

After Prison 1391

Chapter 1391

Musa nodded with a bitter smile. "Yes. He must be a saint."

"Gosh, I really have a hard time accepting that he's a saint."

She regretted why she acted so confident when she left the sect because now she had no way to fulfill the promise she made.

Musa sighed. "Luckily we had our masks on and he couldn't tell it was us. I'm sure he has the cauldron with him. He even tried to trick us in the beginning. If he didn't have it, why don't he dare to let us look into his spatial ring?"

Stephanie thought of it and frowned. "But he did suspect if he saw us in the auction center before. Then again, he trusted what we said later. I guess our covers are not blown."

Musa nodded. "That's a good thing. Let's just forget about taking the cauldron back. We're really unlucky to meet him. I trust that your father won't blame us if we tell him what happened."

Stephanie started to guess. "I wonder if he is from another sect. I mean how could a strong person continue to remain mundane world?"

this

"Maybe. Maybe his sect knew the auction house was auctioning the cauldron from somewhere and sent him here to join the bidding." Musa replied.

"Argh, forget about it! I feel so embarrassed that we didn't get the cauldron but we can't ask the elders to come take it. It's not easy going against a saint. I guess we have to admit that we are too unlucky."

Since Severin spared them their lives, Stephanie knew better than to try another attempt. However, she really felt very awful because of the defeat.

"Severin, are you sure those two people are not going to cause us any more trouble?"

When they were back in the villa, Felicia was still a little worried.

Severin smiled bitterly. "I don't think so. They wore the masks so we can't tell who they were. I bet they are feeling very embarrassed now. So no, I don't think they will have the courage to come challenge me again."

"That's good. Very good! I'm really afraid that they are going to come to find us again!" Felicia said while patting her chest,

"Haha. Don't worry. It's not going to be a problem," Severin chuckled and assured there would not be any danger.

After that, they continued drinking happily. It was late at night when the others were finally willing to go home. When Severin sent everyone out, he went to his room to take his shower and went to Diane's room.

Diane had just had her shower too and was lying on the bed when Severin came into the room. Her face blushed and looked shy. "Are you not going to produce any akhemical pills tonight? Why did you come here?"

Severin smiled. "It's already late so I don't plan on doing that. We're going back tomorrow and I can produce more when we back. Besides, how can I resist letting a beautiful woman like you sleep alone!

Diane rolled her eyes and said, "You dirty-minded person! Why do you keep on thinking about that?"

By then, Severin had climbed up the bed and hugged Diane. He chuckled. "I'm dirty-minded? What's wrong with sleeping with my wife?"

As he said that, he wasted no time and pressed his lip against Diane's

Chapter 1392

The next day, Severin and the others packed everything and left for the airport to take their flight back to South Link City

When they arrived at the airport of South Link City, Stanley was already waiting there with the cars he arranged to pick up

"Haha! You guys finally arrive. I have been waiting here for two hours!"

He approached them when he saw Severin and the others.

Severin smiled. "Mister popular, I know how precious your time is now. What a big loss you have just because you're here waiting for us."

Stanley smiled. "It's my honor to come pick you up today. Why would that be a loss? Besides, I won't be here today without you

He paused and continued, "Besides, I was here broadcasting live before you arrived. I told my fans that I was here waiting to pick up someone very powerful. That live broadcast had me earn several hundred thousand dollars."

Severin was stunned. "You earn that much with just one live broadcast? Dinner is on you tonight!"

Stanley smiled. "Easy-peasy. I have already booked the table. Don't worry. This dinner is to welcome all of you back home."

"Then we're not going to be shy about accepting the dinner invitation," Shella giggled.

Soon, all of them got in the car and headed back to the County Mansion. When they arrived and got out of the car, Maurice and Judith hurried over and welcomed them.

When Maurice saw Severin, he asked, "Shouldn't you guys come back two or three days ago? Why did you extend the stay?"

Diane explained with a smile, "Because Severin needed to get some spiritual herbs to make into alchemical pills. There was an auction center that was holding an auction. So we stayed to join the auction. Luckily we stayed because Severin had gotten quite a lot of spiritual herbs from that auction."

Severin frowned and asked, "Dad, why did you ask? Did something happen?"

Maurice answered, "There was another beautiful woman who came looking for you again after you left. But you were not here and we don't know her. We're also scared that she did not feel welcome."

"Again? Who is it? Where is she now?"

Severin had a weird expression on his face after knowing another beautiful woman was looking for him again.

Judith smiled. "It's Sufia. She's having tea in the living room now. I don't think she's planning to leave soon because she has been staying here for a few days now. I bet she has a crush on you."

Stanley chuckled after hearing that, "It's surely a good thing. Miss Sofia has a wonderful body. Her attainment is very high and she's a member of a sect. I think both of you make a perfect couple."

Chapter 1393

After hearing that, Severin looked surprised and shocked. He had been suspecting that Sofia intentionally came over to visit him instead of passing by as she said. Then again, he did not dare to overthink it and was afraid that he was flattering himself.

Yet, Sofia showed up so quickly after her last visit. If there was nothing serious that brought her here, Severin could confirm that Sofia does have a crush on him.

"Why don't you just accept her? I think she's a nice girl and she really likes you a lot," Sheila chuckled while covering her mouth with her hand.

She just found it amusing looking at Severin's expression.

"Alright. We should head inside now. She has been waiting for you for so long. I bet she is really looking forward to having you back here." Diane chuckled.

As someone with past experience, she could understand how Sofia felt. The feelings of missing someone and the desire to meet your loved ones soon. Last time, she did not follow Severin when he and Sheila went out on a trip together. Although she was busy training, she would always think and miss Severin when she was free.

"Ahem, ahem. Stop that. We're just friends and nothing else." Severin coughed to cover that he was feeling a little shy before heading in.

Megan shouted out intentionally, "That's what you think. You just need to accept it and it's not going to be a problem!"

Meanwhile, Sofia was sitting in the living room having her tea. When she arrived here, Severin's parents told her that Severin was invited to attend Prince Philip's birthday celebration in Oolong City.

Maurice had offered her to stay since Severin was coming back in just a few days.

Nevertheless, Severin did not come back on the day he told Maurice. If Sofia did not spent most of her time training, she probably died because of boredom.

“Miss Sofia, it’s really you!”

When she was picking up the teacup to take a sip, she heard Severin’s voice. Surprisingly, she stood up and looked behind her to find Severin walking in. “You—you’re back! Oh, how was Prince Philip’s birthday celebration? I bet it must be very fun.”

At that moment, her mind went blank and she had no idea what to say. When Severin was away, she kept on hoping to see him soon. Yet, her heart was pounding hard and nervously when she finally saw him.

“Of course. There were so

people and the food was delicious. We also took a photo with the Four Great War Gods and Zeke Hubbell, the province governor of Skystream Province last night. Not everyone could have that opportunity,” Felicia answered first before Severin could say anything.

“Oh, really? Gosh, I’m so jealous. If I had come just a little earlier, I could have joined the trip too,” Sofia said with a smile.

In the meantime, she quickly glanced at Severin and bit her lips. Her cheek was gradually turning red too.

Severin was still curious why Sofia would come here again. “Miss Sofia, is there anything I can do for you?”

At that moment, Sofia felt so speechless and shameful that she nearly fainted. All these while, she had been trying hard to avoid this question but Severin that idiot did not get her and asked her that question.

Despite it being a normal question, Sofia actually found it hard to answer. During the last two days, she had been trying to come up with different excuses but none of them sounded legit. Surely, she could not just tell Severin she came because she missed him.

“Can’t I just come here without any reason? Are you saying I can only come over when I need your help?” she asked. After thinking hard, Sofia did not answer the question.

Chapter 1394

That actually made Severin quite embarrassed. “Of course, you can. You’re welcome to come anytime you want.”

As Sofia saw Diane and Sheila, a thought came into her mind. Finally, she got her excuse. “Alright, I’m going to stop kidding. I have two techniques that are suitable for Diane and Sheila so I brought them over.”

Sheila smiled, “Sofia, you’re too nice! Since we have the same surname, I’m going to treat you as my sister from now on!”

“Me too! Stay with us. When you are free, you can give us some pointers on our training. We can also ask for advice when there is something that we don’t understand,” Diane said when a great idea came into her mind.

It thrilled Sofia very much but then, her manners told her it was not appropriate. “I don’t think it’s that appropriate...”

“What’s wrong with it? Unless you look down on us and don’t want to be our sister!” Sheila pretended to say angrily and folded her arms because she knew why Sofia said that.

Only then did Sofia accept the kind gesture. “Alright then. I’m so happy to be sisters with you and Diane! Best friends forever!”

Severin was speechless. Based on this, it seemed like Sofia was planning to stay here for the long term “Umm... Miss Sofia, you’re welcome to stay as long as you want. But I’m worried that you have been used to living in the sect and the city life is not for you,” Severin said after thinking hard.

Sofia replied instantly, “No worries! I like it here. I have been staying in the sect for too long and I was getting a little bored of it. There are so many things to do here, like shopping or hanging out with Diane and Sheila. I can also use this time to relax. It’s actually quite good.”

Megan took the chance to cut in and said, “You’re going to love it. As long as you’re staying with us, it’s not going to be a problem.”

“Master, I’m here.” Just then, Benjamin came in in a good mood.

Severin saw him and smiled. “Benjamin, how’s your alchemy skill? Did you make any improvements? I guess Megan must be the one who told you we’re coming back today!

Benjamin answered, “She only told me when you boarded the plane. I did improve a little when you were away. With your help, I’d overcome my bottleneck. I’m a second-grade low-rank alchemist now.”

“What? Are you serious? Hahaha! This is great! I’m not wrong when I say you’re a natural-born alchemist!” Severin smiled satisfyingly.

Megan quickly ran over and gave Benjamin a big hug. “Wow! No wonder like you so much! Benjamin, you’re so wonderful! I love you so much!”

It gave Benjamin a scare and his face blushed because he was embarrassed by Megan’s affection towards him. “Everyone is watching.”

Chapter 1395

At that moment, Megan realized her action was inappropriate and quickly let go of Benjamin. Her face flushed red as she was feeling embarrassed. “I got too happy because I didn’t expect you to progress so quickly. Do you know second-grade low-rank alchemist is so much stronger than first-grade high-rank alchemist?”

Severin nodded. "That's right. You're different now that you're a second-grade low-rank alchemist because there are just a handful of second-grade low-rank alchemists whereas there are a lot of first-grade high-rank alchemists in this world. To some alchemists, it is their dream to become second-grade alchemists"

"Did you hear that? I'm not the only one who thinks that. Even Severin thinks the same way too," Megan giggled.

Benjamin smiled humbly. "I'm still a far stretch from you. But I'm really satisfied with where I am now,"

Megan replied, "Of course. Severin is like a god. It's hard to be like him but I think you're very wonderful. Hehe."

Just then, Benjamin flipped his hand and took out a porcelain bottle to give Severin. "Master, these are the alchemical pills I produced. There are over thirty first-grade high-rank alchemical pills and around twenty second-grade low-rank alchemical pills. This is the only way I can think of to express my gratitude to you."

Severin accepted the porcelain bottle happily. He opened it and took a look at those alchemical pills. After that, he nodded satisfyingly. "It's the thought that counts Train hard. I believe you can achieve higher results."

Suddenly, he thought of something and asked, "Oh. Do you have any second-grade medium or high-rank alchemical recipes?"

Benjamin scratched his head embarrassedly. "No I don't."

Severin smiled bitterly and said, "I'll copy some recipes for you later. Hmm. I should also give you a couple of third-grade and fourth-grade alchemical recipes too."

"Thank-thank you!" Benjamin stuttered.

In the mundane world, alchemical recipes were priceless treasures, especially second-grade medium and high-rank ones. Third-grade and fourth-grade alchemical recipes were really hard to come by.

Thus, Benjamin got so excited once he heard Severin was going to give him so many alchemical recipes. In addition, he had no idea Severin actually had fourth-grade alchemical recipes. He felt like he was dreaming.

"Do you really have fourth-grade alchemical recipes?" Sofia asked, shocked.

After all, it was shocking news to Sofia when she found out that Severin had third-grade low-rank alchemical recipes and became a third-grade low-rank alchemist. Fourth-grade alchemical recipes were really hard to find and she did not think Severin would possess them.

Severin smiled faintly and asked, "What's wrong? Do you think I'm lying? Or do you think I don't look like someone who can have the fourth-grade alchemical recipe?"

"You better keep this to yourself. Surely, you don't want those alchemists from large sects to come looking for you to take those alchemical recipes away. I mean you do know how valuable those alchemical recipes are, do you?" Sofia warned.

Severin nodded. "Don't worry. Everyone here is family and they won't tell it to other people."

After that, Severin also warned Benjamin, "You heard that. These alchemical recipes are very valuable. When you are not strong enough to protect yourself, don't let other people know you have third-grade or fourth-grade alchemical recipes."

Chapter 1396

Benjamin nodded. "Don't worry, master. I promise I won't go around bragging to people about it. Humility is a virtue, that much I am aware of. I usually do alchemy by myself in my room. I never show it off to other people."

Not long later, Catherine and others came to visit after knowing that Severin and the others had returned. Needless to say, Felicia was eager to tell everyone about her experience at Oolong City.

Diane and Sofia went shopping later in the day. Meanwhile, Severin asked to see Maddie and Eustace. He gave them the pills that Benjamin had prepared for himself and his bodyguards.

"Reaching level six warrior king is an achievement to be proud of, especially since you're the leader among the Shanahans' bodyguards." Severin looked at the two of them and smiled. "Take these pills and distribute them to the rest. Having everyone improve their attainment would be very much ideal."

Eustace expressed his utmost gratitude to Severin. "Thank you, sir. My life, and that of my sister, will be devoted wholly to you. We are prepared to risk our lives for you."

"You're one of our own now, so there's no need to be so uptight around me. Just make sure to train hard. Both your group Lillie's group will be tasked with taking care of this mansion when I'm not around."

The two siblings nodded before leaving.

"Supreme Leader! You're back." As soon as the two siblings left, Larry, Mick, Rachel, and the others came over.

Severin smiled and asked, "How did you find out about my return when I haven't even informed you about it yet?"

and

Mick said with a smile, "We keep ourselves updated with Stanley's posts. He just uploaded a video today saying that he was going to fetch someone from the airport. We figured that it had to have been you."

"News travels pretty fast it seems. Nothing escapes your attention." Severin's eyes lit up immediately as soon as he did a quick observation of their attainment. "Haha! Not bad! Some of you have already made a breakthrough to level nine warrior king! The others are at level eight, so I believe it's only a matter of time before the others reach level nine too."

"It's all thanks to the pills you've provided us. We wouldn't have been able to make such a breakthrough if we hadn't had those pills."

Severin shrugged. "We have about half a year left before the deadline. Have you managed to get any news from the other halls?"

Gracie and Rachel exchanged a smile. Rachel then stepped forward and said, "We come bearing good news. We've got news about Capra Hall."

Severin was elated to hear that. "You do? Well, that's great to hear! That took a while, but at least we have another hall

Chapter 1397

Rachel smiled. "We've only been able to get the information a day ago. We knew that you were coming back from Dolong City soon, so we were planning to tell you after you return."

"There's not much news about them though," Gracie added, "Capra Hall is now in hiding at a very dangerous place because they seemed to have offended a certain secluded family before. That's all we've managed to hear about them."

"This is going to be very troublesome. Is their hall master all right?" Severin frowned with a stern expression.

Although a secluded family might not be as strong as some sects, their strength was in no way inferior to them. Severin might not know the exact situation that Capra Hall was facing, but they were most certainly overpowered by the secluded family i they were forced to hide.

Gracie continued, "After asking around, we've come to know that this family is lawn as the Jorgens. From our understanding, they're still sending people to locate and hunt down Capra Hall. This suggests that the hall has a lot of surviving members. Their hall master escaped, but not without getting injured at that moment. I don't know what else happened after that."

After some thought, Rachel suggested to Severin, "Should we send some people to where they are?"

Severin shook his head. "There are too many dangerous places in Dracodom, and there are also a lot of hidden dangers lurking within those places. I'm pretty sure Capra Hall wouldn't have chosen such a place to go into hiding if they hadn't been put in a tight spot. I think I should go and look for them. My mental power is much stronger than yours. T'll probably be able to search for them faster than all of you!

Severin then reminded them. "Step up your efforts to search for the remaining halls, Leave Capra Hall to me."

Gracie nodded. "They're in the foggy forest. It's well known for being dangerous because there are many monsters inside and the fog also obscures your vision. That might be why the secluded family wasn't able to go in there to hunt them down."

"The foggy forest? I low that place! Severin nodded. He looked at the other hall masters who had yet to make a breakthrough to level nine warrior king and said, "Train harder. Make the breakthrough to level nine warrior king as soon as possible and make sure your foundation is stable. Once you've managed to achieve that, I'll give you some pills so you can all make a breakthrough to warrior emperor simultaneously

Everyone's eyes lit up in anticipation. Reaching the attainment of a warrior emperor was an unreachable dream for them in the past. However, they had since obtained renewed hope.

"Don't worry too much about us. We'll try our best to help you find the other halls." Larry smiled.

Severin chatted with them for a while until Diane and the others came back.

When Sofia saw all those people here, she could not help but remark with a smile, "I didn't expect that it would be so lively

Larry and others were a little curious as to who Sofia was. She was beautiful, and she seemed to have a good relationship with Diane and Sheila too. Their first thought was: 'Is she another of our supreme leader's harem?

Severin smiled awkwardly and introduced her to them. "By the way, let me introduce you to this young lady right here. She's Soda, a good friend of Sheila, Diane, and myself. You'll see her around quite frequently, and she'll also help me and the others train when she

Soda frowned. She felt that he had explained everything in too much detail.

"Sofia is a member of a sect. Her attainment is very high," Sheila added with a smile

Chapter 1398

Sofia glanced awkwardly at Sheila. "You're exaggerating, Sheila! My attainment isn't that high! I can hardly compare with Severin! His attainment is much higher than mine."

Larry exchanged with Mick and smirked. Judging from the situation, Sofia probably planned to live there permanently. Besides, she also addressed Severin as just "Severin, which seems to imply a certain degree of affection and intimacy. Even if she was not Severin's wife, she might be planning to become one of his wives.

"Why are you all here, by the way?" Diane looked at everyone and asked curiously. "Is something the matter?"

Larry explained their earlier discussions to Diane.

"That's amazing news! Now that you've found another hall, your group will get even bigger!" Megan remarked with glee.

Rachel then said, "Technically we haven't managed to find them yet. We just have information on them, and we don't know how they're doing right now. I heard that the Jorgens are still sending people to hunt them down.

"Hmph. What sort of people are the Jorgens anyway? Are they that strong? How dare they hunt down Capra Hall's people? They're asking to be killed!

Sheila clenched her fist and said angrily.

Gracie explained earnestly, "From what we've heard, the Jorgens have a level one warrior emperor and a level two warrior emperor. That alone shows that they're a very powerful force. They might not be on par with a sect, but they're on the upper end of those secluded families."

"A level two warrior emperor? Doesn't that mean they're even stronger than a war god and a commander?" Sheila was a little surprised. "I don't remember hearing about these Jorgens before."

Severin could not help but laugh at that remark as he said, "That's why they're called secluded families or secluded families! There are quite a few of them around, with hundreds or even thousands of people in one family. They also have a pretty strong background. This alone makes them more powerful than most people. Most of the time, their focus is only on working hard to improve their attainment. They will never get involved in worldly matters."

Following that remark, Severin paused and added with a frown, "I'm just curious why the people from Capra Hall provoked them. Were you able to find out the reason, Gracie?"

Gracie smiled bitterly. "I have not. Capra Hall took refuge in the foggy forest several years back. The incident happened too long ago that we couldn't find out the specific reason"

"Well, I guess we'll know only after we locate them." Severin nodded. "The foggy forest is a dangerous place, but then there are a lot of natural resources that can be used for training and attainment. If they can survive in the forest, then they might be able to use those resources and achieve a lot in their attainment. It might turn out to be a good thing. With time, Capra Hall might even be able to get revenge."

"But you can just as easily avenge them if you manage to find them, right?" Mick asked with a smile.

Sofia was a little taken aback and immediately asked Severin, "Are you going to look for them alone?"

Severin nodded. "The foggy forest is treacherous because it harbors many strong spirit beasts. It's very dangerous to send Dracodeus Temple's people there. They're better off helping me to locate the remaining halls. I still think I should locate Capra Hall by myself. Besides, my mental power is stronger. It will come in incredibly handy in that kind of place."

Chapter 1399

"Is it that dangerous?" Sheila frowned when she heard that. "Doesn't that mean I won't be able to go with you?"

Diane smiled bitterly and said, "It sounds like a very interesting place, and I would've loved to see it. But I don't think we'll be of any help at all if we go along. We might even cause you more trouble!"

Rachel then persuaded, "That is a very dangerous place indeed. Our supreme leader is no doubt strong enough to protect you, but he's not going there to enjoy himself. It's far from ideal for the both of you to go tag along"

Severin nodded in agreement. "Yes. I'll go alone"

Sofia frowned after hearing that. Her attainment was strong enough, and she wanted to follow Severin there. However, she was far too embarrassed to speak up. It seemed a little inappropriate for her to do so when even his two wives Diane and Sheila did not follow him.

Sheila glanced at Sofia and had a sudden idea. Her eyes lit up and she said, “Hey, if we can’t follow you, then why don’t you let Sofia follow you? It’s perfect!”

Diane knew that Sofia was interested in Severin, so she agreed too. “Yes! Sofia has a high attainment, and she’ll be able to support you too. Don’t you think it’ll be boring if you went there alone?”

Severin was speechless. “What are these two thinking? Don’t they know how uncomfortable it will be for a man and a woman to be with each other all the time in such a secluded place?”

Before Severin could say anything, Megan chimed in with her opinion. “Yeah! Miss Sofia has been waiting for you here for so long, and you’ll only be with her for a few hours after you return! Are you going to abandon her again and leave her alone? You haven’t even spent any time with her yet!”

Severin nearly fainted. He glared at Megan and said, “What nonsense are you talking about? Why are you using the word” abandon“? You make me sound heartless and ruthless.”

Megan realized that she had exaggerated a little, so she covered her mouth and said with a smile, “Hehe, it’s more or less what I’m trying to say. The point is, you should bring Miss Sofia with you. Don’t let her feelings for you go to waste.”

Sofia’s heart began to beat rapidly after hearing that and she blushed even harder too.

When Gracie and Rachel saw that, they looked at each other and felt envious.

Severin did not know what else to say. He did feel bad for leaving so soon. After all, she had been waiting for him for several days already, only for him to leave as soon as he returned.

After thinking about it, he asked Sofia, “Would you be willing to go with me? We can go together if you have time to spare. At least I’ll have a companion.”

Sofia nodded shyly and said, “Okay. I’ve been wanting to visit this Forest of Fog too. I’ve never been there before.”

“Okay then,” Severin said, “you can start preparing. We’ll rest tomorrow and then set off on the morning of the day after tomorrow.”

Sure. I’ll go with your plan,” Sofia said.

Sheila and Diane exchanged a glance with each other. It was quite amusing to see an elite disciple of a high-ranking secluded sect behave like a docile sheep in front of Severin.

Chapter 1400

Both Sheila and Diane believed that sparks of love would only develop if Severin was alone with Sofia, “Let’s all have dinner together later. You’re already here anyway, and we ought to celebrate the good news that you’ve successfully located Capra Hall!” Severin said to Larry and the other hall masters.

“Don’t mind if we do, then,” Larry said with a smile.

Megan then offered, “How about we go to my restaurant? We got interrupted by Franko the last time I brought you all there, so I think it’s about time I make it up to you.”

When Severin heard that, he smiled and said, "Sure! I take it you're treating us, then?"

Megan shrugged her shoulders nonchalantly and said, "Of course! It's no biggie. It's an honor that you're willing to have dinner at my restaurant. After all, you're all big shots here in South Link City."

Larry, Mick, and the rest of the hall masters could only smile. Their attainment was very high, and there were a lot more strong individuals within their halls. In the beginning, certain forces in South Link City did not know who they were and tried to cause trouble with them, but no one dared to do it anymore after seeing how powerful they were.

Everyone had a very delightful dinner later that evening. Sofia was also very happy because she was going to set off with Severin the day after tomorrow.

The next morning, Selene got up and immediately went to Severin. "Dad! Mom told me that you're going to someplace super dangerous! Is that true?"

"It is a very dangerous place for people with lower attainment," Severin explained, "but it's not so dangerous for me."

Selene then smiled and said, "Yeah! You're the strongest, and you don't need to be scared of anything!"

Severin carried Selene up. "Make sure to listen to your mother and your grandparents while I'm away. I've prepared some pills for you, and I'll leave them with Mom. She'll give them to you once you're able to use them."

Selene kissed Severin on the cheek. "Thanks, Dad. I'll train hard and become just as strong as you are!"

"I'm sure you will. You're very talented! Severin looked at her dotingly.

Since there was nothing else for him to do, he brought Diane out to the mall and spent his time at home with his parents. It was not until the next morning that he set off together with Sofia.

"Don't worry about us here. We'll train hard and keep improving ourselves, Our attainment level will probably increase already by the time you come back" Diane assured him.

Severin nodded. "Okay. I promise I'll be back as soon as possible,"
