

After Prison 1061

Chapter 1061

With a wave of his palm, Severin took out a small healing pill and handed it to Gerald. “Your condition is pretty bad. If my judgment is right, then two of your ribs might already be broken, and there is still some blood left in your body. You’ll live for two days at most if you don’t see a doctor anytime soon.”

Severin paused and added again, “But you’re lucky that your sister ran into me. Here, take this pill. Your body will start recovering a few minutes after eating it, and you should be able to make a full recovery after an hour.”

“I... I can’t possibly accept something so precious.” Gerald hesitated, but he took the pill anyway. He got a little emotional as he said, “But I... I have nothing to offer you in return.”

Severin smiled and said, “Fate brought me to you. Besides, we’re both from Dracodom. I’m obliged to help my fellow countryman.”

Gerald swallowed the pill while enduring the pain. Severin chatted with them for a while after Gerald ate the pill. As it turned out, Gerald and Gilly both lived a happy life in the past. Both their parents were businesspeople, and they all settled down in Cherridom after migrating there.

Their mother was a gorgeous woman, and it was unfortunate that one of Benfield City’s wealthy businessmen took a liking to her and tried to force himself on her. Their father was furious when he found out what happened, and he brought his men to fight the assaulter. Unfortunately, none of them were a match for the other party, and they were all killed that same day.

Gerald narrowly escaped death because he went to pick up Gilly from school. The rich businessman took their property after killing Gerald’s family, and Gerald was forced to become a beggar along with Gilly. Kids from Dracodom were usually shunned when applying for a job, and it eventually led to them becoming beggars.

“Your complexion seems to have improved a lot!” Severin said to Gerald after observing the boy’s ruddiness. “Eat up, Gerald. Once you’ve eaten your fill, I’ll help you avenge your family. All you need to do is bring me to meet them.”

“Your medicine is super effective! I do feel much better now!” Gerald touched his chest. He could not contain his surprise when he realized that he did not feel much pain at all.

He glanced at Severin again and smiled wryly. “Thank you for your kindness, but that guy is rumored to have become a third-tier family already. We can’t afford to offend a person like that. Besides, how are you going to go up against so many people all on your own?”

Severin smiled and said, “Hehe, you don’t have to worry about that. If you want to avenge your parents, then you just have to bring me to them. I chose to help you get revenge because I’m confident that I’ll be able to handle them.”

“Will you really be able to avenge our parents?” Gilly had a thin figure, no doubt due to malnourishment. However, the glow in her big eyes was not a single bit diminished.

Severin nodded. "Yes. I will."

"Thank you, sir!" Gerald thanked Severin before turning to Gilly, "Let's kneel before him as a sign of our thanks, Gilly" He did not know how else to thank Severin, so he brought Gilly over and knelt in front of Severin.

Severin helped them up and said to them, "Once your enemies are dead, we'll see how much money they have on them. You and your sister can take everything for yourselves: hope the two of you can go back. to Dracodom after that."

Chapter 1062

Gerald nodded. "I wanted to bring Gilly back to Dracodom... back to our hometown... but where will we get the money for fight tickets when we don't even have any money for food? If we get the money to buy a plane ticket, I'll bring Gilly back to Dracodom in a heartbeat. Being in our own country is so much better than being bullied and looked upon with disdain."

Severin nodded and said to him, "Yeah. The food's going to get cold though, so you should start eating soon."

Gerald had a glimmer of hope in his eyes as he ate. It was a stark contrast to his previous look.

Once he was done with his meal, he cleaned everything and said to Severin. "Are you sure you want to go. there?"

Severin nodded. "Yes. You can just bring me there and show me where to go. You don't have to go in if you're not afraid."

"We're not afraid. We won't be afraid of anything as long as we bear witness to the Murrays' deaths!" Gilly stood up, clenched her fists, and said firmly, much to Severin's surprise.

Gerald then said, "To be honest, I've been wanting to avenge my parents for a long time already, but Gilly and I are too weak. We're only barely able to scrape by. Anyway, it's about time karma bites them back. Let's go, Mister Severin. I'll bring you there."

With Gerald leading the way, Severin soon arrived in an area where there were several villas.

"There! That's where the Murrays are staying. My mother and my father both died at their hands." Gerald had a resentful expression and he clenched his fists even harder.

Severin nodded and walked in.

"Are the Murrays in? Come out here and meet your end!" Severin infused his voice with spiritual energy and bellowed. The statement reached into the house, and everyone could hear what he said.

"Who is it? How dare you cause trouble here at the Murrays? You're asking to be killed!" More than a dozen bodyguards rushed over. One of the men had a sword in his hand, which he swung right toward Severin.

A fierce whoosh of sword energy then came straight toward Severin at lightning speed. To everyone's surprise, Severin merely stood there and challenged his spiritual energy onto his fist. Then, he simply punched the sword energy that was coming right at him

Following the resonant boom from the impact, that lethal sword energy was destroyed effortlessly by Severin.

"How?! My attack... it just vanished..." The man had a decent attainment and had already reached that of level one warrior king. The sword energy earlier he produced earlier was not something that ordinary people can withstand, yet Severin dispelled it without breaking a sweat.

With a wave of his hand, he smiled frigidly as he drew his sword. "Come at me all at once, fellas! That'll save me the trouble of having to waste my spiritual energy!"

Chapter 1063

More and more people began to rush out. Just when there were about seventy or eighty people in front of him, Severin swung his sword without hesitation.

"Rose-Petal Rain!" Rose petals appeared out of nowhere and flew forward. Explosions soon ensued, and no attack could bear the might of Severin's rose petals. Their attacks were destroyed within seconds, and their bodies began to explode into pieces after the petals attached to them..

Gerald and Gilly looked on in stupefaction behind Severin. They never would have dreamed that the people they believed to be so powerful would end up being so vulnerable in Severin's hands. He killed them without so much as lifting a finger.

"Die, kid!" the head of the Murrays' rushed out with a few strong men. When he saw the bodies of his dead family members, he became so angry that the veins in his forehead bulged out. At that moment, he attempted to unleash his techniques on Severin, but he and his men were powerless before Severin and ended up dead in barely a few seconds.

After killing them, Severin checked all their spatial rings. Unfortunately, there were only a dozen or so spiritual herbs contained within, and most of them were first-grade ones.

Severin was a little lost for words when he saw that. Perhaps Benfield City was one of the less prosperous cities in Cherridom, and the Murrays probably did not have that many spiritual herbs because their family would have only just raised their status to that of a third-rate family. However, Severin found several million in cash on them, and the total-including the cash and gold bars found in the safe-was no small amount.

"You won't be able to take the villas with you, but you can have all the jewelry, all the valuable artwork, and all the cash!" Severin packed everything and handed them to Gerald. He then said, "I'll bring the two of you to get some more decent clothes. Then I'll buy you a one-way flight back to Dracodom!"

"Thank you so, so much. I will remember your kindness for the rest of my life." Gerald was moved to tears and knelt before Severin again.

Once Severin brought them to sell off everything for cash, he registered a bank account and a bank card for them. After that, they went clothes shopping before finally purchasing the flight tickets.

It was already nightfall by the time they were done with everything. The three of them walked into a restaurant to get dinner.

“It’s all thanks to you that Gilly and I will be able to return to Dracodom tomorrow. Our life never would’ve turned for the better if you weren’t around.”

There were about four and a half million dollars inside Gerald’s bank account. That would be more than enough for him and his sister to live comfortably upon their return to Dracodom.

Severin merely smiled and said, “Just make sure you live a safe and happy life with your sister when you return!”

Having said that, Severin then decided to ask, “By the way, I wonder if you’ve ever heard of an organization called Canis Hall?”

He did not hope for much anyway, since he knew that the chances of Gerald knowing about them were very slim.

To his surprise, Gerald nodded. “Yeah, I’ve heard of them before. They’re a small force though, and they don’t have a lot of members I would say that they’re good people. When they meet any beggars from Dracodom, they’ll give us some food on their initiative, Why are you asking about them, by the way?”

Severin was purpose is to locate Canis Hall”

“Well, in that case, I’ll bring you to their place after din

Severin was elated to hear that. “I’m glad you know about them! I came to Cherridom because my main purpose is to locate Canis Hall.”

“Well, in that case, I’ll bring you to their place after dinner!”

Chapter 1064

Gerald was overjoyed when he heard that. Severin had given him and his sister a new lease in life. Without Severin’s help, he would have been dead under the bridge because he did not have the money to see a doctor. If that happened, he could not even begin to imagine what would happen to her in a foreign land. He was more than happy to have been able to help Severin.

“Haha, sure!” Severin laughed and poured himself a glass of red wine. “Let’s have a toast!”

Gerald nodded. He raised his glass of fruit juice and clinked glasses with Severin.

After dinner, Severin followed Gerald to a villa. There were not a lot of villas in the area, and the area was located in a relatively secluded part of the city. Severin arrived just in time to hear a woman’s loud voice.

“I won’t marry him! I don’t care what you say! I’ll never marry that old bag!” came a roar from within the villa. The woman who yelled that was about to leave the villa.

“Stop her! Bring her to her room and lock her in there! A middle-aged man instructed his subordinates. Several people surrounded the woman.

Severin, along with Gerald and Gilly, were spotted by two guards while the three of them were standing at the gate. When Severin attempted to enter, one of them asked rudely, “What are you looking at?”

Severin smiled faintly. “I’m trying to find out what’s happening in there. I might be able to help!” He walked right past the gate while the two guards watched him in surprise.

“Stop! This here is Canis Hall’s turf! You can’t go in there!” The two guards chased after Severin and grabbed him after snapping back from their bewilderment.

Severin, however, channeled his thoughts into unleashing his spiritual energy. The pressure was strong enough to push the two men back. They both had a fearful look on their face, and they no longer dared to take another step forward.

“Hey now, mister! We’ve never provoked you, have we? What’s your deal with us?” Yidel, their hall master. looked at Severin with a frown.

He had plenty of things to deal with already, and the addition of yet another potential headache came as an unwelcome surprise for him. Severin-the intruder who broke in-seemed to have high attainment, and he was getting overwhelmed with what was happening.

Severin smiled and said, “I wish to meet your hall master!”

Yidel smiled wryly and said, “You’re speaking with him. My name is Yidel Zamarron!”

Severin frowned when he looked at Yidel’s attainment. He had prepared himself to face the possibility that Yidel’s attainment might not be too high, but he was massively disappointed that Yidel was merely a level eight profound master.

Chapter 1065

“You’re Yidel?” Severin looked at him before glancing at the raging woman. He could not help but ask, “And what’s the situation with her?”

“Well, the son of the Dark Night Gang’s leader likes her, he wants me to marry her off to him. There’s nothing I can do except to say yes, or else the entire Canis Hall will be destroyed.” Yidel looked at his daughter and sighed. “There is no other way. I don’t want to sacrifice my daughter either, but Canis Hall now has eight hundred members. It took me a lot of effort to come to this, and I can’t afford to let that small bit of progress go to waste, right?”

“But Dad...” Alesha frowned unhappily.

“Sigh, didn’t that old wacko say that he’d come to look for us and protect us? I haven’t seen him show up even once! He’s probably just lying to us!” one of the older members of Canis Hall lamented somewhat resentfully.

However, Yidel remained firm. “I trust in our benefactor. He wouldn’t lie to us. Perhaps he doesn’t know that we’ve fled to Cherridom and is still trying to locate us back in Dracodom. Once we’ve trained ourselves and reached higher attainment, we will still have to go back to Dracodom.”

After responding to the old man, Yidel turned to Alesha and patted her shoulder. "I hope you'll understand that I'm in no position to do anything right now. The last thing I want is to sacrifice you, but there really is no other way. The Dark Night Gang is simply too powerful. We cannot afford to offend them."

After Severin understood what had happened, he could not help but say, "Well, Miss Alesha doesn't need to marry that guy anymore, because the Dracodeus Temple's supreme leader has arrived!"

"The Dracodeus Temple's supreme leader?" Yidel's mind went blank for a moment. He had long been waiting for that day to come, and he had always believed that there was more than meets the eye to the old man. As long as the supreme leader managed to find him and help Canis Hall, he was confident of being able to at least break free of their current crisis.

However, the old man seemed to have vanished into thin air after all those years. He never showed up again after that.

Severin raised his hand and said with a smile. "I'm sure you know what this is, right? This is the Dracodeus Ring. You understand its significance, don't you?"

"Yes! The Dracodeus Ring! It's the legendary Dracodeus Token!" Yidel saw immediately called out to everyone. "Come over here and kneel before our supreme leader!"

"Greetings, Supreme Leader!" Everyone knelt before Severin with excited expressions.

"Can you really get rid of the Dark Night Gang for us?" Alesha looked expectantly at Severin after getting up

Severin nodded. "I am your supreme leader after all, so you can rest assured that I will keep my word!"

Chapter 1066

"Supreme Leader, welcome in!"

Subsequently, Yidel invited Severin into the building and guided him to the living room. Once everyone was settled down, he started to ask the question he had on his mind.

"Supreme Leader, how did you find us?"

Severin smiled faintly. "My predecessor gave me the location and requested me to search for the twelve halls. I've already found five halls; your hall is the sixth one I found. At first, I thought you guys were at Wymount City. So I went there straight away but only to find that the Mount Blade Gang was after you guys and only a few of you managed to flee to Cherridom. After that..."

He quickly took a couple of minutes to tell everyone what happened when he tried to find them.. Yidel nodded his head. "Yes. There were only probably less than thirty of us when we fled here two years ago. Luckily, we made good progress and expanded Canis Hall to a hall with more than eight hundred members. Although we don't have the strongest members, everyone is from Dracodom. When they first came here, they were bullied and being pushed around. They reached out to us for help and finally, decided to join the hall."

He paused for a while before continuing to speak. "Despite the expansion, we are still a small player in this place. We have been cautious and never try to make a scene or stir up anything. When Alesha went out two days ago, she bumped into the Dark Night Gang's gang leader's son. He forced her to marry him and if she refuses, he would ask his father to destroy our hall. So I have been thinking hard about how to get ourselves out of this mess."

Once again, Severin smiled faintly. "Don't worry. It's not a big problem. I handle everything if Dark Night Gang shows up."

Despite that, Alesha was still worried. "Supreme Leader, I'm not doubting your ability. But Dark Night Gang has more members than us and most of them are stronger than us. Their strongest fighter is a level seven warrior king. Are you sure you can handle them?"

That did not affect Severin at all. "Don't worry. They are not going to be a problem."

"Oh! By the way, the main reason I could locate Canis Hall is because of Trudy's parents. They were the ones who told me you guys are here," Severin said suddenly.

"I'm Trudy. How is my parent doing?"

Suddenly, a woman looked in her forty approached and identified herself. As her parent's well-being came across her mind, her eyes turned red.

Severin gave her an assuring smile. "Don't worry. They are doing fine. I gave them an amount of money when I left. It's enough to last them for the rest of their life."

"Thank you, Supreme Leader," Trudy said with much appreciation.

Severin replied, "Don't worry. Once we settle everything here, you guys can go back to Dracodom. I killed the Mount Blade Gang's gang leader and elders. The Mount Blade Gang is completely destroyed now. So you guys don't have to worry that they are going to come after you guys again when all of you return to Dracodom

As they continued chatting. Yidel finally understood the current situation back in Dracodom and felt overwhelmed. "Gosh, you've actually found five halls now. I guess Canis Hall is the hall that is doing the worst among the others. I'm probably also the weakest too. There are only nine months left for me to become a level nine warrior king. I don't think it's possible even if I do my best."

lchemist. What

Nonetheless, Severin was not worried. He flipped his palm and took out a second-grade low-rank alchemist pill to pass it to Yidel. "Don't worry. You can surely do it when I'm here. I'm an alchemist. What you need to do now is to take this alchemist pill and become a level one warrior king."

"This is a second-grade low-rank alchemist pill?"

Bil

Yidel looked at the alchemist pill. His voice was trembling excitedly. With that alchemist pill, he would not have any trouble leveling up to level one warrior king.

Chapter 1067

“Dad, that’s terrific! It’s really a second-grade low-rank alchemist pill. You can finally try to become a level one warrior king now!”

Alesha felt happy for his father, Severin smiled faintly and took out eight first-grade high-rank alchemist pills to pass them to Yidel. “These pills can help Alesha and the elders too. Once they become stable, I will help them to become a level one warrior king too.

“Supreme Leader. You-you don’t have to do that.” Yidel was overwhelmed as he looked at the alchemist pills Severin gave him.

Severin smiled faintly and said, “Of course I do. We’re now in the same boat. Dracodeus Temple will only get stronger if you guys become stronger.”

The next morning, Severin made the necessary arrangement for people to escort Gerald and Gilly back to Dracodom.

Since Yidel and the others had the alchemist pill, they stayed at home to absorb the power from the alchemist pill to make breakthroughs in their training. By evening, all of them were able to make breakthroughs to their attainment.

Most of the members’ attainment in Canis Hall was relatively low and they were in need of first-grade alchemist pills. Coincidentally, Severin still had many first-grade spiritual herbs in stock. Thus, he spent the afternoon making more than twenty first-grade high-rank alchemist pills and passed all of them to Yidel.

“Supreme Leader. The average strength of Canis Hall is going to elevate with the help of these alchemist pills.”

Obviously, Yidel’s heart was pumping with adrenaline as he looked at the alchemist pills Severin gave him.

Severin smiled faintly and nodded. “There won’t be Canis Hall or the other eleven halls in the future. Once I find all the halls and gathered everyone, you guys would be the member of Dracodeus Temple and not be separated by the halls. My main goal is to increase your attainment. And your daughter too. I hope everyone can become a warrior king as soon as possible.”

“Yes, sir. I’ll do everything you ask me to!” Yidel said respectfully as he saluted Severin.

When the night fell, Yidel and the others brought Severin out to enjoy a feastful dinner. The next morning, Joah brought his men over to Canis Hall,

“Alesha, are you ready?”

As he reached the door, he shouted out loud arrogantly. “The wedding is tomorrow and I’m going to come pick you up tomorrow morning. Hahaha! I can’t wait to make you my wife!”

“You’re dreaming! I’ll never marry you!”

Alesha was taking her morning stroll in the garden when she heard that. Angrily, she replied as she stared at the fat and short Joah.

“Do you want to die? Or are you willing to see me destroy Canis Hall?” Joah threatened as his mouth twitched a few times.

He paused for a while before having a bad idea in his mind. “Oh I forget to tell you. You’re not going to get away even after I destroy Canis Hall I’ll still hunt you down and eventually, you are still going to be my woman. The difference is I’m not going to spoil or love you the same as now. Do you understand?”

“So this is the way Dark Night Gang settles any problem? Severin scoffed as he approached the door and looked at Joah. “Hey, I’m here to protect Canis Hall now. So if you are smart enough to know better, you should stop whatever plan you have in mind. Otherwise, I’m going to make you regret it.”

“Where the hell do you come from?” Joah looked at Severin and said, “It seems like you are trying to play hero here. I’m going to say this once in your face. I’m marrying Alesha regardless of anything!”

Severin was not bothered or scared off. He chuckled, don’t mean it but Alesha is now my subordinate and you’re not permitted to marry her. If she doesn’t want to marry you, then no one is going to make her do that”

Chapter 1068

Alesha felt extremely joyful and heartwarming after hearing what Severin said. It felt so nice to have someone there to protect her. It had been a long time since she felt protected. Finally, there was someone strong and reliable to protect Canis Hall. Their Supreme Leader finally found them and came to their rescue this time.

“F*ck you! Do you want to die?”

Joah never thought Severin would have the guts to talk to him like that. He pointed and ordered his men,” Kill him! Let’s see how strong he is to try to stop me from marrying Alesha!”

This round Joah had brought some strong men with him. The strongest among all the men was a level three warrior king. In the mundane world, it was uncommon to have normal people with such high attainment.

“F*ck you! You ask for this!”

A level two warrior king balled up his hand and charged at Severin to ambush Severin all of a sudden. His fist aimed right at Severin. “You don’t know for sure who’s going to be the last one standing!”

Despite facing the ambush, Severin reacted with a faint smile. He too balled up his hand and threw a punch to attack. As their punches knocked together, a loud noise exploded. A second later, the level two warrior king got blasted several feet away. Once he dropped to the ground, his face went pale. As he continued to cough blood out from his throat, he failed to stand up.

“How could that be? When did Cannis Hall have a warrior king? This guy must at least have the attainment of a level three warrior king!”

The others widened their eyes after witnessing it. Before this, they had never given a damn about Canis Hall because they knew Canis Hall's hall master was just a level eight profound master.

Yet, Severin's appearance totally changed their perspective especially when he severely injured a level two warrior king with just one punch.

"All of you! Attack him! It looks like he's quite powerful. No wonder he dares to act so arrogantly just now! Joah shouted as he clenched his fist tightly.

"Attack!" Joah's men quickly attacked together after being instructed.

Unfortunately, these people were just too weak. With just a few punches, Severin defeated those people swiftly. All of them ended up lying on the ground dead. Even the level three warrior king had the same result. He too was killed. His dead body ended up lying next to where Joah was standing.

"No! Impossible!"

Joah was sweating as fear crept into his heart. He pointed at Severin. "You're so dead for messing with Dark Night Gang! So dead!"

After that, he turned around and wanted to leave.

"Did I say you can go?" Severin sneered. He flashed and appeared in front of Joah to stop Joah from leaving.

Chapter 1069

"Are you sure you dare to kill me? My father is the gang leader of Dark Night Gang!"

Joah's mouth twitched and threatened. Severin scoffed. "I have already killed so many of your men. It makes no difference adding you to the list."

"No. Wait! I-I'm sorry. Please let me go. I promise I won't cause any problems anymore!"

At that moment, Joah realized his opponent was not as weak as he thought. His mind thought quickly. Instantly, he knelt before Severin and begged for mercy. Nonetheless, Severin was not convinced nor was he dumb to let Joah leave. He raised his palm and smacked it to Joah's head. A second later, Joah dropped dead to the ground while his face looked scared.

"Supreme Leader. I think Dark Night Gang will come looking for us anytime soon."

Yidel and the others were dumbstruck. In the past, they had never dared to even talk against those people. Yet, it took Severin just a couple of minutes to kill those people. Moreover, there was no hesitation when Severin killed those people. He was precise and decisive.

Severin smiled faintly. "It doesn't matter. Let's go find them now and don't wait for them to come find us. Otherwise, we still need to clean up when they all die here."

After that, he looked at the dead bodies and said, "Find someone to clean up this place. I bet we're going to get some good training resources from Dark Night Gang after we destroy them."

“I’m still a little worried because we are all from Dracodom. I’m afraid the other underground forces will not be happy after we destroy Dark Night Gang. Will they come after us if we do that?” Yidel said worryingly after giving it some thought.

Severin smiled. “It doesn’t matter. These Cherridom people have been getting on my nerves since ages ago. I don’t mind it if they didn’t come to annoy me. But since they did it, I’m going to kill every one of them who did it until they don’t dare to do it.”

Everyone was dumbstruck as they started to wonder what was Severin’s attainment. Just how strong Severin was to have the audacity and bravery to talk so arrogantly. Then again, Mount Blade Gang from Wymount City was a big gang too. They too also had many strong members. Yet, Severin successfully destroyed them and killed their gang leader too. As that said, it should not be a problem for Severin to destroy Dark Night Gang which had similar combat power as Mount Blade Gang.

After the scene was cleared, Severin asked Yidel and the others to bring him to Dark Night Gang’s headquarters.

“Should I bring everyone?”

Yidel was still a little worried because he knew just how many strong members Dark Night Gang had. He was hoping the members of Canis Hall could give Severin some help. Nevertheless, Severin did not share the same worried as Yidel did. He smiled. “That’s not necessary. Just bring me there. You can ask the others to go over to clean up the scene and help to collect our loot later.”

“Oh, alright then.”

Yidel nodded. The group of people separated by taking two cars to head to Dark Night Gang’s headquarters. Within a short while, the two cars stopped by the roadside where the Dark Night Gang’s headquarter was located. Severin got off the car, flipped his palm, and took out a level one sword before walking to the door.

“Who are you? This is Dark Night Gang’s headquarters.”

The guards quickly intercepted and questioned Severin when they saw him. All Severin did was sneer and swung his sword to create a force to attack them. The force flew out and hit these guards. They got laid blasted away into the headquarters compound where they laid dead with blood gushing out their mouths. The attack killed them instantly.

The guards quickly intercepted and questioned Severin when they saw him. All Severin did was sneer and swung his sword to create a force to attack them. The force flew out and hit those guards. They got blasted away into the headquarters’ compound where they laid dead with blood gushing out their mouths. The attack killed them instantly.

Chapter 1070

“Someone is attacking us!”

One guy saw what happened and shouted out loud to alert the others. Many people rushed over. Severin swung his hand again and another force from the sword flew out to kill dozens of people.

“Who the hell are you? Are you here to die?”

Meanwhile, an elder in his level six warrior king attainment shouted angrily from afar. He quickly made his way to where Severin was and attacked Severin with a thick spiritual energy beam.

“Who am I? I’m here to send you guys to hell!”

Severin sneered and created another force with his sword. Immediately, the spiritual energy beam got destroyed by Severin without any difficulty.

The elder looked shocked and treated the situation more seriously. He stared at Severin and said, “If I remember correctly, no one from the Dark Night Gang has ever offended you. Why are you killing us?”

At that moment, the members of the Dark Night Gang had gathered and surrounded Severin. Including the gang leader and vice gang leader.

“The moment Joah tried to force Alesha to marry him, I become your enemy!” Severin explained with a smile.

“What the? You people from Dracodom should feel honored that my son is willing to marry her. You ignorant!” Cade Thornley, the gang leader of the Dark Night Gang, snorted.

Soon, he remembered something. “Hey, where’s my son? Didn’t he go to Canis Hall just now?”

Severin smiled faintly. “Oh, him. He’s in hell now. But don’t worry, I’ll let you reunite with him very soon.”

“You b*stard!” Cade gritted his teeth angrily. He balled up his hand and stared at Severin angrily. “I’m going to kill you for killing my son! I want revenge!”

He transferred his spiritual energy to his fist and charged at Severin.

“Haha! You?” Severin laughed out loud. With a thought, he formed a spiritual energy shield to protect himself.

“What? Level nine warrior king?”

As Cade charged halfway, he immediately stopped in mid-air when he saw Severin was capable of forming a spiritual energy shield. He was dumbstruck.

“No. He’s a level nine warrior king! Oh, my god. Where did Canis Hall find this guy?”

The other elders scared the shit out when they realized the level of Severin’s attainment. A freak like him could easily get whatever he wants in Cherridom.

“What? Our Supreme Leader is actually a level nine warrior king?”

Yidel and the others were standing outside while everything happened. They looked at Severin and were dumbstruck. At the very least, the lowest attainment of a person who could form a spiritual energy shield was a level nine warrior king.

