

After Prison 1151

Chapter 1151

The next day, Sheila woke up feeling tired. Her body was also very sore. She looked at Severin who was sleeping beside her and said helplessly, "You're too strong that you make me so tired every time. I have to train harder so I can become a profound master soon."

After that, Sheila got up and went to freshen up. She changed her clothes and sat with her legs crossed to start training.

Severin continued to sleep for a while longer. When he woke up, he discovered Sheila was actually training. Most of the time, she preferred to go out shopping and went out playing. He was definitely shocked.

"Sheila! You're actually training! That's so not you!"

Severin smiled. Sheila's sexy body came into his mind again. He thought, "This girl is really very attractive." When Sheila finished her training, she gave Severin a fierce look, "What do mean when you said it's so not me? You said it as if I don't like to train. I'm already a level eight grandmaster and I'm not too far from reaching level nine. Once I become a level one profound master, you must give me some spiritual herbs to help with my training!"

Severin nodded. "Don't worry. I won't forget about that. I've already made some first-grade low-rank and medium-rank alchemical pills last night. They are suitable for you and Diane."

"Honey! You're the best!" Sheila got so excited. She ran over, jumped on to Severin, wrapped her legs around his waist, and kissed him. "I love you so much!"

"Haha! Luckily you know that."

Severin laughed. As he turned around, he fell to the bed with Sheila underneath him.

Something was wrong. Sheila panicked. "No! It's early in the morning. Please don't tell me you want..."

"Yes. You're too cute to resist!" Severin smiled evilly and kissed Sheila.

Both of them did not show up until it was near afternoon. Sheila felt so speechless. Now she understood why Diane told her she was happy Sheila could help her take some burden off her.

At first, she did not understand why. She found out it was really hard and tiring for Diane to deal with Severin alone because she was getting tired after traveling together with Severin for just a few days.

When they left the villa, Sheila asked a question that was on her mind. "Severin, why do I have a feeling that Yuka likes you? Do you feel that?"

Severin was speechless. He frowned. "No way. We just know each other for a few days and we don't talk much."

Sheila shook her head. "No. The way she looked at you is different. You rescued her twice when she was in danger. And you're so handsome and wonderful. Not many women can resist your charm."

Severin did not what to say. "What's going on in your mind? Why do you keep thinking about these? She had seen and flirted with so many different men. I don't think she'll fall in love with a person so easily."

"Oh, come on! She did those for the hall. She was never in a relationship before. If you think she's really that kind of woman, do you think she can continue to be a virgin still? So I think she's actually a very good. woman. From the way she looked at it, I'm sure she has feelings for you."

Chapter 1152

"Do you think a girl won't easily fall in love with a man just because they only met a few times? It was love at first sight for me when I saw you. There's no logic when it comes to love," Sheila said with confidence.

"Stop talking about this nonsense. She's my subordinate and I'm her boss. I don't want to create any misunderstanding!" Severin coughed twice to cover his embarrassment.

Yet, an image of Yuka looking shy appeared in his mind. He had to admit Yuka was definitely a very sexy woman. No wonder so many men wanted her. Even he was mesmerized by her appearance after spending a couple of days with him. Sometimes, he would also lost in a daydream when he thought of her smile and her shy face.

"Do you seriously care about that? I think as long as you like her, she likes you back, and both of your personalities match, then it's a go," Sheila said.

"Sheila, what's wrong with your today? Why are you so interested in this today? Are you trying matchmaking?" Severin said, looking at her with a weird expression.

Sheila shrugged. "If you feel the same way, I think it's totally fine. I'm sure it's going to work if I go and ask Yuka. Any woman would easily fall for you after how charming you were yesterday."

Severin did not know if he should feel happy or sad about that comment. He knocked on Sheila's head once. "You silly girl. I really wonder what's going on in your brain. It's just a few days since you become my second wife and here you are, trying hard to find a third wife for me."

Sheila smiled. That's because you're too powerful. I need to find you more wives to offload some of our burdens.'

All of a sudden, Severin's phone rang.

"Huh? You hardly have anyone calling you? Who is it? Is it from Diane? Is she missing you?" Sheila joked and giggled when she heard Severin's ringtone.

At first, Severin also thought Diane was the one calling her. While he was taking out his phone, he said, Yes, of course. You kept reminding me how charming I am so it must be a call from a beautiful woman. Who else can it be?"

When he saw the caller id, his expression looked weird. It was not Diane calling but Gracie.

"So it's Gracie calling you. I guess she's the one missing you, not Diane." Sheila giggled when she looked over.

“Don’t say that. Maybe there’s something she wants to find out from me.”

Severin glared at Sheila and answered the call. “Miss Yuka, how many I help you?”

“Supreme Leader. I bring you good news! I have news about Gallus Hall!” Yuka giggled on the phone.

Chapter 1153

“Haha! That’s great. It’s really a piece of good news. You have outdone yourself again, Gracie.” Severin laughed out loud after receiving the good news.

Gracie said, “It wasn’t me this time. The members of the Mus Hall were the ones who found out. They told me and I called you.”

“I see. No matter who was the one who found out, you all did great!”

In fact, Severin was feeling very excited. “To be honest, I worry about Gallus Hall the most.”

“Why?” Gracie frowned and asked curiously.

Severin smirked. “Because of the name. Just think about it when you tell other people you’re a member of the Gallus Hall. It’s so awful. I don’t think I can’t stand it and would hope I can change the name.”

Gracie chuckled. “I get what you’re trying to say. People also make fun of Equus Hall too by saying we’re a bunch of donkeys. But it’s so much better when you compare it with Gallus Hall and Sus Hall. I used to think about this question and wondered if Gallus Hall would change their name. Luckily they didn’t.”

“Yeah. If they did, we’re going to have a hard time tracking them down. I feel at ease knowing we have news about them now.”

Severin was relieved. “Okay. I will send you the details later. They are not too far from where you are.”

Gracie nodded. After some thinking, she asked, “What’s the situation over there? Have you found Taurus Hall?”

Severin answered, “I did. They’re selling off their business now and will be on their way to South Link City in a couple of days.”

“That’s good!”

Gracie chuckled and ended the call. After that, she sent the information about Gallus Hall to Severin.

Severin looked at the information and mumbled, “The hall master of Gallus Hall is Nancy Zyke. It is located in Nine Dragon City, a city in Nine Draco Province. There’s no exact address. According to the information, Nancy is a beautiful woman and estimates to be a level four warrior king.”

He smiled. “Nine Dragon City. Another big city.”

Chapter 1154

After hearing that, Sheila said, “It’s not far too away from us. Skycean City is at the border between Nine Draco Province and Skystream City. If we drive there, it’s probably going to take us seven or eight hours. to reach there.”

Her eyes lit up immediately. "Honey, are we going there after everything is settled here? Why don't we drive there?"

The happy and anticipating look Sheila had on her face told Severin that Sheila was thinking to enjoy the scenery around the road. Therefore, he nodded. "Sure. If that's what you want. I don't mind."

It made Sheila very excited. "That's great! I never expect us to travel to Nine Drago City. It's the busiest city among all the other cities in Nine Draco Province."

Severin nodded. "Yes. It's the same as Skystream City. It can be a holiday. From the information, it seems like the hall master of Gallus Hall is a woman too. A beautiful one."

Sheila rolled her eyes and said, "What do you mean by that? Are you discriminating against women? What's wrong with a woman being a hall master? If we're willing to train hard, we're not any lesser than man!"

Severin smiled awkwardly and explained himself. "I'm not discriminating against women. I'm just curious why are the hall master for Mus Hall, Serpent Hall, Taurus Hall, and Gallus Hall all beautiful and young women? Half of the eight halls I found are all led by beautiful young women. Isn't that a coincidence?" After hearing that, she also thought it was quite weird. That's right. This proportion is so unlikely. Theoretically speaking, many people would rather have a man become a hall master. It's not rare to find a woman being a hall master but not a lot. Yet, you have four women as hall masters and they are all very pretty and young."

Suddenly, something struck her. Her eyes lit up. "Do you think this is probably an arrangement by your master?"

Severin nodded. "Old wacko always thinks differently from the others. Maybe he did it on purpose because he was afraid I can't find a wife."

Sheila covered her mouth and laughed. "Haha. Maybe your master had arranged them to be your wives. He knows how wonderful you are and they are almost the same age as you. You better appreciate and don't disappoint your master."

Severin smiled embarrassedly. "Are you being way too generous? Are you really happy to share me with other people?"

Sheila chuckled. "That's because I think Gracie, Yuka, and the others are quite nice. They are so talented. Prettier than me too. I also think it's going to be more fun if all of us could play well together, go shopping together, and train together. It's good to have more people around."

Most importantly, Diane and her could offload their burdens if Severin was willing to get more wives. He was really too powerful and strong for just the two of them to handle. In addition, both of them would be busy training. There would be much time left for them to spend time accompanying Severin.

Severin's mouth twitched. "I know many heads of the family or governor have many wives too. But all of them don't get along with each other. Why would you think it's going to be fun when I have more wives? Let me see if your heart is cold!"

Sheila put her hands behind her and cocked up her head proudly. "Diane and I talked about it before. We're going to object if you are in love with a woman who enjoyed fighting and scheming against others.

We don't mind if your other women can get along well with us. Just look at me and Diane. We get along just fine. Plus I don't think Gracie or Yuka are bad women. Well, I haven't met Nancy yet so I don't know what kind of woman she is."

Chapter 1155

Severin did not know how to react. "Yes, I can accept it if you say you know what kind of woman Gracie is. But we just know Yuka for a few days and yet, you say it as if you know her very well. It's important for us to spend more time with another person to get to know her well."

Sheila was very confident with herself. "Woman knows woman the best. Even though Miss Yuka had to sacrifice herself to continue operating Taurus Hall, she did not exchange her body for any favors. That is good enough to show she's a good woman. Yes, I only knew her for a few days but I trust my judgment."

Severin could not be bothered to argue with Sheila. After thinking for a while, he said, "I think we can leave and drive to Nine Dragon City tomorrow."

Sheila nodded. "What car are we driving? Or we can just ask Miss Yuka to arrange a car for us?"

Severin nodded. "That's good. I'm too lazy to go buy a new one. Since they are in the middle of settling everything, I'll just tell her to get us a car."

After a pause, he continued, "Then I'll tell them to head to South County once they finished settling everything here. I'll tell Diane and the other hall masters. When Yuka and the others arrive, Larry could go pick them up and help them to settle down."

During lunch, Severin told Yuka his plan.

What? You have information on Gallus Hall's location! That's terrific. That means you only need to find four more halls. Congratulations!"

Yuka was delighted to hear that.

The Great Elders thought about it and asked, "Supreme Leader, do you know what's their current situation? Do you need us to go along with you?"

Severin said, "No. Just make sure you settle everything here. Once you're done, you guys can head to South County Mansion. I'll contact my family and the other hall masters. They'll be there to pick everyone and help you to settle down."

"Thank you, Supreme Leader," the Great Elder said.

Severin looked at Yuka and said, "Yuka, can you prepare a car for us? Nine Dragon City is not too far from her. So Sheila and I have decided to drive there tomorrow morning."

Yuka nodded. "No problem. You can pick any cars from the garage."

The next day, Yuka brought Severin and Sheila to the garage.

There were many cars parked inside. Ranging from super luxury cars to common cars like Audi A4.

Severin looked at Audi A4 and said, "Sheila, I think we should stay low profile. This Audi A4 should do it. Besides, we're not going to drive it back to South County. It's way too far."

Sheila nodded. "I have no problem with it."

Yuka smiled. Then she went to look for the key to pass it to Severin. "Supreme Leader, I think we should be able to depart to South Link City tomorrow. We shall wait for you there."

Severin nodded. "Alright. We can celebrate together once I find Nancy and bring her back to South Link City too."

"Okay. I'll be waiting for you."

Chapter 1156

The way Yuka smiled was so alluring and attractive. Shortly, Severin and Sheila left for Nine Dragon City.

"Haha! This is so fun! It's been a while since I drive. Suddenly, I feel it's so relaxing and comfortable driving on the road and listening to music."

After driving for a while, Sheila was getting more excited. She was the one who insisted to be the driver.

As the passenger, Severin had nothing to do so he took out his cigarette and started smoking. "The view is spectacular. I had been busy training and making alchemical pills for the past few months. It's a good chance for me to relax and enjoy some time off once in a while. I find it very relaxing to look at the view now."

After driving for more than four hours, they drove into a small town. It was a town near a valley.

"I see a restaurant there. Let's take a break and have lunch first. We can probably reach Nine Dragon Province before night falls."

Sheila smiled when she saw the restaurant.

Severin nodded. After that, he tried to feel the level of spiritual energy in the air. "Wow, the level of spiritual energy in the air here is quite rich. This is a good place to train."

"Really? Do you think there could be a hidden family that has attainment here?"

After feeling the spiritual energy in the air, Sheila asked.

Severin shook his head. "Yes, the spiritual energy is quite rich but those hidden families normally have their own attainment technique and most of their members have attainment. The level of spiritual energy in this town is not enough for them because the coverage is too small. Most importantly, there is no suitable forest around here to hunt for treasure.”

Sheila nodded after hearing the explanation. “I see. So you’re saying those hidden families would prefer staying at a place with rich spiritual energy in the air and somewhere with a forest.”

Severin nodded. “Yes. Preferably a forest with spiritual herbs that could last them for a long time. So they could ensure the long prosperity of their family’s future.”

“Hehe. I see. I have been wondering why we don’t often see members of hidden families and sects coming out to the mundane world. I got my answer now. The level of spiritual energy in most of the places in the mundane world is not rich enough to attract them.”

Finally, Sheila understood it.

They continued talking as they walked to the restaurant. The waitress showed them to their table on the second floor.

“Good day. What would you like to order today? The restaurant offers fresh monster meat today. The best way to cook it is to make soup out of it. Would you like to try it?”

When Severin and Sheila were at the table, the waitress stood there and recommended the restaurant’s recommended dishes. She was wearing a uniform that perfectly embodied her sexy curve. In her hand, she carried a menu.

Sheila was intrigued by the idea of eating the fresh monster meat. Her eyes lit up. “Oh, really? Then we would like to have that. That should be enough for the both of us.”

“No problem. We have a few soup flavors to choose from. Please pick one.”

The waitress waited for Sheila to sit down patiently before passing the menu to Sheila

Chapter 1157

Sheila looked at the menu, picked a flavor, and passed the menu back to the waitress.

The waitress smiled politely and asked, “Would you like to order any alcohol or beverages?” After thinking about it, Sheila answered, “Oh, then we would like to have a bottle of red wine.” “Any bottle of red wine?” The waitress looked stunned but that lasted only a few seconds. Later, she quickly put the professional smile back on her face. “We only accept spiritual stone as payment because you have ordered the fresh monster soup. A bottle of red wine is not very expensive but it also cost around one or two low-grade spiritual stones. The premium red wine is priced at ten low-grade spiritual stones.”

She thought it was better to inform earlier on the price in case the customer complained about the price. later.

Severin smiled, flipped his hand to take out a medium-grade spiritual stone, and tossed it to the waitress. “This should be enough to pay for the bill.”

The waitress caught the stone and smiled. “Yes. It’s more than enough.”

Severin smiled. “Keep the change.”

The waitress was thrilled to hear that and quickly clasped her hand together to express her gratitude. Thank you, sir. I'll place the order now."

Meanwhile, at the other corner of the restaurant, there were three men sitting together at a table. They kept on looking over to where Severin and Sheila were sitting.

They were the infamous three close pals of South Town. Their families were notable and powerful families in South Town. The citizens of South Town would try to avoid meeting them at all cause because they were known to bully anyone they want and no one would dare to punish them for all the crimes they committed.

Jamil was a chubby guy. Marcel liked to wear a white shirt. Leroy had a darker skin tone. Jamil's eyes lit up when he saw Sheila. "That chick is so god damn pretty! Look at her long fair legs. I can't stop looking at it."

Marcel quickly looked over and gulped. "That body! The perfect hourglass body! I don't remember seeing her in town before."

Same as the other two, Leroy also looked over. After that, he gave the other two a look. "I've never seen them in town before. I guess they are just stopping here to take a rest. Since we both like the girl so much, why don't we look for an opportunity and kidnap that girl?"

Jamil had always thought he was a strong man because he was a level one warrior king at his age. He smiled evilly and said, "She's really something. Leroy, you're right. It's going to be a shame if we miss the opportunity. I don't want to look back and feel regret in the future."

After that, Leroy looked at Marcel and asked, "What do you think?"

Marcel chuckled. "We're the infamous three close pals of South Town. Do you think I'm going to miss out on this? Since they are just bypassing the town, there is only one road for them to take later. Let's continue drinking now and we just need to reach Yeoland Valley before they do. There's hardly anyone there. We can kill the man and drag the girl into the forest later."

"Haha. Marcel, you have it all plan out. That's what we'll do. It'll be unlikely for my father to find out that way. I don't want him to nag me again. Yeoland Valley is indeed a good place and it's five miles away from the town. No one is going to see what we do."

Leroy laughed out loud. The three of them continued drinking until they saw Severin and Sheila start eating. They asked for their bill and left immediately.

"Wow, the soup is very nice. It's aromatic, flavorful, and an umami taste!"

Sheila looked content and happy after drinking a spoonful of soup.

Chapter 1158

Severin was glad to see Sheila was enjoying the soup. "All you think about is food. You're really an avid foodie!"

Sheila chuckled. "What's wrong with being a foodie? I like to eat any food that I like. Most importantly, I can maintain my body weight no matter how much food I eat. Do you know how many girls wish to have that?"

Severin said, "Don't worry. Just enjoy all the food that you like. I know a recipe to make an alchemical pill to reduce your body weight and you don't have to worry you become fat again if you stop eating the alchemical pill."

"What? Do you really know how to make that alchemical pill? This world is full of wonder!" Sheila's eyes widened as if she discovered a whole new world.

Half an hour later, Sheila stood up feeling very satisfied to stretch her back. "This is so tasty. Luckily we decided to stop here to have lunch and luckily we didn't fly there. Otherwise, we won't be able to drink this soup.

Severin smiled. "Alright. Let's organize a barbeque when I'm free. Those meat taste even better than this." Sheila did not believe him. "You're joking! I never know you're good at barbeque. This monster soup is the best food I've eaten. I don't believe you can make better monster meat than this soup."

"That's because you've never tried it before. Let's go, foodie. It's getting late. We might not reach Nine Dragon City before the sky turns dark if you drive slowly later."

Severin held Sheila's hand and walked downstairs. Shortly, they reached their car and continued their road trip.

After a while, they reached Yeoland Valley.

"Be careful!" Severin reminded.

Two giant boulders dropped from the cliff above them and blocked the road ahead of them. "No way! How often do you see two boulders falling from above?"

Sheila got out of the car to look closer.

Severin also got out of the car and chuckled. "It's not a coincidence. How could two boulders come falling down when the weather is so fine?"

Sheila frowned, "Are you saying someone did this on purpose?"

Severin nodded. At the same time, three people flew over and landed in front of them.

"You guys are finally here. We're starting to wonder if you two are going to drive past this place or not," Leroy said as he looked at Severin and Sheila.

Chapter 1159

Meanwhile, Jamil did not care Severin was there and openly examined Sheila's body with his eyes. "Your cute face and that gorgeous body are a perfect match. I can't wait to touch your face and body!"

Sheila frowned when she heard that. "So I take that you guys are not here to rob us?"

When she saw them flying in, she thought they were going to rob them. Yet, it seemed like she was wrong. Leroy smiled evilly. “No. We’re here to rob you but not your money. We’re here to rob you! Haha!” Severin chuckled. “Rob my woman? The three of you? You must be kidding me.”

“Oh? We are all level one warrior kings and our power is almost identical to those of older people in this town. Do you still think we’re kidding?”

Leroy took a step forward as he talked arrogantly. Whereas, Marcel smiled. “Guys, let’s don’t waste any time with him anymore. I’m sure he’s just pretending that he’s not scared of us. It’s a good plan but we’re not that stupid to fall for it.”

“I see. So you guys are all level one warrior kings. You three look exactly like the three stooges who have no idea there are many people who are stronger than you out there. Yet, you guys really have the audacity to stop us and try to kidnap me.”

Although Sheila did not have high attainment, she knew how strong Severin was and she was not scared of Jamil, Marcel, and Leroy.

“You have quite the spicy personality, little missy: I can’t wait anymore!”

Leroy balled up his hand with spiritual energy and went straight to Severin. “I’ll kill your man first and we can take you without a sweat! Haha!”

“I dare you!” Severin sneered. Without any difficulty, he avoided Leroy’s attack. In return, he smacked at Leroy’s chest.

Leroy was sent flying several feet away. The impact was so strong that the boulders were smashed when Leroy’s body hit them. When he fell down to the ground, he was breathless.

“What?”

Chapter 1160

After that, Sheila ran over to the dead bodies to collect their loot. Meanwhile, Severin waved his hand and the boulders exploded into smaller pieces.

When Sheila ran back to where Severin was, she complained after looking into the spatial rings. “Damn. These guys are so poor. They only have some spiritual stones in their spatial rings. I don’t even see any spiritual herbs.”

Severin rubbed Sheila’s head dotingly. “So you’re not just a foodie, but a money grubber too.”

“Everyone likes treasure. I was hoping to find second-grade or third-grade spiritual herbs in their spatial rings.”

Sheila chuckled and passed the spatial rings to Severin. “I can’t access the spatial ring because I’m not a profound master yet. This is so annoying. I can look inside but I can’t take things out.”

Severin consoled. “Don’t worry. You’ll get there soon.”

After Severin transferred the spiritual stones into his spatial ring, they got into the car and continued driving to Nine Dragon City. When the sky was turning dark, they finally reached Nine Dragon City.

Severin told Sheila to park the car near a hotel and entered the hotel. After they paid for the hotel room, they went out to take their dinner.

On the way, Sheila looked around and asked, "Severin, do you think I should wear something modest? Should I wear something that's less revealing?"

Severin frowned because he did not know why would Sheila suddenly ask that question. "Why? You look good in this outfit."

Sheila replied, "Yes, I know I look good wearing this outfit. But many men keep on looking at me. I don't want to attract much attention and cause trouble to you."

Severin did not know how to react. "You're not doing it on purpose. Besides, I'm proud that my wife is so good-looking and you're not wearing something that's revealing too. It's not your fault if some men try to do something to you. I'll just take them down when that happens. Those guys deserve to be punished anyway."

It touched Sheila's heart. She pursed her lips. "Okay. As long as you don't think that I'm causing you more trouble."

Severin wrapped his arm around Sheila's waist and said, "Let them be jealous of me. It just means that you are so beautiful and that makes me happy. Even if you wear something less revealing, you're going to attract attention too because you're so beautiful. It's not like you can wear a mask to cover your face every time you go out."

It lightened up Sheila's mood. They continued chitchatting happily and decided to eat in a rather fancy restaurant.

"Oh, my god! The food here is so expensive. Look at the price!" Sheila complained after looking at the menu.

It was not because they could not afford it. The interior design of the restaurant did not let Sheila think this was a high-class restaurant so Sheila thought it was just a normal family restaurant. Obviously, Sheila was wrong. It was not a place where normal people would choose to dine.

The waitress heard the complaint and explained with a smile. "Miss, we are known for our price. But we still have a lot of diners. Do you know why? That's because our food is very delicious. That's why we can set a higher price on the menu."

"Oh, really? I don't mind as long as the food is delicious." Sheila licked her lip. Her eyes looked brighter too.
