

After Prison 1143

Chapter 1143

“What? You said Supreme Leader offended Mister Terrence. And Steward Hatcher is here with many strong fight

The Great Elder nearly fainted. He wondered if what he heard was right.

The Second Elder slapped himself. “Oh, my god! I’m not dreaming. I thought it was a dream. What should we do?”

The Third Elder panicked. “We’re doomed! We’re doomed! Will they destroy Taurus Hall too? When did Supreme Leader offend so many powerful people?”

Although Yuka was shocked too, as the hall master, she knew this was not the time to panic.

She thought for a while and said, “Don’t panic. If they’re here to look for the Supreme Leader, let’s go find him now. We don’t know for sure what’s the Supreme Leader’s attainment. Maybe he can handle them.” The Great Elder faked a smile. “I don’t think he’s already a warrior emperor. There’s only a few people have become warrior emperors in this world and everyone knows who they are. But we never hear people talking about a warrior emperor by the name, Severin.”

After a pause, he continued, “But we don’t have any choice now. Let’s hope the Supreme Leader can handle the problem.”

Shortly, they went to the villa where Severin and Sheila staying. All of them looked worried. Severin looked at them with a nonchalant expression. “Don’t worry. Remember to stay away from me when we’re out there. I’ll handle them myself. I know Steward is going to come after me but I didn’t expect him to come so soon.

After that, all of them went out to meet Terrence and the others. When they were a hundred feet away from Terrence, Yuka asked the others to stop walking and stayed where they were.

Whereas, Severin continued to walk out to face the crowd with a smile. “Terrence. Owen. I didn’t know we’re going to meet so soon. Haven’t you learned from your past mistake? How dare you bring more people to come to find me?”

Steward and Sami were angry because Severin ignored them.

Terrence smiled embarrassingly. “Severin, I’m not the one looking for you today. Please meet Steward Hatcher. He’s Sami’s father. He’s here looking for you because you bullied his daughter.”

Sami took a step forward, cocked her head, and said arrogantly, “Severin, I remember you saying that you’re not afraid of my father. He has brought many strong fighters with him today. Today will be your last day living and so is your woman!”

Severin sneered. “Dear Sami, it seems like your father failed to educate you. That’s probably why you are so spoiled and stupid.”

All the time, Steward had kept quiet. Nonetheless, his mouth twitched after hearing that. He said, "Mister Severin, how dare you bully my daughter? And you have some nerves saying I failed to teach my daughter. Do you have any idea who you are talking to?"

Severin said, "Mister Steward, I know you are one of The Three Commanders. That means you have sacrificed a lot to make many contributions to the country. But that doesn't mean you should allow your daughter to do anything that she wants. Shouldn't you ask why I bully her? If you refuse to listen to the whole story and solely believe everything your daughter tells you, sooner or later, you and your daughter are going to learn it the hard way."

Steward sneered. "Oh, really? Let's see if today's the day."
