

After Prison 1241

Chapter 1241

As Severin said earlier, Mick was a level seven warrior king. There were hardly any people in this city that could defeat him. Therefore, everyone was really surprised to find out the woman was stronger than Mirk.

Diane Walked together with Severin. After thinking for a while, she made a bold guess. "I think she's probably not from this city. Otherwise, she won't dare to come causing trouble."

Severin nodded. "Yes, I agree. Most probably I'm her target because she knows my mind. But I just can't figure out who could she be."

Soon, they were in an empty space in the compound. Many bodyguards were standing in a circle to encircle a girl in a purple dress in the center. All of them looked at her with fear because they knew she was very strong. She had a perfect hourglass body. The mask on her face made her look very mysterious and no one could tell what she looked like. Severin looked over and frowned. Seemingly, her body reminded him of someone but he just could not recall.

"Miss, who are you? Why do you want to challenge me? Severin asked after thinking.

However, the woman was not going to talk with him. She clenched her fist and had it covered with her spiritual energy. Within seconds, she flew up into the sky and punched Severin. Severin saw it and balled up his hand to fight back with his punch.

After a loud sound, the woman was blasted several feet away before she could stand steadily. Then she took away her mask

"Gosh, this is not fun at all! I thought my attainment was not too far from yours after the last breakthrough but I was wrong."

"Miss Sofia! It's you! Haha I had a feeling I saw you somewhere before," Severin laughed happily when Sofia revealed her true identity. It turned out the woman in the mask was Sofia from the Stormy Moon Sect.

"Huh? I also think she looks very familiar but I just can't figure out who she is. Sofia, why are you here?"

Megan jumped up excitedly when she saw it was Sofia

"You know her?" Mick was stunned.

Sofia smiled. "We're friends. I have been training hard and I finally become a level three warrior emperor. I thought I was finally Severin's opponent but I was wrong. Hey, what's your attainment? Hased on the punch just now, I presume you're at least a level five warrior emperor."

"Level three warrior emperor?"

Chapter 1242

It left everyone in awe after hearing Sofia was a level three warrior emperor. They did not expect a young girl like her would have such a high attainment.

“Oh, my god! You’re so strong! Are you one of The Three Commanders? No, wait. The Three Commanders are all male,” Blade mumbled, Severin smiled and said, “Miss Sofia is not from the mundane world. She’s a disciple of a secluded sect called Stormy Moon Sect and she’s an elite disciple in the sect.”

“Someone from Stormy Moon Sect is here?”

The commotion had attracted Severin’s six female bodyguards.

Abigail frowned. “Sir, wasn’t there a guy from Stormy Moon Sect who tried to all you? How come you’re friends with this person from Stormy Moon Sect?”

After listening to that, Sofia frowned, “Someone from my sect tried to all you?”

She thought about it. Before Severin answered the question, she asked, “Was it Meldrick? Damn it. He promised me that he won’t come alter you. I didn’t know he would do such a thing behind my back.”

Severin smiled bitterly and explained, “No, it’s not him. It’s another level seven warrior king guy. I think his name is Ronnie.”

“Mister Ronnie?” Sofia gasped and opened her mouth wide to show how shocked she was. “You’re saying he tried to kill you? No wonder I don’t see him around. Someone told me maybe he left the sect to go wander around. But it’s rare for someone to leave the sect for such a long time.”

She could not hide how surprised she felt. “I guess he was trying to seek revenge for his son. But he’s a level seven warrior emperor. Why do you look so fine? Did he realize his son was a jerk and decided to let go of you?”

Diane smiled. “Miss Sofia, based on his personality and his love for his son, do you think he will just let go of Severin? Obviously, Severin was stronger than him and killed him.”

“You kill him”

Once again, Sofia was shocked. Honestly speaking, not many people could reach the level seven warrior emperor. There were probably only a handful of people who ever had the chance to achieve that level. Yet, Severin was so strong that he could kill a level seven warrior king.

She looked at Severin with a weird and shocking expression. She thought, Just how strong is this guy? If he could kill a level seven warrior emperor, that means him at least a level eight warrior emperor!”

“Gosh! You’re really very strong. You’ve actually killed a guardian from my sect.

In the end, Sofia could not help but mock herself, “I thought you’re just a level two warrior emperor. That’s why I decided to disguise myself to ask for a fight to let you know I’ve improved. But it turns out I’m the clown.”

me to a

Severin smiled embarrassedly. "Miss Sofia, do you seriously come all the way from Stormy Moon Sect to challenge me fight?"

Sofia returned with an embarrassing smile because she really did come here in look for Severin but not to challenge him. When she went back to the sect, she could not help and kept thinking about Severin. Moreover, Severin mentioned he would welcome her with open hands if she decided to come visit him one day. Therefore, she decided to be more aggressive and came to look for Severin. Then again, Sofia was a shy girl so she would tell Severin that she came here because she missed him.

After some thinking, she found a good excuse. "I was given a mission and I have completed it. After that, I was passing by South Link City and remembered you stay here so I thought of visiting you."

She folded her arms and raised her brows, "What's wrong? Are you going to tell me you're not happy to see me and you don't welcome me?"

Chapter 1243

After hearing that, Severin laughed out loud. "Welcome to South Link City. You're my friend. Of course, I welcome you with open arms,"

On the Fontrary, Megan was a little worried. "Sofia, are you going to report back to your sect that Severin killed the sect's guardian? If your elders or sect master found out, we're going to be in big trouble. I'm worried they are going to come after him. At the moment, not many people know about it and it has been quite some while too..."

Sofia smiled gently, "Don't worry. I won't tell them. Severin was forced to kill Mister Ronnie's son because of me. Since he's already dead, I will pretend that I don't know about this."

"Great. Miss Sofia, please come in. Since you are here, do stay a while longer. I'll ask Shella, Diane, and the other girls to show you around," Severin smiled,

To be honest, Severin was quite surprised to see Sofia come to visit her. In the beginning, he extended the hospitality because he was courteous but he never expected Satia to show up.

Severin thought for a while and informed, "Hey, Sofia, you better don't show up like this the next time. You really had us scared. I kept on wondering which enemy of mine had come here looking for me."

Sofia covered her mouth and chuckled. "That's the effect I want. I want to leave a memorable impression with a surprise entrance."

Severin smiled bitterly. "Girl, that's not a surprise. It's so shocking that you nearly frightened the hell out of me."

However, Sofia did not buy it. She rolled her eyes and said, "That's too absurd. Do you think I'll believe that? I think only some of the elders or my sect master are at the same level as you. Other people don't even need to think about touching you. Needless to say, defeat you."

Suddenly, Diane said after thinking carefully. "Miss Sofia, there are a lot of empty rooms in the villa we're staying. Why don't you stay in the same villa with us?"

Sheila agreed without any hesitation. "Sure. I'll stay for a few days before heading back to the sect. It's really hard for us to come out since we are always busy training in the sect. I'm looking forward to a good holiday!"

Sheila said, "That's right. You need to relax and have some fun."

When they reached the villa, Sofia preferred the second floor so she picked a room on the second floor.

Since Sofia was there, Severin told Rachel and the others to go back for now. They were asked to come again after a few days. Now that Severin knew more about their attainment, he planned to give them some alchemical pills once they had gotten used to their current stages.

When Sofia went back to the room to get some rest, Severin told Megan to make a dinner reservation to welcome Safia. With her attainment and her ability, they must ensure that she feels welcome and comfortable while being a guest in their place.

Chapter 1244

While Sofia was resting, Severin, Sheila, and Diane went to the garden to take a walk

Diane smiled. "Well, I didn't expect Miss Sofia to come here to visit us. I thought people from the hidden sects are snobbish and dislike people in the mundane world."

After a pause,

she continued, "Especially Miss Sofia. The last time we saw her, she was a level one warrior emperor and now she had reached level three. She's so gifted but she didn't look down on us and treated us so nice and friendly."

Sheila expressed her thoughts, "Maybe because Severin saved her before. Do you remember how she disregarded the province governor of Skystream Province and the mayor of Skystream City? I bet she's willing to talk to us because of Severin."

She continued, "Other than that, there's only one reason I can think of."

"What is it?" Severin and Diane asked together and both of them looked at Sheila.

Sheila smirked while expressing a rather mysterious expression. "I bet she has feelings for you or likes you. That's the only explanation to the question."

and

Severin was speechless and smiled bitterly. "What were you thinking? Before this, you told me Yuka had feelings for me and now you said the same thing about Sofia. Do you think every woman has feelings for me?"

Sheila stuck to her own thoughts. "You have to believe me. This is my sixth sense. You should know a woman's sixth sense is very accurate."

Severin looked at Diane and asked her, "Diane, do you feel that?"

Diane smiled embarrassedly and shook her head. "I don't know. I wasn't there when you found Miss Nancy and Miss Yuka and I just saw them a couple of days ago. Plus I wasn't with you guys for a long time. I don't know what happened between all of you. So I don't know anything."

Severin felt helpless. "Anyway, I think Sofia is here because she passed by the city and wanted to have a holiday to relax. She must be grateful that I saved her life before and wanted to come see me. Sheila, stop overthinking it."

Sheila pouted. "Do you believe what she told you? She's probably lying to you. I really think she comes all the way here to see you because she likes you and she misses you. She's just too shy to tell you."

Severin nearly fainted. He said with a bitter smile, "Do you hear what you said? Am I really that charming and attractive? You make it sound like all the women in this world will fall in love with me once they see me."

Chapter 1245

Suddenly, Diane looked at Severin and said, "Well, I don't know if they like you or not. But you're really a very charming and attractive man"

Severin did not know what to say. "Diane, that's a huge compliment. I'm afraid I'm going to have far too much pride in the future."

Diane explained, "You're young and handsome. You have high attainment. And you're a second-grade high-rank alchemist. You know how popular an alchemist is. They are wanted and treated with respect everywhere they go. You have all those advantages. Do you still think you are not that attractive to women? If they don't like you, they are either blind or dead" "Alright, alright. You two need to stop or I'm going to smile even in my dream," Severin stopped them from praising him. further.

"Haha I don't believe that. You're a very mature and steady guy." Sheila covered her mouth and chuckled.

After he thought about it, he said, "Oh, Diane, I forgot to tell you. I'm a third-grade low-rank alchemist now. And I have been staying in this grade for quite some time. I think I'm going to start to make third-grade medium-rank alchemical pills a couple of days later."

"What? You're a third-grade low-rank alchemist? Does that mean you can make alchemical pills for warrior emperors now? It was only now Diane found out her husband had taken another step forward in his alchemy skills and became a third-grade low-rank alchemist. How many people would feel shocked if they knew Severin was a third grade low-rank alchemist now? Despite Diane's shocking expression, Severin was calm as if he had gotten used to people looking at him shockingly. He nodded. "But keep it to yourself. Don't tell anyone including Dad and Mom. Don't say anything unless you are forced. It's going to shock everyone in Dracodom if words get out. I don't want to see many strong fighters and strong rogue fighters coming here and forcing me to give them alchemical pills"

Diane nodded. "Don't worry, I won't tell anyone. But you can't keep this as a secret for too long. Unless you don't show anyone the third grade low-rank alchemical pills. People are going to find out when they see you with one."

Severin's mouth twitched. Suddenly, he remembered he gave a third-grade low-rank alchemical pill to Peter before he returned to South Link City.

He started to feel worried and said, "I guess I need to give Peter a call now and told him to keep it a secret.

As such, he took out his phone and called Peter,

Chapter 1246

Diane frowned at what happened and asked Sheila, "How did the Nine Draco Province's governor find out about this? You didn't mention anything about it yesterday."

Sheila smiled wryly and said, "There were so many things happening yesterday that I nearly lost my voice after talking so much. Please don't blame me for skipping over some of the details, especially since this happened just before we returned."

Diane was at a loss as to how to react to that. She said, "Well, you explained everything so vividly yesterday that even Severin's parents were listening. We want to hear the story too! Do you think you can tell us what happened with the Province Governor?"

"There wasn't much, to be honest," Sheila said. "The Nightsky's gang leader was killed, so his daughter prostituted herself in exchange for the mayor's help. However, Severin killed him along with several other elders" Following a brief pause, she then continued, "The Nine Draco Province's governor resides in Nine Dragon City too, and he was the one that appointed the mayor. The two of them always had a good relationship, so Severin's act of killing the mayor can be taken as an act of contempt to the Province Governor."

Diane understood the stakes and nodded along, "I see. So you're saying that the Nine Draco Province's governor sent some people over to cause trouble?"

Sheila laughed and said, "They wouldn't dare to do that at all. They're under the impression that they won't be able to handle someone who can kill so many of the mayor's strongest men. Then again, they must have been pretty unhappy after all that disrespect. Must be why they tried to put on a show of intimidation to try and demand justice."

Then, Sheila explained further, "Of course, we all know that Severin is a reasonable person who is easy to talk to. Since he's dealing with a Province Governor, he was courteous enough to give the man an out. Severin explained the situation to him and even handed him a third-grade low-rank pill to prove himself."

Diane quickly understood what she said and nodded. "I get it now. I was wondering how the Province Governor knew Severin was a third-grade low-rank alchemist. His level of proficiency in alchemy is legendary, and I don't think a lot of people have seen someone like him before. These types of pills are extremely precious, so it makes sense that the Province Governor would assure Severin to be a third-grade low-rank alchemist since Severin casually gave away a similarly-ranked pill"

Severin came back not long later.

Sheila frowned and asked, "It's over so soon?"

"I didn't make the call," Severin answered.

"Why not?" Diane and Sheila exchanged a confused glance with each other.

Diane asked strangely, "Aren't you afraid that they'll tell other people?"

Severin smiled and said, "I was going to, but then I decided not to. The reason for that is simple. He knows that it would reflect badly on him as a Province Governor if word got out. He would want to remain on good terms with an alchemist like me, so I'm certain that he would request his men to keep this confidential and avoid it from spreading. Besides, I only gave them a third grade low-rank pill. I didn't tell them that I was a third-grade low-rank alchemist. That would be purely speculation on their part, and I can always keep silent instead of admitting to those claims."

Chapter 1247

"That does sound reasonable. All you did was give them a third-grade low-rank pill, but that doesn't mean that you're a third-grade low-rank alchemist," Sheila said with a smile. "If they asked, you can tell them that you happened to come across that pill, or that some mysterious old man gave it to you."

Severin could not help but laugh when he heard that. "The Province Governor has already refined that pill to the best of their abilities, so it'll be a dead end for them as long as I don't admit to giving him that pill!"

Sheila's eyes lit up after hearing that, and so did Diane

"Hehe, you're a smart man!" Diane remarked with a chuckle.

Nightfall came, and the Shanahan family was getting a little excited after knowing Sofia's background. After all, they've long heard about certain mysterious forces that exist in the world. These forces were stronger than a war god and more terrifying than a commander. Sofia had meddled in such forces—she was an elite disciple in a secluded sect.

"I bet your sect has amassed many treasures. Am I right, Miss Sofia? Do you have a lot of fellow disciples? How high is the attainment of your elders?"

After everyone arrived at the restaurant, Stanley called for a few glasses of wine and asked Sofia all sorts of questions.

Sofia frowned when she heard that and seemed a little embarrassed.

Severin looked at them and made a point to remind Stanley. "Those are all sensitive questions, Stanley. She can't just all that to anyone. You're acting like a census taker, you know. That's not very good now, is it?"

it reveal

Stanley awkwardly chuckled as he scratched his head and smiled in embarrassment. "Sorry about that. I wasn't thinking very straight. Guess I'll just go back to drinking! He immediately poured himself more liquor and drank it all in one go.

Megan put him on the spot and asked, “Were you planning on telling all that to your fans? You deserve to be smacked if that’s the case!”

Stanley immediately waved his hand and said, “No, no, I wouldn’t do this kind of thing just for views. I was just curious! I swear!”

Megan then remembered something and asked him casually, “I heard that you’re a super internet celebrity now. fans do you have?”

How many

Stanley had a proud look when she brought that up. “Oh, not much. I only have about ninety million fans, and I hope I can cross the one hundred million mark this year!”

Severin was surprised to hear that. “You’re kidding! Are those all really your fans? I must admit, I’m quite surprised!”

Stanley raised his wine glass, toasted Severin, and said, “Well, I’m raising this glass to you, Severin. It’s all thanks to the bet we had that I got the chance to find my calling. That’s how I became an internet celebrity!”

Chapter 1248

Stanley paused and took a deep breath for dramatic effect, “I wouldn’t be where I am if it weren’t for you.”

Severin did not expect Stanley to undergo such a drastic change of character. Rather than holding a grudge against Severin for the so-called punishment, he seemed incredibly grateful to Severin.

Severin raised his wine glass and said with a chuckle, “Haha, I guess that’s fate for you!”

“Wait a second. What are all of you talking about? I can’t make head or tail of your conversation.” Sofia was a little bamboozled. “So from what I understand now, you became an internet celebrity because you lost a bet to Severin and had to be punished?”

Stanley smiled awkwardly. “Hehe, that’s right. I earned more than enough money after becoming an internet celebrity, and to top it all off, I was recently approached by a movie director to make a movie. It’s always been a lifelong dream of mine, and I’m pretty stoked that I now have the opportunity to make it come true!”

It was clear that Stanley did not care much about the money. that he could earn from taking up that job. He wanted nothing more than to be an actor!

Sofia smiled wryly and said, "I don't get it. How did you become an internet celebrity after being punished? Now you've got me curious about what happened!"

Stanley answered awkwardly, "Well, Miss Sofia... I can't be that direct about it."

Megan covered her mouth and laughed. "Just download one of those video streaming apps and search his name. He's the first video on the list. You'll get your answer after you watch it."

Sofia smiled. Even though she was an elite disciple of a secluded sect, her curiosity got the better of her and she immediately downloaded the app. She soon found the blurred video and was amused by what she saw. She then blushed slightly and said, "I didn't expect such a young man like you to have such a wild side. You definitely have my support!"

Stanley smiled awkwardly, and after thinking about it, he reminded her out of habit, "Don't forget to like the video! And click on follow while you're at it. It'd be great to have another fan."

she

Sofia chuckled again when she heard that. While doing so, asked another question. "You have plenty of fans, what difference does a fan like me make? I can't keep up with these things, and I probably won't even be online most of the time."

"On the contrary!" Stanley explained, "It would be a great honor to be followed by a beautiful woman like you, Miss Sofia.

Your status is so much higher than mine, and you can kill me with just a flick of a finger! I would be more than delighted to have you follow me."

His words amused Sofia yet again. "Really? Honestly, I'm pretty surprised that an internet celebrity would be this approachable."

Stanley said, "My brother-in-law is the county governor. If he can keep a low profile when the Four Great War Gods called him master, then there's no excuse for an internet celebrity like me to do the same. I appreciate what I have right now, it's more than I could ask for." Stanley then smiled and said, "My goal is to reach a hundred million fans. Now that you've followed me too, that's one more fan closer to my target."

Stanley's attitude had made a 180 turn compared to before. He turned into a humble and carefree man, much like the proverbial prodigal son.

Chapter 1249

It was an enjoyable meal that brought much joy to the Shanahans. Everyone had their fill and shared fun memories.

together. Before it was time to leave, Catherine came up to Severin. "Could you, Diane, and Sheila drop by my villa when we return? I'd like to discuss something with all three of you."

Severin exchanged a surprised glance with Diane and Sheila.

Although the old lady was the eldest figure in the family, it was Severin and Diane who had the final say regarding anything that concerned the Shanahans. After all, the Shanahans were in South County Mansion, which was truly a far cry from their days as a third-rate family.

For that reason, the old lady never asked about the Shanahans' affairs and spent her days leisurely. Severin and Diane were understandably surprised that the old lady would suddenly have something to talk to them about.

"Sure, Grandma!" Although the three of them were very puzzled, they all nodded in agreement and said nothing further.

Everyone returned home soon enough and went back to their respective villas. Severin, Diane, and Sheila then came to the villa where Catherine stayed.

"Is something the matter, Grandma?" Diane came forward and asked.

The old lady smiled and said, "I'm sure the three of you know that we used to think of ourselves as having a decent life. Alas, that was only because we were from a very small city, and our status then was merely that of a third-rate family. It is such a far cry from the heights we have achieved now."

Then, the old lady emotionally choked, "Our family made such progress in large part due to you, Severin. You're extremely talented, and I believe you're an extraordinary person."

Severin frowned, "Thank you for your compliments, but you wouldn't have called me here just to praise me, right?"

Chapter 1250

Catherine chuckled and said, "Of course not. What I'm trying to say is that the traditional human society we are in might be too small for you. You have the potential to achieve so much more. I guess what I'm trying to say is, you're free to seek personal growth as long as you can bring more stability to our family."

She paused for a moment before continuing, "The Stormy Moon Sect might be a great place for you to start. You're an alchemist, and you're also on very good terms with Sofia. It appears to me that she's doing well in the Stormy Moon Sect, so it'd be good if you could get her to recommend you as a potential disciple. You're strong enough to kill their guardians, so you'll probably get to be an elder right away. Even if you can't, you'll be fast-tracked to becoming one. What do you think?"

Diane and Sheila looked at each other with slightly odd expressions. As it turned out, the old lady had called them over to persuade Severin to join the Stormy Moon Sect. Unfortunately, she would be in for some disappointment because they had both tried persuading Severin before to no avail, he was not interested in it at all.

Severin did not immediately answer her. He asked curiously, "You could've talked to me alone if you wanted to persuade me to join the Stormy Moon Sect. Why did you call Diane and Sheila over too?"

The old lady smiled and said, "Nothing escapes you, Severin." She paused briefly before continuing, "Diane and Sheila's attainment might be a little on the low side, but they'll improve greatly with you around because you're an alchemist.

After you join the Stormy Moon Sect and become an elder, you will probably have some leeway in bending the rules and letting them in as well."

Sheila smiled and said, "The Stormy Moon Sect doesn't matter much to me. Wherever Severin goes, I'll follow. I'm his woman after all, and I'll be his woman for the rest of my life. In fact, cling to him like a koala." She then turned to Diane and said, believe Diane thinks the same way as I do too."

Diane nodded. "I stand by him. I'll be with him forever, and not even death will separate us apart. Sheila and I aren't strong, so we have no choice but to do our best not to hold him back."

Catherine nodded in satisfaction. "You're all faithful women.

Severin is lucky to have married women like you. Do you think Sofia has taken a liking to Severin? Is that why she suddenly decided to stay with us for a couple of days? Severin's an amazing man, so it shouldn't come as a surprise that even an elite disciple of a secluded sect would fall in love with him."

She then continued, "That's also why I called you both here. Both Severin and our family will benefit greatly if he's with Sofia. On the off chance that they get together, I sincerely hope that you can both be more tolerant and accepting of Sofia."

Diane's eyes shifted to a corner. She did not expect that to be Catherine's reason for calling them there.

Severin could not hold back anymore and immediately said, Well, I don't think you need to worry about that. Sofia has made it clear that she's just a passerby. I've only met her three times. Don't you think it's a little over the top to claim that she likes me?"

The old lady shook her head when she heard his protests. "My gut feeling is always correct. I might be old, but I still have a good eye when it comes to discerning people. Sofia likes you. That much I'm certain."

Sheila was surprised to know that Catherine had the same thoughts as her. Her eyes lit up immediately, and she said, "Do you really believe that's the case? I had the same feeling too. My first thought was that she came here specifically to look for him. Don't worry, Grandma. I think Sofia's a good person. The same goes for Nancy, Janice, Gracie, and Rachel."

Severin nearly passed out when he heard that. He rolled his eyes at Sheila and said, "Are you my wife or are you a matchmaker?"
