the lights flashing.

"I want to go back to sleep." Mother Wu quickly lowered her voice and answered fearfully.

Lin Piaopiao firmly blocked Mother Wu's path and smiled sinisterly. "Sleep? Are you going to complain to Wu Mei about what I did?"

"I'll say that you did all this."

"There are surveillance cameras in the Li family residence," Mother Wu immediately retorted.

Lin Piaopiao's every move would be captured.

Lin Piaopiao's expression changed slightly. She took two steps forward and approached Mother Wu. "In that case, I can only make Auntie disappear."

Mother Wu immediately sensed that Lin Piaopiao wanted to kill her, so she shouted Wu Mei's name with all her might. After that, Lin Piaopiao pushed her down the stairs.

The stairs weren't very high, but it would still hurt if she fell down.

Lin Piaopiao obviously realized this as well and was very dissatisfied. She swiftly walked down and undid the bracelet on her wrist.

The crystal bracelet looked very beautiful.

"Auntie, don't worry. I'll send you to your grave." Lin Piaopiao lowered her voice and approached Mother Wu.

Is she going to stuff the crystal bracelet into Mother Wu's mouth?

Is she crazy?

Looking at Lin Piaopiao's crazed gaze, Mother Wu realized that this woman had long been abnormal.

Everyone in the Li family was very busy. No one would care about an unimportant person.. Thus, no one noticed that Lin Piaopiao was getting crazier and crazier.

"Ms Lin, calm down." Mother Wu struggled to sit up, but Lin Piaopiao held her shoulders down.

Lin Piaopiao chuckled. "Grandpa Li should have enough medicine. I'll give these to Auntie. Auntie, take your time eating it."

Her pupils dilated infinitely. When she got close to Mother Wu's face like a demon, she suddenly groaned and knelt on the ground.

Lin Piaopiao wanted to turn around to look, but the wig on her head was tugged back, and she immediately screamed.

The lights on the entire floor were instantly lit up.

Wu Mei pulled Lin Piaopiao up and flung her aside.

Lin Piaopiao fell onto the ground heavily. She hugged her head with both hands and screamed, "Who touched my hair? You will die a horrible death! You will die a horrible death!"

Wu Mei didn't bother with Lin Piaopiao. Instead, she helped Mother Wu up and asked, "Mom, are you alright?"

She vaguely heard Mother Wu's voice from upstairs and thought that she might have heard wrongly. Nevertheless, she still went to take a look.

This look was what saved Mother Wu's life.

Mother Wu was scared out of her wits. She desperately shed tears and said anxiously, "Mei'er, hurry up and save him. This Lin girl has drugged your grandfather."

"What?" Wu Mei's eyes widened in shock.

Mother Wu clutched Wu Mei's hand tightly. "I discovered it so she wanted to..."

Wu Mei instantly hugged Mother Wu and stopped her from looking at Lin Piaopiao, who was being held down by the butler and servants. She coaxed her and said, "Mom, don't worry. Leave it to me. I'll take care of it."

Mother Wu was trembling badly. It was obvious that she was really scared.

Wu Mei watched as Li Nanchen walked up to Lin Piaopiao and arranged for the bodyguards to take Lin Piaopiao away first. They would settle this after comforting the elders.

Wu Mei could guess that Li Nanchen would lock Lin Piaopiao up in that place.

"Mom, let me send you back to your room first, okay?" Wu Mei supported Mother Wu and coaxed her.

Mother Wu immediately rejected her. "Mei'er, I'm fine. I'll be fine after a nap. Hurry up and check on the food. Go check on your Grandpa Li."

Recalling how Lin Piaopiao wanted to stuff a bracelet into her mouth, she was so scared that she was about to cry.

"Okay, I'll check!" Wu Mei looked up at Li Nanchen.

Li Nanchen walked to Mother Wu's side and said in a low voice, "Auntie, go back to your room first. Mei'er and I can handle this."

Mother Wu nodded her head vigorously before returning to her room with Wu Mei.

After taking the medicine Bi Fang had prepared, she finally calmed down and went to sleep.

Wu Mei walked out of Mother Wu's room and said to Bi Fang, "Help Grandpa Li arrange for a check-up first. I suspect that Lin Piaopiao tampered with Grandpa Li's food."

It could be poison.

"Alright!" Bi Fang's face also turned green as he hastily left.

Wu Mei knew that Li Nanchen would make all the arrangements in the Li family and would not let Old Master Li know what had happened. He would also investigate Lin Piaopiao's scheme. However, she still felt a wave of fear wash over her.

If she had not arrived in time, something would have happened to her mother.

However, all of this was just a coincidence.

If she made the slightest mistake, Lin Piaopiao would succeed.

Li Nanchen walked behind Wu Mei and gently hugged her. He was so tired that he did not want to speak and could only seek comfort from her.

Lin Piaopiao schemed against Old Master Li?

It was scary just thinking about it.

Wu Mei perked up. They still had a lot of things that they had not dealt with. They had to resolve them as soon as possible.

Tonight was destined to be a tough night.

Wu Mei planned to visit Lin Piaopiao first. Li Nanchen would also accompany Old Master Li to have a chat.

Although Lin Piaopiao had caused quite a commotion, they had no intention of telling Old Master Li.

When she walked down the stairs, she saw the butler talking to a few servants. She walked over coldly.

She sized up the servants in front of her and asked, "Aren't there usually people keeping watch when cooking? Where's everyone? Where did they go?"

"This isn't Lin Piaopiao's first time in the kitchen, is it? Didn't you guys notice?"

Did these servants think that the Li family was too safe or that Old Master Li and Li Nanchen were too kind?

How can they be so sloppy?

The butler quickly assured Wu Mei, "Don't worry, I will arrange everything."

"Sorry to trouble you." Wu Mei looked at the trembling servants and found it ridiculous.

As long as there had been one person guarding the kitchen, Lin Piaopiao's scheme would not succeed, and Mother Wu would not be injured.

These people should be taught a lesson.

Wu Mei turned and left, preparing to go see Lin Piaopiao.

Li Nanchen stayed in Old Master Li's bedroom to accompany him.

Old Master Li looked at Bi Fang, who was in front of him, and then at Li Nanchen. He frowned and asked, "It's so late at night, did something happen?"

"No, everything is normal!" Li Nanchen shook his head.

Old Master Li did not believe him.

Although he did not leave the room, he could still hear the sounds coming from downstairs. Seems like they were quarreling?

Needless to say, Li Nanchen pushed the blame onto Lin Piaopiao and said lightly, "Lin Piaopiao went to the kitchen to fetch water. She bumped into Auntie and started quarreling."

"The butler discovered it first, so he got the servants to call us downstairs."

Old Master Li said in disgust, "This Lin Piaopiao is becoming more and more insensible. She wasn't like this back then."

Lin Piaopiao from back then?

She was her same greedy self, just well disguised.

Lin Piaopiao was going crazy at the moment.

"I'm about to succeed. I'll marry Brother Nanchen and become the mistress of the Li Corporation."

"That woman called Wu Mei will die a horrible death."

The bodyguards stood around coldly, as if they did not hear her deranged speech.

Lin Piaopiao quickly turned her head and looked at one of the bodyguards. She said softly, "All of you have helped Wu Mei before, right? It's alright. I'll let all of you die together."

Sitting in her chair, she was unable to sense the danger around her. She felt extremely happy, shouting and screaming, until she saw Wu Mei.

"You're here? Is she still alive?" Lin Piaopiao tilted her head and revealed a cruel smile.

Wu Mei slowly walked over and slapped Lin Piaopiao, causing her wig to fall to the ground.

When Lin Piaopiao was locked up in this godforsaken place again, she didn't feel much fear. However, when she saw the wig fall to the ground, she couldn't help but scream, "Hair! My hair!"

Impolitely stepping on the wig, Wu Mei spat out coldly, "Everything you did today will be investigated thoroughly."

"It doesn't matter even if you keep acting crazy. I'll lock you up in a mental hospital and you'll never get out."

Lin Piaopiao looked at Wu Mei fixedly, as if she did not understand. She asked gloomily, "What did I do today?"

Wu Mei looked straight into Lin Piaopiao's eyes. A thought popped up in her mind and she found it unbelievable.

She suddenly had a feeling.

In actuality, Lin Piaopiao's mental state was already abnormal.

If it were anyone normal, they would not have left such a huge loophole or even hurt her mother.

She would choose a more meticulous method to get rid of the obstacles in front of her.

Lin Piaopiao looked at Wu Mei and suddenly asked, "Are you talking about me hurting Auntie? Why are you still investigating? Ask me directly."

Everyone looked at Lin Piaopiao in surprise.

Is she really deranged?

Wu Mei sat opposite her and said coldly, "Have you thought it through? If you really did something like this..."

“I did it!” Lin Piaopiao raised her head and cheerfully shook her hair.

“Once all the people in the way of Brother Nanchen and I are dead, I will succeed.”

“She and Wu Mei are so annoying. They eat and live in the Li family for free every day and even want to take over my Brother Nanchen? They are shameless.”

Wu Mei looked at Lin Piaopiao scornfully and asked with a sneer, “Shameless? What status did you use to stay on in the Li family? Isn’t your skin thicker?”

“What do you know? Brother Nanchen and I are the most compatible. I’m more suited to be by Brother Nanchen’s side and deal with everyone.” Lin Piaopiao was extremely confident.

Wu Mei’s original intention was to try to lead Lin Piaopiao to discuss the drugging incident in the kitchen. However, Lin Piaopiao merely grumbled about Mother Wu.

Li Nanchen’s voice was heard. “Deal with everyone? What I want to do the most is to chase your father away. Are you willing?”

Lin Piaopiao watched in horror as Li Nanchen walked up to her. As if she didn’t recognize him, she instantly screamed, “Ah, I remember you. You’re a bad person. You tortured me.”

“Brother Nanchen, come and save me. Come quickly.”

Is Lin Piaopiao hoping that Li Nanchen will save her?

Wu Mei rubbed her ears and stood up. She said to Li Nanchen, “I want to arrange for Bi Fang to send her to the mental hospital for a checkup.”

Without any hesitation, Li Nanchen turned her down and said, “No, it will cause trouble for the Li family.”

If Lin Piaopiao became deranged in the Li family, it would become a stain on the Li family. At any time, someone might use it to cause trouble.

Wu Mei narrowed her eyes in frustration. She glanced at Lin Piaopiao and grabbed Li Nanchen’s collar unhappily. “Then tell me, what should we do?”

“She doesn’t look normal to me. We can’t keep her at home.”

What if Lin Piaopiao suddenly goes crazy and hurts Old Master Li?

After all, this woman now treats Old Master Li as a stumbling block in her marriage to Li Nanchen.

Li Nanchen looked at Lin Piaopiao coldly. "I'll take care of it."

It wasn't that Wu Mei didn't trust Li Nanchen, but Lin Piaopiao and Lin Liguohad too many tricks up their sleeves. Once they seized an opportunity, they would definitely not let go of it easily.

All of a sudden, Lin Piaopiao tilted her head, closed her eyes, and started snoring.

She actually fell asleep under such circumstances?

In order to prevent Old Master Li from overthinking, they could only send Lin Piaopiao back to her room first and arrange for a bodyguard to monitor her round the clock.

This was the Li family's villa, but now...

Wu Mei felt Li Nanchen's fatigue and hugged him tenderly. "Don't worry. As long as we find out the truth, everything will be fine."

Li Nanchen thought so too, but the outcome surprised them.

Bi Fang arranged for Old Master Li's checkup, but there was nothing wrong with the results.

As for the tonic that Lin Piaopiao had drugged, there was no trace of any poisonous substance.

Mother Wu still remembered that when Lin Piaopiao went crazy, she wanted to stuff the bracelet into her mouth. However, after testing it, it was confirmed that the bracelet was just an ordinary accessory and there was nothing wrong with it.

Bi Fang participated in the whole process and could confirm that there was no problem with the results.

Chapter 326: Already Moved Out

This matter suddenly became a simple matter of Lin Piaopiao and Mother Wu getting into a conflict and harming an elder.

In Lin Piaopiao's confession, she only mentioned her conflict with Mother Wu and never mentioned Old Master Li.

What could they do in the end?

Under Old Master Li's arrangement, Lin Piaopiao sincerely apologized to Mother Wu.

She acted like a normal person the entire time and they could not find any mistakes. She looked completely different from the deranged person in the basement.

This made Wu Mei think that her judgment had been wrong.

Lin Piaopiao isn't crazy. She merely acted extremely well and successfully fooled her.

But... Is this possible?

Wu Mei could not trick Lin Piaopiao into going to the hospital for a psychiatric examination in front of her elders.

Mother Wu's face was cold as she stared at the aggrieved Lin Piaopiao.

Indeed, she could no longer stay in the Li family.

Lin Piaopiao would find another opportunity to plot against her, and she would definitely drag Wu Mei down.

Wu Mei could tell that Mother Wu was troubled. She placed her hand on Mother Wu's shoulder and flashed her a comforting smile.

Don't worry!

Lin Piaopiao could pretend for a while, but not forever.

She and Li Nanchen would arrange for someone to keep an eye on Lin Piaopiao.

When Mother Wu saw Wu Mei's confident smile, she temporarily calmed down. She turned and smiled at Old Master Li. "Even if Miss Lin has many things on her mind, I think the servants at home should be changed."

Lin Piaopiao's face turned slightly pale. She quickly apologized, "Auntie, I was the one who caused you to misunderstand. There's no need to vent your anger on the servants at home."

"How can this be venting my anger on them? They didn't do a good job. If we were plotted against, do they think they can escape?" Old Master Li questioned Lin Piaopiao bluntly.

In short, a few servants in the Li family were replaced.

In the future, everyone would have to work hard.

This was because the Li family had invited them here for work, not to have fun.

When the matter was somewhat settled, Lin Piaopiao blushed as she found an excuse to run back to the guest room.

Old Master Li looked at Li Nanchen and said, "Stay back."

"Okay!" Li Nanchen said with a smile.

When Wu Mei accompanied Mother Wu back to her room, Mother Wu suddenly turned around and held Wu Mei's hand tightly. She said in a quavering voice, "Mei'er, this Lin Piaopiao is too scary."

However crazy Lin Piaopiao was yesterday, that was how normal she was today.

But this also proved that there was something very wrong with Lin Piaopiao.

"Mom, don't worry. Nanchen and I will keep an eye on her after you leave," Wu Mei promised Mother Wu.

Mother Wu held Wu Mei's hand and sighed. "If not because I was afraid that the Old Master would be suspicious, I would have chased her away."

Exactly.

Wu Mei did not want Lin Piaopiao to stay any longer, but there was no better way.

Everything had to be done for the sake of stabilizing Old Master Li's mood.

Mother Wu packed her luggage and asked the bodyguards to send her back to her new home that afternoon.

The house she had chosen was close to the company and the security was excellent. It would put Wu Mei at ease.

Old Master Li couldn't bear to let Mother Wu leave. After all, if Mother Wu stayed at home, he would have a companion. However, everyone was busy.

Li Nanchen and Wu Mei had to deal with the company's matters, and Mother Wu had pulled herself together. This was a good thing.

Obviously, Old Master Li did not take Lin Piaopiao into consideration.

Mother Wu's luggage was moved off first, while Mother Wu chose to leave after having dinner at the Li family's house.

Lin Piaopiao was seated in the furthest corner of the room. Sitting at the edge, she tugged at the tablecloth. She lowered her eyes and tried hard to hide her true emotions.

In actuality, she could not contain it any longer.

After Mother Wu was sent back by Li Nanchen and Wu Mei, Lin Piaopiao sat alone in the dining room for a while before slowly returning to her room.

She contacted her father at the appointed time.

Lin Liguu sounded anxious. "Has that woman moved out?"

That woman was referring to Mother Wu.

A vicious look flashed across Lin Piaopiao's eyes. She lowered her voice and said, "She already moved out. Wu Mei and Brother Nanchen sent her back."

Lin Liguu nodded and was about to hang up.

Lin Piaopiao asked anxiously, "Daddy, how's the research going?"

Lin Liguu quickly comforted Lin Piaopiao, "My good daughter, don't worry. Everything is going smoothly. However, there are people within the Wu Corporation who want to deal with that mother-daughter duo so that they can benefit from it. I have to make arrangements for this matter first."

Deal with Mother Wu and Wu Mei?

Lin Piaopiao's eyes lit up and her tone became lighter. She asked happily, "Dad, is it true?"

"Why would I lie to you? Go and rest first, I'll make the arrangements." Lin Liguu immediately hung up.

Lin Piaopiao held her phone happily and sneered, "How will they deal with these two women? If they don't have a good solution, I do."

This was the best news she had heard.

Lin Piaopiao raised her head. When she looked at herself in the mirror, her expression immediately turned ugly.

Her scalp had begun to turn red, and there were tiny red spots on it. It looked terrifying and her bald scalp showed no signs of growing hair.

She grabbed the mirror and sneered, "It doesn't matter how ugly I become. Brother Nanchen will always like me."

"Brother Nanchen will never give up on me."

It was really convenient for Mother Wu to get to the Wu Corporation from her new home.

She was very satisfied.

She did not ask Wu Mei to give her a lift after the meeting today. Instead, she hoped that Wu Mei could pick Li Nanchen up from work.

The bodyguards protected her well and would not let her encounter any more danger.

Wu Mei also hoped to give Li Nanchen a surprise and personally pick him up from work.

When the mother and daughter left the company, a security guard standing at the entrance took out his phone and hid in a corner to secretly contact someone.

"Yes, they went their separate ways today. I heard that they are going home alone. Wu Mei is going to fetch Li Nanchen."

"They've already separated."

After making the report, the security guard put his phone away and acted like nothing had happened.

Mother Wu did not know that danger was coming. Just as her car was about to reach the outskirts of the neighborhood, a car suddenly came crashing towards her in a frenzy.

The driver stopped the car swiftly and narrowly avoided it. He quickly turned the steering wheel and changed directions, choosing to circle around the vehicle as soon as possible.

"Should we call the police?" Mother Wu asked instinctively when she saw the accident.

She was really a very kind person. Even when she was in danger, she would still consider the other party's safety instead of thinking that this might be a conspiracy.

The chauffeur said, "Madam, don't worry. Someone has already run over to take a look. I'll send you home first."

Mother Wu did not agree. She frowned slightly but did not retort.

She could understand the driver's concern, and she would not easily get involved in dangerous situations.

However, the person who ran over to check on the accident was suddenly knocked unconscious.

Mother Wu happened to see this scene and said to the driver in shock, "Quick, quick, drive. They're bad people."

The driver had also noticed what was happening outside the car and chose to speed up.

The car that had been involved in the accident was already a little damaged, but it still increased its horsepower and caught up.

Mother Wu was glad that she did not lose her cool and asked the chauffeur to get out of the car to check on the situation.

Otherwise, they would definitely not be able to escape.

The neighborhood security booth was just ahead.

Just as the chauffeur was about to drive over, a car suddenly accelerated from their front and pushed towards them.

This was a pincer attack.

Mother Wu clutched her seatbelt in fear and shut her eyes tightly. She could feel the terrifying impact of the cars crashing into them.

The driver shouted into the walkie-talkie, "Quick, there are two cars. There are a total of six people in the cars."

Not only were there bodyguards in Mother Wu's car, but there was also a car behind that was responsible for keeping her safe.

The private car quickly caught up with them. The bodyguards who came out of the car surrounded Mother Wu's car.

The chauffeur immediately contacted Wu Mei and told her what happened.

Mother Wu wanted to stop him, but she knew that Wu Mei would find out sooner or later and would be angry at her for hiding it. Thus, she silently consented to the chauffeur's actions.

Wu Mei had just fetched Li Nanchen when she received a call from the chauffeur. Her expression turned horrible.

Li Nanchen reacted quickly. In a low voice, he instructed the chauffeur, "Go to Auntie's house first."

He turned to Wu Mei and comforted her, "Don't worry, everything will be fine."

Wu Mei thought about the danger that Mother Wu had encountered before. This time, it was similar. Could it be...

"Mo Li!" Wu Mei suddenly exclaimed.

Li Nanchen narrowed his eyes, not agreeing with Wu Mei's guess. "Mo Li's methods will be even more ruthless. It won't be so gentle."

Only getting two cars to crash into Mother Wu's car?

If Mother Wu was only frightened and there were no casualties, wouldn't it be a loss?

Wu Mei stopped speculating and looked out of the window frustratedly, hoping to see Mother Wu soon.

The car sped along.

Li Nanchen received another call from his bodyguard. It turned out that the neighborhood security guard had already noticed the accident and called the police in the nick of time to escort Mother Wu home.

They were safe for now.

That's great!

Wu Mei finally heaved a sigh of relief. She instinctively leaned on Li Nanchen's shoulder and said softly, "I was scared to death."

How could Li Nanchen not be afraid?

If something were to happen to Mother Wu, Wu Mei would definitely go mad with grief.

"Don't worry. I've also deployed a few trustworthy bodyguards from the house to check on the situation." While Li Nanchen was comforting Wu Mei, the chauffeur suddenly stopped the car.

What is going on?

Li Nanchen and Wu Mei raised their heads at the same time and saw three cars parked side by side, blocking their way.

When the driver stopped the car, more than ten people jumped out of the three cars. They were strong and had fierce expressions on their faces. They held wooden sticks and other weapons in their hands as they marched towards them.

Where did these hooligans come from?

Li Nanchen's face darkened as he asked Wu Mei, "Wu Mei, are you ready?"

Wu Mei sneered and flexed her wrists. Only ten or so of them were not enough to take on her and Li Nanchen.

Before she got out of the car, she contacted Mother Wu. After hearing that Mother Wu was safe, she felt relieved and decided to have a good fight with the people in front of her.

Let them suffer.

One of the muscular men swung the stick in his hand and smashed it against the front of the car, crushing it instantly.

He turned around and laughed out loud. "Things that belong to the rich, you can smash anything you want..."

His laughter stopped abruptly.. When he was kicked to the ground by Li Nanchen, his head hit the ground and he fainted.

Chapter 328: It's All Your Fault

So weak

When Wu Mei got out of the car, her hands were empty but her gaze was sharp. However, she was not afraid of anyone.

Including the driver and bodyguards, the four of them were not at all disadvantaged against more than ten people. Instead, they beat the other party up until their faces swelled up and they could not even stand properly.

Clearly, someone had underestimated Li Nanchen and Wu Mei's strength.

After Li Zhuo had arranged everything, he walked out of Lin Liguó's house and got into the car.

Sheng Hongfei was already impatient from waiting. When she saw Li Zhuo return, she pulled a long face and moved to the side. "How's the situation?"

"Lin Piaopiao is really useless. Wu Mei and the rest could even find out about her slipping drugs in. But this drug is very good. If the dosage is controlled well, it won't be detected." Li Zhuo told the driver that he was going back to the Li family.

Sheng Hongfei finally looked slightly happy. She said, "I've already told you that Lin Piaopiao is useless. She can't even hold onto a man. What else can she do?"

Li Zhuo recalled Lin Piaopiao's looks and figure and felt that she was not bad.

However, Sheng Hongfei was still sitting beside him, so he had to restrain himself.

Sheng Hongfei suddenly looked at Li Zhuo and said, "Yang Shan said that as long as Wu Mei and her mother are dead, their inheritance will become theirs."

"Yes, Wu Pang probably has a share." Li Zhuo smiled disdainfully.

Yang Shan and Wu Yi want to lay their hands on Wu Meits inheritance with their abilities? Don't joke around.

From the moment the mother and daughter launched their plan to the moment the matter was exposed, all it took was one day. They were especially useless.

Sheng Hongfei asked seriously, "So you plan to use this method too, right?"

As long as Old Master Li died, Li Zhuo would use his connections to suppress Li Nanchen and stay in the main company.

If something happened to Li Nanchen and Wu Mei as well..

The Li family would be theirs.

Li Zhuo couldn't be bothered to say more. After returning to the Li family, he immediately went to find Old Master Li.

Old Master Li looked at Li Zhuo in disgust. After exchanging a few words with him, he got the butler to send the couple out.

If it was possible, he hoped that they would not step into the Li Family villa again. It would only make him unhappy and affect his illness.

However, the butler did not appear.

Old Master Li finally felt that something was wrong. He looked at Li Zhuo coldly and said, "What did you do?"

"Do you know where Li Nanchen went? And why is there no news of Wu Mei?"
Needless to say, Li Zhuo was unwilling to leave.

He placed his hands on the table and looked straight at Old Master Li with a sinister smile.

Old Master Li raised his head. "They went on a date today. Do you want to be a third wheel?"

Li Zhuo's expression twisted for a moment, but he quickly returned to normal.

He smiled smugly and lowered his voice. "Let me tell you something," he said. "They're about to die."

Old Master Li's expression did not change. He did not think that Li Zhuo would be able to take Li Nanchen and Wu Mei's lives with his abilities.

Li Zhuo knew that Old Master Li would not believe him.

He took out his phone and sent a video request. A few seconds later, the call connected.

"Come, let our Old Master see how my precious nephew is doing." Li Zhuo tossed the phone to Old Master Li.

Old Master Li did not reach out to take it, but he could clearly see that Li Nanchen and Wu Mei were being surrounded.

His eyes widened in anger and he roared, "Li Zhuo, you arranged this."

"I arranged it. There are no surveillance cameras at their location. After they die, I will pretend that it was an accident and it will not affect the Li Corporation's stocks." Li Zhuo sat down smugly.

Old Master Li slammed the table and shouted, "Someone, anyone..."

Li Zhuo spread his hands out and laughed arrogantly. "Stop shouting, it's useless."

"Li Nanchen deployed the bodyguards to take care of Wu Mei's mother. By the way, you probably don't know that that lady will also die soon."

Old Master Li pointed at Li Zhuo with one hand and covered his heart with the other. He gritted his teeth and said, "You will die a horrible death."

Li Zhuo's expression changed. He laughed sinisterly and said, "I will die a horrible death? All of this was caused by you. If you didn't chase me away, they wouldn't have suffered today."

"It's all because of you."

Old Master Li clutched his chest. Suddenly, he could not breathe properly. His vision turned black and it felt as if he could not hold on any longer.

When Sheng Hongfei saw this scene, she was so frightened that her face turned ashen. She said anxiously, "Li Zhuo, something is going to happen to him."

Li Zhuo snorted and said, "What are you afraid of? We've done so much today just for this moment."

He wanted to see Old Master Li die with his own eyes.

The door of the study room was suddenly kicked open.

Bi Fang held a gun in his hand and strode in quickly. He aimed it at Li Zhuo and Sheng Hongfei and said, "You two, step back."

Sheng Hongfei screamed in fright. She tugged at Li Zhuo's sleeve and said, "G-gun... He has a gun in his hand."

Bi Fang swiftly fed Old Master Li a pill. Old Master Li's breathing returned to normal and his breathing calmed down.

Li Zhuo pulled Sheng Hongfei to the door of the study and said scornfully, "You must be Doctor Bi. With you around, Old Master will definitely be fine, right?"

He and Sheng Hongfei quickly left the study and locked the door.

When Bi Fang realized that something was amiss, he immediately came to save Old Master Li with a gun in his hand. He only thought of contacting Wu Mei now.

However, nobody picked up Wu Mei's phone.
