

After Prison 1161

Chapter 1161

“Feel free to order anything you want. You must be tired after driving for the whole day,” Severin said with a smile and did not mind the expensive price on the menu.

“You’re right. I should reward myself and I’m hungry.”

Sheila pursed her lip and said, “But it’s just you and me so we can’t finish if we order too many. Let’s just order three dishes. I don’t want to waste food.”

Severin nodded. “Okay. But let’s order a bottle of good wine.”

Suddenly, a man who was wearing a white shirt sitting behind them mocked, “Geez, what a hypocrite. You were just saying you don’t want to avoid wasting money by ordering too many and here you go saying you want to order an expensive bottle of wine. Do you know what’s the most expensive alcohol served here? A type of spiritual wine with a price tag of seven-hundred-and-fifty-thousand dollars! Do you still think you can order that?”

“That’s right. I hate it the most when cheapskates and the poor act like they can afford to dine in here,” another man also mocked.

“Spiritual alcohol? What’s that? This is the first time I see a restaurant selling such expensive alcohol,” Severin asked, shocked.

The first man who mocked them first started to flirt with Sheila and pointed at a bottle of alcohol on his table. “Look at this. This is spiritual alcohol. Seven-hundred-and-fifty-thousand dollars for this small bottle. The most expensive bottle serves here. Not everyone can afford to drink it.”

After a pause, he continued, “Darling, do you want to come and join me for a drink? I don’t mind sharing the spiritual alcohol if you come to sit with us.”

Sheila gave the man a disgusted look and rolled her eyes. “No. We can order it ourselves.”

“Haha. Let’s see if you can afford it as you say!”

At that moment, the waitress interrupted and explained the origin of the spiritual alcohol to Severin and Sheila. “The spiritual alcohol is brewed by the restaurant owner, Kylie. She has attainment. When she’s free, she likes to brew her own alcohol. After a long time of research and study, she created this spiritual alcohol. It has spiritual energy in the alcohol and that is the reason for its hefty price tag. It could improve a normal person’s health and give a normal person longevity. If a person with attainment drinks it, it could boost their attainment.”

After a pause, she continued, “The effect varies. For the warrior king, the effect is little to none. However, the effect is better for grandmasters or those who just become profound masters. If you drink a couple of glasses every day, you can boost your attainment little by little each day which is quite a good thing too.”

That answered Severin’s question. “No wonder you can sell this little bottle with that price.”

“Sir, would you like to order a bottle to try?” The waitress asked with a smile.

Chapter 1162

Severin thought about it and said, “This bottle is probably just a third of a normal red wine bottle, right? I’ll order four bottles to try out first. We are both good drinkers.”

“Four bottles?”

The waitress was shocked. Normal people could not even afford to drink one bottle because it was the most expensive alcohol on the menu. If the waitress in the restaurant successfully convinced the customer to order a bottle, they would be paid a commission of around 3,000 dollars for each bottle.

No wonder she was shocked when Severin ordered four bottles.

“Yes. Four bottles, please.”

order Tour Dotties without any hesitation.

“I can’t wait to drink it. I wonder how does it taste like.”

Sheila chuckled and licked her lip. “I’m born into a wealthy family but I’ve never drunk such expensive alcohol before.”

Severin smiled faintly. “This is not your normal alcohol. It’s spiritual alcohol. You’re going to gain a lot of benefits after drinking it because the level of your attainment is still low.”

Sheila knew what Severin was saying. “I don’t know if I should be happy or sad after hearing that. I think I rather have high attainment and a less effective result after drinking it.”

“Haha. Don’t worry. Sooner or later, you’re going to be very strong.” Severin laughed, “You have a special constitution, remember? If not, you can’t change your constitution with that special method.”

Sheila thought about it and also started to joke. “Luckily I met you. If no one want me and I remained single for my whole life, I’ll never be able to change my constitution and never had the chance to train

Severin smiled faintly. “That’s impossible. Do you think no one is going to want you? You’re so beautiful. I know there’s a long line of rich kid waiting in line to get to know you but you don’t like any of them. I’m shocked to see that arrogant spicy young lady changed into this humble girl now.”

“Hehe. You’re right. If I can’t find anyone to marry me, there’ll going to be even more women who had at harder time than me. But I only want to marry the man I like.” Sheila giggled happily because she had found her true love.

Shortly, the waitress served them their food and spiritual alcohol.

“Please enjoy. If you need anything, feel free to call me. The waitress smiled and left the table.

“Wow! This prawn is delicious!”

Sheila started eating and she was in for a surprise. “The waitress was right. The food is delicious. Now I think it’s all worth it.”

Severin also tried the food. "You're right. You won't find this taste in other places."

After that, he opened the spiritual bottle and poured a glass for himself and Sheila. "Shall we test the spiritual alcohol?"

"Hehe. Cheers!" Sheila raised her glass, clinked her glass with Severin's, and took a small sip.

Chapter 1163

"Wow. It's very smooth, sweet, and the smell is terrific. This is really very good!" Sheila's eyes lit up after tasting the first sip. After that, she quickly finished the alcohol in her glass.

Severin took his time and tasted the alcohol. He, too, was satisfied with the alcohol. "Do you feel a small amount of spiritual energy flowing in your bottle after it reached your stomach? It's just a small amount. but that's the reason why normal people could drink this alcohol too. The spiritual energy is very gentle and it spread across your body very slowly. This is very good. The owner of the restaurant is a very talented person."

"That's right! We should drink more!" Sheila laughed.

Severin did not agree. "You can't drink too many. One or two bottles are the best. Although you can't feel it, you can get drunk very easily. I think the alcohol content is quite high."

After that, they continued to enjoy their dinner. When they were about to finish eating, more than a hundred people suddenly appeared and surrounded the restaurant. A chubby and bald-headed man barged into the restaurant with a group of people and shouted out loud, "Get the hell out of here now!" Many people quickly left the restaurant including those rich people.

"What's going on? This is so annoying. Why can't we enjoy our dinner peacefully?" Sheila said with frustration.

"Leave now! The restaurant is closed now!"

The man continued to scare those who continued to stay in the restaurant away. The diners were afraid the man would hurt them so they quickly left.

"Hey! Wait! Don't leave yet! You guys haven't paid yet!"

The waitresses and a manager tried to stop the diners from leaving. They panicked and looked nervous as they shouted out loud. Yet, no one listened.

"What the hell? Who are you guys? You probably come here to look for the owner but do you need to chase us away?"

The four rich kids who sat near Severin stood up and asked angrily.

"Well, well, well. I was wondering who are shouting at me. We're members of Nightsky Gang and my name is Liam Dean. I think you guys are the Zelenskys. How dare you shout at us when your family is not even considered a third-tier upper-class family."

Liam raised his brow and talked arrogantly when he looked over at the four rich kids.

“Nightsky Gang! Do all you want!”

The moment, the four rich kids knew the man was a member of the Nightsky Gang, they clasped their hands like a coward and left the restaurant immediately.

At that moment, a woman in her thirties had just arrived. There were more than twenty people following behind her.

“Liam Dean! What’re you trying to do?” The woman questioned Liam when she walked into the restaurant.

When Liam was about to answer, one of his men pointed at Severin and Sheila. “Boss! There are two people who still sitting at their table!”

After knowing that, Liam could not be bothered to deal with the woman who just came in. He turned around and looked at Severin and Sheila. “F*ck you! Didn’t you two hear what I said? Scram! This restaurant is now closed!”

Chapter 1164

Severin stood up and smiled at Liam. “I’m sorry but I’m not finished eating yet. I’ll leave when I finish my food.”

“Fine! Finish up your food and I’ll deal with you later!”

Liam did not expect to see there was someone brave enough to go against him. He had a scar on his face so he sneered, it was really very scary looking.

He continued to talk to the woman who just walked in. “Kylie, do you think you can get away by bringing these people with you? They are definitely not going to last too long in the fight.”

As it turned out, the woman who walked in was the owner of the restaurant, Kylie. Kylie looked at the men in the restaurant and the others who were standing by outside. Her face looked bad and her tone was less aggressive. “What do you want?”

“What do I want? Didn’t I tell you before? Give our gang seven million dollars each month and we will protect you. But that was the last offer. We gave you ten days to think about it and you didn’t accept the offer. Now my gang leader said you have to give us nine million dollars instead. Otherwise, you don’t have to think about opening the restaurant anymore.” Liam scoffed.

“This is outrageous! This is daylight robbery!”

Once Sheila heard it, she stood up and commented. She had just finished eating and could not endure once she knew why Liam brought so many people here.

Liam’s mouth twitched. He ordered one of his boys, “Blaine, bring some men with you and teach those two a lesson. It seems like I treated them too well that they had the audacity to help Kylie.”

Kylie quickly stopped Blaine. “Liam, I don’t think you need to hurt my customer. They’re here to eat. Why don’t we continue this conversation upstairs?”

Liam sneered. "Excuse me but they are your customer, not my customer. They just insulted me and I'm not going to let them go easily. Do you understand?"

After that, he ordered Blaine again, "Blaine, what are you waiting for? Drag this man out of the restaurant and break his limbs. She looks very pretty. Bring her to the hotel. Once I finish here, I'll go to the hotel and meet you guys. Keep a close eye and don't let her run away."

"Yes, sir!" Blaine smiled evilly. He gathered four men and approached Severin and Sheila.

"Oh, well. I guess the Nightsky Gang likes to recruit bad people. Do you still see yourself as a man when all you do is bully women?" Severin scoffed.

He stood in front of Sheila and rubbed his fist. "Since you have made up your mind that you want to hurt me, I have no choice but to accept your challenge."

"You are really so full of yourself."

Blaine's attainment was not bad. At least, he was a level three profound master. Without delay, he quickly surrounded Severin with the other four men.

"Take him down!"

Blaine and the other four men attacked Severin together. A second later, all of them crash-landed on the floor. All of them were doing the exact same action which was pressing their chest with their hand and moaning painfully.

"Ah! My chest hurt!"

"Damn it! I think my ribs are broken! F*ck him!"

The five of them did not even see how Severin attack them. Before they knew it, their eyes went blurred and felt something hit their chest. Later, all of them were lying on the ground and could no longer fight

Chapter 1165

Kylie might look like she was in her thirties but she was already in her forties. She had spent a lot of effort and money to maintain her beauty and skin.

The moment she witnessed just what happened, her mouth remained wide open shockingly. Nightsky Gang was the strongest underground force in this area. They were overbearing, potent, and ruled by force. Once a hotel or a restaurant had good business, they would blackmail the owner to give them money in exchange for protection.

The problem was they requested a huge sum of money. Basically, the sum of money would be the profit the hotel or restaurant earned in a month. If the owner gave them the money, the owner would not have any money left to run the business.

Before this, Kylie had hired some people with attainment to work with her. Therefore, not many people dare to come looking for trouble. Moreover, she was good friends with many rich people.

However, she never thought Nightsky Gang would target her and chase away her customer.

“Hey, kid! You got some nerves! How dare you hurt my people?”

Liam too was shocked but it only lasted for a few moments. He then ordered the others, “Call the others and grab your weapons! I want to see how strong he is!”

One guy ran out and called the others to enter the restaurant. The others who were waiting outside were armed with weapons such as steel pipes, machetes, and other sharp weapons. All of them looked so fierce and scary.

Despite that, Severin was not scared of them. Within a few seconds, he had defeated many men.

“Are you a warrior king?”

Judging from the situation, Liam started to feel less confident. Although he was also a warrior king, he was just at level two. He worried that he was not Severin’s match.

“Bring your men and get the hell out of it! Don’t you dare step your foot in here and cause more trouble! Otherwise, I’ll take that as you’re challenging me!”

Severin waved his hand and chased them away impatiently.

“You want me to leave after hurting so many of my men? No way! Let me see how strong you are!”

Liam snorted. As the guardian of Nightsky Gang, he knew he needed to do something or he was going to have a hard time explaining himself to the gang leader.

As he balled up his hand, spiritual energy appeared and covered his fist. He moved in high-speed charging at Severin.

“Alright, if you really want to die, I’ll grant you your wish!”

Severin snorted and charged at Liam too.

After a loud explosion, Liam crash-landed on the floor, A mouthful of blood rushed up his throat. His body twitched for a while before he died.

“Mister Liam!”

Those who were hurt finally managed to get up on their feet. Their face turned white when they just witnessed how easily Severin killed Liam.

“Run!”

Many people sensed something was wrong and did not dare to attack Severin so they stood where they were. After seeing how Severin killed Liam, they were so frightened that they quickly ran away.

Chapter 1166

Severin could not be bothered to go after those people and just let them run away.

When none of the members of Nightsky Gang was there anymore, he went over to Liam's body and took away his spatial ring. He smiled, "I heard the others call him guardian. I bet his spatial ring is full of treasure."

Kylie saw it and did not know how to react. "Sir, thank you for helping me. But you should leave now. There won't be a chance for you to leave once the Nightsky Gang's gang leader finds out about this and come here with stronger fighters."

Severin was not bothered by it. He sat down and smiled nonchalantly. "Oh, really? What makes you think I'm not stronger than them?"

Kylie was speechless. "Based on the fight just now, I know you're very strong. But the gang leader and the elders of the Nightsky Gang are really very strong. Although I don't know what're their actual attainment, I know they are definitely strong enough to be the strongest gang in this area."

Severin smiled. "No worries. I'll just kill those people if they're so terrible people. Then the Nightsky Gang would no longer exist. I need to stock up on my spiritual herbs too. I bet those strong fighters have plenty in their spatial rings."

Kylie was dumbfounded. Why did she have a feeling that Severin planned on robbing Nightsky Gang's strong fighters?

"Oh. Waitress, how much is my bill? I haven't paid yet," Severin asked all of a sudden.

The waitress was dumbstruck. She looked at Severin and Kylie and did not say a thing because she was scared.

"Never mind. Those who ate here just now didn't pay too. And you helped me kill Liam. I'm grateful for that so your dinner is on me," Kylie said.

"How can it be free when you're already facing a big loss today? Besides, I didn't do it because of you. They humiliated me and Sheila. I did it because I was angry at them. So I want to pay," Severin said with a smile.

Sheila smiled too. "Thank you for your offer. This man here is the governor of South County. He has a lot of money. He'll think you are looking down on him if you refuse to let him pay."

"Mister Governor!" Kylie got a shock. "South County. Let me think. Is South County in the Skystream Province? Yes! It's there. Blimey! You're a handsome and young governor!"

She thought for a while and said, "What about you just pay for the four bottles of spiritual alcohol and the food is on me? That'll be three million dollars."

"Kylie, is it? How many bottles of spiritual alcohol do you have left?"

Severin did not pay immediately. Instead, he pretended to cough and asked a question.

"Due to the complicated brewing process, I don't have a lot of stock. But not everyone could afford to drink it, so I think I have quite a lot left," Kylie explained.

Severin shrugged his shoulder. "So how many do you have?"

Kylie thought and said, "I think a hundred bottles."

"Okay. Please sell all of them to me," Severin chuckled. There's nothing you need to worry about anymore after I kill the gang leader and the elders. So what do you say? Are you willing to sell your remaining stock.

to me?"

Chapter 1167

"Are you seriously going to buy a hundred bottles of spiritual alcohol?"

Kylie frowned. Although it was nice for the business when someone was willing to buy a bulk amount of spiritual alcohol bottles at once, that would also mean the business would face a shortage of spiritual alcohol for the time being.

The brewery process took a long time. If Kylie sold those bottles of spiritual alcohol to Severin, that meant there would be a time the restaurant would be out of spiritual alcohol.

Despite that, she was a grateful person. Severin had helped her solve a big problem, after all. Therefore, she did not hesitate and smiled. "No problem. If that's the case, I'll free the four bottles you ordered just now. You just need to pay for the one hundred bottles.

Severin chuckled. "Thank you. Let's exchange our numbers. If I want to buy more in the future, I give you a call and you can send my order to me."

Kylie did not see that coming. She had no choice but to agree. "No problem. But you can't buy a bulk amount anymore. I need to keep some to sell in the restaurant."

After that, she instructed the manager, "Bring those bottles out."

Severin went to the cashier counter and said, "Here's my card."

After the payment was done, the manager and the waitress finished bringing all the bottles out and placed them on the table.

Severin smiled. As he waved his hand, he placed all the bottles into his spatial ring.

"Great! That means Diane and the others could try the spiritual alcohol too!"

It got Sheila feeling very excited. Before this, she thought about asking Severin to buy a few bottles to bring them back to South Link City. She was surprised Severin had the same thought as her even before she told him her plan.

"Diane? Is she your sister?" Kylie asked.

Embarrassingly, Sheila shrugged. "No. She's my husband's first wife. We get along really well as if we are sisters."

Kylie was stunned. Her years of experience in customer service let her react quickly. "I see. It's so rare and nice that you two can get along together. That would make many people jealous."

Suddenly, they saw many people heading to the restaurant.

The smile on Kylie's face disappeared and she had her serious-looking face back on instead. "They're here."

Those people who came with Kylie looked frightened if Severin could not beat those people, they did not know if the Nightsky Gang would hurt them and blame them for what happened. The Nightsky Gang was known to rule by force and unreasonably.

"Haha! You can wait inside. I go out by myself"

Severin laughed relaxingly and headed outside

When Severin was outside, he saw there were seven people walking toward the restaurant. They stopped when they saw Severin stop in front of them.

Severin smiled faintly. "Are you guys a member of Nightsky Gang?"

An old man squinted his eyes and to run for your life but you didn't

Severin asked, "Are you the gang leader of the Nightsky Gang?"

He asked, "Are you going to fight?"

The man smiled. "Yes, I'm the leader of the Nightsky Gang."

Hey kid, I'm going to make sure you know the reason I kill you today. I'm the Fourth Elder of the Nightsky Gang, Karry Wutter."

An old man squinted his eyes and said, "Are you the one who killed Liam? Good! I thought you are going to run for your life but you didn't."

Severin asked, "Are you the gang leader of the Nightsky Gang?"

The man smiled. "Yes. My name is David Letterman, the gang leader of the Nightsky Gang."

"Hey, kid. I'm going to make sure you know the reason I kill you today. I'm the Fourth Elder of the Nightsky Gang, Karry Wutter."

At the same time, another old man stood forward. As he balled up his hand, his fist was covered with spiritual energy. Meanwhile, he also unleashed his aura. As it turned out, he was a level four warrior king.

Chapter 1168

Severin looked at them arrogantly. "I wasn't asking you."

Karry's mouth twitched as he glared at Severin angrily. "I don't care. I just want you to look closely at my face because I'm going to kill you."

After that, he jumped into the air and threw a punch at Severin. A humongous spiritual energy fist appeared. Although it was created from spiritual energy, it looked very surreal and headed toward Severin. Severin saw and waved his hand to unleash a spiritual energy beam.

“He’s thinking to defeat my attack without using technique?”

Karry frowned.

Shortly, everyone caught a surprise. Severin’s spiritual energy beam beat Karry’s spiritual energy fist and there was some remaining power of Severin’s spiritual energy beam that continued to head toward Karry. “Oh, no!”

Karry knew the situation was not in his favor. As he was about to run away, the remaining power from the spiritual energy beam hit his chest. Everything was too late.

as seen

A loud thudding sound appeared. Karry was seen flying away and crashed land on the ground not too far. However, he was no longer alive.

“What? Elder Karry is killed with just one blow?”

“Damn it! This guy didn’t even need to use a technique to kill Elder Karry!”

The rest of the people from Nightsky Gang were frightened and scared by Severin’s ability.

“This guy is very strong. We have to fight him together!”

David realized Severin was too strong for him to fight alone. Therefore, he shamelessly asked everyone to attack together.

“That’s right! We need to attack him together!”

The Great Elder of Nightsky Gang was scared too. Despite being a level five warrior king, the way Severin killed Karry had traumatized him.

Meanwhile, several fighters had teamed up together to activate their technique to attack Severin together. Severin could not be bothered to fight them individually so he flipped his hand to take out his sword. Later, he inserted his spiritual energy into the sword

When the sword was filled with spiritual energy, it let out a humming sound. The sword looked different from before.

“Rose-Petal Rain!”

With a faint smile, Severin swung his sword. More than a hundred rose petals appeared and flew in the air.

“What’s this technique? It’s so pretty.”

The Great Elder gazed at the rose petals and got attracted by them. This was the first time he saw such a beautiful and colorful technique,

Chapter 1169

“Stop daydreaming! This technique is actually very dangerous. Someone used to tell me you can’t tell how powerful some techniques are because the energy in it is well controlled and less visible.”

Meanwhile, David was feeling scared by the technique because he could feel his life was being threatened by the rose petals. In fact, this was the first time he had this type of feeling.

“Wow! This technique is so pretty!”

At the same time, Kylie saw the same thing through the window of the restaurant. She could not help and walked to the door with her clasped in front of her chest surprisingly.

“Ma’am, these rose petals look so pretty but I wonder how powerful it is. Do you think these rose petals can kill those people? The others’ techniques look much more powerful than his. I see the opponents created an eagle, tiger, and other powerful animals with their spiritual energy,” a waitress asked after thinking.

Kylie smirked. “How would I know? This is the first time I see strong fighters fighting each other. It’s very rare to witness, especially the fight between warrior kings.”

“Go!”

Severin smiled and pointed to the front. Subsequently, the rose petals received his orders and flew to the front. Although the rose petals looked vulnerable, they flew at high-speed. It only took a while before they were tapped on the opponent’s techniques and exploded.

A loud explosion sound exploded. The illusory eagle, tiger, and other techniques were destroyed by the rose petals.

“What? It can’t be!”

David opened his mouth wide open shockingly. Despite being mentally prepared, the power of the rose petals exceeded his expectation.

Suddenly, the remaining rose petals flew toward Severin’s opponents and surrounded them. In the end, there were around seven to eight pieces of rose petals on every opponent’s body.

“Sir! Please don’t kill me! I know what I did is wrong! I’ll never bully or ask for money from this restaurant anymore!”

At that moment, David thought Severin was angry at them because they harassed Kylie and demanded. Kylie give them money. He kept on begging for mercy with his trembling and scared voice.

Too bad, Severin was not going to forgive them. From his perspective, he thought it was better to destroy this sort of gang which often harassed and caused trouble to business owners or normal people.

With a thought, those rose petals exploded. The elders of Nightsky Gang and David dropped to the floor and looked dead.

my god! Those rose petals are so powerful!" Kylie was stunned. "This is the best technique to use when you need to attack many opponents at once. The power is just impeccable and beautiful!"

"I know those fighters from Nightsky Gang are very powerful. Their gang leader is even a level seven warrior king. So it's just shocking to see they were killed instantly and effortlessly. The governor of the South County is so strong!"

Many staff from the restaurant were there to witness the fight and they were all amazed.
