

After Prison 1431

Chapter 1431

"Haha. Too bad, I was just passing by and I saw what you did."

Suddenly, a man jumped off from a nearby tree. He had his arms folded and placed them in front of his chest while looking at Sofia with a meaningful look Sofia looked over and balled up her hand when she discovered the man had the same uniform as the previous three people. Oh, really? It's really too bad for you then. If you had pretended that you didn't see anything, you could have saved yourself. Since you decide to show yourself, you have just expedited your death sooner."

As spiritual energy pushed out of her fist, she dashed forward and punched the man. Seeing how Sofia attacked without any warning, the man smiled and had his fist ready. A loud sound was created as both of their fists collided together.

"What the?"

The moment the two fists met, Sofia looked shocked as she could feel the power the man possessed in his body was greater than hers. The man added more spiritual energy to his fist and blasted Sofia several feet away. Sofia staggered a few steps back before she could stabilize her body.

As of then, Severin walked over to Sofia and said, "I think it wasn't too long ago that he leveled up to level six warrior emperor. You're not his match."

That had Sofia feeling at a loss for words completely. She rolled her eyes and complained, "Shouldn't you tell me that earlier? I thought he was almost the same as the previous three guys."

Severin smiled. "Weren't you the one who said you wished to fight with someone stronger than you to feel your power? Besides, he can't kill you instantly because your attainment is quite high. And the main thing is you dashed out before I could warn you. So I thought I should let you feel just how much different your power is from his."

He looked at the man and said, "If I'm not mistaken, you're already here when Sofia killed those three men. Why didn't you show yourself and save them just now?"

The man's mouth twitched violently and squeezed his brows. "Wow, not bad. You actually discovered me."

After a slight pause, he continued, "That's right. I was already here and witnessed them get killed. I didn't do anything about it because I have never liked them. It's quite nice that they are dead now. They have a lot of spiritual herbs in their spatial ring. After I kill you and her, I won't feel bad about taking the items in their spatial rings. I surely don't feel good killing them myself since we are members of the same sect."

After hearing that, Severin chuckled. "You are very confident. But you can never kill me."

The man frowned. "Never? Haha. I thought you were weaker than this woman because you were just watching from the side when she attacked me. Guess that your attainment is slightly higher than her after hearing what you said."

Then again, he continued confidently, "But I'm a level six warrior emperor. I'm one of the strongest members of the sect. I don't believe you are stronger than me and I don't believe you are capable of killing me."

"Haha. There is nothing more I can say to make you believe but you're going to know what I said is the truth later!" Severin chuckled.

As he waved his hand, a giant spiritual energy beam appeared and flew toward the man. It looked surreal and very sturdy.

Chapter 1432

"What?"

Even though Severin's attack was just a normal attack, his opponent felt threatened and realized his life could be in danger. When the attack was not far from him, he quickly transformed his spiritual energy into his palm and activated his technique.

A giant hand created from spiritual energy appeared. The hand was a few times higher than his height. After that, he felt relieved because he believed his technique was strong enough to block Severin's attack since Severin's attack was just a normal attack. Then again, he knew the situation was not in his favor when he could hardly deal with a normal attack from Severin. His wish to kill Severin was never going to happen

Suddenly, the spiritual beam and the giant hand collided and smashed together. A loud exploding sound appeared after a glaring ray flashed. The giant hand started cracking and exploded.

"No!"

The man widened his eyes shockingly. How could his technique fail to withhold a normal attack from Severin? He was amazed to realize the huge difference between him and Severin. Based on the power, he presumed Severin's attack was an attack from either a level seven or level eight warrior emperor.

"This is impossible!" His face became pale.

His attack was only able to block some of the spiritual energy beam. There was some remaining power that continued to fly toward him. As such, he quickly formed a spiritual energy shield to protect himself. Despite that, he was still feeling frightened and threatened by Severin's attack.

The moment the spiritual energy shield was formed, the remaining power of the spiritual energy beam hit the shield. The shield managed to block off some of the power before it got crushed. Whereas the remaining power of the spiritual energy hit the man and sent the man flying several feet away. As he flew, he hit a tree and the impact stopped him from flying further. A mouthful of blood rushed up his throat. He felt uncomfortable and splurged the blood out which made his face turn pale.

"Sir, sir, please don't kill me. I beg you, please don't kill me. It took me a lot of effort to have this attainment. Please have mercy on me!" the man begged.

As a level six warrior emperor, he was a person the members of the sect looked up to and would give anything to please. Definitely, not the person who kneeled down to beg for mercy and looked frightened now.

Chapter 1433

Severin walked right up to him and looked down on him just like a winner. "How can you ask me to let you go? If you didn't show yourself, I probably will consider that. But you did just the opposite and you even tried to kill us. I really can't think of any reason to let you go."

The man was in despair after hearing that. No words could describe just how remorse he felt now. He regretted being a greedy person who pried on the items in his fellow members' spatial rings and also the spatial rings of the people who killed his fellow members.

That was right. He would have never been in the situation if he was not greedy. His eyes flashed. Suddenly, he stepped and started to run to the side to get ready to fly away. Too bad, he was never Severin's match, especially when he suffered an injury. Severin moved quickly and appeared behind him all of a sudden. His hand was covered with spiritual energy and he gave the man's back a hard smack. The man dropped from the sky and was already dead before even crashing to the ground.

Meanwhile, Sofia had already collected the spatial rings from the other people. As the man was lying on the floor, she went over to collect his spatial ring too. After that, she approached Severin and gave the four spatial rings to him.

"Damn, what kind of bad luck do we have to meet so many perverts in one day? And they are all from the same sect, she said.

Severin smiled. "That's not what I feel. I think today is our hicky day."

"Seriously? Why? Sofia was shocked

Severin smiled. "We have no idea how long have they been in this forest. Maybe a couple of days which means they have already collected plenty of spiritual herbs. Isn't it a good thing that they did our job for us?

After a pause, he continued, "It's a good thing that we killed them. In this way, we can prevent more people from being their victims."

Sofia nodded and smiled. "Luckily you're the one they met. Not everyone is strong enough to kill them, especially the last guy. With his attainment, he is qualified to be a guardian in my sect. He's probably the strongest guy in this forest, other than you.

Severin smiled. "Too bad I'm the one they met. Haha. Come on, let's leave this place. The smell of the blood is going to attract the enchanted beast. Let those enchanted beast handle their bodies."

“Okay!” Sofia nodded. As she walked behind Severin, she reminisced back the time they kissed and felt shy and sweet about it.

After walking for a short while, Severin looked back and asked, “Oh, what did you say just now? Was it your first kiss?”

Sofia nodded shyly and whispered in a soft voice, “Yes. You took away my first kiss without giving me time to prepare. It was too sudden!”

Severin chuckled. “How do you intend to prepare yourself? Should I inform you before I kiss you to get your permission? And set a date and time for the kiss to happen?”

It was so funny Sofia burst out laughing. “Nonsense! You don’t look like a person who likes to crack a joke. Guess looks can be perceiving”

Chapter 1434

Meanwhile, Severin walked right up to Sofia and held her hand. With a serious expression and tone, he said, “Sofia, you don’t have to worry about anything. I’m a responsible man. I know you are a nice girl too.”

“I believe in you! I really wish I could tell Dad about this right now. He’ll be so thrilled to know it!” Sofia said happily with her Tsy check

“Your father? Does he know me?” Severin frowned and did not understand why Sofia said that.

Sofia replied, “Yes. I told him you saved me and you’re a third-grade alchemist so he knows who you are and is impressed. with how talented you are. He’s also the one who encouraged me to chase after you when I told him I like you but I’m too shy to go find you.”

Severin responded with laughter. “This is a good thing. I was afraid your father would not approve us to be together because I’m not a member of your sect.”

Nonetheless, Sofia thought there was zero chance of that happening. She rolled her eyes and said, “You’re so talented, handsome, has high attainment, and a third-grade alchemist. There is no reason why my Dad would disapprove of you. He even told me to take this opportunity to be with you. He was very certain I’ll live happily together with you.”

“Hahaha! He’s a very smart man!” Severin chuckled.

Both of them continued walking. After an hour or so, the sky was gradually turning dark.

“Do you see a cave nearby? It’s getting late. The forest is not safe at night. We’re going to have difficulty with our vision but not the enchanted beast,” Sofia said nervously as she looked up at the sky.

As they looked to the front, all they could was fog. The vision was restricted. She was concerned with their safety if they failed to find a cave to rest in.

Severin smiled. "I'm going to hunt the wild hare over there. I can show you my cooking skills after we gather some firewood. Didn't you doubt my cooking skills? It's the chance for me to let you see how good my cooking is."

Sofia's eyes lit up. "Really? Oh, ya! But the wild hare looks so cute, can we eat something else?"

Severin smiled bitterly. "Are you sure? The meat is very tender. As a fighter, you shouldn't have so much compassion toward the enchanted beast."

"Fine. Let's eat the wild hare." Sofia smiled.

After Severin accepted her and kissed her, she had been having a good mood. Both of them hunted the wild hare and gathered the firewood. After that, they went on to look for a hidden cave to rest inside.

"This cave is quite hidden. We should be safe to spend the night here," Severin said after taking a glance.

Sofia nodded. "We found eight spiritual herbs today. The level of the spiritual herb is higher the more we enter the deeper side of the jungle. And the quantity will increase too. I'm already looking forward to how much we can find tomorrow."

Chapter 1435

Severin responded to Sofia with a smile. "That's not all we got. Remember the spatial rings we collected from those guys? That loot is the main prize today."

"Oh, yes. I have forgotten about that. Why don't we take a look at them now? I'm really curious what we're going to find in them," Sofia said while her eyes lit up.

At that time, Severin was busy grilling the wild hare's meat. "Take them. Separate out the spiritual herbs and categorize them into their different grade. The same goes for weapons, techniques, and other items. You handle the loot and I'm in charge of our dinner."

Immediately, he waved his hand and the four spatial rings flew and stopped in front of Sofia, Sofia smiled and replied, "Alright. I'm not going to refuse since you entrust me to handle them."

Severin smiled. "Do you hear what you're saying? You're going to be my woman. Of course, I trust you. Besides, what is mine is yours and vice versa. Do we really need to mind about those small things?"

Those sweet words had touched Sofia's heart. Her check turned rosy. "Who are you calling your woman? I only agree to be your girlfriend so I'm not really your woman yet."

Severin smiled. "Haha. So you're saying that in order to become my woman, both of us have to sleep together first. I guess I have to work harder to achieve that goal then."

"Stop that! You're making me embarrassed!!

Within seconds, Sofia's face flushed red. She did not think Severin was capable of saying those embarrassing stuff right in front of her. However, her reaction would be totally different if it was another man who said. Maybe she would feel extremely disgusted to the extent that she would want to kill the man.

On the contrary, she had a sweet feeling hearing it from Severin. At least, she could tell Severin had feelings for her too.

After some thinking, Severin said, "Hey, try to get along with Diane and Sheila. I believe you're the type who gets jealous. easily and likes to create tension between people."

Sofia smiled. "Don't worry about that. I couldn't be bothered to do those. Didn't you see how well we got along? We have basically become best friends."

He flipped his hand and took out the secret spices he prepared to sprinkle on the wild hare's meat. The grilling

"Wow! Those perverts from the afternoon were truly disgusting but they had a lot of spiritual herbs in their spatial rings. I estimate the total amount to be more than a hundred. But just a few training technique books and combat technique books. The levels of those training techniques and combat techniques are not very high," Sofia exclaimed shockingly while she was going through the loot.

Severin glanced over and was surprised too. "Not bad. I see there are around twenty over third-grade and fourth-grade spiritual herbs. Oh, fourth grade medium-rank spiritual herb! Haha! Not bail, not bad! What a nice present from them!" Sofia had mixed feelings. "That's because you have high attainment. We're doomed if our attainments are lower than them."

After she had finished categorizing everything, slae wallowed over, sat beside the bonfire, watched at sizzling meat, and gulped. "Damn, it smells so good. I hope it tastes as good as it smells."

Chapter 1436

Severin smiled. "Don't worry. It's going to taste ten times better than the one we had before. That was not bad but mine is definitely going taste much better."

After hearing that, Sofia rolled her eyes. "Bluff all you want."

Suddenly, she remembered something. "Damn, what a loss! We had a bet. Do you remember I was going to let you kiss me if your meat is more delicious? But you have already kissed me and I haven't even eaten the meat yet."

Her subtle humor amused Severin. What great joy to discover this side of Sofia that Severin did not know before. After a while, the meat was finally done. During that period, Sofia could not keep her eyes away from the meat and looked at it with hopeful eyes

"Here, take a bite. But be careful. It's very hot.

Severin took out a dagger to slice a piece of meat to give it to Sofia Sofia blew it twice in an attempt to lower the temperature before putting it into her mouth.

“Oh, my god! This is so good! It tastes delicious. The outer layer is crispy but the inner meat is so tender. What a perfect texture!” she exclaimed after biting twice.

After that, she could not resist it anymore and started to munch away. “Gosh, this is seriously very good!”

As the daughter of a sect leader, she had enjoyed all kinds of good food throughout her life. Every time she ate, she was taught to eat like a lady, chewed with her mouth closed and slowly. That was totally out of the picture now. She ate like she had not eaten for days. Oil had stained her mouth and she could not even care to wipe it off.

“So yummy! Why aren’t you eating

After eating a few pieces, Sofia discovered Severin was not eating at all. Instead, he was just staring at her. At that time, Tralized how she behaved and felt embarrassed about it.

she

“Excuse me. I don’t normally eat like this. But this is too f*cking tasty and I couldn’t control myself from shoving it down my throat,” she explained.

Severin smiled. “I have eaten a lot before so I’m not as excited as you are. And I think it’s enjoyable to see how much you like

With that, Sofia was in love with Severin even more. She was so shy that she had a problem looking at Severin. “Eat some. I’m too embarrassed to eat more if you don’t start eating

Only then did Severin start to slice more meat off and start eating.

“Oh! I nearly forgot to take out the spiritual alcohol to go with the meat.” After eating for a while, Severin remembered about the spiritual alcohol and quickly took two bottles out. Then he passed one bottle to Solia.

“This is fantastic. Good food and good alcohol are the best pairing,” Sofia said satisfyingly after taking a big sip.

Chapter 1437

“This is so satisfying. I’m so full and I can’t eat anymore. I think my stomach is going to burst if I eat more.”

After a while, Sofia rubbed her stomach and was feeling very full. It was only then that she had the time to wipe off the oil stain on her mouth with a piece of tissue.

“Don’t worry. You got plenty more chances to eat it in the future,” Severin said because he could tell Sofia wished she could eat more.

Sofia quickly took the chance and said, “You have to remember what you promised me. You have to cook it for me every time my craving locks in.”

Severin took the chance to tease her. "Weren't you the one who asked me not to kill the wild hare because it's cute? I don't see you have a problem eating it just now."

Embarrassingly, Sofia pursed her lips and said, "Well, I didn't know it could taste this good. Think about it. Normally we can hardly finish eating an enchanted brast because they are normally relatively large in size. But this wild hare is just slightly bigger than a normal rabbit and it's just the right size for one meal."

As Severin was listening, he looked outside and said after Sofia finished talking. "Hey, Sofia. It's still early. Do you want to...?"

Sofia was stunned. All of a sudden, her heart pounded rapidly because she was feeling nervous. She had never thought Severin would want to sleep with her so quickly. Although this cave was quite hidden, she was not prepared. Not mentioning that she had only confessed her feelings to him today and it had only been half a day since they decided to be together. She did not think Severin would be so eager to sleep with her.

"Does man really love to do it so much?" Sofia wondered.

She looked at Severin and bit her lip. "Isn't it a little too fast? I'm not ready yet."

In fact, Severin was a little too shy to ask directly. He thought hard to come out with a more subtle way to ask. "I mean I have already seen your body this afternoon. So I was thinking of helping you open your third eye since you really want to learn Mind's Eye so badly,"

Sofia was stunned by the question. It turned out Severin wanted to open her third eye. Guessed she had misunderstood him again.

"Oh, god! I wonder what would he think if he knew what I was thinking just now, Sofia thought to herself.

Then she gave Severin a smile and said, "Alright, Let's do it tonight. This cave is quite hidden but I'm still afraid that someone or some enchanted beast might barged in. It's still fine if it is an enchanted beast. But how awful it would be if it was a man?"

Severin gave Sofia a solution. "Haha. Don't worry about that. I will set up a perimeter with my telekinesis. If any man or enchanted beast is nearby, I will be aware and you will have enough time to put on your clothes."

He quickly continued, "And it won't take long to open your third eye. Probably just a few minutes and it will be over. I don't think we can be that unlucky, right?"

"Ob, just a couple of minutes. Alright then," Sofia nodded and agreed.

On the other side of where they were, someone seemed to have been living there because there was some dry grass laid nicely on the ground. Sofia looked at it and walked over. Her heart was pounding.

After a few seconds of hesitation, she came to terms with herself because she realized eventually she would sleep with Severin one day to become his woman. was when she took off her dress and placed it nicely on the dry grass for her to lie down

Chapter 1438

Once that was done, Sofia looked back to see what Severin was doing. Shockingly, she discovered Severin was admiring her body. The way he looked at her had her body temperature rising as if there was a fire in his eyes that warmed her body.

“Do—do you like what you see?”

Sofia rolled her eyes and pretended to stay calm. However, she was in fact feeling so shy that her cheeks had turned red

“Of course. Will I be looking at it for so long if I don’t like it?” Severin replied.

After that, he walked over and sat down beside Sofia. As he flipped his hand, a small box appeared. He opened the small box. It was full of silver needles

“Don’t worry. It’s not going to hurt. In fact, you’re going to feel so comfortable and moan when I take the needle away,” he smiled and explained calmly

To be honest, he really looked forward to what was going to happen next

“I definitely won’t do that!”

Sofia tilted her head to the other side and closed her eyes. Suddenly, Severin became very focused on what he was doing. Gradually, he stabbed the needles into Sofia’s soft skin one by one and twisted them.

“Ahh!”

When Severin pulled out the first needle, it felt so comfortable as if a small current ran through her body that her body could not help but tremble. As Severin said, she also moaned to show how nice the feeling was. Sofia frowned vehemently and felt ashamed. She was so confident that she would control herself but the feeling was just too overwhelming for her.

Severin smiled and was not surprised with the result. “Don’t worry. Just let it out if you want to. It’s not embarrassing. Don’t try to suppress it. Diane and Shella had gone through the same thing. It’s only going to be difficult for you if you suppress it.”

Sofia was at a loss for words. Just then, Severin took the opportunity and pulled out the second needle. As time passed, all the needles were pulled and Sofia was feeling so shy that her cheek was reddish. She sat and out on her dress.

“I was really nervous because I was afraid you’re going to force yourself on me,” she said.

Severin smiled bitterly and felt speechless. “I’m not an animal and I can control myself very well. I’ll never do anything to you without your permission.”

Then again, he smirked and said, “But if that’s what you want, I would very much wish to do that.”

After that, he retracted back his telekinesis.

“Take a good rest. This is the manual on how to learn Mind’s Eyes. Take it and study it.”

As he finished parking up all the needles, he took out a book and threw it to Sofia.

Solia caught the book happily. "Oh, yeah! I can learn Mind's Eye now!" Suddenly, someone dashed into the cave without any warning

Chapter 1439

When Severin and Solia saw someone rushed in, they quickly put their guard up and looked at the person. The person was shocked to see there were people inside the cave too. Then Severin took the chance to take a good look at the intruder. It was a beautiful young lady. He eyeballed and estimated that she could be in her early twenties. There was blood at the corner of her mouth and she looked scared and frightened. Meena Carney was her name.

She quickly begged. "I'm so sorry. But could you keep quiet and let me stay here for a while? I'm being chased by some people. If they find me, I'll be dead. Please let me stay here a while."

Solia looked at Severin and noticed Severin did not have the intention to reject the request. She answered, "Alright."

Meena looked relieved but she continued to look at the entrance of the cave with fear. Then she took out a healing pill and ate it.

"Damn it! Where did she go? I'm sure she's around here! Find her? We came from two different directions and we should have surrounded her by now. It just doesn't make sense that she would disappear all of a sudden!"

Suddenly, a man's voice was heard outside of the cave. Obviously, it was the people who were trying to find this woman.

"Haha. She has a fantastic body. It's not often we see a beautiful girl like her. We surely can't let her go. Who knows when is the next time we have an opportunity like this," a man chuckled.

The other

Buy said rudely, "F*ck. I haven't slept with any woman for two weeks and here, we see this beautiful girl"

Solia and Severin exchanged looks with each other and smiled bitterly. It seemed like this girl bumped into a group of perverts.

After thinking for a while, Severin said. "Hey, Solia. I bet they have a lot of spiritual herbs since they have been here for two weeks"

Solia's eyes lit up completely. "Are you suggesting what I'm thinking?"

Severin nodded and walked to the entrance of the cave. As Meena stared at him shockingly, he said, "Hey, the girl you're looking for is here!"

"You! You b*stard! How could you betray me? Didn't you just promise that you will help me?" Meena cussed.

She was so angry that her blood pressure increased instantly which nearly made her faint. Never had she thought these two people would actually do such a thing

“Hey! There is a cave over there! Damn it! The girl is hiding in there!”

As they heard Severin’s voice, they discovered the cave and sprinted over. The leader of the group, Gilbert, had a well- groomed beard on his face. He waved his hand and instructed the others to follow him into the cave.

“There, there, there. She’s really in here. Hey, man, thanks for informing us. If not, we can never find her,” Gilbert said with an evil smile. His eyes lit up when he saw the girl they were searching.

“Damn you! Didn’t you promise to let me hide in here? I didn’t think you would actually sell me out!”

Meena stayed in a corner and felt despair. She glared at Severin angrily and hoped she could rip him apart for informing those people of her location.

Chapter 1440

“I allow them to come in but I didn’t sell you out. Aren’t you still hiding here? Severin marked as he shrugged. Meena could not believe how mean Severin was. He had obviously sold her out and yet, he refused to admit it.

“Gilbert, look That girl is even prettier than the bite we were chasing”

Suddenly, a guy saw Sofia and was amazed by her beauty.

The guy next to him said, “Haha I think God loves us so much that he sent another woman to us.”

Their intention was clear. Sofia’s beauty had captured their attention and they were planning on doing dirty things to her.

Meena smirked “This is your karma Do you think they will be so kind as to thank you for informing them? Look at what your have done. Now they are after this woman too. You have exposed her to danger too.”

Gilbert touched his beard while thinking and looked at Sofia. He then concluded that Sofia was indeed prettier than Meena

“Hey, kid. I’m going to spare you and your woman’s life since you told us there is a cave here. Go and wait outside. After we are done, you can leave together with her. How is that? Be grateful for this opportunity.”

“Haha! Gilbert is right. We have never been so kind to spare someone’s life before!” A fat guy from the group chuckled loudly.

From their perspective, Severin, Sofia, and Meena had nowhere to run anymore

Just then, Severin said, “Idiots! You have no idea why I want all of you to come in here. I bet you guys must have a lot of spiritual herbs in your spatial ring after being in the forest for a long time.’

“What do you mean? Are you thinking of killing us?” The fat guy asked angrily when he realized what Severin was implying. The smile on his face froze too.

“I don’t think this guy appreciates our kindness. Let’s just kill him!” another guy tried to persuade Gilbert.

“Aren’t you planning to sell me out when you told them I’m here?” Meena asked, shocked.

Meanwhile, Sofia approached Meena and gave her a gentle smile. “Hey, what’s your name? Don’t worry. We’re not bad guys. They are the real bad guys. We thought they have been in here for a long time so they ought to have a lot of spiritual herbs. We plan to steal it from them.”

Meena felt so surprised. “I’m so sorry for the misunderstanding. My name is Meena Carney, a level two warrior emperor. The one with the beard is the strongest among them. He’s a level four warrior emperor. Are either of you strong enough to defeat them?”

Severin responded with a smile. Without wasting more time, he sprinted to where the bad guys were. It just took him roughly several seconds to kill all the bad guys.

“What do you think now?” Severin smiled. “We were kind enough to give you a hiding place but you actually thought we were going to sell you out, I feel so disappointed.”

Embarrassingly, Maena apologized. “I’m sorry for thinking that way. But you didn’t tell me your plan before you told them I’m here. So I thought you planned to hand me over to them.”

Sofia smiled. “Haha. He said that to lure them in. He’s a saint so those guys are nothing compared to him.”
