

After Divorcing, She Shocked the World Chapter 38 - Assassination Operation

"President Li, long time no see!"

A government official recognized Li Nanchen and greeted him politely.

Wu Mei stayed by his side obediently. She took a glass of white wine from the tray that the waiter was carrying and merged the current situation with the topographic map in her mind. As expected, she saw a few special agents standing guarding at a few locations. Her lips curled up into a smile.

"This must be Madam Li, right? So beautiful and elegant!"

The upper-class woman who had just been talking about her beauty said teasingly, "Those who don't know definitely can't tell that Madam Li's family is on the verge of bankruptcy!"

Li Nanchen and the high-ranking official's expressions darkened.

"Thanks for the compliment."

On the other hand, Wu Mei had a faint smile on her face the entire time. She moved closer to the upper-class woman and patted her shoulder in a friendly manner as she whispered in her ear, "However, if you have the time to meddle in my affairs, why don't you go and manage your husband's multiple mistresses outside... If one of them replaces you, you'll be in a worse state than me!"

2

"You..." The upper-class woman lost her composure and raised her voice at Wu Mei while pointing at her.

1

Wu Mei looked at Li Nanchen nonchalantly and said, "I'm going to the washroom."

"Okay."

Li Nanchen watched her leave. He then turned to look at the upper-class woman with cold eyes.

Three minutes later, the high-ranking official was discussing a government investment project with Li Nanchen when he suddenly heard a scream from behind him!

Turning his head, he saw that the strap of that upper-class woman's evening gown had suddenly snapped. Half the fabric came loose and exposed her body. She quickly covered it until the waiter brought her a coat and put it on her.

However, everyone had already seen her naked.

"It's Wu Mei! It must be her! She was the only one who touched me just now..."

The upper-class woman was embarrassed. Filled with hatred, she told everyone about how dangerous Wu Mei was, causing everyone to shake their heads.

"How is that possible? Wu Mei hasn't been here for a few minutes. How could she snap her shoulder strap?"

"This woman is probably here to ruin the banquet. Today's banquet is hosted for an esteemed guest. It won't be good if the esteemed guest hears her shouting!"

Very soon, a security guard came forth and invited the upper-class woman out. The upper-class woman's face was filled with indignance, but she had no choice but to leave.

In the bathroom, Wu Mei faced the mirror and sorted through her weapons.

Stepping on the toilet lid, she pulled out the simple tranquilizer gun strapped to the base of her thigh, pulled her hair into a ponytail, and hid the blade that she had just used to cut the shoulder strap back in her hair again. Then, she confidently made her way to the corridor.

Wu Mei pretended to be lost and deliberately asked the special agents who were disguised and in hiding. She waited for them to get close and injected the anesthetic into their bodies.

She shook her head at the collapsed agents, her eyes filled with arrogance and contempt.

"As a special agent, why aren't you guarded at all?"

"Who are you? You can't come and go as you please here."

Wu Mei successfully arrived at the corridor outside a certain room. She frowned when she saw the two special agents approaching.

She was careless too!

2

Unexpectedly, two people were smoking here and discovered her by coincidence.

Sensing that something was amiss, the two special agents swiftly took out their daggers and approached from both sides.

Wu Mei raised her head and slid across the ground. As she watched the dagger cut off two strands of her hair, she revealed a bloodthirsty sneer and said, "Not bad!"

"Who the hell are you?!"

The two special agents frowned and took out their walkie-talkies. They were about to report the situation when Wu Mei threw out a blade and cut off their communicators.

At that moment, the two agents turned vicious. They pulled out their silenced pistols and fired at Wu Mei.

The corridor was narrow, and there was a limited space for Wu Mei to dodge. The moment she reached the wall, a bullet brushed past her arm and she fell to the ground in pain. One of the special agents slowly approached her and tried to capture her alive!

Wu Mei pretended to surrender in confusion. When he was close enough, she lifted her legs and scissored his head, and knocked him unconscious.

"Don't move!"

As Wu Mei got up, she suddenly heard a sound coming from behind her. She turned her head, raised her hands, and watched the surviving agent slowly approach with a gun.

At this critical moment, bang...

The special agent collapsed onto the ground. Wu Mei looked at Li Nanchen who had appeared from the corner and raised her brows in surprise.

Who would have thought that the two of them would have such tacit understanding in their first cooperation?

Before Wu Mei could say anything to Li Nanchen, she heard a furious roar coming from the banquet hall.

"Don't move! Put your hands on your heads and squat down!"

The assassination has begun?

The guests were all politicians and businessmen. Where would they have come across an assassination scene before?

2

Everyone started screaming and running around. The scene was chaotic.

Wu Mei didn't care about anything else. She picked up the pistol on the ground and ran to a safe shooting corner.

She aimed for the head of one of the assassins.

Bang!

She fired the first shot!

"Who! Who is it?!"

Seeing the assassin lying in a pool of blood on the ground, the others panicked and searched for Wu Mei's traces.

This person is a top-notch expert! They were instantly on guard. Staring at the high-ranking official of the neighboring country that they had taken hostage, Wu Mei quickly analyzed the situation.

"Hey, I'm here..." Wu Mei stood up abruptly and shouted loudly. The moment the guns were aimed at her, she leapt down from the second floor.
