

After Divorcing, She Shocked the World

Chapter 341: A Sacrificial Victim

Lin Liguó was still struggling and Lin Piaopiao did not dare to get too close to him.

He turned his head and shouted at Li Nanchen, “Li Nanchen, if you dare to treat me like this, I will never treat Old Master Li again.”

Li Nanchen chose to remain silent. He hoped that Lin Liguó would never appear in the Li family again.

Lin Liguó also recalled everything that happened in the hospital and quickly changed his words. “You can’t malign us. We didn’t harm the Old Master. That was your way of framing us.”

Wu Mei took a few steps forward and reminded Lin Liguó, “Dr. Lin, your daughter admitted it herself. It has nothing to do with us.”

“If you feel wronged, you can ask Ms. Lin why she spouted nonsense. This will mislead our investigation.”

When Lin Piaopiao heard that she had never harmed Old Master Lin, her eyes turned clear and she was no longer as crazy as before.

She first looked at Lin Liguó, who was getting lifted downstairs, and then at Wu Mei, who was standing at the side. She recalled her encounter in the basement and couldn’t help but tremble.

Wu Mei is truly a demon.

Wu Mei seized the opportunity when her condition was bad and couldn’t resist, to push her down the stairs and lock her up again.

Lin Piaopiao felt that she had to take revenge, and now was the perfect opportunity.

When she quietly approached Wu Mei, Li Nanchen also walked towards Wu Mei.

“Mei’er, don’t waste your breath on him. If he’s smart, he will know what to do.” When Li Nanchen said this, the bodyguard had already let go of Lin Liguó.

Lin Ligu strode quickly towards the stairs. Just as he was about to walk up the stairs, he saw Lin Piaopiao shouting and pouncing towards Wu Mei.

Everything happened in a flash.

Wu Mei's attention was focused on Lin Ligu. Thus, she did not notice Lin Piaopiao, who was supposed to go down the stairs.

When Lin Piaopiao turned around and tried to grab her, she was caught off guard. When she was getting dragged down the stairs, she quickly used the momentum to prevent herself from being injured when she fell.

Wu Mei's body was agile and her movements were light. It was as if she had flown down the stairs. However, in the eyes of others, it still seemed rather dangerous.

Li Nanchen wanted to grab Wu Mei, but he was too slow and it was already too late.

At the last landing, Wu Mei found Lin Ligu standing at the bottom of the last step. She was furious and quickly reacted.

She treated Lin Ligu as a sacrificial victim to cushion her fall.

Wu Mei and Lin Ligu fell on the stairs and made a loud noise, scaring Lin Piaopiao.

If she falls like this, she will definitely be severely injured.

Lin Piaopiao thought smugly as Li Nanchen dashed down and picked Wu Mei up.

She was about to follow when a bodyguard grabbed her wrist and pressed her against the wall.

Lin Piaopiao desperately turned her head, wanting to see what was happening downstairs. However, she only saw Li Nanchen carrying Wu Mei back and telling the bodyguards, "Throw them out. If Mei'er is injured, send Lin Piaopiao to the mental hospital."

"Since she's sick, she shall not come out forever."

Lin Piaopiao shook her head desperately, but she could only see Li Nanchen's back.

She stumbled to Lin Ligu's side and asked anxiously, "Dad, how are you?"

How else could Lin Ligu be?

He was about to faint from the pain. At the same time, he felt that his daughter was really too stupid.

If she couldn't take Wu Mei's life in one move, she shouldn't make any rash moves.

Wu Mei was taken away by Li Nanchen, but his back had hit the ground. It was so painful that he felt like his bones were about to break.

"I, I..." Before Lin Liguó could finish his sentence, he was held up by two bodyguards.

He was in so much pain that he raised his head to shout but was brought to the door before he could even shout.

The door closed.

Lin Liguó and Lin Piaopiao were standing at the entrance of the Li Family villa. Beside them was a pile of things that Lin Piaopiao had used before. They were scattered all over the ground, and they were all dirtied with dust.

"Dad, are you alright?" Lin Piaopiao quickly held onto Lin Liguó.

Lin Liguó looked at Lin Piaopiao angrily. Just as he was about to speak, he was in so much pain that he held his waist. His whole body was covered in sweat. He squeezed out a few words with difficulty, "Are you trying to plot against Wu Mei, or are you trying to harm me?"

Lin Piaopiao shook her head. Just as she was about to explain, she felt a wave of dizziness and her expression turned dull again.

Lin Liguó guessed that it was time for Lin Piaopiao to take her medicine.

He turned around and banged on the door. However, no matter how much he shouted, no one opened the door for him.

Lin Piaopiao's condition had become very unstable, so he could only bring her home first.

Lin Liguó helped Lin Piaopiao up and cursed non-stop along the way before finally leaving.

Wu Mei watched everything from the surveillance camera and slowly clenched her fists. She can only hope that Lin Liguó doesn't disappoint her and contacts Mo Li as soon as possible.

What if it isn't Mo Li?

She raised her head to look at Li Nanchen, thinking that he would immediately deal with the Lin father and daughter.

When Li Nanchen turned around and saw that Wu Mei was sitting on the bed and holding the laptop, he reached out to close the laptop and set it aside.

Wu Mei quickly said, "It's a surveillance camera. I'm still monitoring Lin Liguo."

"What's there to see?" Li Nanchen asked unhappily.

He recalled the scene when Wu Mei fell down the stairs and felt a lingering fear..

Chapter 342: A Wonderful Proposal

Wu Mei's face instantly turned red. She knew that Li Nanchen was worried about her safety and quickly smiled to comfort him. "Look, aren't I safe and sound?"

"The stairs are so short. It wouldn't be a problem if I were to fall down normally, not to mention that I had Lin Liguo to cushion my fall."

Li Nanchen's face was dark. While he opened the medicine box, Wu Mei was already obediently lying on the bed.

Wu Mei was not injured at all, which showed how skilled she was. However, there were bruises on her arms.

This was all from the fight. After they were intercepted along the way, it took them a lot of effort to survive the encirclement.

He poured out the medicinal wine and helped Wu Mei rub away the bruise. Throughout the whole process, he did not feel a single trace of desire, only heartache.

Feeling Li Nanchen's gentle movements, Wu Mei's eyelids started to flutter. She mumbled, "I'm afraid that Li Zhuo will attack the Li Corporation. You should deal with him seriously. I'll stay in the hospital."

She fell asleep after uttering the last word.

Looking at Wu Mei's eyes, Li Nanchen then bent down to kiss her gently.

Wu Mei was exhausted.

It was also very tough on her.

He could only wait for Lin Liguo to take the bait and wait for him to reveal how he bought the medicine.

Lin Ligu used a new phone to contact Li Zhuo. The two of them complained about each other's failure.

He growled into the phone, "My daughter became like this because of your plan. Don't you have to be responsible?"

Li Zhuo's voice was also filled with anxiety. It seemed like his situation wasn't very good either. He said irritably, "Is it because of my plan? Isn't it because she's sick? What has it got to do with me?"

Lin Ligu was so angry that he was trembling. He screamed, "It was you who asked her to send the drug over. That's why she was forced into this state. You have to compensate us."

Li Zhuo felt like he had just heard a huge joke. He was still thinking of working with Lin Ligu in the future, but when he heard that Old Master Li could successfully escape danger, his emotions were extremely complex.

Lin Ligu is useless, but he actually cured Old Master Li?

He hoped that Old Master Li would not wake up.

Li Zhuo did not know that it was Bi Fang's credit that Old Master Li was safe and sound. Furthermore, Lin Ligu loved to take all the credit and spread the news that Old Master Li was saved by him again. That was why there was such a misunderstanding.

His anger towards Lin Ligu had reached an intolerable level.

Li Zhuo said disdainfully, "Have you forgotten? Your daughter fell sick after losing her hair. We didn't collaborate at that time. Even if you want to blame someone, it shouldn't be me."

Of course, Lin Ligu knew the cause and effect of this matter. He roared, "This is all Mo Li's arrangement. Didn't you get the medicine from Mo Li?"

Li Zhuo suddenly fell silent. Lin Ligu also knows about Mo Li?

Were they in contact previously?

This time, Li Zhuo had brazenly schemed against Old Master Li because he urgently needed a sum of money to invest with Mo Li to develop new drugs.

He didn't know the origin or use of this drug, but as long as it was something that could make money, he would try it.

"I understand!" Li Zhuo suddenly said.

Lin Ligu suddenly became quiet too. He stuttered, "W-what do you understand?"

Li Zhuo sneered and replied, "You want to ask Mo Li for help in finding the antidote to save Ms. Lin. You should have just said it earlier so that we can work together."

Lin Ligu asked nervously, "What do you mean?"

Li Zhuo smiled and said, "I'll give you a type of medicine tomorrow. Feed that to Old Master Li and Li Nanchen."

And then?

Was there a need to ask?

Neither Old Master Li nor Li Nanchen would survive.

"Do you think I'm a fool? My daughter is going to marry into the Li family." Lin Ligu was so angry that he ruffled his hair. His mood was indescribably terrible.

He did not notice that Lin Piaopiao had quietly approached him.

Li Zhuo said impolitely, "Don't tell me you think that Li Nanchen might marry your daughter? You and your daughter should come to terms with reality."

"But I'm different. If your daughter can really be cured, my son can marry her."

Lin Ligu was shocked. He did not expect Li Zhuo to have such a proposal.

Li Zhuo continued to persuade him, "We have each other's weaknesses, and we can work together with Mo Li to earn big bucks. It's better than you throwing in your daughter's entire life on this matter."

Lin Ligu knew that Li Zhuo could not be trusted, but Li Zhuo's proposal was too good.

Compared to Li Nanchen, Li Dongjue looked weak and ignorant and was easier to control.

It would be best if Lin Piaopiao married Li Dongjue.

Li Zhuo did not force Lin Ligu to express his stance. He merely said, "They will be going to the hospital frequently these few days. This is a good time to make a move. It will be even more perfect if we get Wu Mei into trouble."

"I'll send you the medicine. Think about it yourself."

Lin Ligu asked anxiously, "Will they really die after eating it?"

Li Zhuo replied, "There'll be no pain."

Lin Liguu sat on the chair in a daze, seriously considering Li Zhuo's suggestion.

Lin Piaopiao narrowed her red and swollen eyes as she recalled the conversation between Lin Liguu and the other person. She guessed that Lin Liguu wanted to drug Old Master Li and Li Nanchen to take their lives..

Chapter 343: He's Very Hot

Wu Mei left the Wu Corporation office building and took a taxi to the hospital.

Even if she and Li Nanchen could not help him, she still wanted to wait for Old Master Li to leave the ICU and settle the follow-up matters before she threw herself into work.

When Wu Mei arrived at the hospital, she did not see Li Nanchen and could not get through to his phone.

Could there be another accident?

Wu Mei looked around, trying to guess what might have happened when she felt a heavy tap on her shoulder.

She was already in a tense state when she was suddenly startled. She swiftly turned around, twisted the other party's wrist, and forcefully pulled it to the back.

M-me... It's me," Bi Fang cried out in pain.

Wu Mei quickly let go of him and took two steps back. She looked at him expressionlessly. "What are you doing? You scared me."

Bi Fang flexed his arm and looked at Wu Mei with an aggrieved expression. He cried, "You're the one who's scary! My hand is about to break because of you!"

"What are you looking for?"

"I don't see Nanchen." Wu Mei frowned slightly, a cold gleam flashing across her eyes.

She was worried that something had happened to Li Nanchen.

Bi Fang was silent for a while as he recalled some things. He said, "I arranged for him to visit the Old Master, but because I wanted to go to the washroom, he said he could go in himself."

"Half an hour has passed. I'll go ask."

He asked the medical staff working in the ICU to look for Li Nanchen.

Li Nanchen had already left.

“Could he have left?” Bi Fang looked at Wu Mei in confusion.

Wu Mei knew Li Nanchen very well. They came to the hospital for Old Master Li, so it was unlikely that he would leave so easily.

She patted Bi Fang’s shoulder and said solemnly, “Let’s look around.”

Bi Fang also stopped joking around and left with Wu Mei to search for Li Nanchen.

Wu Mei tried to contact Li Nanchen as she walked. She even tried to contact Qin Yang but to no avail.

She was starting to get scared.

Did something happen to Li Nanchen?

Wu Mei suddenly halted in her tracks and tried her best to calm herself down. She first tried to think of the place where Li Nanchen would most likely go when he was out of contact.

If there really was danger, where would Li Nanchen hide?

She suddenly had a better guess. She turned around and sprinted back, picking up the pace as she ran.

Li Nanchen should not have left the ICU. He should be hiding in a place where no one would normally walk around.

At the stairwell.

Wu Mei ran to the stairwell and pushed the door open with all her might. She felt a gust of cold wind blowing against her, making her instinctively shiver.

She coughed and called out softly, “Nanchen, I’m Wu Mei. Are you there?”

Wu Mei was grabbed by a hand and pulled behind the door before she could get a good look at the person.

The door slammed shut loudly.

Wu Mei used the sensor light in the stairwell to look at Li Nanchen's face. She hurriedly lifted her hands to hold his chin and asked in shock, "Why is your face so hot? Are you running a fever?"

Why did he hide when he had a fever?

Wu Mei did not have time to think. She frantically grabbed Li Nanchen's wrist and tried to pull him out of the stairwell.

Li Nanchen pulled Wu Mei back and pressed her against the wall, kissing her forcefully.

Her hands were tightly held by Li Nanchen and she was forced to raise her head. She felt that Li Nanchen was not kissing her but biting her. It hurt so much that she furrowed her brows and lifted her leg to kick Li Nanchen away.

Li Nanchen took this opportunity to squeeze himself between Wu Mei's legs and gave her a hard knock.

Wu Mei could not close her legs. She struggled to support herself between Li Nanchen and the wall and found that Li Nanchen's breathing was getting hotter and hotter.

"You are..." Wu Mei took the chance when Li Nanchen was taking a breather to ask another question.

She had to think of a way.

Wu Mei took the initiative to get closer to Li Nanchen. She pressed against his chest and let out a pitiful whimper.

As expected, Li Nanchen let go of her hand and hugged her waist instead.

Wu Mei swiftly untied Li Nanchen's belt and reached in.

Li Nanchen's entire body was steaming as if he was about to be cooked.

He kissed Wu Mei all over her face, wishing he could swallow her whole.

Wu Mei turned her head slightly and felt that she had also been scalded by Li Nanchen. She could only use her hands to relieve him as soon as possible.

It was only when Li Nanchen groaned and rested his chin on her shoulder that everything ended temporarily.

"Mei'er, I..." Li Nanchen's voice was hoarse, as if it was scratching Wu Mei's heart.

Wu Mei quickly interrupted him. "Nanchen, you might act up again. Shall we go find a doctor first?"

Li Nanchen kissed her lips forcefully and said angrily, "Are you kidding?"

How is he going to meet people in his current state?

Wu Mei's face also turned red. She quickly took the tissue Li Nanchen handed over and wiped her hands clean.

She contacted Bi Fang and asked him to stay in the hospital to take care of Old Master Li. She told him that she had to send Li Nanchen home first.

Bi Fang didn't quite understand and asked curiously, "Why does he need someone to send him off?"

If it was the usual Li Nanchen, there would not be a need to.

However, the current Li Nanchen might act up again at any moment and he needed her by his side.

"I'll leave the hospital matters to you. I'll treat you to a meal another day." Wu Mei was dragged down the stairs by Li Nanchen and hurriedly hung up..

Chapter 344: Antidote

Li Nanchen and Wu Mei rushed to the underground parking lot.

Wu Mei opened the car door and said to the chauffeur, "You're on leave today. Don't come back."

The chauffeur did not understand at first, but after seeing that Li Nanchen's condition was not right, he hurriedly got out of the car.

The car door slammed shut.

Wu Mei was pressed onto the back seat by Li Nanchen. He hurriedly pressed down on the back seat's partition to anyone outside the car from gazing in. She took the initiative to take off her jacket. Just as she was about to unbutton her shirt, Li Nanchen had already forcefully ripped it open.

“My clothes,” Wu Mei grumbled. However, when she turned her head, she realized that Li Nanchen’s eyes were red and his forehead was dripping with sweat. His forehead was so furrowed that his veins were bulging. She stopped complaining and took the initiative to kiss him.

Li Nanchen moved closer to Wu Mei’s ear and tried his best to maintain his composure. He apologized to Wu Mei first, “Sorry, I’ll be gentle.”

‘Wu Mei did not answer him. Instead, she removed Li Nanchen’s belt and tried her best to relax as she took him in.

‘The moment Li Nanchen thrust in, he bit down hard on Wu Mei’s shoulder. He still wanted to maintain his consciousness.

However, the drug was too strong and burned his entire body to the point of pain.

‘Wu Mei wrapped her legs around Li Nanchen’s waist as she coaxed him softly, “Nanchen, hurry up. I want it.”

Li Nanchen felt that the only nerve in his brain that had been tensed up snapped after hearing Wu Mei’s words.

He held Wu Mei tightly in his arms and backed away slightly before ramming into her again.

‘Wu Mei threw her head back, tears flowing from the corners of her eyes. However, she still smiled as she teased Li Nanchen.

Her hands caressed Li Nanchen’s muscular waist, and her fingers circled around his chest, causing the already confused Li Nanchen to lose control.

‘The entire car swayed along with Li Nanchen’s movements.

Anyone who had tried this before would know what was happening in the car.

‘Wu Mei couldn’t care less. She only hoped that Li Nanchen would be able to relieve himself quickly. This was something that harmed the body a lot.

As for the one who dared to drug Li Nanchen, there was no way they would let him off.

Who can it be?

‘Wu Mei already had an idea. She thought that it should be Lin Piaopiao.

Even though Lin Piaopiao was brought home by Lin Liguang, with this woman’s personality, she would not easily let go of any chance to interact with Li Nanchen. However, Li Nanchen was very careful.

How did Li Nanchen end up taking this medicine?

Li Nanchen realized that Wu Mei was distracted. He bit her earlobe unhappily and said sullenly, "Are you not satisfied?"

'Wu Mei raised her hand and lightly punched Li Nanchen's shoulder. In the end, because she couldn't bear to hurt him, she still kissed him lightly.

She pretended to be dissatisfied and lightly harrumphed. She complained to Li Nanchen, "Am I supposed to be satisfied? If your face wasn't so attractive, how could you have been schemed against? In the end, I'm the pitiful one." Li Nanchen buried his face in her shoulder and laughed gloomily.

If Wu Mei wanted to push him away, he would endure it no matter how uncomfortable he felt.

Because he could hurt Wu Mei at any time when his consciousness was a blur due to the heat.

'Wu Mei did not push him away. Instead, she hugged him.

Li Nanchen's heart was filled with affection. He leaned over and kissed the corner of her eyes, coaxing her, "I was wrong. I'll be gentler later."

'Wu Mei raised her brows and looked at Li Nanchen in surprise. "It's still not working?"

"I don't think so." Li Nanchen leaned against Wu Mei and closed his eyes to rest.

He licked his slightly swollen lips and narrowed his eyes. "This drug is probably meant to destroy me," he said darkly.

Destroy him!

If Wu Mei had not come, he would have been in trouble if he had endured alone.

Would Li Nanchen find a woman to settle it because he couldn't take it?

With his personality.

He would choose to endure until the end.

'Wu Mei's heart ached as she leaned into Li Nanchen's embrace. She was afraid that the drug would take effect on Li Nanchen again, so she did not dare to move. She could only mutter, "I think she can't bear to destroy you, but just once should have been enough. Why did she drug you so heavily? Is she crazy?"

Regardless of whether Li Nanchen's stamina could last till the end, a woman might not be able to withstand Li Nanchen's brute force.

Wu Mei felt that the little thing buried in her body was getting bigger and bigger. She couldn't help but sigh and turn over to sit in Li Nanchen's arms.

Li Nanchen quickly held her and said worriedly, "I'm much better now, I can..."

Pressing a finger to his lips, Wu Mei raised her eyebrows and smiled. "Can you bear it till we get home?"

"I can't!" Li Nanchen was already very calm. He clearly knew that his current sanity wouldn't last for much longer.

Wu Mei leaned close to his ear and blew gently. She smiled sweetly and said, "I can help you while I still have the strength. I won't be able to take care of you until the end."

"Alright, I'll listen to you." Li Nanchen looked straight at Wu Mei, enjoying her initiative. At the same time, his heart ached for her.

He knew that Wu Mei was not having a good time. He was the same.

Li Nanchen leaned forward and kissed her lips. He murmured, "Mei'er, my antidote."

After this affair was over, he would catch the person who had schemed against him.

No matter what, she had to let the culprit go through the same suffering from today..

Chapter 345: Leave It to Me

The car parked in the corner gradually calmed down. When it stopped shaking violently, a few people passed by.

Although Wu Mei was so tired that she didn't even want to open her eyes, she could still clearly hear their conversation.

The person who drugged Li Nanchen had brought a reporter.

She wanted to pull back her hand that was placed on Li Nanchen's shoulder, but Li Nanchen held it down.

Both of them noticed that the people outside were talking about something. They felt that they were very unprofessional to talk about what they were going to do.

Coincidentally, the two parties involved heard them.

'Wu Mei suspected that they had been invited here to wreak havoc. How could there be anyone who would dare to speak of this matter so brazenly?

"Do you think it's true? President Li is actually fooling around in the hospital. I heard that Old Master Li is in the hospital."

"I don't know where the Old Master is. I only know that this must be true. Let's hurry."

"If they end things, we won't get anything."

They hurried past, their footsteps fading fast.

Li Nanchen turned to look at her. He kissed her forehead lightly and sat up. "I contact Bi Fang first and get him to prepare for this situation and not let them disturb my grandfather's treatment."

'Wu Mei sat up with difficulty and leaned against the back of the front seat. She was so weak that she did not have any strength. Her body tilted and she fell towards the car door.

Li Nanchen quickly hugged Wu Mei in his arms. At the same time, he dialed Bi Fang's number.

Bi Fang swiftly picked up the call and asked anxiously, "Li Nanchen, where are you?"

Li Nanchen was also very tired. His mind was buzzing, and he could not hear the panic in Bi Fang's voice. In a hoarse voice, he said, "We encountered some bad stuff and have just settled them, but we don't have much strength now."

Bi Fang suddenly quietened down. He was not a child and could immediately tell that Li Nanchen's voice was unusual.

It turned out that he had encountered such trouble.

Bi Fang said stiffly, "Wow, more than three hours. This is a drug that can make you last for a few hours. It's quite impressive."

He nearly said that he wanted to extract some blood from Li Nanchen's arm for testing.

Li Nanchen could not be bothered to banter with him. He continued, "Some reporters went upstairs to block me. It's probably that the person who wants to harm me also found reporters. Help me observe them."

'Wu Mei leaned towards the phone. In her weakened state, she took a deep breath and added, "Bi Fang, take good care of the Old Master."

"Don't worry!" Bi Fang's voice regained its calm as he chuckled.

"Leave it to me."

Why did Wu Mei think that Bi Fang sounded like he was up to no good?

She reached for her coat, ready to put it on and drive home.

Li Nanchen refused to budge. Instead, he hugged Wu Mei tightly and said slowly, "Rest for a while more. I should be able to do it."

They suddenly realized that the chauffeur was very important.

Why would Wu Mei suddenly ask the chauffeur to leave?

She should be able to get the chauffeur back in time.

They did not think too much about Bi Fang's attitude. In fact, there were already reporters crowding outside the ICU wanting to interview the doctor.

The content of the interview was very simple. It was to ask about Old Master Li's situation.

The family members of the other patients were naturally unhappy. They all ran forward to stop the reporters. In the end, another crazy woman suddenly rushed out and almost bumped into the patient who was about to be sent to the ICU.

The scene turned chaotic.

When Bi Fang rushed over, he immediately recognized that the crazy woman was Lin Piaopiao.

Lin Piaopiao looked up and kept shouting, "Brother Nanchen, where is he? Have you seen him? He needs me."

Bi Fang could not guess the reason why the reporters came to interview the doctor, nor did he know why Lin Piaopiao had appeared. He could only arrange for security guards to chase the reporters out first.

The reporters ignored their professional ethics and affected the other patients and their families badly. How could he tolerate them staying?

The others didn't dare to get close to Lin Piaopiao, because Lin Piaopiao didn't look normal.

No one knew the "brother" who she was referring to.

Bi Fang asked the medical staff to rush over and settle Lin Piaopiao's matter. Just as he was about to contact Li Nanchen, Li Nanchen called first.

The result was like this.

In order to stay behind to treat Old Master Li personally, Bi Fang also chose to help the hospital take care of the other critically ill patients, so he also had his own temporary office.

He rubbed his chin and stared thoughtfully at the ornaments on his makeshift office desk. He had already sorted out the whole incident.

Lin Piaopiao schemed against Li Nanchen, but Li Nanchen was saved by Wu Mei.

A few hours had gone by. Even a fool would know that the effects of Li Nanchen's medicine had already passed, which was why Lin Piaopiao was so anxious that her illness relapsed.

Li Nanchen had also told him earlier that Lin Piaopiao had probably arranged for the reporters to come looking for trouble.

She was really a greedy woman.

Lin Piaopiao might as well have gotten some sleeping pills and fed them to Li Nanchen. After that, she could create an illusion and let the reporters take photos of her. The success rate would be much higher than now.

He straightened his white coat, put on a pair of decorative glasses, and walked out of the office..

Chapter 346: Quite Intense

'The reporters that Li Nanchen had mentioned also rushed over. Each one of them was more arrogant than the other. However, when Lin Piaopiao was sent away by the hospital staff, she happened to pass by them. They suddenly fell silent.

No one spoke.

"Which media are you all from?" Bi Fang slowly strolled towards them and asked impolitely.

A reporter stuttered and asked, "D-does this have anything to do with you?"

Bi Fang's tone was cold as he said bluntly, "As reporters, you don't have any professionalism. You're disrupting the patient's treatment because of some fake news and affecting my patient's rest."

“I’ve already called the police, but after this matter is settled, my patient’s family will send you a lawyer’s letter, so...”

“It shouldn’t be a problem for me to know more about you guys, right?”

He realized that after interacting with Wu Mei and the others for so long, his other abilities hadn’t improved but he became very good at putting on an act.

It was quite interesting.

Bi Fang seemed to be changing bit by bit, but the direction of this change was not quite right.

The reporters started to panic when they heard that Bi Fang had called the police.

In order to catch the news, they came to the hospital, but they didn’t get any news. Instead, they were going to be sent to the police station for the matter to be investigated. No matter how they looked at it, it seemed like a joke. Furthermore, they had received news from Lin Piaopiao, but Lin Piaopiao had been taken away by the medical staff.

A reporter suddenly mustered his courage and said in a quavering voice, “Sorry, we made a mistake. We can apologize to the patient’s family.”

The others immediately agreed and tried to settle it privately.

“I just want to ask, what happened to the lady who was taken away by the medical staff?” The reporter tried his best to act curious.

Bi Fang adjusted his glasses and looked in the direction that Lin Piaopiao was taken away. His lips curled up as he said in a clear voice, “Her? She just caused a scene in the hospital and then self-harmed and fainted. The doctor suspected that she might be mentally ill and is preparing to examine her after she wakes up.”

If these reporters are interested, they can write about it.

How could these reporters be interested? Their expressions changed when they realized that they had been fooled by Lin Piaopiao.

Nothing had happened to Li Nanchen.

Lin Piaopiao is mentally ill.

Someone was secretly moving to the side, wanting to sneak away, but every movement of his landed in Bi Fang’s eyes, so of course he wasn’t let off.

After these people were taken away, Bi Fang waved his business card and walked back to his office.

'When he pushed the door open, he felt a dampness in the room.

Bi Fang sized up Li Nanchen, who was only wearing his a top, and took half a step back in disdain. "I have spare clothes. You can wear one first."

"What if a medical staff member comes in and sees you like this?"

It turned out that Li Nanchen did not return home. Instead, he accepted Bi Fang's suggestion and came to Bi Fang's makeshift office to rest. He also took a shower. Li Nanchen lifted his head and examined Bi Fang's body. He then lowered his head and said lightly, "Your clothes don't suit my body."

Bi Fang looked at Li Nanchen and then lowered his head to look at his white coat. He immediately understood what Li Nanchen meant and was hopping mad.

"I'm the one who helped you, yet you still despise me. Do you have a conscience?"

"You still think I'm skinny? I think you're too burly."

'When Wu Mei walked out, she saw Bi Fang criticizing Li Nanchen. However, Li Nanchen was too tired and was about to doze off.

She could not help but laugh, interrupting Bi Fang's grumbling.

Bi Fang turned his head to look at Wu Mei who had changed into a dress. He couldn't help but click his tongue. "Quite intense."

'Wu Mei rolled her eyes and sat beside Li Nanchen. She was naturally embraced by him.

She found a comfortable position, lowered her eyes, and got straight to the point. "The effect of this drug is very scary. The duration that the effect lasts for isn't considered very long, but the drug effect is very strong. It can make people lose their minds very quickly."

"Help Li Nanchen check. I'm afraid that there will be other side effects."

Bi Fang looked up and shook his head impatiently, but still asked a nurse to draw Li Nanchen's blood and send it for testing.

He then told them about what happened in the hospital. When he mentioned that Lin Piaopiao had appeared outside the ICU, Li Nanchen suddenly opened his eyes. His gaze was as sharp as an eagle, scaring Bi Fang into not daring to speak.

‘Wu Mei pressed down on Li Nanchen’s arm and advised him seriously, “Bi Fang only started talking about this now, which means that it has been perfectly resolved.” Li Nanchen restrained his anger and took the cup of water from Bi Fang, but fed it to Wu Mei first.

“It looks like Lin Piaopiao arranged everything. It seems like the person who delivered the drug is the same person,” Li Nanchen speculated.

‘Wu Mei’s fingers moved as if she was typing on a keyboard, but she shook her head wryly.

Until she arrived at the hospital, she did not find any information. She had only sorted out Lin Ligu and Lin Piaopiao’s network.

She realized that their interpersonal relationships were very simple, and the number of people they contacted on their phones was even fewer. Other than the previous overseas contact number, the other numbers were considered normal, and they were mainly from the Li family..

Chapter 347: You Choose

They made many speculations, but at the end of the day, they were still just speculations. It was just a new direction to search for evidence.

Li Nanchen was certain that the person behind Lin Ligu was definitely Mo Li.

Mo Li was related to drugs, so it should be related to these so-called drugs. But why couldn’t they be detected?

Bi Fang shook his head and said, “Isn’t that normal? After all...”

The other party should have a very impressive researcher in their hands and had sufficient funds to let them carry out the best research.

Bi Fang was about to continue when he was interrupted by a knock on the door.

Lin Piaopiao had woken up.

They looked at each other and stood up together to visit Ms. Lin.

Lin Piaopiao was placed in a temporary ward. She would have to wait for her family to arrive before making the next arrangements.

'The hospital had already informed Lin Liguo.

'When they saw Lin Piaopiao, Lin Piaopiao was still humming words like "Brother Nanchen, you need me". However, when she looked up and met Li Nanchen's eyes, she screamed and leaned back.

She pointed at Li Nanchen and asked in a trembling voice, "Y-you... Why are you here?"

Li Nanchen felt that her words were extremely ridiculous.

"Why is Ms. Lin in the hospital?" Li Nanchen asked with a cold smile.

Lin Piaopiao tilted her head as if she didn't understand.

Li Nanchen continued, "I've already received the business cards of those reporters. I'll have a good talk with them."

"Do you think they will tell the truth?"

Wouldn't they reveal who had led them to the hospital to catch the news?

Wasn't it just Lin Piaopiao?

It was as if Lin Piaopiao couldn't understand him. She chuckled at Li Nanchen and said faintly, "Brother Nanchen, you're really good-looking."

The infatuation in her eyes was really scary.

'Wu Mei reached out to tug at the collar of her dress, but she couldn't cover the marks on her neck.

Lin Piaopiao also noticed her actions and saw the hickeys. She suddenly shrieked.

"Why are you still here? Why don't you die?"

"You've already been plotted against so many times. Why did you survive? Why?"

"How am I not good enough?"

"must not have done enough."

Lin Piaopiao was completely immersed in her own world. She only wanted to kill Wu Mei and marry Li Nanchen. There was nothing else that could influence her emotions.

Li Nanchen and Wu Mei's appearance at the same time made her happy, angry, and even crazier.

“What did you do to my daughter?” When Lin Liguó rushed over, he saw this scene and shouted in shock.

He walked into the ward and wanted to grab Lin Piaopiao’s hand, but Lin Piaopiao hit him on the head.

Lin Liguó let out an “ouch” and staggered a few steps back. He looked at his precious daughter in shock and anger. She actually hit him.

“Brother Nanchen, quickly save me.” Lin Piaopiao still chose to seek help from Li Nanchen, but Li Nanchen did not move at all. He looked at this scene as if he had seen a joke.

Lin Liguó wanted to touch Lin Piaopiao again but was pushed away again.

Li Nanchen was starting to get impatient at the antics of this pair of father and daughter.

He still had many things to do, and he wanted to accompany Wu Mei home to rest. He didn’t want to waste time in the hospital with them.

“I already know what Lin Piaopiao has done. If Dr. Lin doesn’t have a good attitude, I don’t mind sending you a lawyer’s letter,” Li Nanchen said bluntly.

Lin Liguó really did not know what Lin Piaopiao had done. Just as he was contacting Li Zhuo, he suddenly received a call saying that Lin Piaopiao had gotten into an accident in the hospital. He then hastily rushed over.

What Li Nanchen meant was that Lin Piaopiao had caused trouble again?

Lin Liguó was no longer confident. He also believed that Li Nanchen would let Lin Piaopiao off because of Old Master Li’s illness.

He grinned and said, “Li Nanchen, don’t forget that Piaopiao is currently sick. Will there be any outcome if you send her a lawyer’s letter?”

“She’s sick but aren’t you fine?” Li Nanchen reminded him mockingly.

Lin Liguó’s expression changed and he froze.

Li Nanchen looked at Lin Liguó with contempt and said slowly, “I have reason to believe that you ordered the mentally ill Lin Piaopiao to harm my grandfather. Of course, it’s also possible that Lin Piaopiao isn’t sick and she did it on purpose. It all depends on your choice.

It was impossible for Lin Liguó to choose any of the options.

He could only send Lin Piaopiao to the mental hospital at best.

'When this solution flashed through Lin Liguó's mind, he could no longer control his wild thoughts. He quickly turned to look at the clueless Lin Piaopiao.

Is he really going to have to do that?

"I'll give you three minutes to consider. We can send her to the mental hospital for you, but she might never come out again," Wu Mei said tiredly as she rubbed her temples. Her temper was much worse than Li Nanchen's. She did not even have the strength to stand properly and could only borrow Li Nanchen's strength. She had long started to get irritated.

'Wu Mei kindly reminded him, "Her hair has fallen to this state and she's not in a good state of mind. Could it be that the other components of the shampoo harmed her brain?" Lin Liguó trembled in fear. He did not dare to think about the real reason behind Lin Piaopiao's insanity.

He had always been someone who knew how to assess the situation. He knew that he had to make a choice...

Chapter 348: Hit in the Head

Holding Lin Piaopiao's psychiatric evaluation, he originally wanted to get Li Nanchen to let them off.

Before he even had time to get to the next step, Li Nanchen sent him some news first.

'There were a few reporters who did not gain anything from the hospital, but had already told the truth yesterday and were willing to testify.

It was Lin Piaopiao who had contacted them privately and asked them to go to the hospital to get a handle on Li Nanchen, which could become exclusive news. Since Lin Piaopiao had a mental illness and did not have the ability to act on her own, it might have been ordered by Lin Liguó.

Li Nanchen kindly reminded Lin Liguó that if he did not handle things nicely, he would have to do it himself.

What else could Lin Liguó do?

He personally sent Lin Piaopiao to the mental hospital, but arranged the best room for her.

'The moment Lin Piaopiao walked in, she understood Lin Liguó's intentions. She shouted in fear, "Dad, you can't do this to me. I want to call Brother Nanchen. He will save me."

She was in a state of confusion, unable to separate reality from her imagination.

In Lin Piaopiao's mind, Li Nanchen would be her fiancée, and Wu Mei was already dead.

Lin Liguó tried his best to coax Lin Piaopiao but to no avail. In the end, the medical staff came over to help and gave Lin Piaopiao an injection.

Lin Piaopiao fell asleep.

Lin Liguó went to settle the hospitalization procedures and finally arranged for Lin Piaopiao to stay for treatment.

The light in the ward had already dimmed. As Lin Piaopiao was too quiet, the medical staff came to check on her regularly.

When Li Hongyang walked in, he saw Lin Piaopiao hugging a male jacket while mumbling, "Brother Nanchen, wait for me. When I recover, I'll give you a gift."

She thought of that jacket as Li Nanchen's, but Lin Liguó had simply found a random piece of clothing to appease her.

Li Hongyang had to admit that Lin Piaopiao looked good even without half her hair. This was the advantage of being young.

If Lin Piaopiao wasn't crazy, she would look much better than Wu Yi.

He cleared his throat and asked Lin Piaopiao, "Ms. Lin, do you still remember me?"

Lin Piaopiao looked at Li Hongyang. After trying hard to recall, she nodded seriously and said, "You're Uncle Li."

The corners of Li Hongyang's lips curled up as he spoke slowly and gently. He was afraid that if he spoke too quickly, Lin Piaopiao would not understand.

"You are able to help me marry Brother Nanchen? What do I have to do?" Lin Piaopiao immediately moved from the bedhead to the end of the bed. She hugged the coat in her arms tightly and looked at Li Hongyang hopefully.

Li Hongyang smiled smugly and tried his best to suppress his smile. In a low voice, he coaxed her, "As long as you do as I say, I can make you look like what Li Nanchen likes."

"You two will be together."

Lin Piaopiao's gaze flickered. She tilted her head and looked at Li Hongyang seriously. Suddenly, she laughed. "So, you're a bad person. You want to use me to hurt Brother Nanchen."

Li Hongyang was unwilling to argue with a mentally ill patient. He denied her words and hurriedly said, "How can that be? Li Nanchen is my junior. I will be nice..."
Slap!

Li Hongyang's head was hit hard by the water bottle. He immediately felt dizzy and fell backward, hitting the wall behind him.

Lin Piaopiao clapped her hands happily. "You are a bad person! You want to harm my Brother Nanchen!"

"My appearance is what Brother Nanchen likes. I don't need your help."

Lin Piaopiao turned around and saw the thermos flask at the bedside. She grabbed it and threw it at Li Hongyang.

The lid of the cup was not tightened, and the hot water spilled out, scalding Li Hongyang.

The hospital staff heard the commotion and hurried over to check. However, they only saw Lin Piaopiao curled up at the head of the bed while Li Hongyang smashed the kettle and kicked the cup.

They pulled a long face and forcefully asked Li Hongyang to leave and not disturb the patient's rest.

Li Hongyang raised his head and glared at Lin Piaopiao. Lin Piaopiao raised her eyebrows smugly.

A psychopath who knows how to play tricks. He had underestimated her.

'When Li Hongyang left, he received a call from Li Zhuo and was mocked harshly.

Still in a fit of anger, he laughed coldly and said, "I can go to the hospital now to show my filial piety to Old Master Li. I can curry favor from Li Nanchen. Can you?"

Li Zhuo fell silent.

"Hmph, you don't even dare to appear in front of Li Nanchen. What's there to be smug about?" The wound on Li Hongyang's head made him gasp. He was planning to visit Old Master Li after getting treated at the hospital.

Li Zhuo laughed in disdain. "But I'm Old Master's biological son, and you're a cousin."

They mocked and ridiculed each other unceremoniously.

When Li Hongyang really rushed to the hospital, he heard that Old Master Li's condition was unstable. The attending physician had already confirmed that he needed to undergo another surgery.

Old Master Li was getting on in years. The repeated torture would only shorten his lifespan.

However, the attending physician was not Lin Ligu, but Bi Fang, Wu Mei would help him.

"Let's look at the test results first and try not to have any surgeries," Wu Mei reminded Bi Fang.

Bi Fang understood what Wu Mei meant. They suspected that Old Master Li was showing signs of being poisoned again and might have been tampered with.

When they entered the operating theater, they realized that there was another person who should not be here..

Chapter 349: I Swear

Why is Lin Ligu in the operating theater?

Old Master Li's surgery was arranged at the last minute. Why would he suddenly appear?

Lin Ligu recognized Bi Fang immediately, but he did not recognize Wu Mei.

He immediately put his hands on his hips and said arrogantly, "Can you do without me? If you delay Old Master Li's illness, can you be responsible?"

'The other doctor was extremely impatient and repeatedly asked Lin Ligu to leave, but Lin Ligu was unwilling.

The doctor asked angrily, "This is the operating theater. How did he get in?"

"The person who let him in better knows that this is not just a work mistake. You will be punished in the end."

Anurse stammered, "I didn't mean it. He came with the hospital director..."

Is this the reason why he could enter the operating theater?

'The doctor's reaction was even bigger than Bi Fang's. He immediately ordered people to chase Lin Liguao away and not delay their work.

Lin Liguao bared his fangs and brandished his claws. He insisted on being the chief surgeon and personally operating on Old Master Li.

'Wu Mei narrowed her eyes. Aware of the importance of time, she whispered to Bi Fang, "Go and do your work. I'll take care of him."

Bi Fang really wanted to see how Wu Mei taught Lin Liguao a lesson, but he had to deal with Old Master Li's condition.

He and the other doctor stood on either side of Old Master Li. The doctor said, "Old Master Li must have overdosed on drugs. His immunity has decreased and he can't absorb the drugs.

Bi Fang looked up at the doctor and nodded. "Follow the plan we discussed..."

Lin Liguao took a step forward, wanting to cause trouble, but his shoulders were pressed down.

He only felt pain in his shoulders and could not exert any strength.

It's Wu Mei.

Only then did Lin Liguao realize that the nurse who had appeared behind him was Wu Mei, whose face was covered. That was why he did not recognize her.

He was already regretting it now, but it was too late for him to escape. He could only be completely restrained by Wu Mei. His knees ached, and he knelt on the ground.

His mouth was gagged again.

Lin Liguao whimpered twice. His neck felt sore and his head hit the ground, kowtowing towards Old Master Li.

His neck was pinched again, and he passed out with resentment towards Wu Mei.

'Wu Mei threw the Lin Liguao aside and walked over to Bi Fang to get to work.

Under their efforts, Old Master Li quickly escaped danger.

After taking care of the last step, Bi Fang raised his hands and said happily, "If Old Master Li rests well, he should be fine this time."

'Wu Mei was wearing a mask, so she couldn't show the coldness on her face. She said in a muffled voice, "We have to thank the person who wanted to harm Grandfather. It's as good as sending the drug to us."

Someone wanted to harm Old Master Li by injecting unknown drugs into him in the ICU.

However, he had forgotten how many pairs of eyes were watching each patient.

He was caught red-handed and the drug was taken away by Bi Fang. After testing, he found that the effects of the drug matched Old Master Li's illness.

Bi Fang turned to Wu Mei and said, "You have to thank Lin Piaopiao as well. If it weren't for her selfishness and changing the medicine she used on Li Nanchen, I'm afraid something would have happened to Li Nanchen."

'Wu Mei's eyes turned dark. She was furious.

The person the other party wanted to kill was not only Old Master Li, but also Li Nanchen.

It was just that Lin Piaopiao changed the medicine on her own accord so that she could scheme against Li Nanchen. In the end, she indirectly saved Li Nanchen's life.

Without saying anything else, they walked out of the operating theater together.

Li Nanchen was waiting outside. When he saw Old Master Li being pushed out, he was stunned.

It was settled so quickly?

'Wu Mei said to Li Nanchen, "Lin Ligu is behind." Then, she sent Old Master Li to the ward.

Was Lin Ligu here again?

When Li Nanchen heard that someone wanted to harm Old Master Li again, he was scared out of his wits. However, when he heard that this drug was also meant to be used on him, his heart was not just filled with anger.

Lin Piaopiao had changed the drug and wanted to scheme against him. This proved that she knew about it.

What was Lin Ligu's role here?

Needless to say, Lin Ligu refused to admit it.

From the moment he woke up and saw Li Nanchen, to the moment he was interrogated, he insisted that he had no idea and that someone must have made use of Lin Piaopiao's illness to harm people.

Staring coldly at Lin Ligu, Li Nanchen then suddenly revealed a warm smile. "Look, without you, my grandfather was also fine."

“Dr. Lin, what more use is there for you?”

Looking at Li Nanchen’s smile, Lin Liguó felt a chill in his heart. He could clearly feel Li Nanchen’s murderous intent.

He also understood that as long as Old Master Li was fine, he had no power to threaten Li Nanchen.

“I swear, I didn’t do anything wrong to Old Master Li. You can’t malign me,” Lin Liguó’s voice trembled as he said this.

“I have a daughter who’s sick. She needs to be taken care of.”

Seeing Li Nanchen walk forward step by step, he was so frightened that he leaned against the wall.

“Nanchen, why are you here?” Li Hongyang rushed over and shouted at Li Nanchen.

Li Nanchen furrowed his brows. When he saw his uncle, whom he rarely interacted with, he smiled. However, his gaze was extremely cold. “Uncle, you’re here.”

Li Hongyang looked anxious, and he hastily said, “Even if Dr. Lin didn’t do any meritorious deeds, he also worked hard. There’s no point in targeting him..”

Chapter 350: Good Luck

Is he trying to speak up for Lin Liguó?

Li Nanchen smiled lightly. His tone was filled with mockery as he said, “Uncle really admires Dr. Lin.”

‘When Li Nanchen’s expression changed, Li Hongyang’s tone became more anxious. “I went to visit the Old Master just now. Wu Mei suddenly fainted and was sent to the ward next door. Hurry up and go take a look.”

Wu Mei fainted?

Li Nanchen seemed to be frozen in place. Not even sparing a glance at Li Hongyang and Lin Liguó, he swiftly left.

Supporting himself against the wall, Lin Liguó propped up his weak legs and slowly sat up. He turned to look at Li Hongyang. Then, he nodded perfunctorily and prepared to leave.

Li Hongyang blocked Lin Liguó's path and sneered, "Yo, Dr. Lin is leaving now? No matter what, I saved you. You have to thank me, right?"

Lin Liguó looked at Li Hongyang in shock and blurted out, "What do you mean?"

"It's true that Wu Mei fainted, but if no one came to tell Li Nanchen, what would have happened to you?" Li Hongyang's lips curled up into a mocking smile as he reminded Lin Liguó.

He crossed his arms and stepped back, smiling. "I have an idea that will help you achieve your goal. Would you like to hear it?"

Listen to Li Hongyang's plan?

Is it a plan to deal with the rest of the Li family?

Lin Liguó seemed to be seriously considering it. He furrowed his brows and seemed to be deep in thought. Li Hongyang also encouraged him at this time.

Li Hongyang believed that he could succeed.

Unfortunately, Lin Liguó had another plan in mind.

The Li family had Li Nanchen.

Li Zhuo had Li Dongjue.

If Lin Piaopiao married either of them, she would get the Li family's assets. However, Li Hongyang did not have any children. Furthermore, Li Hongyang's abilities were not outstanding. There was no benefit in working with him.

Lin Liguó leaned against the wall and looked at Li Hongyang in surprise. He asked curiously, "If I listen to your arrangement, what are you planning to do?"

Li Hongyang's expression did not change. He suggested confidently, "Of course, we should avoid the Li Family for the time being and not provoke them again. When the time is right..."

Lin Liguó laughed and suddenly pushed Li Hongyang away. He spat in disgust. "I know you've been working with Li Zhuo, haven't you?"

"Could it be that Li Zhuo wants to chase me away after seeing that I've temporarily lost my standing? Tell him that he's thinking too much."

"Piaopiao is sick. The Li family can't hurt her. My hands are clean too. They can't deal with me either."

"You and Li Zhuo should be more careful. Don't get caught, hmph!"

He vented all his anger that he had suffered from Li Nanchen onto Li Hongyang before leaving in satisfaction.

Li Hongyang had suffered at Lin Piaopiao's end and was scolded by Lin Ligu. He was furious.

The reason why this father-daughter pair failed was because they were brainless and trusted the wrong person.

What abilities did Li Zhuo have?

If it were him, he would definitely be able to support Lin Piaopiao and successfully push Wu Mei away.

Just as he was feeling troubled, he suddenly received a call from Wu Yi. His eyes narrowed as a smile appeared on his face.

'Wu Yi needed him now, and it was easier to control her.

He had a way to let Wu Yi appear in front of everyone again. She could even push Wu Mei away and become the Young Madam of the Li Family.

Those who looked down on him just now would regret it.

"Xiaoyi, what's the matter?" Li Hongyang's voice softened.

'Wu Yi's voice was soft and coquettish. She said softly, "I-I want to ask for your help. I want to get a job."

Yang Shan and Wu Yi are already in such dire financial straits that she needs to find a job?

Li Hongyang was even more satisfied with Wu Yi's current situation. He smiled gently and said, "This is very simple. I can arrange for you to work in the Wu Corporation."

'Wu Yi rejected him in a panic, "No, this won't do. The Wu Group is under Wu Mei now. I..."

Li Hongyang continued persuading her, "With me around, what else are you worried about?"

"By the time Wu Mei finds out that you have already entered the company, it will be too late. She won't dare to chase you away because I will help you secure your position in the Wu Corporation."

'Wu Yi was obviously tempted. After a few words of persuasion from Li Hongyang, she agreed.

'Wu Mei still did not know that she would have a new employee called Wu Yi.

'When she woke up and saw Li Nanchen at first glance, she was a little frightened.

Li Nanchen's eyes were red as he stared at her.

'Wu Mei's heart softened. She guessed that Li Nanchen was worried because she had fainted from exhaustion.

She sat up and buried her head in Li Nanchen's chest. She chuckled softly and raised her head to smile. "How's Grandpa?"

Seeing that the first thing Wu Mei asked about was Old Master Li's condition, Li Nanchen could not help but feel jealous. However, he still lowered his voice and said, "Grandpa's condition is very stable. He will probably need to be placed under observation for two more days before he can be transferred to another ward."

"This time it's really..."

Good luck!

'Wu Mei maintained her posture and did not want to move. She muttered, "Grandpa will be safe and sound. It's not luck. It's because they were too anxious and revealed a flaw."

"But the person behind the scenes is very powerful. His whereabouts are mysterious and we can't find him?"

"Yes, the source of the drug is unknown. Other than Lin Piaopiao, no one else has touched it."

They did not manage to find out the relationship between Li Zhuo and this matter, and could only wait for Old Master Li to wake up..
